(b) A sum added by way of Supplementary Exchequer Grant in any case where it is estimated that an increase of rates would result from the operation of the scheme (see paragraph 36).

(c) In any case where it is estimated that a decrease of rates would result from the operation of the scheme there will be deducted from the amount of the above-mentioned capitation grant for the district a sum representing a contribution towards the losses in other districts in the county (see paragraph 36).

34. Under Part IV. of the Fourth Schedule the flat rate at which the above-mentioned capitation grant will be paid will be determined by dividing one-half of the aggregate of the County Apportionments of counties other than London by the aggregate population (unweighted) of those counties, the result being taken to the nearest penny. It is estimated that the flat rate would have been about 12*s.* 6*d.* per head in the year 1926–27 if the Act had been in operation in that year.

35. Section 93 provides that for each county containing a district, the council of which have established a Maternity and Child Welfare Committee, the Minister shall, after consultation with the county council and the councils of the districts concerned, make a scheme. The scheme will specify the addition to be made to the grants payable by the Minister out of the County Apportionment to each of the district councils administering maternity and child welfare services. The Minister will in due course prepare a scheme for every such county and will forward the draft scheme to the county council and the district councils concerned, for their consideration.

36. As mentioned in paragraph 20 above, the Act makes provision, as part of the gradual process by which the new scheme is to be brought into operation, that no separately rated area * shall suffer an increase of rate poundage by reason of the operation of the scheme during the first five years in which it is in force, and that any necessary rate adjustments consequent on the operation of the scheme shall be spread gradually over the following fourteen years.

The adjustments will be based on "gains" or "losses" which the Minister is to ascertain in respect of each separately rated area in accordance with the Rules set out in the Fifth Schedule to the Act. If the calculations made under that schedule show that any such area would suffer a loss (i.e., an increase of rate poundage) by reason of the operation of the scheme, then to the General Exchequer Grant otherwise payable by the Minister to the borough or district council of the area he will add for each of the first five years of the scheme a sum equal to the whole amount of the loss as ascertained in accordance with the rules.

Appendix II. The money out of which any such additional sum will be paid by the Minister will be obtained from the under-mentioned sources :—

(A) One-half will be obtained from contributions drawn from those separately rated areas within the county which "gain" under the scheme. All the areas which gain will for this purpose give up, by way of deductions made from the General Exchequer Grants otherwise payable to their councils, an equal proportion of their gains, provided that no council will be required to give up, by way of such deduction, a sum larger than the amount of its capitation grant.

(B) The other half, together with any deficiency in the contribution arising from the limitation mentioned in (A), will be obtained from a further Exchequer grant called the "Supplementary Exchequer Grant."

The amount of each of the sums mentioned in (A) and (B) above will remain fixed for each area for the first five years of the scheme. Thereafter the amounts of any contributions so made by the areas and the Exchequer will be reduced annually by one-fifteenth of the initial amounts, and the sums received out of those contributions will likewise be reduced by one-fifteenth annually.

* The whole of any borough or district which is not subject to separate or differential rating is a "separately rated area"; and if, within a borough or district, there is a parish or other part which is subject to separate rating or to differential rating of a permanent character, that parish or part is a "separately rated area"—see definition in section 134.

37. Regulations will in due course be made under section 94 (1) (d) by the Minister for securing that the grant paid to the council of any non-county borough or other urban district which contains two or more separately rated areas shall be so distributed as to effect a rate adjustment between those areas in the manner contemplated by the Act. But, subject to these Regulations, the grant payable to the council of any such borough or district is applicable in aid of the total expenses otherwise falling to be met out of the general rate of the borough or district, including expenses of the county council as well as expenses of the borough or district council.

Grants to Rural District Councils.

38. Any grant payable under the Act to the council of a rural district will be called the General Exchequer Grant of that council and will be arrived at in a similar manner to that for the councils of urban districts, and paragraphs 33 to 36 apply equally to councils of rural districts, with the following modifications :—

(i) The capitation grant will be calculated at a flat rate which will be one-fifth of that applicable in the case of urban districts ;

(ii) In calculating "losses" and "gains" of separately rated areas, parish rates * and special rates * will not be brought into account.

(iii) Section 92 provides that, where a parish rate or special rate was levied within a rural district in the standard year, there shall, in addition to the sums mentioned in paragraph 33 (a) of this Memorandum, be set aside out of the County Apportionment a further sum which is to be paid by the Minister to the rural district council in respect of losses on account of special rates and parish rates levied within the rural district. For the first and second fixed grant periods this further sum will be equivalent to 75 per cent. of the losses on account of such rates estimated on the basis of the figures for the standard year. During these two periods the remaining 25 per cent. of the last-mentioned losses will be paid by the county council to the rural district council. The manner in which the additional sums so received by a rural district council (a) from the Minister and (b) from the county council are to be applied in aid of special and parish rates will be dealt with in Regulations to be made in due course by the Minister under sub-section (2) of section 92. Provision for periods subsequent to the second fixed grant period is contained in the section.

The Regulations mentioned in paragraph 37 will apply also to rural district councils.

Appendix II.

The grants payable under the Act to a rural district council (other than the grants in respect of parish rates and special rates) will be applicable to all expenses chargeable on the general rate of the district, including expenses of the county council.

---

* "Parish rate" means a rate or an additional item of a rate levied to meet the expenses of a parish council or parish meeting (other than expenses, if any, which are chargeable on a special rate) and includes any additional item of the general rate which by virtue of section 3 of the Rating and Valuation Act, 1925, is to be levied in lieu of a special rate. "Special rate" has the same meaning as in the Rating and Valuation Act, 1925.

Grants to County Borough Councils.

39. As stated in paragraph 20 of this Memorandum, the whole of the County Borough Apportionment will be paid to the county borough council and will be the General Exchequer Grant of the council (section 95).

40. An Additional Exchequer Grant will, under section 96, be payable to the council of a county borough in any case where the County Borough Apportionment falls short of a certain amount. This amount for the first fixed grant period is the "standard sum" increased by a sum equivalent to one shilling per head of the (unweighted) population of the county borough for the standard year. The "standard sum" for the first fixed grant period is so defined as in effect to be equal, in the case of a county borough which is coterminous with a poor law union, to the aggregate of the losses on account of rates and the losses on account of grants as estimated for the standard year. In the case of any other county borough the "standard sum" is so defined as in effect to be equal to the corresponding aggregate for that borough, increased by the loss, or reduced by the gain, of the county borough as a whole, due to any alteration of area of charge consequent upon the transfer of poor law functions to the council of that borough. "Losses" and "gains" will be calculated in the manner laid down in the Fifth Schedule.

41. Where a county borough contains two or more separately rated areas, section 97 provides for an adjustment of the "losses" and "gains" of those areas and for the payment of Supplementary Exchequer Grants in certain cases. The purpose of the Supplementary Exchequer Grant is to make good, at the cost of the Exchequer, one-half of the amount of the "loss" of each separately rated area. In the case of a county borough in respect of which an Additional Exchequer Grant is payable, these losses will already have entered into the calculation of the amount of the Additional Exchequer Grant. The section provides in such a case that a Supplementary Exchequer Grant shall be payable only if the Additional Exchequer Grant is less than one-half of the aggregate amount of the losses of those separately rated areas within the county borough which lose, and that the amount of the Supplementary Exchequer Grant shall be such that the total of the Additional and Supplementary Exchequer Grants is equal to one-half of the aggregate losses. Regulations designed to effect the rate-adjustments contemplated by the Act will in due course be made under the section by the Minister. These Regulations will deal with the method of distributing the grants between any separately rated areas within a county borough.

Grants to the London County Council.

42. The London County Apportionment will be calculated in the same manner as for other administrative counties, and, under section 98, the General Exchequer Grant to the London county council will be the balance of the County Apportionment after deducting the sums set aside for payment to the common council of the city of London and the councils of the metropolitan boroughs. The provisions as to Additional Exchequer Grants also apply to the London county council as they apply to the councils of other administrative counties (section 99). In the case of London, however, there are special provisions relating to the Supplementary Exchequer Grants (section 100). These grants are necessarily payable to the local authorities charged with the duty of making such rate-adjustments as will ensure that no separately rated area shall, for the first five years, lose by reason of the scheme.

Except in the county of London these authorities are the rating authorities. In London, because the rate-adjustments will, under the provisions of section 100, be made, not by the rating authorities, but by the county council, and by means of a differential county rate, the Supplementary Grant in respect of areas within the county will be payable to the county council.

Grants to the Common Council of the City of London and to the Councils of Metropolitan Boroughs (section 98).

43. The only grant payable under the Act to each of these councils is the General Exchequer Grant of that council. These grants will be set aside by the Minister out of the London County Apportionment and paid by him to each council. They will not be calculated in the same manner as those set aside for county districts out of the County Apportionments of Counties other than London, but will be more analogous to the General Exchequer Grants payable in the case of county boroughs. Thus, the General Exchequer Grant payable to each of these councils will, for the first fixed grant period, be the sum of the following amounts :—

(i) 75 per cent. of the aggregate of the losses on account of rates and the losses on account of grants of the council.

(ii) a grant based on population weighted by the children and rateable value factors only, and calculated at one-third of the rate per head applicable in the case of county boroughs.

An appropriate proportion of the expenditure and grants of the Receiver of the Metropolitan Police District will for this purpose be regarded as rates and grants of the council of each metropolitan borough [section 108 and Fourth Schedule, Part II., paragraph 6 (b)].

Sub-section (4) of section 98 provides that the London (Equalisation of Rates) Act, 1894, shall cease to have effect as from 1st April, 1930.

Payment of Grants.

44. Section 103 provides that the new grants shall be payable as and when the Treasury may direct.

The proposal as regards the payment of the grants for the transitory period will be found in paragraph 7 of this Memorandum.

As regards the new Exchequer grants payable after 1st April, 1930, it is contemplated that eight payments will be made in each year and that the method of payment will be that adopted in the case of grants from the Local Taxation Account, namely, by payment to the banking account of the local authority's treasurer through the head office or the London agent of his bank. It is proposed that the first payment of grant shall be made in May, 1930. It is intended to send a further communication to local authorities on this subject in due course.

V.—OTHER FINANCIAL PROVISIONS IN PART VI. OF THE ACT.

Voluntary Associations carrying out Health Services.

45. Direct grants will no longer be payable to these associations by the Minister, but will be replaced by contributions payable to them by local authorities. In the case of voluntary associations providing maternity and child welfare services (section 101) or services for the blind or mental defectives (section 102) the amounts of these contributions will be determined by schemes to be approved or made by the Minister. As regards the schemes under section 101 relating to the maternity and child welfare services, Memorandum L.G.A. 5 has already been addressed to county and county borough councils. Section 102 also provides for a scheme to be made by the Minister to determine the amounts of the contributions payable by the councils of counties and county boroughs in Wales and Monmouthshire to the Welsh National Memorial Association in respect of the treatment of tuberculosis.

Section 106 provides that the Minister, at the request of the council of a county or county borough, may pay the contribution of that council directly to any voluntary association and deduct the amount of such payment from the General Exchequer Grant of that council.

Appendix II.

Power of the Minister to reduce grants.

46. Section 104 provides that in circumstances specified therein the Minister may, subject to confirmation by Parliament, reduce by such amount as he thinks just the amount of grant payable in any year under the Act to any council.

Power of the Minister to make Regulations.

47. Section 108 gives the Minister the power to make Regulations for giving effect to the provisions of Part VI. of the Act, and provides in particular that Regulations may be made as to—

(a) the manner in which the expenditure of joint authorities is for the purposes of Part VI. to be apportioned between the areas of the constituent authorities ;

(b) the manner in which the new grants are to be adjusted in connection with alterations of authorities or boundaries taking effect on or after the 1st April, 1930 ; and

(c) the manner in which estimates and calculations are to be made for the purposes of Part VI., and the manner in which the necessary information for those purposes is to be obtained.

Such Regulations, when made, must be laid before Parliament.

Adjustments necessitated by alterations of area, etc., taking effect between 1st April, 1928, and 1st April, 1930, will be made by the Minister under section 111.

VI.—SUMMARY OF THE STEPS NECESSARY TO BRING THE NEW SCHEME OF GRANTS INTO OPERATION.

48. It has already been explained that the new grants payable to any individual local authority cannot be determined until the amount of the General Exchequer Contribution for England and Wales has been estimated, and that in order to estimate this amount it is necessary, among other things, to ascertain the loss on account of rates for every separately rated area. The loss on account of rates is calculated in part from the rate-borne expenditure of the standard year, and accordingly it is of the utmost importance that information sufficient to enable the Minister to estimate the amount of this expenditure shall be furnished at the earliest possible moment. It will be appreciated that, even when all the material is available, the necessary calculations will involve much labour and time. The Minister is of opinion that, in order that the new scheme may be brought into operation with the minimum of inconvenience to ratepayers and local authorities, the work to be done under Part VI. of the Act should progress at a pace which will enable him to indicate to every local authority early in 1930 the amount which will be paid to them during the financial year 1930–31 out of the new grants and the dates by which payments will be made. It is necessary for this purpose that both the department and the local authorities shall work to a time-table.

49. Several of the dates by which particular items of information must be in the hands of the Minister have already been given in this Memorandum, but for convenience a summary of the chief stages in the contemplated procedure and the latest dates by which those stages should be completed is appended :—

Steps to be taken.	Date by which to be taken.
Local authorities to close their accounts for the year 1928–29.	As soon as possible after 31st March, 1929.
Issue by the Minister of Regulations as to, and forms for, statements to be prepared by local authorities, showing their income and expenditure in respect of the year 1928–29, or in appropriate cases their receipts and payments during that year.	Ditto.
Boards of guardians, and joint authorities representative only of those boards, to furnish such statements not later than the 31st May.	April and May, 1929.

Appendix II.

Steps to be taken.	Date by which to be taken.
Rural district councils and joint authorities representative only of rural district councils to furnish the above-mentioned statements not later than the 30th June.	May and June, 1929.
Councils of municipal boroughs (not being county boroughs) all of whose accounts are subject to audit by district auditors, councils of other urban districts (not being boroughs) and joint authorities upon which any of those councils are represented, also to furnish the above-mentioned statements not later than the 30th June.	Ditto,
County and county borough councils to be informed on or about the 30th June of the amounts payable to them out of the Local Taxation Account for 1928–29 in respect of the Estate Duty Grant and other "assigned revenues."
Councils of counties and county boroughs, and councils of other boroughs (including the common council of the city of London and metropolitan borough councils but excluding the municipal boroughs mentioned above), and all authorities not already mentioned, to furnish the above-mentioned statements not later than the 31st July.	June and July, 1929.
Issue by the Minister to rating authorities of forms for returns as to (i) rateable value and reduced rateable value, according to lists in force on 1st October, 1929; and (ii) the actual (or, in some cases, the closely estimated) product of 1*d.* rate for the half-year ending 30th September, 1929.	September, 1929.
Issue by the Minister to rating authorities of forms of claim for grants in respect of the transitory period.
Rating authorities to forward to the Minister returns as to rateable value and reduced rateable value.	October, 1929.
Rating authorities to forward to the Minister their claims for grant in respect of the transitory period.
Rating authorities to forward to the Minister, as early as possible in the month, the above-mentioned returns as to the product of 1*d.* rate for the half-year ending September, 1929.	November, 1929.
Payment to be made to rating authorities of the first instalment of the grant for the transitory period.
Payment to be made to rating authorities of the second instalment of the grant in respect of the transitory period.	December, 1929.
Notification to each local authority entitled to grant of the amount of the grant to be paid to it during 1930–31.	February, 1930 (early in).
Payment to be made to rating authorities of the third instalment of the grant in respect of the transitory period.	February, 1930.
Payment to be made to rating authorities of the fourth instalment of the grant in respect of the transitory period.	March, 1930.
Payment to councils of counties, boroughs and districts of the first instalment of the new Exchequer Grants for 1930–31.	May, 1930.

APPENDIX.

RULES FOR DETERMINING WEIGHTED POPULATION.

(Part III. of the Fourth Schedule.)

I.—As stated in paragraph 30 of this Memorandum, the Act provides (section 88) that ultimately (i.e., from the 1st April, 1947) the whole of the General Exchequer Contribution for England and Wales shall be apportioned amongst the several counties and county boroughs therein on the basis of weighted population, but that during the first two fixed grant periods (i.e., during 1930–37) only part—approximately one-third—is to be so apportioned. The Act also provides (section 110) that before the expiration of the second fixed grant period, i.e., before the 31st March, 1937, the working of the rules as to the calculation of weighted population shall be inquired into and reported upon to Parliament.

II.—For the purposes of the Act the weighted population of each administrative county, each county borough and (in a modified form, see paragraph 43) of the city of London and each metropolitan borough, will be determined. It will not be necessary to determine the weighted population of any parish, district, or other area within an administrative county, county borough, or metropolitan borough.

III.—Weighted population for each county and county borough will be determined for the period 1930–37 in the following manner :—

(1) The population as estimated by the Registrar-General (hereinafter referred to as "the population") will be increased :—
  (i) where the proportion of children under 5 years of age per 1,000 of the population is more than 50, by the percentage which the excess over 50 bears to 50 ; and
  (ii) where the rateable value per head of the population is less than £10, by the percentage which the amount of the difference between £10 and the rateable value per head bears to £10.

(2) The population, as increased under (1) above, will be further increased :—
  (iii) where the average number of unemployed insured men, plus 10 per cent. of unemployed insured women, as certified by the Minister of Labour, expressed as a percentage of the population, exceeds one-and-a-half, by a percentage equal to 10 times the excess ; and
  (iv) in the case of administrative counties only, and excluding London, by a percentage in respect of sparsity of population : this percentage will be arrived at as follows :—
    (a) Where the population per mile of public road is less than 100, the percentage addition will be the percentage represented by the proportion which the difference between 200 and the population per mile of road bears to 200 ;
    (b) Where the population per mile of public road is greater than 100, the percentage addition will be the percentage represented by the proportion which 50 bears to the population per mile of road.

IV.—The following example shows the method of applying the factors in a hypothetical county the population of which is taken to be 400,000, the rateable value per head £4, the percentage of unemployment 2½, and the population per mile of road 250 :—

(1) The population		400,000
(i) Number of children under 5 years of age per 1,000 of the estimated population	90
Excess of 90 over 50 is 40, which is 80 per cent. of 50. Therefore, add 80 per cent. of 400,000	=	320,000
(ii) Rateable value per head	£4
£4 is less than £10 by £6, which is 60 per cent. of £10. Therefore, add 60 per cent. of 400,000	=	240,000
Total of foregoing numbers		960,000
(2) (iii) Percentage of unemployment as certified by Minister of Labour	2½
Excess of 2½ per cent. over 1½ per cent. is 1 per cent. ; 10 times this excess is 10 per cent. Therefore, add 10 per cent. of 960,000	=	96,000

(iv) Population per mile of road	250
250 being greater than 100, the percentage addition is represented by the proportion which 50 bears to 250. 50 is 20 per cent. of 250. Therefore, add 20 per cent. of 960,000	=	192,000
Weighted population of county, being total of foregoing numbers		1,248,000

County Borough Councils.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACT, 1929.

SUBMISSION OF SCHEMES UNDER SECTION 4 AND SECTION 101 OF THE ACT.

1. Transfer of Functions of Guardians (section 4).

The Minister desires to be furnished with twelve copies of every scheme submitted by the council of a county or county borough under section 4 of the Act, two of which should be sealed copies.

These copies should be accompanied by a note of any proposed appropriation of poor law premises for the purposes of some other Act administered by the council.

Where the council have included in their scheme a declaration under section 5 of the Act of 1929 in respect of any particular service involving institutional treatment, it will be appreciated that it is necessary for the Minister, in considering the scheme, to be furnished with information as to the appropriation of any institutions proposed to be used for these services. In other cases the fact that appropriation may be under consideration should not delay the submission of the scheme, but any information available as to the council's proposals should be forwarded.

A statement of the position in regard to the agreements made, or to be made, with the councils of adjacent areas in regard to the allocation of the property or officers of a poor law authority which is partly within the county or county borough should also be furnished.

The scheme should be accompanied, or followed as soon as practicable, by a copy of each newspaper containing the notice published in accordance with section 8 (1) of the Act, and, in the case of a scheme submitted by a county council, by a certificate of the clerk of the county council that a copy of the scheme has been sent to the council of each district wholly or partly within the county. Forms of notice and certificate which may be used for this purpose are appended.

The Minister would remind the council that normally the latest date for the submission of a scheme under Part I. of the Act is the 27th September, 1929. The scheme should therefore be adopted by the council at the latest at a meeting held in the course of September. Where no ordinary meeting of the council will be held in that month, it will be necessary either to adopt the scheme before the summer vacation or to hold a special meeting of the council for its adoption, unless the council, after approving the main outline of the scheme, are willing to remit to a suitable committee its actual drafting and submission.

It will be remembered that the Minister is bound to give consideration to any representations received from any local authority or other party who appears to him to be interested within four weeks of the publication of the prescribed notice of the making of a scheme, and it will be desirable for the council to make such arrangements as will enable them to deal promptly with any communications which the Minister may address to them on the subject of such representations. This will of course be of special importance where the council meet only at considerable intervals.

Appendix II.

2. Contributions of Councils in respect of Public Health Services (section 101).

With reference to Memorandum L.G.A. 5 of the 18th April, 1929, attention is again drawn to the requirement that the first schemes prepared under section 101 of the Act must be submitted to the Minister by the 30*th September next.* There is no provision in the Act enabling the Minister to extend the time for the submission of these schemes, and if in any case the scheme is not ready for adoption by a council at their last meeting before the summer vacation, it will be necessary to hold a meeting of the council in August or September for the purpose of adopting the scheme.

The Minister desires to be furnished with three copies of every scheme submitted under section 101 of the Act.

Memorandum L.G.A. 22.

Councils of Certain County Districts.

1. LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACT, 1929.
2. MATERNITY AND CHILD WELFARE.
3. VOLUNTARY ASSOCIATIONS.

1. Section 101 of the Local Government Act, 1929, requires the council of every county, six months at least before the beginning of each fixed grant period, to prepare and submit to the Minister for his approval a scheme for securing the payment by the council of annual contributions towards the expenses of voluntary associations, if any, providing maternity and child welfare services in or for the benefit of the county. Subsection (2) provides that the associations to be included in these schemes are (a) those whose services are approved by the Minister immediately before the appointed day; and (b) those whose services are not so approved but are utilised by the council.

2. Section 101 (4) provides that a scheme made by a county council under the section shall determine whether and to what extent the services provided by any voluntary association are such that contributions thereto should be paid by a council of a district in the county who have established a maternity and child welfare committee under the Maternity and Child Welfare Act, 1918; and that where the scheme provides for such contributions being made by the council of any district a copy thereof shall be sent to that council by the county council when the scheme is submitted to the Minister. The subsection proceeds to impose on the council of the district the duty of preparing and submitting to the Minister within three months after the receipt of the said copy, a scheme for the payment of such contributions by the council.

3. Clause 4 of the scheme made by the county council under section 101 determines that the maternity and child welfare services provided by the voluntary association(s) named in column 1 of the Second Schedule to the scheme are such that contributions thereto should be paid by the council(s) of the district(s) named in column 2 of that schedule. It is, therefore, the duty of the $\begin{Bmatrix}\text{town council}\\ \text{urban district council}\end{Bmatrix}$ to prepare and submit to the Minister within three calendar months after the receipt of a copy of the scheme made by the county council, a scheme for the payment of such contributions by the $\begin{Bmatrix}\text{town council}\\ \text{urban district council}\end{Bmatrix}$.

4. Copies of a model scheme which the Minister has caused to be prepared for use by the council of county districts are enclosed with this memorandum. The Minister will be prepared to approve schemes on the lines of this model, and he suggests that the council should adopt this form of scheme.

5. A statement (in duplicate) is enclosed showing the amount of the grant paid by the Minister in respect of the standard year to the association(s) named in column 1 of the Second Schedule to the scheme of the county council. The statement contains a column for the amounts, if any, of the contributions paid by the council of the county district to the association(s) in respect of that year, and this column should be completed and one copy of the statement returned to the Minister as soon as possible.

6. The Minister will be glad on request to furnish the council with any information in his possession as to the activities or finances of the association(s) included in the statement, but before preparing their scheme the council should communicate with representatives of the association(s) with a view to obtaining particulars of the services now being rendered and proposed to be rendered during each of the three years comprised in the first fixed grant period, together with information as to the present and probable future cost.

7. Regard should of course be had to this information in considering the amounts of the annual contributions to be specified in the scheme, and the Minister is of opinion that, save in exceptional circumstances, the amount specified for each association should be not less than the total of the sums received by association in respect of the standard year from the Minister and the council, respectively. In framing the scheme to be made under section 93 of the Act for increasing the sum to be set aside out of the county apportionment in respect of the district, the Minister will take into account the amounts of the contributions for the payment of which provision is made in the scheme of the council under section 101 (4).

Councils of Certain County Districts.

MATERNITY AND CHILD WELFARE.

Scheme made by the Council of the $\left\{\begin{matrix}\text{borough}\\ \text{urban district}\end{matrix}\right\}$ of under section 101 (4) of the Local Government Act, 1929, for securing the payment by the Council of annual contributions towards the expenses of voluntary associations providing maternity and child welfare services in or for the benefit of the $\left\{\begin{matrix}\text{borough}\\ \text{urban district}\end{matrix}\right\}$.

1. (i) Subject to the conditions prescribed in paragraph 2 of this scheme the Council of the $\left\{\begin{matrix}\text{borough}\\ \text{urban district}\end{matrix}\right\}$ of (hereinafter referred to as "the Council") will, in each of the three financial years 1930–31, 1931–32 and 1932–33 pay by way of annual contributions to each of the voluntary associations named in column 1 of the schedule to this scheme, the sum specified in column 2 of that schedule and placed opposite to the name of the association.

(ii) Such annual contribution shall either be paid in a single sum before the 30th September in each year, or may, by arrangement with the voluntary association concerned, be paid in equal half-yearly instalments.

2. It will be a condition of the payment of a contribution to any voluntary association under this scheme—

(i) that the Council are satisfied as to the efficiency of the maternity and child welfare services provided by the association, and that such services are being used by a reasonable number of those persons for whom the services are provided;

(ii) that no reduction or alteration of such services is made without the consent of the Council;

(iii) that such services, and any premises in which those services are carried on, are open to inspection at all reasonable times by an officer of the Council duly authorised by the Council and by any officer of the Ministry of Health appointed for that purpose by the Minister.

(iv) That the association sends to the Council in each year a copy of the annual report of the association on the maternity and child welfare works of the previous year together with a statement of the accounts of the association for such year relating to that work and a copy of the auditor's certificate thereon and furnishes the Council from time to time with such other information relating to the maternity and child welfare services provided by the association and the expenditure thereon as the Council may reasonably require;

Provided that the Council shall not terminate or make any reduction in the annual contribution payable to an association on the ground that any of the foregoing conditions are not fulfilled except with the consent of the Minister of Health.

3. Any dispute or difference between the Council and an association in connection with any matter arising out of this scheme shall be referred to the Minister of Health whose decision shall be binding and final upon the Council and the association.

Appendix II.

4. This scheme shall come into operation on the 1st day of April, 1930, and continue in force until the 31st day of March, 1933, subject to any alteration which may be made by the Council with the approval of the Minister of Health under section 131 (2) of the Local Government Act, 1929, or by the Minister under section 101 (5) of that Act.

Memorandum L.G.A. 24.

County Councils.
Town Councils.
Urban District Councils.
Rural District Councils.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACT, 1929.

REVIEW OF COUNTY DISTRICTS.

I.—GENERAL PURPOSE OF MEMORANDUM.

1. The object of this memorandum is to suggest to county councils the procedure and the considerations to be observed in reviewing the areas of county districts. It also sets out the information which will be essential for the Minister in considering proposals, and other information which may be found desirable for the purpose of enabling county councils and the Minister to come to a decision.

In giving this advice the Minister desires only to assist county councils and in no way to interfere with their discretion as to the procedure for the conduct by them of the review.

II.—PROCEDURE.

2. County councils will probably consider it desirable to appoint a special committee to deal with the review, and to allocate to the committee the services of an official, under the clerk, thoroughly conversant with the subject.

The Act does not authorise the holding of public inquiries by county councils. The intention is that the proposals should be formulated after conferences with representatives of local interests, and that any public inquiry that may be necessary should be held by the Minister after the proposals are submitted to him (proviso to section 46 (4)).

While the Act only requires county councils to confer with the district councils in the county, it is desirable that, wherever it appears that there would be advantage in consulting representatives of other local bodies—for example, parish councils and parish meetings—this course should be taken at an early stage. A better understanding will thus be promoted, and objections to proposals possibly avoided.

After a preliminary survey of the position, the committee would do well to arrange as soon as possible for the necessary consultations with the councils of the various districts. These consultations are likely to be of greatest service if they are of informal character, so as to obtain a frank interchange of views in the friendliest spirit.

If in any case it is thought advisable to have local and public investigation, the special committee might make an informal visit to the district. The visit might be advertised with a notification that it would be open to any person interested to attend, but it would not be a statutory inquiry, and the costs of the visit could not be recovered by the county council. The visit would, in fact, be merely an informal conference, but could be local and public.

3. Following on the consultation, the county council could frame tentative proposals and submit them to the local authorities concerned for their observations, including, where appropriate, the parochial authorities, before framing the final proposals for submission to the Minister. It is well that liberal publicity should be given to the tentative proposals in order that the county council may have the opportunity of considering any representations from other interested parties before the final recommendations are arrived at by the county council.

The Act requires the county council, before making their proposals, to consult with the councils of the county boroughs adjoining the county (proviso to section 46 (1)).

The final proposals, together with the report of the county council's review, must (unless the Minister in any case extends the date) be submitted to him not later than the 1st April, 1932 (section 46 (1)).

The county council, if they so desire, can review the county in parts instead of as a whole (section 46 (1)), but if this course is adopted the area to be reviewed must be self-contained and such that the review of the other parts of the county will not affect or be affected by it.

The review must deal with all the changes which are contemplated, whether relating to county districts or parishes. It is not competent for the county council to submit proposals for county districts and then later to submit proposals as to parishes in those districts. All the proposals must be included in one scheme, and, as there cannot be another general review for at least ten years (section 47 (1)), it is desirable that the review should be comprehensive.

III.—CONSIDERATIONS TO BE TAKEN INTO ACCOUNT.

4. Attention has already been drawn in Memorandum L.G.A. 15, issued on the 17th May last, to the remarks of the Royal Commission on Local Government in their second Report that they "are of opinion that the need for a general review of areas of county districts and parishes has been established. The representatives of the local authorities have not dissented from the view that there are at present authorities who cannot efficiently discharge the functions entrusted to them, and that a review of areas should be undertaken in order to see how far ineffective units can be eliminated by reorganisation" (page 15, paragraph 39). The Commission further state (page 25, paragraph 61): "The primary object of the reorganisation of areas recommended by us, and, indeed, of all alterations of local government areas, being to improve their local administration, we are hopeful that the adoption of our proposals on this subject and of those in our First Report will result in the elimination to a large extent of those councils of county districts who by themselves are not strong enough financially to perform the essential sanitary services, and that most parts of the country will be within the jurisdiction of local authorities who are able to discharge their duties without further financial assistance." The Commission recognised that probably "some councils of county districts will remain who either are or will become financially incapable of carrying out essential services, particularly the provision of a proper water supply and a system of sewerage and sewage disposal"; but there are now a large number of such districts, and the review and proposals of the county council must be of a thorough nature if the object stated by the Royal Commission is to be achieved, namely, to secure that districts shall form good local government units readily and economically administered and with sufficient financial means to carry out their duties in a satisfactory manner. Exceptions should not be made unless there are the strongest local reasons. Many of the present areas have been formed long years ago under conditions far different from those of the local government of to-day. Hitherto there has not been any systematic review so as to bring areas more into accord with requirements. This important task now devolves on the county councils, and it is for them to rise to the measure of the opportunity.

5. County councils will probably find cases in which it will be necessary to suggest alterations of some or all of the following types:—

(1) Alteration of the boundaries of boroughs and urban districts;
(2) De-urbanisation of small districts;
(3) Amalgamation of urban districts;
(4) Formation of new urban districts;
(5) Alteration of the boundaries of rural districts;
(6) Amalgamation of rural districts;
(7) Alteration of the boundaries and parishes and amalgamation of parishes; and

(8) Minor alterations of district and parish boundaries for the purpose of removing anomalies due to detached parts and unsuitable or inconvenient boundaries.

The council will bear in mind that another comprehensive review cannot be made for ten years. They should endeavour, therefore, not only to effect the changes required by present conditions, but also, as far as can be foreseen, changes which are desirable in view of prospective developments.

6. It will be observed that the Act of 1929 follows section 54 of the Local Government Act, 1888, in retaining the word "desirable" as the criterion of the merits of proposals for altering the areas of county districts and parishes. The Royal Commission in their first Report (page 463, paragraph 1235) stated that, while the process of determining whether the word "desirable" applied to a particular proposal could not be reduced to a rigid form, it means that a proposal must be desirable in the interests of all concerned, and that, if the various interests are divergent, the question must be decided on an equitable balance as between those interests.

7. The following paragraphs contain observations on some of the principal considerations which will have to be weighed by county councils in arriving at their recommendations.

(1) Financial strength and general good government.

As already indicated, the paramount consideration is the delimitation of areas so that local authorities are not only willing but able to discharge their functions with efficiency and with fullest return for the time and money spent on their work. While paying reasonable regard to other circumstances, care should be taken that they are not allowed to obscure the main object of the review. In order to be in a satisfactory financial position a district should, wherever possible, have sufficient resources to provide all the necessary sanitary and other services without special assistance. The advantage of being able to employ fully qualified whole-time officers should also be borne in mind.

County councils may have to consider the union of districts which may not have much in common but which, nevertheless, would form a satisfactory unit of local government. In some counties the existing assessment areas might be considered for such units. In the case of small urban districts it will be necessary to consider whether it is desirable on the grounds of financial ability and general efficiency that they should be continued or whether they should not be added to adjoining boroughs or urban or rural districts. The past records of such districts in providing necessary services should help the county council in arriving at their conclusions. Where for special local reasons it is proposed that a small urban district should be continued, it might be considered whether for convenience of administration the district might be made the centre of a larger area, including possibly undeveloped rural areas. Such cases would, however, require careful consideration so that there shall be a reasonably fair distribution of local burdens.

The provision of sewerage and sewage disposal and other sanitary works will be a factor of some importance, though not a governing consideration, as it does not always follow that the whole of a local government area should necessarily be provided with all its services by one authority, and various enactments enable agreements between authorities to be made in such matters. Weight should, however, be given to reasons showing that an alteration of areas will facilitate substantial improvements in sanitary services not otherwise likely to be achieved.

(2) Wishes of the inhabitants.

The question of the weight to be given to the wishes of the inhabitants has always given rise to differences of opinion.

The Minister sincerely trusts that local electors will recognise to the full the importance of securing efficient units of local government, and will acquiesce in the alterations requisite to attain that object. Due care will no doubt be taken to see that the case for the alterations is fully explained to and appreciated by local electors, and their views will be carefully weighed. In the last resort, however, the consideration of the public advantage must prevail.

(3) Equity of local burdens.

The distribution of local burdens between ratepayers in different areas has always been a factor in boundary questions. The position in this respect will be materially affected, and in many cases may be substantially eased, by the new system of General Exchequer Grants, and alterations which are desirable for administrative reasons may thus be facilitated.

(4) Community of interest.

Community of interest is an important element in proposed alterations o boundaries, but the term is often loosely used.

The expression is not rightly used when, for instance, there is but one interest in common between the areas. It applies to a general common interest in a variety of matters, such as a common centre for industry, shopping and amusements, and sharing in various common services. None of these matters taken singly can be regarded as constituting a community of interest, but taken as a whole they may have a decisive bearing, especially in proposed extensions of boroughs and urban districts. But even this factor must be conditioned by the primary consideration, improvement of local government, and should by no means be accepted as conclusive if this object would be hindered.

8. Whilst bearing in mind the foregoing and other pertinent considerations, county councils should make every endeavour to obtain agreement on their proposals. Experience indicates that a large measure of agreement, if not complete agreement, is usually possible where there is frank consultation and discussion between the parties and a reasonable spirit of accommodation.

9. Where it is proposed to convert what is now an urban area into a rural area, it may tend to remove opposition if the rural district council indicate that they are prepared to delegate functions to a parochial committee.

In cases where an alteration of areas is proposed with a view to the provision of services in a particular area, it may assist to remove opposition if the local authority are willing to give a definite undertaking to provide the required services as soon as possible.

IV.—INFORMATION TO BE OBTAINED.

10. To apply the above principles the county councils will find it necessary to consider the present administrative, sanitary and financial circumstances of the districts, and much of the information on these subjects will, no doubt, have to be obtained from the local authorities themselves. In cases which are of a fairly simple nature, or where there is agreement or a large measure of agreement, little special information will probably be required, whilst in others, where there are strong differences of opinion, a good deal of special information may be necessary, but it is important that the particulars asked for in each case should not be more than necessary for dealing with it.

In order to assist county councils, the Minister has prepared two sets of forms, copies of which are enclosed, indicating—

(a) information which will be required by him in all cases, including that needed for drafting the orders ;

(b) information which the county council may find it desirable to obtain in whole or in part according to the circumstances of the particular case.

If the county council make use of these latter forms they will, of course, use them where, and in so far as, they are suitable, but their use may save formidable statements containing masses of unnecessary material, and the experience of the Ministry is that they simplify the procedure and save much time and trouble.

Where used, copies of the forms duly filled up should accompany the county council's report to the Minister.

V.—ADVICE ON SPECIAL MATTERS.

Differential Rates.

11. Differential rating should not be allowed unless warranted by exceptional circumstances. It should be regarded, moreover, not as a factor in deciding proposals, but merely as a consequence rendered imperative for equitable treatment on the alteration of an area. The introduction of derating, the changes in the distribution of grants to local authorities and the standardisation of valuation will no doubt do away with many of the reasons which existed in the past for differential rating. Where differential rating is proposed, reasons for it should be stated when the proposals are submitted to the Minister.

In cases where it is proposed to de-urbanise districts, the question of differential rating will not normally arise, as the expenses of sewerage and water supply and other special services for the area would be chargeable as special expenses on the new contributory place.

In cases where there are special reasons to justify differential rating, the method which has been found best in practice is to provide that the rate for the first year shall be less than the rate levied on the remainder of the district by a specified sum, and that the original abatement shall be reduced each year until the abatement disappears. Long periods are undesirable, and the period should generally not exceed ten years; usually a shorter period should suffice.

Where a differential rate is proposed because of the absence of a particular service (say sewerage) it might be agreed that the abatement should cease to be allowed as soon as the service is provided for the area.

In cases where it is found desirable to include in an urban area purely rural territory which is not likely to develop, the normal form of clause which aims at equality of rating within a specified number of years, may not be appropriate, and it might be considered whether the proper course is to divide the urban district for rating under section 211 (4) of the Public Health Act, 1875.

Financial Adjustments and Compensation.

12. Compensation and financial adjustments consequent on alterations of areas should not be allowed to affect the consideration of proposals on their merits. These matters must be regarded as purely consequential, and the general law (which is applied by section 66 of the Act) provides the necessary machinery for settling them after an alteration has taken place. If agreement can be reached on these questions in advance, so much the better.

Boundaries.

13. Where new boundaries are being laid down, care should be taken to choose well-defined lines suitable for present and future requirements.

Boundaries in the centre or at the side of roads frequently give rise to difficulties, and, wherever possible, they should be fixed along some permanent feature at a distance from the road, or alternatively at such a distance from the road as to allow a sufficient building depth, say, of 150 to 250 feet, according to the local conditions and the type of development likely to take place.

The above suggestions apply to the fixing of the boundaries of districts and parishes. As regards the definition of the boundaries of wards and electoral divisions within a district, the Home Office desire that boundaries along roads should, wherever possible, follow the centre lines of the roads.

The opportunity may be taken to consider, where a parish is at present divided between two or more petty sessional divisions, whether on general grounds an adjustment of boundary is desirable which would also result in the inclusion of the whole parish in one petty sessional division.

VI.—FORM OF PROPOSALS.

14. The proposals should be under the seal of the county council, and should incorporate, or be accompanied by a copy of, the report of the review.

It will facilitate reference if the proposals are arranged in the following order:—

(1) Main Proposals.—The proposed alterations in the boundaries of boroughs, districts and parishes affected should be briefly outlined. Where it is proposed to include in a district parts of districts or parishes, information should be given how the remainder of these districts or parishes is to be dealt with. If the proposals entail the abolition of any district or parish, or the naming or altering of the names of districts and parishes, this should be stated. General statistics should be furnished in Form 1.

(2) Reasons for the Proposals.—These should be fully stated, and any general observations which it is desired to report to the Minister should appear under this heading.

(3) Local Government Elections.

(a) County Electoral Divisions.—Proposals for alterations of the electoral divisions of the county will fall to be made to the Secretary of State in due course under section 50, and the proposals to the Minister under section 46 should not deal with any alterations of electoral divisions other than minor adjustments of boundaries which may appear desirable so as to secure that the electoral divisions conform with the boundaries of county districts or wards. When any such proposals are made, particulars should be given as in Form 2E.

(b) Boroughs.—Where a proposal is made for an alteration of the boundaries of a borough, particulars should be given as in Form 2A (1) and (2) of the number of councillors and of the local government electors, and the estimated population and the rateable value of the existing and proposed wards.

(c) Urban and Rural Districts and Parishes.—Particulars should be given as in Form 2B, C and D of the existing and proposed wards and number of councillors.

(4) Consequential proposals relating to Rating, Valuation and other matters.—Particulars as in Forms 3–11, and information as to any other proposed consequential provisions should be given under this heading.

VII.—MAPS.

15.—(1) The proposals should be illustrated by a key, or sketch, map (Map A) on a scale of about 1 inch to the mile, showing the main outlines of each proposal, the whole of any district which is affected, and as much of the adjoining districts which are not so affected as can be conveniently shown. The boundaries of existing petty sessional divisions should also be shown.

(2) Where the boundary of a district or parish is proposed to be altered, for the purposes of the order the alteration should be shown on another map (Map B) of a larger scale, preferably of 6 inches to the mile. The proposed boundary should be indicated on the map by a firm red line. The existing districts and parishes should be shown by distinctive light colour washes. The map should be brought up to date by indicating in red new buildings and streets.

In a number of cases, especially those in which there is much contention, it will also be desirable to indicate local services, etc., which have a bearing on the proposals, such as the routes of main sewers, the situation of sewage disposal works, waterworks, housing sites, public buildings, the areas unsuitable for building, etc. It has been usual in recent years to show these particulars in connection with proposals for boundary alterations. Where the particulars are shown on the map, the notation set out in Appendix III. should be followed. It will be understood that it is not desired that local authorities should be given the trouble of indicating any of those particulars when they have no bearing on the proposals.

(3) If the proposals involve the constitution or alteration of wards or electoral divisions the proposals can probably be readily indicated on Map B. If not, a separate map (Map C) will be required, which need not show the particulars already given in Map B.

(4) If for the purposes of their review the county council require a map from any borough or other district council it is suggested that such a map might be on a scale 6 inches to the mile and that the colouring and notation indicated in Appendix III. should be followed in so far as, in the opinion of the county council, the items referred to in the appendix are pertinent in any particular case. Where obtained, these maps should be forwarded to the Minister with the proposals.

VIII.—DEPOSIT AND DISTRIBUTION OF DOCUMENTS.

16. Simultaneously with the transmission of the proposals and maps to the Ministry—

(1) A copy of the proposals and the maps must be deposited at a specified place, which should be of convenient access to the areas affected, and be open to inspection at all reasonable hours without payment;

(2) A copy of the proposals must be sent to the council of each district affected;

(3) Further copies of the proposals and maps should be distributed as follows:—

Ministry of Health . . .	6 copies of the proposals.
Home Office	1 copy of the proposals, of Map A and, when proposals affecting wards or electoral divisions are made, of the Ward Map B or C as the case may be.
Ministry of Agriculture and Fisheries	1 copy of the proposals and of Maps B and C.
Registrar-General. . . .	1 copy of the proposals.

It will be sufficient if the copies of the maps sent to the Home Office and Ministry of Agriculture and Fisheries show the existing and proposed boundaries of the districts, parishes, electoral and petty sessional divisions and wards without the other particulars.

IX.—NOTICE AND REPRESENTATIONS.

17. The making of the proposals must be advertised in one or more newspapers circulating in the districts affected. The advertisement must also state the place at which a copy of the proposals may be inspected and that representations with respect to the proposals may be made to the Minister of Health within six weeks after the publication of the notice. A model form of advertisement is given in Appendix I.

The clerk of the county council must furnish the Ministry with a certificate in the form given in Appendix II. that these requirements have been fulfilled.

In conclusion the Minister wishes to state that the department will be glad to give what assistance they can to any county council in this important task of reviewing areas, consistently with the responsibility of the Minister in arriving at the final decision on proposals laid before him; and he desires to express the hope that all authorities will co-operate in a broad-minded spirit in the task, and that every endeavour will be made on all sides to obtain agreed schemes.

MINISTRY OF HEALTH,
September, 1929.

INFORMATION TO BE FURNISHED TO COUNTY COUNCILS.

Note.—These forms indicate the information which county councils may find it desirable to obtain from county district councils before formulating their proposals. They have been prepared for the convenience of local authorities and for the use of county councils where and in so far as they think fit. There will probably not be many cases in which all the information for which the forms provide will be needed.

If the information which is required by the Ministry as shown on Forms 1, 8 and 10 in Appendix IV. is not readily available to the county council and must be sought from the district councils, forms on the lines of those in that Appendix can be used.

FORM 12.

SANITATION AND HEALTH.

1. Sewerage and Sewage Disposal—

Maternity and Child Welfare Authorities (outside London).

LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACT, 1929.

CHILDREN ACT, 1908. PART I.

Transfer.

1. Section 2 (a) of the Local Government Act, 1929, provides that, as from the 1st April, 1930, the functions under Part I. of the Children Act, 1908, formerly discharged by poor law authorities, shall be discharged by the councils of counties and county boroughs as functions under the Maternity and Child Welfare Act, 1918, except that where the council of a district have established a maternity and child welfare committee the said functions shall in that district be discharged by the council of the district.

Notification of Children.

2. The main object of Part I. of the Children Act is to secure that any child under seven years of age who is maintained "for reward" shall be notified to the Local Authority in order that it may be kept under observation and supervision.

Section 1 of the Act provides accordingly that a person who undertakes for reward the nursing and maintenance of one or more infants under the age of 7 years apart from their parents, or having no parents, must, when any such infant is received for more than 48 hours, give to the local authority, within 48 hours from its reception, written notice stating the name, sex and date and place of birth of the infant, the name of the person receiving the infant, and the dwelling within which the infant is being kept, and the name and address of the person from whom the infant was received.

Appendix II.

Written notice of any change of residence of a person receiving such infants must within 48 hours thereof be given to the local authority, and where the new residence is in the district of another local authority, similar notice as regards each infant must be given to that authority as on the first reception of the infant.

If any such infant dies or is removed from the person having its care, written notice must within 48 hours be given to the local authority, stating in the case of removal the name and address of the person to whose care the infant has been transferred.

Failure to give notice within the time specified constitutes an offence under the Act, and it is provided that where the reward has taken the form of a "lump sum" payment, a person who has thus been guilty of an offence shall, in addition to any other penalty, be liable to forfeit that sum or any less sum as may be fixed by the court, such sums to be applied for the infant's benefit as directed by the court.

Duties of Local Authorities and Inspectors, etc.

3. Section 2 requires every local authority to provide for the administration of the Act in their area, and for this purpose from time to time to enquire whether there are persons in the area who undertake the nursing and maintenance of children in respect of whom the Act requires notice to be given. If there are such persons the authority must appoint Infant Protection Visitors, who are to visit the children referred to in any notice and the premises in which they are kept, and satisfy themselves that the children are properly nursed and maintained and give any necessary advice or directions as to their nursing and maintenance. But the local authority may exempt from being visited, either unconditionally or subject to such conditions as they think fit, any particular premises which appear to them to be so conducted that it is unnecessary that they should be visited.

The local authority may, instead of or in addition to appointing Infant Protection Visitors, authorise in writing suitable persons to act as such visitors, subject to such terms and conditions as the authority thinks fit, and where infants are placed out by a philanthropic society, the society may itself be so authorised to act in this respect subject to the obligation to furnish periodical reports to the local authority.

If a visitor or other person thus authorised is refused entrance to premises where there are such infants or suspects that any such infants are being kept in any premises in contravention of Part I. of the Act, he may apply to a Justice of the Peace. The Justice, if satisfied that there is reason to believe that any offence has been committed under Part I. of the Act, may grant a warrant authorising an entry.

Local authorities may combine for the purpose of executing the provisions of Part I. of the Act and for defraying the expenses of administering those provisions.

Persons prohibited from receiving children.

4. Section 3 provides that infants may not be received for reward without the local authority's written sanction:

(a) by persons from whose care children have been removed under the Act or under the Infant Life Protection Act, 1897.

(b) in premises from which an infant has been removed under the Act on account of their being dangerous or insanitary, or under the Act of 1897 on account of their being so unfit as to endanger the infant's health.

Number of Infants kept.

5. Section 4 enables the local authority to fix the number of children under seven who may be kept in premises in respect of which notice has to be given under the Act.

Removal of Infants.

6. Section 5 empowers an Infant Protection Visitor, or other authorised person, to apply either to a justice or to the local authority for an order requiring the removal of an infant to a place of safety if kept—

(a) in overcrowded, dangerous or insanitary premises; or,

(b) by persons unfit to have the care of it owing to negligence, ignorance, inebriety, immorality, criminal conduct, or other similar cause; or,

(c) by any person or in any premises in contravention of any of the provisions of Part I. of the Act.

If there is refusal to comply with such an order, or the visitor or other authorised person is obstructed in the execution of the order, it may (if made by a justice) be enforced by the visitor or by the police. If the order was made by the local authority, the visitor may apply to a justice for an order directing the infant's removal. Such an order may also be enforced by the visitor or by the police.

Notices to Coroner.

7. In the case of the death of an infant in respect of whom notice is required to be given under Part I., section 6 requires the person who had the care of the infant to give notice to the coroner within 24 hours of its death. The coroner is required to hold an inquest unless a certificate of a duly qualified medical practitioner is produced, certifying that he has personally attended the infant in its last illness, and specifying the cause of death, and the coroner is satisfied that there is no ground for holding an inquest.

Insurance.

8. Section 7 provides that a person required to give notice of reception of an infant under Part I. of the Act shall be deemed to have no insurable interest in its life, and any such insurance is an offence on the part of the person insuring and also on the part of any company and its agents who knowingly issue the policy.

Prosecution of offences.

9. Under section 9 of the Act, persons guilty of offences under Part I. are liable on summary conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or a fine not exceeding £25. Such fines are payable to the local authority and are to be applied to the purposes to which the fund or rate, out of which the expenses of the local authority under Part I. are defrayed, is applicable.

An infant in respect of whom an offence has been committed may be removed by order of the court to a place of safety.

Exemptions.

10.—Part I. of the Act does not apply to relatives or legal guardians who take an infant for reward. Relatives are defined as "grandparents, brothers, sisters, uncles and aunts," including in the case of illegitimate infants the persons who would be so related if the infant were legitimate.

The following are also exempt:—

Persons taking infants for reward under any poor law provisions.

Hospitals, convalescent homes, or institutions established for the protection and care of infants and conducted in good faith for religious or charitable purposes.

Boarding schools at which efficient elementary education is provided.

Administration.

11. In view of the provisions of section 2(a) of the Local Government Act, 1929, the administration of Part I. of the Children Act will stand referred to the Maternity and Child Welfare Committee of the local authority and may be delegated to that Committee with or without restrictions or conditions. In most cases no doubt the health visitors of the local authority will be appointed Infant Protection Visitors under Part I. of the Children Act, as has already been done in some areas by arrangement between the Board of Guardians and the Maternity and Child Welfare Authority. The health visitors will be already visiting some, if not all, of the children under five years of age to whom Part I. of the Children Act applies, but as Infant Protection Visitors they will be required to visit all such children up to the age of seven years. In those areas in which the health visitors do not at present act as Infant Protection Visitors, arrangements should be made to give them appropriate instruction as to their new duties, the procedure to be followed under Part I. of the Act, the reports to be made and the registers to be kept.

One of the duties of Infant Protection Visitors is to ascertain, so far as practicable, whether there are any children in their districts who are being maintained for reward, but in respect of whom notice has not been given under Part I. of the Act. In this matter, it may be found desirable to authorise other officers of the local authority to assist the health visitors. It will also be observed that Infant Protection Visitors are required to satisfy themselves as to the proper nursing and maintenance of the children visited, and for this purpose it is requisite that they should inspect the premises in which the children are kept, and the persons under whose care they are placed. In some cases it may be necessary to arrange for an inspection of the premises by the sanitary inspector.

It is important that the registers of persons who give notice under Part I. of the Act and of the premises in which children are kept should be maintained up-to-date, and that prompt notice should be sent to the appropriate local authority if any child is removed to the care of a person residing outside the area of the authority to whom the original notice was given.

Advertisements.

12. It is suggested that the local authority should take suitable steps in March, 1930, to make known in their area the name and address of the officer to whom notices under Part I. of the Act must be sent on and after the 1st April, 1930. It is also important that the requirements of Part I. should be advertised from time to time in order to ensure that all persons who maintain young children for reward may be made aware of their obligations under the statute.

MINISTRY OF HEALTH,
Whitehall, S.W.1.
26*th November*, 1929.

CIRCULAR 1072.

MINISTRY OF HEALTH,
Whitehall, S.W.1.
12*th February*, 1930.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACT, 1929.

SIR,—1. I am directed by the Minister of Health to refer to section 59 of the Local Government Act, 1929, and to enclose copies of the regulations (a) made under that section prescribing the qualifications of medical officers and health visitors appointed by local authorities under the Maternity and Child Welfare Act, 1918, the Public Health (Tuberculosis) Act, 1921, and the Public Health (Venereal Diseases) Regulations, 1916. These regulations will come into operation on the 1st April next, and on and after that date it will not be necessary for local authorities to obtain the approval of the Minister to individual appointments of any officers appointed to carry out duties under the Acts of 1918 and 1921, or the Regulations of 1916.

2. The Minister has had under consideration the general question of the extent to which the statutory provisions now governing the administration by local authorities of the maternity and child welfare, tuberculosis, and venereal diseases services, will necessitate his approval being obtained after the 31st March next to developments of these services. He is advised that these provisions generally require his approval or sanction to the arrangements made by local authorities for discharging the functions in question. The principle underlying the Local Government Act, 1929, is that local authorities should have as much freedom as possible in administering the health services. The Minister has caused the existing statutes and regulations to be examined from that standpoint, and instructs me to make the following observations as to each of the three specified services.

Maternity and Child Welfare.

3. Section 1 of the Maternity and Child Welfare Act, 1918, enables local authorities to make such arrangements as may be sanctioned by the Minister for attending to the health of expectant and nursing mothers, and of children under the age of 5 years who are not being educated in schools recognised by the Board of Education; and section 2 of the Notification of Births (Extension) Act, 1915, empowers local authorities, for the purpose of the care of expectant and nursing mothers and young children, to exercise any powers which a sanitary authority have under the Public Health Acts, 1875 to 1907, or the Public Health (London) Act, 1891.

4. The Minister is advised that the latter section enables local authorities to provide infant welfare centres, ante-natal clinics, hospitals for pregnant women, and for sick and ailing children, and convalescent homes for mothers and young children. It will, therefore, not be necessary for the Minister's sanction to be obtained in future to the provision or extension of any institutions of these kinds unless the local authority propose to raise a loan to defray any necessary capital expenditure. Similarly, any arrangements which the local authority propose to make with the managers of voluntary institutions of these kinds, which provide services of the standard required by the local authority, can be made without the sanction of the Minister.

5. The authority for other services commonly provided as part of the arrangements for maternity and child welfare, such for instance as health visiting, a midwifery service, maternity nursing and nursing for expectant mothers and young children, home helps, day nurseries, and the supply of milk or meals, must be found in section 1 of the Act of 1918, and the Minister is advised that his sanction will still be necessary to the provision of any of these services. But in all cases in which any one of these services has already been provided by a local authority with his approval, he hereby sanctions the extension of that service to such an extent, and in such a manner, as the authority think desirable.

Treatment of Tuberculosis.

6. Under the Public Health (Tuberculosis) Act, 1921, county and county borough councils are required to carry out and continue in operation the schemes of institutional treatment approved by the Minister or his predecessors, and any modifications of those schemes need the Minister's approval. The institutions in which treatment is given, i.e., dispensaries, sanatoria and hospitals, have also to be approved by the Minister. Section 3 of the Public Health (Prevention and Treatment of Disease) Act, 1913, enables local authorities to make such arrangements as may be sanctioned by the Minister for the treatment of tuberculosis.

7. The Minister is advised that it will be necessary for his approval to be obtained to any proposed modification of an approved scheme of institutional treatment which would result in smaller provision being made for treatment, but he hereby sanctions any extension of a scheme which the council may think desirable, so long as the extension provides for treatment being given at institutions approved by the Minister.

8. The formal approval of institutions has been given by the Minister subject, in each case, to certain specified conditions (see section 3 of the Act of 1921), and the Minister hereby varies those conditions in the case of institutions belonging to county and county borough councils, or joint committees of those councils, so as to require only the following conditions to be observed:—

(1) That the institution and the records kept thereat will be open to inspection at any time by any officer of the Ministry.

(2) That such records will be kept and such returns will be made in connection with the institution as the Minister may from time to time require.

And, in the case of an institution in which children are treated, the following further condition:—

(3) That if the Board of Education make any requirements in regard to educational arrangements for the children, those requirements will be satisfactorily met.

It will not in future be necessary for the Minister's approval to be obtained to proposed extensions of these institutions unless the cost is to be defrayed by means of a loan.

9. Under section 3 of the Act of 1913 arrangements have been sanctioned by which local authorities have been enabled to provide certain forms of non-institutional treatment for tuberculosis, such as nursing in the homes of patients and the supply of extra nourishment for patients who are living at home. The Minister is advised that it will be necessary for his sanction to be obtained in any case in which a local authority propose to initiate any such arrangements, but he hereby sanctions any extension which the local authority think desirable of arrangements already approved.

Venereal Diseases.

10. The Public Health (Venereal Diseases) Regulations, 1916, require county and county borough councils to make arrangements for the pathological examination of specimens, for the provision of treatment at hospitals or other institutions, and for the supply of arsenobenzene preparations to medical practitioners. These arrangements are subject to the approval of the Minister, and the regulations also require his approval of the laboratories at which specimens are examined, and of the institutions at which treatment is given.

11. The Minister is advised that it will be necessary, under the regulations, for his approval to be obtained to any proposed modifications of the arrangements already approved which would result in a curtailment of the existing facilities for diagnosis or treatment, but he hereby sanctions any extension of such arrangements which the councils may think desirable, provided that the arrangements are made with approved laboratories or institutions. It will also be necessary to obtain his approval of the supply to medical practitioners of any arsenobenzene preparation which is not included in the lists of approved preparations issued from time to time by this department.

12. The Minister's approval of laboratories and institutions has been given subject in each case to certain specified conditions, and he hereby varies the terms of these approvals so as to require only the following conditions to be observed :—

(1) That the laboratory or institution, and the records kept thereat, will be open to inspection at any time by any officer of the Ministry.

(2) That such records will be kept, and such returns will be made, of the work of the laboratory or institution, as the Minister may from time to time require.

(3) That the Wassermann tests at the laboratory will be performed under the personal supervision of the medical officer in charge of the laboratory, and that such tests will conform to the standards of technique approved by the Minister.

And, in the case of a laboratory or institution which is not provided by a local authority, the following further condition :—

(4) That the medical officer in charge of the laboratory or institution possesses the qualifications prescribed in the regulations made by the Minister under section 59 of the Local Government Act, 1929, for a medical officer in charge of a laboratory or for a medical officer in clinical charge of a treatment centre, provided by a local authority, as the case may be.

General.

13. Although the formal approval of the Minister will not in future be required to the establishment or extension of institutions provided under these three services, unless it is proposed to raise a loan to defray the cost, the department will, of course, be prepared at any time to advise on the planning, equipment or staffing of such institutions, or in regard to any proposed extensions. Considerable experience has now been accumulated in the planning of maternity homes, sanatoria and venereal disease clinics. It seems to the Minister essential that the fullest use should be made of this experience and the Ministry will hold itself in readiness to place it at the disposal of local authorities, and to give any other assistance or advice which may be desired.

14. The inspection by the medical officers of the department of these services, and of the institutions and premises in which the services are carried on, will, in future, usually form part of the general inspection of public health services to be undertaken from time to time in each area. These inspections, both general and particular, will be required in order that the Minister may be satisfied that each local authority is maintaining a reasonable standard of efficiency and progress in the discharge of their functions relating to public health services, as defined in the Local Government Act, 1929, regard being had to the standards maintained in other areas whose financial resources and other relevant circumstances are substantially similar.

15. A further communication will be addressed to local authorities in due course relative to the annual returns which the Minister will require in future under section 51 of the Act with respect, inter alia, to the three services to which this circular refers.

I am, Sir,
Your obedient Servant,
A. R. MACLACHLAN,
Assistant Secretary.

The Clerk of the Council, or Joint Committee, or The Town Clerk.

MARKETS.

CIRCULAR TO RURAL DISTRICT COUNCILS AS TO THE PUBLIC HEALTH ACT, 1908

LOCAL GOVERNMENT BOARD, WHITEHALL, S.W.,
September 7th, 1908.

SIR,—I am directed by the Local Government Board to call the attention of the rural district council to the Public Health Act, 1908 (8 Edw. 7, c. 6), which has recently been passed and which has for its object to make certain sections of the Public Health Act, 1875, with respect to the provision and regulation of markets applicable in rural districts.

The Act is to be construed as one with the Act of 1875. Under section 166 of that Act urban district councils are empowered,

(1) to provide a market place and construct a market house and other conveniences for the purpose of holding markets,
(2) to provide houses and places for weighing carts,
(3) to make convenient approaches to the market,
(4) to provide all such matters and things as may be necessary for the convenient use of the market,
(5) to purchase and take on lease land, and public and private rights in markets and tolls for any of the above-mentioned purposes, and
(6) to take stallages, rents, and tolls in respect of the use by any person of the market.

No market may, however, be established in pursuance of the section so as to interfere with any rights, powers, or privileges enjoyed within the district by any person without his consent.

In the case of an urban district council other than a town council the powers above referred to can only be exercised with the consent of the owners and ratepayers of the district.

For the purpose of enabling any urban authority to establish or regulate markets, section 167 of the Act of 1875 incorporates certain provisions of the Markets and Fairs Clauses Act, 1847 (10 & 11 Vict. c. 14), in so far as they relate to markets, namely:—the provisions (1) with respect to the holding of the market, and the protection thereof (sections 12 to 16 inclusive); (2) with respect to weighing goods and carts (sections 21 to 30 inclusive); and (3) with respect to the stallages, rents, and tolls (sections 31 to 41 inclusive). The same section enables an urban authority with respect to any market belonging to them to make byelaws for any of the purposes mentioned in section 42 of the Markets and Fairs Clauses Act, 1847, so far as those purposes relate to markets, and requires that printed copies of any byelaws so made shall be conspicuously exhibited in the market. It is necessary that the byelaws should be confirmed by the Board, and, similarly, any tolls leviable by the local authority must receive the Board's approval.

The powers thus conferred upon urban authorities are supplemented by section 168 of the Act of 1875, which enables these authorities to purchase market rights, powers, and privileges from market companies.

The new Act will enable any rural district council, with the consent of the Board, to exercise with respect to the provision or regulation of markets any powers which an urban district council may exercise with the consent of owners and ratepayers under section 166 of the Public Health Act, 1875, as above-mentioned. In the case of a rural district council, the consent of the owners and ratepayers will not be required. And sections 167 and 168 of that Act are made applicable with respect to the exercise of those powers by a rural district council in the same manner as they apply with respect to the exercise of those powers by an urban district council.

Cases in which rural district councils require to exercise powers under the new Act may not be very numerous, but the need for such powers has occasionally been shown, and it has been thought desirable that they should be in existence. Where, for example, it is the custom to hold live stock markets on a portion of the public highway, the provision of a properly constructed and regulated market-place is frequently expedient not merely on sanitary grounds, but for the well-being of the animals offered for sale, and for the convenience both of persons attending the market and of the users of the highway.

It will be observed that the powers given by the new Act can only be exercised with the consent of the Board. In any case where they may be thought to be needed the rural district council in applying for consent should furnish the Board with full particulars of the circumstances which in the opinion of the council render the application necessary and of the action which they would propose to take if consent were given.

The Board may mention that the provision of a market, with proper accessories, will be a purpose for which the council will be enabled to borrow money under the Public Health Act, 1875.

The expenses of the council in relation to the maintenance of any market which they may establish will be defrayable as general expenses unless they are determined by order of the Board to be special expenses under section 229 of the Act of 1875.

As already indicated, any byelaws made by the council with respect to any market provided by them under the provisions of section 167 of the Act of 1875, as applied by the new Act, must be submitted to, and confirmed by the Board before they can take effect, and the requirements in relation to byelaws contained in sections 182 to 185 of the Act, of 1875 must be otherwise complied with as regards any byelaws so made

I am, etc.

ORDER OF THE MINISTER OF AGRICULTURE AND FISHERIES, DATED 23RD DECEMBER, 1925.

MARKETS, SALES AND LAIRS ORDER OF 1925.

The Minister of Agriculture and Fisheries, by virtue and in exercise of the powers vested in him under the Diseases of Animals Acts, 1894 to 1925, and of every other power enabling him in this behalf, hereby orders as follows :—

Paving of Markets, Saleyards, etc., used for Animals.

1.—(1) No market, fair, or sale of animals shall be held in or upon any market-place, fairground, highway, saleyard, or other premises on any day until after the expiration of twenty-four days from the date on which the premises or any parts thereof were previously so used, unless the premises or a part thereof sufficient to accommodate the number of animals usually exposed at such market, fair, or sale, are so paved with cement, concrete, asphalt, or other hard material impervious to water, as to permit of the same being effectually cleaned by washing, and are at all times maintained in that condition.

(2) On every occasion of a market, fair, or sale of animals held on premises to which this Article applies, the animals shall stand or be penned as far as practicable on the paved accommodation required to be provided under this Order.

(3) This Article shall not be deemed to prohibit the holding of any fair under lawful authority on two or more consecutive days.

Paving of Lairs adjoining Markets and Saleyards, and Regulation of Lairs by Licence.

2.—(1) No lair adjoining premises on which or on any part of which a market, fair, or sale of animals is held at intervals of twenty-four days or less shall be used for the reception or temporary detention of animals before or after their exposure for sale on such adjoining premises, unless

(a) the lair is so paved with cement, concrete, asphalt, or other hard material, impervious to water as to permit of the same being effectually cleansed by washing and is at all times maintained in that condition; and

(b) the use of the lair for that purpose has been authorised by a licence of the local authority which shall not be granted unless the local authority are satisfied after inquiry that the provisions of this Article with regard to the paving of the lair have been complied with.

(2) A licence granted under this Article may be cancelled at any time by a notice served upon the occupier of the lair (or upon the person to whom the licence was granted) by an officer of the Ministry or of the local authority if the surface of the lair is not, in the opinion of the Minister or of the local authority, as the case may be, maintained in the condition required by this Article.

(3) This Article shall come into operation on the first day of July, nineteen hundred and twenty-seven.

Cleansing and Disinfection of Markets, Saleyards, and Lairs.

3. [Revoked by Order of 14*th May*, 1926.]

Local Authority to Enforce Order.

4. The provisions of this Order, except where it is otherwise provided, shall be executed and enforced by the local authority.

Offences.

5.—(1) If a market, fair, or sale of animals is held in contravention of this Order, the person holding the same shall be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1894, and the owner or consignee of each animal exposed thereat, and the person exposing the same thereat, and the purchaser thereat of any animal, knowing the market, fair, or sale to be held in contravention as aforesaid, shall, each according to and in respect of his own acts and defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1894.

(2) If anything is done or omitted to be done in contravention of this Order, the owner and the lessee and the occupier of the place or thing in respect of which anything is so done or omitted (as the case may be) shall, each according to and in respect of his or their own acts or omissions, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1894.

Interpretation.

6. In this Order, unless the context otherwise requires :—

"Animals" means cattle, sheep, goats, and swine.

"Lair" means a building, erection, pen, yard, or other enclosure used for the reception or temporary detention of animals before or after their exposure for sale, but does not include a grass enclosure.

"An approved disinfectant" means a disinfectant approved for the purposes of the Diseases of Animals (Disinfection) Order of 1925.

"Local Authority" means the local authority of the district for the purposes of the Act of 1894.

"Minister" and "Ministry" mean the Minister and Ministry of Agriculture and Fisheries.

"Person" includes persons or any body corporate or unincorporate.

"The Act of 1894" means the Diseases of Animals Act, 1894.

Other terms have the same meaning as in the Act of 1894.

Revocation.

7. The Markets and Sales Order of 1910 and all licences issued under that Order or continued in operation by that Order, are hereby revoked.

Commencement.

8. This Order (except Article 2) shall come into operation on the first day of February, nineteen hundred and twenty-six.

S. R. & O., No. 546.

ORDER OF THE MINISTER OF AGRICULTURE AND FISHERIES, DATED 14TH MAY, 1926.

MARKETS, SALES AND LAIRS (AMENDMENT) ORDER OF 1926.

The Minister of Agriculture and Fisheries, by virtue and in exercise of the powers vested in him under the Diseases of Animals Acts, 1894 to 1925, and of every other power enabling him in this behalf, hereby orders as follows :—

Amendment of Article 3 of the Markets, Sales and Lairs Order of 1925.

1. Article 3 of the Markets, Sales and Lairs Order of 1925 is hereby revoked, and the following Article is substituted therefor :—

"Cleansing and Disinfection of Markets, Saleyards and Lairs.

"3.—(1) Any market-place, fairground, highway, saleyard, or other premises in or upon which markets, fairs or sales of animals are habitually held and any lair adjoining such premises which is used for the reception or temporary detention of animals before or after their exposure for sale, shall, as soon as practicable after being used for any such purpose on any day and before being again so used, be cleansed and disinfected as follows :—

"(i) The premises or lair or the parts thereof for the purposes of the market, fair or sale shall be thoroughly scraped as far as practicable, and swept, then effectually cleansed by washing ; and after such cleansing the said premises or lair or parts thereof shall be thoroughly washed with an approved disinfectant : Provided that in the case of any such premises or lair which are incapable of being cleansed and disinfected in the aforesaid manner, such cleansing and disinfection shall be carried out as far as may be practicable.

"(ii) All pens, hurdles, and other fittings used in or in connection with the market, fair, sale, or lair, shall as soon as practicable after being used for such purpose, and before being again so used, be thoroughly cleansed by scraping and washing. After such cleansing the pens, hurdles and other fittings so used shall be thoroughly washed with an approved disinfectant.

"(iii) The scrapings and sweepings of the premises, lair, pens, hurdles and other fittings, and all dung, saw-dust, litter and other matter removed therefrom, shall forthwith be well mixed with quicklime and be effectually removed from contact with animals, or be effectually destroyed by fire.

"(2) The cleansing and disinfection required by this Article shall, in the case of a market-place, fairground, saleyard or other premises or lair in the occupation of any person, and any pens, hurdles and other fittings used in or in connection with such premises or lair, be carried out by and at the expense of that person, and in any other case be carried out by the local authority of the district."

Commencement.

2. This Order shall come into operation on the 1st day of July, 1926.

S. R. & O., No. 982.

ORDER OF THE MINISTER OF AGRICULTURE AND FISHERIES, DATED 6TH OCTOBER, 1927.

MARKETS, SALES, AND LAIRS (AMENDMENT) ORDER OF 1927, MADE BY THE MINISTER OF AGRICULTURE AND FISHERIES UNDER THE DISEASES OF ANIMALS ACTS, 1894 TO 1927.

Amendment of the Markets, Sales, and Lairs Order of 1925.

1. The Markets, Sales, and Lairs Order of 1925 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Order), is modified in the manner hereinafter provided.

Power to require Paving, Cleansing, and Disinfection of Lairs other than those adjoining Markets, etc.

2. An inspector or other officer of the Ministry acting under the direction of the Minister may by notice served upon the occupier of any lair used for the temporary reception or detention of animals before or after their exposure for sale—other than any lair to which Article 2 of the principal Order applies—

(i) prohibit the use of any such lair for the temporary reception or detention of animals before or after their exposure for sale unless the lair is so paved with cement, concrete, asphalt, or any other hard material impervious to water as to permit of the same being effectually cleansed by washing and is at all times maintained in that condition; and

(ii) require that the lair shall as soon as practicable after being used for the purpose aforesaid on any day, and before being again so used, be cleansed and disinfected in the manner prescribed in Article 3 of the principal Order as amended by the Markets, Sales, and Lairs (Amendment) Order of 1926, as if the said lair were a lair referred to in that Article.

Interpretation.

3. For the purposes of the principal Order as amended by the Markets, Sales, and Lairs (Amendment) Order of 1926 and this Order, the expression "an approved disinfectant" means a disinfectant approved for the purposes of the Diseases of Animals (Disinfection) Order of 1926 if used at the dilution at which such disinfectant is so approved.

Note.—The Circular and the Regulations of August, 1918, are reprinted in this edition, although the grants formerly payable under the Regulations are among those discontinued by Sched. II. of the L. G. A., 1929. The Circular sets out the scope and nature of the services which the Minister is prepared to approve under the Act, q.v at p. 1240, ante, and it has been considered by the Editors that the Regulations will be of use to local authorities in framing schemes under ss. 93–101 of the L. G. A., 1929, ante, p. 1956 and 1962. See also the circular letter of the Minister of Health set out at p. 3540, ante.

CIRCULAR TO COUNTY COUNCILS, ETC.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT BOARD, WHITEHALL, S.W.1.

August 9th, 1918.

SIR,—1. I am directed by the President of the Local Government Board to bring to the notice of the council the provisions of the Maternity and Child Welfare Act, 1918, which has recently passed.

The Act widens the powers of local authorities in the matter of maternity and child welfare. It enables them to make such arrangements as may be sanctioned by the Board for attending to the health of expectant mothers and nursing mothers and of children who have not attained the age of five years, and are not being educated in schools recognised by the Board of Education.

A council exercising powers under the Act must appoint a maternity and child welfare committee. This committee may be specially appointed for this purpose or may be an existing committee or a sub-committee of an existing committee, and it must include at least two women. Subject to two-thirds of the members of the committee being members of the council, persons specially qualified by training or experience in subjects relating to health and maternity who are not members of the council may be appointed as members of the committee. A committee appointed under the section may also appoint sub-committees consisting wholly or partly of members of the committee. Mr. Hayes Fisher considers it is important that working women should be represented on the committee. In seeking such representatives the local branches of working women's organisations or the standing joint committee of Industrial Women's Organisations, 33, Eccleston Square, London, S.W.1, might usefully be consulted.

2. The supreme importance of maternity and child welfare work at the present time needs no emphasis. With a view to encouraging the provision of further services, which experience has shown would be of value for conserving infant lives and health, Mr. Hayes Fisher has obtained the sanction of the Treasury to a considerable extension of the scope of the Board's grant. A copy of the new regulations is appended to this circular.

The additional services for which the grant is now available, subject to the Board approving the arrangements, are chiefly:—

Hospital treatment for children up to five years of age.

Lying-in homes.

Home helps.

The provision of food for expectant and nursing mothers and for children under five years of age.

Crèches and day nurseries.

Convalescent homes.

Homes for the children of widowed and deserted mothers and for illegitimate children.

Experimental work for the health of expectant and nursing mothers and of infants and children under five years of age.

In certain other respects the scope of the grant has been enlarged.

With a view to assisting local authorities and voluntary agencies in developing this work the Board submit the following comments. These should be read as supplementing the observations made in earlier circulars.

Administrative Arrangements.

3. In their original circular of 30th July, 1914, on the subject of this grant, the Board stated:—

> "For the rural and smaller urban areas the Board think it will generally be found desirable to develop a county organisation, but in all cases the county work should be intimately related with that of the local sanitary authority, and on the other hand any work separately undertaken by a sanitary authority should be co-ordinated with the county scheme."

The Board may also draw attention to the following observations which were contained in their circular of the 29th July, 1915, in regard to the Notification of Births (Extension) Act, 1915:—

> "The Act contemplates that arrangements for attending to mothers and young children may be made either by county councils or by sanitary authorities. The Board recognise that the organisation must vary to some extent with local conditions and that a considerable degree of elasticity is necessary. They are, however, of opinion that it will generally be desirable to formulate comprehensive schemes for counties and county boroughs, although in some cases portions of the services may be undertaken by the larger district councils with advantage. The councils of counties and county boroughs are the local supervising authorities under the Midwives Act, 1902, and they are also entrusted with the initiation and execution of schemes for the treatment of tuberculosis; if the organisation of a maternity and infant welfare scheme is also undertaken by them, it will be practicable to secure the unification of home visiting for a number of different purposes.
> "In all cases, however, in which a general scheme is organised for the county, the work should be carried on in close co-operation with the sanitary authority."

As a general rule, county councils have adopted comprehensive schemes for all the districts in their counties, except those which by reason of their population and number of births can properly form separate units for these services. Some smaller districts are still carrying on separate schemes, but the most advantageous course usually lies in the amalgamation of these schemes with the county scheme, and Mr. Hayes Fisher is glad to observe that the councils of many of the smaller districts have agreed to amalgamation and are co-operating with the county council in this work. Where this has occurred the county council have generally continued the work of the local sanitary authority with the staff previously employed by the smaller authority, and have availed themselves of the assistance of that authority and of their medical officer of health in carrying it out.

The work to be done is of a composite character, and, while some parts of it may in certain cases be satisfactorily undertaken by the smaller authorities, other parts should be undertaken by the county council, and it is therefore desirable that the smaller district councils should in all cases consult the county council before considering the provision of separate services.

The county council and the district council have concurrent powers, in order that for all parts of the work the most efficient arrangement may be made, but the Board look to the county council to consider the needs of the county as a whole, and how these needs may best be supplied.

The Board request that each county council will take this subject into early consideration and that they will prepare and submit to the Board a report on the work now being undertaken, on the new services which should be established and on the methods whereby the new services can best be provided. It is important that the county council in preparing their report should confer with the district councils in order to secure their co-operation at every stage.

Inspection of Midwives.

4. In the Board's view each midwife in the district should be seen by the inspector of midwives of the supervising authority not less frequently than once a quarter, at least until the inspector is satisfied that the midwife will carry out her instructions satisfactorily. Special inquiries should be made if there is any doubt as to the satisfactory character of the midwifery service, and prompt visits should be paid

Appendix II. and reports made to the medical officer of the supervising authority in such cases notified under rule 20 of the Central Midwives Board as may be determined by him, and especially when there is a rise of temperature in the mother or a discharge from the eyes of the infant.

It is important that the visits of inspection should be made the occasion for giving general instruction and assistance to the midwives. The supervising authority should therefore appoint a sufficient staff of competent inspectors. The Board consider that an inspector of midwives should, if possible, be a qualified medical woman; if this cannot be secured, she should be a certified midwife with sufficient experience in the practice of midwifery. It is important that the supervising authority should in all cases secure co-operation between the midwives and the local organisation for maternity and child welfare work.

Provision of Midwifery.

5. The object of the Board's grant in aid of midwifery is to secure that as far as is practicable there shall be an efficient midwifery service throughout the country, and the Board look to the councils of counties and county boroughs to organise arrangements for securing this. In the Board's opinion it is important that the status of midwives should be raised, and that competent trained women who devote themselves to this service should be adequately remunerated. Unless this is done the Board are satisfied that an efficient midwifery service will not be established and maintained. The Board consider that a competent trained midwife, devoting her whole time to the work, should be able to secure at the present time an income of from £120 to £150 a year.

6. The Board have indicated that a local authority may pay or guarantee the salary of a competent midwife, and they are willing to consider any scheme for improving the midwifery service which may be submitted.

In cases in which a council provide or arrange for a general midwifery service they should fix a general scale of fees, but these may be reduced or remitted in individual cases where the circumstances justify this course. In so far as the fees received do not meet the cost of this service, the Board are prepared, subject to their prior approval of the scheme, to find one-half of the deficiency.

7. In sparsely populated districts where the midwife is supported by a nursing association, the Board will base the grant on the number of cases attended during the year, either by midwives or maternity nurses. They will pay a grant to county nursing associations in respect of (a) the establishment expenses of the county nursing association attributable to midwifery,

(b) the midwifery and maternity cases attended by (1) nurse-midwives of affiliated associations, (2) emergency nurse-midwives of the county nursing association, and

(c) the expenses of the county nursing association and of affiliated district nursing associations in starting new associations where there is no competent midwife.

County councils may make contributions to county or district nursing associations for these services, and where they do so the Board will make a grant in respect of their expenditure. They will also make a grant on the same basis to county councils in respect of the midwifery and maternity nursing provided by unaffiliated associations, but they recommend that such associations should become affiliated to the county nursing association.

8. In districts with a large population it is possible for the practice of midwifery to be more nearly self-supporting than in more scattered areas. Nevertheless, a number of midwives are maintained in these localities by hospitals, maternity charities, and district nursing associations, and their services are provided at less than the ordinary fee of the district for women who cannot afford to pay this fee. Moreover, in many cases the ordinary fee is not sufficient to provide a competent trained midwife with an adequate income. The Board's grant is available in respect of the loss on district midwifery, if any, made by these institutions, and it will amount ordinarily to half the deficit on the service.

9. In all cases the grant in respect of midwifery will be subject to the following conditions: (1) that the Board are satisfied that the midwife is competent, (2) that her services are available in respect of all women who need them, and (3) that the ordinary fee of the district is charged, and that it is only reduced or remitted where the circumstances of the case justify the adoption of this course.

10. A local authority or voluntary agency may provide a midwifery outfit for any midwife employed or subsidised by them. The outfit should be retained if the midwife leaves the service, and should be given to her successor. The grant is available in respect of this expenditure and also of the cost of maternity outfits (apart from bedding) lent by a local authority or voluntary agency to lying-in women in cases where this is necessary.

Doctors' Fees.

11. The Board trust that all local authorities carrying out maternity and child welfare schemes will arrange to pay the fees of doctors when called in by midwives during the period of confinement. In cases which are not necessitous the persons concerned would no doubt be willing to bear or repay the cost, but it is important that the doctors called in should be able to look to the local authority for their fees where the persons attended are unable to pay, and that they may be so informed. Local authorities should ascertain which of the general practitioners of the district are willing to undertake to respond to the call of a midwife, and should, if possible, arrange that one of them shall always be available to answer an urgent call. The midwives should be furnished with a list of the doctors who are willing to attend.

Health Visitors.

12. As a result of their further experience, the Board consider that the standard of 500 births to each health visitor, which they have previously suggested, should be modified. The functions of a health visitor should comprise the visiting and supervision of all children under school age in the district needing this attention; the visiting of expectant mothers who have attended at an ante-natal centre, or for whom visits are desirable; inquiry into still-births and the deaths of young children; and attendance at the centre to which women and children, including those whom she has visited in their homes, come for medical and hygienic advice. Where these duties are fully performed it appears to the Board that a district with about 400 births a year will be as much as one health visitor can undertake, unless the district is very compact, or is of such a class that many infants do not need visiting. The health visitor's district should where practicable be so arranged that it is served by one centre.

Qualifications of Health Visitors (a).

13. It is not practicable at the present time to prescribe a special course of training or a standard examination for health visitors generally. The qualifications prescribed by the Board's Order of 1909 with regard to London are:—

(a) A medical degree, or (b) The full training of a nurse, or (c) The certificate of the Central Midwives Board, or (d) Some training in nursing and the health visitor's certificate of a society approved by the Board, or (e) The previous discharge of duties of a similar character in the service of a local authority.

The certificate of a sanitary inspector is also valuable. In the absence of one or more of these qualifications the Board are not prepared to pay a grant in respect of a health visitor's salary unless they have adequate evidence before them that she is qualified for this work.

14. Other offices, such as that of tuberculosis nurse, school nurse and mental deficiency visitor, may be held with that of health visitor in certain cases, so as to give the officer a compact district, save the time and money spent in travelling, and

(a) The Minister has prescribed these qualifications under s. 59 of the L. G. A., 1929, ante, p. 1925. See the Regulations at p. 3624, post.

Appendix II. reduce the number of inspectors who may have to visit a particular house. The salary of a whole-time officer acting as health visitor with or without these other posts should as a rule be not less than £120 a year.

District Nurses as Health Visitors.

15. In sparsely populated districts it may be convenient to appoint the district nurse-midwives of nursing associations as health visitors, if the medical officer of health is satisfied that they are competent to perform the work. In some cases it may be found practicable to give the nurse-midwives special instruction and training in the work of a health visitor. More than half the county councils are now using district nurse-midwives as health visitors. The advantages of employing them are that, as a rule, they are well known and well received by the women in a country parish, that their advice is readily accepted, and that the arrangement may obviate duplication of inspection, and save time and money spent in travelling.

16. Where nurse-midwives employed by associations affiliated to the county nursing association are employed as health visitors, the county council and the county nursing association may find it advantageous to combine the offices of superintendent of the county nursing association, chief health visitor and inspector of midwives, so that the nurse-midwives are inspected by one official in all capacities.

Visiting by Voluntary Workers.

17. In a few districts voluntary workers, generally without full training, engage in health visiting. Their work should always be done in connection with that of trained and paid officers and they may usefully assist at the centres and in the supervision of older children.

Appointment of Health Visitors as Infant Protection Visitors under the Children Act, 1908.

18. The local authority under the Children Act, 1908, is in London the county council, and outside London the Board of Guardians (a). It appears to the Board desirable that, where practicable, the health visitor and the infant protection visitor should be the same person, and they suggest that the local authorities appointing health visitors should consult with the authorities appointing infant protection visitors in their areas with a view to securing this.

Nursing.

19. The home nursing services in respect of which the grant is now available are nursing needed for expectant mothers, maternity nursing, the nursing of puerperal fever, and the nursing of measles, whooping cough and epidemic diarrhœa in young children, and of ophthalmia neonatorum.

20. The maternity nursing should be undertaken by a woman with the certificate of the Central Midwives Board: failing this qualification, the Board should be furnished with evidence of her competency if a grant is claimed. A scale of fees should be fixed for maternity nursing, but the charge may be reduced or remitted in individual cases where circumstances justify the adoption of this course.

21. The local authority may, with the consent of the Board, themselves appoint nurses for the purposes specified above, or may contract with a body such as a district nursing association for this service. Where they appoint a special nurse, her spare time may well be utilised in the ordinary work of a health visitor. Often it is more convenient to arrange with a district nursing association for the services of one of their nurses to be available when an infectious disease prevails. Most district nurses are now allowed to nurse the cases of the infectious diseases mentioned in paragraph 19, subject to their taking simple precautions, as to which the medical officer of health can advise. The local authority may pay a retaining fee to a district nursing association for the purpose of securing that a nurse is always available, and in addition pay a fee per visit or per case. It is particularly important that all cases of measles notified from districts in which deaths from this disease are likely to occur should be visited by a health visitor. On her report the medical officer of health can usually decide when nursing is required.

22. In districts in which the county council undertake the maternity and child welfare work it is convenient that the nurses should be employed by the council either directly or through the county nursing association. Under this arrangement the nurses are available for visiting and nursing in any district in which a nurse is needed.

Centres.

23. The number of centres has increased considerably during the past year, and much credit is due in this matter to private enterprise. Every centre, whether municipal or voluntary, should generally be supervised by at least one trained and salaried worker, but unpaid workers interested in its objects can be of great assistance in weighing babies, in entertaining the mothers, and in giving instruction in elementary hygiene, cookery, sewing, etc. Where practicable, there should be a centre for each health visitor's district, and the health visitor should attend when the centre is open in order to be able to supervise the subsequent adoption at home of the advice given at the centre.

The chief value of the centre is to provide medical and especially hygienic advice. Mothers should be urged to bring their children, whether ailing or not, for such advice and for periodical weighings. At the present time doctors are so fully occupied that regular medical attendance at many centres is impossible, but every effort should be made to secure the attendance of a doctor, if not at every meeting, at any rate not less often than once a fortnight, or, in small centres, once a month. Medical attendance should be regular and uniform, i.e. the same doctor should attend at stated intervals. The Board do not recommend a rota of doctors; subject to this the doctor may be a local practitioner, the medical officer of health, or the assistant medical officer of health. If the medical officer of the centre is an officer of the local authority, he or she should be paid a separate salary for this work. It is desirable that local authorities should consult the local medical practitioners before making arrangements for medical attendance at a centre.

24. Cases which are found at the centre to need anything beyond minor treatment should be referred to their own medical attendant, or, if the woman cannot afford a doctor, to a hospital, if a hospital is available. One centre may suffice for the treatment of cases from a number of centres, and such a centre may be combined with a school clinic, especially for ophthalmic and dental cases. A dental clinic should, wherever practicable, be available for expectant and nursing mothers and for children under five. The grant is available in respect of reasonable expenditure on treatment at centres, including the treatment of ophthalmic and dental cases. A charge should ordinarily be made for new dentures for women and for spectacles for children, but the Board are willing that the charge should be reduced below the cost price or remitted entirely where the circumstances of the woman or of the child's parents are such as to justify this course.

25. The Board have had under their consideration the question whether cots may be provided as part of the equipment of a centre, and after conference with the representatives of a number of hospitals and voluntary centres, their medical officer has advised that, subject to certain conditions, they may be allowed. The arrangements will be subject to revision in the light of experience; for the present they should be generally in accordance with the following conditions if a grant is desired:—

(i) Acute cases of illness, such as would ordinarily be admitted to existing hospitals, and cases of infectious disease should not be treated in cots at a centre. The centre should, if practicable, be associated with a general hospital or a children's hospital, with a view to prompt admission of acute or serious cases of illness.

(ii) The experiment of providing cots at centres should be on a small scale, with not more than two wards with four cots in each, and the fittings and furniture should be as simple and inexpensive as possible.

(iii) A whole-time nurse should be in charge by day and one by night, and the nursing staff should, as a rule, be distinct from the staff engaged in the ordinary work of the centre.

(iv) If a medical officer is not resident on the premises there should be arrangements for securing his prompt attendance when required in emergency.

The Board would welcome arrangements for the treatment of mothers with their infants when breast-feeding fails. For this purpose it may be necessary for both mother and infant to become in-patients. In other instances the infant may be admitted, the mother attending twice or three times daily in a separate room to give supplementary breast feeds.

Instruction in Hygiene.

26. The extension of the grant to this purpose has been made in order to make it available in aid of reasonable expenditure on literature, exhibitions, and on collective instruction to expectant and nursing mothers, and also to voluntary and salaried workers, where the medical officer considers that the instruction is likely to improve their competency to undertake the maternity and child welfare work assigned to them. The expenses of salaried workers engaged in such work may be included in the application for grant under this heading.

Provision for Confinements.

27. The Board are satisfied that in many areas additional lying-in accommodation is required for normal as well as abnormal confinements, and they have therefore obtained power to make a grant to encourage the provision of such accommodation. The grant for this service will as a rule be paid only to a local authority, as the Board look to the local authority to provide or arrange for the provision of the accommodation required. Voluntary societies providing homes for normal confinements, if they need financial assistance, should, as a general rule, apply to the local authority in whose district the institution is situate.

In order that such homes may be eligible for the Board's grant, they must be willing to receive cases in which the medical officer of health of the district considers that admission to the home is desirable because of domestic conditions.

A scale of charges should be fixed for the use of the lying-in home, but the charge may be reduced or remitted in individual cases where the circumstances justify the adoption of this course.

Home Helps and other Assistance.

28. In many cases a woman is unwilling to leave her home, even if its conditions are unsuitable for her confinement. If the difficulty arises from the number of children, arrangements may sometimes be made for the children to be boarded out during the mother's lying-in period; if it is due to the need for a person to look after the house during this period, whether the confinement takes place at the home or elsewhere, a home help may be supplied for the purpose. The grant is available for assistance of this character where the Board's general consent has been previously obtained to the local arrangements.

Home helps must, of course, be persons of suitable character. Where the confinement takes place at home they should undertake the necessary duties under the direction of the nurse or midwife in attendance.

The duties of a home help would be the ordinary domestic duties usually undertaken by the mother, including cleaning, cooking, washing, care of children, mending and marketing. She should not undertake any work which properly belongs to the sphere of the trained nurse or midwife, nor assist at a confinement unless a doctor or midwife is in attendance.

It is advisable to arrange for special training of home helps. This training may be given at maternity centres and day nurseries, and should include practical instruction in plain and invalid cookery, food values and prices, laundry work, mending, infant care and hygiene. A course of one to three months, according to the previous experience of the woman, should be sufficient.

A scale of charges for the service of home helps should be made, but the charge may be remitted or reduced in individual cases where the circumstances justify it.

Hospitals for Infants.

29. This grant is now extended to hospital treatment of children up to five years of age, but save in exceptional cases it will be paid only to the local authority. It is not available in respect of the hospital treatment of ordinary infectious diseases, except ophthalmia neonatorum, but for the present the Board are prepared to give a grant towards the provision of hospital beds for epidemic diarrhœa, when these beds are provided elsewhere than at an infant welfare centre.

Food.

30. The conditions under which this grant will be paid were laid down in the Board's circular letter of 9th February last. The Board consider that schemes for the supply of food and milk should, where this provision is necessary, be undertaken by the authority carrying out the maternity and child welfare scheme. Where the local authority of a county district which is not carrying out such a scheme considers that expectant and nursing mothers and young children in its district are not obtaining a proper supply of food and milk, it should consult with the county council as to the best means of supplying this need.

A scale of charges should be laid down for the supply of food and milk, but the charge may be reduced or remitted in individual cases where the circumstances justify it.

Crèches, etc.

31. The Board's grant is available in respect of expenditure by local authorities on providing or aiding crèches and day nurseries, and on placing children in the care of foster-mothers who are under supervision by the medical officer of health. The grant is also available for aiding homes where children can remain through the night as well as the day, and is especially intended for the children of mothers who go out to work. A scale of charges should be fixed for these services but the charge may be remitted or reduced in individual cases where the circumstances justify the adoption of this course.

Convalescent Homes.

32. A stay in a convalescent home is specially important for recovery after certain cases of confinement and for some conditions in young children, especially after measles and whooping cough. It is desirable, therefore, that local authorities should, either themselves or through a voluntary agency, arrange for beds in convalescent homes to be available as part of their schemes. As a general rule a grant will be paid to voluntary agencies providing convalescent homes only in respect of accommodation provided in connection with a local authority's scheme and approved by the local authority and the Board.

Homes for Children.

33. The health of infants and young children who lack the support of a father often needs special attention, and it is on all grounds desirable that the mother and child should be kept together in such cases, especially during the first year. It is notorious that the death rate of illegitimate infants, the only infants in this category for whom separate statistics are published, is about twice the death rate of legitimate infants. To some extent this is due to the difficulty experienced by their mothers in making a home for them. The mothers generally go out to work and leave their infants with foster-mothers. As a result of the war fewer suitable foster-mothers are prepared to take the children at a charge which their mothers can afford to pay. The Board have therefore obtained the Treasury assent to the extension of the grant to homes at which mothers and children can be kept together in certain cases, and to such other arrangements as the Board may approve for attending to the health of the children under consideration. In some cases it may be desirable to pay a good foster-mother to look after a child whose mother cannot afford the whole of its keep, or to assist the mother to stay at home to attend to the child. Any scheme for this purpose should be submitted for the Board's approval before expenditure is incurred on it if a grant is desired.

Capital Expenditure.

34. The grant is available in respect of the necessary adaptation and equipment of premises for the purpose of centres, crèches, homes, and hospitals. The erection of new premises for these purposes is impracticable at present, and with a view to keeping capital expenditure within the narrowest limits suitable existing accommodation should, where possible, be obtained on lease rather than by purchase. All proposals for acquiring, adapting and equipping buildings for these purposes should be submitted to the Board before expenditure is incurred, with an estimate of the cost, if a grant is desired.

Experimental Work.

35. Mr. Hayes Fisher desires to encourage local authorities and voluntary agencies to undertake new work calculated to promote the health of mothers and children, and the Board will consider sympathetically any new proposal submitted to them under this heading. If a grant is desired, full particulars should be furnished of any such scheme and of its estimated cost before expenditure is incurred on it.

Items Excluded from Grant.

36. The grant is not available in respect of the following items, which are frequently included in applications :—

Payments to the Central Midwives Board,
Payments to registrars for returns of births,
Certificates of deaths of midwives,
Compensation to midwives for abstaining from work after contact with infection,
Expenses of deputations,
Rent of premises in the possession of the local authority or of the education committee,
Any part of the salary of the medical officer of health except an additional salary specially voted for maternity and child welfare work,
Clerical and other establishment expenses, except additional expenditure specifically necessitated by the scheme.

Applications from Voluntary Societies.

37. Grant is payable to voluntary societies on condition that the work is co-ordinated with the work of the local authority. It is convenient that applications from voluntary societies should be forwarded to the Board through the local authority with whose scheme they are co-ordinated. Where this is not done a copy of the application should be sent to the local authority at the same time as it is sent to the Board.

Use of Abortifacients.

38. A report was published by the Privy Council Office in 1910 on the practice of medicine and surgery by unqualified persons. For the purpose of that report the Board obtained some particulars from medical officers of health which showed that the sale of drugs intended to procure abortion and practice by abortion-mongers was prevalent in many parts of the country. From information obtained by medical inspectors of the Board in connection with their inquiries into maternity and child welfare work and from other material, the Board have reason to fear that these practices continue. One of the drugs most commonly employed for this purpose is diachylon, and on 27th April, 1917, an Order in Council was made adding to the list of poisons for the purpose of Part I. of the Schedule of Poisons "lead in combination with oleic acid, or other highly fatted acids, whether sold as diachylon or under any other designation (except machine spread plasters)." The Board would urge every local authority to bring this Order to the notice of the druggists and of the practising midwives in their area, to explain to their health visitors and to the midwives the risks to life and health involved in the use of diachylon, and in every other way to do what they can to stop the traffic in abortifacients and the practice of abortion-mongers in their districts.

REGULATIONS DATED AUGUST 9TH, 1918, UNDER WHICH GRANTS NOT EXCEEDING ONE HALF OF APPROVED NET EXPENDITURE WILL BE PAYABLE BY THE LOCAL GOVERNMENT BOARD TO LOCAL AUTHORITIES AND TO VOLUNTARY AGENCIES IN RESPECT OF ARRANGEMENTS FOR ATTENDING TO THE HEALTH OF EXPECTANT MOTHERS AND NURSING MOTHERS AND OF CHILDREN UNDER FIVE YEARS OF AGE (a).

1. The Local Government Board will pay grants during each financial year commencing on 1st April, in respect of the following services:—

(1) The salaries and expenses of inspectors of midwives.

(2) The salaries and expenses of health visitors and nurses engaged in maternity and child welfare work.

(3) The provision of a midwife for necessitous women in confinement and for areas which are insufficiently supplied with this service.

(4) The provision, for necessitous women, of a doctor for illness connected with pregnancy and for aid during the period of confinement for mother and child.

(5) The expenses of a centre, i.e. an institution providing any or all of the following activities: medical supervision and advice for expectant and nursing mothers, and for children under five years of age, and medical treatment at the centre for cases needing it.

(6) Arrangements for instruction in the general hygiene of maternity and childhood.

(7) Hospital treatment provided or contracted for by local authorities for complicated cases of confinement or complications arising after parturition, or for cases in which a woman to be confined suffers from illness or deformity, or for cases of women who, in the opinion of the medical officer of health, cannot with safety be confined in their homes or such other provision for securing proper conditions for the confinement of necessitous women as may be approved by the medical officer of health.

(8) Hospital treatment provided or contracted for by local authorities for children under five years of age found to need in-patient treatment.

(9) The cost of food provided for expectant mothers and nursing mothers and for children under five years of age, where such provision is certified by the medical officer of the centre or by the medical officer of health to be necessary and where the case is necessitous.

(10) Expenses of crèches and day nurseries and of other arrangements for attending to the health of children under five years of age whose mothers go out to work.

(11) The provision of accommodation in convalescent homes for nursing mothers and for children under five years of age.

(12) The provision of homes and other arrangements for attending to the health of children of widowed, deserted and unmarried mothers, under five years of age.

(13) Experimental work for the health of expectant and nursing mothers and of infants and children under five years of age carried out by local authorities or voluntary agencies with the approval of the Board.

(14) Contributions by the local authority to voluntary institutions and agencies approved under the scheme.

(a) See note at p. 3548, ante.

Appendix II.

2. Grants will be paid to voluntary agencies aided by the Board on condition :—

(1) That the work of the agency is approved by the Board and co-ordinated as far as practicable with the public health work of the local authority and the school medical service of the local education authority.

(2) That the premises and work of the institution are subject to inspection by any of the Board's officers or inspectors.

(3) That records of the work done by the agency are kept to the satisfaction of the Board.

MILK AND DAIRIES: AND TUBERCULOUS COWS.

See also Diseases and Hospitals, ante, p. 3139; "Food and Drugs," ante, p. 3310.

S. R. & O., 1922, No. 908.

The Milk and Dairies (Consolidation) Act, 1915 (Commencement of Operation) Order, 1922, dated August 14, 1922, made by the Minister of Health under section 21 of the Milk and Dairies (Consolidation) Act, 1915.

* * * * * *

Now, therefore, the Minister of Health, in exercise of the powers conferred on him by section 21 of the Milk and Dairies (Consolidation) Act, 1915, and of any other powers enabling him in that behalf, hereby orders as follows :—

1. Sub-section (3) of section 21 of the Milk and Dairies (Consolidation) Act, 1915, so far as it relates to the repeal of the Milk and Dairies Act, 1914, and the Milk and Dairies Acts Postponement Act, 1915, shall come into operation on the 1st day of September, 1922.

MEMO. 77/FOODS.

SALE OF MILK UNDER SPECIAL DESIGNATIONS.

"Certified"—"Grade A (Tuberculin Tested)"—"Grade A"—"Pasteurised."

General.

1. Under section 3 of the Milk and Dairies (Amendment) Act, 1922, the designations "Certified Milk," "Grade A Milk," "Pasteurised Milk," and other similar designations may only be used where a licence to sell milk under those designations has been granted by the Minister of Health or with his authority. Licences are required in the case of either Certified, Grade A (Tuberculin Tested), or Grade A Milk, both by the farmer who produces the milk and by every dealer who sells it. In the case of Pasteurised Milk a licence is required by the person who pasteurises it and by any other dealer who sells the milk.

Licences, expiring annually on the 31st December, are granted by the appropriate licensing authority, as stated at the beginning of each numbered paragraph below, subject to the conditions and upon the payments set out below. Separate licences are required for the use of each designation and separate fees are payable.*

Separate licences are required for each district † in which milk is retailed, and a separate fee is payable for each establishment. If a retailer wishes to sell milk in one district from a licensed establishment in another district, he can obtain a supplementary licence from the authority for the first district for an additional fee of 2*s.*

* The only exceptions are that a producer holding a "Certified Milk" licence may sell milk produced in accordance with the conditions of the licence as "Grade A (Tuberculin Tested)" or "Grade A," and the holder of a "Grade A (Tuberculin Tested) Milk" licence may sell milk produced in accordance with the conditions of that licence as "Grade A," in each case without any further licence or the payment of any further fee.

† I.e. Borough, Urban District, or Rural District.

Certified Milk.

2. The licensing authority for the producer is the Minister of Health. The fee is £5. The licensing authority for any other dealer is the district council.* The fee is 5*s.* in respect of each establishment.

The conditions under which licences are granted for the sale of "certified milk" are as follows :—

(i) A herd book or register of all the animals in the herd (showing additions and removals) must be kept and all the animals must be suitably marked for purposes of identification.

(ii) Every animal in the herd must have passed the tuberculin tests specified in the Appendix to this Memorandum, before the licence is granted, and thereafter at intervals of six months. Every animal reacting to the tests must forthwith be removed from the farm.

No animal may be added to the herd unless it has passed the tests.

Tuberculin must not be used except for the purposes of the required tests.

(iii) An examination of the herd must be made once in every three months by a veterinary surgeon nominated by the Minister. Any animal certified as showing evidence of any disease which may injuriously affect the milk must immediately be removed from the herd and information as to its disposal given to the Minister.

(iv) Before a licence is issued the farm will be inspected and a satisfactory number of points must be obtained on the inspection report card.

(v) The milk must be bottled on the farm immediately after production, for delivery to the consumer.

(vi) Every bottle must be closed with a suitable tightly-fitting disc and covered with a suitable outer cap overlapping the lip of the bottle and so fastened as to form a secure seal. This cap must bear the name and address of the producer or of the farm where the milk is produced, the day of production, and the words "Certified Milk."

The words "produced from cows which have passed the tuberculin test" may be added, but no other matter may be inserted except with the consent of the Minister.

(vii) The milk at any time before delivery to the consumer must not contain Bacillus Coli in 1/10 c.c. and must not contain more than 30,000 bacteria per c.c.

(viii) Accurate records must be kept by every producer and distributor in such a way that they can conveniently be checked. The producer's records must show the quantities of the milk produced and sold and the names and addresses of the purchasers. The distributor's records must show the quantities purchased and sold and the names and addresses of the persons from whom the milk is purchased and to whom it is sold otherwise than by retail.

(ix) Every facility must be given at all times to any person authorised by the licensing authority to inspect the premises, processes of production, equipment, methods and records, and to take samples of the milk (free of charge).

* Or Town Council or Metropolitan Borough Council as the case may be.

Grade A (Tuberculin Tested) Milk.

3. The licensing authority for the producer is the Minister of Health. The licensing authority for the distributor is the district council.*

The conditions as to the tuberculin testing of the herd which are set out in paragraph 2 (ii) of this memorandum must be complied with. The conditions (including those as to fees) set out in paragraph 4 below with regard to the issue of licences for the sale of "Grade A Milk" also apply, except that the milk must not be pasteurised, and that the designation "Grade A (Tuberculin Tested)" is to be substituted for "Grade A" wherever those words occur.

* Or Town Council or Metropolitan Borough Council as the case may be.

Grade A Milk.

4. The licensing authority for the producer is the council of the county or the county borough (as the case may be) in which the milk is produced. The fee is £1 1*s.* Where a producer bottles his milk and retails it at or from the place of production and has no separate retailing premises, this authority will grant a single inclusive licence to cover distribution as well as production, the fee for which is £3 3*s.* In other cases the licensing authority for the distributor is the district council.* The fee is £2 2*s.* in respect of each bottling establishment. A fee of 5*s.* is payable in respect of each establishment where the milk is received already bottled and from which it is distributed intact.

The conditions under which licences are granted for the sale of "Grade A Milk" are as follows:—

(i) A herd book or register of all the animals in the herd (showing additions and removals) must be kept and all the animals must be suitably marked for the purposes of identification.

(ii) An examination of the herd must be made once in every three months by a veterinary surgeon nominated by the licensing authority. Any animal certified as showing evidence of any disease which may injuriously affect the milk must immediately be removed from the herd and information as to its disposal given to the licensing authority.

(iii) If tubercle bacillus is at any time found in the milk the producer must arrange for bacteriological examinations of the milk to be made so that the diseased animals may be identified and removed from the herd.

(iv) The milk must be dispatched from the farm in an unventilated sealed container, bearing a suitable descriptive label with the address of the farm, the day and time of production (morning or evening), and the words "Grade A Milk."

(v) The distributor must deliver the milk to the consumer either:—

  (a) in the vessels in which he has received it, the seals being unbroken; or

  (b) in bottles † filled on the distributor's premises.

  Every bottle must be closed with a suitable tightly fitting disc and covered with a suitable outer cap overlapping the lip of the bottle and so fastened as to form a secure seal. This cap must bear the name and address of the distributor, the day of production, and the designation "Grade A Milk" (or "Grade A Milk (Pasteurised)" as the case may be) and no other matter except with the consent of the licensing authority.

  Until the milk has been bottled it must be kept entirely separate from all other milk.

(vi) The milk at any time before delivery to the consumer must not contain Bacillus Coli in 1/100 c.c. and must not contain more than 200,000 bacteria per c.c.

(vii) The milk may not be treated by any artificial heating process other than pasteurisation carried out in accordance with the conditions specified in paragraph 5 below and if it is so pasteurised it must be sold as "Grade A Milk (Pasteurised)." It must then conform to the standard as regards bacterial content specified in paragraph 5 (iii) below for pasteurised milk.

(viii) Accurate records must be kept by every producer and distributor in such a way that they can conveniently be checked. The producer's records must show the quantities of the milk produced and sold and the names and addresses of the purchasers. The distributor's records must show the quantities purchased and sold and the names and addresses of the persons from whom the milk is purchased, and to whom it is sold otherwise than by retail.

(ix) Every facility must be given at all times to any person authorised by the licensing authority to inspect the premises, processes of production, equipment, methods and records, and to take samples of the milk (free of charge).

* Or Town Council or Metropolitan Borough Council as the case may be.

† Where the milk is being delivered in large quantities (e.g. to a school or hospital) cans holding two gallons or more may be used instead of bottles. Each can must be closed by means of a tightly fitting cover and suitable seal.

Pasteurised Milk.

5. The licensing authority is the district council.* The fee is £1 1*s.* in respect of each pasteurising plant. A fee of 5*s.* is payable by any dealer in respect of each set of premises at or from which milk which has been pasteurised by some other dealer is sold as "Pasteurised Milk."

The conditions under which licences are granted are as follows, subject to the temporary relaxations stated in the footnotes to conditions (i) and (iii) respectively:—

(i) The milk must be retained at a temperature of not less than 145° and not more than 150° Fahrenheit for at least 30 minutes, and must then be immediately cooled to a temperature of not more than 55° Fahrenheit.†

(ii) The milk must not be otherwise treated by heat and must not be pasteurised more than once.

(iii) The milk at any time after pasteurisation and before delivery to the consumer must not contain Bacillus Coli in 1/10 c.c. and must not contain more than 30,000 bacteria per c.c.‡

(iv) Every vessel used for distributing the milk must be suitably labelled with the day of pasteurisation and the designation "Pasteurised Milk."

(v) Every facility must be given at all times to any person authorised by the licensing authority to inspect the premises, equipment and methods, and to take samples of the milk (free of charge).

* Or Town Council or Metropolitan Borough Council as the case may be.

† Until the 1*st July*, 1923, any process of pasteurisation (including the flash process) capable of effecting the necessary reduction of bacteria will be permitted. The condition as to immediate cooling must be observed.

‡ Until the 1*st January*, 1924, no test for Bacillus Coli will be imposed and the maximum bacterial content permitted will be 50,000 per c.c.

APPENDIX.

I.—TUBERCULIN TESTS FOR CERTIFIED MILK AND GRADE A (TUBERCULIN TESTED) MILK.

1. The producer must arrange with a veterinary surgeon nominated by the Minister to carry out the tests and to give the certificate and report specified below.

The producer must send all such certificates and reports to the Ministry (unless they are sent direct by the veterinary surgeon) within seven days of the date of the test and, in the case of an animal intended to be added to the herd, before it is added. The producer must within the same period send a declaration that every animal in the herd which is reported as reacting to the test has been removed.

2.—(a) The tests are to be carried out with fresh tuberculin of a satisfactory make. The name of the manufacturers of the tuberculin used and the quantity injected in each case should be stated on the test report sheet. The actual instructions supplied with the tuberculin used must be adhered to.

(b) The temperatures of all animals should be taken on three occasions at intervals of three hours shortly before the injections are made. The average of all temperatures within the physiological limits should be noted. Any animal persistently showing a temperature which is abnormal when compared with this average should not be included in the test, but should be tested as soon as its temperature becomes normal. No animal which has been injected with tuberculin within the previous three months may be included in the test.

(c) The hypodermic and ophthalmic tests should be applied simultaneously.

(d) After the injections, the temperature should be taken every three hours, beginning at the sixth hour and continuing until the eighteenth hour. If the temperature of any animal has shown little variation, but at the eighteenth hour shows distinct signs of rising, its temperature should be taken again after a further period of three hours. The result of the eye test should be recorded up to the eighteenth hour.

(e) The taking of the temperature may only be entrusted to an assistant if the assistant acts under the immediate personal supervision of the veterinary surgeon.

(f) (i) A certificate should be given on the official form. The results observed in respect of each animal should be entered separately, the description of each animal including a reference to the identification mark or number (see paragraphs 2 (i) and 4 (i) of this Memorandum).

(ii) All temperatures, including the average specified in (b) above, and all changes noted in the eye should be reported on the form.

II.—GENERAL VETERINARY EXAMINATION FOR CERTIFIED GRADE A (TUBERCULIN TESTED) AND GRADE A MILK.

1. The producer must arrange with a veterinary surgeon nominated by the licensing authority to make a personal veterinary examination of the entire herd and to give the certificate and report specified below.

The producer must send all such certificates and reports to the licensing authority (unless they are sent direct by the veterinary surgeon) within seven days of the date of the examination. He must also within the same period remove from the herd any animal certified as suffering from any of the diseases specified below or from any other disease likely to affect the milk injuriously, and inform the licensing authority how that animal has been disposed of.

2.—(a) The veterinary surgeon should make particular examination for any of the following diseases:—

(i) Tuberculosis of the udder.
(ii) Indurated udder.
(iii) Enlargement of supra-mammary lymphatic glands.
(iv) Tuberculosis in any form with emaciation.
(v) Chronic cough with definite clinical symptoms of tuberculosis.
(vi) Anthrax.
(vii) Foot and mouth disease.
(viii) Mastitis.
(ix) Abscess of the udder.
(x) Retained placenta.

(b) A certificate should be given on the official form specifying any clinical evidence of disease. The description of the animals given on this form should in every case include a reference to the identification mark or number (see paragraphs 2 (i) and 4 (i) of this Memorandum).

Ministry of Health,
January, 1923.

S. R. & O., 1923, No. 509.

THE PUBLIC HEALTH (CONDENSED MILK) REGULATIONS, 1923, DATED 1ST MAY 1923, MADE BY THE MINISTER OF HEALTH (a).

68242.

The Minister of Health in the exercise of the powers conferred upon him by the Public Health Act, 1875, the Public Health (London) Act, 1891, the Public Health Act, 1896, the Public Health (Regulations as to Food) Act, 1907, and by section 8 of the Milk and Dairies (Amendment) Act, 1922, and of every other power enabling him in that behalf, hereby makes the following Regulations, with the consent of the Commissioners of Customs and Excise, so far as they apply to the officers of customs and excise, that is to say:—

Part I.

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Public Health (Condensed Milk) Regulations, 1923, and shall come into operation on the 1st day of October, 1923 (b).

2.—(1) In these Regulations, unless the context otherwise requires—

"The Minister" means the Minister of Health;

"Local authority" means any local authority authorised to appoint an analyst for the purposes of the Sale of Food and Drugs Acts, 1875 to 1907 (c), and "public analyst" means an analyst so appointed;

"Officer of Customs and Excise" includes any person acting under the authority of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs and Excise;

"Condensed milk" means milk or skimmed milk which has been concentrated by the removal of part of its water, whether with or without the addition of sugar, and includes the article commonly known as "evaporated milk," but does not include the article commonly known as "dried milk" or "milk powders";

"Skimmed milk" includes separated or machine-skimmed milk;

"Gross weight" of a tin or other receptacle means the weight of the tin or other receptacle and of its contents;

"Importer" includes any person who, whether as owner, consignor, or consignee, agent or broker, is in possession of or in anywise entitled to the custody or control of any condensed milk brought from a place situate outside the United Kingdom, the Channel Islands, and the Isle of Man; and "import" shall be construed accordingly

Percentages shall be calculated by weight.

(2) The Interpretation Act, 1889, applies to the interpretation of these Regulations as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

Part II.

3. The local authority shall enforce and execute this Part of these Regulations, and for this purpose shall make such inquiries and take such other steps as may seem to them to be necessary for securing the due observance of this Part of the Regulations in their district.

4. No person shall sell or expose for sale or deposit in any place for the purposes of sale, or dispatch or deliver to any purchaser, broker or agent any condensed milk intended for human consumption unless the condensed milk—

(1) is contained in a tin or other receptacle which is labelled in the manner prescribed in the First Schedule to these Regulations; and

2) contains not less than the appropriate percentages of milk fat and milk solids as specified in the Second Schedule to these Regulations:

Provided that—

(a) The provisions of this Article shall not apply in any case where the

(a) These regulations have been amended by the P. H. (Condensed Milk) Amendment Regulations, 1927, post, p. 3587.

(b) By a regulation of 24th September, 1923. the date for the coming into operation of these regulations was postponed to 1st November, 1923.

condensed milk is intended to be exported or is contained in a tin or other receptacle whose gross weight exceeds five pounds ; and

(b) Where in any public refreshment room, restaurant, shop, or other public premises condensed milk is delivered to a purchaser or other person for consumption on the premises, the receptacle containing the condensed milk shall not be required to be labelled in the manner prescribed by these Regulations (a).

5.—(1) The medical officer of health, and any person authorised by him or by the local authority in writing, may procure any sample of condensed milk, and where an analysis is required for the purposes of these Regulations shall submit the sample to the public analyst and shall forthwith notify to the seller or his agent selling the condensed milk his intention to have the same analysed by the public analyst.

(2) Except where the sample is procured for the purpose of testing the quantity of milk or skimmed milk of which the contents of a tin or other receptacle are the equivalent, the provisions of section 14 of the Sale of Food and Drugs Act, 1875, as amended by section 13 of the Sale of Food and Drugs Act, 1899 (b), relating to the division of the sample into three parts and the separation, marking and disposal of such parts, shall apply.

6. Any officer authorised by the Minister and any officer of the local authority duly authorised by the authority in writing shall have power to enter at all reasonable times any premises where condensed milk is prepared, packed, labelled, or stored, and to inspect any process carried on therein and to take samples of any article used or capable of being used in the preparation of condensed milk and of any labels designed to be used for affixing to tins or other receptacles of condensed milk.

7. Where the local authority on a report to them from the public analyst or otherwise are of opinion that a consignment of condensed milk deposited within their district and intended for sale for human consumption does not comply with the requirements of these Regulations they shall endeavour to ascertain where it was manufactured and labelled. If it is ascertained that such condensed milk was manufactured or labelled at a place in England or Wales, the local authority shall communicate the facts which they have ascertained to the local authority for the district in which such place is situated. If it is ascertained that such condensed milk was manufactured or labelled at a place not in England or Wales, the local authority shall communicate the facts to the Minister.

Part III.

8.—(1) Subject to any directions given by the Commissioners of Customs and Excise after consultation with the Minister, the officers of customs and excise shall enforce and execute this Part of these Regulations and may take such samples of consignments of imported condensed milk as may be necessary for that purpose.

(2) Where an officer of customs and excise takes a sample for the purpose of analysis he shall send the sample to the Government Chemist, and the Government Chemist shall send a portion thereof to the importer.

(3) If in any case the Commissioners of Customs and Excise are of opinion that an offence against this Part of these Regulations has been committed, they shall communicate to the Minister for his information the name of the importer and such other facts as they may possess or may obtain as to the destination of the consignment.

9. No condensed milk intended for sale for human consumption shall be imported into England and Wales unless the same—

(1) is contained in a tin or other receptacle which is labelled in the manner prescribed in the First Schedule to these Regulations ; and

(2) contains not less than the appropriate percentages of milk fat and milk solids as specified in the Second Schedule to these Regulations :

Provided that the provisions of this article shall not apply in any case where the condensed milk is intended to be re-exported or is contained in a tin or other receptacle whose gross weight exceeds five pounds.

(b) See now s. 18 of the Food & Drugs (Adulteration) Act, 1928, ante, p. 2972.

Part IV.

10. In any proceedings under these Regulations the certificate of the Government Chemist or the public analyst, as the case may be, of the result of the chemical examination of a sample shall be sufficient evidence of the facts therein stated unless the defendant requires that the person who made the examination be called as a witness.

11. A person, in relation to anything within his knowledge, shall truly answer all such questions put to him by the authorities authorised to enforce and execute these Regulations or their officers or by an officer authorised by the Minister as may be necessary for the purposes of these Regulations, and shall produce for inspection all such books as the authority or officer may reasonably require for the purposes of ascertaining the persons or places from which condensed milk has been obtained and to whom and where it has been consigned or otherwise.

12. In any proceedings under these Regulations, where the fact that any condensed milk has been dealt with contrary to these Regulations has been proved, if the defendant shall desire to rely upon any exception or provision contained in these Regulations with reference to condensed milk intended for export or re-export, it shall be incumbent upon him to prove that the condensed milk was so intended.

SCHEDULES.

FIRST SCHEDULE.

RULES WITH RESPECT TO THE LABELLING OF CONDENSED MILK.

1. . . . (a).

2. The declaration shall in each case be completed by inserting at (a) the appropriate number in words and figures, e.g. " one and a half ($1\frac{1}{2}$)," any fraction being expressed as eighths, quarters, or a half.

For the purposes of these Rules milk means milk which contains not less than 12·4 per cent. of milk solids (including not less than 3·6 per cent. of milk fat), and skimmed milk means milk which contains not less than 9 per cent. of milk solids other than milk fat.

3. . . . (a).

4. The label shall in addition bear the name and address of the manufacturer of the condensed milk or of the dealer or merchant in the United Kingdom for whom it is manufactured (b).

5. The label shall be securely affixed to the tin or other receptacle so as to be clearly visible. If there is attached to the tin or other receptacle a label bearing the name, trade mark, or design representing the brand of the condensed milk, the prescribed declaration shall be printed as part of such label.

6. There shall not be placed on any tin or other receptacle containing condensed milk—

(a) any comment on, explanation of, or reference to either the statement of equivalence contained in the prescribed declaration or the words " machine skimmed," " skimmed," or " unfit for babies " ; or

(b) any instructions as to dilution, unless either—

  (i) the fluid produced in accordance with such instructions would contain not less milk fat and not less milk solids than milk or skimmed milk as defined in Rule 2 of this Schedule as the case may require ; or

  (ii) such instructions clearly specify that the fluid so produced is not of equivalent composition to milk or skimmed milk as the case may be.

(b) In the case of imported dried milk, the provisions of section 16 of the Merchandise Marks Act, 1887 (50 & 51 Vict. c. 28), must also be complied with if the label bears the name or trade mark of a dealer or merchant in the United Kingdom.

7. Wherever the word "Milk" appears on the label of a tin or other receptacle of condensed skimmed milk as the description or part of the description of the contents, it shall be immediately preceded or followed by the word "Machine-Skimmed" or "Skimmed" as the case may require.

SECOND SCHEDULE.

All condensed milk shall contain not less than the appropriate percentages of milk fat and milk solids as specified in the following Table :—

Description of Condensed Milk.	Percentage of milk fat.	Percentage of all milk solids, including fat.
1. Full cream, unsweetened . . .	9·0	31·0
2. Full cream, sweetened . . .	9·0	31·0
3. Skimmed, unsweetened . . .	—	20·0
4. Skimmed, sweetened	—	26·0

S. R. & O., 1923, No. 601.

THE MILK (SPECIAL DESIGNATIONS) ORDER, 1923, DATED 25TH MAY, 1923, MADE BY THE MINISTER OF HEALTH UNDER SECTION 3 OF THE MILK AND DAIRIES (AMENDMENT) ACT, 1922.

The Minister of Health, in exercise of the powers conferred on him by section 3 of the Milk and Dairies (Amendment) Act, 1922, and of any other powers enabling him in that behalf, hereby orders as follows :—

1. This Order may be cited as the Milk (Special Designations) Order, 1923, and shall come into operation on the 1st day of July, 1923.

2.—(1) In this Order, unless the context otherwise requires—

"The Minister" means the Minister of Health ;

"Licensing Authority" means, in relation to any application for the grant of a licence, the authority which has power under section 3 (1) of the Milk and Dairies (Amendment) Act, 1922, or this Order to grant the licence, and in relation to any licence which has been granted means the authority by which the licence was granted ;

"District Council" means the council of a borough or of an urban or rural district, and in relation to London means a metropolitan borough council and the Common Council of the City of London ;

"Milch cow" means a cow kept for milking purposes ;

"Herd" means the milch cows in respect of which any licence is applied for or granted, as the case may be, and includes any other bovine animal for the time being kept in contact with such cows while they are in milk ;

"Sell" includes offer or expose for sale, and "sale" shall be construed accordingly ;

"Dealer" means any person who sells milk either by wholesale or retail under any of the special designations referred to in this Order ;

"Producer" means a dealer owning or having the control of a herd from which milk sold under any of the special designations is obtained ;

"Examination" of an animal means a clinical examination carried out in such manner as the Minister may direct by a veterinary surgeon nominated by the licensing authority with the concurrence of the Minister, and "veterinary surgeon's certificate" means a certificate, in a form approved by the Minister, signed by the person who has made such examination and certifying the result thereof ;

"Prescribed tuberculin test" of an animal means a test made with tuberculin in such manner as the Minister may direct, by a veterinary surgeon approved by the Minister, and "Certificate of a prescribed tuberculin test" means a certificate, in a form approved by the Minister, signed by the person making the test and certifying the result thereof;

"Sample" means a sample taken by a person duly authorised in that behalf by the licensing authority.

(2) The Interpretation Act, 1889, applies to the interpretation of this Order as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

3. The special designations under which milk may be sold or offered or exposed for sale in pursuance of this Order are the following, namely: "Certified," "Grade A (Tuberculin tested)," "Grade A," and "Pasteurised."

4. Subject to the provisions of this Order, and without any prejudice to the power to grant licences conferred on the Minister by section 3 (1) of the Milk and Dairies (Amendment) Act, 1922, every county council and county borough council is hereby authorised to grant licences to producers to sell milk as "Grade A," and every district council is hereby authorised to grant licences to any person to sell milk as "Pasteurised" and to any person to sell milk as "Certified," "Grade A (Tuberculin tested)," or "Grade A," otherwise than from the establishment at which the milk is produced: Provided that in any case in which the Minister is satisfied that a county council are unwilling or do not propose to exercise in any district the power of granting licences hereby conferred on them, the Minister may authorise the district council to grant such licences in place of the county council.

5.—(1) Every licence granted under this Order shall be in the form contained in the First Schedule hereto with such modifications, if any, as the circumstances may require.

(2) Subject as hereinafter provided, every licence shall be valid for a period ending on the 31st day of December in the year in respect of which it is granted.

(3) A licence granted by a local authority shall not entitle the holder to sell milk under the terms of the licence outside the area of the authority except by wholesale.

(4) Where the holder of a licence desires to sell milk under the designation specified in the licence by retail outside the area of the licensing authority from a shop or other premises within that area, the district council of the area in which he proposes to sell the milk, may grant him a supplementary licence entitling him to sell milk under that designation in their area from such shop or other premises, but in that event nothing in this Order shall authorise the said council, either before the grant or during the currency of the supplementary licence, to exercise any powers under this Order outside their area.

6.—(1) Application for a licence shall be made in writing to the licensing authority.

(2) Before granting a licence to a producer the licensing authority shall require him in the case of "Certified" milk or "Grade A (Tuberculin tested)" milk to produce a veterinary surgeon's certificate showing the results of an examination of the herd carried out not more than three months before the date of the application and a certificate of a prescribed tuberculin test of the herd carried out within a similar period, and in the case of "Grade A" milk to produce a veterinary surgeon's certificate showing the results of an examination of the milch cows belonging to the herd carried out not more than one month before the date of the application.

(3) Subject to the provisions of this Order, the licensing authority shall require every applicant to satisfy them that his arrangements for the production, storage, treatment, and distribution of the milk, as the case may be, are such as to comply with the conditions upon which the licence may be granted.

7.—(1) Every licence granted under this Order shall be subject to the general conditions set out in the Second Schedule to this Order.

(2) In addition to the general conditions every licence for the sale of milk as "Certified," "Grade A (Tuberculin tested)," "Grade A," and "Pasteurised" shall be subject to the conditions set out in Parts I., II., III., and IV. of the Third Schedule to this Order respectively.

8. The fees payable for licences shall be those set out in the Fourth Schedule to this Order, but where a licence is granted for a period of less than a year, the licensing authority may grant the licence upon payment of such sum being less than the full fee as they think fit, having regard to the period for which the licence will operate.

9.—(1) A licensing authority may, if they are satisfied that any of the conditions upon which the licence is granted are not being complied with, suspend or revoke the licence, but the licence shall not be suspended or revoked before the licensing authority have served on the holder a notice stating the grounds on which it is proposed to suspend or revoke the licence, and the holder shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity of making such representations to the authority in regard thereto as he thinks fit;

Provided that a producer's licence shall not be suspended or revoked by reason only of his milk being found not to comply with the conditions of the licence after it has left his custody and control if he proves that such non-compliance was not due to any act or default of himself or of his sevants or agents.

(2) Where application for a licence has been made to or a licence has been granted by any licensing authority other than the Minister, a person aggrieved by a decision of the licensing authority to refuse or to suspend or revoke a licence may within seven days after receiving notice of such decision appeal to the Minister, whose decision shall be final, and the licensing authority shall comply with the decision of the Minister. In any appeal any reference in this Order to anything being to the satisfaction of the licensing authority or subject to their approval shall be treated as if the reference were to the satisfaction or approval of the Minister. Pending the final determination of any appeal from a decision to suspend or revoke a licence, the licence shall continue to have effect.

10. A licensing authority may delegate to a committee of the authority, with or without restrictions or conditions as they think fit, all or any of their powers under this Order.

11. Two or more licensing authorities may concur in appointing out of their respective bodies a joint committee for carrying out their duties under this Order and in conferring with or without restrictions on any such committee any powers which the appointing authorities might exercise for the purpose, and the provisions of sections 57 and 58 of the Local Government Act, 1894, in regard to joint committees shall, with the necessary modifications, apply to any joint committee so appointed.

12. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Order, a licence permitting a producer to sell milk produced by him as "Certified" shall entitle him to sell such milk as "Grade A (Tuberculin tested)" or as "Grade A," and a licence permitting the producer to sell milk produced by him as "Grade A (Tuberculin tested)" shall entitle him to sell such milk as "Grade A."

13. Where milk has been sold by a dealer who is licensed in Scotland to sell milk under any special designation, this Order shall apply to the subsequent sale of that milk in England or Wales in the same manner as if such dealer had sold by virtue of a licence granted under the provisions of this Order.

14. The Milk (Special Designations) Order, 1922, and the Milk (Special Designations) Amendment Order, 1922, are hereby revoked, but any licence granted or other act or thing done under the first-mentioned Order, shall have effect as if it had been granted or done under this Order.

(2) The holder of the licence shall—

- (a) take such measures as the licensing authority may require to ensure that the milk in respect of which the use of a special designation is authorised shall be kept separate at all stages from all other milk;
- (b) keep accurate records of the quantities of milk produced, purchased, and sold, as the case may be, and of the names and addresses of the persons from whom the milk was purchased and to whom it was sold otherwise than by retail;
- (c) permit any person duly authorised by the licensing authority—
  - (i) to inspect the processes of production, storage, and treatment,
  - (ii) to take samples of the milk free of charge, and
  - (iii) to inspect any records which the holder is required by the conditions of the licence to keep.

THIRD SCHEDULE.

PART I.

CONDITIONS SUBJECT TO WHICH LICENCES FOR SELLING MILK AS "CERTIFIED" MAY BE GRANTED.

A.—The following conditions apply to producers only:—

(1)—(a) The producer shall cause every animal of the herd to be submitted to an examination and to a prescribed tuberculin test at intervals of six months, and shall produce to the licensing authority the veterinary surgeon's certificate and the certificate of the prescribed tuberculin test within seven days after the respective dates of those certificates. He shall not permit any animal to be injected with tuberculin except on the occasions of the prescribed tuberculin tests;

(b) No animal, other than an animal taken directly from a herd in respect of which a licence for the sale of "Certified" or "Grade A (Tuberculin tested)" milk is in operation, shall be added to the herd unless it has passed a prescribed tuberculin test immediately before it is so added;

(c) Where any animal is certified as re-acting to a prescribed tuberculin test it shall forthwith be removed from the herd, and where any animal is certified as showing evidence of any disease which is likely to affect the milk injuriously it shall be isolated or removed from the herd, as the case may require. The milk from an animal so isolated shall not be sold as milk from the herd. The producer shall inform the licensing authority of the reasons for the isolation or removal of an animal and, in the case of removal, of the manner in which it has been disposed of;

(d) A suitable system shall be adopted for the marking for purposes of identification of the animals in the herd, and a complete register of such animals shall be kept; and

(e) The herd shall be completely isolated from all other cattle.

(2) The milk shall be bottled on the farm immediately after production.

(3) Every bottle containing the milk shall be closed with a suitable tightly fitting disc and covered with a suitable outer cap overlapping the lip of the bottle and so fastened as to form a complete seal. The cap shall bear the name and address of the producer or of the dairy where the milk is produced, the day of production, and the words "certified milk." The words "produced from cows which have passed the tuberculin test" may be added, but, except with the consent of the licensing authority, the cap shall bear no other words.

B.—The following conditions apply to all holders of licences to sell milk as " Certified " :—

(1) The milk shall not be removed from the bottles or the seals broken before delivery to the purchaser.

(2) On a sample being taken at any time before delivery to the consumer the milk shall be found to contain :

(a) not more than 30,000 bacteria per cubic centimetre ; and

(b) no coliform bacillus in one-tenth of a cubic centimetre.

(3) The milk shall not at any stage be treated by heat.

PART II.

CONDITIONS SUBJECT TO WHICH LICENCES FOR SELLING MILK AS " GRADE A (TUBERCULIN TESTED) " MAY BE GRANTED.

(1) The conditions set out in paragraph (1) of sub-division A. of Part I., in paragraph (7) of sub-division A. of Part III., in sub-division B. of Part III., and in paragraph (2) of sub-division C. of Part III , of this schedule shall apply with the substitution in Part III. of the designation " Grade A (Tuberculin tested) " for the designation " Grade A."

(2) The milk shall not at any stage be treated by heat.

PART III.

CONDITIONS SUBJECT TO WHICH LICENCES FOR SELLING MILK AS " GRADE A " MAY BE GRANTED.

A.—The following conditions apply to producers only :—

(1) No animal which to the knowledge of the owner of the herd has at any time been tested with tuberculin and has re-acted to the test shall form part of or be added to the herd.

(2) The producer shall cause every milch cow belonging to the herd to be examined once in every three months, and shall produce to the licensing authority the veterinary surgeon's certificate within seven days after the date of the certificate.

(3) Where any animal is certified as showing evidence of any disease which is likely to affect the milk injuriously it shall be isolated or removed from the herd, as the case may require. The milk from an animal so isolated shall not be sold as milk from the herd. The producer shall inform the licensing authority of the reasons for the isolation or removal of an animal and, in the case of removal, of the manner in which it has been disposed of.

(4) If at any time it is shown to the satisfaction of the licensing authority that tubercle bacillus is contained in the milk, the producer shall take all necessary steps to ascertain which animals are diseased and to remove them from the herd and shall inform the licensing authority how such animals have been disposed of.

(5) A suitable system shall be adopted for the marking for the purposes of identification of the milch cows belonging to the herd, and a complete register of such cows shall be kept.

(6) The cows in milk belonging to the herd shall be kept separate from all other cows in milk.

(7) Except where the milk is bottled by the producer in accordance with the procedure for bottling hereinafter specified, the milk shall be consigned from the dairy where it is produced in an unventilated sealed container which shall be labelled or marked in a suitable manner with the address of the dairy, the day of production (with the word " morning " or " evening " according to the time of milking), and the words " Grade A Milk."

B.—The following conditions apply to persons other than producers :—

(1) Except where the milk is delivered to the consumer in the containers in which it is received, the seals being unbroken, it shall be delivered either in bottles or in other suitable containers of not less capacity than two gallons.

(2) Every bottle containing the milk shall be closed with a suitable tightly fitting disc and covered with a suitable outer cap overlapping the lip of the bottle and so fastened as to form a complete seal. The cap shall bear the name of the dealer by whom the milk was bottled, and the address of the licensed bottling establishment, the words " Grade A Milk " and the day of production, and shall, except with the consent of the licensing authority, bear no other words. Where containers other than bottles are used, every container shall be closed with a tightly fitting cover and shall be suitably sealed and labelled.

Appendix II.

C.—The following conditions apply to all holders of licences to sell milk as " Grade A " :—

(1) The milk shall not at any stage be treated by heat unless a licence to sell such milk as " Pasteurised " has been granted under this Order, and where such a licence has been granted the term " Pasteurised " shall be added after the designation " Grade A Milk " wherever such designation is used in connection with the sale of such milk or the labelling or marking of receptacles containing such milk.

(2) Milk sold as " Grade A Milk " shall be produced and treated under such conditions that on a sample being taken at any time before delivery to the consumer the milk shall be found to contain :—

(a) not more than 200,000 bacteria per cubic centimetre ; and
(b) no coliform bacillus in one-hundredth of a cubic centimetre.

(3) Milk sold as " Grade A Milk Pasteurised " shall be produced and treated under such conditions that on a sample being taken before delivery to the consumer the milk shall be found to contain :—

(a) in the case of a sample taken at any time before the 1st day of January, 1924, not more than 50,000 bacteria per cubic centimetre, and no coliform bacillus in one-hundredth of a cubic centimetre ; and
(b) in the case of a sample taken at any time after the year 1923 not more than 30,000 bacteria per cubic centimetre, and no coliform bacillus in one-tenth of a cubic centimetre.

PART IV.

CONDITIONS SUBJECT TO WHICH LICENCES FOR SELLING MILK AS " PASTEURISED " MAY BE GRANTED.

(1) The milk shall be pasteurised, that is to say, retained at a temperature of not less than 145° and not more than 150° Fahrenheit for at least half an hour, and be immediately cooled to a temperature of not more than 55° Fahrenheit.

(2) The milk shall not be so heated more than once and shall not be otherwise treated by heat.

(3) The type of apparatus used for pasteurising and the methods employed shall be such as are satisfactory to the licensing authority.

(4) Every vessel containing the milk shall bear a suitable label with the words " Pasteurised Milk."

(5) On a sample of the milk being taken after pasteurisation and before delivery to the consumer, the milk shall be found to contain :—

(a) in the case of a sample taken at any time before the 1st day of January, 1924, not more than 200,000 bacteria per cubic centimetre ; and
(b) in the case of a sample taken at any time after the year 1923, not more than 100,000 bacteria per cubic centimetre.

(6) Until the 1st day of January, 1924, the requirements contained in paragraphs (1) and (2) of these conditions shall be deemed to be satisfied if the milk is treated not more than once by a suitable heating process and immediately cooled to a temperature of not more than 55° Fahrenheit.

S. R. & O., 1923, No. 1,323.

THE PUBLIC HEALTH (DRIED MILK) REGULATIONS, 1923, DATED 5TH NOVEMBER, 1923, MADE BY THE MINISTER OF HEALTH (a).

The Minister of Health in the exercise of the powers conferred upon him by the Public Health Act, 1875, the Public Health (London) Act, 1891, the Public Health Act, 1896, the Public Health (Regulations as to Food) Act, 1907, and by section 8 of the Milk and Dairies (Amendment) Act, 1922, and of every other power enabling him in that behalf, hereby makes the following Regulations, that is to say :—

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Public Health (Dried Milk) Regulations, 1923, and shall come into operation on the 1st day of May, 1924.

2.—(1) In these Regulations unless the context otherwise requires :—

"The Minister" means the Minister of Health ;

"Local Authority" means any local authority authorised to appoint an analyst for the purposes of the Sale of Food and Drugs Acts, 1875 to 1907 (b), and "public analyst" means an analyst so appointed ;

"Dried Milk" means milk, partly skimmed milk, or skimmed milk, which has been concentrated to the form of powder or solid by the removal of water ;

"Skimmed milk" includes separated or machine-skimmed milk ;

"Gross weight" of a tin or other receptacle means the weight of the tin or other receptacle and of its contents ;

"Label" includes a mark.

Percentages shall be calculated by weight.

(2) These Regulations apply to dried milk to which no other substance has been added, and to the dried milk contained in any powder or solid of which not less than 70 per cent. consists of dried milk.

(3) The Interpretation Act, 1889, applies to the interpretation of these Regulations as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

3. The local authority shall enforce and execute these Regulations, and for this purpose shall make such inquiries and take such other steps as may seem to them to be necessary for securing the due observance of the Regulations in their district.

4. No person shall sell or expose for sale or deposit in any place for the purposes of sale, or dispatch or deliver to any purchaser, broker, or agent any dried milk intended for human consumption unless the dried milk—

(1) is contained in a tin or other receptacle which is labelled in the manner prescribed in the Schedule to these Regulations ; and

(2) contains not less than the following percentages of milk fat, namely—

In the case of milk described as dried full cream milk, not less than 26 per cent. ;

In the case of milk described as dried three-quarter cream milk, not less than 20 per cent. ;

In the case of milk described as dried half cream milk, not less than 14 per cent. ; and

In the case of milk described as dried quarter-cream milk, not less than 8 per cent. :

Provided that—

(a) The provisions of this Article shall not apply in any case where the dried milk is contained in a tin or other receptacle whose gross weight exceeds ten pounds ; and

(b) Where dried milk is sold by weight and is not placed in the tin or other receptacle in which it is delivered to the purchaser until immediately before such delivery, the provisions of Rules 1 to 4 of the Schedule shall be deemed to be satisfied if the matter therein required to appear on a label affixed to the tin or other receptacle is printed on a separate label or notice delivered to the purchaser, and the last sentence of the declaration required by Rule 1 of the Schedule may be varied so as to relate to one pound or to any other specified weight of the article sold instead of the contents of the actual tin or other receptacle (a).

5.—(1) The Medical Officer of Health, and any person authorised by him or by the local authority in writing, may procure any sample of dried milk, and where an analysis is required for the purposes of these Regulations shall submit the sample to the public analyst and shall forthwith notify to the seller or his agent selling the dried milk his intention to have the same analysed by the public analyst.

(2) Except where the sample is procured for the purpose of testing the quantity of milk, partly skimmed milk, or skimmed milk of which the contents of a tin or other receptacle are the equivalent, the provisions of section 14 of the Sale of Food and Drugs Act, 1875, as amended by section 13 of the Sale of Food and Drugs Act, 1899 (b), relating to the division of the sample into three parts and the separation, marking and disposal of such parts shall apply.

(3) Where the sample is procured for the purpose of testing the quantity of milk, partly skimmed milk or skimmed milk of which the contents of a tin or other receptacle are the equivalent, the person by whom the sample is procured shall as soon as may be after the net weight of the contents has been ascertained deliver a part of the sample to the seller or his agent.

6. Any officer authorised by the Minister and any officer of the local authority duly authorised by the authority in writing shall have power to enter at all reasonable times any premises where dried milk is prepared, packed, labelled, or stored, and to inspect any process carried on therein, and to take samples of any article used or capable of being used in the preparation of dried milk and of any labels designed to be used for affixing to tins or other receptacles of dried milk.

7. Where the local authority on a report to them from the public analyst or otherwise are of opinion that a consignment of dried milk deposited within their district and intended for sale for human consumption does not comply with the requirements of these Regulations they shall endeavour to ascertain where it was manufactured and labelled. If it is ascertained that such dried milk was manufactured or labelled at a place in England or Wales, the local authority shall communicate the facts which they have ascertained to the local authority for the district in which such place is situated. If it is ascertained that such dried milk was manufactured or labelled at a place not in England or Wales, the local authority shall communicate the facts to the Minister.

8. In any proceedings under these Regulations the certificate of the public analyst of the result of the chemical examination of a sample shall be sufficient evidence of the facts therein stated unless the defendant requires that the analyst be called as a witness.

9. A person, in relation to anything within his knowledge, shall truly answer all such questions put to him by the authorities authorised to enforce and execute these Regulations or their officers, or by an officer authorised by the Minister, as may be necessary for the purposes of these Regulations, and shall produce for inspection all such books as the authority or officer may reasonably require for the purposes of ascertaining the persons or places from which dried milk has been obtained and to whom and where it has been consigned or otherwise.

(b) See now s. 18 of the Food and Drugs (Adulteration) Act, 1928, ante, p. 2972.

THE SCHEDULE.

RULES WITH RESPECT TO THE LABELLING OF DRIED MILK.

1.—(1) . . . (a).

(2) The label on any tin or other receptacle containing dried milk to which sugar or some other substance has been added shall be in the appropriate form prescribed in sub-division (1) hereof, with the following modifications:—

(i) There shall be added to the heading the word "Sweetened" if the only substance added to the milk is sugar, the word "Modified" if the only substance added is a constituent of milk, and the word "Compounded" in every other case; and

(ii) The words "with (c) added" shall be added to the last sentence in each case, words being inserted at (c) to specify the substance or substances added.

(3) The declaration shall be completed as follows:—

(i) There shall be inserted at (a) the appropriate number in words and figures, e.g. "one and a half ($1\frac{1}{2}$)," any fraction being expressed as eighths, quarters, or a half.

(ii) There shall be inserted at (b) the word "Three-quarter" if the percentage of milk fat is not less than 20; "Half" if such percentage is less than 20 but not less than 14; and "Quarter" if such percentage is less than 14 but not less than 8.

(4) For the purposes of this Rule the terms "Milk," "Three-quarter cream milk," "Half cream milk," and "Quarter cream milk" mean milk containing not less than the following percentages of milk fat and milk soldis, that is to say:—

	Milk Fat.	Milk Solids (including fat).
Milk	3·6	12·4
Three-quarter cream milk	2·7	11·6
Half cream milk	1·8	10·8
Quarter cream milk	0·9	9·9 and "Skimmed milk" means milk which contains not less than 9 per cent. of milk solids other than milk fat.

2. . . . (a).

3. The label shall in addition bear the name and address of the manufacturer of the dried milk or of the dealer or merchant in the United Kingdom for whom it is manufactured (b).

4. The label shall be securely affixed to the tin or other receptacle so as to be clearly visible. If there is attached to the tin or other receptacle a label bearing the name, trade mark, or design representing the brand of the dried milk, the prescribed declaration shall be printed as part of such label.

5. There shall not be placed on any tin or other receptacle containing dried milk—

(a) any comment on, explanation of, or reference to either the statement of equivalence contained in the prescribed declaration or the words "partly skimmed," "machine-skimmed," "skimmed," or "unfit for babies" or

(b) any instructions as to dilution, unless either—

(i) the fluid produced in accordance with such instructions would contain not less milk fat and not less milk solids than milk, partly skimmed milk, or skimmed milk as defined in Rule 1 of this schedule, as the case may require; or

(ii) such instructions clearly specify that the fluid so produced is not of equivalent composition to milk, partly skimmed milk, or skimmed milk, as the case may be.

6. Wherever the word "Milk" appears on the label of a tin or other receptacle of dried partly skimmed or skimmed milk as the description or part of the description of the contents, it shall be immediately preceded or followed by the words "Partly skimmed," "Machine-skimmed," or "Skimmed," as the case may require.

(a) See the substituted paragraph in the Amending Regulations, 1927, Art. 4, post, p. 3590.

(b) In the case of imported dried milk, the provisions of section 16 of the Merchandise Marks Act, 1887 (50 & 51 Vict. c. 28), must also be complied with if the label bears the name or trade mark of a dealer or merchant in the United Kingdom.

MILK AND DAIRIES, ENGLAND.

THE MILK AND DAIRIES ORDER, 1926, DATED 6TH JULY, 1926, MADE UNDER THE MILK AND DAIRIES (CONSOLIDATION) ACT, 1915 (a).

The Minister of Health, in pursuance of his powers under the Milk and Dairies (Consolidation) Act, 1915, and with the concurrence of the Minister of Agriculture and Fisheries, hereby orders as follows :—

PART I.—Short Title, Operation, Interpretation, etc.

1. This Order may be cited as the Milk and Dairies Order, 1926, and shall come into operation on the 1st day of October, 1926 :—

Provided that—

(i) Articles 12 (1), 13 (1) and 25 shall not apply to any building in use as a cowshed or dairy on the 1st October, 1926, until a period of eighteen months has elapsed after the service of a notice by the sanitary authority drawing the attention of the occupier thereto, and in the case of Article 25 no such notice shall be given before the 1st day of April, 1928 ;

(ii) Article 24 shall not come into operation until the 1st day of April, 1927 ; and

(iii) Articles 27 and 19, shall not come into operation until the 1st October, 1928.

2.—(1) In this Order, unless the contrary intention appears :—

" Infectious disease " means dysentery and any infectious disease to which the Infectious Disease (Notification) Act, 1889, applies ;

" The Act " means the Milk and Dairies (Consolidation) Act, 1915 ;

" Cowkeeper " means any person who keeps one or more cows for the purpose of the supply of milk (b) ;

" Milk " means milk intended for sale for human consumption or for use in the manufacture of products for sale for human consumption, and includes cream, skimmed milk and separated milk ;

" Dairy " includes any farm, cowshed, milk store, milk shop or other place from which milk is supplied on or for sale, or in which milk is kept or used for purposes of sale or manufacture into butter, cheese, dried milk or condensed milk for sale, and, in the case of a purveyor of milk (c) who does not occupy any premises for the sale of milk, includes the place where he keeps the vessels used by him for the sale of milk, but does not include a shop from which milk is not supplied otherwise than in properly closed and unopened receptacles in which it was delivered to the shop or a shop or other place in which milk is sold for consumption on the premises only.

" Registered premises " means any building or other premises required to be registered under the provisions of this Order.

(2) The Intepretation Act, 1889, applies to the interpretation of this Order or in relation to the revocation of any Order or Regulation by this Order, as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

3. Part IV. of this Order shall be enforced and executed by the council of the county or county borough and the remainder of the Order by the sanitary authority :

(a) See a circular letter of the Ministry of Health dated 20th January, 1927, post, p. 3585, as to the construction and administration of this Order.

(b) See the definition of " milk." A farmer who keeps cows but sells no milk is not a cowkeeper within this definition. Cf. Umfreville v. L.C.C. (1896), 66 L. J. Q. B. 177 ; 61 J. P. 84.

(c) Keepers of a railway refreshment room sold glasses of milk occasionally (3 or 4 glasses a week) to any one asking for it ; it was held that they did not carry on the trade of " purveyors of milk " (Spiers and Pond, Ltd. v. Green, [1912] 3 K. B. 576 ; 77 J. P. 11). It was held, in a Scotch case, that an ice cream manufacturer, though he used milk in the manufacture of his ice creams, was not a purveyor of milk (Lang v. Pianta (1894), 21 Ct. of Sess. Cas. (4th ser.) J. C. 20).

Provided that, where the Minister of Health has made an Order under subsection (4) of section 3 of the Act with repect to a non-county borough, Part IV. of this Order shall be enforced and executed by the council of such borough as if the borough were a county borough.

4. Every cowkeeper and dairyman shall take all practicable steps to make the provisions of this Order known to every person in or about any registered premises in his occupation so far as such provisions impose any duties or restrictions on such person and so far as they relate to the processes carried out by such person.

PART II.—Revocation of Orders and Regulations.

5. The Dairies, Cowsheds and Milk-shops Order of 1885, the Dairies, Cowsheds and Milk-shops Amending Order of 1886, and the Dairies, Cowsheds and Milk-shops Order of 1899, so far as they relate to England and Wales, and any regulations made by local authorities in England and Wales under the said Orders are hereby revoked.

PART III.—Registration and Notices.

6 (a).—(1) Every sanitary authority shall keep registers of all persons carrying on in their district the trade of cowkeeper or dairyman and of all farms and other premises within their district which are used as dairies.

(2) Subject to the provisions of section 2 of the Milk and Dairies (Amendment) Act, 1922, or of any other statutory enactment, the sanitary authority, on the application of any person proposing to carry on in their district the trade of cowkeeper or dairyman or to use any farm or other premises in the district as a dairy, shall register such person or such premises.

(3) Subject as aforesaid, no person shall carry on the trade of cowkeeper or dairyman or use any premises as a dairy unless he and any such premises are registered in pursuance of this article.

(4) The sanitary authority shall immediately after the commencement of this Order inform the county council of the particulars of registration then in force of cowkeepers and their premises, and they shall as soon as may be inform the county council of all alterations made in the registers.

7. Before commencing to use as a cowshed or as a place for the keeping of milk a building not previously used for that purpose the occupier shall give one month's notice in writing to the sanitary authority of his intention so to do.

PART IV.—Health and Inspection of Cattle.

8. Every county council and county borough council shall cause to be made such inspections of cattle as may be necessary and proper for the purposes of the Act and of this Order.

9. Where a veterinary inspector gives notice to a cowkeeper of his intention to make an inspection of cattle for the purposes of the Act or of this Order the cowkeeper shall not allow any cow to be removed from the registered premises without the consent of the inspector until the inspection has been made or a period of forty-eight hours has elapsed from the receipt of the notice.

10. A veterinary inspector making the inspection of cattle in pursuance of the Act or of this Order may require any cow to be milked in his presence and may take samples of the milk and may require that the milk from any particular teat shall be kept separate, and he may take separate samples thereof.

11. The following diseases affecting cows, in addition to the diseases specified in section 5 of the Act, shall be diseases for the purposes of that section, namely :—

Any comatose condition ;
Any septic condition of the uterus ;
Any infection of the udder or teats. which is likely to convey disease ;

(a) Registration is necessary in every district where the trade is carried on (Easington R.D.C. v. Gilson (1929), 93 J. P. News. 780 ; 28 L. G. R. 49) ; though a single isolated sale would not, it seems, constitute a carrying on of the trade (Emerton v. Hall (1910), 74 J. P. 301 ; 102 L. T. 889).

Appendix II.

Provided that, where an officer of a local authority gives a notice under the section with regard to any of the diseases set out in this Article :—

(1) The notice shall forthwith be withdrawn as soon as the officer or the authority is satisfied that the cow is no longer in an infective condition ; and it shall in any case cease to operate at the expiration of such period not exceeding five days as may be specified therein, but without prejudice to the right of the officer to give a further notice or notices with a like limitation of duration ; and

(2) The local authority shall, if required so to do by the person receiving such notice, afford him an opportunity to appear before them for the purpose of applying for the withdrawal of the notice and shall consider any written representations made by him for the same purpose.

PART V.—General Provisions for Securing the Cleanliness of Dairies, etc., and for Protecting Milk against Infection and Contamination.

12.—(1) Every cowshed and every building used for keeping milk, other than a cold store, shall be provided with a sufficient number of windows or other openings suitably placed and communicating directly with the external air. The windows or permanent openings shall be such as to secure that the building is sufficiently lighted during the hours of daylight and the openings provided for ventilation shall be kept in proper order and so used as to secure that the air in the building is kept in a fresh and wholesome condition.

(2) Every such building in which milking or any other process is carried on during the hours of darkness shall also be provided with such lamps or other means of artificial lighting as will enable any such process to be conducted in a good and proper light.

13.—(1) All registered premises shall be provided with a supply of water suitable and sufficient for the requirements of this Order.

(2) Every receptacle used for the storage or conveyance of water shall be emptied and cleansed from time to time as often as may be necessary to prevent the pollution of the water and to maintain it in a suitable condition for the purpose for which it is required.

(3) The water supply used for the watering of cows shall, as far as reasonably possible, be protected against contamination caused by the drainage of foul water.

14. The following provisions shall apply for the purpose of preventing contamination or infection of milk :—

(1) Milk shall not be deposited or kept in any place where it is liable to become contaminated or infected. In particular it shall not be deposited or kept—

(i) in any room used as a kitchen, scullery, living-room or sleeping-room ; or

(ii) in any room or part of a building which communicates directly by door, window or otherwise with,—

(a) any water-closet, earth-closet, privy, cesspool or receptacle for ashes or other refuse ; or

(b) any room which is used as a sleeping-room or any room which is occupied by a person suffering from an infectious disease, or which, having been so occupied, has not been subsequently properly disinfected ; or

(iii) in any room or part of a building in which there is any direct inlet to a drain which is not efficiently trapped :

Provided that the foregoing provisions shall not be deemed to prohibit the deposit or keeping of milk intended for use in the manufacture of butter, cream or cheese in a room used as a kitchen.

(2) Vessels containing milk shall be properly covered or the milk shall be otherwise effectively protected from dust, dirt, flies or other sources of contamination ;

(3) No foul or noxious matter or soiled bed or body clothing shall be conveyed through any part of a building used for the keeping or storage of milk.

15. Every person engaged in the milking of cows or the distribution or measuring of milk or otherwise having access to the milk or to the churns or other milk receptacles shall keep his clothing and person in a cleanly condition.

16. A person shall not carry out any process of cooling, bottling, sterilising or pasteurising milk or any other process connected with milk, or keep any appliances connected with any such process, in a cowshed or in any place where the milk or appliances would be liable to contamination arising from any cowshed, stable or manure-heap, or otherwise.

17 (a).—(1) Every person having access to the milk or to the churns or other milk receptacles in or about any registered premises, as soon as he becomes aware that any member of his household is suffering from any infectious disease, shall immediately notify the occupier of such premises of the fact and the occupier shall immediately notify the medical officer of health of the district in which the premises are situate unless notification has already been given to that officer.

(2) Where the medical officer of health of any sanitary district becomes aware that any such person is suffering from an infectious disease or has recently been in contact with a person so suffering he shall forthwith notify the occupier of such premises of the fact, and where the council of such sanitary district are not the registering authority for the locality in which the premises are situate he shall also notify the medical officer of health of the registering authority.

18.—(1) Where the medical officer of health of a sanitary district is in possession of evidence that any person is suffering from infectious disease caused by the consumption of milk supplied within the district from any registered premises or that the milk at any registered premises within the district has been infected with such disease, he may by a notice in writing to the occupier of such premises specifying such evidence require, if the premises are within the district, that no milk from such premises (or, if the notice so provides, no milk received at such premises from any specified source) shall be sold for human consumption or used in the manufacture of products for human consumption, or, if the premises are without the district, that no such milk shall be sold for human consumption within the district.

(2) Any such notice shall operate for such period not exceeding twenty-four hours as may be specified therein from the time of the receipt of the notice but may be renewed for a further period or periods of twenty-four hours. The notice shall forthwith be withdrawn as soon as the medical officer of health is satisfied that the milk is no longer likely to cause infectious disease.

(3) Where the medical officer of health serves such a notice he shall forthwith report the matter to the sanitary authority, and if the premises are within the district he shall forthwith endeavour to ascertain the causes of the infectious condition of the milk.

(4) Where the milk in respect of which a notice is given under this Article is obtained from any registered premises without the district, the medical officer of health shall forthwith send a copy of the notice to the medical officer of health of the sanitary district from which the milk is obtained.

(5) No person shall sell milk for human consumption or use milk or sell milk for use in the manufacture of products for human consumption contrary to the terms of a notice given by the medical officer of health under this Article.

(6) Where any person sustains any damage or loss by reason of a notice issued under this Article he shall be entitled to full compensation from the sanitary authority in case it shall appear that no infectious disease was in fact caused by the consumption of milk from the premises to whose occupier the notice was addressed or as the case may be that no milk at such premises had been infected with such disease. Any dispute as to the right to or the amount of such compensation shall be settled by arbitration in the same manner as provided by the Public Health Act, 1875, and any sum awarded as compensation shall be recoverable as a civil debt: Provided that if the compensation claimed does not exceed twenty pounds it may at the option of either party instead of being settled as hereinbefore provided be settled by and recoverable before a Court of Summary Jurisdiction.

19.—(1) Where the medical officer of health of the registering authority by reason of such notification or otherwise suspects that any of the persons in or about any registered premises who have access to the milk or to the churns or other milk receptacles is suffering from an infectious disease or has recently been in contact with any person so suffering or in such a condition that there is a danger of his transmitting an infectious disease he may give notice to the occupier of such premises that he considers it necessary to make an examination of any or all of such persons; and where he gives such notice, the said occupier and every person concerned shall give to the medical officer of health all reasonable facilities for making such examination.

(a) See also the P. H. (Prevention of Tuberculosis) Regulations, 1925, Arts. 4 & 5, ante, p. 3170.

(2) Where from the result of any such examination or otherwise the medical officer of health is of opinion that the employment of any such person is likely to lead to the spread of infectious disease, the medical officer of health may give notice in writing to that effect to the occupier of the registered premises and to the person concerned requiring that, during a period to be specified in such notice, the person to whom the notice relates shall not milk cows or handle vessels used for containing milk or in any way take part in the production, distribution or storage of milk.

(3) A person to whom any such notice relates and any other person who is suffering from an infectious disease or has recently been in contact with a person so suffering shall not milk cows or handle vessels used for containing milk or in any way take part in the production, distribution or storage of milk until the expiry of the period mentioned in the notice or, as the case may be, until all danger of the communication of infectious disease by means of the milk has ceased.

(4) No cowkeeper or dairyman shall allow any person to whom any such notice relates, or any other person who is so suffering or has recently been in contact as aforesaid, to milk cows or handle vessels used for containing milk or in any way to take part in the production, distribution or storage of milk, until the expiry of the period mentioned in the notice or, as the case may be, until all danger of the communication of infectious disease by means of the milk has ceased.

20. No person shall keep any swine or poultry in any cowshed or room in which cows in milk are kept or milked or in which milk or milk utensils are kept or in any room or shed communicating directly therewith.

21. Every cowkeeper or dairyman shall cause all vessels (including the lids of such vessels) and appliances used or intended to be used by him for containing, measuring or stirring milk, or for any other purpose for which they may be brought into contact with milk, to be kept at all times in a state of thorough cleanliness.

For this purpose—

(i) Every such vessel, lid and appliance shall be thoroughly washed as soon as may be after use, and shall be cleansed and scalded with boiling water or steam before it is used again.

(ii) No oxidising or preservative agent shall be used in the cleansing of any such vessel or appliance.

(iii) Every such vessel, lid and appliance, when not in use shall be stored in a clean place and shall be protected from dust and dirt.

(iv) No such vessel or appliance shall be used for containing, measuring or applying any process or treatment to any article other than milk or milk products:

Provided that the requirements set out in paragraphs (i) and (ii) shall not apply to mechanical milkers and similar appliances used in milking which are efficiently cleansed so that all trace of any substance used in the cleansing is removed before they are brought into contact with milk.

PART VI.—Special Provisions Applicable to Cowkeepers.

22.—(1) Every cowkeeper shall cause every part of the interior of every cowshed in his occupation to be thoroughly cleansed from time to time, as often as may be necessary to secure that such cowshed shall be at all times reasonably clean and sweet.

(2) He shall cause the ceiling or interior of the roof and the walls of every such cowshed to be properly lime-washed or sprayed with lime or otherwise disinfected twice at least in every year, that is to say, once during April or May, and once during September or October, and at such other times as may be necessary:

Provided that this requirement shall be deemed to be satisfied as regards any part of such ceiling or walls which is properly painted or varnished or constructed or covered with tiles or other smooth washable material if that part is properly washed from time to time as often as may be necessary to keep it clean.

(3) He shall cause all dung and other offensive matter to be removed from any cowshed in his occupation in which cows are milked at least once in every day.

(4) He shall not cause any dung or offensive matter to be so placed as to render uncleanly the access to any cowshed or milk room.

23. Every cowkeeper shall cause the following precautions to be taken in connection with the milking of cows, viz. :—

(i) The milking shall be carried out in a good and proper light whether in the daytime or in the hours of darkness.
(ii) Before milking is begun, all dirt in or around the flanks, udder and teats of each cow shall be removed, and the udder and teats shall be cleansed by being thoroughly rubbed with a clean damp cloth.
(iii) The hands of the milker shall be thoroughly washed and dried before milking and shall throughout the milking be kept clean, free from contamination and, as far as practicable, dry.
(iv) All milking stools shall be kept thoroughly clean.
(v) As soon as possible after milking, the milk of each cow shall be removed from the cowshed to a suitable milk room or shall be placed in a covered receptacle.
(vi) No dry bedding or other dusty matter shall be moved in the cowshed during the milking or within half an hour before the milking commences, except so far as may be necessary for the removal of dung.

24.—(1) Every cowkeeper shall, without any delay other than that caused by any process of straining or centrifugalisation to which it may be subjected, cause the milk to be cooled to a temperature not more than five degrees Fahrenheit higher than the temperature of the water supply available for cooling: Provided that this requirement shall not apply—

(i) where the milk is delivered by road without delay to a collecting station provided with adequate facilities for cooling milk to a temperature not exceeding fifty-five degrees Fahrenheit; or
(ii) where the milk is used for the manufacture of butter, cream, cheese or other milk products at the premises where it is produced or is supplied to some other person for this purpose; or
(iii) where the cowkeeper sells the milk to the consumer and either delivers it at the premises where it is produced or despatches it at least twice a day on the day of production; or
(iv) where the cowkeeper sells the milk to some other purveyor at the premises where it is produced for delivery to the consumer immediately after milking.

(2) Every person who receives at a collecting station milk which has not previously been cooled shall forthwith cause it to be cooled to a temperature not exceeding fifty-five degrees Fahrenheit unless he uses it in the preparation or manufacture of butter, cream, cheese or other milk products and every person who purchases for re-sale milk which has not previously been cooled shall cause it to be cooled forthwith to a temperature not exceeding fifty-five degrees Fahrenheit unless he uses it as aforesaid or delivers it to the consumer immediately after milking.

25. Every cowkeeper shall cause the floor of every cowshed in his occupation to be constructed of such material and in such manner as to render it practicable to remove all liquid matter which may fall thereon, and he shall cause such cowshed to be provided with channels of rendered concrete or other durable and impervious material so constructed as to prevent as far as reasonably practicable the soiling of the cows and so as to receive all such liquid matter and to convey it to a suitable drain or other place of disposal outside such cowshed.

PART VII.—Special Provisions Applicable to Buildings used for the Sale, etc., of Milk.

26. The following provisions shall apply to any building or part of a building which is used for the sale of milk or in which milk is kept or used for the purpose of sale or manufacture into butter, cheese, dried milk or condensed milk for sale :—

(1) The occupier shall cause the interior and the furniture and fittings therein to be thoroughly cleansed from time to time as often as may be necessary to secure the maintenance of reasonable cleanliness, and in particular the floors shall be thoroughly cleansed with water at least once in every day.

(2) Except in the case of a building or part of a building which is used for the sale of milk by retail the occupier shall cause the floor to be constructed of rendered concrete or other durable and impervious material and to be so sloped as to ensure the removal of all liquid matter which may fall thereon, and to be provided with channels so constructed, sloped and placed as to receive all such liquid matter and to convey it to a suitable drain or other place of disposal outside the building.

PART VIII.—Conveyance and Distribution of Milk, Churns, etc.

27. A person shall not use, or cause to be used, for the reception, measurement, storage or delivery of milk any churn, vessel or other receptacle, the interior surface of which is incapable of being readily cleansed.

28. Every person who purchases milk for the purposes of his trade or business, and empties and returns the churns or other receptacles in which the milk is delivered to him, shall cause all such churns and receptacles, other than bottles, to be thoroughly cleansed and securely closed before they leave his custody or control.

29. Every person shall cause every churn, vessel or other receptacle, other than bottles, in which he despatches milk by rail or road to comply with the following requirements, viz. :—

(1) The name and address of the owner shall be permanently marked on the churn, vessel or other receptacle or on a plate or plates of metal properly soldered or otherwise securely affixed thereto.

(2) The churn, vessel or other receptacle shall be provided with a lid without openings, which shall be so constructed and fitted as effectively to prevent the access to the milk of dirt, dust or rain water or the return to the interior of the receptacle of any milk which may have been splashed above the lid.

30. Every person shall cause every churn, vessel or other receptacle used by him for the conveyance of skimmed or separated milk or for containing such milk at any time when it is exposed for sale to be marked with the words "Skimmed Milk" or "Separated Milk," as the case may require, in large and legible type.

31.—(1) Except in pursuance of any statutory authority in that behalf, no person shall open any churn, vessel or other receptacle containing milk or transfer milk from one receptacle to another in any railway van or on any railway station :

Provided that this Article shall not be deemed to prohibit the purchaser or his agent when taking delivery of the milk from opening a churn, vessel or other receptacle containing milk or transferring the milk to another receptacle so far as such opening or transfer may be necessary for the purpose of checking and sampling the milk.

(2) Where a person delivers milk in bottles he shall cause every such bottle to be filled and closed on registered premises : and no person shall remove or tamper with the disc or other device used for closing the bottle at any time after he has left such premises and before it is delivered to the consumer.

32. Every person engaged in the conveyance or distribution of milk shall use all practicable precautions for preventing the milk from being unnecessarily exposed to heat and from being contaminated by dirt, dust, rain water or otherwise.

33. The interior of every vehicle used for the conveyance of milk shall be at all times kept clean. No live animal or any article likely to contaminate the milk shall be conveyed in the vehicle at the same time as milk and no vehicle which has been used for the conveyance of offensive matter shall be used for the conveyance of milk until the vehicle has been thoroughly cleansed and purified.

Given under the Official Seal of the Minister of Health this Sixth day of July, in the year One thousand nine hundred and twenty-six.

R. B. CROSS,
Assistant Secretary,
Ministry of Health.

The Minister of Agriculture and Fisheries hereby concurs in the making of the above Order.

H. E. DALE,
Assistant Secretary, Ministry of Agriculture and Fisheries.

NOTE.—The Milk and Dairies (Consolidation) Act, 1915, provides by subsection (3) of section 1 that if any person is guilty of a contravention of, or non-compliance with the provisions of any Milk and Dairies Order, he shall be guilty of an offence against the Act.
Subsection (1) of section 18 of that Act provides that if any person commits an offence against the Act he shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding in the case of a first offence five pounds and in the case of a second or subsequent offence fifty pounds, and if the offence is a continuing offence to a further fine not exceeding forty shillings for each day during which the offence continues.

S. R. & O., 1926, No. 820.

PUBLIC HEALTH, ENGLAND.

THE PUBLIC HEALTH (IMPORTED MILK) REGULATIONS, 1926, DATED 6TH JULY, 1926, MADE BY THE MINISTER OF HEALTH.

The Minister of Health, in the exercise of the powers conferred upon him by the Public Health Act, 1875, the Public Health (London) Act, 1891, the Public Health Act, 1896, the Public Health (Regulations as to Food) Act, 1907, and section 8 of the Milk and Dairies (Amendment) Act, 1922, and of every other power enabling him in that behalf, hereby makes the following Regulations, that is to say:—

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Public Health (Imported Milk) Regulations, 1926, and shall come into operation on the 1st day of January, 1927.

2.—(1) In these Regulations, unless the context otherwise requires—

"The Minister" means the Minister of Health.

"Sanitary Authority" means a port sanitary authority, and the council of a borough or urban or rural district which includes or abuts on any part of a Customs port which part is not within the jurisdiction of a port sanitary authority.

"District" means the district of a sanitary authority, and in the case of a sanitary authority other than a port sanitary authority, includes the waters of any Customs port abutting on any part of their district so far as such waters are not within the district of a port sanitary authority.

"Milk" means milk (including skimmed milk and separated milk but not including condensed or dried milk) which is intended for sale for human consumption or for use in the manufacture of products for human consumption.

"British Islands" means Great Britain and Ireland, the Channel Islands, and the Isle of Man.

"Imported Milk" means milk imported into England or Wales from any place situated outside the British Islands.

(2) The Interpretation Act, 1889, applies to the interpretation of these Regulations as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

3.—(1) Every sanitary authority shall enforce and execute these Regulations and shall keep a register of persons to whom milk imported into their district may be consigned.

(2) Any officer of the sanitary authority duly authorised in that behalf, may take a sample of any milk imported into the district.

4. No person shall receive any milk consigned to him from any place outside the British Islands unless he is registered under these Regulations by the sanitary authority into whose district the milk is imported.

5. All imported milk shall be in such condition that, on a sample being taken within the district of a sanitary authority, the milk shall be found to contain not more than 100,000 bacteria per cubic centimetre and to be free from tubercle bacilli.

6.—(1) If the sanitary authority are satisfied that any milk imported into their district does not comply with the provisions of these Regulations, they may serve upon the person to whom the milk was consigned a notice to appear before them not less than seven days after the date of the notice, to show cause why they should not, for reasons to be specified in the notice, remove him from the register, either absolutely or in respect of any specified source of supply, and if he fails to show cause to their satisfaction accordingly they may remove him from the register.

(2) Any person aggrieved by any such decision of the sanitary authority as aforesaid may, within twenty-one days, appeal to a court of summary jurisdiction and that court may require the sanitary authority not to remove him from the register.

(3) The sanitary authority, or such person as aforesaid, may appeal from the decision of the court of summary jurisdiction to the next practicable court of quarter sessions, and that court may confirm, vary or reverse the Order of the court of summary jurisdiction.

(4) The decision of a sanitary authority to remove any person from the register shall not have effect until the expiration of the time for appeal to a court of summary jurisdiction, nor if any such appeal is brought until the expiration of seven days after the determination thereof, nor if notice of appeal to Quarter Sessions is given within such seven days until such appeal is finally determined unless such appeal ceases to be prosecuted.

(5) Where, in pursuance of the foregoing provisions of this Article, a person is removed from the register of a sanitary authority, the sanitary authority shall report the facts to the Minister, and if the Minister on consideration of such facts is of opinion that that person should be removed from the register of any other sanitary authority or should not be included in such register either absolutely or in respect of any specified source of supply he may direct such sanitary authority so to remove such person from their register or to refuse so to register him as the case may be and such sanitary authority shall forthwith comply with the Minister's direction.

7. A person shall, if so required, give to any officer of a sanitary authority acting in the execution of these Regulations all reasonable assistance in his power and shall in relation to anything within his knowledge furnish any such officer with all information he may reasonably require for the purposes of these Regulations.

* * * * * *

NOTE.—The Public Health Act, 1896, provides by subsection (3) of section 1 that if any person wilfully neglects or refuses to obey or carry out, or obstructs the execution of any regulations made under any of the enactments mentioned in that Act he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding £100, and, in the case of a continuing offence, to a further penalty not exceeding £50 for every day during which the offence continues.

The power of making regulations under the Public Health Act, 1896, and the enactments mentioned in that Act, is enlarged by the Public Health (Regulations as to Food) Act, 1907, as amended by the Milk and Dairies (Amendment) Act, 1922.

CIRCULAR 757.

COUNTY COUNCILS AND SANITARY AUTHORITIES (ENGLAND AND WALES).

MINISTRY OF HEALTH, WHITEHALL, S.W.1.
20th January, 1927.

THE MILK AND DAIRIES ORDER, 1926.

SIR,—1. I am directed by the Minister of Health to say that he has received a number of inquiries as to the construction and administration of the Milk and Dairies Order, 1926, especially in relation to farmers who sell only a small quantity of milk, mainly to their employees and their neighbours. He thinks it desirable, therefore, to indicate his views on these questions for the guidance of local authorities.

Registration under the Order.

2. A number of the questions which have been raised relate in terms to the liability of the farmer himself to registration. The provisions of the Order in this respect differ somewhat from those of the Dairies, Cowsheds and Milkshops Order of 1885. The exemptions contained in the earlier Order for persons who carry on the trade of cowkeeper or dairyman for the purpose only of making and selling butter or cheese and for persons who sell milk of their own cows in small quantities to their workmen or neighbours for their accommodation, have been omitted, and the new Order, following the terms of s. 1 (1) (a) of the Milk and Dairies (Consolidation) Act, 1915, provides for the registration of all persons carrying on the trade of cowkeeper or dairyman. Provision is also made for the registration of all dairies. Under the Act a " dairy " includes, inter alia, all farms from which milk is supplied on or for sale, whether or not the extent of such sale amounts to the carrying on of a trade.

3. The sale of milk which renders the dairy premises subject to registration would not necessarily constitute the carrying on of a trade involving the registration of the dairyman, and the question whether any particular person is carrying on a trade is one of fact which can only be settled on a consideration of the circumstances. In reply, however, to a request from a local authority for some general ruling, the Minister, while pointing out that he has no jurisdiction which would enable him to give a decision, has suggested that in ordinary cases, where a person keeps a number of cows, not exceeding the number required for the purposes of his own household and sells any milk, butter, etc., which may from time to time be produced surplus to those requirements, he might properly be regarded as not carrying on the trade of dairyman and, therefore, as not being subject to registration under the Order.

4. A somewhat wider interpretation than they were intended to bear appears to have been placed in some quarters upon the terms of the Minister's letter. The relevant consideration appears to the Minister to be whether the farmer in fact keeps more cows than would normally be required for the needs of his household. If so, there appears to be primâ facie ground for assuming that he is " carrying on the trade of a dairyman."

Application of the Order.

5. The question of the registration of the farmer is, however, in itself a matter of minor importance, since the Order, following the terms of section 1 (1) (b) of the Act of 1915, requires also the registration of all dairies, including all farms from which milk is supplied on or for sale. Further, the general requirements of the Order which impose obligations on cowkeepers and prescribe the conditions of cowsheds and other registered premises, apply to all places at which milk is produced for sale whether in large or in small quantities.

Administration.

6. The general object of the Order is the protection of the community by the application of the principles of sanitation and cleanliness which it incorporates. In many respects the standard to be attained in these matters is not, and could not with advantage be, precisely defined in the Order, but is left to a large extent to the discretion of the local authority, subject, in any case of dispute, to the ruling of the Courts. The Minister has no doubt that local authorities will use their discretion reasonably in administering the Order, both in relation to farms on which milk is being produced on a commercial scale and in other cases, regard being had particularly to the importance of the use of cleanly methods. For example, the terms of Article 13 should not in the Minister's view be construed as involving the laying of a piped supply of water from any public source where this is not readily available and should ordinarily be satisfied by arrangements of the same character as would be made in the particular case for domestic purposes.

7. In cases where a few cows only are kept primarily to meet the needs of the household, but a small quantity of the milk produced is sold to employees and neighbours, the general principles of sanitation and cleanliness of method which the Order incorporates must be observed if the consumers are to enjoy the same measure of protection as the Order affords to other sections of the community. But it will no doubt often be found in such cases that the objects of the Act and Order can in practice be secured and that the general requirements of the Order as to condition of premises can be satisfied by inexpensive arrangements of a simpler character than might be regarded as reasonably necessary in the case of larger establishments. In any case of doubt as to the adequacy of premises the hygenic quality of the milk produced as disclosed by the examination of samples should give some guidance as to the action necessary.

8. In many areas the sanitary authority may find that the task of administering the Order will be sensibly lightened by co-operation with the agricultural education authority for the county, whose educational work, so far as it deals with the production of clean milk, is designed to secure substantially the same objects as the Order. Although the responsibility for the administration of the Order must rest entirely with the sanitary authority, it would be to the general advantage that the officers of the two authorities should work in consultation with each other.

9. The Minister is informed that notices have been served by some local authorities requiring alterations to cowsheds to be made forthwith. I am, therefore, to call the attention of the council to Article 1 of the Order, which provides that eighteen months' notice must be given of any alterations required for the purposes of Articles 12 (1), 13 (1) and 25, and that in the case of Article 25 no such notice shall be given before the 1st April, 1928.

Clean Milk Courses for Sanitary Inspectors.

10. Course of instruction in the essentials of clean milk production are held from time to time at agricultural colleges and other centres under the auspices of the Ministry of Agriculture and Fisheries. The duration of a course is usually about four or five days, but sometimes a course is arranged for one day or half a day each week for a number of weeks. The fee for a course is usually from one to two guineas.

11. In view of the progress which has been made during the past few years in the knowledge of the conditions governing the production and handling of clean milk, the Minister thinks that courses of this character may often be useful in enabling sanitary inspectors to appreciate the relative importance of the various provisions of the Order, and he is of opinion that a sanitary authority may legally incur the reasonable expenditure involved by the attendance of an inspector at such a course.

12. The arrangement of these courses at any particular centre is dependent on the requirements of the surrounding area. If a sanitary inspector desires to attend such a course, and there is apparently none readily available to him, he should communicate with the Ministry of Agriculture and Fisheries, who will endeavour to make suitable arrangements.

Registration Procedure.

13. The exact form of register or registers to be kept is left to the decision of local authorities, except so far as the matter is governed by the provisions of section 2 (3) of the Milk and Dairies (Amendment) Act, 1922, which require separate registration of persons carrying on the trade of retail purveyors. It may, however, be observed that there is no necessity to use separate registers for the registration of persons and of premises.

14. It will probably be found convenient to enter in a separate division of the register, or otherwise specially to distinguish, premises in which cows are kept, in order that the information to be supplied to county councils in pursuance of Article 6 (4) for the purpose of facilitating the inspection of cattle, may be readily extracted.

15. The following particulars at least should be recorded: (1) Situation or postal address of the premises; (2) (a) name of cowkeeper or dairyman; and (b) his address, if elsewhere than at (1).

16. In addition to these particulars, some local authorities may find it useful to record further information as to the scope of the business carried on (e.g. the approximate number of cows kept or gallons of milk purchased or sold daily, or the possession of a licence to sell graded milk).

17. It may be added that it is not necessary that new registers should be compiled for the purposes of the new Order if the old registers contained all the requisite particulars, or could easily be adapted and brought up to date. Even where it is found to be convenient to prepare new registers, the old ones could in most cases be used as a basis, any further information required being obtained by means of specific inquiry from the persons already registered. The entry of known particulars in the register should not be delayed pending the receipt of a formal application for registration.

Inspection of Cattle.

18. The Minister's view is that the minimum which could be regarded as satisfying the requirements of Article 8 of the Order would be such inspections as are necessary for the purposes of sections 3 and 4 of the Act, and for investigating cases where some definite cause of suspicion exists, such as the discovery of tubercle bacilli in a sample of milk.

19. It is for each county council to decide, according to the experience available in their area, what amount of further inspection is desirable. It was not considered practicable, in view of the varying circumstances of different counties, to require in the Order that county councils should undertake the regular periodical inspection of all dairy cattle. Inspection conducted on purely routine lines may not, in all cases, be the best means of attaining the objects of the Act. The Minister is, however, aware that some local authorities have, in the past, carried out periodical inspections, and have been satisfied that the results were beneficial. Where these conditions exist it is suggested that the county council should consider the advisability of continuing the established practice.

I am, etc.

S. R. & O., 1927, No. 1092.

THE PUBLIC HEALTH (CONDENSED MILK) AMENDMENT REGULATIONS, 1927, DATED 14TH NOVEMBER, 1927, MADE BY THE MINISTER OF HEALTH.

The Minister of Health in the exercise of the powers conferred upon him by the Public Health Act, 1875, the Public Health (London) Act, 1891, the Public Health Act, 1896, the Public Health (Regulations as to Food) Act, 1907, and by s. 8 of the Milk and Dairies (Amendment) Act, 1922, and of every other power enabling him in that behalf, hereby makes the following Regulations, with the consent of the

Appendix II.

Commissioners of Customs and Excise, so far as they apply to the officers of customs and excise, that is to say :—

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Public Health (Condensed Milk) Amendment Regulations, 1927, and these Regulations and the Public Health (Condensed Milk) Regulations, 1923 (hereinafter called "the principal Regulations") shall be construed together and may be cited together as the Public Health (Condensed Milk) Regulations, 1923 and 1927.

2. These Regulations shall come into operation on the 1st day of May, 1928, so far as they amend Part III. of the principal Regulations (relating to importation) and in other respects on the 1st day of September, 1928 :

Provided that the provisions of paras. 1 and 3 of the First Schedule to the principal Regulations shall not at any time after the date of these Regulations apply to a tin or other receptacle of condensed milk which is labelled in the manner prescribed in that Schedule as amended by these Regulations.

3. The following provision shall be added to and form part of the principal Regulations immediately after Article 4 thereof, that is to say :—

"4*a*. Where a tin or other receptacle containing condensed skimmed milk is required by Article 4 of these Regulations to be labelled, no person shall expose or offer for sale such a tin or receptacle in a paper or other wrapper unless such wrapper has printed on the outside thereof the words 'unfit for babies,' such words being contained within a surrounding line. The type used for the words shall be not less than a quarter of an inch in height and the printing shall otherwise conform with the rules prescribed for the printing of the same matter on the label affixed to the tin or other receptacle."

4. The following paragraphs shall be substituted for paras. 1 and 3 of the First Schedule to the principal Regulations :—

"1. Every tin or other receptacle containing condensed milk shall bear a label upon which is printed such one of the following declarations as may be applicable or such other declaration substantially to the like effect as may be allowed by the Minister (a):—

"(i) In the case of full cream milk (unsweetened) :—

CONDENSED FULL CREAM MILK, UNSWEETENED.

THIS TIN CONTAINS THE EQUIVALENT OF (a) PINTS OF MILK.

"(ii) In the case of full cream milk (sweetened) :—

CONDENSED FULL CREAM MILK, SWEETENED.

THIS TIN CONTAINS THE EQUIVALENT OF (a) PINTS OF MILK, WITH SUGAR ADDED.

"(iii) In the case of skimmed milk (unsweetened) :—

CONDENSED MACHINE-SKIMMED MILK [or CONDENSED
SKIMMED MILK], UNSWEETENED.

UNFIT FOR BABIES

THIS TIN CONTAINS THE EQUIVALENT OF
(a) PINTS OF SKIMMED MILK.

(a) As to variations which have been allowed, see circular letter of Ministry dated 19th November, 1927, post, p. 3591.

"(iv) In the case of skimmed milk (sweetened) :—

CONDENSED MACHINE-SKIMMED MILK [or CONDENSED
SKIMMED MILK], SWEETENED.

UNFIT FOR BABIES.

THIS TIN CONTAINS THE EQUIVALENT OF (a) PINTS OF SKIMMED MILK WITH SUGAR ADDED.

" 3.—(a) The prescribed declaration shall be printed in dark block type upon a light coloured ground.

" (b) There shall be a surrounding line enclosing the declaration and in the cases in which the words ' unfit for babies ' are required to be used there shall be another such line enclosing those words.

" (c) The distance between any part of the words ' unfit for babies ' and the surrounding line enclosing those words shall be not less than one-sixteenth of an inch.

" (d) No matter other than that hereinbefore prescribed shall be printed within either surrounding line.

" (e) The type used for the declaration shall not in any part be less than one-eighth of an inch in height (or if the gross weight of the tin or other receptacle does not exceed twelve ounces, one-sixteenth of an inch in height) and the type used for the words ' unfit for babies ' shall not be less than twice the height of any other part of the declaration."

5. Copies of the Public Health (Condensed Milk) Regulations, 1923, printed under the authority of His Majesty's Stationery Office may be printed with any additions, omissions or substitutions directed to be made by these or any other amending Regulations but with a footnote in each instance referring to such amending Regulations; and the principal Regulations so printed may be cited as the Public Health (Condensed Milk) Regulations.

S. R. & O., 1927, No. 1093.

THE PUBLIC HEALTH (DRIED MILK) AMENDMENT REGULATIONS, 1927, DATED 14TH NOVEMBER, 1927, MADE BY THE MINISTER OF HEALTH.

The Minister of Health in the exercise of the powers conferred upon him by the Public Health Act, 1875, the Public Health (London) Act, 1891, the Public Health Act, 1896, the Public Health (Regulations as to Food) Act, 1907, and by section 8 of the Milk and Dairies (Amendment) Act, 1922, and of every other power enabling him in that behalf, hereby makes the following Regulations, that is to say :—

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Public Health (Dried Milk) Amendment Regulations, 1927, and these Regulations and the Public Health (Dried Milk) Regulations, 1923 (hereinafter called " the principal Regulations ") shall be construed together and may be cited together as the Public Health (Dried Milk) Regulations, 1923 and 1927.

2. These Regulations shall come into operation on the 1st day of September, 1928 : Provided that the provisions of paras. 1 and 2 of the First Schedule to the principal Regulations shall not at any time after the date of these Regulations apply to a tin or other receptacle of dried milk which is labelled in the manner prescribed in that Schedule as amended by these Regulations.

3. The following provision shall be added to and form part of the principal Regulations immediately after Article 4 thereof, that is to say,—

" 4*a*.—Where a tin or other receptacle containing dried skimmed milk is required by Article 4 of these Regulations to be labelled, no person shall export or offer for sale such a tin or receptacle in a paper or other wrapper unless such wrapper has printed on the outside thereof the words 'unfit for babies,' such words being contained within a surrounding line. The type used for the words shall be not less than a quarter of an inch in height and the printing shall otherwise conform with the rules prescribed for the printing of the same matter on the label affixed to the tin or other receptacle."

4. The following paragraphs shall be substituted for subdivision (1) of paras. 1 and 2 of the Schedule to the principal Regulations :—

"(1) Every tin or other receptacle containing dried milk (other than dried milk to which sugar or some other substance has been added) shall bear a label upon which is printed such one of the following declarations as may be applicable or such other declaration substantially to the like effect as may be allowed by the Minister (a):—

"(i) In the case of full cream milk, that is to say, dried milk containing not less than 26 per cent. of milk fat :—

DRIED FULL CREAM MILK.

THIS TIN CONTAINS THE EQUIVALENT OF (a) PINTS OF MILK.

"(ii) In the case of partly skimmed milk, that is to say, dried milk containing not less than 8 per cent. but less than 26 per cent. of milk fat :—

DRIED PARTLY SKIMMED MILK
((b) CREAM).

SHOULD NOT BE USED FOR BABIES EXCEPT UNDER MEDICAL ADVICE.

THIS TIN CONTAINS THE EQUIVALENT OF (a) PINTS OF (b) CREAM MILK.

"(iii) In the case of skimmed milk, that is to say, dried milk containing less than 8 per cent. of milk fat :—

DRIED MACHINE-SKIMMED MILK [or DRIED SKIMMED MILK].

UNFIT FOR BABIES.

THIS TIN CONTAINS THE EQUIVALENT OF (a) PINTS OF SKIMMED MILK.

"2.—(a) The prescribed declaration shall be printed in dark block type upon a light coloured ground.

"(b) There shall be a surrounding line enclosing the declaration and in the case in which the words 'unfit for babies' are required to be used there shall be another such line enclosing those words.

"(c) The distance between any part of the words 'unfit for babies' and the surrounding line enclosing those words shall be not less than one-sixteenth of an inch.

"(d) No matter other than that hereinbefore prescribed shall be printed within either surrounding line.

(a) As to variations which have been allowed, see circular letter of Ministry dated 19th November, 1927, post, p. 3591.

"(e) The type used for the declaration shall not in any part be less than one-eighth of an inch in height (or if the gross weight of the tin or other receptacle does not exceed twelve ounces, one-sixteenth of an inch in height) and the type used for the words 'unfit for babies' shall not be less than twice the height of any other part of the declaration."

5. Copies of the Public Health (Dried Milk) Regulations, 1923, printed under the authority of His Majesty's Stationery Office may be printed with any additions, omissions or substitutions directed to be made by these or any other amending Regulations but with a footnote in each instance referring to such amending Regulations; and the principal Regulations so printed may be cited as the Public Health (Dried Milk) Regulations.

4. In pursuance of the power reserved to the Minister under Rule 1 (1) of the First Schedule to the Public Health (Condensed Milk) Regulations, 1923, and Rule 1 (1) of the Schedule to the Public Health (Dried Milk) Regulations, 1923, he has at various dates allowed the following variations in the declarations prescribed by those Regulations, namely:—

(1) In the case of any variety of condensed milk, the order of the words contained in the descriptive part of the declaration may be varied so that the word "Sweetened" or "Unsweetened," as the case may be, is placed after the word "Condensed," instead of being placed after the word "Milk."

(2) In the case of any variety of dried milk, the word "package," "packet," or "receptacle" may be substituted for the word "tin" in the statement of equivalence.

(3) In the case of the proprietary preparation known as "Virol and Milk" the words "Dried Full Cream Milk and Virol" may be substituted for the words "Dried Full Cream Milk Compounded."

TUBERCULOUS COWS.

ORDER OF THE MINISTER OF AGRICULTURE AND FISHERIES.

TUBERCULOSIS ORDER OF 1925 (a).

The Minister of Agriculture and Fisheries, by virtue and in exercise of the powers vested in him under the Diseases of Animals Acts, 1894 to 1925, and of every other power enabling him in this behalf, hereby orders as follows:—

Interpretation.

1. In this Order—

"The Act of 1894" means the Diseases of Animals Act, 1894:

"The Minister" and "The Ministry" mean respectively the Minister and the Ministry of Agriculture and Fisheries:

"Bovine animal" means a bull, cow, ox, heifer, or calf:

"Cow" includes a heifer that has calved:

"Inspector" includes veterinary inspector:

"Local Authority" means a local authority for the purposes of the Act of 1894:

"Milk" includes cream and separated or skimmed milk.

"Tuberculous emaciation" means emaciation due to tuberculosis.

Other terms have, where the context so permits, the same meaning and scope as in the Act of 1894.

Notice of Disease.

2.—(1) Every person having in his possession or under his charge
- (i) any cow which is, or appears to be, suffering from tuberculosis of the udder, indurated udder, or other chronic disease of the udder; or
- (ii) any bovine animal which is, or appears to be, suffering from tuberculous emaciation; or
- (iii) any bovine animal which is suffering from a chronic cough and showing definite clinical signs of tuberculosis, shall without avoidable delay give information of the fact to a constable of the police force for the area wherein the animal is, or to an inspector of the local authority, and the constable or inspector shall forthwith transmit the information to the local authority.

(2) The person in possession or having charge of the animal shall forthwith take such steps as are necessary to secure compliance with Article 10 (Precautions to be adopted with respect to Milk, etc.) and Article 11 (Detention and Isolation of Suspected Animals) of this Order.

Notification of Disease by Veterinary Surgeons.

3.—(1) A veterinary surgeon or veterinary practitioner who in his private practice is employed to examine any bovine animal, and is of opinion that the animal is suffering from tuberculosis of the udder or tuberculous emaciation, or suffering from a chronic cough and showing definite clinical signs of tuberculosis, shall with all practicable speed give notice of the existence or suspected existence of such disease to an inspector of the local authority.

(2) A veterinary surgeon or veterinary practitioner who under and in accordance with this Article gives notice of the existence or suspected existence of such disease to an inspector of the local authority shall be entitled to receive from the local authority a fee of two shillings and sixpence for each such notification.

(3) Where two or more animals are examined by a veterinary surgeon or veterinary practitioner on the same premises and at the same time, one fee only shall be payable to him under this article in respect of the notification of the existence or suspected existence of the disease in such animals.

Examination of Animals, etc.

4.—(1) The local authority shall in every case where, by reason of information received under the preceding Articles or otherwise, there is reasonable ground for supposing that on any premises in their district there is a cow which is suffering from chronic disease of the udder or giving tuberculous milk, or a bovine animal which is suffering from tuberculous emaciation or suffering from a chronic cough and showing definite clinical signs of tuberculosis, direct a veterinary inspector with all practicable speed to examine the diseased or suspected animal and any other bovine animals on such premises which the veterinary inspector considers it is desirable to examine to ascertain whether any cow on the premises is suffering from tuberculosis of the udder or giving tuberculous milk, or whether any bovine animal thereon is suffering from tuberculous emaciation or suffering from a chronic cough and showing definite clinical signs of tuberculosis, and the inspector may, with the previous consent in writing of the owner of the animal or of his agent, but not otherwise, apply the tuberculin test to any cow which the inspector suspects of suffering from tuberculosis of the udder, or of giving tuberculous milk, or to any bovine animal which the inspector suspects of suffering from tuberculous emaciation.

(2) The veterinary inspector may at all reasonable hours enter on any part of the premises and examine any bovine animal thereon, and the veterinary inspector may require any cow on the premises to be milked in his presence, and may take samples of the milk, and the milk from any particular teat shall if he so require be kept separate, and separate samples thereof shall be furnished. The inspector may also take samples of the fæces or urine of any bovine animal on the premises, or of any abnormal discharge from any bovine animal thereon. The inspector may, if he thinks fit, submit any of such samples for examination to a pathological institute approved by the Ministry.

(3) The occupier of the premises and the persons in his employment shall render such reasonable assistance to the inspector as may be required for all or any of the purposes of this article, and any person refusing such assistance shall be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1894.

(4) The veterinary inspector shall as soon as possible send to the local authority a report showing the result of his examination and investigation including a copy of any report from a pathological institute on the examination of a sample. If the report shows that any animal is suffering from tuberculosis of the udder or tuberculous emaciation, or giving tuberculous milk, or suffering from a chronic cough and showing definite clinical signs of tuberculosis, the local authority shall, if it is the council of a non-county borough in England and Wales, cause a copy of the report to be sent to the county council, or if in Scotland, it is not itself the local authority for the purposes of the Milk and Dairies (Scotland) Act, 1914, cause a copy of the report to be sent to that authority.

(5) If the report of the inspector as to any animal does not show that it is suffering from tuberculosis of the udder or tuberculous emaciation, or giving tuberculous milk, or suffering from a chronic cough and showing definite clinical signs of tuberculosis, notice in writing shall forthwith be given by the local authority or an inspector of the local authority, to the owner or person in charge of the animal that the provisions of this Order relating to precautions to be adopted with respect to milk and detention and isolation of suspected animals have ceased to apply to the animal. A notice to the like effect may be given at any time by an inspector or other officer of the Ministry acting under the direction of the Minister.

Slaughter of Diseased Animals.

5.—(1) Where the report of the inspector under the preceding Article shows that there is an animal which is suffering from tuberculosis of the udder or tuberculous emaciation, or giving tuberculous milk, or suffering from a chronic cough and showing definite clinical signs of tuberculosis, the local authority shall with all practicable speed cause notice in writing (in the Form set forth in the Schedule hereto or to the like effect) to be given to the owner or person in charge of the animal and also to the Ministry, and cause the animal to be slaughtered; provided that if, before the slaughter is carried out, the owner of the animal, or any person authorised to act on his behalf, gives notice in writing to the local authority, or to their inspector or other officer directed to carry out such slaughter, that the owner objects to the animal being slaughtered under the provisions of this Order, it shall not be lawful for the local authority to cause the animal to be slaughtered unless and until the special authority of the Minister has been obtained.

(2) If the value of an animal proposed to be slaughtered, as agreed or certified under this Order, exceeds fifty pounds, the local authority shall not proceed with its slaughter unless so directed by the Minister (a).

Restriction of Movement of Animals liable to Slaughter.

6.—(1) In any case where under the preceding Article a notice of objection to slaughter is given by or on behalf of the owner of an animal or where by reason of the value of the animal its slaughter is subject to the direction of the Minister, the inspector shall forthwith serve on the owner or person in charge of the animal a notice in writing prohibiting the movement of the animal from the premises on which the animal is without a licence of an inspector of the local authority which licence shall only be granted for movement of the animal to a slaughter house.

(2) Where an animal is so moved it shall not be moved from the slaughter-house and shall be caused by the owner to be slaughtered within ninety-six hours after its arrival thereat.

Valuation of Compensation.

7.—(1) The market value of an animal shall before slaughter be determined for the purposes of this Order by agreement between the local authority and the owner of the animal, or if they shall fail so to agree, by a valuer appointed by the local authority and the owner, or, on the application of the local authority, appointed by the Minister, but in either case paid by the local authority, and such valuer shall give to the local authority and to the owner a certificate in writing of the said value.

(2) For the purposes of this Order the market value of an animal shall be the price which might reasonably have been obtained from a purchaser in the open market who had no knowledge of the existence or suspected existence in the animal of the symptoms of disease disclosed by the report of the inspector under this Order except such knowledge thereof as might reasonably have been obtained by inspection of the animal.

Post-mortem Examination of Slaughtered Animals.

8.—(1) In the case of every animal slaughtered by a local authority under this Order, the local authority shall cause the carcase, at the time of slaughter or as soon as practicable thereafter, to be examined by a veterinary inspector of the local authority, and the owner of the animal shall be entitled to be present at the examination in person or by a representative who, if the owner thinks fit, may be a veterinary surgeon. The veterinary inspector may, and if required by the owner or his veterinary surgeon, shall, for the purposes of the examination submit specimens of the lesions to a pathological institute approved by the Ministry.

(2) The veterinary inspector shall at the conclusion of his examination give to the local authority and to the owner or person in charge of the animal a certificate of the result of the examination in the Form set forth in the Schedule hereto or to the like effect together with a copy of any report by a pathological institute on the examination of specimens of lesions submitted to the institute.

Compensation.

9.—(1) If the local authority fail to carry out the examination required by the preceding Article, or if the certificate of such examination does not show that the animal was suffering from tuberculosis, the local authority shall, by way of compensation, pay to the owner thereof a sum equal to the market value of the animal, and a further sum of twenty shillings.

(2) If the certificate of the examination shows that the animal was suffering from tuberculosis (not being advanced tuberculosis), the local authority shall, by way of compensation, pay to the owner a sum equal to three-fourths of the market value of the animal, or the sum of forty-five shillings, whichever sum is the greater, after deducting from such sum one-half of their reasonable costs of any valuation of the animal by a valuer appointed by the Minister.

(3) If the certificate of the examination shows that the animal was suffering from advanced tuberculosis, the local authority shall, by way of compensation, pay to the owner a sum equal to one-fourth of the market value of the animal, or the sum of forty-five shillings, whichever sum is the greater, after deducting from such sum one-half of their costs of valuation as in the preceding case.

(4) For the purposes of this Order an animal slaughtered under this Order shall be deemed to have been suffering from advanced tuberculosis—

(a) when there is miliary tuberculosis of both lungs; or

(b) when tuberculous lesions are present on the pleura and peritoneum; or

(c) when tuberculous lesions are present in the muscular system, or in the lymphatic glands embedded in or between the muscles, or where the infection of lymphatic glands is sufficient to indicate that disease is widespread; or (d) where, in addition to the presence of tubercular lesions in the respiratory and digestive tracts, there are also lesions present in the substance or membranes of any two of the following: spleen, kidney, uterus, ovary, testicle, brain, and spinal cord.

(5) If in any case the sum received by the local authority on sale of a carcase of an animal slaughtered under this Order exceeds the amount paid for compensation to the owner of the animal, the local authority shall pay that excess to the owner, after deducting reasonable expenses.

Precautions to be adopted with respect to Milk, etc.

10.—(1) The milk produced by any cow which is, or appears to be, suffering from chronic disease of the udder or tuberculous emaciation or is suffering from a chronic cough and showing definite clinical signs of tuberculosis, shall not be mixed with other milk until the cow has been examined by a veterinary inspector in accordance with the provisions of this Order, and until either six weeks after the examination have expired to enable microscopical and biological tests to be carried out if necessary or the owner or person in charge thereof has been notified that this Article has ceased to apply to the cow; and all milk affected by this Article shall forthwith be boiled or otherwise sterilised and any utensil in which such milk is placed before being so treated shall be thoroughly cleansed with boiling water before any other milk is placed therein. These provisions shall also apply to the milk of a cow in relation to which a notice of intended slaughter has been served from the date of the service of the notice until the slaughter of the animal.

(2) A local authority, or a veterinary inspector on their behalf, shall by written notice to the owner or person in charge of the animal apply the provisions of this Article to the milk produced by every cow specified in the notice which is suspected by him to be giving tuberculous milk and is examined under this Order, and such provisions shall apply accordingly.

Detention and Isolation of Suspected Animals.

11.—(1) Every person having in his possession or under his charge any cow which is, or appears to be, suffering from chronic disease of the udder, or any bovine animal which is, or appears to be, suffering from tuberculous emaciation, or is suffering from a chronic cough and showing definite clinical signs of tuberculosis, shall keep the animal isolated as far as practicable from other bovine animals, and also keep the animal in his possession or under his charge, until the animal has been examined by a veterinary inspector in accordance with the provisions of this Order and the owner or person in charge thereof has been notified that this Article has ceased to apply to the animal.

(2) A local authority, or a veterinary inspector on their behalf, shall by written notice to the owner or person in charge of the animal apply this Article to every bovine animal, examined under this Order, and such article shall apply accordingly.

Suspected Animals in Markets, Fairs, and Sales.

12.—(1) Where

(i) any cow which is, or is suspected by a veterinary inspector to be, suffering from tuberculosis of the udder; or

is exposed in a market, fairground, or saleyard, or other public or private place where animals are commonly exposed for sale the veterinary inspector may, by notice served on the owner or person in charge of the animal, require it to be removed from the market, fairground, saleyard, or other place as aforesaid, to the premises from which it was brought thereto, or at the option of the owner or person in charge to a slaughter-house or other suitable premises specified in the notice, and thereupon the animal shall forthwith be moved by the owner or person in charge to those

Appendix II. premises for the purpose of examination under the foregoing provisions of this Order, or slaughter by the owner in the slaughter-house.

(2) Where the premises to which the animal is required under this Article to be moved are not in the same district as the market, fairground, saleyard, or other place as aforesaid, the inspector serving the notice shall forthwith send a copy of the notice to the local authority of the district in which the first-mentioned premises are situate, and also to the Ministry.

Cleansing and Disinfection.

13. The occupier of any premises on which there has been a cow suffering from tuberculosis of the udder or giving tuberculous milk, or a bovine animal suffering from tuberculous emaciation, or suffering from a chronic cough and showing definite clinical signs of tuberculosis, shall if so required in writing by an inspector of the local authority cleanse and disinfect at his own expense, and to the satisfaction of the inspector, that part of any shed or other erection in which the animal has recently been placed or kept.

Prohibition of Importation of Diseased Animals.

14. The landing in Great Britain of an imported animal which is or appears to be suffering from tuberculosis of the udder, indurated udder, or other chronic disease of the udder, or tuberculous emaciation or giving tuberculous milk or suffering from a chronic cough and showing definite clinical signs of tuberculosis is hereby prohibited.

Reports to the Ministry.

15. Every local authority and their inspectors and officers shall send and give to the Ministry such reports, returns, and information as to their proceedings under this Order as the Minister may require.

Extension of certain Sections of Diseases of Animals Act, 1894.

16. Tuberculosis shall be a disease for the purposes of section 5 of the Importation of Animals Act, 1922 (Session 2) and for the purposes of the following sections of the Act of 1894 (namely):

Sections 19 and 20 (Slaughter in Disease and Compensation Generally);
Section 43 (Police);
Section 44 (General Administrative Provisions); and also for the purposes of all other sections of that Act containing provisions relative to or consequent on the provisions of those sections or this Order, including such sections as relate to offences and legal proceedings.

Information to be given as to certain Animals or Animals in contact therewith.

17. Article 36 of the Animals (Transit and General) Order of 1912 (Information to be given as to Diseased or Suspected Animals or Animals in contact therewith) shall apply to

(i) any cow which is, or is suspected of, suffering from tuberculosis of the udder or giving tuberculous milk; and

(ii) any bovine animal which is, or is suspected of, suffering from tuberculous emaciation, or which is suffering from a chronic cough and showing definite clinical signs of tuberculosis.

Offences.

18.—(1) Every person who—

(i) fails to give the notice required by Article 2 or Article 3 of this Order; or

(ii) fails to comply with any provision of this Order or any notice served thereunder relating to precautions to be adopted with respect to milk or relating to detention, isolation or slaughter of animals; or

(iii) fails to comply with any notice directing removal of an animal from a market, fair-ground, sale-yard; or other public or private place where animals are commonly exposed for sale; or

(iv) fails to cleanse or disinfect any erection which under this Order he is required to cleanse or disinfect; or

(v) fails to slaughter an animal as required by the conditions of a licence granted under this Order; shall, according to and in respect of his own acts and defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1894.

(2) If any animal is landed in contravention of this Order, the owner thereof, and the occupier of the place of landing, the person causing, directing or permitting the landing, and the owner and the charterer and the master of the vessel from which the same is landed, shall, each according to and in respect of his own acts or defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1894.

Extent.

19. This Order extends to England and Wales and Scotland.

Local Authority to enforce Order.

20. The provisions of this Order, except where it is otherwise provided, shall be executed and enforced by the local authority.

Revocation.

21. The Tuberculosis Order of 1914 is hereby revoked.

Commencement.

22. This Order shall come into operation on the 1st September, 1925.

CIRCULAR 616.

CIRCULAR OF MINISTRY OF HEALTH TO SANITARY AUTHORITIES.

(Dated August, 1925.)

TUBERCULOSIS ORDER OF 1925 (No. 2).

MEAT INSPECTION.

SIR,—I am directed by the Minister of Health to transmit for the information of the council a copy of the Tuberculosis Order of 1925 (No. 2), made by the Minister of Agriculture and Fisheries, together with the circular letter issued by him to all local authorities for the purposes of the Diseases of Animals Acts.

It will be within the knowledge of the council that the principal order (the Tuberculosis Order of 1925), which will come into operation on the 1st September next, provides for the slaughter of animals affected with certain specified forms of tuberculosis. By reason of Article 7 of the Public Health (Meat) Regulations, 1924, the provisions of those Regulations as to notice of slaughter, etc., would not apply in the case of an animal slaughtered in pursuance of the Order, but the amending Tuberculosis Order now issued provides that notice of intention to slaughter shall be given to the Sanitary authority as well as to the owner of the animal in cases where it is intended that the carcase, or any part thereof, should be disposed of for human consumption, and that no part of the carcase shall be removed from the premises for that purpose except with the permission in writing of the medical officer of health or other competent officer.

It will be seen that the Ministry of Agriculture and Fisheries recommend that sufficient time should be allowed to elapse before the animal is slaughtered to enable Appendix II. the medical officer of health or other competent officer to be present at the post-mortem examination and the Minister hopes therefore that arrangements will be made for the attendance of such an officer in every case. He wishes further to remind local authorities that the animals to be slaughtered under the Tuberculosis Order are animals which are known or believed to be diseased, and consequently that special attention should be paid to their inspection before any parts of the carcase or organs are passed for human consumption. The criteria which should guide the inspecting officer are set out in Part D, section 4 (pp. 5, 6, and 7) of Memorandum 62/Foods issued by this department in March, 1922.

I am, etc.

ORDER OF THE MINISTER OF AGRICULTURE AND FISHERIES.

(Dated 5th August, 1925.)

TUBERCULOSIS ORDER OF 1925 (No. 2).

The Minister of Agriculture and Fisheries, by virtue and in exercise of the powers vested in him under the Diseases of Animals Acts, 1894 to 1925, and of every other power enabling him in this behalf, hereby orders as follows :—

1. The Tuberculosis Order of 1925 shall be read and have effect as if the following Article were therein inserted after Article 5 :—

Procedure in respect of slaughter of animals where the carcases are proposed to be used for human consumption.

5A. (i) Where a local authority propose to slaughter an animal under this Order and to dispose of its carcase or any part thereof for human consumption a copy of the notice of intended slaughter served under the preceding Article together with a statement of the address of the premises on which and the time at which the animal is intended to be slaughtered shall be sent by the local authority with all practicable speed to the officer of the sanitary authority (or in Scotland of the public health local authority) to whom notices of intention to slaughter are required to be sent by any regulations made by the Minister of Health (or in Scotland by the Scottish Board of Health) under the Public Health (Regulations as to Food) Act, 1907, and in any such case the carcase of the animal or any part thereof shall not be removed for human consumption from the premises on which the slaughter takes place except with permission in writing of the medical officer of health or other competent officer of the authority having under the Acts relating to public health or any local Act power to inspect and examine meat intended for human consumption : Provided that where a meat inspector has been appointed by a public health local authority in Scotland in terms of the foresaid Regulations the permission to be obtained under this Article shall be the permission of the meat inspector.

(ii) If any carcase is removed in contravention of this Article the person removing or causing the removal of the carcase shall be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1894.

MINISTRY OF HEALTH.

S. R. & O., 1919, No. 850.

THE MINISTRY OF HEALTH ACT, 1919 (DATE OF COMMENCEMENT) ORDER, 1919.

(DATED JUNE 25TH, 1919.)

Whereas by sub-section (1) of section 11 of the Ministry of Health Act, 1919, it is enacted that the Act shall come into operation upon such day or days as may be appointed by Order in Council and that different days may be appointed for different purposes and provisions of the Act.

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of his Privy Council, in pursuance of the Ministry of Health Act, 1919, and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows :—

1. For such of the provisions of the said Act as are hereinafter mentioned the appointed day shall be—

(1) in the case of section 1, the 25th day of June, 1919;

(2) in the case of section 2; paragraphs (a), (b) and (e) and proviso (ii) of sub-section (1) and sub-sections (2), (3), (4) and (5) of section 3; sections 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, and 10 and sub-sections (3) and (4) of section 11, the 1st day of July, 1919, except so far as paragraph (a) of sub-section (1) of section 3 relates to powers and duties conferred or imposed upon the Local Government Board by any Act of Parliament passed, or Provisional Order confirmed, or other Instrument made, on or after the 1st day of July, 1919, but during the present session of Parliament, in respect of which powers and duties the appointed day shall be the day on which such Act, Order, or Instrument comes into operation.

2. The Interpretation Act, 1889, applies for the purpose of the interpretation of this Order as it applies for the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

MINISTRY OF HEALTH (CONSULTATIVE COUNCILS) ORDER, 1919.

(DATED AUGUST 18TH, 1919.)

* * * * * *

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of his Privy Council, in pursuance of the Ministry of Health Act, 1919, and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. Consultative councils shall be established in pursuance of the foregoing provisions for giving, in accordance with the provisions hereinafter contained, advice and assistance in connection with such matters as relate severally to:—

(1) Medical and allied services.
(2) National Health Insurance (approved societies' work).
(3) Local health administration.
(4) General health questions.

2. Each council shall consist of such numbers of members, not exceeding twenty, as the Minister may determine, being persons having, in the case of each council, practical experience of the matters for the purposes of which the council in question is established.

3.—(1) The members of a council shall be appointed by the Minister, and shall include women as well as men.

(2) At the expiration of one, two, and three years respectively from the first appointment of the members of the council one-third of the original members, to be selected by lot, shall go out of office, but for the purpose of this provision an original member who has been re-appointed shall not be deemed to be an original member.

(3) Subject as aforesaid the members of a council shall hold office for three years and shall then go out of office:

Provided that on a casual vacancy occurring in a council the person appointed to fill the vacancy shall hold office until the time when the person in whose place he is appointed would regularly go out of office, and shall then go out of office.

(4) A member of a council on the expiration of his term of office may be re-appointed, so, however, that no member shall remain in office continuously for more than six years.

4. The Minister of Health shall be the president, and the Parliamentary Secretary to the Ministry of Health shall be the vice-president of each council.

5. The Minister shall appoint a chairman and a vice-chairman of each council, who shall hold office until the next periodical expiration of the term of office of members of the council, but may be re-appointed so long as they remain members of the council.

6. The president or in his absence the vice-president, or in the absence of both the president and the vice-president, the chairman, shall preside at every meeting of a council at which he is present.

7. The Minister shall appoint a person to be the secretary of each council, and the person so appointed shall hold office during the pleasure of the Minister.

8.—(1) A council shall meet at such times, and notice of meetings shall be given to the members of the council in such manner as the council may, with the approval of the Minister, determine:

Provided that the council shall meet at least once in each quarter.

(2) At a meeting of a council ten shall be a quorum.

(3) No act or proceeding of a council shall be questioned on account of any vacancy in their body.

9. A council may for special purposes approved by the Minister appoint committees of their members, and any committee so appointed may, within the limits approved by the Minister, add to their numbers persons not being members of the council.

10. If a member of a council is absent from the meetings of the council for a period of six months, except for some reason approved by the Minister, his office shall become vacant.

11.—(1) A council shall consider and report upon the questions from time to time referred to them by the Minister, including—

(a) questions arising upon the draft of Orders in Council, and of Regulations, Orders, and Special Orders proposed to be made by the Minister;

(b) questions involving considerations of important principle and scientific difficulty affecting or incidental to the health of the people:

(c) any other questions in connection with such of the powers and duties of the Minister as relate to matters affecting or incidental to the health of the people; and the Minister shall place at the disposal of the council the information required to enable them to consider the matters thus referred to them.

(2) A council may propose to the Minister from time to time that any question in connection with such of his powers and duties as relate to matters affecting or incidental to the health of the people, if pertaining to the functions of the council, shall form the subject of a reference to the council, and the Minister shall receive and consider any such proposal.

(3) A council may also present to the Minister from time to time a report on any matter affecting or incidental to the health of the people, if pertaining to the functions of the council, which has not been made a subject of reference to the council under the foregoing provisions of this Order, and the Minister shall receive and consider such report.

12. Subject to the provisions contained in this Order a council may regulate their own procedure.

13. The Interpretation Act, 1889, applies for the purpose of the interpretation of this Order as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

14. This Order may be cited as the Ministry of Health (Consultative Councils) Order, 1919.

TRANSFER OF FUNCTIONS TO WELSH BOARD OF HEALTH.

CIRCULAR OF MINISTRY OF HEALTH, DATED SEPTEMBER 30TH, 1920, TO LOCAL AUTHORITIES.

I am directed by the Minister of Health to state that in pursuance of the intention expressed in the announcement issued to the Press in October, 1919, he has now arranged for the transfer to the Welsh Board of Health as from 1st October, 1920, of the functions of the Ministry in relation to the following matters in so far as concerns Wales and Monmouthshire :—

(1) Sanction to the appointments of medical officers of health, sanitary inspectors and inspectors of nuisances.

Appendix II.

(2) Venereal diseases.
(3) Isolation hospitals.
(4) Infectious diseases ; except that notifications and returns should continue to be forwarded to Whitehall.
(5) Maternity and child welfare.
(6) (i) The Sale of Food and Drugs Act.
  (ii) Milk supply.
  (iii) Food inspection.
  (iv) Slaughter houses.
  (v) Markets, etc.

Excepting matters directly affecting consumers and public authorities in England, or involving relations with the colonies or with foreign countries, i.e.—
  (a) Imported foodstuffs.
  (b) Shell fish.
  (c) Statistics from public analysts' reports.

(7) Appointment of public analysts and officers under Food Acts and Regulations.

Local authorities should, as from the date appointed, address all correspondence relating to these functions of the Ministry to "The Secretary, Welsh Board of Health, Ministry of Health, City Hall, Cardiff."

The annual reports of medical officers of health should be sent to the Welsh Board and requests for these will be issued from time to time by the Board.

In case of doubt as to the office to which communications should be sent, it is desired that they should be addressed to the Welsh Board, which office will see that the papers reach the department concerned.

MINISTRY OF TRANSPORT.

THE MINISTRY OF TRANSPORT (MINISTRY OF HEALTH EXCEPTION OF POWERS) ORDER, 1919.

WHEREAS it is provided by the Ministry of Transport Act, 1919, that as from such date or dates as His Majesty in Council may by Order determine there shall be transferred to the Minister of Transport all powers and duties of any Government department in relation to :—

(b) Light railways.
(c) Tramways.
(d) Canals, waterways and inland navigations.
(e) Roads, bridges and ferries, and vehicles and traffic thereon.
(f) Harbours, docks and piers.

And whereas it is further provided by the said Act that His Majesty in Council may by Order except from such transfer any particular powers or duties or provide for the exercise or performance of any power or duty so excepted by the Minister of Transport concurrently or in consultation with or at the instance of the Government department concerned or by the Government department concerned concurrently or in consultation with the Minister of Transport :

And whereas it is further provided that His Majesty may by Order make such incidental, consequential and supplemental provisions as may be necessary or expedient for the purpose of giving full effect to any transfer of powers or duties as aforesaid :

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of his Privy Council, to order and it is hereby ordered as follows :—

1. This Order may be cited as the Ministry of Transport (Ministry of Health Exception of Powers) Order, 1919.
2. The date on which the powers as aforesaid of the Minister of Health are transferred to the Minister of Transport shall be the twenty-third day of September, 1919.
3. There shall be excepted from such transfer
   (i) the powers and duties of the Minister of Health in regard to the matters aforesaid of giving sanction to the borrowing of money by local authorities ;

(ii) the powers and duties of the Minister of Health under the Housing Acts, 1890 to 1919;

(iii) the powers and duties of the Minister of Health with respect to the confirmation of byelaws made by local authorities other than byelaws made under section 26 of the Highways and Locomotives (Amendment) Act, 1878, and byelaws made under section 6 of the Locomotives Act, 1898.

Provided that in the exercise of the powers so excepted so far as they relate to roads, bridges, vehicles and traffic thereon, the Minister of Health shall act in consultation with the Minister of Transport.

NURSING HOMES.

CIRCULAR 862.

MINISTRY OF HEALTH,
Whitehall, S.W. 1,
22nd March, 1928.

NURSING HOMES REGISTRATION ACT, 1927.

SIR,—I am directed by the Minister of Health to draw the attention of the Council to the above Act; and to append the following observations for their information:—

1. Date of Commencement.—This Act, which provides for the registration of nursing homes (including maternity homes), comes into operation on July 1st, 1928.

2. Repeals.—As from the commencement of the Act, Part II. of the Midwives and Maternity Homes Act, 1926, and so much of any Local Act as provides for the registration of maternity homes are repealed. But any person who before the commencement of the Act was registered under any repealed enactment in respect of a maternity home shall be deemed to be duly registered under the present Act in respect of that home, if the authority with which he was previously registered is for the purposes of this Act the Local Supervising Authority of the area in which the home is situated. (Section 12 (3)).

3. Supervising Authority.—(i) The Local Supervising Authority is the county council or county borough council. But a county council may, on the application of the council of any district within the county, delegate with or without restrictions or conditions any of the powers or duties of the county council under this Act. A district council, if aggrieved by the refusal of a county council to delegate or to delegate otherwise than subject to conditions or restrictions, may appeal to the Minister of Health who, after consultation with the county council, may give a direction with which the county council must comply (section 9).

(ii) In the case of the administrative County of London, the Act is applied with certain modifications which are specified in section 11 of the Act.

4. Application for Registration.—Application must be made to the Local Supervising Authority in the form scheduled below, which has been prescribed by the Minister in pursuance of section 1 (2) of the Act. Every application must be accompanied by a fee of 5*s*.

It will be desirable for the Local Supervising Authority to give notice as soon as possible in their area of the requirements of the Act by inserting advertisements in newspapers circulating in the area or in such other way as is most likely to bring these requirements to the notice of persons concerned. The advertisement should state where forms of application can be obtained.

5. Refusal of Registration.—(i) Grounds of Refusal.—The Local Supervising Authority is required by section 1 (3) to register the applicant and to issue a certificate of registration, unless the authority is satisfied that registration should be refused on one or other of the grounds specified in the proviso to the sub-section. These may be briefly summarised as follows :—

(a) That the applicant or any person employed by him at the home is not a fit person to carry on or be employed at the home.

(b) That the premises are not fit to be used as a home for reasons connected with situation, construction, accommodation, staffing or equipment; or that the premises are used or to be used for purposes which are in any way improper or undesirable.

(c) In the case of a nursing home (other than a maternity home) not in existence at the commencement of the Act, (i) that it is not under the charge of a doctor or a qualified nurse resident in the home, or (ii) that there is not a proper proportion of qualified nurses superintending or employed in the nursing of patients.

(d) In the case of a nursing home (other than a maternity home) in existence at the commencement of the Act, that the nursing of the patients is not under the superintendence of a qualified nurse resident in the home.

(e) In the case of a maternity home not in existence at the commencement of the Act, (i) that the superintendence of the nursing is not in charge either of a qualified nurse or a certified midwife, or (ii) that any person employed in attending any woman in childbirth or in nursing any patient in the home is not either a doctor, a certified midwife, a pupil midwife or a qualified nurse.

(ii) Notice of Refusal.—If the Local Supervising Authority propose to refuse registration they must give the notice and observe the other requirements prescribed in detail in section 3 (1) and (2).

(iii) Appeal.—Any person aggrieved by refusal of the Local Supervising Authority to register a home may appeal to a Court of Summary Jurisdiction; and an appeal to Quarter Sessions from the decision of the Court of Summary Jurisdiction may be made either by the original appellant or by the Local Supervising Authority. An order of the authority refusing registration shall not come into force until 14 days from the date on which it was made, or if notice of appeal is given until the appeal has been disposed of. (Section 3 (3) and (4).)

[N.B. Mixed Homes.

The Local Supervising Authority will be called upon to deal with homes which are partly nursing homes and partly maternity homes within the meaning of the Act.

(1) Under section 12 (3) certain homes already registered as maternity homes under Local Acts or the Midwives and Maternity Homes Act, 1926, will be deemed to be registered under the new Act, and some of these may be found to provide for non-maternity cases as well as maternity cases. The registration authority will presumably have satisfied themselves previously in regard to the maternity provision. But under the new Act it will be necessary for them to satisfy themselves that the requirements of the Act in regard to the provision for non-maternity patients are also observed.

(2) Under section 1 (2) of the Act the Local Supervising Authority will probably receive applications for registration in respect of mixed homes of three kinds :—

(a) The home which is avowedly partly for maternity cases and partly for general cases :—

In this case the accommodation for maternity and non-maternity cases may form separate units, and in practice the Local Supervising Authority may be able to ascertain without difficulty whether the requirements of the Act in regard to both classes of patients are satisfied.

(b) The maternity home which occasionally takes non-maternity cases :—

The Local Supervising Authority will, of course, in the first instance satisfy themselves that the requirements of the Act in regard to maternity patients are complied with. But they must also consider in this instance whether in the provision made for non-maternity cases the safeguards indicated in paragraph (c) or (d) of the proviso to section 1 (3) are secured.

(c) The nursing home which occasionally takes maternity cases :—

In this case the authority must in the first instance satisfy themselves that the requirements of the Act in regard to non-maternity patients are complied with. But they must also consider whether in the case of maternity patients the safeguards indicated in paragraph (e) of the above-mentioned proviso are secured, if the home was not in existence at the commencement of Act.

In any case it is to be borne in mind that nothing in this Act modifies the requirements of the Midwives Acts regarding attendance on women in childbirth.]

6. Cancellation of Registration.—The Local Supervising Authority may cancel registration on any ground which would entitle them to refuse an application for registration, or on the ground that any person has been convicted of an offence against the Act in respect of the home. The same requirements as to notices and the same rights of appeal apply as in the case of refusal to register. (Sections 2 and 3.)

7. Exemptions.—(i) The following are excluded from the operation of the Act by the definition of nursing home in section 10 (1).

(a) Any hospital or premises maintained or controlled by a Government Department or local authority or by any other body of persons constituted by special Act of Parliament or incorporated by Royal Charter.

(b) Any institution for lunatics within the meaning of the Lunacy Act, 1890.

(c) Any certified institution, certified house or approved home within the meaning of the Mental Deficiency Act, 1913.

(ii) The Local Supervising Authority have power under section 6 to grant exemption, renewable annually, in respect of any hospital or institution not carried on for profit. Any person aggrieved by the refusal of the authority to grant such exemption or by the withdrawal of such exemption may appeal to the Minister of Health.

(iii) The Minister of Health is empowered by section 7 to grant exemption in respect of Christian Science Nursing Homes ; and notification of any such exemption will be sent to the appropriate Local Supervising Authority.

8. Inspection.—By section 5 the Medical Officer of Health or some qualified nurse or other officer duly authorized by the Local Supervising Authority may, subject to such regulations as may be made by the authority, enter and inspect premises which are used or which the officer has reasonable cause to believe to be used for the purposes of a nursing home. Any person obstructing such officer will be guilty of an offence under the Act.

Local Supervising Authorities are requested to note the proviso to section 5 (1) which forbids the inspection of medical records relating to individual patients and is designed to ensure privacy of treatment.

9. Byelaws.—As Part II. of the Midwives and Maternity Homes Act, 1926, is repealed as from the 1st July, 1928, any byelaws made under section 8 of that Act will accordingly lapse on that date. Local authorities desiring to make byelaws under section 4 of the new Act should apply to the Secretary, Ministry of Health, for model forms, which it is hoped to have ready shortly.

10. Expenses.—Section 9 (4) and (5) provides that expenses under the Act shall be defrayed—

(a) in the case of a county council as expenses for general county purposes ;

(b) in the case of a county borough council as part of the general expenses of the council in the execution of the Public Health Acts.

Special provision is made that any expenses incurred by a district council to whom powers and duties have been delegated shall be repaid by the county council up to such amount as may be fixed by the county council. Any expenses in excess of the amount so repaid must be defrayed as part of the general expenses of the district council in the execution of the Public Health Acts.

11. Offences.—

(i) Failure to register under section 1 (1) is an offence for which the person will be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding £50, or in the case of a second or subsequent offence to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 3 months or to a fine not exceeding £50 or to both.

Appendix II.

(ii) Failure to exhibit in a conspicuous place in the home the certificate of registration is an offence under section 1 (4).

(iii) Refusal to admit an inspecting officer or obstruction of such officer is an offence under section 5 (2). Penalties are prescribed in section 8.

12. Definitions.—Reference should be made to section 10 of the Act for definitions of nursing home, maternity home, qualified nurse, and pupil midwife.

I am, Sir,
Your obedient Servant,
W. A. ROBINSON,
Secretary.

The Clerk to the Council or
The Town Clerk.

E.—In the case of any Home carried on by a company, association or body corporate, the Council should be at once notified of any change in regard to the individual responsible for the management of the Home.

Cases in which Fresh Registration is required.

Fresh registration is necessary in cases in which (1) a Home is transferred from one person, society, etc., to another ; (2) any change occurs in the constitution of the body carrying on a Home ; or (3) a Home is removed to other premises. In each case the fee of 5*s*. must accompany the application.

Definitions.

Section 10 of the Nursing Homes Registration Act contains the following definitions :—

" Nursing Home " means any premises used or intended to be used for the reception of and the providing of nursing for persons suffering from any sickness, injury, or infirmity, and includes a maternity home, but does not include any hospital or other premises maintained or controlled by a Government Department or by any body of persons constituted by special Act or incorporated by Royal Charter or institutions under the Lunacy or Mental Deficiency Acts.

" Maternity Home " means any premises used or intended to be used for the reception of pregnant women or of women immediately after childbirth.

" Qualified Nurse " means a person registered in the general part of the register of nurses required to be kept under the Nurses Registration Act, 1919, or a person who had before July 1st, 1928, completed a three years' course of training in a hospital which was during the period of her training, or subsequently became, a training school approved by the General Nursing Council for England and Wales, or the General Nursing Council for Scotland, or the General Nursing Council for Northern Ireland, for the purpose of admission to the general part of the said register.

In relation to any premises used or intended to be used solely for the reception of, and the provision of nursing for, a class of patients in whose case the requisite nursing can be suitably and adequately provided by nurses of a class whose names are contained in some part of the register of nurses required to be kept under the Nurses' Registration Act, 1919, other than the general part 5 of that register, references in the above definition of " qualified nurse " to the general part of the register shall be construed as including references to that other part of the register.

" Pupil Midwife " means a person who is undergoing training with a view to becoming a certified midwife, and for that purpose attending women in childbirth as part of a course of practical instruction in midwifery recognised by the Central Midwives Board.

Exemptions.

The Local Supervising Authority may grant exemption from the operation of the Act in respect of any hospital or institution not carried on for profit.

Appeals.

(1) Any person aggrieved by an order of the Local Supervising Authority refusing an application for registration or cancelling any registration may, within 14 days after the date on which the copy of the order was sent to him, appeal against it to a Court of Summary Jurisdiction.

(2) Any person aggrieved by the refusal of a Local Supervising Authority to grant an exemption, or by the withdrawal of such exemption, may appeal to the Minister of Health.

OFFENSIVE TRADES.

CIRCULAR, OCTOBER 11TH, 1910.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT BOARD, WHITEHALL, S.W.

SIR,—I am directed by the Local Government Board to advert to the Order made by them putting in force in the district of the council section 51 of the Public Health Acts Amendment Act, 1907. In drawing the attention of the council to the terms of sub-section (1) of the section, I am to point out that an offensive trade which is not referred to by name in section 112 of the Public Health Act, 1875, and which would, under that Act, have required the consent of the council for its establishment may, now that section 51 of the Act of 1907 is in force, be established without such consent, unless it is specifically declared to be an offensive trade by an Order confirmed by the Board under sub-section (1) of the section.

The Board suggest that the council should consider whether in respect of their district there are any trades, other than those specifically named in section 112 of the Act of 1875, which it is desirable to deal with by a Declaratory Order issued under section 51 of the Act of 1907. The Board will be prepared to entertain an application for the confirmation of such an Order, but they would, of course, have to consider any representations which might be made to them on behalf of the trades affected. They suggest that the Order should take the form of a declaration under the seal of the council such as is printed overleaf, and the Board would be glad to see the Order in draft before it is formally made. At the same time they would wish to be furnished as regards any trade included in the Order but not dealt with in the model byelaws with respect to offensive trades with a copy of any representation by the medical officer of health as to the carrying on of the trade in the district, or with a report from that officer giving particulars of the trade and showing the need for greater control over it.

The Board are also of opinion that where byelaws are in force with respect to offensive trades there might be some advantage, if after the Declaratory Order has been made, the council were to re-enact the byelaws under the somewhat wider powers of section 51 (2) of the Act of 1907. Copies of the model byelaws can be obtained on application to the Board, together with a memorandum containing instructions for submitting byelaws to the Board. If the council decide to remake the byelaws the draft could be submitted for consideration without waiting for the Declaratory Order to take effect.

I am, etc.

The Clerk to the Urban or Rural District Council.

APPOINTMENT OF MEMBERS AND EX-MEMBERS TO PAID OFFICES—CIRCULAR.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT BOARD, WHITEHALL, S.W.,
5th May, 1911.

SIR,—I am directed by the Local Government Board to state that they have had under consideration the question of the appointment to paid offices under town councils, and urban and rural district councils, of persons who are or have been members of those councils.

Representations on this subject have been addressed to the Board from time to time, and they have been reminded of the rule made by the Registrar-General with regard to the office of registrar. The Royal Commission on the Poor Laws and Relief of Distress referred to that rule with approval, and have recommended that "a local authority should not be allowed to appoint an ex-member as a paid officer unless he or she has ceased to be a member of the local authority for a period of, say, twelve months before appointment."

The Board are in agreement with this view, and they feel assured that councils generally recognise the impropriety of appointing to paid offices persons who are or have been recently members of their own body.

The Board, therefore, think it necessary to intimate generally that in future, unless very special grounds are shown, they will not be prepared to sanction the appointment to any office, in respect of which their sanction may be requested, of any person who is or has been within twelve months a member of the council making the appointment.

I am, etc.

The Town Clerk, or
The Clerk to the District Council.

PUBLIC ANALYSTS—GENERAL ORDER.

(March 7th, 1900.)

SALE OF FOOD AND DRUGS ACTS, 1875 TO 1899—APPOINTMENT OF PUBLIC ANALYST: REGULATION AS TO COMPETENCY.

WHEREAS by the Sale of Food and Drugs Acts provision is made for the appointment by certain local authorities of persons to act as analysts of all articles of food and drugs, and every such appointment is made subject to the approval of the Local Government Board;

And whereas by sub-sections (1) and (5) of section 3 of the Sale of Food and Drugs Act, 1899 (hereinafter referred to as "the Act"), it is enacted as follows:

"(1) It shall be the duty of every local authority entrusted with the execution of the laws relating to the sale of food and drugs to appoint a public analyst . . ."

"(2) Any public analyst appointed under the Sale of Food and Drugs Act shall furnish such proof of competency as may from time to time be required by regulation framed by the Local Government Board."

And whereas by section 25 of the Act it is enacted as follows:

"In this Act unless the context otherwise requires—

* * * * * *

"The expression 'local authority' means any local authority authorised to appoint an analyst for the purposes of the Sale of Food and Drugs Act, and the expression 'public analyst' means an analyst so appointed."

Now, therefore, we, the Local Government Board, in pursuance of the powers given to us by sub-section (5) of section 3 of the Act do hereby order that the following regulation shall have effect; that is to say—

Every person appointed on or after the 1st of January, 1900, to the office of public analyst shall furnish such proof as we may deem sufficient of his competent skill in and knowledge of (a) analytical chemistry, (b) therapeutics, and (c) microscopy.

Such proof shall in every case comprise documentary evidence that such person holds the requisite certificate, diploma, licence, or document conferring the qualification or attesting his possession of the skill or knowledge to which the same applies, and granted or issued by any person or body of persons for the time being recognised by us as competent to confer such qualification or to test such skill or knowledge. Such proof also shall comprise such further evidence as we may in any particular case require.

All such documentary evidence as is hereinbefore mentioned shall be furnished by such person to the local authority by whom he is appointed and shall be transmitted to us by the local authority when applying for our approval of the appointment:

Provided that nothing in this regulation contained shall, in the case of any person who was appointed to the office of public analyst with our approval between the 1st of January, 1891, and the date hereof, or of any person who is so appointed for the first time after such last-mentioned date, apply upon any subsequent appointment of such person to the said office.

CIRCULAR No. 162 (ROADS).

MINISTRY OF TRANSPORT, ROADS DEPARTMENT,
7, WHITEHALL GARDENS, S.W.1.
August 15*th*, 1922.

GRANTS TOWARDS SALARY OF ENGINEER OR SURVEYOR FROM THE ROAD FUND UNDER SECTION 17 (2) OF THE MINISTRY OF TRANSPORT ACT, 1919 (a).

SIR.—I am directed to refer to paragraph 8 of Circular Letter No. 150 (Roads), which was issued on the 22nd May, 1922, and to inform you that, in approved cases, the Minister of Transport is now in a position to defray, by agreement with the local authority, a proportion of the salary of the surveyor or engineer to a local authority.

A draft of the agreement which local authorities will be required to enter into is set out overleaf and if your council desire to obtain a contribution towards the salary of their surveyor or engineer, I am to request that you will submit the enclosed Form 163 (Roads) duly completed, before the 15th September next, when copies of the proposed agreement will be forwarded for completion by the council.

I am to add that whilst it is open to all local authorities to apply for a grant towards the salary of their surveyor or engineer irrespective of the classification of the roads under their control, the Minister is not prepared at the present time to entertain any applications for contributions towards the travelling expenses and establishment charges of such officers.

I am, Sir,
Your obedient Servant,
H. H. PIGGOTT,
Assistant Secretary.

AN AGREEMENT made the day of 19 between the MINISTER OF TRANSPORT (hereinafter called "the Minister") of the one part and

The county council of the (b) administrative county of ;
The mayor, aldermen and burgesses of the (county) borough of acting by the council;
The urban district council of in the county of ;
The rural district council of in the county of ;
The mayor, aldermen, and councillors of the metropolitan borough of ;
The provost, magistrates, and councillors of the Burgh of ;

(hereinafter called "the council") of the other part.

(a) In connection with this Circular it should be observed that certain road grants are discontinued under Sched. II. of the L. G. A., 1929, and that under Part III. of that Act rural district councils cease to be highway authorities (s. 30), and that classified roads in urban districts become "county roads" vested in and maintainable by the county council (s. 31), subject to the right of the larger urban district councils to "claim" the county roads in their district (s. 32). See a letter of June 26th, 1929, at p. 3917, post.

(b) Omit for Scotland.

Appendix II.

Whereas by sub-section 2 of section 17 of the Ministry of Transport Act, 1919, it is enacted that for the purpose of advances for the construction, improvement, or maintenance of roads the Minister may inter alia by agreement with the local authority defray half the salary and establishment charges of the engineer or surveyor to a local authority responsible for the maintenance of such roads subject to the conditions that the appointment, retention, and dismissal of such engineer or surveyor and the amount of such establishment charges shall be subject to the approval of the Minister.

And whereas the council is a local authority responsible for the maintenance of roads.

And whereas in exercise of the powers conferred by the hereinbefore recited sub-section the Minister and the council have agreed to enter into the agreement hereinafter contained.

1. Subject to the conditions and stipulations hereinafter contained, the Minister will pay to the council in each year a contribution of £ towards (but in no case exceeding one-half of) so much of the salary of the surveyor/engineer of the council as is paid in respect of his duties in connection with the construction, improvement, or maintenance of roads and bridges and is chargeable to the highways and bridges account of the council.

2. For the purpose of this agreement the proportion of the salary of such surveyor/engineer so chargeable to the highways and bridges account shall be deemed to be £ per annum : provided that the said sum of £ may be increased or decreased from time to time with the prior approval in writing of the Minister, and that in the event of such approval being given the Minister may make a proportionate modification in the amount of the contribution payable under section 1 of this agreement.

3. The council shall not appoint, retain or dismiss any such surveyor/engineer without obtaining the previous approval of the Minister and the Minister shall not be bound to make any payment in relation to the salary of any surveyor/engineer who has been appointed or retained without such approval.

4. This agreement may be determined by either party giving to the other six calendar months' notice in writing under the hand of an assistant secretary of the Ministry of Transport or the clerk to the council as the case may be.

THE SANITARY OFFICERS ORDER, 1926, DATED 27TH MAY, 1926, MADE BY THE MINISTER OF HEALTH.

The Minister of Health, in exercise of all powers enabling him by any statute in that behalf, hereby orders as follows :—

PART I.

Interpretation, etc.

1. This Order may be cited as the Sanitary Officers Order, 1926, and shall come into operation on the 1st day of June, 1926.

2.—(1) In this Order, unless the context otherwise requires :—

"The Minister" means the Minister of Health ;

"Local authority" means a local authority, other than a county council, empowered or required to appoint a medical officer of health or sanitary inspector, and includes a port sanitary authority ;

"District" means the district subject to the jurisdiction of the local authority for the purposes of the Public Health (London) Act, 1891, or of the Public Health Act, 1875, as the case may be, and includes a part of a district ;

"London" means the administrative county of London.

(2) The provisions of this Order relating to appointment, tenure of office, and salary shall not apply to a person appointed to act temporarily in the place of a medical officer of health or sanitary inspector who is absent from duty.

(3) The Interpretation Act, 1889, applies to the interpretation of this Order as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

3. The Sanitary Officers Order, 1922, is hereby revoked, but without prejudice to any right, privilege, obligation or liability acquired, accrued or incurred thereunder.

PART II.

Medical Officers of Health.

4.—(1) This Part of this Order shall apply in the case of every medical officer of health of a district or combination of districts outside London one-half of whose salary is intended to be repayable by a county council or county borough council in pursuance of the Local Government Act, 1888 (a).

(2) This Part of this Order shall apply, with the exception of Articles 9 and 10, and of paragraph (2) of Article 14, in the case of every medical officer of health appointed or reappointed by any local authority in London.

(3) Save as aforesaid in the case of London the provisions of this Part of this Order relating to qualifications and duties shall apply to all medical officers of health other than the medical officer of health of a county.

(4) Paragraphs (1), (3) and (4) of Article 14 shall apply to the medical officer of health of a county, other than London, with the substitution of " county council " for " local authority."

5. A person shall not be qualified to be hereafter appointed or reappointed as a medical officer of health of any district or combination of districts unless, in addition to the qualification prescribed by any statute, he is also either registered in the medical register as the holder of a diploma in sanitary science, public health, or state medicine, or has had not less than three years' previous experience of the duties of a medical officer of health.

6. The appointment of a medical officer of health shall be subject to the approval of the Minister.

7. When a vacancy in the office of medical officer of health of a local authority has occurred or is impending, the clerk to the authority shall forthwith report the fact to the Minister, stating the cause of the vacancy or impending vacancy.

8.—(1) A local authority shall, before appointing any medical officer of health under this Order, submit to the Minister a statement in such form and containing such particulars relating to the appointment as may from time to time be required or directed by the Minister.

(2) A local authority shall, as soon as the approval of the Minister has been given to the proposals contained in the statement so submitted, cause to be inserted in some newspaper or newspapers circulating in the district of the authority at least seven days before the date on which it is proposed that the appointment shall be considered by the authority, an advertisement specifying the district for which the appointment is to be made, together with the amount of the salary and of any travelling or other allowances proposed to be assigned.

9. The Minister may for the purposes of section 24 (2) (c) of the Local Government Act, 1888 (a), but not for any other purpose, at any time, if for any reason he thinks it desirable so to do, withdraw his approval to the appointment of the medical officer of health.

10.—(1) Every medical officer of health hereafter appointed or reappointed who by the terms of his appointment is not required to devote the whole of his time to the duties of his office, or to the duties of that office and of any other office or offices held by him under any local or public authority, shall be appointed for a specified term ending on the 31st day of March next following the date of his appointment.

(2) Subject to the provisions of this Order, every medical officer of health appointed for a specified term shall, on the expiration of that term, unless the local authority not less than three months before the expiration of the term by resolution otherwise determine and give notice to him accordingly, continue to hold office from year to year, subject to the right of the local authority to give not less than three months' notice expiring on the 31st day of March in any year, until he dies or resigns, or is removed by the Minister or by the local authority with the consent of the Minister, or is proved to the satisfaction of the Minister to be incapable by reason of physical or mental infirmity from performing the duties of his office.

(3) A local authority may at any time, by resolution, with the consent of the Minister, appoint a medical officer of health, appointed as aforesaid, to be a whole-time medical officer of health.

11. A local authority may at their discretion suspend any medical officer of health from the discharge of his duties and shall in the case of every such suspension forthwith report the same, together with the cause thereof, to the Minister, and if the Minister directs that such suspension shall determine, the officer shall forthwith resume the performance of his duties.

12. A medical officer of health shall not be appointed by a local authority who does not, as one of the terms of his engagement, agree to give at least one month's notice before resigning his office or to forfeit such sum as may be agreed upon at the date of his appointment as liquidated damages.

13. A local authority shall pay to every medical officer of health such salary as may from time to time be approved by the Minister:

Provided that the local authority may, with the approval of the Minister, pay to any medical officer of health a reasonable gratuity on account of extraordinary services performed by him, or on account of other unforeseen or special circumstances connected with his duties or the necessities of the district or districts for which he is appointed.

14. A medical officer of health, in respect of the district for which he is appointed, or if he is appointed for more than one district, then in respect of each district shall—

(1) perform all the duties imposed on a medical officer of health by statute and by any Orders, Regulations or directions from time to time made or given by the Minister, and by any bye-laws or instructions of the local authority applicable to his office;

(2) forward to the Minister by post every week in time to ensure its delivery on Monday or the morning of Tuesday, at the latest, a return, in such form as the Minister may from time to time require, of the number of cases of infectious disease notified to him during the week ended on the preceding Saturday night; and shall also forward at the same time a duplicate of the return to the medical officer or officers of health of the county or counties in which the district is situated;

(3) as soon as practicable after the 31st day of December in each year make an annual report to the local authority up to the end of December on the sanitary circumstances, the sanitary administration and the vital statistics of the district, containing in addition to any other matters upon which he may consider it desirable to report, such information as may from time to time be required by the Minister, and furnish the Minister with as many copies of such report as the Minister may from time to time require;

(4) furnish the Minister with one copy of any special report which he may make to the local authority;

(5) forthwith report to the Minister any case of plague, cholera, or smallpox, or any serious outbreak of disease in the district which may be notified to him, or which may otherwise come or be brought to his knowledge, and, in the case of a county district, shall also notify the medical officer of health of the county.

PART III.

Sanitary Inspectors.

15. This Part of this Order shall apply in the case of every sanitary inspector appointed or reappointed by any local authority in London and of any other sanitary inspector one-half of whose salary is intended to be repayable by a county council or county borough council in pursuance of any statute in that behalf.

16. A person shall not be qualified to be hereafter appointed or reappointed as a sanitary inspector of any district or combination of districts unless he is the holder of—

(a) a certificate of the Royal Sanitary Institute and Sanitary Inspectors Examination Joint Board; or

(b) a certificate of the late Sanitary Inspectors Examination Board; or

(c) a certificate issued before the 1st day of January, 1899, by the Sanitary Institute, now known as the Royal Sanitary Institute; or

(d) in the case of an appointment as sanitary inspector of a district or combination of districts outside London a certificate of the Royal Sanitary Institute issued before the 1st day of January, 1926:

Provided that if the local authority employ a qualified veterinary surgeon for purposes connected with the inspection of meat, they may, with the approval of the Minister, appoint him as a sanitary inspector for the purpose only of exercising the powers and duties of such an officer in relation to meat, notwithstanding that he does not possess one of the qualifications prescribed by this Article.

17. The provisions of Articles 6 to 13 inclusive of this Order, with the exception of Article 9 in the case of a sanitary inspector appointed or reappointed by any local authority in London, shall apply to a sanitary inspector, as they apply to a medical officer of health, with the necessary modifications:

Provided that the provisions of Article 10 of this Order shall apply in the case of a sanitary inspector (other than a sanitary inspector to whom section 2 (1) or section 7 (1) of the Public Health (Officers) Act, 1921, applies), notwithstanding that he is required by the terms of his appointment to devote the whole of his time to the duties of his office, or to the duties of that office and of any other office or offices held by him under any local or public authority.

18. Every sanitary inspector hereafter appointed or reappointed who by the terms of his appointment is not required to devote the whole of his time to the duties of his office or to the duties of that office and of any other office or offices held by him under any local or public authority shall as one of the terms of his engagement undertake to abstain wholly in his private business from any work arising out of or in any way connected with the discharge of his duties as sanitary inspector.

19. The sanitary inspector as regards the district or part of the district for which he is appointed shall, except as provided in Article 20 of this Order—

(1) perform under the general direction of the medical officer of health all the duties imposed on a sanitary inspector by statute and by any Orders, Regulations or directions from time to time made or given by the Minister, and by any bye-laws or instructions of the local authority applicable to his office;

(2) by inspection of his district both systematically and at intervals as occasion requires, keep himself informed of the sanitary circumstances of the district, and in respect of the nuisances therein that require abatement;

(3) report to the local authority any noxious or offensive businesses, trades, or manufactories established within his district, and the breach or non-observance of any bye-laws or Regulations made in respect thereof;

(4) report to the local authority any damage done to any works of water supply, or other works belonging to them, and also any case of wilful or negligent waste of water supplied by them, or any fouling by gas, filth, or otherwise, of water used or intended to be used for domestic purposes;

(5) from time to time, and forthwith upon complaint, visit and inspect the shops and places kept or used for the preparation or sale of any article of food to which the provisions of the statutes and Regulations in that behalf apply, and examine any article of food therein, and take such proceedings as may be necessary:

Provided that in any case of doubt arising under this paragraph, he shall report the matter to the medical officer of health, with the view of obtaining his advice thereon;

(6) when and as directed by the local authority, procure samples of food, drink,

Appendix II.

and drugs and submit such samples to be analysed by the analyst appointed, under the Sale of Food and Drugs Acts, 1875 to 1907 (a), and take such proceedings as may be necessary ;

(7) give immediate notice to the medical officer of health of the occurrence within his district of any infectious or epidemic disease or other serious outbreak of illness ; and whenever it appears to him that the intervention of such officer is necessary in consequence of the existence of any nuisance injurious to health, or of any overcrowding in a house or of any other conditions affecting the health of the district, forthwith inform the medical officer of health thereof ;

(8) if directed by the medical officer of health to do so, remove, or superintend the removal of, patients suffering from infectious disease to an infectious diseases hospital, and perform or superintend the work of disinfection after the occurrence of cases of infectious disease ;

(9) if so directed by the local authority, supervise the scavenging of his district or any part thereof ;

(10) if so directed by the local authority, act as officer of the local authority under the Diseases of Animals Acts, 1894 to 1909, the Canal Boats Acts, 1877 and 1884, the Rats and Mice (Destruction) Act, 1919, and under any Orders or Regulations made thereunder ;

(11) if so directed by the local authority, act as designated officer for the purposes of Part IV. of the Housing Consolidated Regulations, 1925 ;

(12) if so directed by the local authority, superintend and see to the due execution of all works which may be undertaken by their direction for the suppression or removal of nuisances ;

(13) enter from day to day, in a book or on separate sheets or cards provided by the local authority, particulars of his inspections and of the action taken by him in the execution of his duties ;

(14) at all reasonable times, when applied to by the medical officer of health, produce to him his books, or any of them, and render to him such information as he may be able to furnish with respect to any matter to which the duties of sanitary inspector relate ;

(15) as soon as practicable after the 31st day of December in each year, furnish the medical officer of health with a tabular statement containing the following particulars :—
  (a) the number and nature of inspections made by him during the year ;
  (b) the number of notices served during the year, distinguishing statutory from informal notices ;
  (c) the result of the service of such notices.

20. Where in any district there shall be two or more sanitary inspectors, nothing in this Order shall be deemed to prevent the local authority from distributing among them the duties directed by this Order to be performed by a sanitary inspector.

PART IV.

General.

21. The Minister may dispense with any of the requirements of this Order in any case in which it appears to him desirable so to do, on such terms and conditions as he thinks fit, and such dispensation may be given at any time, provided that the Minister is satisfied that the interests of any person will not be prejudiced thereby.

Given under the Official Seal of the Minister of Health this Twenty-seventh day of May, in the year One thousand nine hundred and twenty-six.

COUNTY COUNCILS, TOWN COUNCILS, ETC.

MINISTRY OF HEALTH,
29*th May*, 1926.

SANITARY OFFICERS ORDER, 1926.

SIR,—1. I am directed by the Minister of Health to transmit to the authority the accompanying copies of the Sanitary Officers Order, 1926, which relates to medical officers of health appointed by county councils, local sanitary authorities and port sanitary authorities, and to sanitary inspectors appointed by local sanitary authorities and port sanitary authorities. The Order comes into force on the 1st June, 1926, and revokes the Order of 1922. It does not, however, affect any rights or liabilities already acquired or incurred under that Order or previous Orders.

2. The main change effected by the present Order is in regard to the qualifications of sanitary inspectors (see Article 16), but the opportunity has been taken to introduce a number of minor alterations which experience has shown to be desirable. Generally the provisions of the Order of 1922 are reproduced in the new Order.

3. From the 1st June, 1926, appointments of medical officers of health and sanitary inspectors made by sanitary authorities in London must comply with the provisions of the present Order. This remark applies also to similar appointments made by sanitary authorities outside London where it is desired that repayment of one-half of the salary should be made under the Local Government Act, 1888, and charged to the Exchequer Contribution Account of the county council or county borough council, as the case may be. A resolution appointing such an officer should state that the appointment is subject to the provisions of the Order. In the case of sanitary officers outside London where the authority do not desire to receive repayment in respect of the salary, the only provisions of the Order which apply are those relating to qualifications and duties of medical officers of health. As regards county medical officers of health, the only provisions which apply are paragraphs (1), (3) and (4) of Article 14, which prescribe the duties of these officers.

As regards existing officers, their tenure of office is not affected by the new Order, but the duties now prescribed apply to sanitary inspectors whose appointment has been approved by the Minister, and to all medical officers of health.

Attention is drawn to the fact that although Articles 6 to 13 refer specifically to medical officers of health they are applied to sanitary inspectors by Article 17, with certain modifications.

4. Article 5 provides, like the Order of 1922, that a medical officer of health must possess (in addition to any other qualification prescribed by statute) a registered diploma in sanitary science, public health or State medicine, or have had not less than three years' previous experience of the duties of a medical officer of health. The Minister recognises, however, that in small districts it may not always be possible for the authority to obtain the services of an officer thus qualified, and in Article 21 of the Order he has reserved to himself the right to dispense with this requirement. He will, however, expect local authorities to make every endeavour to appoint as medical officers of health persons holding the prescribed qualifications, and he will be prepared to waive the requirement only in cases where it is clearly shown that the authority were not able to comply with it.

5. Article 8 (1) requires the submission to the Minister of a statement of particulars relating to the appointment before the appointment is made. Forms for the purpose may be obtained from this Office.

6. The requirement in Article 8 (2) will be deemed to be satisfied if the appointment is advertised in the medical or local government press, and such an advertisement will as a rule attract a wider selection of candidates.

7. The tenure of office of district medical officers of health outside London and of certain sanitary inspectors, in both London and the provinces, who give the whole of their time to public duties is governed by the Public Health (Officers) Act, 1921.

Appendix II. This Act, in so far as it relates to tenure of office, does not apply to every county borough, and, for the sake of convenience, the schedule to this Circular indicates the county boroughs and the sanitary officers thereof to whom these provisions do apply. The tenure of office of Metropolitan medical officers of health is governed by paragraphs (b) and (c) of section 108 (2) of the Public Health (London) Act, 1891; and that of county medical officers of health by sub-sections (5) and (6) of section 68 of the Housing, Town Planning, etc., Act, 1909.

Under Article 10, medical officers of health and sanitary inspectors who do not give the whole of their time to public duties and whole-time sanitary inspectors to whom neither section 2 (1) nor section 7 (1) of the Public Health (Officers) Act, 1921, applies, must be appointed in the first place for a specified term ending on the 31st March next following the date of appointment. On the expiration of that term the officer (unless the local authority, not less than three months before the expiration of the term, give notice to the contrary) will continue to hold office from year to year, subject to the provisions of the Order, without further appointment by the authority or approval by the Minister. Power is reserved, however, to the authority themselves to determine the appointment on the 31st March in any year by giving not less than three months' previous notice.

8. Article 14 prescribes briefly the duties of a medical officer of health. He is now required to furnish the department with such number of copies of his annual report as the Minister may direct (which is usually six) in addition to one copy of any special report. His duties are indicated in detail in a memorandum which was issued by the department in March, 1925.

9. It is provided in Article 16 that henceforth the certificate of The Royal Sanitary Institute and Sanitary Inspectors Examination Joint Board shall be the qualification for appointment to the position of sanitary inspector. The rights of holders of certificates granted by the late Sanitary Inspectors Examination Board or of certain certificates issued by the Royal Sanitary Institute are safeguarded by paragraphs (b), (c) and (d) of the Article.

Under the proviso to Article 16 a qualified veterinary surgeon may in certain circumstances be appointed as a sanitary inspector for the purpose of exercising powers and duties in relation to meat, notwithstanding that he is not the holder of one of the qualifications prescribed by the Article. This provision has been inserted to meet special cases where a local authority have found it desirable to employ a veterinary surgeon as meat inspector, and consider that it is necessary that he should for that purpose possess the powers and duties of a sanitary inspector. The Order enables the veterinary surgeon in such a case to be appointed, with the approval of the Minister, as a sanitary inspector, but only for purposes connected with the inspection, examination and seizure of meat. In the opinion of the Minister any veterinary surgeon so appointed should possess a diploma in veterinary State medicine or have had special experience in practical meat inspection.

In the past the Minister has been willing to recognise the certificate of sanitary knowledge granted by the Liverpool University School of Hygiene as a qualification for the appointment of sanitary inspector outside London, and, notwithstanding the provisions of Article 16 of the present Order, he will be prepared to continue the same course as regards such certificates granted by the school prior to May, 1926.

10. Article 19 prescribes the duties of sanitary inspectors, and reproduces the provisions of Article 19 of the Order of 1922 with three additions. The added provisions relate to the taking of samples under the Sale of Food and Drugs Acts, housing inspections and the superintendence of works for the removal of nuisances.

11. Except as regards qualifications and duties, the Order does not apply in the case of a person appointed to act temporarily in the place of a medical officer of health or sanitary inspector who is absent from duty; see Article 2 (2). In pursuance of section 109 of the Public Health (London) Act, 1891, and section 4 of the Public Health (Officers) Act, 1921, the sanction of the Minister should be obtained to a temporary arrangement for the performance of all or any of the duties of a medical officer of health or of a sanitary inspector. A similar provision in regard to a temporary arrangement made in respect of the office of county medical officer of health is to be found in section 68 (6) of the Housing, Town Planning, etc., Act, 1909. The approval of the Minister to the appointment of a deputy for a district medical officer of health is required by section 191 of the Public Health Act, 1875. The Minister is advised that a local authority may appoint a deputy medical officer of health under the last-mentioned section before the disability of the medical officer of health to act has arisen.

12. Certain local authorities enter into formal agreements with their sanitary officers on appointment, and this practice has decided advantages. While, however, the Minister would like to see this course generally adopted, he does not feel that he would be justified at present in making it compulsory. In these circumstances he would be glad if the authority in making any fresh appointment of a medical officer of health or sanitary inspector would take into consideration the question of entering into an agreement with the officer. A model form of agreement may be obtained from the department.

13. In accordance with Circular 136 of 30th September, 1920, correspondence relating to the appointments of sanitary officers in Wales and Monmouthshire should be addressed to "The Secretary, Welsh Board of Health, City Hall, Cardiff."

Further copies of the Order may be purchased through any bookseller or directly from His Majesty's Stationery Office.

I am, etc.

STATUTORY RULES AND ORDERS,
1924, No. 627.

THE LOCAL GOVERNMENT OFFICERS' SUPERANNUATION (TRANSFER VALUE) RULES, 1924, DATED 21ST JUNE, 1924, MADE BY THE MINISTER OF HEALTH UNDER SECTION 8 OF THE LOCAL GOVERNMENT AND OTHER OFFICERS' SUPERANNUATION ACT, 1922.

PART I.

General.

1. These Rules may be cited as the Local Government Officers' Superannuation (Transfer Value) Rules, 1924.

2.—(1) In these Rules unless the context otherwise requires—

"The Act" means the Local Government and other Officers' Superannuation Act, 1922;

"The Minister" means the Minister of Health;

"Officer" includes "servant," and "salary" includes "wages";

(2) The Interpretation Act, 1889, applies to the interpretation of these Rules as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

3. In the case of an officer who at the date of transfer is employed in whole-time service a period of part-time service shall be treated for the purposes of these Rules as though it were whole-time service for a proportionately reduced period.

PART II.

Transfer Values under Section 8 (1) of the Act.

4. The transfer value payable under section 8 (1) of the Act by a local authority who have adopted the Act shall be the transfer value, if any, in respect of the officer's contributing service as ascertained under the First Schedule to these Rules added to the transfer value, if any, in respect of the officer's non-contributing service as ascertained under the Second Schedule thereto.

5. The foregoing Rules shall not apply to the case of an officer to whom a scheme made by any local authority under section 24 of the Act applies. The transfer values payable in respect of such officer and of any other officer for whose case no provision is otherwise made by these Rules shall be such as the Minister may in each case determine on the basis of the tables contained in the schedules to these Rules with such modifications, if any, as the circumstances of the case may in his opinion require.

PART III.

Sums in lieu of transfer values payable under section 8 (2) of the Act.

6. Subject to the provisions of section 8 (2) of the Act an officer who transfers from the service of a local authority who have not adopted the Act (hereinafter referred to as the "non-adopting authority") to a designated post in the service of a local authority who have adopted the Act (hereinafter referred to as the "adopting authority") shall be entitled to reckon service with the non-adopting authority if he pays, in lieu of transfer value, a sum equal to a transfer value calculated in respect of him in accordance with Part II. of these Rules, and the schedules thereto as modified in the following manner:—

(a) Any service in the employment of the non-adopting authority before the date on which the post to which the officer is transferring became an established post for the purposes of the Act shall be deemed to have been non-contributing service, and any service in the employment of that authority on or after that date shall be deemed to have been contributing service;

(b) The date of transfer means the date on which the officer's service in the employment of the adopting authority commences and the officer's salary is to be calculated at the annual rate payable to him by that authority at that date.

7.—(1) Subject as aforesaid the officer shall, if he so desires, be entitled to reckon a part only of his service with the non-adopting authority upon payment of a proportionate part of the sum which would be payable under the last preceding rule if the whole of such service were to be reckoned, but in that event the respective periods for which he is to be deemed to have been employed in non-contributing and contributing service shall be proportionately reduced, and the date on which he is to be deemed to have entered into contributing service shall be correspondingly deferred.

(2) Any period of six months or more which is obtained as a result of reducing the period of non-contributing service under this rule shall be reckoned as a year.

8.—(1) Any sum payable by an officer under either of the last two preceding rules may be paid in a lump sum or by such instalments as may be agreed between him and the authority: Provided that the first instalment shall be not less than one-tenth of the total sum payable and shall be payable within one year from the date of his entering the service of the adopting authority and that the whole of the instalments shall be payable within a period of ten years from that date. Interest at the rate of 4 per cent. per annum with half-yearly rests shall be payable upon the amount for the time being unpaid.

(2) If at the date on which the officer dies or ceases to hold employment under the authority any such instalment remains to be paid, the amount of such instalment with any interest which has accrued thereon shall be deducted from any sum to be paid to or in respect of the officer under sections 10, 11, 12 or 17 of the Act by way of return of contributions.

(3) If any such instalment remains to be paid at the date on which the officer becomes entitled to a superannuation allowance, the amount thereof (with accrued interest) shall be deducted from the payment or payments of superannuation allowance made next after the instalment has become due until the whole sum is recovered.

(4) If at the date on which the officer ceases to hold employment under the authority or dies, as the case may be, the amount of any instalments (with accrued interest) remaining to be paid exceeds the sums recoverable by deduction under paragraphs (2) and (3) of this Article, the balance of the debt shall be treated as cancelled.

9. For the purpose of calculating the amount which may be paid to or in respect of an officer under sections 9, 10, 11, 12 or 17 of the Act by way of return of contributions, one-half of the sum payable by him under section 8 (2) of the Act shall be treated as though it were contributions which had been paid by him to the Superannuation Fund of the adopting authority at the date on which he entered the service of the authority.

10. If an officer by whom a sum is payable under section 8 (2) of the Act transfers, before the whole of the instalments of the sum and interest thereon are paid, to the service of another local authority who have adopted the Act and a transfer value is payable in respect of him, the right to receive the amount unpaid shall be deemed to be transferred to that other authority from the authority from whose service the officer has transferred, and notwithstanding anything contained in Part I. of these Rules the amount of the transfer value payable by the last mentioned authority shall be adjusted in such manner as may in the opinion of the Minister be required.

SCHEDULES.

FIRST SCHEDULE.

Transfer value in respect of contributing service.

To ascertain the transfer value in respect of contributing service multiply the amount shown in column (2) of the subjoined Table I. as appropriate to the officer's age at the date of transfer by the number of completed years of the officer's contributing service, and multiply the corresponding amount in column (3) of the Table by the number of completed months of contributing service additional to any completed years. The sum of these two products is the transfer value for each £100 of salary and the transfer value in respect of the officer will be calculated proportionately by reference to his actual salary. For the purpose of this calculation the date of transfer means the date on which the officer's service in the employment of the authority by whom the transfer value is payable terminated, and the officer's salary is to be calculated at the annual rate payable to the officer by that authority at that date.

SECOND SCHEDULE.

Transfer value in respect of non-contributing service

In cases where an officer is transferring from the service of an authority whose payment to the Superannuation Fund under Sect. 18 (1) (e) of the Act is calculated on the basis of a period of 40 years the transfer value in respect of non-contributing service is to be ascertained by multiplying the amount shown in the subjoined Table II. as appropriate to the officer's age at the date of transfer and years of contributing service by the number of completed years of the officer's non-contributing service, a portion of a year exceeding six months being reckoned as a year. The product is the transfer value for each £100 of salary, and the transfer value in respect of the officer will be calculated proportionately by reference to his actual salary. The date of transfer has the same meaning as in the First Schedule, and the salary is to be calculated in the same manner.

Appendix II.

S. R. & O., 1930, No. 69.

THE LOCAL GOVERNMENT (QUALIFICATIONS OF MEDICAL OFFICERS AND HEALTH VISITORS) REGULATIONS, 1930, DATED FEBRUARY 6, 1930, MADE BY THE MINISTER OF HEALTH UNDER SECTION 59 OF THE LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACT, 1929 (19 & 20 GEO. 5, C. 17) (a).

The Minister of Health, in pursuance of his powers under section 59 of the Local Government Act, 1929, and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf, hereby makes the following regulations, that is to say :—

Interpretation and Commencement.

1.—(1) These regulations may be cited as the Local Government (Qualifications of Medical Officers and Health Visitors) Regulations, 1930, and shall come into operation on the first day of April, 1930.

(2) The Interpretation Act, 1889, applies to the interpretation of these regulations as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

2. In these regulations, unless the context otherwise requires—

"Local authority" means, as the case may be, the mayor, aldermen and commons of the City of London, in common council assembled, the council of a metropolitan borough, the council of an administrative county or county borough, the council of a non-county borough or other urban district, or the council of a rural district ;

"Medical Officer of Health" means the medical officer of health of a local authority ;

"Minister" means the Minister of Health ;

"Tuberculosis officer" means a medical officer in clinical charge of a tuberculosis dispensary provided by a local authority under their arrangement for the treatment of tuberculosis ;

"Medical superintendent" means a medical officer in clinical charge of a residential institution for the treatment of patients suffering from tuberculosis in the early or curative stages of the disease, which contains not less than 75 beds ;

"Venereal diseases pathologist" means a medical officer in charge of a laboratory provided by a local authority for the purposes of Article I. of the Public Health (Venereal Diseases) Regulations, 1916 ;

"Venereal diseases officer" means a medical officer in clinical charge of a treatment centre provided by a local authority for the diagnosis and treatment of venereal diseases in pursuance of Article II. of the Public Health (Venereal Diseases) Regulations, 1916 ;

"Senior maternity and child welfare officer" means a medical officer (other than a medical officer of health) who is in charge of the work of a local authority under the Maternity and Child Welfare Act, 1918, subject to the administrative supervision of the medical officer of health, and who has responsibility for the work of other medical officers employed by the local authority under that Act ;

"Medical officer of an ante-natal clinic" means a medical officer in charge of a clinic provided by a local authority for the purpose of giving advice to, and supervising the health of, pregnant women ;

"Health visitor" means a woman appointed by a local authority as a whole-time officer whose duties include the visiting of women and children in their homes for the purpose of giving advice as to the nurture, care and management of young children, and as to the health of expectant and nursing mothers ;

"Tuberculosis visitor" means a woman appointed by a local authority being the council of a county, county borough or metropolitan borough as a whole-time officer whose duties include the visiting of the homes of persons suffering from tuberculosis for the purpose of giving advice as to the care and hygiene of such persons and as to the measures necessary to prevent the spread of infection.

(a) See as to this Order Circular 1072 of 12th February, 1930, ante, p. 3540.

Tuberculosis Officer or Medical Superintendent.

3. Any person appointed by the council of a county, county borough or metropolitan borough, or by a joint committee of any such councils, to be a tuberculosis officer or medical superintendent shall be a registered medical practitioner who, prior to the 1st April, 1930, has held the appointment of tuberculosis officer or medical superintendent with the approval of the Minister, or who, subsequent to qualification, (1) has had at least three years' experience in the practice of his profession, (2) has spent in general clinical work a period of not less than eighteen months of which not less than six months have been spent in a hospital as resident officer in charge of beds occupied by general medical or surgical cases, and (3) has received special training, for a period of not less than six months, in the diagnosis and treatment of tuberculosis.

Venereal Diseases Pathologist.

4. Any person appointed by the council of a county or county borough to be a venereal diseases pathologist shall be a registered medical practitioner who, prior to the 1st April, 1930, has held the appointment of venereal diseases pathologist with the approval of the Minister, or who (1) has had at least three years' experience in the practice of his profession subsequent to qualification, and (2) is in possession of a certificate, given by a pathologist in charge of a laboratory approved by the Minister under the Public Health (Venereal Diseases) Regulations, 1916, testifying that, under his supervision, the medical practitioner, within the preceding two years, (a) has personally carried out not less than 500 serum tests for syphilis by a method approved by the Minister, and is competent to perform such tests, and (b) has personally examined microscopically not less than 300 specimens from lesions suspected to be syphilitic, gonorrhœal or chancroidal, and is competent to conduct such examinations.

Venereal Diseases Officer.

5. Any person appointed by the council of a county or county borough to be a venereal diseases officer shall be a registered medical practitioner who, prior to the 1st April, 1930, has held the appointment of venereal diseases officer with the approval of the Minister, or who (1) has had at least three years' experience in the practice of his profession subsequent to qualification, and (2) is in possession of a certificate, given by the venereal diseases officer of a treatment centre at which not less than 500 patients attended for the first time during the 12 months preceding the issue of the certificate, testifying that he has attended at the treatment centre for a period of not less than three months and has received during that period not less than 130 hours' instruction in the modern methods of diagnosis and treatment of venereal diseases.

Senior Maternity and Child Welfare Officer.

6. Any person appointed by a local authority to be a senior maternity and child welfare officer shall be a registered medical practitioner who, prior to the 1st April, 1930, has held the appointment of senior maternity and child welfare officer with the approval of the Minister, or who, subsequent to qualification, (1) has had at least three years' experience in the practice of his profession, (2) has had special experience in midwifery and child welfare work, and (3) has been employed by a local authority under the Maternity and Child Welfare Act, 1918.

Medical Officer of an Ante-Natal Clinic.

7. Any person appointed by a local authority to be a medical officer of an ante-natal clinic shall be a registered medical practitioner who, prior to the 1st April, 1930, has held the appointment of medical officer of an ante-natal clinic with the approval of the Minister, or who, subsequent to qualification, has had at least three years' experience in the practice of his profession and special experience of practical midwifery and ante-natal work.

Health Visitor.

8. Any person appointed to be a health visitor shall be a woman who, prior to the 1st April, 1930, has held the appointment of health visitor with the approval of the Minister, or who has obtained the health visitors' certificate issued by the Royal Sanitary Institute under conditions approved by the Minister or the diploma issued under the Board of Education (Health Visitors' Training) Regulations, 1919.

Tuberculosis Visitor.

9. Any person appointed to be a tuberculosis visitor shall be a woman who, prior to the 1st April, 1930, has held the appointment of tuberculosis visitor with the approval of the Minister, or who has obtained the health visitors' certificate issued by the Royal Sanitary Institute under conditions approved by the Minister, or the diploma issued under the Board of Education (Health Visitors' Training) Regulations, 1919, or who is a fully-trained nurse and has had at least three months' special experience at a sanatorium or hospital for the treatment of tuberculosis, or at a tuberculosis dispensary.

General.

10. The Minister may dispense with any of the requirements of these regulations in any case in which it appears to him desirable so to do, on such terms and conditions as he thinks fit, and such dispensation may be given at any time provided that the Minister is satisfied that the interests of any person will not be prejudiced thereby.

Given under the Official Seal of the Minister of Health this sixth day of February, in the year One thousand nine hundred and thirty.

Assistant Secretary,
Ministry of Health.

OFFICES AND BUILDINGS.

USE OF BUILDINGS OF LOCAL AUTHORITIES FOR MEETINGS OF TRADE UNIONS AND OTHER BODIES—CIRCULAR.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT BOARD, WHITEHALL, S.W.,
March 23*rd*, 1908.

SIR,—I am directed by the Local Government Board to state that representations have been made to them as to the difficulty experienced by trade unions, friendly societies and other similar bodies in finding accommodation for their meetings in existing buildings, except in public-houses or other licensed premises. Inquiries have been made of the Board as to the power of the local authorities to render assistance in order to meet this difficulty, and the President lately received a deputation on the subject.

The Board direct me to state that, whilst a local authority would not be empowered under the general law to provide buildings for meetings of the bodies referred to, yet where the authority are in possession of a town hall or offices provided for their own meetings or for the transaction of their business, it is competent for them to place the accommodation thus provided, when not required for their own purposes, at the service of any of these bodies on terms which may enable them to have a temporary use of the premises without expense to the local authority (a).

The Board are desirous of bringing this matter under the notice of the local authorities. They cannot but feel that it is very undesirable that the bodies in question should be compelled to hold their meetings on licensed premises, especially when it is remembered that the business transacted at these meetings often necessitates the presence of women and children for a considerable time. The temptations and the evil results arising from this state of things are well known to local authorities and particularly to boards of guardians, and the Board trust that the local authorities will be willing to allow the use of their buildings for the purposes of the meetings referred to where the circumstances admit of their so doing. It will be necessary that arrangements should be made to prevent any expense from falling on the local authority, but the Board do not apprehend that there will be any difficulty in this being done.

Usually no consent on the part of the Board will be requisite to the use of the buildings for the purposes mentioned. In the case of the letting of the room in a workhouse or in the office of a Poor Law union, such consent should be obtained, but the Board will be ready to give it, subject to the guardians reserving to themselves the power to determine the arrangement if at any time it is regarded as detrimental to the use of the buildings for Poor Law purposes.

Parish councils are authorised by section 8 (1) (a) of the Local Government Act, 1894, to provide or acquire buildings for public offices and for meetings and for any purposes connected with parish business or with the powers or duties of the parish council or parish meeting.

Section 33 of the Act empowers the Board, on the application of the council of a borough or urban district, to confer on them any of the powers of a parish council, and the Board have in exercise of this power, in many instances conferred on the councils of boroughs and urban districts the powers of a parish council under section 8 (1) (a) with regard to the provision or acquisition of buildings for public offices and for meetings.

They may also draw attention to the power given to the metropolitan borough councils under the London County Council (General Powers) Act, 1893, of providing halls and buildings partly for the purpose of transacting their own business and partly for the purpose of public meetings, and of adapting or altering their existing town halls and offices for these purposes.

I am directed to add that this circular will be placed on sale, so that copies may shortly be obtained from Messrs. Wyman and Sons, Limited, Fetter Lane, E.C., either directly or through any bookseller.

USE OF BUILDINGS OF LOCAL AUTHORITIES FOR THE AUDIT OF THE ACCOUNTS OF APPROVED SOCIETIES AND PURPOSES CONNECTED THEREWITH—CIRCULAR.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT BOARD, WHITEHALL, S.W.,
December 5th, 1912.

SIR,—I am directed by the Local Government Board to state that representations have been made to them by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury as to a difficulty which it is anticipated will arise in some cases in finding suitable office accommodation for conducting the audit of the accounts of approved societies under the National Insurance Act, 1911. The Board are informed that many societies have no office of their own, and that where instructions are being given to the officials of such societies by the auditors of the National Health Insurance Commission it has been found necessary to make use of private premises. Their lordships consider that it is undesirable that the proceedings of a formal audit should take place in private houses or that recourse should be had to the use of rooms on licensed premises, and the Board concur in this view.

Apart from the provisions contained in section 27 (2) of the Act, it appears to the Board to be competent to a local authority to place accommodation provided for their own meetings or for the transaction of their business at the disposal, when not otherwise required, of approved societies for the purpose of the audits referred to on terms which may enable the societies to have a temporary use of the premises without expense to the local authority.

The Board are desirous of bringing this matter under the notice of local authorities

Appendix II. and trust that they will be willing to allow the use of their buildings for the purposes in question where the circumstances admit of their doing so.

Usually no consent on the part of the Board will be requisite to the use of the buildings in the manner suggested. In the case of a room belonging to a board of guardians, however, such consent needs to be obtained, and the Board will be ready to give it subject to the guardians reserving to themselves the power to determine the arrangement if at any time it is regarded as inconvenient.

The Board hope that local authorities will give the suggested arrangement their favourable consideration.

I am directed to add that this circular will be placed on sale, so that copies may shortly be obtained from Messrs. Wyman and Sons, Limited, Fetter Lane, E.C. either directly or through any bookseller.

I am, etc.

The Clerk to the Urban or Rural District Council.

PETROLEUM (a).

S. R. & O., 1926, No. 1340.

PETROLEUM.

THE PETROLEUM SPIRIT (CONVEYANCE) REGULATIONS, 1926, DATED 18TH OCTOBER, 1926, MADE BY THE SECRETARY OF STATE FOR THE HOME DEPARTMENT IN PURSUANCE OF SECTION 9 AND THE THIRD SCHEDULE OF THE PETROLEUM ACT, 1926 (16 & 17 GEO. 5, C. 25).

In pursuance of section 9 and the Third Schedule of the Petroleum Act, 1926, I hereby make the following Regulations for the conveyance of petroleum spirit by road:—

A.—Provisions relating to Conveyance of Petroleum Spirit otherwise than in Tank Wagons.

1. Any vehicle on which petroleum spirit is conveyed shall be constructed strongly and with sides and back of adequate height, and shall be maintained in good condition. The load shall be protected from sparks, lighted matches or fire from without by a cover, whether fixed or loose, of fire-resisting material (b).

2. The petroleum spirit shall be conveyed in strong metal vessels in good condition and securely closed so as to prevent leakage. The vessels shall be packed so as not to project beyond the sides or back of the vehicle.

3. If the vehicle is mechanically driven, the engine and fuel tank shall be effectively screened from the body of the vehicle by a fire-resisting shield carried up above the height of the load and down to within twelve inches of the ground, and the exhaust shall be wholly in front of this shield. A quick action cut-off valve shall be fitted to the fuel feed pipe in an easily accessible position.

Provided that in the event of the breakdown of any vehicle conveying petroleum spirit, and of there not being any vehicle constructed in accordance with the requirements of this Regulation available within a reasonable time to replace it, it shall be permissible to use a vehicle not so constructed and fitted for the purpose of conveying the petroleum spirit to its destination.

Provided also that, except in the case of vehicles conveying petroleum spirit to or from any place within the county of London or county borough of West Ham, the requirement as to the provision of a fire-resisting shield shall not apply to a vehicle constructed without such a shield prior to the 1st of January, 1925, for a period of five years from that date.

4. Not more than one trailer shall be attached to any vehicle conveying petroleum spirit.

B.—Provisions relating to Conveyance of Petroleum Spirit in Tank Wagons.

5. A tank wagon used for the conveyance of petroleum spirit shall be constructed in accordance with the provisions contained in the Schedule, and together with its connections and fittings shall be maintained in good condition.

6. The capacity of a tank wagon shall not exceed 2,500 gallons, or if used for conveying petroleum spirit to or from any place within the county of London or county borough of West Ham, 2,000 gallons. If the capacity of the tank exceeds 1,500 gallons, the weight of the engine and load shall be distributed over the three axles of a six-wheeled combination vehicle (tractor and trailer) and when the vehicle is engaged in the conveyance and delivery of petroleum spirit it shall be constantly attended by not less than two competent persons (a).

Trailers shall not be employed with tank wagons except under the following conditions :—

(i) only four-wheeled tank trailers shall be employed and not more than one such trailer shall be attached ;

(ii) the capacity of the tank trailer shall not exceed 800 gallons ;

(iii) the tank wagon and trailer while in use shall be constantly attended by not less than two competent persons.

No trailer shall be employed within the county of London or the county borough of West Ham.

The foregoing limitation on the capacity of a tank wagon shall be constructed so as to permit of the tank containing the amount specified under varying degrees of temperature.

7. During the filling or emptying of a tank wagon the following precautions shall be observed :—

(i) If the wagon is mechanically driven the engine shall be stopped the whole time the filling or emptying is proceeding and shall not be run until all tanks have been securely closed.

(ii) If the wagon is horse drawn, the horses shall be removed and the wheels securely scotched before the filling or emptying is begun.

(iii) Adequate provision shall be made to prevent the accumulation of a dangerous static charge of electricity.

8. Petroleum spirit in cans or other packages shall not be conveyed on any tank wagon used for the conveyance of petroleum spirit unless it is so constructed (composite vehicle) as to comply with the conditions applicable to conveyance on wagons other than tank wagons as well as with the conditions applicable to conveyance on tank wagons, and unless, if intended to be used for conveying petroleum spirit to or from any place within the county of London or county borough of West Ham, it has been approved by a Government inspector.

C.—Provisions of General Application.

9. No fire or artificial light capable of igniting inflammable vapour shall be allowed on any vehicle conveying petroleum spirit, nor shall any explosive substance or substance or article capable of causing fire or explosion be carried on such vehicle.

10. If electric lighting is employed on any vehicle conveying petroleum spirit, the following conditions shall be complied with :—

(i) The pressure shall not exceed fourteen volts.

(a) See amendment of these requirements by later Regulations of May 31, 1927, post, p. 3633.

(ii) The circuit shall be heavily insulated from the chassis and the wiring shall be so fixed and protected as to reduce as far as possible risk of damage.

(iii) The generator, battery, switches and fuzes shall be carried in front of the fire-resisting screen when fitted and the battery shall be in an easily accessible position.

(iv) Means of cutting off the current close to the battery by a double pole switch or other suitable method shall be provided.

This Regulation shall not come into force until the 1st of January, 1929.

11. A supply of sand or other efficient means of extinguishing an outbreak of fire shall be carried in an easily accessible position on every vehicle conveyng petroleum spirit.

12. A person while on or attending to any vehicle conveying petroleum spirit shall not smoke.

13. Petroleum spirit shall not be conveyed on any public vehicle whilst carrying passengers.

14. All persons engaged in the loading, unloading or conveyance of petroleum spirit shall observe all precautions necessary for preventing fire or explosion.

15. It shall be illegal on a highway to fill or replenish with petroleum spirit the fuel tanks of mechanically driven vehicles direct from vehicles carrying petroleum spirit in bulk, except with the sanction of the local authority under the Petroleum Acts, 1871 to 1926, and then only at such places and under such conditions as the local authority may approve.

Provided that, during such filling or replenishment of the fuel tank of any public vehicle used for the conveyance of passengers, no passenger shall be allowed to remain in the vehicle.

16. Care shall be taken to prevent any petroleum spirit escaping into any drain or sewer.

17. The owner of a vehicle used for the conveyance of petroleum spirit, who employs any person in connection with such conveyance, shall furnish a copy of these Regulations to, or affix a copy thereof in some place where it can be conveniently read by, any such person and shall take all other measures necessary to ensure that any such person is acquainted with and carries out the provisions of these Regulations.

18. If the vehicle is used for the hawking of petroleum spirit and the petroleum spirit is drawn off from any vessel in the course of such hawking the following conditions shall be observed :—

(i) The quantity of petroleum spirit conveyed at any one time shall not exceed twenty gallons.

(ii) Any petroleum, other than petroleum spirit, which is carried on the vehicle, shall for the purpose of these Regulations be deemed to be petroleum spirit.

The delivery of petroleum spirit to premises licensed under the Act shall not be deemed to be the hawking of petroleum spirit for the purpose of this Regulation.

Regulations 3 and 10 shall not apply to a vehicle used in accordance with the foregoing conditions.

19. These Regulations shall not apply to the conveyance of petroleum spirit on a vehicle (not being a tank wagon or a public vehicle used for the conveyance of passengers, or a vehicle used for hawking of petroleum spirit to which Regulation 18 applies) in a quantity not exceeding thirty gallons of petroleum spirit in securely closed containers of a capacity not exceeding two gallons or in securely closed metal cans or drums of a capacity not exceeding ten gallons, or in a quantity not exceeding fifty gallons of petroleum spirit contained in a single securely closed steel barrel.

20.—(i) In the event of any breach of any of the foregoing Regulations :—

(a) The person committing the breach shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding in the case of a first offence £10, and in the case of a second, or any subsequent offence, £20, and to a further penalty not exceeding £10 for each day during which the breach continues.

(b) The petroleum spirit in respect of which, or being in the vehicle in respect of which, the breach is committed, may be forfeited.

(ii) If any person attempts to commit any breach of these Regulations he shall, without prejudice to any other liability, be liable to the same punishment and forfeiture as if he had committed a breach of the Regulations.

21.—(i) It shall be the duty of every local authority having power to grant licences to keep petroleum spirit to enforce within their district the provisions of these Regulations.

(ii) Every such local authority shall institute and carry on such proceedings in respect of breaches of the Regulations as may be necessary to secure the observance thereof; and an inspector appointed by the local authority for the purposes of the Petroleum Acts, 1871 to 1926, may, if so authorised by the local authority, institute and carry on any proceedings under the Regulations on behalf of the authority.

(iii) The expenses incurred by a local authority in the enforcement of the Regulations shall be defrayed as part of the general expenses of the local authority under the Public Health Acts or in Scotland out of the Burgh General Assessment in the case of burghs and the General County Purposes Assessment in the case of counties.

(iv) Paragraph (ii) of this Regulation shall not apply to Scotland.

22. These Regulations may be referred to as the Petroleum Spirit (Conveyance) Regulations, 1926.

Secretaries of State.

HOME OFFICE, WHITEHALL.
18*th October*, 1926.

Note.—The foregoing Regulations do not apply to the conveyance of petroleum spirit on any vehicle for use in the propulsion of such vehicle. It is recommended that in the case of public passenger vehicles, the number of spare two-gallon tins should not exceed ten.

SCHEDULE.

(A) MECHANICALLY DRIVEN ROAD TANK WAGONS.

1. The vehicle, including the tank and fittings, shall be strongly constructed of fire-resisting materials and shall be maintained in thoroughly good condition. The engine and fuel tank shall be effectively screened from the tank by a fire-resisting shield carried up above the top of the tank and down to within twelve inches of the ground, and the exhaust shall be wholly in front of this shield. The tank shall be securely fastened to the frame of the vehicle provided that in the case of a composite vehicle to which Regulation 8 applies, a removable tank securely fastened to a cradle may be used. A space of not less than six inches, which shall be left clear and unobstructed except for any part of the framework of the wagon, shall intervene between the tank and the fire-resisting shield.

2. The tank if of more than 600 gallons capacity shall be divided into self-contained compartments, no one of which shall contain more than six hundred gallons.

Provided that except in the case of tank wagons of over 1,000 gallons capacity used for conveying petroleum spirit to or from any place within the County of London or County Borough of West Ham this condition shall not apply to tank wagons constructed prior to the 1st of January, 1925, for a period of five years from that date.

3. The draw-off pipes shall be fitted with internal valves in addition to strong and secure taps and screw caps; and the taps shall be enclosed in a strong locked box of hard wood or other suitable material and those at the rear shall be protected by the rear cross member of the frame, such protection being extended when necessary to the lower rear portion of the tank. Where a siphon system of emptying the tank is employed, internal valves are not required.

Provided that in the case of a composite vehicle to which Regulation 8 applies, the taps of the tank, if not projecting beyond the back of the vehicle, need not be enclosed in a box.

4.—(a) The filling pipes shall be carried down nearly to the bottom of the tank and shall each terminate in such a way as to provide at all times a liquid seal at the bottom of the pipe; or alternatively (b) the covers over the filling openings shall be kept locked, except during the operation of filling, and the keys shall be retained by a responsible person.

Provided that (i) as regards tank wagons of over 1,000 gallons capacity used for conveying petroleum spirit to or from any place within the County of London or County Borough of West Ham, the provision in paragraph (a) shall be complied with in all cases; (ii) except as regards such tank wagons, the requirements of this Article shall not apply to tank wagons constructed prior to the 1st of January, 1925, for a period of five years from that date.

5. The dipping pipes shall be carried down to the bottom of the tank, and any openings in them other than the upper orifice shall be covered with fine wire gauze of not less than 28 meshes to the linear inch.

Provided that except in the case of tank wagons of over 1,000 gallons capacity used for conveying petroleum spirit to or from any place within the County of London or County Borough of West Ham this condition shall not apply to tank wagons constructed prior to the 1st of January, 1925, for a period of five years from that date.

6. The ventilating openings shall be covered with fine wire gauze of not less than 28 meshes to the linear inch, protected by covers when not in use.

(B) HORSE DRAWN ROAD TANK WAGONS.

7. The vehicle, including the tank and fittings, shall be strongly constructed and the tank shall be securely fastened to the body of the vehicle and shall if of more than 600 gallons capacity be divided into self-contained compartments, no one of which shall contain more than six hundred gallons. Provided that this condition shall not apply to tank wagons constructed prior to the 1st of January, 1925, for a period of five years from that date.

8. The draw-off pipes shall be fitted with internal valves in addition to strong and secure taps and screw caps; and the taps at the rear shall be enclosed in a strong locked box of hard wood or other suitable material.

9. The ventilating openings shall be covered with fine wire gauze of not less than 28 meshes to the linear inch, protected by covers when not in use.

ORDER IN COUNCIL APPLYING THE PETROLEUM ACTS, 1871 TO 1926, TO BISULPHIDE OF CARBON CONVEYED BY ROAD.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 5th day of November, 1926.

PRESENT,

The King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

Whereas it is provided by the Petroleum Act, 1871, that His Majesty may, from time to time, make, revoke, and vary Orders in Council directing that the said Act or any part thereof shall apply to any substance, and that the said Act or the part thereof specified in any such Order shall, during the continuance of the Order, apply to such substance, and shall be construed and have effect as if such substance had been included in the definition of Petroleum Spirit, subject inter alia to the qualification that the label on the vessel containing such substance shall be such as may be specified in that behalf in the Order:

And whereas the Petroleum Act, 1926, is to be construed as one with the Petroleum Act of 1871:

And whereas the provisions of section 1 of the Rules Publication Act, 1893, have been complied with:

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the above-mentioned provisions of the Petroleum Act, 1871, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order and prescribe that so much of the Petroleum Acts, 1871 to 1926, as relates to the conveyance of petroleum spirit by road shall apply to bisulphide of carbon, and that the label on the vessel or package containing bisulphide of carbon shall bear in conspicuous characters the words "Bisulphide of Carbon, Highly Inflammable," together with the name and address of the sender.

M. P. A. HANKEY.

S. R. & O., 1927, No. 511.

THE PETROLEUM SPIRIT (CONVEYANCE) REGULATIONS, 1927, DATED 31ST MAY, 1927, MADE BY THE SECRETARY OF STATE FOR THE HOME DEPARTMENT IN PURSUANCE OF SECTION 9 AND THE THIRD SCHEDULE OF THE PETROLEUM ACT, 1926.

In pursuance of section 9 and the Third Schedule of the Petroleum Act, 1926, I hereby make the following Regulations for the conveyance of petroleum spirit by road :—

1. The requirement in No. 1 of the Petroleum Spirit (Conveyance) Regulations, 1926, that any vehicle on which petroleum is conveyed shall be constructed with sides and back of adequate height shall not apply to horse-drawn vehicles if the load is securely fastened to the vehicle and all vessels of two gallons capacity and under are packed in wooden cases.

2. Notwithstanding the requirement in No. 6 of the said Regulations that, if the capacity of the tank exceeds 1,500 gallons, the weight of the engine and load shall be distributed over the three axles of a six-wheeled combination vehicle (tractor and trailer), it shall be lawful to use vehicles of other types, if approved by order of the Secretary of State as suitable for the conveyance of quantities exceeding 1,500 gallons.

3. These Regulations may be referred to as the Petroleum Spirit (Conveyance) Regulations, 1927.

PETROLEUM.

BISULPHIDE OF CARBON.

THE BISULPHIDE OF CARBON (CONVEYANCE) REGULATIONS, 1928, DATED JULY 27, 1928, MADE BY THE SECRETARY OF STATE FOR THE HOME DEPARTMENT IN PURSUANCE OF SECTION 9 AND THE THIRD SCHEDULE OF THE PETROLEUM ACT, 1926 (16 & 17 GEO. 5, C. 25) AS APPLIED BY ORDER IN COUNCIL DATED THE 5TH NOVEMBER, 1926.

In pursuance of section 9 and the Third Schedule of the Petroleum Act, 1926, as applied by Order in Council dated the 5th November, 1926, I hereby make the following regulations for the conveyance of Bisulphide of Carbon by road :—

1. Bisulphide of carbon shall not be conveyed except :—

(a) In steel or iron containers each of a capacity not exceeding 50 gallons, constructed in accordance with the specification contained in the First Schedule, maintained in good condition and securely closed so as to prevent leakage or

(b) In luted and tied-over stoppered bottles, each containing not more than 7 lbs., securely packed in strong wooden cases in sawdust, kieselguhr, or other suitable material. Each bottle shall be separated from other bottles by wooden partitions and the total weight of bisulphide of carbon in any one case shall not exceed 30 lbs., or

(c) In tank wagons, subject to the provisions of these regulations.

(A) Provisions relating to conveyance of Bisulphide of Carbon otherwise than in Tank Wagons.

2. Containers and cases containing bottles shall be packed so as not to project beyond the sides and ends of the vehicle.

3. Containers shall be loaded and carried bung uppermost. Where the position of the bung renders it necessary for containers such as barrels or drums to be carried on their sides in order that the bung may be uppermost, each container shall, unless packed in a strong wooden perforated case or crate, be carried on a cradle or on runners fixed to the floor of the vehicle. The load shall be secured to the vehicle by ropes or otherwise, unless sides and back of adequate height are provided.

Appendix II.

4. Containers, bottles, and cases containing bottles shall be legibly marked or labelled with the words "Bisulphide of Carbon, Highly Inflammable," together with the name and address of the sender.

5. When containers are filled, allowance shall be made for an air space of at least 7½ per cent.

(B) Provisions relating to Conveyance of Bisulphide of Carbon in Tank Wagons.

6. A tank wagon used for the conveyance of bisulphide of carbon shall be constructed in accordance with the provisions contained in the Second Schedule to these regulations, and together with its connections and fittings shall be maintained in good condition.

7. The capacity of a tank wagon shall not exceed 1,000 gallons. The foregoing limitation on the capacity of a tank wagon shall be construed so as to permit of the tank containing the amount specified under varying conditions of temperature. Trailers shall not be employed with tank wagons.

8. During the filling or emptying of a tank wagon the following precautions shall be observed:—

(i) If the wagon is mechanically driven the engine shall be stopped the whole time the filling or emptying is proceeding and shall not be run until all tanks have been securely closed.
(ii) If the wagon is horse-drawn, the horses shall be removed and the wheels securely scotched before the filling or emptying is begun.
(iii) Adequate provision shall be made to prevent the accumulation of a dangerous static charge of electricity.

9. Bisulphide of carbon in cans or other packages shall not be conveyed on any tank wagon used for the conveyance of bisulphide of carbon.

10. If electric lighting is employed on any tank wagon conveying bisulphide of carbon, the following conditions shall be complied with:—

(i) The pressure shall not exceed fourteen volts.
(ii) The circuit shall be heavily insulated from the chassis and the wiring shall be so fixed and protected as to reduce as far as possible risk of damage.
(iii) The generator, battery, switches and fuzes shall be carried in front of the fire-resisting screen when fitted and the battery shall be in an easily accessible position.
(iv) Means of cutting off the current close to the battery by a double pole switch or other suitable method shall be provided.

11. The tank of any tank wagon conveying bisulphide of carbon shall be legibly marked with the words "Bisulphide of Carbon, Highly Inflammable."

(C) Provisions of General Application.

12. No fire or artificial light capable of igniting inflammable vapour shall be allowed on any vehicle conveying bisulphide of carbon, nor shall any explosive substance or substance or article capable of causing fire or explosion be carried on such vehicle. This regulation shall not apply to petroleum spirit carried for use in the propulsion of a mechanically-driven vehicle.

13. A supply of sand or other efficient means of extinguishing an outbreak of fire shall be carried in an easily accessible position on every vehicle conveying bisulphide of carbon.

14. A person while on or attending to any vehicle conveying bisulphide of carbon shall not smoke.

15. Bisulphide of carbon shall not be conveyed on any public vehicle whilst carrying passengers.

16. All persons engaged in the loading, unloading or conveyance of bisulphide of carbon shall observe all precautions necessary for preventing fire or explosion.

17.—(a) The owner of a vehicle used for the conveyance of bisulphide of carbon, who employs any person in connection with such conveyance, shall furnish a copy of these regulations to, or affix a copy thereof in some place where it can be conveniently read by, any such person and shall take all other measures necessary to ensure that any such person is acquainted with and carries out the provisions of these regulations.

(b) No person shall deliver or cause to be delivered any bisulphide of carbon to any carrier for the purpose of conveyance by road :—

- (i) unless he shall, with a view to ensure that these Regulations are brought to the notice of the carrier, have delivered to such carrier a copy thereof;
- (ii) unless such a carrier is in possession of, or has available for use, such vehicles and equipment as are or may be adequate and necessary for the purpose of fulfilling the requirements of Regulations 2 and 3, or of complying with the provisions relating to the conveyance of bisulphide of carbon in tank wagons;
- (iii) unless where a tank wagon is not employed he delivers the bisulphide of carbon or causes it to be delivered, as the case may be, to the carrier in such a state as to comply with the requirements of Regulations 1 (a) or 1 (b), and Regulations 4 and 5.

18. These regulations shall not apply to the conveyance of bisulphide of carbon on a vehicle (not being a tank wagon) when the weight does not exceed 14 lbs. Provided that the weight of bisulphide of carbon in any one container other than a metal container shall not exceed 7 lbs.

19.—(i) In the event of any breach of any of the foregoing regulations :—

- (a) The person committing the breach shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding in the case of a first offence £10, and in the case of a second, or any subsequent offence, £20, and to a further penalty not exceeding £10 for each day during which the breach continues.
- (b) The bisulphide of carbon in respect of which, or being in the vehicle in respect of which, the breach is committed, may be forfeited.

(ii) If any person attempts to commit any breach of these regulations he shall, without prejudice to any other liability, be liable to the same punishment and forfeiture as if he had committed a breach of the regulations.

20. The Regulations made on February 28th, 1927, and on September 9th, 1927, are hereby revoked.

21. These Regulations may be referred to as the Bisulphide of Carbon (Conveyance) Regulations, 1928.

SCHEDULES.

FIRST SCHEDULE.

SPECIFICATION OF IRON OR STEEL CONTAINERS.

A.—Containers up to 1 gallon capacity.

1. Containers shall be made of iron or mild steel with strongly constructed seams. Each container shall be provided with a screw bung with leather washer or faced joint. Containers shall be galvanised or painted externally.

B.—Containers of 1 gallon to 50 gallons capacity.

2. Containers shall be made of iron or mild steel, of not less than the following thicknesses :—

Capacity.	Body.	Ends.
1 to 9 gallons	14 B.G.	14 B.G.
10 to 29 gallons	12 B.G. (2 517 mm.)	10 B.G. (3·175 mm.).
30 to 50 gallons	9 B.G. (3·551 mm.)	7 B.G. (4·480 mm.).

The bodies of barrels of ten gallons capacity and upwards, after rolling in process of manufacture, shall not be reduced in thickness in any part by more than one-tenth of the original thickness of the plate.

Appendix II.

3. All seams shall be welded or riveted and sweated with lead so as to make a solid joint. The pitch of the rivets shall not exceed one inch.

4. Drums shall be strengthened and protected at each end by a strong iron or steel chime-hoop welded or riveted on to the body of the drum. Drums exceeding 25 gallons capacity shall have two solid rolling hoops welded or securely shrunk on to the body of the drum; these hoops shall project sufficiently to protect the bung from damage when the drum is rolled.

5. Barrels shall have a bilge of not less than one-fifteenth of their length. The chime at each end shall consist of the body of the barrel, the flange of the end and an inner and outer chime-hoop, strongly and durably welded together. The bung shall be as nearly as possible flush with the outside of the body.

6. Each container shall be provided with a boss, welded or riveted and sweated to the body or end of the container. The boss shall be closed by a well-fitting wrought-iron or forged-steel screw bung with leather washer. In the case of drums of ten-gallon capacity and under, a faced joint made tight with soap may be used instead of the leather washer.

7. Each container shall be capable of standing a hydraulic pressure of 20 lb. per square inch without sign of injury or leakage.

8. Containers shall be galvanised or painted externally.

SECOND SCHEDULE.

(A) MECHANICALLY-DRIVEN ROAD TANK WAGONS.

1. The vehicle, including the tank and fittings, shall be strongly constructed of fire-resisting materials and shall be maintained in thoroughly good condition. The engine and fuel tank shall be effectively screened from the tank by a fire-resisting shield carried up above the top of the tank and down to within twelve inches of the ground, and the exhaust shall be wholly in front of this shield. The tank shall be securely fastened to the frame of the vehicle. A space of not less than six inches, which shall be left clear and unobstructed except for any part of the framework of the wagon, shall intervene between the tank and the fire-resisting shield.

(B) HORSE-DRAWN ROAD TANK WAGONS.

2. The vehicle, including the tank and fittings, shall be strongly constructed and the tank shall be securely fastened to the body of the vehicle.

General Provisions.

3. The tank, if of more than 500 gallons capacity, shall be divided into self-contained compartments, no one of which shall contain more than five hundred gallons.

4. Discharge valves shall be fitted only at the top of the tank and discharge shall be by the pressure of an inert gas or of water. The valve for the attachment of the pressure pipe shall be fitted with a cover, which shall be kept closed and locked except during the operation of emptying the tank, and the keys shall be retained by a responsible person.

5. The filling and discharge pipes shall be carried down nearly to the bottom of the tank and shall each terminate in such a way as to provide at all times a liquid seal at the bottom of the pipe.

6. The dipping pipes shall be carried down to the bottom of the tank, and any openings in them other than the upper orifice shall be covered with fine wire gauze of not less than 28 meshes to the linear inch.

7. The ventilating openings shall be covered with fine wire gauze of not less than 28 meshes to the linear inch, protected by covers when not in use.

S. R. & O., 1929, No. 952.

PETROLEUM.

THE PETROLEUM-SPIRIT (MOTOR VEHICLES, &C.) REGULATIONS, 1929, DATED OCTOBER 28, 1929, MADE BY THE SECRETARY OF STATE UNDER SECTION 10 OF THE PETROLEUM (CONSOLIDATION) ACT, 1928 (18 & 19 GEO. 5, C. 32), AS TO THE KEEPING AND USE OF PETROLEUM-SPIRIT FOR THE PURPOSES OF MOTOR VEHICLES, MOTOR BOATS, AIRCRAFT AND CERTAIN CLASSES OF ENGINES.

By virtue of the powers conferred on me by section 10 of the Petroleum (Consolidation) Act, 1928 (hereinafter referred to as "the Act"), I hereby make the following Regulations:—

Exemption from Act and application of Regulations.

1.—(1) Subject as hereinafter provided, the keeping and use of petroleum-spirit by persons intending to use it for the purpose of any motor vehicle, motor boat or aircraft, or of any class of engine specified in the Schedule to these Regulations and not either wholly or partly for the purposes of sale, shall be exempt from the operation of sections 1 to 9 inclusive of the Act, and petroleum-spirit kept and used by persons intending to use it as aforesaid shall be kept and used in accordance with the regulations hereinafter contained:

(2) Provided that on the application of any person intending to use petroleum-spirit as aforesaid, the local authority may grant a petroleum-spirit licence authorising the keeping thereof, and the said exemption and regulations shall not apply in respect of any petroleum-spirit so authorised to be kept.

Keeping of Petroleum-spirit.

2. The petroleum-spirit shall not be kept otherwise than in metal vessels so constructed and maintained in such condition as :—

(a) to be reasonably secure against breakage ; and

(b) to prevent the leakage of any liquid or vapour therefrom.

3. No person shall repair or cause to be repaired any vessel in which, to his knowledge, any petroleum-spirit is or has been kept until he has taken all reasonable precautions to ensure that the vessel has been rendered free from petroleum-spirit and from inflammable vapour occasioned thereby.

4. Any vessel used for the purpose of keeping the petroleum-spirit, not being the fuel tank of a motor vehicle, motor boat, aircraft or engine, shall bear, in conspicuous characters, the words "petroleum-spirit" and the words "highly inflammable" indelibly marked on the vessel or, where that is impracticable, on a metal label attached thereto.

5. The petroleum-spirit shall not be kept in any storage place which does not comply with the following requirements, that is to say :—

(a) the storage place shall, unless it is in the open air, be effectively ventilated to the open air :

(b) there shall, unless the storage place is in the open air, be an entrance thereto direct from the open air :

(c) in the storage place, or as near thereto as is reasonably practicable, there shall be kept fire extinguishing apparatus of a type capable of extinguishing fires occasioned by burning petroleum-spirit, or a supply of sand or other effective means for extinguishing such fires :

(d) the storage place shall not form part of or be attached to any building used as a dwelling place or as a place where persons assemble for any purpose unless it is separated therefrom by a substantial floor or partition which—

  (i) is constructed of material not readily inflammable ; and

  (ii) has no opening therein, so, however, that in the case of a storage place in which the only petroleum-spirit kept, in addition to that contained in the fuel-tank of any motor vehicle, motor boat, aircraft or engine, is kept in not more than two vessels of capacity not exceeding two gallons each, there may be an opening in any such partition (not being a floor) if the opening is fitted with a self-closing door constructed of hard wood or other fire resisting material :

(e) the storage place, if in any building, shall not be situated under any staircase or under any other means of exit likely to be required to be used for escape in case of fire unless it is separated therefrom by a substantial floor or partition conforming to the requirements contained in sub-paragraphs (i) and (ii) of the last foregoing paragraph.

6. Not more than sixty gallons of petroleum-spirit shall be kept at the same time in any one storage place, and in computing for the purposes of this regulation the amount of petroleum-spirit kept in any one storage place—

(a) any petroleum-spirit contained in the fuel tank of, or otherwise carried on, any motor vehicle, motor boat, aircraft or engine for the time being within the storage place shall be deemed to be kept in the storage place ; and

Appendix II.

(b) any two storage places not more than twenty feet apart, in the occupation of the same occupier, shall be deemed to be one storage place.

7.—(1) The petroleum-spirit shall not be kept in any vessel of capacity exceeding two gallons, not being the fuel-tank of a motor vehicle, motor-boat, aircraft or engine, unless—

(a) it is kept in a storage place situated more than twenty feet from any building, highway or public path ; and

(b) provision has been made by excavation or by the erection of retaining walls or otherwise to prevent the petroleum-spirit from flowing out of the storage place in case of fire ; and

(c) notice in writing that the petroleum-spirit is proposed to be so kept has been given to the local authority in accordance with the provisions of this regulation.

(2) The said notice shall be given by the occupier of the storage place before keeping the petroleum-spirit or permitting it to be kept in a vessel of capacity exceeding two gallons, and thereafter annually in the month of January.

8.—(1) The petroleum-spirit shall not, in any storage place situated within twenty feet of any building or of any stack of timber or other inflammable substance, be kept otherwise than—

(a) in the fuel-tank of any motor vehicle, motor boat, aircraft or engine ; and

(b) in not more than two other vessels of capacity not exceeding two gallons each carried thereon, unless notice in writing that petroleum-spirit is proposed to be kept in the storage place otherwise than as aforesaid has been given to the local authority in accordance with the provisions of this regulation.

(2) The said notice shall be given by the occupier of the storage place before so keeping the petroleum-spirit or permitting it to be so kept, and thereafter annually in the month of January.

9. All reasonable precautions shall be taken at every storage place to prevent any fire or artificial light liable to ignite inflammable vapour being so near any vessel in which the petroleum-spirit is kept as to be dangerous.

Use of Petroleum-spirit.

10. No operation involving the exposure of petroleum-spirit shall be carried on in the neighbourhood of any fire or artificial light liable to ignite inflammable vapour.

11. Subject as hereinafter provided, no petroleum-spirit shall be used in any storage place otherwise than as fuel for a motor vehicle, motor boat, aircraft or engine; Provided that petroleum-spirit may be used therein—

(a) as fuel for any lamp or other apparatus used for the purpose of lighting or heating, so constructed and maintained in such condition as not to be liable to ignite inflammable vapour otherwise than as such fuel ; and

(b) in quantities not exceeding at any one time one gill, for cleaning or as a solvent for repair purposes.

12. No person shall wilfully or negligently empty, turn or permit to enter into any sewer or any drain communicating with a sewer any petroleum-spirit (a).

Special Provisions as to Engines used in connection with the making or repair of Roads.

13. With respect to the keeping and use on any road of petroleum-spirit for the purposes of any engine used in connection with the making or repair of roads, these regulations shall apply subject to the following modifications and additions :—

(a) before any petroleum-spirit is so kept, the person intending to keep it shall give to the local authority notice in writing of his intention to do so ;

(b) Regulation 6 (which limits the quantity of petroleum-spirit that may be kept in a storage place) shall have effect as if for the words " sixty gallons " there were therein substituted the words " thirty gallons " :

(c) Regulations 7 and 8 shall not apply :

(d) the petroleum-spirit shall not be kept in any vessel of capacity exceeding two gallons, not being the fuel-tank of the engine :

(a) See also P. H. A., 1925, s. 41, ante, p. 1587.

(e) not more than one such vessel shall be open at a time and no such vessel shall be open for any purpose other than that of fuelling the engine:

(f) all such vessels shall be kept in an iron locker:

(g) no such locker shall be situated within fifty feet of any means of exit from a theatre, music hall, cinema, or other place of public entertainment, or from a hospital, nor within fifteen feet of any means of exit from any other place where persons assemble for any purpose, or from a dwelling-house:

(h) all reasonable precautions shall be taken to prevent any unauthorised person having access to any such locker and to prevent any fire or artificial light liable to ignite inflammable vapour being within twenty feet of any such locker.

Supplementary.

14.—(1) The Interpretation Act, 1889, applies for the purposes of the interpretation of these Regulations as it applies for the purposes of the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

(2) In these Regulations the following expressions have the meanings hereby respectively assigned to them, that is to say:—

"Engine" means an engine of any class specified in the Schedule to these Regulations:

"Local authority," in relation to any storage place or petroleum-spirit, means the local authority empowered under the Act to grant petroleum-spirit licences in respect of the storage place or petroleum-spirit:

"Road" includes any highway and any street, bridge, lane, footway, square, court, mews, alley, or passage, whether a thoroughfare or not:

"Storage place" includes any room, building or place of any kind whatsoever, whether or not in the open air, used or proposed to be used for keeping therein petroleum-spirit for the purposes of any motor vehicle, motor boat, aircraft or engine.

15. The Regulations made by a Secretary of State under section 5 of the Locomotives on Highways Act, 1896, dated respectively the 31st July, 1907, and the 7th November, 1923, are hereby revoked:

Provided that any notice given in accordance with the requirements of those Regulations shall have effect as if given under these Regulations.

16. These Regulations shall come into force on the first day of December, 1929, and may be cited as the Petroleum-spirit (Motor Vehicles, &c.), Regulations, 1929.

PETROLEUM.

THE PETROLEUM (CARBIDE OF CALCIUM) ORDER, 1929.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 5th day of November, 1929.

PRESENT,

The King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

Whereas by the Petroleum (Consolidation) Act, 1928, (in this Order called "the Act of 1928") His Majesty is empowered by Order in Council to apply to any substance any of the provisions of the Act specified in the Order, with such modifications, if any, as may seem to His Majesty to be desirable having regard to the nature of the substance to which the Order relates:

And whereas it is desirable that certain provisions of the Act shall apply to carbide of calcium:

And whereas the provisions of section 1 of the Rules Publication Act, 1893, have been complied with:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue of the powers conferred on Him by section 19 of the Act of 1928 and of all other powers enabling Him in that behalf, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. Subject to the modifications contained in this Order the whole of the Act of 1928 shall apply to carbide of calcium in like manner as it applies to petroleum-spirit, except so much of the Act of 1928 as relates to the conveyance of petroleum-spirit by road, to the testing of petroleum-spirit, to the keeping and use of petroleum-spirit for the purpose of motor vehicles, motor boats, aircraft and engines, and to byelaws as to petroleum filling stations.

2. The following provisions as to the quantity of carbide of calcium which may be kept without a licence and the conditions of such keeping shall have effect in substitution for paragraphs (a) and (b) of the proviso to sub-section 1 of section 1 of the Act of 1928, that is to say,

(i) 5 lbs. of carbide of calcium may be so kept so long as it is kept in separate hermetically-closed metal vessels containing not more than 1 lb. each;

(ii) 28 lbs. of carbide of calcium may be so kept so long as the following conditions are observed:—

(a) The carbide shall be kept only in a metal vessel or vessels hermetically-closed at all times when the carbide is not actually being placed in or withdrawn from such vessel or vessels;

(b) The vessels containing carbide shall be kept in a dry and well-ventilated place;

(c) Due precautions shall be taken to prevent unauthorised persons from having access to the carbide;

(d) Notice shall be given of such keeping to the local authority.

Where a fixed generator is used on the premises:—

(e) Full and detailed instructions to be supplied by the maker, as to the care and use of the generator, shall be kept constantly posted up in such place as to be conveniently referred to by the generator attendant.

(iii) Where the carbide is kept by a general lighthouse authority, as defined by the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, such quantity may be so kept as may be required for the purposes of such authority, provided that:—

(a) The carbide is kept only in a metal vessel or vessels hermetically-closed at all times when the carbide is not actually being withdrawn from such vessel or vessels.

(b) The vessels containing carbide are kept in a dry and well-ventilated building exclusively appropriated to the keeping of carbide, and detached from a dwelling-house or separated therefrom by a substantial partition with no opening in it.

(c) Due precautions are taken to prevent unauthorised persons from having access to the carbide.

(d) No artificial light capable of igniting inflammable vapour is allowed to be taken into the building in which the carbide is kept.

3. Instead of the words " Petroleum-Spirit " " Highly Inflammable " the label required in pursuance of section 5 of the Act of 1928 shall bear the words " Carbide of Calcium " " Dangerous if not kept dry " and the following caution : " The contents of this package are liable if brought into contact with moisture to give off a highly inflammable gas."

4. The Interpretation Act, 1889, shall apply to this Order in like manner as it applies to an Act of Parliament.

5. All previous Orders in Council relating to the keeping of carbide of calcium, viz., Orders dated 26th February, 1897, 7th July, 1897, 24th October, 1904, 8th August, 1911, 14th July, 1922, and 27th June, 1927, are hereby revoked.

6. This Order may be cited as the Petroleum (Carbide of Calcium) Order, 1929.

PETROLEUM.

THE PETROLEUM (MIXTURES) ORDER, 1929.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 5th day of November, 1929.

PRESENT,

The King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

Whereas by the Petroleum (Consolidation) Act, 1928, (in this Order called " the Act of 1928 ") His Majesty is empowered by Order in Council to apply to any substance any of the provisions of the Act specified in the Order, with such modifications, if any, as may seem to His Majesty to be desirable having regard to the nature of the substance to which the Order relates :

And whereas it is desirable that certain provisions of the Act of 1928 shall apply to the Mixtures of Petroleum which are defined by the Schedule to this Order :

And whereas the provisions of section 1 of the Rules Publication Act, 1893, have been complied with :

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue of the powers conferred on Him by section 19 of the Act of 1928 and of all other powers enabling Him in that behalf, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows :—

1. Subject to the modifications contained in this Order the whole of the Act of 1928 shall apply to the Mixtures of Petroleum which are defined by the Schedule to this Order in like manner as it applies to petroleum-spirit, except so much of Part II. of the Second Schedule to the Act as is inconsistent with or contradictory to Part II. of the Schedule to this Order (manner of testing mixtures of petroleum).

2. Where the mixture of petroleum is not sufficiently liquid to be measured by liquid measure, or is otherwise unsuitable to be measured by liquid measure, the following provisions as to the quantity which may be kept without petroleum-spirit licence and the conditions of such keeping shall have effect in substitution for paragraph (b) of the proviso to subsection (1) of section 1 of the Act that is to say,

The quantity of the mixture of petroleum-spirit shall not exceed 30 lbs. and may only be kept without a petroleum-spirit licence so long as it is enclosed in hermetically sealed packages or vessels, each of which shall contain not more than 1 lb.

3. The label required in pursuance of section 5 of the Act of 1928 shall bear the words " Petroleum Mixture giving off an inflammable heavy vapour " in substitution for the words " Petroleum Spirit " and the words " Highly Inflammable."

4. Wherever in the Act of 1928, or in any Order, Licence, Byelaw or Regulation issued under the said Act, a quantity is specified in gallons, such quantity shall, in the case of solid mixtures of petroleum defined by the Schedule to this Order, be read as though the weight of ten pounds were substituted for one gallon and of one and a quarter pounds for one pint.

5. The Interpretation Act, 1889, shall apply to this Order in like manner as it applies to an Act of Parliament.

6. The Petroleum (Mixtures) Orders of the 7th May, 1907, and of the 27th June, 1927, are hereby revoked.

7. This Order may be cited as the Petroleum (Mixtures) Order, 1929.

M. P. A. HANKEY.

SCHEDULE.

PART I.

Definition of Mixtures of Petroleum.

For the purposes of this Order the expression "mixtures of petroleum" means all mixtures (whether liquid, viscous or solid) of petroleum with any other substance except mixtures which, when tested in the manner set forth in Part II. of this Schedule, do not give off an inflammable vapour at a temperature below seventy-three degrees Fahrenheit.

PART II.

Manner of Testing Mixtures of Petroleum.

Liquid Mixtures.

1. A mixture of petroleum which is wholly liquid, flows quite freely, and does not contain any sediment or thickening ingredient, shall be tested by the method set forth in Part II. of the Second Schedule to the Act of 1928.

Sedimentary and Viscous Mixtures.

2.—(1) Where a mixture of petroleum contains an undissolved sediment that can be separated by filtration or by settlement and decantation, the sediment shall be so separated and the filtered or decanted liquid shall be tested by the method set forth in Part II. of the Second Schedule to the Act of 1928.

In separating the sediment, care must be taken to minimise the evaporation of the petroleum.

(2) Where a mixture of petroleum is such that sediment cannot be separated by filtration or by settlement and decantation, or where it is of a viscous nature, the apparatus to be used for testing the mixture shall be fitted with a stirrer in accordance with the specification contained in Part I. of the Second Schedule to the Act of 1928.

(3) In carrying out the test of a viscous petroleum mixture, the stirrer shall, except when the test flame is applied, be constantly revolved at a slow speed with the fingers, the direction of revolution being that of the hands of a clock.

(4) Subject to the foregoing provisions, the method of testing a sedimentary or viscous mixture shall be that set forth in Part II. of the Second Schedule to the Act of 1928.

Solid Mixtures.

3. The apparatus to be used for testing a solid mixture of petroleum shall be that of which a specification is contained in Part I. of the Second Schedule to the Act of 1928, and the method of carrying out the test shall be as follows:—

The solid mixture must be cut into cylinders 1½ inches long and ¼ inch in diameter by means of a cork borer or other cylindrical cutter having the correct internal diameter. These cylinders must be placed in the petroleum cup of the testing apparatus in a vertical position in such number as completely to fill the cup, the cylinders being in contact with one another, but not so tightly packed as to be deformed in shape;

Five or six of the cylinders in the centre of the cup must be shortened to ½ inch to allow space for the thermometer bulb;

The air bath of the testing apparatus must be filled with water to a depth of 1½ inches;

The water bath must then be raised to and maintained at a temperature of about 75° Fahrenheit; the cup must then be placed in the air bath, and the temperature of the sample must be allowed to rise until the thermometer in the oil cup shows 72° Fahrenheit, when the test flame must be applied.

If no flash is obtained, this temperature must be maintained constant in the oil cup for one hour, at the expiration of which time the test flame must again be applied: Provided that in testing samples of petroleum mixtures in a room of which the temperature is below 73° Fahrenheit the test flame may be applied after the sample has been a few minutes in the cup while it is still at the temperature of the room in which the test is being carried out, and if a flash is obtained by this means the test need not be proceeded with at a higher temperature.

PROVISIONAL ORDERS UNDER THE PUBLIC HEALTH ACT, 1875.

MINISTRY OF HEALTH, WHITEHALL, S.W.1.
September 1*st*, 1920.

SIR,—I am directed by the Minister of Health to enclose herewith copies of instructions which he has had prepared for the assistance of local authorities in making application for Provisional Orders under the Public Health Act, 1875.

I am to point out that Standing Order 193 (A) of the House of Commons provides that no Bill originating in that House for confirming a Provisional Order shall be read the first time after Whitsuntide; and experience shows that, unless this date is strictly adhered to, it will probably be impossible for Bills to confirm Provisional Orders to reach the House of Lords by the date necessary to ensure compliance with the Lords' Sessional Order relating to the second reading of such Bills.

The Minister has consequently determined that all applications for Provisional Orders under the Act referred to must be received by him not later than the dates mentioned in the Provisional Order instructions, and it must be clearly understood that those dates are fixed as the latest at which applications for such Orders can be received, if it is wished that the Orders should be confirmed during the Session of 1921. It is, however, very desirable that, wherever practicable, applications should be made earlier, and the Minister would impress on every local authority who may propose to apply for a Provisional Order the importance of making their application as soon as they are in a position to furnish the requisite particulars.

It is particularly desirable that applications for Provisional Orders to alter Local Acts should be made at the earliest possible date. These applications generally require much consideration, and more attention can be given to them in the autumn than is possible during the earlier part of the following year.

The Minister has revised the instructions previously issued relating to these applications, and particular attention is drawn to paragraph 7 of the revised instructions (B).

I am to add that, in dealing with applications for the sanction by the Minister of the costs incurred by a local authority in promoting or opposing a Provisional Order under section 298 of the Public Health Act, 1875, the Minister will require that such costs shall be taxed by the taxing officer of one of the Houses of Parliament. It will not, therefore, be necessary to submit such costs for taxation by the Clerk of the Peace.

In connection with the question of costs the Minister thinks it necessary to draw attention to the fact that one of the advantages which should attach to procedure by Provisional Order as compared with procedure by Private Bill is the opportunity of saving expense which the former method affords. This advantage is largely discounted if, instead of conducting their case at a local inquiry with the assistance of their officers, who are usually perfectly capable of placing the facts before the inspector appointed to hold the inquiry, local authorities employ counsel for the purpose.

I am, Sir,
Your obedient servant,
F. J. WILLIS,
Principal Assistant Secretary.

The Clerk to the Local Authority.

PROVISIONAL ORDER INSTRUCTIONS A.

INSTRUCTIONS AS TO APPLICATIONS TO THE MINISTER OF HEALTH FOR PROVISIONAL ORDERS UNDER SECTIONS 176 AND 279 OF THE PUBLIC HEALTH ACT, 1875.

Applications for Provisional Orders under Section 176 to put in force the compulsory powers of the Lands Clauses Acts.

1. (a) The application must be made by a petition under the seal of the local authority, containing the particulars required by section 176 (3) of the Public Health Act, 1875. In the case of a rural district council requiring lands for the purposes of two or more contributory places it is not necessary (unless special circumstances would lead to saving of expense) that a separate application should be made or separate proceedings taken as regards each contributory place. The lands proposed to be purchased should be specified in the petition by inserting therein before the prayer of the petition a copy of the book of reference (see Instruction 4), amended, if necessary, to show any changes ascertained between the preparation of the reference and the sealing of the petition, and any necessary corrections. The petition must also indicate whether the several owners, lessees and occupiers assent, dissent, are neuter, or have not replied to the notices, and this information may conveniently be given by inserting additional columns.

(b) Where it is only intended to carry sewers or water mains into, through, or under lands, such lands should not be included in the petition, as the local authority are empowered by the Public Health Act to carry sewers or water mains into, through, or under lands without purchasing the lands.

2. (a) Attention is drawn to the provision in section 176 of the Public Health Act, 1875, which empowers local authorities to give in the months of September and October, or of October and November, the advertisements and notices which are required before they can apply for a Provisional Order to enable them to obtain lands by compulsory purchase. The local authority should avail themselves of this power as far as practicable, so that the petition may be presented at an earlier date, and so as to prevent the possible loss of a Parliamentary session in the event of errors being discovered too late to be remedied.

(b) The petition must be presented not later than the 31*st of October if the advertisements were published in September; not later than the* 30*th November if they were published in October; and not later than the* 18*th December if they were published in November.*

3. (a) It has been found in some instances that there has been a misapprehension as to the period within which the advertisements and notices prescribed by section 176 of the Public Health Act must be given. It is essential that the three consecutive weeks in which the publication takes place should all be included in the same month, whichever of the three months is selected for the purpose. Moreover, the advertisements must be published in the same newspaper each week, and the notices to the owners, lessees, and occupiers of the lands which it is proposed to purchase must in all cases be served in the month immediately following that in which the advertisements are published.

(b) It has also been found that in some cases the deposit of the plan of the proposed undertaking at the place named in the advertisement referred to in section 176 (2) (hereinafter referred to as the "deposited plan") has not been made until after the advertisement has been published; the deposit should always be made at such time as to enable the deposited plan (and sections, if any) to be seen at all reasonable hours at the prescribed place as soon as the first advertisement appears. The plan should be marked "Deposited Plan" when deposited, and should (together with the sections, if any) remain open to inspection at all reasonable hours from the date of the deposit until the time when it is sent to the Minister of Health with the petition in accordance with Instruction 4 (b). When the deposited plan (and sections, if any) are returned by the Minister, they should be re-deposited and remain at the prescribed place and be open to inspection at all reasonable hours until the Bill to confirm the Provisional Order, if an Order is issued, has received the Royal Assent.

4. (a) As regards the deposited plan and the book of reference, the following directions must be strictly complied with:—

(i) The deposited plan, which should be carefully corrected on the ground, should show not only the lands to be purchased, and the parish in which they are situated, but also the manner in which those lands will be utilised for the purposes in view, and the position, as nearly as practicable, of any buildings, tanks, reservoirs, or other works to be erected or constructed on the lands. The position in relation to the lands of any sewers, pipes, or other works, which may be contemplated as part of the undertaking for which the lands are required, should also be shown. In the case of land required for making a new street or for widening a street, the frontage line of the new street, or of the street when widened, should be shown by a hard line of colour; and the deposited plan should be accompanied by sections showing the proposed level of the new street in relation to the adjoining lands and to any existing streets which will communicate with the new street, and showing any alteration in the levels of the streets to be widened or altered, so far as it affects lands in that street or the communication with any existing streets. In the case of any street proposed to be widened, the deposited plan should be figured so as to show the widths at all material points of the existing street, and of the street as proposed to be widened. Any tramway in such street should be accurately indicated on the plan, and the space at material points between the outer lines of the tramway and the footpath on each side of the road, both before and after the contemplated improvement, should be given.

(ii) The deposited plan should be coloured so as to distinguish the lands proposed to be actually purchased, and each parcel of land, notwithstanding that several may belong to one owner, should be separately numbered, the outside boundaries of each parcel being defined by hard lines, and the buildings (if any) on each parcel being linked into it, so that it may be seen to what properties each number applies. If the lands are described in the advertisements by reference to numbers on the ordnance map, these numbers must be shown on the deposited plan.

(iii) The book of reference should also be prepared, on the ground, at the same time as, and in conjunction with, the deposited plan; it should show the parish in which the lands are situate, each parcel of land being numbered to correspond with the deposited plan, and being described so as to show clearly what properties are covered by each number. (See Instruction 1 (a).)

(iv) A copy of the book of reference should be placed with the deposited plan at the time of deposit, for local inspection.

(b) The petition should be accompanied by a copy of the deposited plan (and section, if any) or of so much thereof as relates to the petition, by a book of reference (in duplicate), altered (if necessary) in manuscript to correspond with the copy included in the petition in accordance with Instruction 1 (a), and by the statutory declaration or declarations required by these instructions. The deposited plan (and sections, if any) should also accompany the petition for comparison with the copy, and when returned by the Minister of Health should be re-deposited in accordance with Instruction 3 (b).

Appendix II.

(c) The deposited plan (and sections, if any) and the copy thereof, if not in book form, should be mounted on linen.

5. (a) A statutory declaration specifying the manner in which the notices under section 176 were served upon the owners, lessees, and occupiers, and the names of the persons served, should be made by the person who served them, and the service must be effected in one of the modes prescribed by section 267 of the Act. The service should be effected by a responsible person. In the event of difficulty arising in ascertaining the actual interests of several owners, lessees, or occupiers where the boundaries between lands are not well or clearly defined, and the interests may overlap, it would be well to describe the lands as belonging to all the parties who claim or who are believed to have an interest in the lands, and to serve the notices accordingly, so as to avoid possible objection to the lands being taken on the ground of want of due notice.

(b) A statutory declaration should also be made by the clerk to the local authority, showing that the other requirements of section 176 and of these instructions have been duly complied with, and the following exhibits should be annexed, viz. :—(1) Copies of the newspapers containing the advertisements ; and (2) a copy of the form of notice served upon owners, lessees, and occupiers ; and of the form of reply (if any).

6. In the case of land required for widening a street, the fact that the street is repairable by the inhabitants at large should be stated in the petition.

7. Standing Orders 38 of the House of Commons and 39 of both Houses of Parliament, extracts from which are appended, must be complied with, and immediately after the last of the deposits required by the Standing Orders has been made, the Minister of Health should be furnished with an affidavit for production to the examiners of Standing Orders, in proof that the requirements of the Standing Orders referred to have been complied with. This affidavit must state definitely that the plans, sections, books of reference or maps deposited at the Private Bill office and at the office of the Clerk of the Parliaments respectively in compliance with Standing Orders 39 above referred to, are in accordance with those Orders duplicates of those deposited at the Ministry of Health. The deposit should in no case be made before the date on which the application is made to the Minister.

8. Where the taking of the land will not involve the acquisition of any house or houses occupied, either wholly or partially, by thirty or more persons of the working class, whether as tenants or lodgers, this fact should be stated in the affidavit, so as to show that the Standing Order does not apply.

9. Every statutory declaration and affidavit must be made or sworn before a Justice of the Peace or a Commissioner for Oaths, and must be stamped with a half-crown impressed stamp ; and each exhibit to a statutory declaration or affidavit must be marked by the declarant or deponent and by the Justice of the Peace or Commissioner for Oaths, as the case may be, in the usual way.

10. Two or more local authorities cannot jointly petition for a Provisional Order to enable them to put in force the compulsory powers of the Lands Clauses Acts. Either each local authority must present a separate petition in respect of the particular lands which they require, or, if the several local authorities are combining under section 285 of the Public Health Act, 1875, for the execution of a scheme, a petition must be presented by one of them with regard to all the land required. In the latter case a copy of the agreement should accompany the application.

11. If the scheme for which it is proposed to take lands compulsorily involves works of sewerage or the laying of water mains outside the district of the local authority, they will probably find it convenient to satisfy the requirements of section 32 or section 54 of the Public Health Act when they are taking the necessary proceedings for the Provisional Order : but the advertisements and notices under those sections should be distinct from the advertisements, notices and proofs under section 176 of the Act. If this course is adopted it may have the effect of preventing delay at a subsequent stage of the proceedings in cases where advertisements and notices under section 32 or section 54 have to be issued before the works for which the land is required can be commenced. Section 53 should also be complied with, where it is intended to construct a reservoir to hold more than 100,000 gallons of water.

Applications for Provisional Orders under Section 279 for the Constitution of United Districts.

1. It is desirable that the local authority of each of the districts proposed to be formed into a united district should concur by resolution in the application. The resolution should specify the purposes for which the united district is to be constituted and the basis upon which the representation on the joint board and the contributions to the common fund by the constituent authorities are proposed to be settled. A copy of the resolution, certified by the clerk, should be forwarded to the Minister of Health, together with a copy of any agreement to combine which may have been executed.

2. The application should be made not later than the 18th December next, and it is desirable that it should be sent in before that date if possible.

Extracts from Standing Orders.

STANDING ORDER 38 (HOUSE OF COMMONS).

"Where any Bill contains or revives or extends power to take compulsorily or by agreement any land in any local area as defined for the purposes of this Order, and such taking involves or may involve the taking in that area of any house or houses occupied either wholly or partially by thirty or more persons of the working class, whether as tenants or lodgers, the promoters shall deposit in the Private Bill office and at the office of the central authority on or before the 21st day of December, a statement giving the description and postal address of each of such houses, its number on the deposited plans, the parish in which it is situate, and the number (so far as can be ascertained) of persons of the working class residing in it, and also a copy of so much of the deposited plans (if any) as relates thereto.

"This Order shall not apply where a statement in pursuance of this Order was deposited in respect of the Act, the powers of which are proposed to be revived or extended.

"For the purposes of this Order the expression 'local area' means—as respects London, the administrative county of London, as respects England and Wales (outside London) any borough, or other urban district, and elsewhere than in a borough or other urban district, any parish; . . .

"The expression 'house' means any house or part of a house occupied as a separate dwelling.

"The expression 'working class' means mechanics, artisans, labourers, and others working for wages, hawkers, costermongers, persons not working for wages but working at some trade or handicraft without employing others except members of their own family, and persons, other than domestic servants, whose income in any case does not exceed an average of thirty shillings a week, and the families of any of such persons who may be residing with them.

"The expression 'central authority' means, as regards England and Wales, the Local Government Board (a) . . .

"The expression 'Bill' includes a Bill confirming a Provisional Order."

STANDING ORDER 39 (HOUSE OF COMMONS).

"Whenever plans, sections, books of reference or maps are deposited in the case of a Provisional Order . . . proposed to be made by any public department . . . duplicates of the said documents shall also be deposited in the Private Bill office (b): provided that with regard to such deposits as are so made at any public department . . . after the prorogation of Parliament, and before the 30th day of November in any year, such duplicates shall be so deposited on or before the 30th day of November."

PROVISIONAL ORDER INSTRUCTIONS B.

INSTRUCTIONS AS TO APPLICATIONS TO THE MINISTER OF HEALTH FOR PROVISIONAL ORDERS UNDER SECTIONS 297 AND 303 OF THE PUBLIC HEALTH ACT, 1875 (a).

Repeal, alteration, or amendment of Local Acts or Confirming Acts.

1. The application should be made by a resolution of the local authority, asking the Minister in general terms to repeal, alter, or amend the Act, wholly or partially, as the case may require, and setting out the objects desired to be attained, and a copy of the resolution, certified by the clerk, should be forwarded to the Ministry of Health. The resolution should be sufficiently wide in its terms to cover any provisions incidental to or consequential upon the main objects of the application which may, in the course of the consideration of the case by the Ministry, prove to be required. It is suggested that the resolution might, as a general rule, be in a form to the following effect:

Resolved that the make application to the Minister of Health for the issue of a Provisional Order under sections 297 and 303 of the Public Health Act, 1875, to partially repeal, alter or amend the Act so as:—

(1) To
(2) To
(3) For the several purposes of this application, or for purposes connected with, incidental to or consequent on those purposes to make any such alteration or amendment of the said local Act or of any other local Act, or of any Act confirming a Provisional Order made in pursuance of any of the sanitary Acts or of the Public Health Act, 1875, and in force in the said [borough] [district] as may be necessary or desirable.

2. The application must be received by the Ministry not later than the 15th November next, and it is very desirable that it should be sent in before the 1st October next.

3. The application should be accompanied by a King's Printers' copy of the Act, and by a statement showing the particular provisions which it is proposed should be repealed, altered or amended, the precise alterations desired, and any provisions which will require consequential alteration; and in the event of the local Act having been previously altered by Provisional Order or local Act, a reference to such Order or Act should be given. The statement should also show clearly the grounds upon which each of the proposed amendments is desired.

4. In any case in which powers are sought which deviate from, are in extension of, or are repugnant to the general law, the statement should show the circumstances peculiar to the locality which are alleged to justify the grant of the powers, and should contain a reference to any recent precedents for the grant of such powers.

5. If the powers sought can be obtained under a general Act, the reasons for not proceeding under the provisions of the general law should be fully set out in the statement.

6. If additional borrowing powers are sought, the purposes for which the powers are required should be stated, and in cases in which actual works have been decided on for which a loan will be required, estimates should be furnished, showing as far as practicable the amounts required for each purpose, together with plans and sections of the works. References should also be given to the provisions of the Acts under which the local authority claim to have power to carry out the purposes for which the borrowing powers are sought.

7. As regards gas undertakings attention is directed to the provisions of the Gas Regulation Act, 1920, and it is suggested that if a local authority desire further powers in regard to such an undertaking they should in the first instance place their proposals before the Board of Trade and ascertain whether that department could by means of a special order confer on the local authority the powers they desire.

8. If the application proposes to confer tne power to acquire any land or relates to an area which is described by reference to a map or plan, the map or plan must be on a scale of not less than six inches to the mile and must accompany the application.

9. In all cases in which plans, etc., are deposited, Standing Order 39 of each House of Parliament must be complied with.

10. In the case of any proposal to acquire land, Standing Order 38 of the House of Commons must also be complied with, and an affidavit must be supplied for production to the examiner of Standing Orders, in proof that the requirements of those Standing Orders have been complied with, or that Standing Order 38 does not apply, as the case may be. This affidavit must be sworn before a Justice of the Peace or a Commissioner for Oaths, and stamped with a half-crown impressed stamp, and must state definitely that the plans, sections, books of reference or maps deposited at the Private Bill office and at the office of the Clerk of the Parliaments respectively, in compliance with Standing Orders 39 above referred to, are, in accordance with those Orders, duplicates of those deposited at the Ministry of Health.

VALUATION, ENGLAND.

RETURNS.

THE RATING AND VALUATION ACT (RETURNS) RULES, 1926, DATED 30TH JUNE, 1926, MADE BY THE MINISTER OF HEALTH UNDER SECTION 58 OF THE RATING AND VALUATION ACT, 1925 (15 & 16 GEO. 5, C. 90), FOR PRESCRIBING THE FORM OF NOTICES REQUIRING RETURNS TO BE MADE BY OCCUPIERS, OWNERS AND LESSEES UNDER SECTIONS 40 TO 42 OF THE SAID ACT.

Whereas by sections 40 to 42 of the Rating and Valuation Act, 1925, provision is made with respect to the service by rating authorities and assessment committees of notices requiring occupiers, owners and lessees of hereditaments to make returns containing such particulars as may be reasonably required for the purpose of carrying out the Act:

And whereas by section 58 of the said Act it is provided that the Minister of Health, after consultation with any local authority or association of local authorities with whom consultation appears to him to be desirable, may by rules prescribe the form of any return or other document whatsoever which is required or authorised to be used under or for the purposes of the Act:

Now therefore, the Minister of Health, after such consultation as is mentioned above, by virtue of the powers conferred upon him by the said section 58 and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf, hereby makes the following rules:—

1. These rules may be cited as the "Rating and Valuation Act (Returns) Rules, 1926," and shall come into operation on the date hereof.

2. Subject to the provisions of the two next succeeding rules, every notice served by a rating authority under section 40 of the Rating and Valuation Act, 1925, upon the occupier, owner or lessee of any hereditament requiring him to make such a return as is mentioned in the said section shall be in the form shown in Part I. of the Schedule hereto, or in a form substantially to the like effect, and the particulars to be specified on the reverse side thereof shall include questions as to the matters mentioned in Part II. of the said Schedule.

3. A rating authority, if they think fit, may in the case of notices served upon the occupiers, owners or lessees of hereditaments of any particular class omit questions as to any of the matters mentioned in Part II. of the Schedule hereto which appear to them to be inappropriate to hereditaments of that class, and may in any case omit questions as to any of the said matters which appear to them to be inappropriate to a return to be made by an occupier or, as the case may be, by an owner or lessee, not being an occupier (a).

4. A rating authority may, if they think fit, in the case of notices served upon the owners or lessees of hereditaments, not being occupiers, serve one notice only in respect of two or more hereditaments of which the same person is the owner or lessee, and may in such case specify the hereditaments to which the notice relates in a schedule to be attached to the notice and framed in such manner, whether tabular or otherwise, as may appear to them most convenient for recording the required particulars.

(a) See as to this provision Grant v. Knaresborough U.D.C., [1928] Ch. 310; 92 J. P. 30.

Appendix II.

5. Every notice served by an assessment committee under section 41 of the Rating and Valuation Act, 1925, upon the occupier, owner or lessee of any hereditament requiring him to make such a return as is mentioned in the said section shall be in the form shown in Part I. of the Schedule hereto, or in a form substantially to the like effect, and the particulars to be specified on the reverse side thereof shall include questions as to the matters mentioned in Part II. of the said Schedule, or questions as to such of those matters as appear to the assessment committee to be material.

VALUATION, ENGLAND.

FORM OF VALUATION LIST.

THE RATING AND VALUATION ACT (FORM OF VALUATION LIST) RULES, 1926, DATED 30TH JUNE, 1926, MADE BY THE MINISTER OF HEALTH UNDER SECTION 58 OF THE RATING AND VALUATION ACT, 1925 (15 & 16 GEO. 5, C. 90), FOR PRESCRIBING THE FORM OF VALUATION LIST TO BE USED FOR THE PURPOSES OF THE SAID ACT, THE FORM OF THE DECLARATION AND CERTIFICATE TO BE APPENDED TO SUCH LIST AND THE PARTICULARS WITH RESPECT TO TOTALS OF VALUES TO BE INSERTED IN SUCH LIST AND TO BE RECORDED (a).

Whereas by Part II. of the Rating and Valuation Act, 1925, provision is made with respect to the preparation, approval, revision and effect of valuation lists:

And whereas by section 58 of the said Act it is provided that the Minister of Health, after consultation with any local authority or association of local authorities with whom consultation appears to him to be desirable, may by rules prescribe the form of any valuation list or other document whatsoever which is required or authorised to be used under or for the purposes of the Act:

Now therefore, the Minister of Health, after such consultation as is mentioned above, by virtue of the powers conferred upon him by the said section 58 and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf, hereby makes the following rules:—

1.—(1) These rules may be cited as the Rating and Valuation Act (Form of Valuation List) Rules, 1926, and shall come into operation on the date hereof.

(a) See also the Rating and Valuation (Apportionment) Act (Special List) Rules, 1928 and 1929, post, pp. 3711, 3726 and 3727.

(2) In these rules, unless the context otherwise requires—

"the Act" means the Rating and Valuation Act, 1925;

"valuation list" includes a draft valuation list;

"agricultural land" means agricultural land within the meaning of the Agricultural Rates Acts, 1896 and 1923;

"agricultural buildings" means buildings (other than dwelling houses) occupied together with agricultural land, or being or forming part of a market garden, and in either case used solely in connection with agricultural operations thereon;

"farm house" means a dwelling house occupied together with agricultural land by a person carrying on or directing agricultural operations thereon, but does not include a dwelling house normally occupied by a workman or labourer;

"parish" includes any part of a parish being either a contributory place or an area otherwise subject to separate or differential rating.

2. Subject as hereinafter provided, every valuation list made under the provisions of the Act shall incorporate the form A in the Schedule hereto, and the declaration and certificate required to be appended thereto shall be in the form B in the said Schedule:

Provided that, in the case of a valuation list for an urban rating area, columns 10a, 10b, and 10c of form A (which relate to agricultural hereditaments) and, in the case of any valuation list, column 11 (which relates to certain properties entitled to partial relief from rating) may respectively be omitted from any page of a list which contains no hereditament in respect of which an entry would be necessary in such a column.

3. Where a rating area comprises two or more parishes (as defined in rule 1), the particulars relating to all the hereditaments in each parish shall be contained in a separate and distinct portion of the valuation list, and at the end of each portion there shall be left such blank space as may be estimated to be necessary for the addition of particulars relating to new hereditaments.

4. The hereditaments contained in each portion of a valuation list shall, subject to any directions given by the assessment committee, be entered therein in such order as the rating authority may think convenient:

Provided that in all cases—

(a) hereditaments specified in class (3) of Part II. of the Second Schedule to the Act shall be entered in one group after the entries relating to other rateable hereditaments in the parish; and

(b) hereditaments occupied by or on behalf of the Crown for public purposes in respect of which a contribution is made by the Crown in aid of rates shall be entered in one group at the end of that portion of the list which relates to the parish.

5. A rating authority and an assessment committee shall comply with the following directions as to the entries to be made in the respective columns of the valuation list hereinunder referred to:—

Columns 1–10c.—Separate entries shall be made throughout these columns in respect of a farm house, agricultural buildings and agricultural land in the occupation of one person. .

Column 6.—No entry in respect of estimated extent shall be necessary in the case of—

(a) a hereditament consisting of a dwelling house, or other building, without land; or

(b) a hereditament, not being agricultural land or woodlands, of which the estimated extent does not exceed one-quarter of an acre or is, in the opinion of the rating authority, otherwise immaterial.

Column 7.—No entry in respect of gross value shall be made in the case of a hereditament not belonging to any of the classes specified in Part I. of the Second Schedule to the Act, or in the case of a hereditament occupied by or on behalf of the Crown for public purposes:

Column 8.—No entry in respect of net annual value shall be made in the case of a hereditament of which the net annual value and the rateable value are the same:

Columns 9, 10 (a) (b) and (c) and 11.—The rateable value of a hereditament shall be entered in that column which (according to the heading thereof) is appropriate to such hereditament:

Column 11.—The hereditaments of which the rateable values are to be entered in this column are tithes, tithe commutation rentcharge, and other payments in lieu of tithes, issuing out of any land, and any land used as a railway constructed under the powers of any Act for public conveyance or as a canal or towing-path for a canal, any land covered with water, and any woodlands:

Columns 7–11.—No entry shall be made in any of these columns in the case of a church, chapel or other hereditament so long as the occupier is wholly exempt from rating in respect thereof:

Provided, nevertheless, that in the case of any hereditament in respect of which such a payment or contribution is made as is mentioned in section 2 (7) or section 64 (3) of the Act the value upon which the amount of such payment or contribution is calculated shall be entered in the appropriate column as representing the rateable value of that hereditament.

6. A rating authority and an assessment committee shall comply with the following directions as to the method of making corrections, insertions, alterations or amendments in a valuation list—

(i) a correction, insertion, alteration or amendment if made before approval of the list shall be made in ink of the same colour as that used in the preparation of the list, and if made after approval of the list shall be made in ink of a different colour:

(ii) a line shall be ruled through any words or figures which require to be omitted, or for which other words or figures are to be substituted, in such manner as to leave legible the original entries:

(iii) where a hereditament becomes divided into two or more hereditaments, the whole of the original entries may be struck out and the particulars with respect to the new hereditaments may be entered at the end of that portion of the list which relates to the parish, a reference to the page on which such particulars are to be found being inserted at the place where the original entries occur;

(iv) every correction, insertion, alteration or amendment shall be authenticated by the responsible officer, whether of the rating authority or assessment committee, having for the time being the custody of the list, and such officer shall for that purpose enter the date and his initials in column 12.

7. Immediately before the approval of a valuation list the entries as to gross, net annual and rateable values in columns 7 to 11 (inclusive) shall be totalled at the foot of each page of the list and the total for each page shall be carried to a summary or summaries so arranged as to show in respect of (a) the rating area as a whole and (b) each parish (as defined in rule 1) the following information, viz.,

(i) the totals of all the entries in each of the said columns, and

(ii) the grand total of all the rateable values entered in columns 9 to 11 (inclusive).

8. All corrections, insertions, alterations and amendments made in a valuation list after such list has been approved (including such as are made by direction of a Court of Quarter Sessions) shall be recorded in the minutes of the assessment committee, and the committee shall cause the necessary net additions or subtractions to be made to or from the relevant totals appearing in the summaries referred to in the last preceding rule.

9. Every assessment committee shall cause to be kept a book entitled "Record of Total Rateable Values," and shall cause to be entered therein in respect of each rating area and of each parish (as defined in rule 1),

(a) upon approval of a valuation list, such totals of values as are mentioned in paragraphs (i) and (ii) of rule 7; and

(b) whenever corrections, insertions, alterations or amendments are made, the net increase or decrease in any total resulting therefrom.

10. The copy of a deposited valuation list transmitted to an assessment committee in accordance with section 25 (2) of the Act shall be retained by the committee, who shall cause the entries therein to be corrected from time to time so that such copy may agree with the valuation list except in regard to figures recorded by the committee in a record of total rateable values.

RATING, ENGLAND.

FORMS OF PRECEPT.

THE RATING AND VALUATION ACT (FORMS OF PRECEPT) RULES, 1926, DATED 30TH JUNE, 1926, MADE BY THE MINISTER OF HEALTH UNDER SECTION 58 OF THE RATING AND VALUATION ACT, 1925 (15 & 16 GEO. 5, C. 90), FOR PRESCRIBING FORMS OF PRECEPTS TO BE USED UNDER THE ACT (a).

Whereas by section 9 of the Rating and Valuation Act, 1925, and by paragraph (10) of the Seventh Schedule to the said Act, provision is made with respect to precepts to be issued to rating authorities by boards of guardians in respect of any period beginning on or after the first day of April, 1927, and by councils of counties in respect of any period beginning on or after that date but before the first day of April, 1929:

And whereas by section 58 of the said Act it is provided that the Minister of Health, after consultation with any local authority or association of local authorities with whom consultation appears to him to be desirable may by rules prescribe the form of any return or other document whatsoever which is required or authorised to be used under or for the purposes of the Act:

Now, therefore, the Minister of Health, after such consultation as is mentioned above, by virtue of the powers conferred upon him by the said section 58 and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf, hereby makes the following rules:—

1.—(1) These rules may be cited as the Rating and Valuation Act (Forms of Precept) Rules, 1926, and shall come into operation on the date hereof.

(2) In these rules the expression "the Act" means the Rating and Valuation Act, 1925.

2. Every precept issued by a board of guardians under section 9 of the Act in respect of any period beginning on or after the first day of April, 1927, shall be in the form set out in the Schedule hereto, or in a form substantially to the like effect.

3.—(1) Every precept issued by the council of a county in respect of any period beginning on or after the first day of April, 1927, but before the first day of April, 1929 (b), may be in the form which at the date of this Order is customarily used for precepts issued by that council, subject to such modifications as may appear necessary or desirable to give effect to the provisions of sub-section (1) of section 9 of the Act, of paragraph (10) of the Seventh Schedule to the Act and of paragraph (2) of this rule.

(a) See the R. & V. Act (Product of Rates and Precepts) Rules, 1929, post, p. 3723. The powers and duties of guardians are transferred to county and county borough councils by L. G. A., 1929, s. 1, ante, p. 1860.

(b) See the R. & V. Act (Forms of Precepts—County Councils) Rules, 1929, post, p. 3719.

(2) In every such precept the council shall specify the amount which they have included in the precept in respect of each service administered by them for which a separately balanced account is kept, and may also, if they see fit, specify the amount which they have included in respect of any other service or group of services administered by them.

RATING, ENGLAND.

FORMS OF DEMAND NOTE (a).

THE RATING AND VALUATION ACT (FORMS OF DEMAND NOTE) RULES, 1926, DATED 30TH JUNE, 1926, MADE BY THE MINISTER OF HEALTH UNDER SECTION 58 OF THE RATING AND VALUATION ACT, 1925 (15 & 16 GEO. 5, C. 90), FOR PRESCRIBING THE FORMS OF DEMAND NOTES TO BE USED BY RATING AUTHORITIES.

Whereas by section 7 of the Rating and Valuation Act, 1925, provision is made with respect to the inclusion of certain information in the demand notes on which general rates and special rates are levied:

And whereas by section 58 of the said Act it is provided that the Minister of Health, after consultation with any local authority or association of local authorities with whom consultation appears to him to be desirable, may by rules prescribe the form of any demand note or other document whatsoever which is required or authorised to be used under or for the purposes of the Act:

Now, therefore, the Minister of Health, after such consultation as is mentioned above, by virtue of the powers conferred upon him by the said section 58 and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf, hereby makes the following rules:—

1.—(1) These rules may be cited as the Rating and Valuation Act (Forms of Demand Note) Rules, 1926, and shall come into operation on the date hereof.

(2) In these rules,—

"demand note" does not include a demand note issued before the date of the first new valuation;

"the Act" means the Rating and Valuation Act, 1925.

2. Every demand note for a general rate or a special rate shall incorporate form A or form B in the Schedule hereto, as the case may be, or a form substantially to the like effect, modified, where necessary, to meet the case of a rate made payable by instalments.

3.—(1) In the case of every hereditament in respect of which an allowance may be claimed under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) of section 11 of the Act, the rating authority, instead of entering the particulars specified in form A or form B (as the case may be) in the columns appearing upon the demand note, shall enter those particulars in a schedule or schedules to be referred to in, and attached to, the demand note.

(2) Any such schedule shall contain information with respect to the allowance which may be claimed, together with such provision, by way of additional columns or otherwise, as may be necessary or convenient for calculating the net amount due or remaining due.

(3) The rating authority may, if they see fit, make use of a schedule or schedules in the manner provided by paragraph (1) of this rule in any case where a person undertakes to pay the rates in respect of two or more hereditaments but is not entitled to claim any allowance referred to in the said paragraph.

4. A rating authority in preparing demand notes, or schedules to be attached thereto, shall comply with the following directions:—

(1) Every hereditament to which the demand relates shall be entered separately, and the particulars relating to it shall be entered separately in the appropriate columns:

(2) There shall be entered in the first column the number by which each hereditament to which the demand relates is distinguished in the rate book;

(3) There shall be entered in the second column in respect of every hereditament to which the demand relates, if other than that specified in the address, the situation of that hereditament and, also, such brief description thereof as may be reasonably necessary for purposes of identification;

(a) See as to this Order the notes to s. 7 of the R. & V. Act 1925, ante, p. 1650. The Order here set out has now been repealed: see the Order of February 5th, 1930, at p. 3918, post.

(4) In cases where the net annual value of a hereditament is the same as the rateable value thereof, no entry shall be made in the column headed "Net Annual Value":

Provided that, without prejudice to the right of a ratepayer to require a separate statement of the particulars relating to each hereditament, the rating authority may, where the same person is liable for or undertakes to pay the rates in respect of two or more dwelling houses, combine the particulars relating to those houses in such manner, consistent with accountancy requirements, as in their opinion is convenient.

5. A demand note shall also include,—
   (i) information with regard to the place and mode of payment; and
   (ii) in a rating area in which a resolution under section 8 of the Act (as to discount for prompt payment) is in force, information as to the effect of the resolution (including the date after which payment must be made in full).

6. A rating authority may include in a demand note for rates a demand for any water rate, rent or charge, or other rate, rent or charge payable to them, and may combine in one demand note demands for a general rate and for a special rate, provided that such combined demand note shall be so framed as to include all the information which by the Act and these rules would be required to be given to ratepayers if separate demand notes were issued.

7. There shall be included in every demand note a statement showing the amount in the pound which is being levied by the rating authority,—

(a) for their own purposes, and

(b) for the purposes of each authority by which a precept has been issued to them;

And such statement shall also show the amount in the pound which is being levied for the purposes of each service, or group of services, administered by the rating authority or by a precepting authority, in respect of which a separate fund account is kept.

8. For the purposes of the last preceding rule the following provisions shall have effect:—
   (i) The expression "separate fund account" includes,—
      (a) in relation to expenses chargeable on part only of a rating area, the separate account or accounts of such expenses;
      (b) in relation to any service for which by law separate accounts are required to be kept, the separate revenue account kept therefor; and
      (c) in relation to the remaining services, the general revenue account of the authority.
   (ii) If the rating authority think fit, and if and so far as any precepting authority concerned are willing to supply the necessary information, the rating authority in addition to showing the amount in the pound which is being levied for the purposes of any group of services included in a separate fund account, may indicate the amount in the pound which is being levied in respect of any one or more of those services.
   (iii) In calculating the amount in the pound which is being levied for the purposes of any specified service there shall be included any sums required for repayment of, or for interest on, moneys borrowed for that service.
   (iv) Where the amount in the pound which would otherwise have been levied for the purposes of any service (or group of services) administered by the rating authority and included in a separate fund account has been reduced by the allocation of any income not arising out of or in connection with such service (or group of services), such allocation and reduction and the source from which the income is derived shall be shown.
   (v) Where the aggregate amount in the pound which would otherwise have been levied by the rating authority has been varied in order to give effect to any financial adjustment under the Seventh Schedule to the Act or any differential rating provisions to which effect has to be given by the rating authority, the statement shall show the extent of, and reason for, such variation.

VALUATION, ENGLAND.

The Central Valuation Committee (Constitution) Scheme, 1926, dated 3rd August, 1926, made by the Minister of Health under section 57 of the Rating and Valuation Act, 1925 (15 & 16 Geo. 5, c. 90), for the constitution of a Central Valuation Committee.

Whereas by section 57 of the Rating and Valuation Act, 1925, it is provided that, for the purpose of promoting uniformity of valuation, a Central Valuation Committee consisting of such persons as are mentioned in the said section shall be constituted in accordance with a scheme to be made by the Minister of Health after consultation with local authorities and associations of local authorities and any organisation representing assessment committees appointed under the Union Assessment Acts, 1862 to 1880:

Now therefore, the Minister of Health, after such consultations as are above referred to, in exercise of the powers conferred upon him by the said section 57 and of every other power enabling him in that behalf, hereby makes the following scheme—

1.—(1) This scheme may be cited as the Central Valuation Committee (Constitution) Scheme, 1926, and shall come into operation on the date hereof.

(2) In this scheme, unless the context otherwise requires—

"the Committee" means the Central Valuation Committee constituted by this scheme;

"constituent association" means an association mentioned in the next succeeding Article;

"the Minister" means the Minister of Health;

"the Act" means the Rating and Valuation Act, 1925.

2. There shall be constituted for the purposes specified in the next succeeding Article a central valuation committee for England and Wales consisting of thirty-two members, who shall be appointed (subject to the variations hereinafter contained with respect to certain original appointments) in accordance with the following provisions—

(i) Twenty-four persons, each of whom shall be a member of a rating authority, an assessment committee or a county valuation committee (or of two or more of such bodies) shall be appointed by the associations, and in the proportions hereinunder mentioned, that is to say—

by the County Councils Association—seven persons, being members of county valuation committees, of whom two at least shall be members also of rating authorities ;

by the Association of Municipal Corporations—eight persons, of whom four at least shall be members of rating authorities, and four at least shall be members of assessment committees ;

by the Urban District Councils Association—

two persons, of whom one at least shall be a member of a rating authority and one at least shall be a member of an assessment committee ;

by the Rural District Councils Association—

two persons, of whom one at least shall be a member of a rating authority, and one at least shall be a member of an assessment committee ; and by the Association of Poor Law Unions in England and Wales—five persons, being members of assessment committees.

(ii) Eight persons shall be appointed by the Minister of Health, and of such persons three at least shall be officers of rating authorities or assessment committees.

(iii) A person who at the date of his appointment as a member of the committee was duly qualified for appointment shall not become disqualified for acting by reason of the fact that he ceases to be a member of a rating authority, assessment committee or county valuation committee.

3. The purpose for which the committee is constituted is the promotion of uniformity in the principles and practice of valuation throughout England and Wales ; and in the furtherance of such purpose it shall be the duty of the committee to take all such steps as may appear to them to be useful or expedient, and in particular—

(a) to consider the operation of the Act and questions connected with the powers and duties imposed by it upon rating authorities, assessment committees, and county valuation committees ;

(b) to call for such information as they may deem to be material from rating authorities, assessment committees and county valuation committees ;

(c) to consult persons having experience in the law and practice of valuation for the purpose of ascertaining the points (if any) with respect to which the practice is not uniform or leads to inequalities in the system of valuation or with respect to which amendments of the law may appear to be desirable ;

(d) to convene, or arrange with a county valuation committee (or with two or more such committees) for the convening of, conferences, either central or regional, for the discussion of questions relating to the valuation of hereditaments in general, or hereditaments of particular classes, with a view more particularly to the formulation of principles for the assistance or guidance of rating authorities, assessment committees and county valuation committees ;

(e) from time to time to give to the Minister information with respect to the matters aforesaid, to bring to his notice any conclusions arrived at or recommendations made by the committee, or at any such conference as aforesaid, and to make to him such representations as they may think fit ; and

(f) to submit to the Minister in every year an annual report of their proceedings during the year ending on the 31st day of March.

4. The first members of the committee shall be appointed as soon as practicable after the making of this scheme ; and, in the case of such first appointments, the provisions of Article 2 hereof with respect to the permanent constitution of the committee shall be subject to the following variations—

(a) in any case where a person to be appointed by a constituent association is required by the said Article to be a member of a county valuation committee or of an assessment committee, the association may, in lieu of themselves making an appointment in the first instance, nominate to the Minister a person who is not for the time being duly qualified for appointment by them, and the Minister may appoint such person to be a member of the committee;

(b) a member so appointed by the Minister shall as soon as he becomes duly qualified be deemed to be a member appointed by the association which nominated him: Provided that if he does not become qualified before the 31st day of December, 1926, he shall vacate his appointment.

5.—(1) The normal term of office of a member of the committee shall be five years; provided that one-half of the members shall retire on the 1st January, 1929, and in every fifth year thereafter, and the other half on the 1st January, 1931, and in every fifth year thereafter.

(2) The members to retire in the year 1929 shall be three members appointed by the County Councils Association, four members appointed by the Association of Municipal Corporations, one member appointed by the Urban District Councils Association, one member appointed by the Rural District Councils Association, three members appointed by the Association of Poor Law Unions in England and Wales and four members appointed by the Minister; and each of the constituent associations and the Minister shall determine which of the members appointed by them or by him shall retire on that date.

(3) Any vacancy occurring amongst the members appointed by a constituent association or by the Minister in consequence of death, resignation, expiration of term of office or otherwise shall be filled as soon as possible after its occurrence by the association, or by the Minister as the case may be.

(4) A person appointed to fill a casual vacancy shall not hold office beyond the date on which the member in whose place he is appointed would in the ordinary course have retired.

(5) A retiring member shall be eligible for re-appointment if otherwise qualified.

6.—(1) The committee shall from time to time appoint one of their number to be chairman at all meetings at which he is present, and may from time to time appoint also a vice-chairman.

At any meeting of the committee the chairman or acting chairman shall have a second or casting vote.

(2) The quorum, proceedings and (subject as hereinafter mentioned) place of meeting of the committee shall be such as the committee determine, and the committee may transact any business entrusted to it notwithstanding any vacancy among its members or any defect in the appointment or qualification of any member.

(3) The first meeting of the committee shall be held on such date and at such place as may be fixed by the Minister.

7. The committee may make such arrangements for secretarial and other assistance as they may deem necessary; and, if and whenever suitable premises for the transaction of the business of the committee, or the holding of conferences, are not available free of charge, the committee may make such arrangements for the provision of suitable premises as appear to them to be expedient.

8.—(1) For the purpose of meeting any expenses incurred or to be incurred by them in the exercise of their powers or the performance of their duties under this scheme (including the repayment to members of reasonable expenses incurred by them in attending meetings of, and conferences called by or on behalf of, the committee), the committee may invite any rating authority, county valuation committee or assessment committee to make contributions towards such expenses in accordance with a scale to be fixed from time to time by the committee with the approval of the Minister; and it shall be lawful for any such authority or committee, without any further sanction than is herein contained, to make contributions in accordance with such scale.

(2) The committee shall include in their annual report to the Minister a statement of their receipts and payments for the year ending on the 31st day of March in that year.

Appendix II.

S. R. & O., 1926, No. 1123.

DISTRICT COUNCIL, ENGLAND.

The Rate Accounts (Rural District Councils) Order, 1926, dated September 15, 1926, made by the Minister of Health.

To the Councils of the several rural districts in England and Wales,—

Whereas by reason of the provisions of the Rating and Valuation Act, 1925, it is desirable to prescribe the methods in which the accounts of the receipts and expenditure under that Act of rating authorities and their officers shall be kept and presented for audit:

Now, therefore, the Minister of Health, by virtue of the powers conferred upon him by section 5 of the District Auditors Act, 1879, and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf hereby orders as follows:—

1. This Order may be cited as the Rate Accounts (Rural District Councils) Order, 1926, and shall come into operation on the first day of April, 1927.

2.—(1) This Order shall apply, subject to any amendment thereof or any departure therefrom to which the Minister may from time to time assent, to every rural district council and to the officers of every such council in relation to the accounts of their receipts and expenditure under the Rating and Valuation Act, 1925.

(2) In this Order, unless the context otherwise requires,—

"council" means rural district council;

"the Act" means the Rating and Valuation Act, 1925;

"the Minister" means the Minister of Health;

"year" means a period of twelve months commencing upon the first day of April;

"rating officer" means an officer to whom the duty of collecting rates in a rural district or any defined part thereof is assigned by the council;

"collection district" means the area in which the duty of collecting rates is so assigned to a rating officer;

"rate" includes both a general and a special rate.

Accounts of the Council.

3.—(1) The clerk, or other officer to whom the duty has been assigned by the council, shall keep such ledger accounts, books of account and records as are required by this Article or are needed for the purpose of presenting a full and correct account of transactions under the Act.

(2) The accounts, books and records required to be kept by this Article are:—

(i) Ledger accounts on the double entry system according to the Form A in the Schedule hereto, including:—
  - Personal Accounts with—
    - Each officer having cash transactions under the Act.
    - The ratepayers in respect of rates assessed upon them.
    - The ratepayers in respect of costs due from them.
    - Each authority from which precepts are received.
  - Impersonal Accounts of—
    - Valuation expenses.
    - Cost of rate collection.
    - General rate income.
    - Special rate income.
  - Final Accounts of or for—
    - Each part of the area in which an additional item of rate is levied or to which income in aid of rate is credited.
    - General rate income appropriation.
    - Financial adjustments certified under the Act.

(ii) A continuous record (to be kept either in the ledger or in a separate book provided for the purpose) of the ascertained products of the rates levied for the purposes of each precepting authority, of each part of the area in which an additional item of the general rate is levied, and of each fund or revenue in respect of which the council are required to keep separate account, and of the disposal thereof, showing the surplus or deficiency to date in respect of each such levy;

(iii) A Rate Charge Book according to the Form B in the Schedule hereto;

Provided that the council may, if they think fit, in lieu of keeping a separate Rate Charge Book in the said Form B, record on the valuation list, in additional columns, added thereto for the purpose, particulars of all rates made during the currency of the list, and in respect of each such rate the particulars so recorded shall be deemed to constitute the Rate Charge Book;

Provided also that, during the period before the first new valuation list made under the Act comes into operation in the district, the provisions of Article 4 (1) (i) (a) in regard to the keeping of a Rate Book shall apply in lieu of the foregoing provisions in regard to the keeping of a Rate Charge Book;

(iv) A Summons List and Costs Account Book according to the Form D in the Schedule hereto;

(v) A Rate Arrears Book according to the Form E in the Schedule hereto;

(vi) An account of the rate receipt forms purchased and issued to the several rating officers showing the numbers so issued at each date according to the consecutive numbering printed on the forms; and

(vii) A Rate Produce Book, showing how the produce of a penny rate has been ascertained for the year, both in the district as a whole and in each part thereof in which the general rate is levied at a different poundage, and also how the produce of each special rate has been ascertained.

Accounts of Rating Officers.

4.—(1) Each rating officer shall, in respect of his collection district,—

(i) keep and punctually enter up and balance—

(a) during the period before the first new valuation list made under the Act comes into operation in the district, Rate Books (General and Special) according to the forms at present in use in the parish or parishes concerned, and

(b) thereafter, a Rate Account Book according to the Form F in the Schedule hereto;

(ii) keep and punctually enter up and balance a Cash Account according to the Form G in the Schedule hereto;

(iii) subject as herein provided, keep and punctually enter up Receipt Books containing consecutively numbered copies of the receipts given by him according to the Form H in the Schedule hereto;

Provided that during the period before the first new valuation list made under the Act comes into operation in the district the rating officer may continue to use receipt check books according to the form in use at the date of this Order in the parish or parishes concerned:

Provided also that thereafter any rating officer who was employed in the collection of poor rates before the first day of April, 1927, may, if the council approve and if the number of assessments in his collection district does not exceed 500, continue to use receipt check books according to the form prescribed by the General Order for Accounts (Unions), 1867, in the manner prescribed by that Order:

(iv) prepare and submit as and when directed by the council and in all cases immediately upon the close of each rate period:—

(a) a list of the items which should in his opinion be written off as irrecoverable, showing the reason in each case; and

(b) a list of the other items which are still to be collected at the date when such list is prepared, or at the close of the rate period, as the case may be;

(v) keep a book or books containing consecutively numbered copies of the statements according to one or other of the Forms J, K or L in the Schedule hereto which have been attached by him to the demand notes addressed to owners or other ratepayers; and

(vi) transmit to the clerk of the council, not less frequently than once a month, a return of all the facts and dates, which have come to his knowledge since the date of his last return in regard to new properties becoming ready for occupation, additions to existing properties, and persons entering into occupation of, or ceasing to occupy, premises in his collection district.

(2) Each rating officer or other officer who collects rate monies on behalf of the council shall—

(i) bank all monies of the council received by him at such times and in such manner as is directed by the council, and in no case less frequently than once a week;

(ii) comply with the Accounts (Payment into Bank) Order, 1922 (a); and

(iii) submit his accounts for examination at such times and in such manner as is directed by the council and in no case less frequently than once a month.

(3) Any warrant officer or broker who receives rate monies on behalf of the council shall keep and punctually enter up a Cash Account and Receipt Book, as prescribed in this Order, and shall comply with the Accounts (Payment into Bank) Order, 1922 (a).

General.

5. The officer who is charged with the duty of keeping the accounts of the council shall be responsible for the prompt and correct entry and balancing of all the accounts, books and records referred to in Article 3 of this Order, for presenting the ledger accounts to the council or to the appropriate committee, and for obtaining their approval to the submission of such accounts with or without amendment to the district auditor, and for the submission of all accounts at the audit.

He shall also be responsible for the maintenance of a current supervision and independent examination of the accounts, books and records required to be kept by other officers.

6.—(i) The following books shall together constitute the Rate Book of the rural district, that is to say:—

(a) in respect of any period before the first new valuation list made under the Act comes into operation in the district, the Rate Books for the several collection districts kept in accordance with Article 4 (1) (i) (a) hereof; and

(b) in respect of any subsequent period the Rate Charge Book for the district and the Rate Account Books for the several collection districts kept in accordance with Articles 3 (2) (iii) and 4 (1) (i) (b) hereof, respectively.

(ii) Rate Books and Rate Account Books for a collection district kept by a rating officer in accordance with Article 4 (1) (i) hereof shall be deemed to be accounts of the council, and the officer shall, as and when the council may direct, deposit any such book at the offices of the council.

7. A refund made to a ratepayer in respect of an overpayment of either the current rate or any previous rate shall be treated in the rate book of the period then current as an amount written off in that book during that period, the amount of such refund being added to the total of the appropriate column relating to irrecoverable sums and being deducted from the total of the column relating to amounts paid by ratepayers.

8. When a refund is made to an outgoing occupier in respect of a rate payment covering a period extending beyond the end of his occupation, a new rate charge of equal amount shall be entered either at the end of the current rate book, or in a column provided for the purpose in that book, and any sum collected from a new occupier of the hereditament, and any part of the new charge written off as irrecoverable in respect of such period, or carried forward as recoverable arrears, shall also be entered in the appropriate column in connection with the new entry.

Appendix II.

9. Subject as herein provided, the forms prescribed in this Order shall not be modified in any material respect without the express approval of the Minister:

Provided always that the council may, without such approval, make such additions to any form as may appear to them to be useful in connection with the keeping or verification of any of the council's accounts or records.

10. Any Order heretofore issued by the Minister or his predecessors relating to any accounts with respect to which provision is made by this Order is hereby rescinded in so far as it is inconsistent with any such provision.

BOROUGH, MUNICIPAL, ENGLAND.

DISTRICT COUNCIL, ENGLAND.

THE RATE ACCOUNTS (BOROUGH AND URBAN DISTRICT COUNCILS) ORDER, 1926, DATED SEPTEMBER 30, 1926, MADE BY THE MINISTER OF HEALTH.

To the councils of the several municipal boroughs and urban districts in England and Wales:—

Whereas by reason of the provisions of the Rating and Valuation Act, 1925, it is desirable to prescribe the methods in which the accounts of the receipts and expenditure under that Act of rating authorities and their officers shall be kept and presented for audit;

Now, therefore, the Minister of Health, by virtue of the powers conferred upon him by section 5 of the District Auditors Act, 1879, and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf, hereby orders as follows:—

1. This Order may be cited as the Rate Accounts (Borough and Urban District Councils) Order, 1926, and shall come into operation on the first day of April, 1927.

2.—(1) This Order shall apply, subject to any amendment thereof or any departure therefrom to which the Minister may from time to time assent, to the council of every borough and urban district and to the officers of every such council in relation to the accounts of their receipts and expenditure under the Rating and Valuation Act, 1925.

(2) In this Order, unless the context otherwise requires—

" council " means council of a borough or urban district;

" the Act " means the Rating and Valuation Act, 1925;

" the Minister " means the Minister of Health;

" year " means a period of twelve months commencing upon the first day of April;

(a) The forms in this Schedule are identical with those in the Schedule to the Rate Accounts (Borough and Urban District Councils) Order, 1926, post, p. 3671, with the following exceptions:—Form B: The words " [and special] " are inserted after " general " in the heading, and a footnote is appended to the " Rate made " columns in the following terms. " For parts of the rating area where Special Rates are made columns headed " Special Rate at....... in the £ " should also be provided to such extent as may be necessary. N.B.—The amount in the £ of the Special Rate on the pages relating to railway lines, etc., will be at one-quarter of the amount in the £ appearing on the other pages of the book." Form C is omitted. Form F: The words " or No. of receipt " are omitted in the heading to the Date of Payment column.

Appendix II.

"chief financial officer" means the chief officer charged with keeping the accounts of the council;

"rate" means—

(a) until a general rate is levied, a poor rate (or a consolidated rate which includes a poor rate), and

(b) thereafter, a general rate.

Accounts of the Council.

3.—(1) The chief financial officer of the council shall keep such ledger accounts, books of account and records as are required by this Article or are needed for the purpose of presenting a full and correct account of transactions under the Act.

(2) The accounts, books and records required to be kept by this Article are :—

(i) Ledger accounts on the double entry system according to the Form A in the Schedule hereto including :—

Personal Accounts with—
  Each officer having cash transactions under the Act;
  The ratepayers in respect of rates assessed upon them;
  The ratepayers in respect of costs due from them;
  Each authority from which precepts are received.
Impersonal Accounts of—
  Valuation expenses;
  Cost of rate collection;
  Rate income.
Final Accounts of or for—
  Each part of the area in which an additional item of rate is levied or to which income in aid of rate is credited;
  Rate income appropriation;
  Financial adjustments, if any, certified under the Act.

(ii) A continuous record (to be kept either in the ledger or in a separate book provided for the purpose) of the ascertained products of the rates levied for the purposes of each precepting authority, of each part of the area in which an additional item of the general rate is levied, and of each fund or revenue in respect of which the council are required to keep separate account, and of the disposal thereof, showing the surplus or deficiency to date in respect of each such levy.

(iii) A Rate Charge Book according to the Form B, or a Rate Book according to the Form C, in the Schedule hereto;

Provided that the council may, if they think fit, in lieu of keeping a separate Rate Charge Book in the said Form B record on the valuation list, in additional columns added thereto for the purpose, particulars of all rates made during the currency of the list, and in respect of each such rate the particulars so recorded shall be deemed to constitute the Rate Charge Book.

(iv) A Summons List and Costs Account Book according to the Form D in the Schedule hereto;

(v) A Rate Arrears Book according to the Form E in the Schedule hereto;

(vi) An account of the rate receipt forms purchased and issued to the several collecting officers showing the numbers so issued at each date according to the consecutive numbering printed on the forms; and

(vii) A Rate Produce Book, showing how the produce of a penny rate has been ascertained for the year, both in the rating area as a whole and in each part thereof in which the general rate is levied at a different poundage.

Accounts of Officers.

4. Any officer who is responsible for rate collection in any collection district of the rating area shall—

(i) In every case where a Rate Charge Book according to Form B is adopted by the council, keep and punctually enter up a Rate Account Book according to the Form F in the Schedule hereto and balance such account promptly after the close of the rate period;

(ii) Prepare and submit, as and when directed by the council, and in all cases immediately upon the close of each rate period:—

(a) a list of the items which should in his opinion be written off as irrecoverable, showing the reason in each case, and

(b) a list of the other items which are still to be collected at the date when such list is prepared, or at the close of the rate period, as the case may be;

(iii) Keep a book or books containing consecutively numbered copies of the statements according to one or other of the Forms J, K or L in the Schedule hereto which have been attached by him to the demand notes addressed to owners or other ratepayers; and

(iv) Transmit to the chief financial officer not less frequently than once a month a return of all the facts and dates which have come to his knowledge since the date of his last return in regard to new properties becoming ready for occupation, additions to existing properties, and persons entering into occupation of, or ceasing to occupy, premises in his collection district.

5.—(1) Every officer who collects rate monies on behalf of the council, shall—

(i) keep and punctually enter up and balance a Cash Account according to the Form G in the Schedule hereto;

(ii) keep and punctually enter up Receipt Books containing consecutively numbered copies of the receipts given by him according to the Form H in the Schedule hereto;

(iii) bank all monies of the council received by him at such times and in such manner as is directed by the council, and in no case less frequently than twice a week;

(iv) comply with the Accounts (Payment into Bank) Order, 1922 (a); and

(v) submit his accounts for examination at such times and in such manner as is directed by the council and in no case less frequently than once a week.

(2) Any warrant officer or broker who receives rate monies on behalf of the council shall keep and punctually enter up a Cash Account and Receipt Book as prescribed in this Order, and shall comply with the Accounts (Payment into Bank) Order, 1922 (a).

Transitional Provisions.

6. In respect of any period before the first new valuation list made under the Act comes into operation in the area, the council, notwithstanding anything hereinbefore contained,—

(a) shall, instead of bringing into use Form B or Form C in the Schedule hereto, continue to use Rate Books according to the form at present in use in the parish or parishes concerned; and

(b) may, instead of bringing into use for any purpose any other form in the Schedule hereto, continue to use any form at present in use for a similar purpose.

General.

7. The chief financial officer shall be responsible for the prompt and correct entry and balancing of all the accounts, books and records referred to in Article 3 of this Order, for presenting the ledger accounts to the council or to the appropriate committee, and for obtaining their approval to the submission of such accounts with or without amendment to the district auditor, and for the submission of all accounts at the audit.

He shall also be responsible for the maintenance of a current supervision and independent examination of the accounts, books and records required to be kept by other officers.

(a) This Order is set out at p. 3039, ante.

Appendix II.

8. Where a Rate Charge Book according to Form B is kept, that book, together with the Rate Account Books according to Form F kept for the several collection districts, shall together constitute the Rate Book of the borough or urban district; and the Rate Account Books of the collection districts shall be deemed to be accounts of the council and shall, as and when the council may direct, be deposited at the offices of the council.

9. A refund made to a ratepayer in respect of an overpayment of either the current rate or any previous rate shall be treated in the rate book of the period then current as an amount written off in that book during that period, the amount of such refund being added to the total of the appropriate column relating to irrecoverable sums and being deducted from the total of the column relating to amounts paid by ratepayers.

10. When a refund is made to an outgoing occupier in respect of a rate payment covering a period extending beyond the end of his occupation, a new rate charge of equal amount shall be entered, either at the end of the current rate book, or in a column provided for the purpose in that book, and any sum collected from a new occupier of the hereditament and any part of the new charge written off as irrecoverable in respect of such period, or carried forward as recoverable arrears, shall also be entered in the appropriate column in connection with the new entry.

11. The ledger accounts, officers' cash accounts and the bank account relating to transactions under the Act shall be kept and balanced apart from any accounts of the council and of their officers which are not subject to audit by the district auditor, but may be kept or balanced together with any other accounts which are subject to that audit.

12. Subject as herein provided, the forms prescribed in this Order shall not be modified in any material respect without the express approval of the Minister:

Provided always that the council may, without such approval, make such additions to any form as may appear to them to be useful in connection with the keeping or verification of any of the council's accounts or records.

13. Any Order heretofore issued by the Minister or his predecessors relating to any accounts with respect to which provision is made by this Order is hereby rescinded in so far as it is inconsistent with any such provision.

VALUATION, ENGLAND.

THE RATING AND VALUATION ACT (COUNTY VALUATION COMMITTEES) ORDER, 1926, DATED 30TH NOVEMBER, 1926, MADE BY THE MINISTER OF HEALTH UNDER SECTION 67 OF THE RATING AND VALUATION ACT, 1925 (15 & 16 GEO. 5, C. 90), FOR REMOVING A DIFFICULTY ARISING IN CONNECTION WITH THE APPLICATION OF CERTAIN PROVISIONS OF THAT ACT TO AREAS CONSISTING OF AN ADMINISTRATIVE COUNTY AND A COUNTY BOROUGH OR COUNTY BOROUGHS.

Whereas for the purpose of promoting uniformity in the principles and practice of valuation and assisting rating authorities and assessment committees in the performance of their functions under the Rating and Valuation Act, 1925, it is provided by section 18 (1) of that Act that there shall be established in every county a committee of the county council (to be called the county valuation committee);

And whereas by section 16 (3) of the said Act it is provided that any two or more councils, whether councils of counties or county boroughs, may make and submit to the Minister of Health a joint scheme for the constitution of assessment areas;

And whereas in certain cases the councils of counties and county boroughs have submitted joint schemes; and in such circumstances a difficulty arises in connection with the representation of the councils of county boroughs on the county valuation committee;

And whereas by section 67 of the said Act it is provided that if any difficulty arises in connection with the application of the Act to any exceptional area, or the preparation of the first valuation list for any area, or otherwise in bringing into operation any of the provisions of the Act, the Minister of Health may by order remove the difficulty, or constitute any assessment committee, or declare any assessment committee to be duly constituted, or make any appointment, or do any other thing, which appears to him necessary or expedient for securing the due preparation of the list, or for bringing the said provisions into operation, and any such order may modify the provisions of the Act so far as may appear to the Minister necessary or expedient for carrying the order into effect;

And whereas application has been made to the Minister of Health by certain councils to remove the difficulty above-mentioned by making such an order as is hereinafter contained:

Now therefore the Minister of Health, by virtue of the powers conferred upon him by the said section 67, and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf, hereby orders as follows:—

1. This Order may be cited as the Rating and Valuation Act (County Valuation Committees) Order, 1926, and shall come into operation on the date hereof.

2. In any case where the councils of a county and of a county borough, or two or more county boroughs, have made and submitted to the Minister of Health a joint scheme for the constitution of assessment areas, and such scheme has been approved by the Minister, the county valuation committee for the county may include such number of persons to be appointed by the council of any county borough which is for the purposes of the Local Government Act, 1888, deemed to be situate in the county, as may be agreed between the councils of the county and of the county borough, and it shall not be necessary that a person so appointed shall be a member of the council of the county.

S. R. & O., 1927, No. 55.

OVERSEERS: TRANSFER OF POWERS.

THE OVERSEERS ORDER, 1927.

At the Court of Buckingham Palace, the 7th day of February, 1927. Present:
The King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

Whereas by sub-section (2) of section 1 of the Rating and Valuation Act, 1925, it is enacted that as from the 1st day of April, 1927, being the appointed day within the meaning of that Act, all powers and duties of the overseers of the poor in relation to the making, levying and collection of rates, and of any other person who by virtue of any local Act has powers in that behalf, shall in every rating area be exercised and performed by the rating authority:

And whereas sub-section (1) of section 62 of the same Act provides that after the day aforesaid overseers shall cease to be appointed, and that His Majesty may by Order in Council provide, subject to the provisions of the Act, for the transfer as from that day to rating authorities, or such other local authorities or persons as seems expedient, of the powers and duties of and any property vested in overseers, and that any such Order may contain such supplemental and consequential provisions as appear to His Majesty to be necessary or expedient to make in connection with the abolition of the office of overseer:

And whereas sub-section (3) of the said section 62 enacts that any reference in any Act or document to overseers in relation to any of their powers or duties shall be construed as references to the rating authority or to the other persons to whom those powers or duties are transferred by or in pursuance of the Rating and Valuation Act, 1925:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

Preliminary.

1.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Overseers Order, 1927, and save as otherwise expressly provided shall come into operation on the 1st day of April, 1927.

(2) This Order shall not extend to Scotland, Northern Ireland, the Isles of Scilly or the administrative County of London.

2.—(1) The Interpretation Act, 1889, applies to the interpretation of this Order as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

(2) In this Order, unless the context otherwise requires—

"Parish" has the same meaning as in sub-section (4) of section 68 of the Rating and Valuation Act, 1925;

"Property" includes all property, real and personal, and all estates, interests, easements, and rights, whether equitable or legal, in, to, and out of property real and personal, including things in action, and registers, books and documents;

"Rating authority" means the council of any county borough, urban district or rural district;

"Rural parish" means a parish in a rural district;

"Urban parish" means a parish in a county borough or urban district;

"The Act of 1925" means the Rating and Valuation Act, 1925;

"The appointed day" means the 1st day of April, 1927;

"The Minister" means the Minister of Health.

(3) Where rural parishes are grouped under a common parish council, any reference in this Order to the parish council shall include a reference to the grouped parish council, but where the powers or duties in connection with which the expression is used are excluded by the grouping order from the powers or duties exercisable by the parish council, any reference in this Order to the parish council shall be read as a reference to the parish meeting of each of the grouped parishes.

Jurors Book and Electors Register.

3.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this Article, the powers and duties of overseers under the enactments relating to the preparation of the jurors book and register of electors are hereby transferred to the rating authority.

(2) If the registration officer at any time shall send the rating authority a request that one or more of their officers shall be designated by them to perform the duties of overseers in relation to the preparation of the jurors book or the register of electors, the rating authority shall forthwith designate one or more of their officers for the purpose, and the officer or officers so designated shall, while the designation continues in force, perform the duties of overseers in relation to those matters or either of them, as the case may be:

Provided that if the registration officer shall raise a question whether an officer designated by a rating authority is an officer to whom the work can properly be assigned by the rating authority, that question shall be determined by the Secretary of State.

(3) A designation under this Article of an officer to perform any duty shall cease to have effect if either the rating authority revoke the designation, or the registration officer notifies the rating authority that the assistance of the designated officer will not be required by him in the performance of that duty:

Provided that any such revocation or notification, if given at any time between the 30th day of April and the 15th day of October in any year, shall not have effect until the 15th day of October in the same year.

(4) Where the rating authority revoke a designation under this article they shall forthwith send notice of the revocation to the registration officer.

(5) The remuneration and expenses of a designated officer in respect of—

(a) the preparation of the jurors book shall be payable by the rating authority in accordance with the enactments relating to the preparation of the jurors book; and

(b) the preparation of the register of electors shall be defrayed in accordance with the enactments relating to the registration of electors.

(6) Any document required to be signed by overseers and relating to the preparation of the jurors book or the registers of electors may be signed by an officer designated under this Article by the rating authority.

Holding or Management of Parish Property, Village Greens and Allotments.

4.—(1) The powers and duties of the overseers, or of the churchwardens and overseers, of any urban parish with respect to the holding or management of parish property (not being property relating to affairs of the church or held for an ecclesiastical charity within the meaning of the Local Government Act, 1894), and the holding or management of village greens or of allotments, whether for recreation grounds or for gardens or otherwise for the benefit of the inhabitants or any of them, and whether of that parish or of that parish conjointly with other parishes, are hereby transferred to the rating authority.

(2) The powers and duties of overseers, or of the churchwardens and overseers, mentioned in paragraph (1) of this Article, as respects any rural parish not having a separate parish council and to which sub-section (6) of section 19 of the Local Government Act, 1894, applies, are hereby transferred to the parish meeting.

(3) Where immediately before the appointed day the overseers, or the churchwardens and overseers, of any urban parish are associated with any other persons in the holding or management of parish property, village greens or allotments to which this Article applies, the powers and duties of the overseers, or of the churchwardens and overseers, in relation to such holding or management, are hereby transferred to such number of persons, not exceeding the number of overseers, or of churchwardens and overseers (as the case may be) as may be appointed by the rating authority, and shall be exercised and performed by the persons so appointed jointly with the persons associated with them.

(4) Paragraph (3) of this Article shall extend to any rural parish, and if the parish has a parish council with the substitution for the rating authority of the parish council, and if the parish has not a parish council with the substitution for the rating authority of the parish meeting.

Other Powers and Duties of Overseers.

5.—(1) The powers and duties of overseers, or of the churchwardens and overseers, under the enactments mentioned in the schedule to this Order are hereby transferred to the local authorities or persons mentioned in the third, fourth and fifth columns of that schedule, and those enactments shall have effect accordingly.

(2) The powers and duties of overseers under any rules in relation to elections made under section 48 of the Local Government Act, 1894, are hereby transferred to the clerk to the rating authority.

(3) Any powers or duties of overseers, or of the churchwardens and overseers, not transferred by the Act of 1925 and to which the foregoing provisions of this Order do not extend are hereby transferred to the rating authority.

Transfer of Property.

6.—(1) All property held by overseers, or by the churchwardens and overseers, for the purposes or in the exercise or performance of any powers or duties transferred by the foregoing provisions of this Order shall by virtue of this Order pass to and vest in the authority to whom the powers and duties are transferred, subject to all debts and liabilities affecting the same.

(2) Notwithstanding anything in section 25 of the Welsh Church Act, 1914, all property vested in the overseers, or in the churchwardens and overseers, of an urban parish (not being property to which paragraph (1) of this Article applies or property connected with the affairs of the church or held for an ecclesiastical charity within the meaning of the Local Government Act, 1894), shall by virtue of this Order be transferred to and vest in the rating authority, subject to all trusts and liabilities affecting the same.

(3) Where property is transferred to the rating authority by this Article, the rating authority shall apply the net income of the property for the benefit of the persons for whose benefit the income of the property would have been applied if this Order had not been made.

7.—(1) In any rural parish to which sub-section (6) of section 19 of the Local Government Act, 1894, applies, the chairman of the parish meeting and, in lieu of the overseers, the councillor or councillors for the time being representing the parish on the rural district council shall, on and after the appointed day, be the body corporate constituted by that sub-section, and shall be called the representative body of the parish:

Provided that if the parish is represented on the rural district council by one councillor only, and that councillor is also chairman of the parish meeting, the rural district council, at a meeting held either before or after the appointed day, shall appoint in lieu of the overseers a local government elector of the parish to be a member of the representative body of the parish, who shall hold office for a term of four years, or until the offices of rural district councillor for the parish and chairman of the parish meeting cease to be held by one person.

(2) On the appointed day, or if the first appointment under the proviso to paragraph (1) of this Article is made after the appointed day by the rural district council, on the day on which the appointment is made by them, the legal interest in all property vested in the body corporate consisting of the chairman of the parish meeting and overseers shall, by virtue of this Order, be transferred to and vest in the representative body of the parish.

(3) If on the appointed day the representative body constituted by this Article is not complete, the persons who immediately before that day constitute the body corporate consisting of the chairman of the parish meeting and overseers shall continue to constitute that body corporate until the representative body is complete.

(4) Any reference in any Act or document to the corporate body consisting of the chairman of the parish meeting and overseers of a parish shall be read as a reference to the corporate body constituted by this Article.

Trustees under Local Acts.

8. Where immediately before the appointed day the overseers of any parish are members ex officio of a body of trustees incorporated by a local Act, and property the income whereof is applicable in aid of the poor rate or otherwise for the general benefit of the ratepayers, parishioners or inhabitants of a parish is vested in those trustees, such number of persons, not exceeding the number of the overseer trustees, as the rating authority shall appoint, shall be trustees in place of the overseers.

Charities.

9.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this Article, where immediately before the appointed day the overseers of a parish, as such, are either alone or jointly with any other persons, trustees of any charity, such number of persons, not exceeding the number of the overseer trustees, as the local authority within the meaning of this Article shall appoint, shall be trustees in their place.

(2) The local authority within the meaning of this Article shall be—

(a) Where the parish is an urban parish, the rating authority ;
(b) Where the parish is under a parish council, the parish council ;
(c) Where the parish is a rural parish not under a parish council, the parish meeting.

(3) If the rating authority are the council of a county borough or urban district comprising more than one parish, and their borough or district is divided into wards for the election of councillors, the power of appointing trustees conferred on the rating authority by this Article shall be exercised by them on the nomination of the councillors elected for the ward or wards comprising the parish, or any part of the parish, for which the overseer trustees acted as overseers.

(4) This Article shall not extend to a charity which is an elementary school within the meaning of the Education Act, 1921.

10. The preceding Article of this Order shall extend to any charity not being an elementary school within the meaning of the Education Act, 1921, for which overseers act, immediately before the appointed day, as trustees for the nomination of beneficiaries or any other special purpose, so as to provide for the appointment by the local authority, as defined in that Article, of trustees in succession to the overseers for the special purposes for which the overseers are trustees.

11.—(1) Where immediately before the appointed day overseers are trustees of any charity either generally or for any special purpose, or any charitable endowment is vested in overseers, either alone or jointly with other persons, and—

(a) provision is not made by any enactment or by this Order for the appointment of trustees as successors to the overseers or for the vesting of the property ; or (b) any difficulty arises in the application to the charity or endowment of the provisions of the Local Government Act, 1894, or this Order ;

the Charity Commissioners, on the application of any trustee or beneficiary, or any local authority or persons interested, may by order or scheme provide for the appointment of trustees as successors to the overseers or for the vesting of the property, or for the removal of the difficulty, as the case may require.

(2) In the application of paragraph (1) of this Article to any endowment held solely for educational purposes, the Board of Education shall be substituted for the Charity Commissioners.

(3) Notwithstanding anything in section 66 of the Local Government Act, 1894, where overseers immediately before the appointed day are trustees of any elementary school within the meaning of the Education Act, 1921, or have powers of management or control over any such school, the Board of Education may by order provide for the appointment of trustees or other persons in succession to the overseers.

Term of Office of Trustees, etc. Vacancies.

12.—(1) The term of office of a trustee or member of a corporate body appointed under a power conferred by this Order shall, subject to the provisions of this Order, be four years.

(2) Any trustee appointed under a power conferred by this Order may, by a notice signed by him and delivered to the appointing authority, resign his office as trustee, and a copy of the notice shall forthwith be sent by him to the clerk or chairman of the trustees.

(3) Any member of a corporate body appointed by a rural district council under a power conferred by this Order may, by a notice signed by him and delivered to the clerk of that council, resign his office as member.

(4) The body in whom by this Order is vested the power of appointing trustees or members of a corporate body shall fill, as soon as practicable, any vacancy in the office.

(5) Nothing in this Article shall affect the power of the Minister, the Board of Education or the Charity Commissioners to prescribe the term of office of a trustee or other person in any order made under a power conferred by this Order.

Enactments as to expenditure and receipts of Overseers.

13.—(1) Save as otherwise provided in this Order—

(a) Any enactment authorising expenses to be defrayed by overseers and either expressly providing or conveying by implication that the expenses shall be defrayed from the poor rate of a parish; and

(b) any enactment, authorising fines, fees, allowances, income from an endowment, or other receipts to be applied in aid of the poor rate of a parish, and either expressly providing or conveying by implication that the receipts are to be so applied by overseers; and shall have effect with the substitution for the overseers of the rating authority, and for the poor rate of the general rate or the poor rate, or, where the area for which the rate is made comprises more than one parish, of that portion of the general rate or poor rate which is levied on the parish.

(2) Where under sub-section (3) of section 41 of the Education Act, 1921, as amended by this Article, a county council direct money arising from an endowment to be paid to the rating authority, they shall specify the parish or parishes for whose benefit the money is by the rating authority to be applied and the proportions in which the money is so to be applied.

Service and Signature of Documents.

14. Save as otherwise provided by this Order, where any enactment or order provides for the service upon or transmission to the overseers, or the churchwardens and overseers, of a parish of any document, the enactment or order shall have effect in its application to—

(1) an urban parish, as if it provided for the service of the document on or its transmission to the clerk to the rating authority;

(2) a rural parish under a parish council, as if it provided for the service of the document on or its transmission to the chairman of the parish council; or

(3) a rural parish not under a parish council, as if it provided for the service of the document on or its transmission to the chairman of the parish meeting.

15.—(1) Any document required to be signed by the overseers, or by the churchwardens and overseers, of a parish and relating to powers or duties transferred by this Order to a local authority may, save as otherwise in this Order provided, be signed by the clerk to the local authority.

(2) Any document required to be signed by the overseers, or by the churchwardens and overseers, of a parish and relating to powers or duties transferred by this Order to a chairman, officer or other person, may be signed by that person.

Expenses of Execution of Transferred Powers, etc.

16.—(1) Any expenses incurred in the exercise or performance of those powers and duties of overseers which by this Order are transferred to—

(a) the parish council or chairman of the parish council, or to the parish meeting or chairman of the parish meeting, shall be defrayed as part of the general expenses of the parish council or parish meeting as the case may require;

(b) a relieving officer shall be defrayed by the board of guardians (a) as expenditure in the relief of the poor; or

(c) a police constable shall be defrayed by the rating authority, subject nevertheless to the power of a justice, on the application of the rating authority, to order the reimbursement of the expenses under section 6 of the Burial of Drowned Persons Act, 1808.

(2) Subject to the provisions of this Order, any expenses incurred in the exercise or performance of those powers and duties which by this Order are transferred to the rating authority, or to the clerk to the rating authority, shall be defrayed by the rating authority, and shall be chargeable by them to the account of the parish in respect of which the expenses were incurred.

Supplemental Provision as to Property Transferred.

17. Where by or in pursuance of this Order property is transferred from overseers to another authority—

(1) The authority to whom the property is transferred shall hold the property for the estate, interest and purposes, and subject to the covenants, conditions, and restrictions for and subject to which the property would have been held if this Order had not been made, so far as the same are not modified by or in pursuance of the Act of 1925; and

(2) All debts and liabilities incurred by overseers in respect of or otherwise affecting the property shall become debts and liabilities of the authority to whom the property is transferred and shall, subject to the provisions of the Act of 1925, be defrayed from the like property and funds from which they would have been defrayed if this Order had not been made.

Exceptional Areas.

18.—(1) In relation to the Parish of Folkestone next Sandgate, the Urban District Council of Sandgate shall be deemed for the purposes of this Order to be the rating authority.

(2) If any difficulty arises in connection with the application of this Order to any exceptional area, as defined in section 67 of the Act of 1925, or otherwise in bringing into operation in an exceptional area any of the provisions of this Order, the Minister may, by order, remove the difficulty or do anything which appears to him necessary or expedient for bringing the said provisions into operation.

(3) An order of the Minister under this Article may modify the provisions of this Order in so far as may appear to the Minister necessary or expedient for carrying his order into effect, and may provide for any necessary adjustment of property and liabilities.

Savings.

19. This Order shall have effect subject to the provisions of the Act of 1925.

20. The abolition of the office of overseer shall not, nor shall anything contained in this Order,—

(1) affect any order which may have been made under section 33 of the Local Government Act, 1894, conferring on the council of a borough or urban district any powers, duties or liabilities of overseers or of a parish council; or

(2) affect the transfer by the Local Government Act, 1894, to parish councils of

S. R. & O., 1927, No. 76.

THE RATING AND VALUATION ACT, 1925 (INSPECTION OF DOCUMENTS) RULES, 1927, DATED 15TH FEBRUARY, 1927, MADE BY THE MINISTER OF HEALTH UNDER SECTION 58 (1) OF THE RATING AND VALUATION ACT, 1925, FOR PRESCRIBING THE FEES TO BE DEMANDED UNDER SECTION 60 (1) OF THAT ACT IN RESPECT OF THE INSPECTION OF DOCUMENTS MORE THAN TEN YEARS OLD.

Whereas by sub-section (1) of s. 60 of the Rating and Valuation Act, 1925, it is provided that any ratepayer (whether a ratepayer in the rating area to which the documents relate or in some other area) may at all reasonable times, on payment, in the case of a document which is more than ten years old, of such fee as may be prescribed, and, in any other case, without payment, inspect and take copies of and extracts from any rate book or other document in the said sub-section mentioned;

And whereas by sub-section (1) of section 58 of the said Act it is provided that the Minister of Health, after consultation with any local authority or association of local authorities with whom consultation appears to him to be desirable, may by rules prescribe anything which by the said Act is required to be prescribed:

Now, therefore, the Minister of Health, after such consultation as is mentioned above, by virtue of the powers conferred upon him by the said section 58 hereby orders as follows:—

1. The fee herein-under mentioned may be demanded from any ratepayer who, under sub-section (1) of section 60 of the Rating and Valuation Act, 1925, claims to inspect to take copies of, or extracts from, any document referred to in the said sub-section which is more than ten years old, that is to say, a fee of two shillings and sixpence in respect of each such document which he requires to be produced.

2. Nothing in these rules shall be construed as precluding the authority or person having the custody of any document referred to in the said sub-section from supplying copies thereof or extracts therefrom at the request of any ratepayer upon such terms as to payment as may be agreed.

S. R. & O., 1927, No. 80.

THE RATING AND VALUATION ACT (TRANSFER OF OFFICERS) ORDER, 1927, DATED 18TH FEBRUARY, 1927, MADE BY THE MINISTER OF HEALTH UNDER SECTION 67 OF THE RATING AND VALUATION ACT, 1925, FOR REMOVING DIFFICULTIES ARISING IN CONNECTION WITH THE TRANSFER OF CERTAIN OFFICERS TO ASSESSMENT COMMITTEES AND RATING AUTHORITIES.

Whereas by sub-sections (1) and (2) of section 48 of the Rating and Valuation Act, 1925, provision is made with respect to the transfer of officers employed in the service of union assessment committees to assessment committees constituted under the said Act and with respect to the transfer of officers employed in the performance of duties of overseers to rating authorities;

And whereas it has been represented to the Minister of Health that in certain cases difficulty will arise in arranging for the employment of an officer by the authority in whose service he can most effectively be employed and that in order to remove any such difficulty and for securing the due preparation of valuation lists and otherwise for bringing into operation the provisions of the Act, it is expedient that provision should be made whereby certain officers may with their consent and the consent of the authorities concerned be transferred to one only of the authorities to whom they would by the operation of the recited sub-sections be transferred, or may be transferred to some authority other than the authority or authorities to whom they would be so transferred;

And whereas by s. 67 of the said Act it is provided that if any difficulty arises in connection with the preparation of the first valuation list for any area or otherwise in bringing into operation any of the provisions of the Act the Minister of Health may by order remove the difficulty, or do any other thing which appears to him necessary or expedient for securing the due preparation of the list or for bringing the said provisions into operation, and any such order may modify the provisions of the Act so far as may appear to the Minister necessary or expedient for bringing the order into effect:

Now therefore, the Minister of Health, by virtue of the powers conferred upon him by the said section 67 and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf, hereby orders as follows:—

1.—(1) This order may be cited as the Rating and Valuation Act (Transfer of Officers) Order, 1927, and shall come into operation on the date hereof.

(2) In this Order,—

"the Act" means the Rating and Valuation Act, 1925;

"the appointed day" means the 1st day of April, 1927; and

"authority" means a rating authority or an assessment committee.

2. In any case where the authority, or one of the authorities, to whom an officer would be or has been transferred by s. 48 of the Act does not require the services of such officer, but another authority acting for or within the same or an adjoining assessment area (whether one of the authorities to whom he would be or has been so transferred or not) or the County Valuation Committee require his services, then, at any time before the expiration of three months from the appointed day, and whether the officer's appointment has been determined or not, the first mentioned authority and the authority or committee requiring the officer's services may with his consent in writing, but not otherwise, make and give effect to an agreement whereby the officer shall be deemed to be, or to have been, transferred to the authority or committee requiring his services and shall have as against that authority or committee so far as regards the office in respect of which he would have been or has been transferred to the first mentioned authority all the same rights under sections 48 to 51 of the Act as he would have had or has against the first mentioned authority except in so far as the agreement may modify such rights.

S. R. & O., 1927, No. 90.

THE RATING AND VALUATION ACT (REPEALS, ETC.) ORDER, 1927, DATED 19TH FEBRUARY, 1927, MADE BY THE MINISTER OF HEALTH UNDER SECTION 69 (4) OF THE RATING AND VALUATION ACT, 1925, FOR FIXING THE DATES UPON WHICH THE SAID SECTION 69 SHALL COME INTO OPERATION FOR DIFFERENT PURPOSES AND IN RELATION TO DIFFERENT AREAS.

Whereas by sub-sections (1), (2), and (3) of section 69 of the Rating and Valuation Act, 1925, provision is made for the repeal of certain enactments therein referred to, with respect to the manner in which references in other Acts or documents to certain terms and expressions are to be construed, and with respect to the exercise of certain powers by assessment committees and rating authorities during the period between the appointed day and the date of the first new valuation as defined for the purposes of the said Act;

And whereas by sub-section (4) of the said section it is provided that the section shall come into operation on such date as may be fixed by the Minister of Health, and that the Minister may fix different dates for different purposes, and in relation to different areas:

Now therefore, the Minister of Health, in pursuance of the powers given to him by the said section 69 (4) hereby orders as follows:—

1. This Order may be cited as the Rating and Valuation Act (Repeals, etc.) Order, 1927, and shall come into operation on the date hereof.

2. In this Order,—

"the Act of 1925" means the Rating and Valuation Act, 1925;

"the appointed day" means the 1st day of April, 1927;

"the date of the first new valuation" means, in relation to any rating area or part of a rating area, the date on which the first new valuation list made under Part II. of the Act of 1925 for that area or part comes into operation; and "the date of the first general rate" means in relation to a rural rating area the appointed day, and in relation to an urban rating area the date of the first new valuation.

3. Sub-section (2) of section 69 of the Act of 1925 shall come into operation on the dates hereinafter mentioned, that is to say:—

The paragraph which relates to references to gross value, gross estimated rental, net annual value, and rateable value, on the date of the first new valuation so far as regards values or rentals referred to as determined by valuation lists made under the Union Assessments Acts, 1862 to 1880, and on the 1st day of April, 1929, so far as regards values or rentals referred to as shown in, or ascertained in accordance with the Acts relating to, the basis or standard of county rates.

Sub-paragraph (a) of the paragraph which relates to references to assessable value, on the appointed day; sub-paragraph (b) of the same paragraph on the 1st day of April, 1929, where the term to be construed is used in connection with or in relation to the Agricultural Rates Acts, 1896 and 1923, as applying to a county rate, and on the date of the first new valuation in other cases; and sub-paragraph (c) of the same paragraph, on the date of the first new valuation; and

The remainder of the sub-section, on the appointed day.

4. Sub-section (3) of section 69 of the Act of 1925 shall come into operation on the appointed day.

5. Sub-section (1) of section 69 of the Act of 1925 shall come into operation on the dates hereinafter mentioned, that is to say:—

So far as it repeals the enactments specified in Part I. of the Schedule to this Order, on the appointed day;

So far as it repeals the enactments specified in Part II. of the Schedule to this Order, on the date of the first general rate;

So far as it repeals the enactments specified in Part III. of the Schedule to this Order, and so far as it repeals so much of any Act (whether public or local and personal) not mentioned in the Eighth Schedule to the Act of 1925 as authorises any valuation of a hereditament to be made for the purposes of any rate in respect of which the valuation list is by the Act of 1925 made conclusive, or any assessment of any such rate to be made except on the basis of that valuation list, on the date of the first new valuation; and

So far as it repeals the enactments specified in Part IV. of the Schedule to this Order, on the 1st day of April, 1929.

6. This Order does not apply to Scotland, Northern Ireland, the Administrative County of London, or the Isles of Scilly.

S. R. & O., 1927, No. 479/L. 21.

THE PLANT AND MACHINERY (VALUATION FOR RATING) RULES, 1927, DATED 7TH APRIL, 1927, MADE BY THE LORD CHIEF JUSTICE OF ENGLAND UNDER SECTION 24 OF THE RATING AND VALUATION ACT, 1925, FOR FIXING THE FEES TO BE CHARGED IN RESPECT OF PROCEEDINGS BEFORE A REFEREE AND WITH RESPECT TO THE PROCEDURE ON AND IN CONNECTION WITH REFERENCES UNDER THAT SECTION.

In pursuance of the powers conferred on me by section 34 of the Rating and Valuation Act, 1925, I, the Lord Chief Justice of England, hereby make the following Rules :—

1. These Rules may be cited as the Plant and Machinery (Valuation for Rating) Rules, 1927.

2.—(1) In these Rules, unless the context otherwise requires,—

" The Act " means the Rating and Valuation Act, 1925 ;

" Question " means a question arising on or in connection with an objection or proposal made, or appeal brought, under Part II. of the Act as to whether any particular plant or machinery falls within any of the classes or descriptions specified in the confirmed statement referred to in sub-section (5) of section 24 of the Act ;

" Panel " means the panel of referees constituted under section 24 of the Act and consisting of persons appointed by the Lord Chief Justice of England ;

" Referee " means the member of the panel appointed in accordance with these Rules to determine a question ;

" Assessment Committee " means an assessment committee constituted in accordance with the provisions of the Act ;

" Court " means, in the case of a county, the committee of the justices of the county appointed under s. 32 of the Act and, in the case of a borough having a separate court of quarter sessions, the recorder ; and

" Prescribed officer " means the secretary to the Lord Chief Justice of England, whose address for the purpose of these Rules is Royal Courts of Justice, Strand, London, W.C.2.

(2) The Interpretation Act, 1889, applies to the interpretation of these Rules as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

3.—(1) Where an assessment committee or court have decided, with the written consent of all parties to the proceedings before them, to refer a question to a member of the panel for his determination, they shall—

(i) if all parties to the proceedings are agreed as to the member of the panel to whom the question is to be referred, forward to that member an appointment appointing him to act as referee in the matter ; and

(ii) if all parties are not so agreed, forward to the prescribed officer an application, in duplicate, requesting the Lord Chief Justice to appoint a member of the panel to act as referee in the matter.

(2) Appointments, and applications for the appointment, of referees shall be in the forms set out in the First Schedule to these Rules, or in forms to the like effect.

4.—(1) The Lord Chief Justice on receiving a valid application for the appointment of a referee shall, as soon as may be, proceed to select from the panel and appoint a person to act as referee in the matter.

(2) The prescribed officer shall, as soon as a referee has been appointed, forward to him one copy of the application bearing his appointment at the foot thereof and notify the name and address of the referee to the clerk to the assessment committee or court from whom the application was received.

(3) Upon receipt of such notification as is mentioned in paragraph (2) of this Rule the clerk to the assessment committee or court shall notify the name and address of the referee to each party to the proceedings.

5.—(1) The referee shall as soon as may be after his appointment proceed with the determination of the question referred to him, but in fixing the place and time of hearing and of any inspection to be made by him, shall, so far as is reasonably possible, consult the convenience of the parties to the proceedings.

(2) Every party to the proceedings shall furnish to the referee on his request any document or other information which it is in his power to furnish and which the referee may require for the purpose of considering and determining the question referred to him.

(3) The referee may in any case, and shall if so required by any party to the reference, before making his award, inspect the plant or machinery in respect of which the question arises, and upon any such inspection each party shall be entitled to be represented by two persons or such greater number of persons as may be agreed between them.

(4) Paragraphs (a) and (c) of section 7 of the Arbitration Act, 1889, and paragraphs (g) and (i) of the First Schedule to that Act shall apply to any reference under these Rules as if the referee were an umpire, and the award of the referee so far as it contains any direction as to the taxation and payment of costs may be enforced in manner provided by section 12 of that Act.

(5) The award of the referee shall set out in a Schedule or Schedules a brief description of each piece of plant or machinery specified in the appointment or application for appointment of the referee which he finds to fall, or not to fall, within any of the classes or descriptions specified in the confirmed statement.

(6) Subject to the provisions of the Act and of these Rules the proceedings before a referee shall be such as he in his discretion may think fit.

6. The fees specified in the Second Schedule to these Rules shall be payable to the referee and shall be deemed to be costs of his award.

7.—(1) If a referee refuses to act or is incapable of acting or dies, the assessment committee or court by whom, or upon whose application, he was appointed may, with the consent of all parties to the proceedings, appoint another member of the panel to act as referee, and in the absence of such consent the Lord Chief Justice may, upon application being made to him, make such an appointment.

(2) The making of a substituted appointment under this Rule shall operate as a revocation of the previous appointment and reference.

THE RATING AND VALUATION ACT (ASSESSMENT APPEALS) RULES, 1927, DATED 29TH APRIL, 1927, MADE BY THE SECRETARY OF STATE UNDER SECTION 34 OF THE RATING AND VALUATION ACT, 1925, WITH RESPECT TO THE PRACTICE AND PROCEDURE TO BE FOLLOWED ON AND IN CONNECTION WITH APPEALS UNDER PART II. OF THE SAID ACT.

In pursuance of the powers conferred upon me by section 34 of the Rating and Valuation Act, 1925, I hereby make the following Rules :—

1. These Rules may be cited as the Rating and Valuation Act (Assessment Appeals) Rules, 1927, and shall apply to every appeal to a court of quarter sessions under the provisions of Part II. of the Rating and Valuation Act, 1925.

2.—(1) In these Rules, unless the context otherwise requires—

"the Act" means the Rating and Valuation Act, 1925 ;

"Court" in the case of a court of quarter sessions for a county means the committee of the justices of the county constituted in accordance with the provisions of section 32 of the Act ;

"Clerk" means clerk of the peace ;

"party" does not include a person served with a copy of a notice of appeal who has not given notice in accordance with these Rules of his intention to appear as a respondent to the appeal ;

"net annual value" means the net annual value of the hereditament to which an appeal relates as appearing in the valuation list, or, in any case where the net annual value of that hereditament does not appear in the valuation list, the rateable value as so appearing.

(2) The Interpretation Act, 1889, shall apply to the interpretation of these Rules as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

3.—(1) Every person upon whom a copy of a notice of appeal is served in accordance with the provisions of the Fifth Schedule to the Act shall, if he intends to appear as respondent to the appeal, give notice in writing of his intention so to appear, stating whether he intends to appear separately or jointly with some other person and specifying an address at which documents directed to him may be served.

(2) Such notice shall be given to the clerk and to the appellant before the expiration of fourteen days from the date of the service of the copy of the notice of appeal, or within such extended time as may under these Rules be allowed, and a person omitting to give such notice shall not be heard in opposition to the appeal except upon such terms as the Court may think fit to impose.

(3) A county valuation committee, if they intend to appear as a respondent to an appeal, shall give the like notice of their intention so to appear, provided that in the case of such a committee, the period of fourteen days above mentioned shall be calculated from the date on which a copy of the notice of appeal is served upon the assessment committee.

4. For the purpose of enabling parties to an appeal to make applications with respect to the place and date of hearing, the clerk shall at the request of any party give to him in writing information as to the place at which, and the date on which, such appeal will, subject to any application for a different place or date to be fixed, be in the list of cases for hearing, and also such reasonable information as to the number and nature of the cases awaiting hearing and arrangements for future sittings of the court as he may be able to give.

5.—(1) An application to which this Rule relates shall be made to the clerk in accordance with the provisions of this Rule, and, subject to any general directions given to him by the Court, the clerk shall deal with the application in such manner as he thinks proper, regard being had to the convenience of the parties and the desirability of limiting so far as practicable the costs of appeals, and shall communicate his decision in writing to each party to the appeal.

(2) The application shall be made in writing and shall state briefly the grounds upon which it is made and the names and addresses of all parties to the appeal.

(3) If the application is made with the consent of all parties, it shall be accompanied by consents signed by the parties or their solicitors.

(4) If the application is made with the consent of all parties, then, before it is made, a copy thereof shall be served upon each party, and the application shall state that this requirement has been complied with.

(5) Except where the application is made with the consent of all parties the clerk shall not decide it until the expiration of six days from the receipt thereof, and before deciding it he shall consider any written objections which may have been received by him before the expiration of that period from any other party to the appeal, and, if so required by any party, shall give to all parties an opportunity of appearing before him.

(6) Where an application is made under this Rule, the clerk (whether he grants or refuses such application) shall without any request in that behalf extend the time limited by these Rules for doing any act if he considers that it is reasonable to do so having regard to the delay involved in making and determining the application.

(7) The decision of the clerk upon an application to which this Rule relates shall not be subject to appeal:

Provided that nothing herein contained shall be construed as limiting the power of the Court upon the hearing of the appeal to grant a postponement or extension of time upon such conditions as to costs or otherwise as they may think fit.

(8) The applications to which this Rule relates are applications for—

- (a) postponing the hearing of an appeal;
- (b) fixing a date for the hearing of an appeal;
- (c) fixing or altering the place of hearing; and
- (d) extending the time limited by these Rules for giving notice of intention to appear as respondent or for lodging a statement of the party's case, when required by these Rules.

6. An application to the Court under these Rules shall be made in the form of a notice of motion which shall be served upon the clerk and upon each party to the appeal seven clear days at least before the date on which the motion is to be made.

7. Where the terms of any Order or judgment for which application is made to the Court have been agreed upon by all parties, particulars of such terms, signed by the parties or their solicitors, shall be sent to the clerk, and at any subsequent sitting of the Court an Order or judgment may be made or entered in accordance with such terms in the absence of the parties unless the Court for any special reason require their attendance.

8. Where the net annual value of the hereditament to which an appeal relates exceeds £200, the following provisions shall have effect—

(a) Before the expiration of fourteen days from the date on which the appellant first receives notice of any person's intention to appear as respondent to the appeal, he shall state in writing his case and the facts to be proved and the points of law (if any) to be argued in support of the case, and shall serve two copies of such statement on the clerk and one copy on each person who has given notice of intention to appear as respondent.

(b) Before the expiration of fourteen days from the date of the service upon him of the appellant's case, each respondent shall state in writing his case and the facts to be proved and the points of law (if any) to be argued in support of the case (including any objection to the sufficiency of the notice of appeal or the service thereof) and shall serve two copies of such statement on the clerk and one copy on the appellant.

(c) Where the appeal is brought to a court of quarter sessions for a county, each party shall before the day fixed for the hearing supply six additional copies of his statement of case for the use of the Court.

(d) If in the opinion of the Court the case presented by any party upon the hearing of the appeal has not been indicated with reasonable particularity in his statement of case, the Court shall make such order in the matter with regard to adjournment, costs or otherwise as may appear to them to be just and equitable.

9. Upon the hearing of an appeal the appellant shall begin; and, if two or more respondents appear separately, they shall be heard in such order as the Court may determine.

10. Costs ordered by the Court, or directed by an arbitrator, to be paid by any party to an appeal shall be taxed by the clerk on such date as he may determine.

11. Upon a taxation of costs the amounts to be allowed as between party and party to counsel, solicitors, expert witnesses, valuers, and arbitrators in respect of the matters mentioned in Part I. of the Schedule hereto shall not exceed the amounts therein specified, unless the Court at the hearing otherwise order or the clerk for special reasons considers such amounts to be inadequate.

12.—(1) Any party dissatisfied with a taxation of costs by the clerk may, within five days, serve on the other party interested therein and on the clerk objections in writing specifying the items objected to and the grounds of his objections and asking for the taxation to be reviewed in respect of such items.

(2) Upon such application the clerk shall reconsider and review his taxation upon such objections (receiving, if he thinks fit, further evidence in respect thereof); and, if so required within five days by either party, he shall state in writing the reasons for his decision thereon and any special facts or circumstances in relation thereto.

(3) Any party dissatisfied with the decision of the clerk as to any item which may have been objected to as aforesaid may within ten days apply to the Court to review the taxation and the Court may thereupon make such Order as they think just, including the payment of the costs of the review of taxation; but the taxation of the clerk shall be final and conclusive as to all matters which shall not have been objected to in manner aforesaid.

(4) The clerk may in any particular case extend any period of time limited by this Rule.

13. The fees specified in Part II. of the Schedule hereto shall be payable in respect of the matters mentioned therein to the clerk.

14.—(1) In any case where the clerk is also an officer of any authority or committee which is a party to an appeal, the chairman of the Court or the recorder, as the case may be, shall appoint some independent person, being a barrister or a solicitor, to act in lieu of the clerk upon the hearing by the Court of such appeal and in all proceedings preliminary or incidental thereto other than applications made with the consent of all parties.

(2) A person appointed in accordance with the provisions of this Rule shall be entitled to receive out of the county fund or the general rate fund of the borough, as the case may be, a fee calculated according to the scale set out in Part III. of the Schedule hereto.

15. The provisions of section 59 of the Act shall apply to documents required or authorised to be served under these Rules.

SCHEDULE.

PART I.

Scale of Fees to be Allowed upon Taxation as between Party and Party.

1. Counsel.

(1) Where the net annual value does not exceed £100, there may be allowed to Counsel the following fees :—

	Net Annual Value
	Not exceeding £50.			Exceeding £50 but not exceeding £100.
	£	s.	d.	£	s.	d.
Settling notice and grounds of appeal	1	3	6	1	3	6
Advising upon evidence	1	3	6	1	3	6
Brief upon any motion in Court	2	4	6	2	4	6
Brief upon hearing in Court	4	6	6*	5	10	0*
Conference	1	6	0	1	6	0

(2) Where the net annual value exceeds £100, such fees shall be allowed as are considered to be reasonable.

(3) Fees to a second counsel shall not be allowed in any case, except in pursuance of an Order of the Court made immediately after the conclusion of the hearing or, in the case of an appeal referred to arbitration, made upon motion when the award is enrolled.

2. Solicitors.

(1) Where the net annual value does not exceed £100, there may be allowed to Solicitors the following fees :—

	Net Annual Value
	Not exceeding £50.			Exceeding £50 but not exceeding £100.
	£	s.	d.	£	s.	d.
Attending hearing in Court with Counsel	1	1	0	1	1	0

While the Solicitors' Remuneration Act General Order, 1919, continues in force, these fees may be increased by 33⅓ per centum.

(2) In respect of matters not specified above, such fees shall be allowed as are considered to be reasonable.

(3) Where the net annual value exceeds £100, such fees shall be allowed as are considered to be reasonable.

3. Expert Witnesses and Valuers.

(1) There may be allowed to surveyors, other similar expert witnesses, and valuers a qualifying fee as hereunder :—

	£	s.	d.
Where the net annual value does not exceed £100	5	5	0
Where the net annual value exceeds £100 but does not exceed £200	6	6	0

Where the net annual value exceeds £200, such fee as is considered to be reasonable.

---

* Where there is no local bar in the court town or within twenty miles thereof (measured in a straight line), a further fee not exceeding £1 1*s.* may be allowed if the fee otherwise allowable is considered to be insufficient.

In addition, an allowance of £3 3s. may be made for each day on which a witness is necessarily in Court for the purpose of giving evidence.

The above allowances shall include all professional fees and expenses except necessary plans and diagrams.

(2) Fees to more than two expert witnesses on behalf of any one party shall not be allowed except in pursuance of an Order of the Court made immediately after the conclusion of the hearing or, in the case of an appeal referred to arbitration, upon motion when the award is enrolled.

(3) Where a witness gives evidence as to the value of part only of the hereditament to which the appeal relates, the fee to be allowed shall be calculated upon the net annual value estimated to be attributable to that part.

(4) Where the hereditament to which the appeal relates is part of an undertaking extending into more than one parish and in order to determine the value of the hereditament it is necessary to ascertain the value of the whole undertaking, the fee to be allowed shall be calculated upon the net annual value of the whole undertaking; but if two or more appeals relating to different parts of the undertaking are decided upon the same ascertainment of its total value, the fee shall be apportioned between such appeals, a proportion only being allowed in respect of each.

4. Arbitrators.

There may be allowed to arbitrators the following fee:—

	£	s.	d.
Where the net annual value does not exceed £100	7	7	0
Where the net annual value exceeds £100 but does not exceed £200 .	10	10	0
Where the net annual value exceeds £200, such sum as may have been agreed between the parties or in the absence of agreement, as may be awarded by the Court.

The above fees shall cover all expenses (including costs of preparing and making award) other than stamp duty.

PART II.

Fees to be Paid to the Clerk.

	£	s.	d.
Entering appeal		2	6
Information in writing as to cases for hearing and sittings of Court .		2	6
Application to Clerk under Rule 5 (including notification of decision)		5	0
Application to Court (including notice requiring attendance of parties or notification of order made)		5	0
* Hearing fee—
Where net annual value does not exceed £100		10	0
Where net annual value exceeds £100 but does not exceed £300.	1	0	0
Where the net annual value exceeds £300	3	0	0
Certified copy of any Order of Court		1	0
Special case—
Drawing (if not drawn by parties), for every folio of 72 words .		1	0
Attending Chairman for settling case, for each hour's attendance .		10	0
Copy, for any party, of case as settled, for every folio of 72 words.			4
Taxation—
For every £2 (or fraction of £2) of the Bill as taxed . . .		1	0

* NOTE.—No hearing fee is payable, if the appeal is disposed of without a hearing in Court.

PART III.

Fees to be Paid to a Person Appointed under Rule 14 to Act in Lieu of the Clerk.

In respect of each day's attendance upon the Court at the hearing of an appeal:—

	£	s.	d.
If in attendance for less than 3 hours	5	5	0
If in attendance for 3 hours or longer	7	7	0

In respect of Special Cases and Taxations, such fees as are specified in Part II. of this Schedule.

In addition to the above fees reasonable travelling and subsistence expenses necessarily incurred in the performance of duties—whether duties in respect of which a fee is specified or not—shall be allowed.

S. R. & O., 1927, No. 480.

THE PLANT AND MACHINERY (VALUATION FOR RATING) ORDER, 1927, DATED 30TH MAY, 1927, MADE BY THE MINISTER OF HEALTH UNDER SECTION 24 (5) OF THE RATING AND VALUATION ACT, 1925, FOR CONFIRMING WITH MODIFICATIONS THE STATEMENT PREPARED BY THE COMMITTEE CONSTITUTED UNDER SECTION 24 (3) OF THAT ACT.

Whereas by sub-sections (1), (3), (4), and (5) of section 24 of the Rating and Valuation Act, 1925, it is provided as follows :—

"(1) For the purpose of the making or revision of valuation lists under this Part of this Act, the following provisions shall have effect with respect to the valuation of any hereditament other than a hereditament the value of which is ascertained by reference to the accounts, receipts, or profits of the undertaking carried on therein :—

"(a) All such plant or machinery in or on the hereditament as belongs to any of the classes specified in the Third Schedule to this Act shall be deemed to be a part of the hereditament :

"(b) Subject as aforesaid, no account shall be taken of the value of any plant or machinery in or on the hereditament.

* * * * * *

"(3) For the purpose of enabling all persons concerned to have precise information as to what machinery and plant falls within the classes specified in the said Third Schedule, there shall be constituted a committee consisting of five persons to be appointed by the Minister, and the said committee shall as soon as may be after the passing of this Act prepare a statement setting out in detail all the machinery and plant which appears to the committee to fall within any of the classes specified in the said Schedule.

"(4) The committee shall as soon as the said statement has been prepared transmit it to the Minister, who shall cause it to be published in such manner as he thinks fit.

"(5) The Minister, after considering the statement and any representations which may be made to him with respect thereto, may, if he thinks fit, make an order confirming it, with or without modifications, and, subject as hereinafter provided, the statement as confirmed by the order shall for all purposes have effect as if it were substituted for the Third Schedule to this Act.

"The order confirming the statement shall as soon as may be after it is made be laid before both Houses of Parliament, and if either House within the next subsequent twenty days on which that House has sat next after the order is laid before it presents an Address to His Majesty against the order, or any part thereof, the order, or that part of the order, shall thenceforth be void, but without prejudice to the validity of anything done thereunder and without prejudice to the making of a new order."

And whereas a committee, duly appointed by the Minister of Health in accordance with the provisions above recited, have prepared and transmitted to the Minister the Statement which they were required by those provisions to prepare and transmit to him ;

And whereas the Minister has caused such statement to be published, and having considered it and all representations made to him with respect thereto, has decided to modify it in certain respects and to confirm it as so modified in the form set out in the Schedule to this Order :

Now therefore the Minister of Health by virtue of the powers conferred upon him by the said section 24 (5) hereby orders as follows :—

1.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Plant and Machinery (Valuation for Rating) Order, 1927, and shall come into operation on the date hereof.

(2) In this Order "the Statement" means the statement prepared by the committee appointed under sub-section (3) of section 24 of the Rating and Valuation Act, 1925, and transmitted to the Minister of Health in accordance with sub-section (4) of that section.

2. The statement as modified and set out in the Schedule to this Order is hereby confirmed.

Appendix II.

SCHEDULE.

STATEMENT PREPARED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE PROVISIONS OF SECTION 24 OF THE RATING AND VALUATION ACT, 1925, AS MODIFIED AND CONFIRMED BY THE MINISTER OF HEALTH.

Classes of Machinery and Plant deemed to be Part of the Hereditament.

CLASS 1 (a).

Machinery and plant specified in paragraphs (a) to (l) of the Schedule to this Class (together with the appliances and structures accessory thereto specified in paragraphs (1) and (2) of the Schedule of Accessories) which is used or intended to be used mainly or exclusively in connection with the generation, storage, primary transformation (as herein defined) or main transmission (as herein defined) of power in or on the hereditament.

"Primary transformation of power" means and includes any transformation of electrical power in or on the hereditament by any transforming plant which changes the pressure or frequency or form of current of the power as generated in or on or supplied to the hereditament to another pressure or frequency or form of current for distribution in the hereditament wherever such transformation is effected at some point in the main transmission as hereinafter defined.

"Main transmission of power" means and includes all transmission of power from the generating plant or point or points of supply in or on the hereditament up to and including:—

(i) Where power is transmitted to any other hereditament, the point or points at which power passes from the hereditament;

(ii) Where power is transmitted by means of shafting or gear wheels, any shaft or shafts or gear wheel or wheels which is or are directly driven by means of belts, ropes, gear, or other means from the shaft, pulley, drum, driving wheel, or gear of the prime mover;

(iii) Where electrical power is transmitted by means of a cable or cables, the main distribution board or boards to which the cable or cables from the generator or generators or point or points of supply is or are led either directly or with the intervention of a transformer or transformers, and whose bus bars carry or are intended to carry electrical energy at the pressure at which the power distribution circuits are supplied;

(iv) Where hydraulic or pneumatic power is transmitted by means of a pipe or pipes, the point or points where the main supply ceases excluding any branch service piping connected with such main piping.

SCHEDULE TO CLASS 1 (a).

(b) Steam engines; steam turbines; internal combustion engines; hor-air engines; barring engines.

(c) Continuous and alternating current dynamos; couplings to engines and turbines; field exciter gear; three-wire or phase balancers.

(d) Storage batteries, with stands and insulators, regulating switches, boosters and connections forming part thereof.

(e) Static transformers; auto transformers; motor generators; motor converters; rotary converters; transverters; rectifiers; phase converters; frequency changers.

(f) Cables and conductors; switchboards, distribution boards, control panels and all switchgear and other apparatus thereon.

(g) Water wheels; water turbines; rams; governor engines; penstocks; spillways; surge tanks; conduits; flumes; sluice gates.

(h) Pumping engines for hydraulic power; hydraulic engines; hydraulic intensifiers; hydraulic accumulators.

(i) Air compressors; compressed air engines.

(j) Windmills.

(k) Shafting, couplings, clutches, worm-gear, pulleys and wheels.

(l) Steam or other motors which are used or intended to be used mainly or exclusively for driving any of the machinery and plant falling within this Class.

CLASS 1 (b).

Machinery and plant specified in paragraphs (a) to (h) of the Schedule to this Class (together with the appliances and structures accessory thereto specified in paragraph (2) of the Schedule of Accessories) which is used or intended to be used mainly or exclusively in connection with the heating, cooling, ventilating, lighting, draining, or supplying of water to the land or buildings of which the hereditament consists, or the protecting of the hereditament from fire:

Provided that, in the case of machinery or plant which is in or on the hereditament for the purpose of manufacturing operations or trade processes, the fact that it is used in connection with those operations or processes for the purposes of heating, cooling, ventilating, lighting, supplying water or protecting from fire shall not cause it to be treated as falling within the classes of machinery and plant specified in the Schedule to this Class.

SCHEDULE TO CLASS 1 (b).

(a) General.

Any of the machinery and plant specified in the Schedule to Class I. (a) and any steam or other motors which are used or intended to be used mainly or exclusively for driving any of the machinery and plant falling within paragraphs (b) to (h) of this Schedule.

(b) Heating.

(i) Water heaters.
(ii) Headers and manifolds; steam-pressure reducing valves; calorifiers; radiators; heating panels; hot-air furnaces with distributing ducts and gratings.
(iii) Gas pressure regulators; gas burners; gas heaters and radiators and the flues and chimneys used in connection therewith.
(iv) Plug-sockets and other outlets; electric heaters.

(c) Cooling.

(i) Refrigerating machines.
(ii) Water screens; water jets.
(iii) Fans and blowers.

(d) Ventilating.

Air intakes, channels, ducts, gratings, louvres and outlets; plant for filtering, washing drying, warming, cooling, humidifying, deodorising and perfuming, and for the chemical and bacteriological treatment of air; fans; blowers; gas burners, electric heaters, pipes and coils when used for causing or assisting air movement.

(e) Lighting.

(i) Gas pressure regulators; gas burners.
(ii) Plug-sockets and other outlets; electric lamps.

(f) Draining.

Pumps and other lifting apparatus; tanks; screens; sewage treatment machinery and plant.

(g) Supplying Water.

Pumps and other water-lifting apparatus; sluice-gates; tanks, filters and other machinery and plant for the storage and treatment of water.

(h) Protection from Fire.

Tanks; pumps; hydrants; sprinkler systems; fire alarm systems; lightning conductors.

SCHEDULE OF ACCESSORIES.

(1) In addition to the machinery and plant specified in paragraphs (a) to (l) of the Schedule to Class 1 (a), any of the following machinery and plant which is used or intended to be used mainly or exclusively in connection with the handling, preparing or storing of fuel required for the generation or storage of power in or on the hereditament:—

Cranes with their grabs or buckets; truck or wagon tipplers; elevating and conveying systems, including power winches, drags, elevators, hoists, conveyors, transporters, travellers, cranes, buckets forming a connected part of any such system, and any weighing machines used in connection therewith; magnetic separators; driers; breakers; pulverisers; bunkers; gasholders; tanks.

Appendix II.

(2) Any of the following machinery and plant which is used or intended to be used mainly or exclusively as part of or in connection with or as an accessory to any of the machinery and plant falling within Class 1 (a) or Class 1 (b) :—

(i) Foundations, settings, gantries, supports, platforms and stagings for machinery and plant ;
(ii) Steam-condensing plant, compressors, exhausters, storage cylinders and vessels, fans, pumps and ejectors ; ash-handling apparatus ;
(iii) Travellers and cranes ;
(iv) Oiling systems ; earthing systems ; cooling systems ;
(v) Pipes, ducts, valves, traps, separators, filters, coolers, screens, purifying and other treatment apparatus, evaporators, tanks, exhaust boxes and silencers, washers, scrubbers, condensers, air heaters, and air saturators.
(vi) Shafting supports, belts, ropes, and chains.
(vii) Cables, conductors, wires, pipes, tubes, conduits, casings, poles, supports, insulators, joint boxes and end boxes.
(viii) Instruments and apparatus attached to the machinery and plant, including meters, gauges, measuring and recording instruments, automatic controls, temperature indicators, and alarms and relays.

CLASS 2.

Lifts and elevators mainly or usually used for passengers.

CLASS 3.

Railway and tramway lines and tracks.

CLASS 4.

The following parts of a plant or a combination of plant and machinery whenever and only to such extent as any such part is, or is in the nature of, a building or structure :—

Acid concentrators ;
Bins and hoppers ;
Blast furnaces ;
Bunkers ;
Burners, forges, furnaces, kilns, ovens, and stoves ;
Chambers for :—
  Absorption of gases or fumes ;
  Aerographing and spraying ;
  Bleaching ;
  Chemical reaction ;
  Conditioning or treatment ;
  Cooling ;
  Drying ;
  Dust or fume collecting ;
  Fibre separation (wool carbonising);
  Fuming ;
  Impregnating ;
  Refrigerating ;
  Regenerating ;
  Sandblasting ;
  Sterilising ;
  Sulphuric acid.
Chimneys ;
Coking ovens ;
Condensers and scrubbers :—
  Acid ;
  Alkali ;
  Gas ;
  Oil ; Tar.
Conveyor gantries ;
Cooling ponds ;
Crane gantries ;
Cupolas ;
Economisers ;
Elevators and hoists ;
Evaporators ;
Fan drifts ;
Floating docks and pontoons, with any bridges or gangways not of a temporary nature used in connection therewith ;
Flues ;
Flumes and conduits ;
Foundations, settings, gantries, supports, platforms, and stagings for plant and machinery.
Gas :—
  Holders ;
  Producers and generators ;
  Purifiers and cleansers.

- Headgear :—
  - Mine, quarry, and pit;
  - Well.
- Hydraulic accumulators.
- Pits, beds, and bays :—
  - Casting ;
  - Cooling ;
  - Drop ;
  - Inspection or testing ;
  - Liming, soaking, tanning, or other treatment ;
  - Settling.
- Racks ;
- Refuse destructors and incinerators ;
- Retorts ;
- Ship construction and repair :—
  - Slipways ;
  - Uprights ;
  - Cradles ;
  - Grids.
- Silos ;
- Stages, staithes, and platforms for loading, unloading, and handling material ;
- Stills ;
- Superheaters ;
- Tanks ;
- Towers for :—
  - Absorption of gases or fumes ;
  - Chemical reaction ;
  - Cooling ;
  - Oil refining and condensing ;
  - Treatment ;
  - Water.
- Transporter gantries ;
- Transversers and turntables ;
- Vats ;
- Weighbridges ;
- Windmills ;
- Wireless masts.

S. R. & O., 1928, No. 609.

RATING AND VALUATION, ENGLAND.

THE RATING AND VALUATION ACT (SUPERANNUATION OF TRANSFERRED OFFICERS) ORDER, 1928, DATED AUGUST 8, 1928, MADE BY THE MINISTER OF HEALTH UNDER SECTION 51 (1) OF THE RATING AND VALUATION ACT, 1925 (15 & 16 GEO. 5, C. 90), WITH RESPECT TO THE APPLICATION OF THE POOR LAW OFFICERS' SUPERANNUATION ACT, 1896 (59 & 60 VICT. C. 50), TO TRANSFERRED OFFICERS.

The Minister of Health, in pursuance of the powers given to him by section 51 (1) of the Rating and Valuation Act, 1925, and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf, hereby orders as follows :—

1. In this Order, unless the context otherwise requires—

" the Act of 1925 " means the Rating and Valuation Act, 1925 ;

" the Act of 1896 " means the Poor Law Officers' Superannuation Act, 1896 ;

" Rating Act Authority " means a Rating Authority, Assessment Committee or County Valuation Committee ;

" remuneration " includes salary, wages and emoluments ;

" transferred officer " means an officer who by section 48 of the Act of 1925 was transferred, or by virtue of the Rating and Valuation Act (Transfer of Officers) Order, 1927, is deemed to have been transferred, to a Rating Act Authority, and " transferred " and " transferred office " have corresponding meanings.

2. In any case where the annual contributions required by the Act of 1896 have been made by a transferred officer, the provisions of that Act shall apply as respects the transferred office subject to the following modifications :—

Authorities.

(1) References in the Act of 1896 to Guardians shall be construed as references to the Rating Act Authority to whom the officer was transferred.

Calculation of Superannuation Allowances.

(2) For the purpose of calculating under section 3 of the Act of 1896 the amount of any superannuation allowance payable—

(a) by a Rating Act Authority to a transferred officer who ceases to hold office under such authority within five years after the date of transfer, or

(b) by a board of guardians to a transferred officer who continued to hold office under that board after the date of transfer but ceases to hold such office within five years after that date, account shall be taken of so much only of his remuneration before the date of transfer as was properly attributable—

(a) in the first case mentioned, to the duties in respect of which he was transferred to that Rating Act Authority, and

(b) in the second case mentioned, to duties in respect of which he was not transferred to any Rating Act Authority.

(3) For the purposes of the preceding paragraph an officer's remuneration shall be apportioned, when necessary, in accordance with the following principles :—

(i) If before the date of transfer he was performing for a board of guardians duties in respect of which he has been transferred to a Rating Act Authority and also other duties, and his remuneration (or any part thereof) was not specifically apportioned between his various duties, such unapportioned remuneration (or part) shall be fairly and equitably apportioned as between the duties in respect of which he was, and the duties in respect of which he was not, transferred.

(ii) In the case of an officer transferred from a board of guardians to two or more Rating Act Authorities—

(a) remuneration in respect of transferred duties which was chargeable to any parish in the Union shall be deemed to be attributable to the duties in respect of which he was transferred to the Rating Act Authority whose area comprises that parish ; and

(b) remuneration in respect of transferred duties which was chargeable to the Union as a whole shall be apportioned amongst the Rating Act Authorities in proportion to the rateable values, on the date of transfer, of the portions of the Union comprised in the areas of those authorities respectively.

Contributions Returnable on Loss of Office.

(4) Where a transferred officer ceases to hold office in circumstances which make section 8 of the Act of 1896 operative, the amount payable to him by way of return of contributions (a) by a Rating Act Authority, or (b) by a board of guardians, shall comprise all contributions paid by him to that authority or board after the date of transfer, and all contributions made by him before the date of transfer so far as they were made in respect of remuneration properly attributable—

(a) in the case first mentioned, to duties in respect of which he was transferred to that Rating Act Authority ; and

(b) in the second case mentioned, to duties in respect of which he was not transferred to any Rating Act Authority.

(5) For the purposes of the preceding paragraph an officer's remuneration shall be apportioned, when necessary, in accordance with the same principles as are made applicable by this Order to the calculation of a superannuation allowance.

(6) A transferred officer who on relinquishment of office becomes entitled to compensation under the Act of 1925, shall be deemed to lose his office in circumstances which make section 8 of the Act of 1896 operative.

Expenses.

(7) Any expenses incurred by a Rating Act Authority under the Act of 1896 in respect of a transferred officer shall be defrayed in the same manner as if they were expenses incurred under the Act of 1925, and the contributions under the Act of 1896 of any transferred officer shall from and after the date of transfer be applied in aid of the rate out of which such expenses are payable.

Suspension of Superannuation Allowance.

(8) Section 6 of the Act of 1896 shall be modified so as to read as follows :—

> "6. Where a person in receipt of a superannuation allowance or superannuation allowances under this Act is appointed to any office or employment under any authority to whom this Act applies or under any rating authority, assessment committee or county valuation committee, such allowance or allowances shall cease to be paid to him so long as he continues to hold such office or employment if the salary or emoluments of such office or employment are equal to or in excess of the amount of such allowance or allowances; if they are not, then only so much of such allowance or allowances shall be paid, so long as he holds such office or employment, as will make up the deficiency, and in such last mentioned case, if the person is entitled to allowances from two or more authorities, such authorities shall contribute to the deficiency in proportion to the amounts of the respective allowances granted by them.
> Any such person ceasing to hold such office or employment shall be entitled to revert to and to receive the full amount of his original superannuation allowance or allowances from the authority or authorities who granted it or them."

3. This Order may be cited as the Rating and Valuation Act (Superannuation of Transferred Officers) Order, 1928, and shall have effect as from the 1st day of April, 1927.

Given under the Official Seal of the Minister of Health this Eighth day of August, in the year One thousand nine hundred and twenty-eight.

(L.S.) H. W. S. FRANCIS,
Assistant Secretary, Ministry of Health.

S. R. & O., 1928, No. 627.

VALUATION, ENGLAND.

THE RATING AND VALUATION (APPORTIONMENT) ACT (SPECIAL LIST) RULES, 1928, DATED AUGUST 20, 1928, MADE BY THE MINISTER OF HEALTH UNDER SECTION 58 OF THE RATING AND VALUATION ACT, 1925 (15 & 16 GEO. 5, C. 90) (AS APPLIED BY SECTIONS 7 (1) (c) AND 10 (2) OF THE RATING AND VALUATION (APPORTIONMENT) ACT, 1928 (18 & 19 GEO. 5, C. 44) FOR PRESCRIBING THE FORMS OF NOTICES, CLAIMS AND LISTS TO BE USED FOR THE PURPOSES OF THE FIRST SCHEDULE TO THE LAST MENTIONED ACT AND THE DATES TO BE OBSERVED IN CONNECTION WITH THE PREPARATION AND APPROVAL OF LISTS UNDER THAT SCHEDULE (a).

Whereas by the First Schedule to the Rating and Valuation (Apportionment) Act, 1928 (hereinafter referred to as "the Act of 1928") it is required that certain notices, claims, preliminary draft special lists and draft special lists to be given and made thereunder shall follow prescribed forms and that the taking of certain steps in connection with the preparation and approval of such lists and with appeals therefrom shall be regulated by prescribed dates; and by section 10 (2) of the said Act it is provided that that Act shall be construed as one with the principal Act and that the expression "prescribed" shall mean prescribed by rules made under the principal Act:

And whereas by the said Schedule it is further provided that all the provisions of the principal Act as to the preparation, deposit, revision and approval of valuation lists made thereunder shall (subject to certain modifications) apply as respects the draft special lists and special lists to be made under the Act of 1928, and that the special list made thereunder for any rating area shall (subject to the provisions of the Schedule) for the purposes of the principal Act and of the Act of 1928 be deemed to form part of the valuation list for that area:

(a) These Rules have been amended by Amending Rules of January 30th and April 12th, 1929, post, pp. 3726, 3727.

Appendix II.

And whereas by section 1 (2) of the Act of 1928 the expression "the principal Act" means, in relation to places outside London, the Rating and Valuation Act, 1925, as amended by any subsequent enactment, and in relation to London, the Valuation (Metropolis) Act, 1869, as amended by any subsequent enactment (including the Act of 1928):

And whereas by sections 21, 29 and 58 of the Rating and Valuation Act, 1925 (which sections, by virtue of section 7 (1) (c) of the Act of 1928, apply to London as if enacted in the Valuation (Metropolis) Act, 1869), provision is made with respect to the insertion in valuation lists of such particulars as to hereditaments and values, and the recording of such particulars as to totals of values, as may be prescribed, and it is further provided that the Minister of Health, after consultation with any local authority or association of local authorities with whom consultation appears to him to be desirable, may by rules prescribe anything which by that Act is to be prescribed and the form of any rate, demand note, valuation list, statement, return or other document whatsoever which is required or authorised to be used under or for the purposes of that Act:

Now, therefore, the Minister of Health, after such consultation as is mentioned above, by virtue of the powers conferred upon him by the recited enactments and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf, hereby makes the following rules:—

1.—(1) These Rules may be cited as the Rating and Valuation (Apportionment) Act (Special List) Rules, 1928, and shall come into operation on the date hereof.

(2) In these Rules—

"The Act of 1928" means the Rating and Valuation (Apportionment) Act, 1928;

"Agricultural hereditament," "agricultural land" and "agricultural buildings" have the meanings assigned to them respectively by section 2 of the Act of 1928;

"Woodlands" means land used for a plantation or a wood or for the growth of saleable underwood;

"Industrial hereditament" and "freight-transport hereditament" have the meanings assigned to them respectively by sections 3 and 5 of the Act of 1928;

"Parish" includes any part of a parish being either a contributory place or an area otherwise subject to separate or differential rating;

"Valuation List" means, in the case of any rating area, the first new Valuation List made for that area under the Rating and Valuation Act, 1925, or, until such list has been approved, the draft of such list.

2. The notice which every rating authority is required by paragraph 1 of the First Schedule to the Act of 1928 to publish as soon as practicable after the passing of the Act shall be in the Form A set out in the Schedule hereto or in a form substantially to the like effect (a).

3. The claim which the occupier of any hereditament who claims that it is an industrial hereditament or a freight-transport hereditament is directed by paragraph 1 of the First Schedule to the Act of 1928 to send to the rating authority shall be in that one of the Forms B and C set out in the Schedule hereto which is appropriate to the hereditament in question or in a form substantially to the like effect; and the particulars contained in the appropriate form shall be deemed to be the prescribed particulars for the purposes of such claim (b).

4. The preliminary draft special list which every rating authority is required by paragraph 2 of the First Schedule to the Act of 1928 to prepare shall be in the Form D set out in the Schedule hereto or in a form substantially to the like effect.

The draft special list which every rating authority is required by paragraph 5 of the First Schedule to the Act of 1928 to prepare shall also be in the said form (with the omission of the word "preliminary") or in a form substantially to the like effect.

(a) This form is not printed as the necessity for it has now expired.

(b) See note (a), supra. As to the forms to be now used for claiming the insertion of a hereditament in one of the derated classes, see the R. & V. Acts (Forms of Proposal and Claim) Rules, 1929, post, p. 3729.

5. The prescribed time or date for the purpose of any proceeding specified in the first column of the Time Table set out in the Schedule hereto shall be that specified in the second column of such Time Table.

6. Where a rating area comprises two or more parishes (as defined in Rule 1), each of the three Parts of the preliminary draft special list and of the draft special list shall be subdivided into parochial sections. Such parochial sections shall be arranged in the same sequence as in the Valuation List, and at the end of each section there shall be left such blank space as may be estimated to be necessary for the insertion of particulars relating to new hereditaments.

In the case of Parts I. and II. of the said lists the hereditaments falling to be entered in any parochial section thereof shall be arranged therein in such order as the rating authority think convenient:

Provided that, where in pursuance of section 3 (3) of the Act of 1928 two or more hereditaments in the same occupation and either within the same curtilage or contiguous to one another are, for certain purposes of that section and of section 4, treated as if they formed parts of a single hereditament, then, if those hereditaments are situate in the same parish, they shall be entered consecutively and bracketed together, and, if they are situate in different parishes, a marginal note drawing attention to the facts shall be entered in column 1 against each of the hereditaments.

In the case of Part III. of the said lists, the hereditaments falling to be entered in any parochial section shall be arranged therein in four separate groups, viz.—

(A) Railway hereditaments,
(B) Canal hereditaments,
(C) Dock hereditaments, and
(D) Composite hereditaments.

7. A rating authority in preparing a preliminary draft special list or a draft special list and an assessment committee in revising and approving a draft special list shall comply with the following directions as to the entries to be made in the respective columns of those lists:—

GENERAL.—PARTS I., II. AND III.

Columns 1–7.—The headings to these columns shall be construed in the same manner as the headings to the corresponding columns in a Valuation List, and entries shall be made in the columns accordingly.

PART I.—AGRICULTURAL HEREDITAMENTS.

Columns 8*a*, 9*a and* 10*a*.—The net annual value of the hereditament shall be entered in that column which, according to the heading thereof and to the definition of " woodlands " contained in Rule 1, is appropriate to such hereditament.

Columns 8*b*, 9*b and* 10*b*.—No entry shall be made in any of these columns (a).

PART II.—INDUSTRIAL HEREDITAMENTS.

Column 8.—In the case of a hereditament assessed as " land covered with water " the letter " W " shall be entered in this column immediately before the net annual value of the hereditament.

Columns 9*a and* 10*a*.—If the hereditament is, in accordance with the provisions of section 4 of the Act of 1928, deemed to be used wholly for industrial purposes, its net annual value (as appearing in column 8) shall be entered in column 9*a*; in other cases such value shall be apportioned in accordance with those provisions and the apportioned amounts entered in columns 9*a* and 10*a* respectively.

Columns 9*b*, 10*b and* 11.—No entry shall be made in any of these columns (a).

PART III.—FREIGHT TRANSPORT HEREDITAMENTS.

Column 8.—Where a hereditament is not used for more than one of the named transport purposes and is entered accordingly under one of the subheadings (A), (B) and (C) referred to in Rule 6, no entry need be made in column 8.

Where a hereditament is used for more than one of those purposes and is entered accordingly under subheading (D) referred to in Rule 6, the values falling to be entered in columns 10*a*, 10*b* and 11*a* shall be apportioned between user for the several purposes, and the amount apportioned to each shall be entered upon a separate line. In any such case the nature of the purposes to which each separate line relates shall be indicated by the appropriate word—railway, canal or dock—in column 8.

Columns 10*a and* 10*b*.—If the rateable value under the Rating and Valuation Act, 1925, of a hereditament, or of any part thereof, would in accordance with the provisions of that Act or of a scheme made thereunder, or of a local Act, be calculated by making a deduction from the net annual value, the net annual value of the hereditament or of that part (as the case may be) shall be entered in column 10*a*, and in column 10*b* there shall be entered the rateable value of the hereditament or of that part (as the case may be) calculated in accordance with the said provisions.

Columns 11*a and* 12*a*.—If the rateable value of a hereditament, or of any part thereof, as ascertained in accordance with the Rating and Valuation Act, 1925, would be the same as the net annual value thereof, the net annual value of the hereditament or of that part (as the case may be) shall, in so far as it is attributable to user for transport purposes, be entered in column 11*a*, and shall, in so far (if at all) as it is attributable to user for non-transport purposes, be entered in column 12*a*.

Columns 10*c*, 11*b*, 12*b*, and 13.—No entry shall be made in any of these columns (a).

8. Subject to the provisions of paragraph 7 (b) of the First Schedule to the Act of 1928, the assessment committee in revising a draft special list shall give effect to their decisions by inserting or deleting any hereditament which in their opinion ought to have been inserted or omitted by the rating authority or by amending the particulars relating to any hereditament as inserted by the rating authority, and after such revision shall approve the list in the same manner as if it were a valuation list.

9. A rating authority and an assessment committee shall comply with the following directions as to the method of making corrections, insertions, alterations or amendments in a draft special list or a special list—

(i) a correction, insertion, alteration or amendment, if made before approval of the list, shall be made in ink of the same colour as that used in the preparation of the list, and if made after approval of the list shall be made in ink of a different colour;

(ii) a line shall be ruled through any words or figures which require to be omitted, or for which other words or figures are to be substituted, in such manner as to leave legible the original entries;

(iii) every correction, insertion, alteration or amendment shall be authenticated by the responsible officer, whether of the rating authority or assessment committee, having for the time being the custody of the list, and such officer shall enter the date and his initials accordingly in the column provided for that purpose.

10 (a). Immediately before the approval of a special list the entries as to values in columns 7, 8*a*, 9*a* and 10*a* of Part I. and in columns 8, 9*a* and 10*a* of Part II. shall be totalled at the foot of each page of the list, and the totals for each page shall be carried to a summary or summaries so arranged as to show, in respect of (a) the rating area as a whole, and (b) each parish (as defined in Rule 1), the totals of all the entries in each of the said columns (distinguishing the totals in Part I. from the totals in Part II.), and also, in the case of column 8 of Part II. the total of the entries therein which are marked by the letter "W."

In the case of Part III. of the list, such entries shall be made in the summary or summaries as will show, in respect of (a) the rating area as a whole, and (b) each parish (as defined in Rule 1), the totals of the entries as to values in columns 9 and 12*a*, and also the totals of the entries as to values in columns 10*a*, 10*b*, and 11*a*, distinguishing in these cases the totals of values attributable to (i) user for railway transport purposes, (ii) user for canal transport purposes, and (iii) user for dock purposes, respectively. For the purposes of such entries, any values entered in columns 10*a*, 10*b*, and 11*a* under sub-heading (D) shall be aggregated respectively with the values entered under that one of the subheadings (A), (B) and (C) which is appropriate thereto.

11. All corrections, insertions, alterations and amendments made in a special list after such list has been approved (including such as are made by direction of a Court of Quarter Sessions) shall be recorded in the minutes of the assessment committee, and the committee shall cause the necessary net additions or subtractions to be made to or from the relevant totals appearing in the summaries referred to in the last preceding rule.

12. The copy of the deposited draft special list transmitted to an assessment committee in accordance with paragraph 5 of the First Schedule to the Act of 1928 shall be retained by the committee, who shall cause the entries therein to be corrected from time to time so that such copy shall agree with the special list.

13. These Rules shall apply to London subject to the following modifications:—

(1) "Valuation List" means the Valuation List made under the Valuation (Metropolis) Act, 1869; and

"Net annual value" has the meaning assigned to it by section 7 (1) (a) of the Act of 1928.

(2) In column 8 of Part II. of a preliminary draft special list or draft special list it shall not be necessary to distinguish hereditaments assessed as "land covered with water," nor shall it be necessary to total separately entries relating to such hereditaments.

(3) Part III. of a preliminary draft special list or draft special list shall be in the Form E set out in the Schedule hereto; and entries therein shall be made in accordance with the following directions:—

Column 8.—Where a hereditament is used for more than one of the named transport purposes and is entered accordingly under one of the sub-headings (A), (B) and (C), no entry need be made in column 8.

Where a hereditament is used for more than one of those purposes and is entered accordingly under subheading (D), the value falling to be entered in column 10*a* shall be apportioned between user for the several purposes and the amount apportioned to each shall be entered upon a separate line. In any such case the nature of the purposes to which each separate line relates shall be indicated by the appropriate word—railway, canal or dock—in column 8.

Columns 10*a and* 11*a*.—The net annual value of the hereditament shall, in so far as it is attributable to user for transport purposes, be entered in column 10*a*, and shall, in so far (if at all) as it is attributable to user for non-transport purposes, be entered in column 11*a*.

Columns 10*b*, 11*b and* 12.—No entry shall be made in any of these columns.

(4) (c) For the second paragraph of Rule 10 the following paragraph shall be substituted:—

"In the case of Part III. of the list, such entries shall be made in the summary or summaries as will show, in respect of (a) the rating area as a whole and (b) each parish (as defined in Rule 1), the totals of the entries as to values in columns 9 and 11*a*, and also the totals of the entries as to values in column 10*a*, distinguishing in this case the totals of values attributable to (i) user for railway transport purposes, (ii) user for canal transport purposes, and (iii) user for dock purposes, respectively. For the purposes of such entries, any values entered in column 10*a* under subheading (D) shall be aggregated respectively with the values entered under that one of the subheadings (A), (B) and (C) which is appropriate thereto."

RATING, ENGLAND.

FORMS OF PRECEPT.

THE RATING AND VALUATION ACT (FORMS OF PRECEPT—COUNTY COUNCILS) RULES, 1929, DATED JANUARY 18, 1929, MADE BY THE MINISTER OF HEALTH UNDER SECTION 58 OF THE RATING AND VALUATION ACT, 1925 (15 & 16 GEO. 5, C. 90), FOR PRESCRIBING FORMS OF PRECEPTS TO BE USED UNDER THE ACT. (b)

Whereas by section 9 of the Rating and Valuation Act, 1925, provision is made with respect to precepts to be issued to rating authorities by councils of counties in respect of any period beginning on or after the first day of April, 1929;

And whereas by section 58 of the said Act it is provided that the Minister of Health, after consultation with any local authority or association of local authorities with whom consultation appears to him to be desirable, may by rules prescribe the form of any return or other document whatsoever which is required or authorised to be used under or for the purposes of the Act:

(a) See Amending Order Rules of 30th January, 1929, post, p. 3726.

(b) These Rules are now repealed. See the Rules of 5th February, 1930, post, p. 3927.

Appendix II.

Now therefore, the Minister of Health, after such consultation as is mentioned above, by virtue of the powers conferred upon him by the said section 58 and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf, hereby makes the following Rules :—

1.—(1) These Rules may be cited as the Rating and Valuation Act (Forms of Precept—County Councils) Rules, 1929, and shall come into operation on the date hereof.

(2) These Rules shall not apply to any precept issued by the London County Council.

2. Every precept issued by a county council under section 9 (2) of the Rating and Valuation Act, 1925, in respect of any period beginning on or after the first day of April, 1929, shall be in the form set out in the Schedule hereto which is appropriate to the rating authority concerned, or in a form substantially to the like effect.

3. A county council shall specify in every precept issued by them in respect of any period beginning on or after the said first day of April—

(a) the rate in the pound which they require the rating authority to levy as part of the general rate in respect of (i) each service or group of services administered by the county council for which a separately balanced account is kept, and (ii) such other of their principal services as they may think fit ;

(b) the rate in the pound which they require the rating authority to levy as an additional item of the general rate in respect of each part of the rating area on which any expenses are chargeable separately, indicating the part so charged, and the purpose of the charge ; and

(c) in the case of an amount chargeable on the rating area or any part thereof otherwise than by a rate of a specified amount in the pound, the amount and purpose of the charge and the area so charged.

RATING, ENGLAND.

PRODUCT OF RATES AND PRECEPTS.

THE RATING AND VALUATION ACT (PRODUCT OF RATES AND PRECEPTS) RULES, 1929, DATED JANUARY 18, 1929, MADE BY THE MINISTER OF HEALTH UNDER SECTIONS 9 AND 58 OF THE RATING AND VALUATION ACT, 1925 (15 & 16 GEO. 5, C. 90), FOR PRESCRIBING THE MANNER IN WHICH THE PRODUCT OF A RATE OF A PENNY IN THE POUND IS TO BE ESTIMATED AND CALCULATED FOR THE PURPOSES OF THAT ACT AND THE AMOUNT DUE UNDER A PRECEPT ISSUED BY A PRECEPTING AUTHORITY TO A RATING AUTHORITY IS TO BE ASCERTAINED (a).

Whereas by sub-section (2) of section 9 of the Rating and Valuation Act, 1925, every board of guardians and every council of a county is required in any precept issued in respect of any period beginning on or after the 1st day of April, 1927, or on or after the 1st day of April, 1929, respectively, to state the amount in the pound which they require the rating authority to levy for their purposes, and by sub-section (3) of the said section the provisions of the said sub-section (2) may be applied to precepts issued by any other authority ;

And whereas by the said sub-sections every rating authority is required to transmit to every authority having power to issue to that rating authority precepts to which sub-section (2) for the time being applies an estimate of the amount, calculated in the prescribed manner, which would be produced in the next financial year by a rate of a penny in the pound levied in the rating area of that authority, and it is further provided that the amount due under any precept so issued shall be ascertained in the prescribed manner ;

And whereas the Rating and Valuation Act (Product of Rates and Precepts) Rules, 1926, relate only to precepts issued by boards of guardians ;

And whereas it is expedient that rules should be issued which will be applicable to precepts issued by boards of guardians and by councils of counties, and also to precepts issued by any other authority to whose precepts the provisions of the said sub-section (2) have been applied ;

And whereas it is provided by sub-section (4) of the said section that rules made for the purposes of that section shall make provision with respect to certain specified matters and to any other matters for which it may appear necessary to make provision in order to carry the said section into effect ;

And whereas by section 58 of the said Act it is provided that the Minister of Health, after consultation with any local authority or association of local authorities, with whom consultation appears to him to be desirable, may by rules prescribe anything which by the Act is to be prescribed :

Now, therefore, the Minister of Health, after such consultation as is mentioned above, by virtue of the powers conferred upon him by the said sections 9 and 58, and of all powers enabling him in that behalf, hereby makes the following Rules :—

1.—(1) These Rules may be cited as the Rating and Valuation Act (Product of Rates and Precepts) Rules, 1929, and shall come into operation on the date hereof and shall have effect for the purposes of any precept issued by a precepting authority in respect of a period beginning on or after the 1st day of April, 1929.

(2) In these Rules, unless the context otherwise requires—

" The Act " means the Rating and Valuation Act, 1925 ;

" Rate " means a general rate :

(a) See as to this Order the notes to s. 9 of the R. & V. Act, 1925, at p. 1655, ante.

Appendix II.

Provided that, in relation to any period preceding the levy of a general rate, references to rates and to arrears of rates shall be construed as references to the rates in lieu of which a general rate is or will be levied and to arrears of such rates;

"Precepting authority" means the council of a county, a board of guardians, and any other authority issuing precepts to which the provisions of subsection (2) of section 9 of the Act for the time being apply;

"Product of a penny rate" means the amount produced by a rate of one penny in the pound;

"Poundage" means in relation to any rate the amount assessed by that rate (including any additional item thereof) in respect of each pound of rateable value;

"Gross rate income" means in relation to a rating area, or part of a rating area, and in relation to a financial year, the total of the gross amounts appearing in the rate book as assessed in respect of hereditaments in that area, or part of an area, by the rate or rates (including additional items) made in respect of that year, or any portion thereof, increased by—

(a) the amounts of any payments receivable in respect of that year under section 2 (7) of the Act, or under section 133 of the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, as the case may be, and of any contributions made by the Crown; and

(b) any amounts found during that year to be recoverable in respect of rates previously written off as irrecoverable;

"Cost of collection" means—

(i) in relation to a rating area as a whole, the net cost of making, collecting and recovering rates during a financial year, including a proper proportion of such expenses as are attributable in part to the matters aforesaid and in part to the making, collection or recovery of special rates, or to other matters, but not including any proportion of any allowances made to owners or occupiers, or any expenses incurred in connection with the preparation of valuation lists; and

(ii) in relation to a part of a rating area, the sum which bears to the cost of collection in the rating area the same proportion as the total rateable value of that part of the area bears to the total rateable value of the whole area at the commencement of the financial year;

"Loss on collection" means, in relation to a rating area or part of a rating area, and in relation to a financial year, the total amount written off during that year in the rate book as irrecoverable in respect of hereditaments in that area or part, whether in respect of a current rate or in respect of arrears of any previous rate, exclusive of any allowances made to owners or occupiers under section 8 of the Act, but including all other allowances, commissions, and abatements;

"Precept" means a precept which requires a rating authority to levy a rate of a specified poundage;

"Financial officer" means the chief officer charged with the duty of keeping the accounts of a rating authority.

2. The financial officer of every rating authority shall as soon as may be after the close of a financial year calculate in accordance with the directions hereinafter contained the product of a penny rate during that year in the rating area and, where a precept is issuable by a precepting authority in respect of a portion only of the rating area, the product of a penny rate during that year in such portion.

3. Subject as hereinafter provided, the product of a penny rate in any rating area or in any portion thereof, as the case may be, shall be calculated by deducting from the gross rate income of the financial year the cost of collection and the loss on collection, and by dividing the remainder (which sum is hereinafter referred to as "the total rate product") by the number of pence representing the total poundage of the rate or rates:

Provided that if the poundage of the rate or rates of the financial year is not the same throughout the area or portion, as the case may be, the financial officer shall in the first instance calculate the product of a penny rate separately for each part in which a different poundage has been levied, and the product of a penny rate in the area or portion shall be taken to be the sum of the products of penny rates in the several parts comprised therein ;

Provided also that, in any rating area in which the arrears outstanding on the 1st day of April, 1927, of rates in lieu of which a general rate is or will be levied, exceeded five per cent. of the total gross rate income, derived from such rates, of the financial year commencing on that date, the amount to be deducted under this rule from the total gross rate income of any financial year in respect of such losses on collection as are referable to the arrears above-mentioned shall be reduced by such sum (if any) as the district auditor may determine, having regard to the value which, in his opinion, attached to those arrears at the said date.

4. Subject as hereinafter mentioned, the amount due under a precept shall be taken to be the product of a penny rate in the rating area, or in that portion thereof which is included in the area of the precepting authority, as the case may be, multiplied by the number of pence specified in the precept :

Provided that in the case of an urban rating area, or portion of an urban rating area, the amount due as aforesaid shall, in accordance with the provisions of section 9 (2) (c) of the Act, be increased by a sum equal to that by which it would have been increased if no relief from rating had been given to any such hereditaments as are specified in class (3) of Part II. of the Second Schedule to the Act, whether such relief be given under the Act, or under a local Act passed before the first day of April, 1927.

5. The financial officer of every rating authority shall as soon as may be after the close of a financial year ascertain, in accordance with the provisions of the last preceding Rule, the total amount due in respect of that financial year under the precepts issued by a precepting authority to the rating authority ; and, if the total amount so ascertained to be due exceeds the aggregate of the instalments required by such precepts to be paid on account thereof, the rating authority shall, save as hereinafter provided, forthwith pay the balance to the precepting authority :

Provided that the rating authority, subject to their obligation to pay in full the aggregate of the instalments required by the precepts, may defer payment of any sum not exceeding that which bears to the total amount due under the precepts the same proportion as the amount of arrears carried forward at the close of the financial year to which the precepts relate and for the time being still outstanding bears to the total rate product for that financial year.

6.—(1) The estimate of the product of a penny rate in the next ensuing financial year which a rating authority is required to transmit to a precepting authority before the first day of February in each calendar year shall be made in accordance with the principles of these Rules as to the method of ascertaining the product of a penny rate ; and in the case of an urban rating area, or portion of an urban rating area, shall include an estimate of the sum by which the product of a penny rate would be increased if no relief from rating were given (whether under the Act or under a local Act) to such hereditaments as are specified in class (3) of Part II. of the Second Schedule to the Act.

(2) The financial officer in so framing the estimate shall take the latest ascertained figures available for the rating area or portion thereof, as the case may be, and shall modify those figures to such extent as appears to him to be necessary having regard to any alteration in total rateable value which may reasonably be anticipated and to any other material circumstances.

7. There shall be included in the accounts to be submitted by a rating authority to the district auditor the calculations required by these Rules for the determination of the product of a penny rate in the rating area, or in any part thereof during the financial year and of the amount due under any precept issued to the authority in respect of that year, or any part thereof ; and the auditor's certificate allowing the accounts shall be construed as a certificate that, subject to any amendments made by him, such calculations have been properly and correctly made, and any necessary consequential adjustments shall be made in the accounts between the rating authority and the precepting authority.

8. The Rating and Valuation Act (Product of Rates and Precepts) Rules, 1926, shall continue to apply to any precept issued in respect of any period ending on or before the 31st day of March, 1929, but subject to such continued application those Rules are hereby rescinded.

Given under the Official Seal of the Minister of Health, this eighteenth day of January, in the year One thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine.

VALUATION, ENGLAND.

THE RATING AND VALUATION (APPORTIONMENT) ACT (SPECIAL LIST) (AMENDMENT) RULES, 1929, DATED JANUARY 30, 1929, MADE BY THE MINISTER OF HEALTH UNDER SECTION 58 OF THE RATING AND VALUATION ACT, 1925 (15 & 16 GEO. 5, C. 90) AS APPLIED BY SECTIONS 7 (1) (c) AND 10 (2) OF THE RATING AND VALUATION (APPORTIONMENT) ACT, 1928 (18 & 19 GEO. 5, C. 44).

Whereas by the Rating and Valuation (Apportionment) Act (Special List) Rules, 1928 (hereinafter referred to as " the Rules of 1928 "), the Minister of Health in pursuance of the powers conferred upon him by the Rating and Valuation Act, 1925, and the Rating and Valuation (Apportionment) Act, 1928 (hereinafter referred to as " the Act of 1925 " and " the Act of 1928 " respectively), prescribed, inter alia, certain times or dates to be observed in connection with the preparation and approval of lists under the First Schedule to the Act of 1928 ;

And whereas circumstances have arisen which render it desirable that certain of the times or dates so prescribed should be varied :

Now therefore, the Minister of Health by virtue of the powers conferred upon him by the Act of 1925 and the Act of 1928 and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf hereby makes the following Rules :—

1. These Rules may be cited as the Rating and Valuation (Apportionment) Act (Special List) (Amendment) Rules, 1929, and shall come into operation on the date hereof.

2. Notwithstanding anything contained in the Rules of 1928 the prescribed time or date for the purpose of the proceedings specified in the first column of the Schedule hereto shall be that specified in the second column of that Schedule.

3. Nothing in these Rules shall affect the prescribed time or date for any proceeding other than those specified in the Schedule hereto.

SCHEDULE.

Proceeding.	Prescribed Time or Date.
Time within which claims must be sent to the Rating Authority (Paragraph 1 of Schedule 1 of the Act of 1928).	Before the 1st April, 1929.
Date, on or before which a copy of the preliminary draft special list or of the final instalment thereof, must be sent to the Revenue Officer (Paragraph 3 of Schedule 1 of the Act of 1928).	15th April, 1929.

Given under the Official Seal of the Minister of Health, this thirtieth day of January, in the year One thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine.

VALUATION, ENGLAND.

THE RATING AND VALUATION (APPORTIONMENT) ACT (SPECIAL LIST) (AMENDMENT) (NO. 2) RULES, 1929, DATED APRIL 12, 1929, MADE BY THE MINISTER OF HEALTH UNDER SECTION 58 OF THE RATING AND VALUATION ACT, 1925 (15 & 16 GEO. 5, C. 90) AS APPLIED BY SECTIONS 7 (1) (C) AND 10 (2) OF THE RATING AND VALUATION (APPORTIONMENT) ACT, 1928 (18 & 19 GEO. 5, C. 44).

73403.

Whereas by the Rating and Valuation (Apportionment) Act (Special List) Rules, 1928 (hereinafter referred to as " the Rules of 1928 ") which were amended by the Rating and Valuation (Apportionment) Act (Special List) (Amendment) Rules, 1929, the Minister of Health in pursuance of the powers conferred upon him by the Rating and Valuation Act, 1925, and the Rating and Valuation (Apportionment) Act, 1928 (hereinafter referred to as " the Act of 1925 " and " the Act of 1928 " respectively) required inter alia that a rating authority in preparing a preliminary draft special list or a draft special list and an assessment committee in revising and approving a draft special list should comply with certain directions as to the entries to be made in the respective columns of those lists and further directed that no entries should be made in certain columns of the said lists:

And whereas it is now necessary that appropriate entries should be made in the columns last mentioned in accordance with the provisions of the Local Government Act, 1929:

Now therefore, the Minister of Health, by virtue of the powers conferred upon him by the Act of 1925 and the Act of 1928 and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf hereby makes the following rules :—

1. These Rules may be cited as the Rating and Valuation ((Apportionment) Act (Special List) (Amendment) (No. 2) Rules, 1929, and the Rules of 1928, the Rating and Valuation (Apportionment) Act (Special List) (Amendment) Rules, 1929, and these rules may be cited together as the Rating and Valuation (Apportionment) Act (Special List) Rules, 1928 and 1929.

2. These Rules shall come into operation on the date hereof.

3. These Rules shall be construed as one with the Rules of 1928 as amended by the Rating and Valuation (Apportionment) Act (Special List) (Amendment) Rules, 1929.

4. So much of the Rules of 1928 as directs that no entry shall be made in any column of the preliminary draft special list or draft special list shall cease to have effect.

5. The rating authority or, in the case of a draft special list or an instalment thereof which has been deposited, the assessment committee shall, whenever the net annual value of a hereditament has been entered in the draft special list, comply with the following directions :—

(i) In the case of every agricultural hereditament the word " nil " shall be entered in the column headed " rateable value " which is appropriate to the hereditament.

(ii) In the case of every industrial or freight-transport hereditament the rateable value calculated in the manner provided by sub-section (1) of section 68 of the Local Government Act, 1929, shall be entered in the appropriate columns of the draft special list.

6. Rules 10 and 13 (4) of the Rules of 1928 (which relate to totals and summaries) shall be modified as follows :—

(a) any reference in the first paragraph of Rule 10 to columns 8, 9*a* and 10*a* of Part II. of the special list shall be construed as including a reference to columns 9*b*, 10*b* and 11 of that Part;

(b) any reference in the second paragraph of Rule 10 to columns 9 and 12*a* of Part III. of the special list shall be construed as including a reference to columns 12*b* and 13 of that Part; and any reference in that paragraph to columns 10*a*, 10*b* and 11*a* shall be construed as including a reference to columns 10*c* and 11*b* of that Part; and

(c) any reference in Rule 13 (4) to columns 9 and 11*a* of Part III. of the special list shall be construed as including a reference to columns 11*b* and 12 of that Part; and any reference to column 10*a* shall be construed as including a reference to column 10*b* of that Part.

Given under the official seal of the Minister of Health this twelfth day of April, in the year One thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine.

RATING, ENGLAND.

THE RATING AND VALUATION ACT (ESTIMATES OF RELIEF TO RATES) ORDER, 1929, DATED JUNE 6, 1929, MADE BY THE MINISTER OF HEALTH UNDER SECTION 69 (2) OF THE RATING AND VALUATION ACT, 1925 (15 & 16 GEO. 5, C. 90).

Whereas by section 69 (2) of the Rating and Valuation Act, 1925 (in this order referred to as " the Act of 1925 ") it is provided that for the purposes of the Agricultural Rates Acts, 1896 and 1923, and the Tithe Rent Charge (Rates) Act, 1899, the rates in respect of which relief is given under those Acts shall in an urban rating area be taken to be such part of the general rate levied for that area as is estimated by the Minister of Health to be levied in substitution for the rates in respect of which such relief was given at the date of the passing of the Act of 1925:

And whereas by an order dated the 4th day of December, 1928, the Minister of Health, in relation to any urban rating area, or part of an urban rating area, for which a percentage deduction had been determined in accordance with the provisions of Part III. of the Second Schedule to the Act of 1925, estimated, subject as in the order provided and to any further or amending estimate which he might thereafter make, the part of the general rate which is levied in substitution for rates in respect of which relief was given as aforesaid at the date of the passing of the Act of 1925:

And whereas it is expedient that further provision should be made as hereinafter mentioned:

Now therefore, the Minister of Health, by virtue of the powers conferred upon him by the said section 69, and of all powers enabling him in that behalf, hereby makes the following order:—

1. This Order may be cited as the Rating and Valuation Act (Estimates of Relief to Rates) Order, 1929.

2. The above cited Order dated the 4th day of December, 1928, is hereby rescinded.

3. The Minister of Health, subject as hereinafter provided and subject to any further or amending estimate which he may hereafter make, estimates that in any urban rating area, or part of an urban rating area, for which a percentage deduction has been determined in accordance with the provisions of Part III. of the Second Schedule to the Act of 1925,—

(1) the part of the general rate which is levied in substitution for rates in respect of which relief was given under the Agricultural Rates Acts, 1896 and 1923, at the date of the passing of the Act of 1925, is such part of the rate as bears to the whole rate the same proportion as seventy-five reduced by an amount equal to the amount of the percentage deduction determined for the area, or for the part of the area, bears to seventy-five: Provided that this estimate shall not apply for the purposes of the Agricultural Rates Act, 1923, in the case of any rating area or part of a rating area in which a partial consolidation of rates was authorised by a local Act passed before the commencement of the Act of 1925, or for which different percentage deductions have been determined in accordance with the provisions of Part III. of the Second Schedule to the Act of 1925, for different classes of hereditaments: and

Appendix II.

(2) the poundage of the part of the general rate which is levied in substitution for rates in respect of which relief was given under the Tithe Rent Charge (Rates) Act, 1899, at the date of the passing of the Act of 1925, is such part of the total poundage of the rate as bears to that total the same proportion as three hundred reduced by an amount equal to four times the amount of the percentage deduction determined for the area, or for the part of the area, bears to three hundred reduced by an amount equal to three times the amount of the percentage deduction determined for the area, or for the part of the area, as the case may be: Provided that in the case of any rating area or part of a rating area for which different percentage deductions have been determined for different classes of hereditaments, the deduction to be taken into account in using the estimate for the purposes of the Tithe Rent Charge (Rates) Act, 1899, shall be the deduction so determined in respect of tithes.

Given under the official seal of the Minister of Health, this Sixth day of June, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine.

Assistant Secretary, Ministry of Health.

THE RATING AND VALUATION ACTS (FORMS OF PROPOSAL AND CLAIMS) RULES, 1929.

PROVISIONAL REGULATIONS, DATED SEPTEMBER 17, 1929, MADE BY THE MINISTER OF HEALTH UNDER SECTION 58 OF THE RATING AND VALUATION ACT, 1925 (15 & 16 GEO. 5, C. 90), AS APPLIED BY SECTION 10 (2) OF THE RATING AND VALUATION (APPORTIONMENT) ACT, 1928 (18 & 19 GEO. 5, C. 44), AND SECTION 70 OF THE LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACT, 1929 (19 GEO. 5, C. 17), FOR PRESCRIBING CERTAIN FORMS OF PROPOSAL AND CLAIM TO BE USED AFTER THE 1ST DAY OF OCTOBER, 1929.

Whereas by subsection (2) of section 70 contained in Part V. of the Local Government Act, 1929 (hereinafter referred to as "the Act of 1929") it is provided that as from the appointed day, no proposal for the amendment of a valuation list on the ground that a hereditament ought to be shown therein as an industrial or freight transport hereditament or ought to be omitted therefrom (or, while the first new valuation list is in force, shown therein) as being an agricultural hereditament shall be made under section 37 of the Rating and Valuation Act, 1925, by any person except the owner or occupier of the hereditament, and every such proposal shall contain such particulars as may be prescribed;

And whereas by subsection (4) of the said section 70 it is provided that notwithstanding anything in the Rating and Valuation (Apportionment) Act, 1928, no hereditament shall, for the purposes of any valuation list which will come into force after the appointed day, be treated as an agricultural, industrial or freight transport hereditament unless it was so treated for the purposes of the last preceding valuation list except upon a claim that it ought to be so treated being made to the rating authority by the owner or occupier of the hereditament in a prescribed form, which shall be supplied by the rating authority on the demand of the owner or occupier of any hereditament in their area;

And whereas the appointed day for the purposes of the said section is the first day of October, 1929;

And whereas by section 84 of the Act of 1929 it is provided that Part V. of that Act, the Rating and Valuation (Apportionment) Act, 1928, and the Rating and Valuation Act, 1925, shall be construed as one and cited together as the Rating and Valuation Acts, 1925 to 1929;

And whereas by section 58 of the Rating and Valuation Act, 1925, it is provided that the Minister of Health may after consultation with any local authority or association of local authorities with whom consultation appears to him to be desirable may by rules prescribe anything which by the Act is to be prescribed:

Now therefore the Minister of Health hereby certifies under section 2 of the Rules

Appendix II. Publication Act, 1893, that on account of urgency the following Regulations should come into force immediately, and after such consultation as is mentioned above, by virtue of the powers conferred upon him by section 58 of the Rating and Valuation Act, 1925, section 10 of the Rating and Valuation (Apportionment) Act, 1928, and section 70 of the Act of 1929, and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf, hereby makes the following Regulations :—

(1) These Regulations may be cited as the Rating and Valuation Acts (Forms of Proposal and Claim) Rules, 1929, and shall come into operation on the date hereof, but shall not apply in relation to London.

(2) As from the first day of October, 1929, every proposal made under section 37 of the Rating and Valuation Act, 1925, for the amendment of a valuation list on the ground that a hereditament ought to be shown therein as an industrial or freight transport hereditament or ought to be omitted therefrom (or, while the first new valuation list is in force, shown therein) as being an agricultural hereditament and every claim made by an owner or occupier under sub-section (4) of section 70 of the Act of 1929 that a hereditament ought to be treated as an agricultural, industrial or freight-transport hereditament, shall be in the appropriate form A, B, or C set out in the Schedule hereto, or in a form substantially to the like effect.

THE MINISTRY OF TRANSPORT (PRELIMINARY PROCEDURE) RULES, 1920, DATED FEBRUARY 5TH, 1920, MADE BY THE MINISTER OF TRANSPORT UNDER SECTION 29 OF THE MINISTRY OF TRANSPORT ACT, 1919.

The following rules are made by virtue of the power in that behalf conferred by section 29 of the Ministry of Transport Act, 1919 (9 & 10 Geo. 5, c. 50), and shall be complied with in respect of any Order or Order in Council which proposes to authorise the compulsory acquisition or use of lands or easements, or the breaking up of roads, or the construction of works (in these rules referred to as the "proposed Order").

Notices by Advertisement and to Parties Interested.

1. Public notice shall be given of the proposed Order, stating its objects and, in cases where the proposed Order will authorise the compulsory acquisition of lands or the construction of works, describing the lands to be taken and the works to be made, and stating all the counties, and in England and Wales and Ireland the boroughs, urban and rural districts, and in Scotland the burghs and, if the county is divided into districts the district of the county in which such lands or any part thereof are situate, or in which the works or any part thereof may be made, and such notice shall also specify the manner in which and the date by which objections may be made to the proposed Order.

2. Where the work proposed is a tramway or light railway and involves the laying of rails on streets or roads so that for a distance of thirty feet or upwards there shall be a less space than 9 feet and 6 inches, or, if vehicles adapted for use on railways are to be run thereon, 10 feet and 6 inches between the outside of the footpath and the nearest rail of the tramway or light railway, the notice shall describe such places. The notice shall also specify the gauge to be adopted and the motive power to be employed.

3. The notice shall be published once in the London, Edinburgh, or Dublin Gazette as the case may require and also as follows, namely :—

In the case of a proposed Order relating specially to any particular borough or urban district, once in some newspaper published or circulating in that borough or district.

In the case of any other Order, once in some newspaper published or circulating in each of the counties in which any lands may be taken or used compulsorily or any works may be constructed and, where the proposed Order relates to an existing undertaking, once in some newspaper published or circulating in the county in which the principal office of that undertaking is situate.

Every publication in a newspaper under this rule shall be made within 7 days of the publication in the Gazette of the notice for the proposed Order.

4. Within 7 days after the date of the first publication of the notice of the proposed Order a notice in writing shall be sent by registered post to the owner, lessee and occupier (which expression where used in these rules shall mean a ratepayer and any person who, not being a ratepayer, has an interest in the property not less than that of a quarterly tenant) of all lands which may be taken or used compulsorily under the proposed Order specifying the lands to be taken and the purposes for which they are intended to be used.

5. Where the works to be constructed comprise any tramway, or light railway in a street or road, notice in writing shall in like manner be sent to the owner, lessee and occupier of every house, shop or trade premises abutting upon any part of the street or road where for a distance of 30 feet or upwards a less space than 9 feet and 6 inches will intervene between the outside of the footpath and the nearest rail of the tramway, or light railway, or, if it is intended to run thereon vehicles adapted for use on railways, a less space than 10 feet and 6 inches will so intervene.

6. In any case where under the proposed Order water may be abstracted from any stream for the purpose of any canal or navigation, notice in writing shall in like manner be given to the owners, lessees and occupiers of all mills and manufactories or other works using the waters of such stream and situate within 20 miles (measured along the course of the stream) below the point of proposed abstraction, or between that point and the point where such stream becomes navigable, whichever is the less distance.

7. Every notice published in the Gazette and newspapers, and every notice sent to any owner, lessee or occupier under these rules, shall state the place or places where plans, sections and books of reference have been deposited for public inspection; and the place or places where copies of the proposed Order will be obtainable; and the manner in which, and the time within which objections to the grant of the powers of the proposed Order may be made in accordance with the provisions of these rules.

Deposit of Plans, etc.

8. Where the proposed Order is intended to authorise the compulsory acquisition or use of lands a plan with a book of reference thereto and where the proposed Order seeks to authorise the construction of works also a section of such works (such plan, section and book of reference being prepared as hereinafter mentioned), shall be deposited for public inspection at the following places:—

At the office of the Clerk of the Peace in England and Wales, of the principal Sheriff Clerk in Scotland, or of the Clerk of the Crown and Peace in Ireland, as the case may be, of every county riding and division in which works may be made or lands taken or used compulsorily.

At the office of every municipal corporation, urban or rural district council in England and Wales and Ireland and of every town council in Scotland in whose district works may be made or lands taken or used compulsorily.

At the office of the parish council (if any), and, if none, with the chairman of the parish meeting, of every rural parish in England and Wales in which works may be made or lands taken and used compulsorily.

9. Where any tidal lands within the ordinary spring tides are affected a copy of such plans, section, and book of reference, together with an ordnance map on a scale of not less than 1 inch to the mile, on which the work affecting tidal lands shall be accurately laid down, shall be deposited at the marine department of the Board of Trade, and on such copy of the plans all tidal waters shall be coloured blue, and if any bridge across tidal waters is proposed to be authorised the dimensions as regards span and headway of the nearest bridges (if any) across such tidal waters above and below the proposed bridge shall be marked thereon.

10. Where the works intended to be authorised under any proposed Order are to be situate on the banks, bed or foreshore of any river, a copy of so much of the plans and sections as relates to such river shall be deposited with the Minister of Agriculture and Fisheries, with the secretary for Scotland, or with the Irish Office and Department of Agriculture and Technical Instruction for Ireland, as the case may require, and if there be a Board of Conservators for the river, at the office of that Board.

11. Where power is sought under any proposed Order to take a churchyard, burial ground, or cemetery, or any part thereof, or to disturb the bodies interred therein, or where power is sought to take any common or commonable land, a copy of so much of the plans, sections, and book of reference as relates to such churchyard, burial ground or cemetery, or common or commonable land, shall be deposited at the Home Office, or if, in Scotland at the office of the Secretary for Scotland, and a copy of so much of the plans, sections, and book of reference as relates to such common or commonable land, shall be deposited with the Minister of Agriculture and Fisheries, or if in Scotland at the office of the Board of Agriculture for Scotland.

12. Wherever any plans, sections, maps, and books of reference are required by these rules to be deposited, a copy of the notice for the proposed Order as published or proposed to be published in the Gazette shall be deposited therewith.

13. Every deposit of plans, sections, maps, or books of reference required by these rules shall be made on or before the date of the first publication of the notice for the proposed Order.

Mode of Application.

14. The application for the proposed Order must be made by memorial signed or sealed by the applicants and addressed to the Minister of Transport, stating the parties upon whom the powers of the proposed Order will be conferred and the date or dates on which and the newspapers in which the notices for the proposed Order have been or are intended to be published.

The memorial must be lodged on or before the date of the first publication of the notice for the proposed Order, and must be accompanied by—

(a) Six printed copies of the proposed Order. The Order must be printed on one side only of the paper, and each schedule annexed must begin a new page, and the names and addresses of the solicitors and agents (if any) must appear on the outside of the proposed Order.

(b) Six copies of the plans, sections, and book of reference, of the notice as published or proposed to be published, of the estimate of expense, and of an ordnance map on a scale of 6 inches to the mile in the case of a tramway or light railway in a street or road or trolley vehicle system and of 1 inch to the mile in the case of other works, with the line of tramway, light railway or trolley vehicle system or works laid down thereon, or (if lands only are to be acquired) on a scale of 6 inches to the mile with the situation and extent of the lands marked thereon.

(c) A fee of £50 by cheque payable to the secretary of the Ministry of Transport to cover the ordinary expenses of settling the Order. (This fee will not necessarily cover the cost of inquiries or other matters arising out of the application.)

Deposit of Copies of the Proposed Order.

15. Not later than the seventh day after the first publication of the notice for the proposed Order a printed copy of the proposed Order shall be deposited for public inspection at the offices at which the plans, sections, and book of reference were deposited for public inspection in conformity with these rules, and printed copies of the proposed Order shall be placed on sale at the place or places mentioned in the notices for the proposed Order at a reasonable price not exceeding (without permission of the Minister of Transport) one shilling per copy.

16. Within the same period two printed copies of the proposed Order shall be deposited as follows :—

At the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons and at The Parliament Office of the House of Lords and With His Majesty's Treasury and The General Post Office.
If the same relates to England and Wales with The Home Office and
    The Ministry of Health.
If the same relates to Scotland with The Secretary for Scotland.
If the same relates to Ireland with The Irish Office.
If the same relates to tidal lands within the ordinary spring tides or to tidal waters with The Marine Department, Board of Trade.

Appendix II.

If the same authorises abstraction of water from a stream for the purpose of a canal or navigation with
The Minister of Agriculture and Fisheries and
The Conservators (if any) of the river affected.
If the same authorises the acquisition of common or commonable lands with the Minister of Agriculture and Fisheries or (if in Scotland) with the Board of Agriculture for Scotland.
If the same affects Crown Property with
The Commissioners of [Crown Lands] (a) and
The Commissioners of Works or (if in Ireland) the Commissioners of Public Works in Ireland.
If the same affects the Duchies of Cornwall or Lancaster with
The Office of the Duchy affected.
If the same proposes the construction of any work in the county of London with The London County Council
If the same involves interference with roads (otherwise than for works shown on the plans and sections) with Every road authority affected.

Estimate of Expense.

17. An estimate of the expense of any works to be authorised by the proposed Order shall be made and signed by the person making the same, and if the works include any railway, tramway, light railway, tramroad, trolley vehicle system, canal, dock or harbour, the estimate of the expense thereof shall be in the appropriate form set out in the appendix to these rules or as near thereto as circumstances permit.

Form and Contents of Plans, Sections, and Book of Reference.

18. The plans and sections and the book of reference to the plans shall be in the same form and contain the same information as would be required by the Standing Orders of the House of Commons relative to Private Bills, had the powers sought by the proposed Order been contained in a Private Bill presented to Parliament.

Objections and Procedure thereon.

19. Any person desirous of objecting to a proposed Order must do so by a memorial addressed to the Minister and printed or type-written on one side only of foolscap paper.

20. Any memorial objecting to a proposed Order must be sent by registered post addressed to the Secretary, Ministry of Transport, 6, Whitehall Gardens, London, S.W.1, and posted not later than the 28th day after the date on which the last publication of the notice for the Order shall have appeared in the newspapers.

21. Every such memorial shall be sealed or signed by the party objecting or by some responsible and duly authorised person on his behalf. It shall state the interest of the party objecting in the subject matter of the proposed Order, and shall state concisely the objections to the proposed Order.

22. Should the Minister decide to hold an inquiry into the merits of any proposed Order, not less than ten clear days' previous notice in writing addressed to the parties applying for the proposed Order or their agents, and to the parties objecting to the proposed Order or their agents, shall be given of the time and place of any such inquiry.

(a) Words in square brackets substituted for " Woods " in pursuance of the Forestry (Title of Commissioners of Woods) Order, 1924.

Miscellaneous.

23. The proposed Order when deposited at the Ministry of Transport must be accompanied by a copy of every private or local Act, charter, deed or other document of like nature referred to in the Order, or which may be directly affected by any of the provisions thereof, and in the case of a limited company by a printed copy of the memorandum and articles of association and of any registered special resolution and in the case of any other company, by the deed, instrument or Act incorporating the company.

24. Proof of compliance with these rules will require to be given within such time after the deposit of the proposed Order as the Minister of Transport may fix, but not less than six days' notice will be given of the time and place at which such proof must be produced. Proof will also be required that the provisions of Standing Order 39 of the Standing Orders of both Houses of Parliament have been complied with.

All such proofs of compliance must be given by statutory declaration.

25. Where a proposed Order is submitted by a local authority, proof will by required that such proposed Order has been submitted in pursuance of a resolution passed at a special meeting of the local authority held after 10 days' previous notice of the same and of the purpose thereof has been given in the manner in which notices of meetings of such local authority are usually given.

26. When a proposed Order has been approved by the Minister, a notice of the approval of the same shall be published as an advertisement once in the London, Edinburgh, or Dublin Gazette, as the case may be, and once in each newspaper in which the original advertisement of the proposed Order was published. The notice shall give the name of the office where printed copies of the proposed Order are on sale at a reasonable price not exceeding (without permission of the Minister of Transport) one shilling per copy.

27. When a proposed Order has been approved and before it is made, a copy of the Gazette and of each local newspaper containing the notices of the approval of the Order shall be deposited at the Ministry of Transport.

ROAD VEHICLES.

THE ROAD VEHICLES (REGISTRATION AND LICENSING) REGULATIONS, 1924, DATED DECEMBER 23, 1924, MADE BY THE MINISTER OF TRANSPORT (a).

To the County Councils of the several Administrative Counties in Great Britain.

To the Councils of the several County Boroughs in England and Wales and of the Royal Parliamentary and Police Burghs concerned in Scotland.

And to all others whom it may concern.

The Minister of Transport under the powers conferred on him under or by virtue of the Motor Car Acts, 1896 and 1903, section 13 of the Finance Act, 1920, the Roads Act, 1920, and the Order in Council made thereunder, and section 22 of the Finance Act, 1921, sections 14 and 15 of the Finance Act, 1922, section 10 of the Finance Act, 1923, and section 18 of the Finance Act, 1924, and any and every other power him hereunto enabling, hereby without prejudice to any further exercise of the said powers, makes and prescribes the following Regulations with respect to the licensing and registration of mechanically propelled vehicles, the licensing of carriages and matters incidental to such licensing and registration, that is to say :—

(a) The only part of these Regulations it has been thought necessary to set out, is that dealing with the closing of highways to specified forms of traffic. The remainder of the Regulations dealing with the licensing and registration of motor cars and the Road Vehicles (Registration and Licensing) Order, 1921, have accordingly been omitted as outside the scope of district councils.

1.—(1) These Regulations may be cited as " The Road Vehicles (Registration and Licensing) Regulations, 1924."

(2) In these Regulations the expression " Council " means County Council as defined in the Roads Act, 1920.

The expression " approved " means approved by the Minister of Transport.

* * * * * *

(3) The Interpretation Act, 1889, shall apply to the interpretation of these regulations in like manner as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

* * * * * *

38.—(1) Applications by a Council under section 7 (4) of the Roads Act, 1920, that the driving of vehicles on any highway may be prohibited or restricted shall be in the approved form and shall be signed by the Clerk to the Council, and shall show that the application is made in pursuance of a resolution passed by the Council or by a Committee of the Council charged with the supervision and control of highways and the traffic thereon.

(2) The notice to be given under section 7 (4) of the Roads Act, 1920, that an Order has been made under that section shall be given by the authority concerned by a notice in the approved form published in the London or Edinburgh Gazette as the case requires and once at least in each of two consecutive weeks in some local newspaper circulating in the district in which the highway to which the Order relates is situate, and by such notice or warning boards or signs erected in such positions on or near the said highway and in such other manner as may be directed by the Order.

(3) No person shall drive or cause to be driven any mechanically propelled vehicle upon any highway with respect to which an Order has been made under section 7 (4) of the Roads Act, 1920, in contravention of such Order.

39. The Clerk of the Council and any other officer authorised by the Council are respectively empowered to perform any duty or exercise any power of the Council for the purpose of carrying these Regulations into effect.

40. These Regulations shall not apply to Northern Ireland.

41. These Regulations shall come into force on the 1st day of January, 1925.

THE PRESCRIPTION OF BUILDING LINES ORDER, 1927, DATED 11TH JANUARY, 1927, MADE BY THE MINISTER OF TRANSPORT UNDER S. 5 (1) (a) OF THE ROADS IMPROVEMENT ACT, 1925.

Whereas by sub-section (1) of section 5 of the Roads Improvement Act, 1925 (hereinafter referred to as " the empowering enactment ") it is enacted as follows :—

> " Subject to the provisions of this section a county council or other highway authority may by resolution prescribe in relation to either side of any part of a highway maintainable by them a frontage line for building (in this section referred to as " a building line ") :
>
> (a) the Minister may by order direct that a building line shall not be prescribed under this section in relation to any class of road classified by him under sub-section (2) of section 17 of the Ministry of Transport Act, 1919, until notification of the building line proposed has been sent to him and his observations with respect thereto have been considered " :

And whereas in the empowering enactment and in this Order the expression " the Minister " means the Minister of Transport.

Now therefore the Minister in exercise of the power given to him by the empowering enactment, and without prejudice to any further exercise of such power, hereby orders as follows :—

1. The Minister directs that a building line shall not be prescribed under the empowering enactment in relation to any road which, at the time when the building line is proposed, is classified by him either as a Class I. road, or as a Class II. road, until notification of the building line proposed has been sent to him and his observations with respect thereto have been considered.

2. This Order shall come into force on the 1st day of February, 1927, and, subject to any variations or amendments which may be made by any further Order, shall remain in force until revoked by the Minister.

S. R. & O., 1927, No. 57.

THE LONDON TRAFFIC (LIGHTING AND GUARDING OF STREET WORKS) REGULATIONS, 1927, DATED 2ND FEBRUARY, 1927, MADE BY THE MINISTER OF TRANSPORT UNDER THE LONDON TRAFFIC ACT, 1924.

Whereas by section 10 of the London Traffic Act, 1924, and paragraph 19 of the Third Schedule to that Act the Minister of Transport is empowered to make Regulations to have effect in the London Traffic area for the lighting and guarding of street works.

Now therefore in exercise of the powers in that behalf vested in him the Minister of Transport hereby makes the following Regulations :—

1 These Regulations may be cited as the London Traffic (Lighting and Guarding of Street Works) Regulations, 1927, and shall come into force on the 1st March, 1927.

2. The London Traffic (Lighting of Street Works) Regulations, 1925, are hereby revoked.

3. For the purpose of these Regulations the term " night " shall be taken to mean the period between half an hour after sunset and half an hour before sunrise and any period of fog or abnormal darkness and the term " day " shall be taken to mean any time other than night as so defined.

4. When any materials, rubbish or other thing (hereinafter referred to as an obstruction) are placed upon or any opening or excavation (hereinafter referred to as an excavation) is made in the carriageway of any street within the London Traffic area so as to obstruct or endanger the passage of traffic over any part of such carriageway it shall be the duty of the person by whose order or under whose direction such obstruction or excavation exists to—

(a) keep any such obstruction which is not readily visible, and any such excavation marked by day by one or more posts carrying red flags or boards with a red ground ; and

(b) keep such obstruction or excavation continuously lighted at night by one or more lamps showing a red light ; and all such posts or lamps shall be placed in such a manner and in such positions as to indicate sufficiently to foot passengers and drivers of vehicles approaching from any direction the position and full extent of the obstruction or excavation.

Provided that, without limitation or restriction of the foregoing provisions, if any such obstruction or excavation exceeds 4 feet in width measured at right angles to any line of traffic or 12 feet in length measured parallel thereto, lamps showing its full width shall be placed at intervals of not more than 4 feet measured at right angles to the line of traffic and lamps showing its full length shall be placed at intervals of not more than 12 feet measured parallel thereto.

5. Nothing in these Regulations shall be deemed to prevent the temporary removal of any lamp or post hereby required where removal is necessary to permit of any traffic being worked through the part of the carriageway of any street or highway which is obstructed, provided that in any such case any lamps or posts which are so removed shall be replaced immediately after the passage of such traffic, and a person shall be kept in attendance at the point or points of entry of any such traffic and, if necessary, at the point of exit to remove and replace the lamps or posts and to warn approaching traffic.

6. In addition to the foregoing provisions, any person by whose order or under whose direction any such excavation exists of such a nature or in such a position that foot passengers or vehicles are in danger of falling into it, shall provide adequate and effective protection around such excavation, unless such protection would obstruct the passage of vehicles using a tramway or light railway, and in that event it shall not be necessary so to protect the excavation, but instead of so doing there shall be displayed conspicuously not less than 4 feet above the ground close to the excavation a warning notice, or, if the excavation is extensive, warning notices sufficient in number to give adequate warning of the danger.

7. Where an excavation, whether made in connection with a tramway or light railway or otherwise, is not clearly visible for a distance of 25 yards to traffic approaching from any direction on any part of the carriageway of the road in which the excavation exists or of any road entering or intersecting such road, there shall be placed on the kerb, or on the edge of any such road from which the excavation is not so visible on the nearside of traffic approaching the excavation a warning notice or warning notices of the existence of such excavation, and any such notice or notices shall be placed at a distance of 25 yards, or as near thereto as may be practicable, from the excavation ; provided that notwithstanding anything hereinbefore contained in the case of an entering or intersecting road such notice or notices shall be placed at a distance not less than 10 yards from the junction of such road with the road in which the excavation exists.

8. All warning notices required under Regulations 6 and 7 hereof shall have a red ground and shall be clearly visible and legible by day and night and for that purpose shall be adequately lighted by night.

9. No lamp exhibiting a light other than a red light shall be used for any purpose mentioned in the foregoing Regulations other than for rendering the warning notices referred to in Regulations 6 and 7 hereof clearly visible by night, provided that nothing in the foregoing Regulations shall be deemed to prevent the use, in addition to the lamps provided in pursuance of these Regulations of lamps showing a white light so far as may be necessary to enable work to be carried on at night.

10. If any person acts in contravention of or fails to carry out his duty under any of the provisions of the foregoing Regulations, he shall be guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding £5.

11. Any person who has charge of a lamp or lamps provided in pursuance of the foregoing Regulations and who fails to keep such lamp or lamps properly lighted at any time during the required period shall be guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding £5.

12. The provisions of any Act (whether public, general, or local or private) bye-laws or regulations dealing with the same subject-matter as these Regulations, and the provisions of any Act conferring power of making bye-laws or regulations dealing with the same subject-matter as these Regulations, shall, so far as such provisions apply to any carriageway in any street to which these Regulations apply, be suspended so long as these Regulations remain in force. Provided that nothing contained in these Regulations shall exempt any person from any liability for causing any obstruction or making any excavation nor free him from any obligation imposed upon him to obtain any consents which may be necessary before making any obstruction or excavation nor from any obligation to fence or otherwise render safe any obstruction or excavation.

13. Nothing in these Regulations shall—

(a) affect the operation, prior to the date of these Regulations, of the London Traffic (Lighting of Street Works) Regulations, 1925, or anything done or suffered under those Regulations, or

Appendix II.

(b) affect any right, privilege, obligation or liability acquired, accrued or incurred under those Regulations, or

(c) affect any fine or punishment incurred in respect of a breach of those Regulations, or

(d) affect any legal proceedings or remedy in respect of any such right, privilege, obligation, liability, fine, or punishment, and any such legal proceeding or remedy may be instituted continued or enforced and any such fine or punishment may be imposed as if these Regulations had not been made.

SEA DEFENCE.

CIRCULAR 652.

TO COUNCILS OF COASTAL TOWNS.

MINISTRY OF HEALTH,
14*th December*, 1925.

SEA DEFENCE WORKS (a).

SIR,—I am directed by the Minister of Health to state that he has had occasion to deal recently with a number of important schemes of sea defence, and he has asked one of his engineering inspectors, Mr. Crosthwaite, who has had large experience of this class of case, for a report on the general subject. This report will be of interest to those local authorities who are concerned with works of sea defence, and a copy is enclosed for the information of the council.

As pointed out by Mr. Crosthwaite, works of sea defence involve peculiar difficulties of their own, and it is not possible to decide what works, if any, can be carried out with advantage in any particular case except after full investigation of the local conditions.

There are, however, some general considerations which need to be emphasised.

(1) Before any scheme is undertaken, its financial aspect should be carefully studied. The council should consider whether the advantages anticipated from the scheme will produce such a return in public benefit as to warrant the public expenditure, often large, which is involved. The Minister has found that in some cases this broad financial aspect has not been sufficiently examined and taken into account by the local authority.

(2) Public money can be rightly spent only on works of public advantage. Many schemes of sea defence works largely benefit private interests, and it is proper in such cases that those private interests should make a reasonable contribution towards the cost.

(3) There are two further considerations of a technical nature which the experience of the Ministry of Health and of the Local Government Board show cannot be too strongly emphasised both for devising satisfactory schemes and for economy. There are instances where much money could have been saved if these conditions had been observed.

  (i) Before sea defence works are undertaken, the council should obtain the advice of competent engineers with special experience in such works.

  (ii) It is equally important, though this consideration has hitherto been seldom observed, except where a competent engineer is permanently employed by the local authority, that the works should be inspected from time to time, say every six or twelve months, by a competent expert, in order to see whether any repair or additional work should be undertaken to preserve the works already done. This policy of a "stitch in time" is essential for economy, and there are cases where heavy expenditure would have been avoided had this inspection been systematically made, and the necessary works carried out in good time.

I am, etc.

ENCLOSURE TO CIRCULAR 652.

SEA DEFENCE WORKS.

NECESSITY FOR SEA DEFENCE WORKS.

The prime cause necessitating sea defence works is the wasting of the foreshore through the transport of material, generally in the direction of flood tide currents complicated in many cases by the direction of prevailing winds. If any artificial barriers are projected from the foreshore, such as piers and solid jetties, so as to prevent the travel of material, the length of beach lying beyond the obstruction is almost certain to suffer, and rapid encroachment by the sea will result. Also, where extensive series of groynes have been constructed in order to protect the foreshore, the travelling material is trapped, and the erosion of the coast beyond is aggravated and there is a continuous loss of land.

A good example of this is a case where the construction of the harbour piers prevented sand and shingle from reaching the beach to the south, which was almost denuded down to the clay, and great damage resulted to the then existing sea defence works, destroying groynes and undermining walls. In consequence the beach had to be re-groyned. The new groynes collected in time a fair amount of beach and it is now fairly safe, but the shore still further south has suffered severely.

Another cause that accentuates beach erosion is the construction of sea walls fronting seaside towns. These walls are obviously necessary to protect roads and promenades, but unfortunately the rebound of waves breaking against their face almost invariably leads to scour and to the cutting out and denuding of the foreshore. This attack is generally countered by groyning, which is not always successful, with the result that the walls may become undermined and in some cases, unless underpinned or protected in some way, destroyed. The difficulty is that it is almost impossible to say prior to construction what the exact effect of a wall in any one place will be.

Again, on sandy foreshores there are frequently shifting channels and gut-ways parallel to the coast line that are a very great difficulty because in some conditions of wind and tide, which it is almost impossible to foresee, these may move landwards from positions in which they have remained stationary for years and cause havoc to groynes and foundations. This is said to have recently occurred off Silloth, on the Solway Firth, where vessels that could formerly lie only at a considerable distance from the shore were able, owing to an alteration of the channel, to come to within a few yards from the ends of the groynes, which were undermined. It has also been suggested that the destruction of a comparatively new sea wall at Lowestoft may be due to a general deepening of the sea bed beyond low water mark. This is, however, more or less a matter of conjecture, as there are not sufficient data upon which to form a reliable opinion.

DESIGN OF SEA DEFENCE WORKS.

From the brief description given above of the causes that necessitate sea defence works, it will be readily understood that an engineer who has to design them is faced by a complicated problem, and he is usually called in only when some failure has actually occurred, and works must be done at once to prevent the damage spreading. To design such works successfully, a fairly complete knowledge of the local conditions is essential. That is to say, reliable information is needed of prevailing winds and tidal currents, the direction of littoral drift and the effect of wind coming from any direction on the latter. To obtain such information, observations must extend over a considerable period, for if they are made in the fine summer months the results may prove quite different from what would prevail in rough winter weather, or during the extreme high and low waters of the equinoxes. When called in to advise, the engineer is almost always met with a lack of reliable information on all these points, and especially can obtain no information of any kind relating to shifting channels off the shore. All he is likely to be told is that the directions of prevailing winds and littoral drift are so and so, and that the damage is caused when rough weather synchronises with exceptionally high tides, all of which he knows already. On such data and on what information he can pick up in a few days, he has to design his works, for when sea defences are breached they must be repaired at once, and it is small wonder if at times the works should turn out a failure.

This lack of local knowledge applies especially to small authorities who cannot usually be expected to have a surveyor capable of taking reliable tidal observations or making marine surveys and designing sea defence work, and in consequence an outside engineer has to be called in.

Even among the larger authorities, however, the local conditions with regard to tidal currents, etc., have seldom been systematically and properly recorded, and there is no record at the Ministry of any place, large or small, where a marine survey has been made extending, say, half a mile to sea and along the whole sea front sufficient to enable shifting channels to be studied. This would entail a proper survey with soundings taken on definite lines and repeated at intervals so as to ascertain what is happening out of sight, below low water. The soundings would, of course, be referred in all cases to a definite datum so that the successive surveys could be compared.

Tidal current observations should also be made at different states of tide and wind. These would not require the repetition necessary in the case of soundings, but might be added to from time to time, when exceptional conditions occur, or when the soundings showed that there had been material change in the shifting channels, likely to affect tidal currents. Such a survey to be of value should be made by an engineer who has had experience of marine surveying. It would of necessity be somewhat expensive, but, if once made, the repetition soundings, if taken on definite lines and permanently marked, could be taken by a competent surveyor or an assistant working under instructions.

At most large harbours, these periodic surveys are regularly made and, though they take considerable time, are of the greatest value. At most seaside places, the original survey would take one engineer and an assistant not more than three or four months, given favourable weather, while the periodic soundings could probably be done in a month or six weeks.

FAILURE OF SEA DEFENCE.

The failure of sea defence works may usually be attributed to :—

(1) Faulty design.
(2) Neglected maintenance.
(3) Unusual local circumstances that could not have been foreseen.

Few cases have come under the notice of the Ministry where works have actually failed which could not have been saved, at any rate to some extent, if remedial measures had been taken in time.

In a number of cases, walls have been designed of insufficient strength and with shallow foundations. Frequently these have been made safe by underpinning, piling in front, or by the provision of breast walls or buttresses carried down to a solid foundation. Though in these cases the original walls cannot be said to have actually failed, the cost of such remedial measures has been far more than the expense which would have been incurred had a more substantial design been carried out in the first instance.

Where actual failure has resulted, it has almost always been where the local authority has put off doing anything until too late. Thus, in one case, a wall was constructed about forty years ago, with the foundations reaching to only about half-tide level. When constructed, the shingle foreshore almost reached the coping level, but during recent years the level fell, as the result of erosion, and a few years ago the wall was undermined. Part fell and great damage was done. The authority consulted a well-known firm of engineers who prepared a scheme for repairing the damaged part and strengthening the whole length of wall. When tenders were obtained after the war, prices were at their highest and the cost was greater than could be faced. The engineers advised the authority to go on with the repairs and the protective works for the part of the wall that was actually in danger at the moment, in fact to spend as much as they could afford at the time, postponing such works as could be omitted with safety, but warning the authority that the remainder of the old wall would not be safe until the whole had been strengthened. The abridged scheme was consequently carried out.

Since the work was finished, there has been a continued denudation of the foreshore, and further lengths of the foundations of the old wall were exposed. Nothing was, however, done to extend the protective works as recommended by the engineers, and afterwards, during rough weather, the sea washed the gravel from under the old wall and part of it was undermined, bridging a breach under the foundations through which the wall backing was sucked out and a large cavity formed. The engineers were again called in, but all they could do was to repeat the advice previously given.

Another town where sea defences have constantly been a source of trouble may be referred to. Here, about twenty years ago, a sea wall and a series of groynes were erected for the protection of the beach. The wall was of quite satisfactory design, the foundations being taken down to about low water level and founded on gravel as it was not practicable to get any other foundation. The landward end of the groynes was carried up above high water level, and for about fifteen years the work seemed safe, there being a very good accumulation of gravel against the face of the wall. Later, however, the beach lowered considerably. Some of the groynes were partly washed out and, owing to the difficulty (this was during the war) of obtaining satisfactory labour and timber, it was not possible to maintain them and some were completely destroyed. The wall then became undermined and several lengths fell. A large sum was spent on rebuilding to make good the damage, but eventually it was found impossible to maintain the beach, and finally it was decided to give up all attempt to maintain the old line of sea wall and an entirely new form of wall was adopted, landwards of the old.

In this case, it is somewhat difficult to attribute the failure to any particular cause. The design of the wall was satisfactory, and it would have stood indefinitely had it been possible to maintain a good beach in front. The groynes were well constructed and were kept in repair, except for some time during the war, when, as explained above, there was difficulty. The only defect in design suggested is that the groynes were perhaps too high and not long enough to maintain a sufficiently flat beach. It is well known that in rough weather high groynes cause a scour by waves breaking over them and cutting out the beach on the lee side. In order to avoid this danger, groynes are sometimes lowered by removing sheeting where owing to scour they become too high, but in this case this could not be done as they were constructed with piles driven close together.

To account for this failure, it has been further suggested that there may have been a general deepening of the sea outside low water mark that caused the loss of beach material, but unfortunately no such survey as already suggested had been made, so there are no data either to confirm or refute this view. It is unfortunate that there was no survey in this particular case, for, if the damage is due to such general deepening of the sea bed, groynes will not stop it and the fate of the defence works now under construction will be the same as the last, and before they are finished they will have cost a large sum.

The above instances have been described somewhat fully, for they are typical of failures that may be expected when works from some cause prove ineffective, and the causes that have led to these failures are also typical.

It is sometimes asked why should there be more failures of sea defence than of other classes of works. There are several answers to this question. Other works have not the sea constantly attacking their foundations. Again, sea works are usually much more expensive than inland works, and the amount of money available is unfortunately limited. Consequently engineers, in order to keep within the available resources of their employers, have to take risks that in other circumstances would not be necessary. With unlimited money, no doubt, permanent sea defence works could be put up almost anywhere, but local authorities are not in this fortunate position. Where risks are taken, it may turn out all right, but, whether known risks are taken or not, all sea works should be kept under careful observation so that any defects that may develop may be remedied at once before the damage has time to spread.

These cases which have been instanced were on a large scale, but the need of competent advice may be equally important, relatively, in small cases. In one instance, groynes were put in and taken out without proper advice, as the majority in the council swayed for or against them, with resulting waste.

The maintenance of sea defence works is always the great difficulty, and before incurring a large expenditure there is always the tendency to " wait till something happens." Then it probably is too late, for the something generally happens during the rough winter weather when works of maintenance or reconstruction are impossible.

GENERAL REMARKS.

It is obviously impossible to lay down any rule as to coast protection works owing to the varying conditions at different places.

It would, however, tend towards economy if councils who have not a surveyor fully competent to design such works would employ a competent outside engineer, not only to advise them on works to be carried out, but to inspect the works annually and report what maintenance works, if any, are required. If this practice had been followed in some cases recently before the Ministry, much money would have been saved, whereas the cost of such an annual inspection would not be great.

It is also desirable, where coast works are required for the protection of a flat sandy coast, to have an accurate marine survey extending, say, half a mile to sea, with soundings taken on definite lines. The survey should extend for some distance each side of the place to be protected, and the soundings should be repeated annually or at such intervals as may be recommended by the responsible engineer. The survey should also show current observations during different conditions of tide and wind and, to be of value, should be made by an engineer who has had special experience in marine surveying.

If local authorities would adopt this proposal, any engineer called in later would have proper data upon which to design works, whereas at present, without such a survey, he is usually groping in the dark.

But, as important as the survey is the annual, or six-monthly, inspection of works by the engineer who designed them. He will take more personal interest in their preservation and will probably know what to look for better than another.

In fact, if local authorities would employ a competent engineer, do what he tells them, and not follow amateur advice, there would not be so much trouble with sea defence works, though at certain places, as already instanced, unforeseen difficulties are bound to arise.

SHOPS REGULATION.

REGULATIONS UNDER THE SHOPS ACTS.

(April 1st, 1912.)

In pursuance of the powers conferred on me by the Shops Act, 1912, I hereby make the following regulations :—

I.

Notice to be given by Occupier as to Assistants' Weekly Half-holiday (section 1 (2)).

1. The notice required to be affixed in a shop specifying the day or days on which the shop assistants employed therein are not employed after half-past one o'clock shall be in the form marked I. in the schedule to these regulations.

2. The notice shall be kept constantly affixed in a position where it may be readily seen and read by any person whom it affects, and shall be renewed whenever it becomes defaced or otherwise ceases to be clearly legible.

If the half-holiday is given on different days to the assistants employed in different rooms or departments of a shop, a separate notice shall be affixed in each such room or department.

3. The notice shall be affixed before the assistants to whom it relates cease work on the Saturday preceding the week during which it is to have effect.

Inquiries by Local Authorities as to Orders fixing the Day on which Shops are to be closed for the Weekly Half-holiday (section 4 (2)).

4. Before the local authority make an Order fixing the day of the weekly half-holiday for any class of shops, they shall take the following steps for ascertaining whether the occupiers of a majority of that class of shops approve the order :—

(1) They shall cause a register of the shops of that class to be prepared in the manner hereinafter provided.

(2) They shall give notice of their intention to make the Order and of the times and place at which the register may be inspected by any shopkeeper affected, in the form marked II. in the schedule to these regulations. The notice shall either be advertised in at least two newspapers circulating in the area to which the Order is to apply, or be posted up in streets and public places in the area to which the Order is to apply, in such positions and in such manner that it is likely to be seen and can easily be read by persons interested.

(3) They shall take a vote of the occupiers of the shops of that class in the manner hereinafter provided or, if the local authority have received an application in writing purporting to be signed by the occupiers of a majority of the shops of that class, they may in lieu of taking a vote take such steps as they think fit to verify the signatures to the application, and signatures so verified shall, unless reason appear to the contrary, be taken to mean that the occupiers whose signatures they purport to be approve the order.

Provided that if shops of any class are required under a closing order in force before the 1st May, 1912, to close on a certain day of the week (other than Saturday) at one o'clock in the afternoon, it shall not be necessary to take a vote of the occupiers of those shops in respect of a proposal to make an order fixing that day as the day of the weekly half-holiday, unless representations are made to the local authority by a substantial proportion of the occupiers in favour of another day being fixed.

Appendix II. Conditions for Mixed Shops remaining open on Weekly Half-holiday (section 10 (1)).

5. Where any trade or business exempted from the provisions of the Act as to closing on the weekly half-holiday is carried on in the same shop with any trade or business not so exempted, the shop shall only be kept open for the purpose of the exempted trade or business on the day fixed for the weekly half-holiday in respect of the trade or business not exempted, on the following conditions:—(a) After the hour of closing on the day of the weekly half-holiday, whether fixed by the occupier or by an Order made by the local authority under the Act, there shall be exhibited in some conspicuous places on the exterior and in the interior of the shop notices in letters of the size of not less than two inches in accordance with the form marked IV. in the schedule to these regulations; (b) so far as reasonably practicable no goods in connection with the trade or business not exempted shall be exhibited either inside or outside the shop.

II

Notice of Intention to make Closing Order.

6. As soon as may be after the local authority are satisfied that a primâ facie case is made out for making a Closing Order they shall cause a register to be prepared in the manner hereinafter provided.

7.—(1) Notice of the intention of the local authority to make a Closing Order shall be given in the form marked A in the schedule to these regulations, and unless a copy of the proposed order be annexed to it, it shall specify the area within which and the class or classes of shops to which the order will apply and the proposed days and hours of closing. The notice shall

(i) be advertised at least twice in a newspaper or newspapers circulating in the area to which the Order is to apply;

(ii) be posted up in streets and public places in the area to which the Order is to apply in such positions and in such manner that it is likely to be seen and can easily be read by persons interested; and

(iii) be given to any ratepayer in the area making reasonable application for it.

If the Order applies to an area with a population of not more than 5,000, the local authority may, in lieu of advertising the notice in a newspaper or newspapers, cause a copy to be sent to the occupier of every shop known to be affected by the Order.

(2) If anything in the Order affects post office business, a copy of the notice shall be sent to the Postmaster-General.

8. The prescribed period within which objections may be made to the proposed order shall be four weeks.

Ascertaining Opinion of Occupiers of Shops.

9. If the local authority, after considering any objections or suggestions received by them in pursuance of the notice of their intention to make an Order, desire to proceed with the Order, they shall, for the purpose of ascertaining whether the occupiers of at least two-thirds in number of the shops to be affected by the Order approve the Order, either take a vote in the manner hereinafter provided or, if they have received an application in writing for the making of the Order, purporting to be signed by the occupiers of at least two-thirds in number of the shops to be affected by the Order, they may in lieu of taking a vote take such steps as they think fit to verify the signatures to the application, and signatures so verified shall, unless reason appear to the contrary, be taken to mean that the occupiers whose signatures they purport to be approve the Order.

Notice, etc., when Order submitted to Secretary of State.

10. When the local authority have made a Closing Order, a notice, in the form marked C in the schedule to these regulations, shall be given in the manner above prescribed for the notice of intention to make an Order.

11. In submitting the Order to the Secretary of State, the local authority shall inform him as to the method adopted by them for ascertaining the opinion of the occupiers of shops, and as to any matters which they think it desirable to bring to his notice, and shall forward to him copies of any notices given by them under these regulations and other evidence that the regulations have been duly complied with, verified by a certificate signed by their clerk.

Local Inquiries.

12. When the Secretary of State directs a local inquiry to be held with regard to a Closing Order it shall be held at such place as the local authority, with the approval of the Secretary of State, may appoint, and at such time as may be fixed by the person appointed by the Secretary of State to hold the inquiry (hereinafter called "the Commissioner").

13. Not less than three weeks before the time of holding the inquiry notice thereof and of the place where the inquiry will be held shall be given in the manner above prescribed for the notice of intention to make an Order.

14. The inquiry shall be held in public, and any person who, in the opinion of the commissioner, is affected by the Closing Order, may appear and be heard either in person or by counsel, solicitor, or agent.

15. The Commissioner may give such directions as he thinks fit as to the order in which the objections to the Order shall be considered; and, if any person who has not sent objections in writing to the Secretary of State claims to be heard at the inquiry, may require him to state his objections in writing.

16. The Commissioner may adjourn the inquiry from time to time as he thinks desirable.

17. If the objections to the Order made by more than one person appearing at the inquiry seem to the Commissioner to be the same in substance, he may select any person whom he considers representative of the largest number of the persons affected by the Order, to state such objections, and to call evidence (if required); provided that any other person making the same objections may be heard subsequently with the consent of the Commissioner.

18. Subject to the foregoing rules, all the proceedings shall be conducted in such manner as the Commissioner may direct.

III.—GENERAL.

Preparation of Register.

19.—(1) A register to be prepared in pursuance of these regulations shall show the addresses, trades, and names of the occupiers of all the shops to be affected by the Order.

In the case of a shop in which several trades or businesses are carried on, the local authority may require the occupier to specify, in pursuance of sub-section (3) of section 10 of the Act, which trade or business he considers to be his principal trade or business, and the local authority shall not insert the name of the occupier in the register in respect of any other trade or business carried on in the shop unless the occupier satisfies them that it forms a substantial part of the business carried on in the shop.

(2) Every occupier of a shop to be affected shall be entitled to attend within the times and at the place specified in the notices required to be given by these regulations for the purpose of securing that the entries in the register with regard to his shop are duly made.

(3) Any occupier of a shop to be affected may represent to the local authority any matter, in regard to the register, which seems to him to require to be rectified; and the local authority shall consider all such representations.

Appendix II.

The Taking of a Vote.

20. If a local authority decide, or are required, to take a vote for the purpose of ascertaining the opinion of the occupiers of shops to be affected by an Order fixing the day of the weekly half-holiday or by a Closing Order, they shall proceed as follows:—

(1)—(a) A notice, together with a voting paper, in the form marked III. or in the form marked B in the schedule to these regulations, as the case may be, shall be sent by post or otherwise delivered to every occupier appearing in the register, at his registered address.

(b) Voting papers shall be returned to the local authority either through the post or by a collector appointed in writing by them for the purpose, and carrying with him at the time of collection his written appointment, which he shall show to any occupier who shall require it to be shown.

(c) A voting paper shall be deemed to be duly signed if signed by the occupier with his full name or with the ordinary signature used for the purpose of his business: provided that, if any occupier is unable to write, he may, in the presence of some other person, who shall explain the effect of the voting paper, attach his mark thereto, and such mark shall be attested by such other person, who shall append his signature and address.

(d) The local authority shall cause the voting papers, as soon as may be after the last day fixed for their return, to be scrutinised and compared with the register, and the numbers respectively of the votes for and against the Order to be ascertained.

Other Provisions as to making of Orders.

21. The making of an Order shall not be frustrated nor the Order invalidated by reason merely of any failure in the delivery of a notice or a voting paper to any person or to the local authority or of any other informality in complying with these regulations.

22. When an Order fixing the day of the weekly half-holiday is made by the local authority, or a Closing Order is confirmed by the Secretary of State, the local authority shall forthwith either cause to be advertised once in a newspaper, and to be posted up in streets and public places, in the area to which the Order applies a notice giving the terms of the Order as made or confirmed, or shall send such notice to the occupier of every shop affected by the Order.

Revocation of Orders.

23. Before revoking an Order fixing the day of the weekly half-holiday or applying to the Secretary of State to revoke a Closing Order, the local authority shall, for the purpose of ascertaining whether the occupiers of a majority of each of the several classes of shops affected by the revocation approve the revocation, follow, with the necessary modifications, the same procedure as is prescribed in the foregoing regulations in regard to the making of such Orders.

24. When an Order is revoked in whole or in part by a local authority or by the Secretary of State, as the case may be, the local authority shall forthwith either cause to be advertised once in a newspaper, and to be posted up in streets and public places, in the area to which the Order applied a notice announcing such revocation or shall send such a notice to the occupier of every shop known to be affected by the revocation.

Certificate of Appointment of Inspector.

25. The certificate of appointment with which an inspector is required to be furnished shall be in the form marked V. in the schedule to these regulations.

FURTHER REGULATION (8TH MARCH, 1913).

In pursuance of the powers conferred on me by the Shops Acts, 1912 and 1913, I hereby make the following regulation :—

The notice required by section 1 (1) (d) of the Shops Act, 1913, to be affixed in premises for the sale of refreshments where the occupier elects that the provisions of the Act shall apply, shall be in the form in the schedule to this regulation.

R. MCKENNA,
One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

HOME OFFICE,
8th March, 1913.

SCHEDULE.

This notice must be affixed and constantly maintained in a conspicuous position in the premises.

SHOPS ACT, 1913.

I HEREBY GIVE NOTICE that I elect that instead of the provisions of section 1 of the Shops Act, 1912, in regard to the weekly half-holiday and meal times for shop assistants, the provisions of the Shops Act, 1913 (as set out below), shall apply to all assistants employed wholly or mainly in connection with the business of these premises of the sale of* and that I propose to carry out those provisions in the manner indicated below.

This notice can only be withdrawn at the end of a year from this date or at the end of any succeeding year.

Dated the day of , 19 .

*Signature of occupier or manager*____________

* Insert "intoxicating liquor" or "refreshments" or both as the case may be.

---

1. The following provisions apply to all persons wholly or mainly employed in any capacity on these premises in connection with the business here carried on of the sale of *

2. TOTAL HOURS OF WORK.—An assistant must not be employed for more than 65 hours in any week EXCLUSIVE of meal times.

3. MEAL TIMES.—Two hours must be allowed to each assistant for meals on ordinary days and three-quarters of an hour on half-holidays. No assistant may be employed on any day for more than six hours without being allowed an interval of at least half an hour.

4. WEEK-DAY HOLIDAYS.—Every assistant must be given 32 whole holidays on a week day in the year. Of these six are to be given consecutively on full pay as an annual holiday, and the remaining 26 must be so distributed that there shall be at least two holidays in each month. Except as regards the consecutive holiday, two half-holidays on week days may be allowed instead of any whole holiday. On any such half-holiday the assistant may not be employed for more than six hours including meal time, and he must cease work not later than 3 p.m.

5. SUNDAY HOLIDAYS.—Every assistant must be given 26 whole holidays on Sunday in the year, and at least one in every three consecutive Sundays must be a whole holiday.

SUNDAY HOLIDAYS.†

† Here state as precisely as possible in what manner it is proposed to carry out the Act. E.g., it will be open to an occupier to give a weekly half-holiday commencing at 3 p.m. in lieu of the corresponding number of whole holidays. If he decides to do this, he can state this in the notice, and the day on which, as a general rule, the half-holiday will be given. Or he may decide to give a whole holiday every other week : if so, he can state this and the day on which the holiday will be given : etc., etc.

MODEL FORMS PREPARED BY THE HOME OFFICE.

FORM A.

MODEL FORM OF CLOSING ORDER FOR AREAS OR CLASSES OF SHOPS FOR WHICH NO ORDER IS IN FORCE FIXING THE DAY OF THE WEEKLY HALF-HOLIDAY.

The Council of in pursuance of the powers conferred upon them by the Shops Act, 1912, and after due compliance with its provisions, do hereby order as follows :—

1. This Order which may be cited as applies to all shops in (the borough of) or (the area of) in which [the sale by retail of] or [the retail trade or business of a] is carried on.

2. All shops to which this order applies shall be closed for serving customers on the several days of the week at and after the following hours respectively (a) :—

Day of Week.	Closing Hour.
Monday	(A closing hour not earlier than 7 p.m. should be fixed for every week-day).
Tuesday
Wednesday
Thursday
Friday
Saturday

Provided that nothing in this Order shall affect the obligation of every occupier to close his shop at 1 p.m. on one week-day in each week for the weekly half-holiday in accordance with section 4 of the Shops Act, 1912, and that on the day specified in the notice affixed in his shop as the day for the half-holiday the closing hour fixed above shall not apply.

3 (b). Where any trade or business other than [the sale by retail of] or [the retail trade or business of a] is carried on in any shop to which this Order applies, such shop may, subject to the provisions of any other Order for the time being in force, be kept open after the closing hour mentioned in Article 2 of this order, for the purpose of the first-mentioned trade or business alone, provided that (a) after the said closing hour there shall be exhibited in some conspicuous places on the exterior and in the interior of such shop notices in letters of the size of not less than two inches containing the following words: "SHOPS ACT, 1912. THIS SHOP IS CLOSED FOR TO-DAY EXCEPT FOR [THE SALE BY RETAIL OF] or [THE TRADE OR BUSINESS OF]"; (b) so far as reasonably practicable no goods in connection with the trade or business for which the shop is required to be closed shall be exhibited either inside or outside the shop.

4. (In seaport towns.) Nothing in this Order shall prevent customers from being served on any day after the closing hour with victuals, stores or other necessaries for a ship on her arrival at or immediately before her departure from a port.

FORM B.

MODEL FORM OF CLOSING ORDER FOR AREAS OR CLASSES OF SHOPS FOR WHICH AN ORDER IS IN FORCE FIXING THE DAY OF THE WEEKLY HALF-HOLIDAY (c).

The Council of in pursuance of the powers conferred upon them by the Shops Act, 1912, and after due compliance with its provisions, do hereby order as follows :—

1. This order, which may be cited as applies to all shops in (the borough of) or (the area of) in which [the sale by retail of], or [the retail trade or business of a] is carried on.

(a) If it is desired that a later closing hour should be fixed for, or that the order should not apply to, any particular day or days (e.g., the days immediately preceding Christmas or Easter), a proviso to that effect can be added to this article. It should be noted, however, that such a proviso cannot affect the obligation to close for the weekly half-holiday, and to make this clear a footnote should, if necessary, be added in the following terms : "These provisions do not apply to a day on which the shop is required to be closed for the weekly half-holiday, but any shopkeeper may, if he so desires, avail himself of the provisions of section 4 (5) of the Act, which provides that if a shop is closed throughout the whole of a Bank Holiday and the Bank Holiday does not fall on the day fixed for the weekly half-holiday, the shopkeeper may keep his shop open either on the half-holiday before, or on the half-holiday after the Bank Holiday."

(b) If the order applies to several trades, and different closing hours are fixed for different trades, Article 3 should run as follows : "Where in any shop which is required by this Order to be closed at a certain hour in respect of any trade or business, any other trade or business is also carried on for which a later closing hour or no closing hour is fixed by this Order, such shop may, subject to the provisions of any other Order, for the time being in force, be kept open for the purpose of such other trade or business alone, provided that, etc., etc."

If the order applies to all trades Article 3 should run as follows : "Where in any shop to which this Order applies any trade or business exempted by the Third Schedule to the Act is carried on, such shop may be kept open after the closing hour fixed by article 2 of this Order for the purpose of such exempted trade or business alone, provided that, etc., etc."

(c) A closing order in this form cannot be confirmed until an order has been made fixing the day of the weekly half-holiday. A copy of the Half-Holiday Order should be forwarded when the Closing Order is submitted for confirmation

2. All shops to which this Order applies shall be closed for serving customers on the several days of the week at and after the following hours respectively (a) :—

Day of Week.	Closing Hour.
Monday	(Specify the closing hour, not earlier than 7 p.m., for five days of the week. Opposite the day fixed for the weekly half-holiday, insert "Weekly half-holiday—shops closed at 1 p.m.")
Tuesday
Wednesday
Thursday
Friday
Saturday

(b) Provided that where the occupier of a shop elects to close his shop for the weekly half-holiday on ( ) instead of on ( ) the closing hour on ( ) shall be (p.m.).

3 (c). Where any trade or business other than [the sale by retail of] or [the retail trade, or business of a] is carried on in any shop to which this order applies, such shop may, subject to the provisions of any other order for the time being in force, be kept open after the closing hour mentioned in article 2 of this order, for the purpose of the first-mentioned trade or business alone, provided that (a) after the said closing hour there shall be exhibited in some conspicuous places on the exterior and in the interior of such shop notices in letters of the size of not less than two inches containing the following words: "SHOPS ACT, 1912. THIS SHOP IS CLOSED FOR TO-DAY EXCEPT FOR [THE SALE BY RETAIL OF] or [THE TRADE OR BUSINESS OF]"; (b) so far as reasonably practicable no goods in connection with the trade or business for which the shop is required to be closed shall be exhibited either inside or outside the shop.

4. (In seaport towns.) Nothing in this Order shall prevent customers from being served on any day after the closing hour with victuals, stores or other necessaries for a ship on her arrival at or immediately before her departure from a port.

FORM C.

ORDER UNDER SECTION 4 (2) FIXING THE DAY OF THE WEEKLY HALF-HOLIDAY FOR NON-EXEMPTED SHOPS.

The Council of in pursuance of the powers conferred upon them by the Shops Act, 1912, and after due compliance with its provisions, do hereby order as follows :—

1. This Order, which may be cited as applies to all shops in the borough of [or the area of] in which the sale by retail of [or the retail trade or business of] is carried on.

Or, if the order is to apply to all non-exempted shops—

This Order, which may be cited as applies to all shops in the borough of [or the area of] except shops which are exempted by the Act or by any Order made in pursuance of the Act from the obligation to close for the weekly half-holiday.

2. All shops to which this Order applies shall be closed for the weekly half-holiday on at 1 p.m. [throughout the year] (d).

Provided that any shopkeeper may substitute for on affixing a notice to that effect in his shop (e).

NOTE.—It is provided by section 4 (5) of the Act that if a shop is closed throughout the whole of a Bank Holiday and the Bank Holiday does not fall on the day fixed for the weekly half-holiday, the shopkeeper may keep his shop open either on the half-holiday before, or on the half-holiday after the Bank Holiday.

(a) See note (a), ante, p. 3755.

(b) The proviso is intended for fixing the evening closing hour on the ordinary day of the weekly half-holiday in cases where the occupier elects to close on the alternative day.

(c) See note (b), ante, p. 3755.

(d) The Secretary of State is advised that a local authority have no power to insert in the Order provisions exempting shopkeepers during any period of the year from the obligation to close for the half-holiday, but it is open to them to fix different days for the half-holiday for different periods of the year.

(e) A provision to this effect must be inserted in the order, but the Secretary of State is advised that the local authority may add conditions as to the manner in which the power of changing the day may be exercised, e.g., a condition may be inserted as to the time during which the notice shall be affixed in the shop before the change is to take effect.

FORM D.

ORDER UNDER SECTION 4 (4) EXEMPTING (a) SHOPS OF A PARTICULAR CLASS FROM THE OBLIGATION TO CLOSE FOR THE WEEKLY HALF-HOLIDAY OF FIXING AN HOUR LATER THAN 1 P.M. FOR THE COMMENCEMENT OF THE HALF-HOLIDAY.

The Council of in pursuance of the powers conferred upon them by the Shops Act, 1912, and after due compliance with its provisions, do hereby order as follows :—

1. This Order, which may be cited as applies to all shops in the borough of [or the area of] in which the sale by retail of [or the retail trade or business of] is carried on.

2. All shops to which this Order applies are hereby exempted from the provisions of section 4 of the Act in regard to closing for the weekly half-holiday (b).

FORM E.

ORDER UNDER SECTION 4 (6) AND (2) (c) EXTENDING THE PROVISIONS OF SECTION 4 TO EXEMPTED SHOPS AND FIXING THE DAY OF THE WEEKLY HALF-HOLIDAY.

The Council of in pursuance of the powers conferred upon them by the Shops Act, 1912, and after due compliance with its provisions, do hereby order as follows :—

1. This Order may be cited as

2. The provisions of section 4 of the Act are hereby extended to the sale by retail of (d) [or to such parts of the retail trade or business of as are exempted by section 4 (6) and the Second Schedule to the Act (e)].

3. All shops in which the sale by retail of [or the retail trade or business of] is carried on shall be closed for the weekly half-holiday at 1 p.m. on [throughout the year] (f).

Provided that any shopkeeper may substitute for on affixing a notice to that effect in his shop (g).

NOTE.—It is provided by section 4 (5) of the Act that if a shop is closed throughout the whole of a Bank Holiday and the Bank Holiday does not fall on the day fixed for the weekly half-holiday, the shopkeeper may keep his shop open either on the half-holiday before, or on the half-holiday after the Bank Holiday.

FORM F.

ORDER UNDER SECTION 11 (1) SUSPENDING IN A HOLIDAY RESORT THE OBLIGATION TO CLOSE FOR THE WEEKLY HALF-HOLIDAY DURING A PERIOD OF THE YEAR.

The Council of in pursuance of the powers conferred upon them by the Shops Act, 1912, do hereby order as follows :—

The obligation to close for a half-holiday on one week day in each week is hereby suspended in respect of all shops (h) in the during the period[s] (i) from to .

(a) The Secretary of State is advised that the local authority have no power to make an order under this sub-section for part of the year only.

(b) If the exemption is to be limited to fixing a later hour than 1 p.m. for the commencement of the half-holiday, insert here " to the following extent, namely : the closing hour on the weekly half-holiday shall be ." The hour so fixed must not be later than 2 p.m.

(c) If it is proposed by the order to fix a later hour than 1 p.m. for the commencement of the half-holiday, sub-section (4) should also be mentioned here.

(d) If this form of drafting the clause is adopted, the name of the exempted article should be here specified in accordance with terms of the Second Schedule.

(e) This form of drafting will be found convenient where it is desired to fix the day of the weekly half-holiday for the whole of a business, part only of which is exempted by the Act, e.g., the business of a chemist.

(f) See note (d), ante, p. 3756.

(g) See note (e), ante, p. 3756.

(h) The Secretary of State is advised that an order under s. 11 (1) must be a general order applying to all classes of shops, and cannot be made for particular classes of shops only. The order should accordingly be in all cases a separate order, and should not be combined with orders under s. 4.

(i) The period or periods must not exceed in the aggregate four months in any year.

Appendix II.

NOTICE UNDER SECTION 2 (3) IN REGARD TO THE EMPLOYMENT OF YOUNG PERSONS UNDER 18 IN SHOPS.

SHOPS ACTS, 1912—SECTION 2.

NOTICE AS TO EMPLOYMENT OF YOUNG PERSONS UNDER 18.

A YOUNG PERSON UNDER 18 MUST NOT BE EMPLOYED IN OR ABOUT * THIS SHOP FOR MORE THAN 74 HOURS, INCLUDING MEAL TIMES, IN ANY WEEK.

A young person under 18 must not be employed in this shop at all on any day on which he has already worked in a factory or workshop for the whole number of hours permitted by the Factory and Workshop Act.

On any day on which a young person under 18 is employed partly in this shop and partly in a factory or workshop the number of hours of work in the shop and in the factory or workshop together must not exceed the total number permitted by the Factory and Workshop Act.

The total number of hours permitted by the Factory and Workshop Act for a young person is 12 hours, including 1½ hours for meals, on an ordinary day, and 8 hours, including half an hour for a meal, on the weekly short day.

Meaning of "shop."—The above provisions apply to all shops in which any retail trade or business is carried on, including the business of a barber or hairdresser, the sale of refreshments or intoxicating liquors and retail sales by auction. They also apply to wholesale shops, and to warehouses in which assistants are employed for hire.

* It has been held by the High Court that these words apply to persons employed outside the shop in the business of the shop.

† FORM OF AGREEMENT IN CASES WHERE A COUNTY COUNCIL DELEGATE THEIR POWERS TO MAKE ORDERS UNDER SECTIONS 4, 5, AND 11 OF THE ACT TO THE COUNCIL OF AN URBAN OR RURAL DISTRICT.

In pursuance of the powers conferred on them by section 13, sub-section (2), of the Shops Act, 1912, the County Council of and the District Council of hereby agree that the powers of making orders conferred by sections 4, 5, and 11 of the said Act,‡ hereinafter called the delegated powers, shall be exercised in the district by the district council as agents for the county council, on the following terms and subject to the following conditions :—

‡ Insert "and the power of giving certificates under the Second Schedule in respect of retail trade carried on at an exhibition or show" if it is desired to delegate this power as well.

1. The district council shall pay the whole of the expenses incurred in connection with the exercise by them of the delegated powers.
2. The district council shall make such reports to the county council as to the exercise by them of the delegated powers as the county council may from time to time require.
3. The district council shall on making any order in pursuance of any of the delegated powers forthwith send a copy of the order, certified to be a true copy by the clerk to the district council, to the county council, and shall on the revocation of any order forthwith inform the county council of such revocation.
4. The district council and its officers shall give the county council and its officers any assistance that may be necessary for the purpose of the enforcement by the county council and its officers of the provisions of the Act and of any orders made thereunder, and shall produce for inspection by the officers of the county council at all reasonable times the registers of shops prepared by the district council in pursuance of the regulations of the Secretary of State.
5. This agreement may be determined by either council on (three months) notice being given.

† § FORM OF AGREEMENT IN CASES WHERE A COUNTY COUNCIL DELEGATE ALL THEIR POWERS UNDER THE ACT TO THE COUNCIL OF AN URBAN OR RURAL DISTRICT.

S. R. & O., 1924, No. 1431.

THE RURAL DISTRICT COUNCILS (SLAUGHTER-HOUSES) ORDER, 1924, DATED 20TH DECEMBER, 1924, MADE BY THE MINISTER OF HEALTH UNDER SECTION 25 OF THE LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACT, 1894.

Whereas sub-section (5) of section 25 of the Local Government Act, 1894, provides that rural district councils shall have such powers, duties and liabilities of urban sanitary authorities under the Public Health Acts or any other Act, and that such provisions of any of those Acts relating to urban districts shall apply to rural districts, as the Minister of Health may by general order direct, and by sub-section (6) of that section every order made by the Minister under the section is forthwith to be laid before Parliament:

Now therefore, the Minister of Health, in pursuance of his powers under sub-section (5) of section 25 of the Local Government Act, 1894, and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf, hereby orders and directs as follows:—

Short Title and Commencement.

1. This Order may be cited as the Rural District Councils (Slaughter-houses) Order, 1924, and shall come into operation on the first day of January, 1925.

Interpretation.

2.—(1) The Interpretation Act, 1889, applies to the interpretation of this Order as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

(2) In this Order, unless the context otherwise requires—

" Special order " means any order of the Local Government Board, or of the Minister of Health, declaring any provision of the Public Health Acts, or any enactment repealed by those Acts, to be in force in any rural district, or in any contributory place therein ;

" The Minister " means the Minister of Health.

Provision and regulation of slaughter-houses.

3. Rural district councils shall have the powers, duties and liabilities of urban authorities under the enactments relating to slaughter-houses mentioned in Part I. and Part II. of the Schedule to this Order, and those enactments shall apply to every rural district council and rural district in like manner as they apply to urban district councils and urban districts.

Construction of the applied enactments.

4. In the construction of any enactment mentioned in the Schedule hereto, as applied to rural district councils and to rural districts by this Order, any reference to the time of the passing of the special Act, or to the date of the adoption of Part III. of the Public Health Acts Amendment Act, 1890, shall be construed as a reference to the commencement of this Order:

Provided that where any such enactment is in force, immediately before the commencement of this Order, in a rural district, or any contributory place therein, by virtue of any special order, the date of the commencement of the special order shall, for the purposes of the application of the enactment to that rural district or contributory place, be deemed to be the date of the passing of the special Act, or of the adoption of Part III. of the Public Health Acts Amendment Act, 1890, as the case may be.

Expenses.

5. Subject to the provisions of this Order and to the power of the Minister under any enactment to determine in any particular case expenses of a rural district council to be special expenses, the expenses incurred by a rural district council in the execution of any enactment mentioned in the Schedule to this Order shall be defrayed as general expenses.

Rescission of Orders.

6.—(1) Any provision in any special order by virtue of which any enactment mentioned in the Schedule to this Order may be in force in any rural district or in any contributory place therein, and any provision in any such special order or in any other order of the Local Government Board, or of the Minister, determining that the expenses incurred or payable in the execution of any such enactment as aforesaid shall be special expenses, is hereby rescinded:

Provided that nothing in this Article shall affect the operation of any provision in any Order determining that the expenses incurred or payable in the execution of the first paragraph of section 169 of the Public Health Act, 1875, shall be special expenses.

(2) Section 38 of the Interpretation Act, 1889, as applied to this Order, shall have effect as if every provision in an order of the Local Government Board or of the Minister which is rescinded by this Article were a repealed enactment.

(3) Where section 31 of the Public Health Acts Amendment Act, 1890, is in force immediately before the commencement of this Order in a rural district or any contributory place therein, nothing in this Article shall affect the power of a court under that section to revoke a slaughter-house licence upon the conviction of the occupier of the slaughter-house of any offence mentioned in the section.

(4) Nothing in this Article shall affect the operation of any bye-law or regulation made, or any licence granted, under any enactment which immediately before the commencement of this Order is in force in a rural district or contributory place therein by virtue of any special order, or shall affect any existing registration of a slaughter-house under any such enactment as aforesaid.

Publication of this Order.

7.—(1) After the publication of the Minister in the London Gazette of notice that this Order has been made, every rural district council to whom this Article applies shall forthwith cause a statement to the effect of this Order and of the place at which a copy of this Order may be inspected to be published once at least in such one or more local newspapers as may best be calculated to secure the publication of this Order in the whole of their district:

Provided that two or more rural district councils may arrange for the publication in a local newspaper, jointly on behalf of such councils, of the statement aforesaid.

(2) Where, immediately before the commencement of this Order, the enactments mentioned in Part II. of the Schedule hereto, are in force within the whole of a rural district, paragraph (1) of this Article shall not extend to the council of that rural district.

The Schedule.

PART I.—ENACTMENT RELATING TO THE PROVISION OF SLAUGHTER-HOUSES.

Enactment applied.	Subject-matter of applied enactment.
The first paragraph of Sect. 169 of the Public Health Act, 1875 (38 & 39 Vict. c. 55).	Power to provide slaughter-houses, and the making of bye-laws with respect to the management and charges for the use of any slaughter-houses so provided.

PART II.—ENACTMENTS RELATING TO THE REGULATION OF SLAUGHTER-HOUSES.

Enactment applied.	Subject-matter of applied enactment.
The Public Health Act, 1875 (38 & 39 Vict. c. 55)—
The second paragraph of Sect. 169.	Incorporating with the Public Health Act, 1875, the provisions of the Towns Improvement Clauses Act, 1847, with respect to slaughter-houses. These provisions require all existing slaughter-houses to be registered within 3 months after the passing of the special Act, and prohibit the use of new slaughter-houses unless they are licensed; and empower— (1) The local authority to make bye-laws for the regulation of slaughter-houses; (2) The justices to suspend or revoke the licence or registration of a slaughter-house upon a conviction of certain offences; and (3) Officers of the local authority to enter and inspect slaughter-houses, &c.
The third paragraph of Sect. 169.	Saving for the rights, &c., of persons incorporated by any local Act passed before the Public Health Act, 1848, for the purpose of making and maintaining slaughter-houses.
Section 170 . . .	Notice to be affixed to licensed or registered slaughter-houses.
The Public Health Acts Amendment Act, 1890 (53 & 54 Vict. c. 59)—
Section 29 . . .	Licenses for slaughter-houses to be granted for a limited period only.
Section 30 . . .	Upon a change of occupation of a registered or licensed slaughter-house, notice to be given to the local authority.
Section 31 . . .	Power of justices to revoke a slaughter-house licence upon the conviction of the occupier of certain offences.

CIRCULAR 604.

TO SANITARY AUTHORITIES.

MINISTRY OF HEALTH,
12*th June*, 1925.

RURAL DISTRICT COUNCILS (SLAUGHTER-HOUSES) ORDER, 1924.

PUBLIC HEALTH (MEAT) REGULATIONS, 1924.

SIR,—I am directed by the Minister of Health to refer to Circulars 547 and 552 of the 29th December, 1924, and to say that he has received a large number of communications both from local authorities and from other correspondents as to the proper interpretation of the statutory provisions put in force in rural districts by the Rural District Councils (Slaughter-houses) Order, and of the Public Health (Meat) Regulations. It will, of course, be appreciated that any question as to the legal interpretation of the provisions of the statutes and the Regulations can only be decided by the courts, but the Minister thinks that it may be useful to get out for the information of local authorities the intention of the department and the construction which as he is advised may properly be given to the provisions in question.

1. Rural District Councils (Slaughter-houses) Order.

It appears that some apprehension is being felt as to the effect of this Order on farmers and cottagers who occasionally slaughter pigs or sheep of their own rearing for sale to their neighbours. In considering this question it is to be observed that there is nothing in the Order itself or in the provisions of the Public Health Acts which it puts into operation in rural districts specifically prohibiting the slaughter of an animal otherwise than in a licensed or registered slaughter-house.

The only provision as to the limitation of slaughtering is contained in section 126 of the Towns Improvement Clauses Act, 1847, and is in the following terms :—

> "No place shall be used or occupied as a slaughter-house . . . which was not in such use and occupation at the time of the passing of the special Act and has so continued ever since unless and until a licence for the erection thereof or for the use and occupation thereof as a slaughter-house . . . has been obtained. . . ."

The term "slaughter-house" is defined in the Public Health Act, 1875, as including the buildings and places commonly called slaughter-houses and knackers' yards and any building or place used for slaughtering cattle, horses, or animals of any description for sale.

The joint effect of these two provisions is that in the absence of established user no place may be used for slaughtering animals for sale without a licence. The Minister is advised that the word "used" in the provisions cited must be construed as having reference to some regular user and that a single slaughtering is not prohibited. Should any particular case come before the courts, it would be a question to be decided on the facts whether the amount of slaughtering carried on was sufficient to constitute use as a slaughter-house within the meaning of the statute, and the courts might well have regard to the question not only as to the number of animals slaughtered there but as to whether the animals slaughtered are reared on the same farm, small-holding or premises, or are brought from elsewhere.

The matter is, of course, one which is within the administration of the district council, and the Minister thinks that, in the absence of any guiding legal decision on the subject, they might properly construe the statute as allowing the slaughter on a farm or small-holding or cottage premises of a reasonable number of sheep or pigs reared thereon and sold for consumption in the neighbourhood, without the necessity for registration or licensing.

It may be added that more than half the rural district councils had, prior to the issue of the Order, been invested with the powers in question, and the Minister understands that most local authorities have hitherto acted on the lines indicated above.

2. Public Health (Meat) Regulations (a).

Article 2 (1) (Definition of Meat).—The Minister's intention in making the Regulations was that, apart from the special case of bacon and ham, they should apply to what is ordinarily known as butcher's meat, that is to say the raw and untreated edible parts of the carcases of slaughtered cattle, swine, sheep, and goats. Questions have been raised whether the Regulations apply to rabbits, poultry, fish, butter, margarine, and cheese. It is clear that the definition of meat would not include these articles, and the Minister thinks that local authorities might also properly treat cooked meat, lard, sausages, and other preparations of or containing meat as outside the scope of the Regulations.

Article 20. (5) (a).—It was not contemplated that this provision should be construed as requiring all butchers' shops to be provided with glass fronts, and the precautions which it may be reasonable to require under this provision must depend on the circumstances of individual cases. It seems to the Minister that in its enforcement the corresponding provisions of Article 19 (b) and (d) should be borne in mind and that the same general standard of freedom from contamination should be aimed at both for shops and for stalls.

The steps necessary to protect meat against contamination must depend on the circumstances of the shop or stall in relation to the sources of possible contamination and also on the conditions under which trade is carried on. In no circumstances, however, should meat be allowed to project outside the limits of the wall or screen of the shop or stall, where it would be especially exposed to contamination from the street, and it should be kept as far within those limits as is practicable. Where meat has to be kept near to an open window the general rule should be that it should be covered with clean muslin or other suitable material, but local authorities will no doubt realise that, when a brisk trade is being carried on, this precaution may have to be suspended so that meat may be readily accessible.

Application to Ships.—The Minister is advised that each deck of a ship would in itself form one or more separate " compartments " and that meat and cattle for example may properly be carried on different parts of the same deck without any special covering of the meat, if those parts are effectively separated.

Article 21 (2) (a).—The word " ground " is not intended to apply to any part of a ship, vehicle, or building. (In Article 19 (e) where the possibility of a stall being inside a market building is contemplated, the expression used is, " ground or floor.")

The memorial (which should be on paper of foolscap size) should be accompanied by a copy of the notice given in pursuance of section 236 of the Municipal Corporations Act, 1882, endorsed with a certificate to the effect that the notice has been fixed to the town hall for one month prior to the date of the application and that the application itself has been open to public inspection during same period.

(ii) A statement, in the form of a balance sheet, of the annual expenses and receipts of the town council under the Act and showing the sum which would be equal to one penny in the pound upon the rateable value of the county borough; and

(iii) The information indicated on pages 2 and 3 of this form as regards each of the advances proposed to be made.

(Here follows a Schedule similar to that appended to the preceding form.)

SMALL HOLDINGS AND ALLOTMENTS.

THE SMALL HOLDINGS AND ALLOTMENTS (COSTS) RULES, 1910, DATED MARCH 5TH, 1910, MADE BY THE BOARD OF AGRICULTURE AND FISHERIES, WITH THE CONCURRENCE OF THE LORD CHANCELLOR, PURSUANT TO PARAGRAPH (6) OF PART I. OF THE FIRST SCHEDULE TO THE SMALL HOLDINGS AND ALLOTMENTS ACT, 1908.

THE following rules, and the scales of costs contained therein, shall apply to the allowance and taxation or determination as against a council of all costs and charges of a claimant in an arbitration under the First Schedule to the Act.

1. Where the compensation awarded by the arbitrator to the claimant does not exceed the sum specified in the first column of the Scale No. 1 herein contained, the sum payable to the claimant for his costs of the arbitration shall be the sum specified in the second column of such scale, which sum shall include and cover all disbursements, except for the attendances of witnesses, for which attendances the sums specified in the third column of such scale shall be allowed. No charge for briefs to, or attendance of, counsel shall be allowed.

2. Where the compensation awarded by the arbitrator exceeds the sum of three hundred pounds, but does not exceed the sum of five hundred pounds, the costs and charges of the claimant in the arbitration shall be allowed, and (if necessary) taxed or determined, in accordance with the provisions of the Scale No. 2 herein contained, and no costs or charges other than those specified in such scale, or in accordance therewith, shall be allowed.

3. Where the compensation awarded by the arbitrator exceeds the sum of five hundred pounds, the costs and charges of the claimant in the arbitration shall be allowed, and (if necessary) taxed or determined, in accordance with the provisions of the Scale No. 3 herein contained, and no costs or charges other than those specified in such scale, or in accordance therewith, shall be allowed.

4. So much of the First Schedule to the Arbitration Act, 1889, as provides that the arbitrator may award costs to be paid as between solicitor and client, shall not apply to an arbitration to which these rules apply. In any case in which the arbitrator determines the amount of costs to be paid to the claimant in the arbitration, these rules and the scales herein contained, shall apply to and govern such determination of costs by the arbitrator.

5. These rules shall not apply to an arbitration in which an arbitrator has been appointed before the rules come into operation.

6. Nothing in these rules shall authorise an arbitrator to hear counsel or expert witnesses, except in such cases as the Board of Agriculture and Fisheries direct, and if counsel or expert witnesses are heard by an arbitrator without such direction, no costs shall be allowed in respect thereof.

7.—(1) If, having regard to the nature or importance of the case, the interests of the parties, the general conduct of the proceedings, and the skill, labour, and responsibility involved, the taxing officer shall on special grounds consider the costs or allowances provided by any of the scales inadequate, he may make such further or increased allowances as he shall in his discretion consider reasonable.

(2) The taxing officer may in any case where the owner or claimant is not represented by a solicitor on the arbitration make such allowance as he may consider reasonable towards the charges or expenses incurred by the owner or claimant in connection with the arbitration, but not exceeding in the aggregate the maximum amount which could otherwise have been allowed under the relevant scale.

8. These rules and the scales of costs contained herein shall not apply to the fees or remuneration properly payable to or charged by the arbitrator, which fees, if and when paid by the claimant, shall be recoverable by him from the party who is liable to pay the same.

9. In these rules and the scales of costs contained herein :

(1) " The Act " means the Small Holdings and Allotments Act, 1908.

(2) " The arbitrator " means an arbitrator appointed under the Act.

(3) " Taxing officer " includes the arbitrator when costs are determined by him,

(4) " Council " includes any Commissioner acting in default of a council.

10. These rules shall come into operation on the tenth day of March, 1910, and may be cited as the Small Holdings and Allotments (Costs) Rules, 1910.

S. R. & O., 1919, No. 1197.

THE SMALL HOLDINGS AND ALLOTMENTS REGULATIONS, 1919, DATED SEPTEMBER 8TH, 1919, MADE BY THE BOARD OF AGRICULTURE AND FISHERIES UNDER THE SMALL HOLDINGS AND ALLOTMENTS ACTS, 1908 TO 1919.

The Board of Agriculture and Fisheries in exercise of the powers conferred by the Small Holdings and Allotments Acts, 1908 to 1919, do hereby make the following regulations:—

1.—(1) The consent of the Board of Agriculture and Fisheries is, under the Small Holdings and Allotments Acts, 1908 to 1919, or this regulation, required for the exercise by a county council of their powers under the said Acts to—

(1) purchase, hire, sell, mortgage or exchange land; or

(2) appropriate land under paragraph (c) of sub-section (1) of section 12 of the Land Settlement (Facilities) Act, 1919; or

(3) let any land for any greater interest than that of a tenancy from year to year, or let any land to an association; or

(4) erect, repair or improve dwelling-houses or other buildings on any land acquired by the council under the said Acts, or execute any other improvement on or in connection with or for the benefit of any such land, in any case where the cost of the erection, repairs, improvement or other work is intended by the council to be defrayed out of money borrowed by the council or out of capital money received by the council; or

(5) make an inclosure of common purporting to be made under an Order to which section 1 of the Land Settlement (Facilities) Act, 1919, applies; or

(6) determine the period within which any money borrowed by a council shall be repaid; or

(7) incur expenditure under section 49 of the Small Holdings and Allotments Act, 1908; or

(8) do any other act authorised by section 12 of the Land Settlement (Facilities) Act, 1919, to which by notice in writing given by the Board to the council the Board shall require that their consent shall be obtained.

(2) This regulation shall apply to the council of a county borough, in relation to the powers of the council in respect of small holdings, in the same manner as it applies to a county council.

S. R. & O., 1919, No. 1961.

THE LAND SETTLEMENT (ANNUITIES) REGULATIONS, 1919, DATED DECEMBER 31ST, 1919, MADE BY THE MINISTER OF HEALTH UNDER PARAGRAPH 10 OF SCHEDULE 1 TO THE LAND SETTLEMENT (FACILITIES) ACT, 1919.

The Minister of Health, in pursuance of the powers conferred on him by paragraph 10 of the First Schedule to the Land Settlement (Facilities) Act, 1919 (hereinafter referred to as "the Act of 1919"), and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf, hereby makes the following regulations with respect to annuities under section 9 of that Act:—

General.

1.—(1) These regulations may be cited as the Land Settlement (Annuities) Regulations, 1919.

(2) In these regulations, "the council" means the council of a county or the council of a county borough by whom an annuity is payable under the Act of 1919.

(3) The Interpretation Act, 1889, applies to the interpretation of these regulations as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

Register of Annuitants.

2.—(1) The council shall keep a register (hereinafter called the "Register of Annuitants") of all persons who are entitled to an annuity and to whom an annuity certificate has been issued under the Act of 1919.

(2) The register of annuitants shall contain the following particulars :—

(a) the name, address and description of each annuitant, a statement of the amount of the annuity to which he is entitled, and the number and date of the annuity certificate issued to him ;

(b) the date on which any annuity certificate issued to an annuitant was cancelled upon the redemption of the annuity or otherwise.

(3) The register of annuitants shall be open to public inspection at all reasonable times free of charge.

Annuity Certificates.

3.—(1) Every annuity certificate shall be in the form A contained in the First Schedule to these regulations or in a form substantially to the like effect.

(2) If an annuity certificate is worn out or damaged the council on delivery up thereof may issue a new certificate in the same terms to the person entitled to the annuity in respect of which the certificate was issued.

(3) If an annuity certificate is lost or destroyed the council on proof thereof to their satisfaction and on receiving an indemnity if they so require against the claims of all persons deriving title under the certificate lost or destroyed shall give a new certificate in the same terms to the person entitled to the annuity in respect of which the certificate was issued.

(4) Where two or more persons are jointly entitled to an annuity, only one annuity certificate shall be issued in respect thereof.

(5) Upon the redemption of any annuity by the council, the annuitant shall deliver to the council the annuity certificate relating to it, and the council shall thereupon cancel the annuity certificate.

Transfer of Annuities.

4.—(1) The transfer of an annuity or part of an annuity shall be by deed in the form B contained in the First Schedule to these regulations or in a form substantially to the like effect.

(2) Every deed of transfer shall be duly stamped and the consideration shall be truly stated therein.

(3) The deed of transfer shall be delivered to and retained by the council, and the council shall enter a memorial thereof in a book to be called "Register of Transfers of Annuities" and shall endorse on the deed of transfer a notice of that entry.

(4) The council shall, upon receipt of the deed of transfer duly executed, together with the certificate issued in respect of the annuity, enter the name of the transferee in the register of annuitants and shall issue a new certificate or certificates to the transferee, or to the transferor and transferee, as the case may require.

(5) Until the deed of transfer and the annuity certificate have been delivered to the council as aforesaid, the council shall not be affected by the transfer and the transferee shall not be entitled to receive any payment of the annuity.

(6) The council before registering a transfer of the whole or part of an annuity may, if they think fit, require evidence by statutory declaration or otherwise of the title of any person claiming to make the transfer.

Closing of Register of Transfers.

5. The council may close the register of transfers of annuities for a period not exceeding fifteen days immediately before the thirty-first day of March and the thirtieth day of September in any year respectively, and notwithstanding the receipt by the council during those periods of any deed of transfer of an annuity, the half-yearly payment next falling due may be made to the persons registered as annuitants on the date of the closing of the register of transfers of annuities.

Transmission of Annuities.

6.—(1) Any person becoming entitled to an annuity by reason of the death or bankruptcy of an annuitant or by any lawful means other than a transfer may, upon the production of such evidence of title as the council may require, either be registered as an annuitant in respect of the annuity or instead of being himself registered may make such transfer of the annuity as the annuitant could have made, and the council shall issue an annuity certificate accordingly.

(2) Until such evidence as aforesaid has been furnished to the council, the council shall not be affected by a transmission of the annuity and no person claiming by virtue thereof shall be entitled to receive any payment of the annuity.

(3) Where two or more persons are registered as annuitants in respect of one annuity, they shall be deemed to be joint owners with right of survivorship between them.

Fees.

7. Fees not exceeding those specified in the second schedule to these regulations may be taken by the council in the cases therein mentioned.

Sinking Fund for Redemption of Annuities and Repayment of Borrowed Money.

8.—(1) The council shall, as from the date on which an annuity is granted, make provision by payments out of the county fund or out of the borough fund and rate, as the case may be, for the formation of a sinking fund to be applicable to the redemption of the annuity and the repayment of any moneys borrowed by the council for the redemption of the annuity.

For the purposes of such sinking fund, the value of an annuity shall be deemed to be its capitalised value at twenty-five years' purchase, or such other number of years' purchase as may from time to time be approved by the Minister of Health after consultation with the Board of Agriculture and Fisheries.

(2) The sinking fund shall be formed and maintained by the payment to the fund of such equal yearly or half-yearly sums as with accumulations at a rate not exceeding three pounds ten shillings per centum per annum, or such other rate as may from time to time be approved by the Minister of Health, will be sufficient within the prescribed period to redeem the annuity and to repay any moneys borrowed for such redemption.

(3) The sums so paid to the sinking fund, together with the interest on the investments of the fund shall, unless applied in redemption of the annuity or the repayment of moneys borrowed for such redemption, be immediately invested in securities in which trustees are by law for the time being authorised to invest trust money, or in mortgages, bonds, debentures, debenture stock, stock, or other securities (not being securities payable to bearer) duly issued by any local authority as defined by section 34 of the Local Loans Act, 1875, but exclusive in every case of the securities of the council, the council being at liberty from time to time to vary and transpose such investments.

(4) The council may at any time apply the whole or any part of the sinking fund in or towards the redemption of the annuity, or the repayment of moneys borrowed for such redemption. Provided that the council shall pay into the fund each year or half-year (as the case may be) and accumulate a sum equal to the interest which would have been produced by such sinking fund or part of such sinking fund so applied if invested at the rate per centum per annum on which the yearly or half-yearly payments to the sinking fund are based.

(5) If in any year the income of the sinking fund is less than, or is in excess of, the income which would be derived from the amount invested if the same were invested at the rate per centum per annum on which the yearly or half-yearly payments to the fund are based, any deficiency shall be made good by the council, and any excess may be applied towards the yearly or half-yearly payments.

(6) In any year when the interest arising from the investments of the sinking fund is sufficient to pay the annuity and the interest payable by the council on moneys borrowed for its redemption, the council shall not be required to make any payment to the sinking fund, and the interest on the investments of the fund may be applied in payment of the annuity or of the interest payable by the council on moneys borrowed as aforesaid.

(7) Any expenses connected with the formation, maintenance, investment, application, management of or otherwise in relation to the sinking fund, shall be paid by the council in addition to the payments hereinbefore provided for.

(8) "The prescribed period" means such period not exceeding eighty years from the date of the grant of the annuity as the council (subject to the provisions of section 15 of the Act of 1919) with the sanction of the Minister of Health shall determine.

Return respecting Sinking Fund to the Minister of Health

9. Once in every year, within 42 days after the thirty-first day of March, if during the twelve months next preceding any sum is required to be paid to a sinking fund formed in pursuance of these regulations, the clerk to the council shall send to the Minister of Health an abstract of the accounts of the council relating thereto in such form as the said Minister may prescribe or require.

MINISTRY OF AGRICULTURE AND FISHERIES.

MODEL RULES FOR THE COUNCILS OF BOROUGHS AND URBAN DISTRICTS AS TO ALLOTMENTS.

The making of rules by a borough or district council under section 28 of the Small Holdings and Allotments Act, 1908, is optional. Such rules require to be confirmed by the Minister of Agriculture and Fisheries before they can be of any force.

Any council proposing to make rules should submit a draft copy to the Ministry; a copy of the model rules can be used for this purpose. Where it is proposed to make alterations of any importance it may save time and correspondence if the circumstances are explained when the draft is submitted.

In considering the model rules, it should be remembered that the application of the rules is not limited to land already acquired for allotments. For this reason, although some of the provisions in the rules may seem to be unnecessary or inappropriate to the land already acquired, it may, nevertheless, be desirable to include them.

In the case of very small allotments it may be found convenient to dispense with a written agreement and rely on section 28 (4) of the Act of 1908, which provides that rules for the time being in force under that section shall be binding on all persons whatsoever. For this reason it is desirable that the rules should cover, as far as possible, all matters which would be dealt with by written agreements for letting allotments.

Provisions as to Market Garden Improvements.

When the use of the land for market-gardening is reasonable, the Ministry thinks no obstacle should be thrown in the way of such use, provided that terms as to compensation are arranged which are equitable as between tenant and council, having regard to all the circumstances of the case and in particular to the extent of the council's interest in the land.

Under section 47 of the Small Holdings and Allotments Act, 1908, the tenant of an allotment has a right to compensation at the end of his tenancy for—

(1) planting of standard or other fruit trees permanently set out;
(2) planting of fruit bushes permanently set out;
(3) planting of strawberry plants;
(4) planting of asparagus, rhubarb, and other vegetable crops which continue productive for two or more years;

unless such improvements are expressly prohibited by the council in writing and such prohibition is not over-ruled by the Minister under sub-section (1) of that section. The compensation is based on the value to a hypothetical tenant, which might be considerably in excess of the value to the council or the actual incoming tenant.

If the allotment is by written agreement "let or treated as a market garden" and there is no provision in the lease prohibiting the erection or enlargement of buildings for the purpose of the trade or business of a market gardener, the tenant could not be prevented from carrying out such improvements and claiming compensation from the council (see sec. 42 of the Agricultural Holdings Act, 1908 (a)).

The right of the council to claim against their landlord for these improvements is regulated by section 42 of the Agricultural Holdings Act, 1908 (a), and section 47 (2) of the Small Holdings and Allotments Act, 1908, as amended by the Land Settlement (Facilities) Act, 1919 (see sec. 23 and second schedule), and accordingly councils must contemplate the possibility of their right to claim being excluded, or limited to the actual value to the landlord, which in the case of land ripe for building might be insignificant.

(a) Now repealed and re-enacted in s. 48 of the Agricultural Holdings Act, 1923 (13 & 14 Geo. 5, c. 9). See note (a) to s. 47 of the 1908 Act, ante, p. 1178.

The Ministry recognises that councils who allow their tenants to grow market garden crops must take precautions to prevent their having to pay large sums in compensation to their tenants, which they may be unable to recover. Model rule 8 has therefore been drawn up with the view of allowing reasonable freedom to the tenant while at the same time protecting the council from any serious loss for the payment of compensation. The advisability of including this rule should be considered if there is any likelihood of the allotments or any of them being used for growing market garden crops.

SMALL HOLDINGS AND ALLOTMENTS ACTS, 1908 TO 1919.

RULES.

Made by the (a)
with respect to allotments for the (b)

Interpretation of Terms.

1. Throughout these rules the expression "the council" means the (a) and includes any allotment managers appointed by the council under the Small Holdings and Allotments Act, 1908 to 1919.

Definition of the persons eligible to be tenants of the Allotments.

2. Any man or woman who at the time of application to the council for an allotment is resident in the (c).
shall be eligible to become a tenant of an allotment, subject to the statutory provision that one person shall not hold allotments acquired under the above-mentioned Acts exceeding five acres.

Division of the land into Allotments.

3. The council, before giving notice of their intention to let any land for allotments shall divide the land, and shall cause a plan to be prepared showing each allotment, and distinguishing it by a separate number.

Notices to be given for the letting of the Allotments.

4. The council shall give public notice by bills or placards, posted in some conspicuous places in the (d). or otherwise exhibited therein, setting forth the particulars as to any allotments which they propose to let.

Such notice shall specify the allotments to be let and the size thereof, the rent to be paid for the same, the name and address of the clerk to the council to whom applications for the hiring of an allotment or for forms of application are to be sent, and the last day for receiving an application for an allotment.

If any special condition is to apply to the allotments, or any of them, the notice shall specify such condition, or state where copies of the Form of Agreement for Letting of such allotments may be seen.

If the tenant is to pay for tenant right or compensation for improvements this fact and the amount if then ascertained shall be stated in the notice.

(a) Insert "Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the Borough of acting by the Council" or "Urban District Council of."

(b) Insert "said Borough" or "said Urban District."

(c) Insert "Borough" or "District."

(d) Insert "Borough" or "District."

Appendix II.

Rules as to the letting of the Allotments, and for preventing any undue preference in the letting thereof.

5. The council shall not let any allotment unless and until notice that they propose to let the same has been duly given in pursuance of the rule in that behalf at least two weeks before the last day for receiving an application for such allotment.

Every application for an allotment shall be in the Form appended to these rules, and shall be sent or delivered to the clerk to the council.

In letting an allotment for which there are two or more applicants eligible to become tenants and likely to keep the allotment in a proper state of cultivation, preference shall be given to an applicant who does not hold an allotment or agricultural land (other than a garden of 20 poles or less attached to his residence) either from the council or otherwise over an applicant who does hold such land but subject to such preference the tenant shall be determined by the drawing of lots by the council. A quitting tenant of land shall for the purposes of this rule be treated as not holding that land.

Agreements for letting Allotments.

6. An agreement to let an allotment to an applicant may be signed by the clerk to the council on behalf of the council, and may be in the form set out in the schedule to these rules.

General Conditions under which Allotments are to be cultivated.

7. The tenant of an allotment shall comply with the following conditions :—

(1) He shall keep the allotment clean and in a good state of cultivation and fertility and in good condition.

(2) He shall not cause any nuisance or annoyance to the occupier of any other allotment, or obstruct any path set out by the council for the use of the occupiers of the allotments.

(3) He shall not underlet, assign, or part with the possession of the allotment or any part of it without the written consent of the council.

(4) He shall not without the written consent of the council cut or prune any timber or other trees, or take, sell, or carry away any mineral, gravel, sand, or clay.

(5) He shall keep every hedge that forms part of the allotment properly cut and trimmed, keep all ditches properly cleansed, and shall maintain and keep in repair any other fences and any gates on the allotment.

(6) He shall not without the written consent of the council erect any building on the allotment.

(7) He shall not without the written consent of the council break up any pasture.

(8) He shall not use barbed wire for a fence adjoining any path set out by the council for the use of occupiers of the allotments.

(9) He shall, as regards the allotment, observe and perform all conditions and covenants contained in the lease under which the council hold the land.

(10) He shall observe and perform any other special condition which the council consider necessary to preserve the allotment from deterioration, and of which notice to applicants for the allotment is given in accordance with these rules.

Special Rule as to Market Garden Improvements.

8. Except where it is otherwise expressly agreed in writing, an allotment shall be held subject to the following conditions, which shall be endorsed on the agreement for letting the allotment :—

(1) The allotment shall not be let or treated as a market garden, but if the tenant executes any of the following improvements (a), viz. :—

(a) Any one or more of these improvements may be omitted as regards a particular tenancy.

(a) planting of standard or other fruit trees permanently set out;
(b) planting of fruit bushes permanently set out;
(c) planting of strawberry plants;
(d) planting of asparagus, rhubarb, and other vegetable crops which continue productive for two or more years;

he shall on the determination of the tenancy be entitled to receive from the council such sum as fairly represents the increase (if any) in value of the allotment to the council due to these improvements having regard particularly to the then unexpired term of the lease (if any) under which the land is held by the council.

(2) The tenant may in lieu of claiming compensation for any fruit or other trees or bushes planted or acquired by him remove the same before the determination of the tenancy, levelling the surface of the land and restoring the same to a proper state and condition and making good any damage caused by the removal.

(3) For the purpose of protecting the council from claims for compensation for the under-mentioned improvements, other than such compensation as is provided by paragraph (1), the following improvements are to be treated as prohibited for the purpose of section 47 of the Small Holdings and Allotments Act, 1908, viz.:—

(a) planting of standard or other fruit trees permanently set out;
(b) planting of fruit bushes permanently set out;
(c) planting of strawberry plants;
(d) planting of asparagus rhubarb and other vegetable crops which continue productive for two or more years.

SMALL HOLDINGS AND ALLOTMENTS ACTS, 1908 TO 1919, AND ACQUISITION OF LAND (ASSESSMENT OF COMPENSATION) ACT, 1919.

MINISTRY OF AGRICULTURE AND FISHERIES (MAY 29TH 1920).

General direction as to the hearing of one expert witness on either side by the Official Arbitrator.

WHEREAS it is provided in paragraph (5) of Part I of the first schedule to the Small Holdings and Allotments Act, 1908, that at any arbitration held under that schedule the arbitrator shall not, except in such cases as the Minister of Agriculture and Fisheries otherwise directs, hear expert witnesses.

And whereas the Acquisition of Land (Assessment of Compensation) Act, 1919, which amends the law as to the assessment of compensation in respect of land acquired compulsorily under the said recited Act provides that in any proceedings before an arbitrator not more than one expert witness on either side shall be heard unless the official arbitrator otherwise directs, subject to a proviso allowing additional expert witnesses in certain cases.

Now the Minister of Agriculture and Fisheries hereby directs that in any arbitration on the compulsory acquisition of land under the Small Holdings and Allotments Acts, 1908 to 1919, one expert witness on either side may be heard unless the arbitrator otherwise directs.

And further that, where the claim includes a claim for compensation in respect of minerals, or disturbance of business, as well as in respect of land, one additional expert witness on either side on the value of the minerals, or, as the case may be, on the damage suffered by reason of the disturbance, may be heard.

S. R. & O., 1922, No. 1056.

THE SMALL HOLDINGS AND ALLOTMENTS (COMPULSORY PURCHASE) REGULATIONS, 1922, DATED SEPTEMBER 26TH, 1922, MADE BY THE MINISTER OF AGRICULTURE AND FISHERIES UNDER THE SMALL HOLDINGS AND ALLOTMENTS ACTS, 1908 TO 1919, AND THE ALLOTMENTS ACT, 1922.

The Minister of Agriculture and Fisheries in pursuance of the provisions of the Small Holdings and Allotments Acts, 1908 to 1919, and the Allotments Act, 1922, hereby makes the following regulations :—

Orders for Compulsory Purchase.

1. A compulsory order for purchase made by a council shall be in the form set forth in the Appendix to these regulations or to the like effect ; provided that an Order if submitted to the Minister of Agriculture and Fisheries (in these regulations referred to as " the Minister ") for confirmation may be modified by the Minister after notice of the intended modification to the council and to those persons interested in the land who, in the opinion of the Minister, would be affected thereby, and after consideration of any objection thereto presented to the Minister within the time prescribed by such notice.

2. Notice of the making of an Order for compulsory purchase to which section one of the Land Settlement (Facilities) Act, 1919, as amended by section 8 (1) of the Allotments Act, 1922, applies shall be given as soon as practicable to each owner, lessee and occupier of the land authorised to be acquired. The notice shall be accompanied by a copy of the Order (except any plan annexed or referred to therein) and shall state the place where a copy of any plan annexed or referred to in the Order an be obtained free of charge by any person interested in the land.

3.—(1) When a council propose to purchase land compulsorily under an Order which requires confirmation by the Minister under the Small Holdings and Allotments Acts, 1908 to 1919, the council, not less than one calendar month before they submit the Compulsory Order to the Minister, shall publish the Order by means of a notice, containing such particulars as are prescribed by this regulation, inserted as an advertisement in one or more newspapers circulating in the locality, and by furnishing a copy of the Order (except any plan annexed to or referred to in the Order) free of

Appendix II. charge to any person interested in the land who shall apply for the same. The council shall also give notice of the Order, containing such particulars as are required by this regulation, to the Minister and to each owner, lessee, and occupier of the land proposed to be purchased, or to such of them as shall be known to the council.

(2) Every notice under this regulation shall contain the following particulars :—

(a) the purpose for which the land is proposed to be purchased ;

(b) the quantity, description and situation of the land and the names of the reputed owners, lessees, and occupiers thereof ;

(c) the place where copies of the Order (except any plan annexed to or referred to in the Order) may be obtained free of charge by any person interested in the land ;

(d) the place where the plan (if any) annexed to or referred to in the Order may at all reasonable times, until the Order is submitted to the Minister, be inspected by or on behalf of any person interested in the land.

(3) Every notice shall also state that any objection must be presented to the Minister, and every notice sent to an owner, lessee or occupier shall state the period within which an objection by him may be so presented in accordance with these regulations. A notice may also state that a copy of every objection should be sent to the clerk to the council.

(4) If the council is a county council acting on behalf of a parish council or parish meeting the notice shall so state and give the name of the parish.

4. The period within which an objection to a compulsory Order may, under the preceding regulation, be presented to the Minister by a person interested in the land to which the Order relates shall be the period of one calendar month from and after the date on which notice of the Order is sent to him, or if no notice is sent to him in that case from and after the date of the latest advertisement of a notice of the Order.

5. Notice of the confirmation of the Order shall be given by the council as soon as practicable to each owner, lessee, and occupier of the land authorised to be purchased, and a copy of the Order and of any plan annexed to or referred to in the Order, shall be furnished by the council to any person interested in the land on application by such person.

6.—(1) Every notice required to be given by the council to an owner or other person interested in land proposed or authorised to be purchased, shall either be served personally on such person or sent by post to or left at his usual place of abode in the United Kingdom, if any such can after diligent inquiry be found, and in case any such person shall be absent from the United Kingdom or cannot be found after diligent inquiry, shall be sent by post to or left with any agent ordinarily receiving the rents of the land on behalf of such person, and a copy thereof shall also be sent by post to or left with the occupier of the land to which such notice relates, or, if there be no such occupier, shall be affixed upon some conspicuous part of such land.

(2) If an owner or other person interested be a corporation aggregate, such notice shall be sent by post to or left at the principal office of business of such corporation, or if no such office can after diligent inquiry be found, shall be sent by post to or served on some principal officer, if any, of such corporation.

7. Where a council propose to purchase compulsorily the estate and interest of a lessee only, the Order shall so state, and these regulations shall apply with the necessary modifications.

8. In these regulations, unless the context otherwise requires—

" Owner " in relation to any land proposed or authorised to be purchased means the person who by himself or his agent is in actual possession, or receipt of the rents or profits, of the land (except a lessee) and that without regard to the real amount of interest of such person ;

" Lessee " includes a tenant holding under an agreement for a lease ;

" Compulsory Order " means an Order under the Small Holdings and Allotments Acts, 1908 to 1919, and the Allotments Act, 1922, which authorises land to be compulsorily purchased ;

" Land " includes stints and other alienable common rights of grazing.

9. These regulations shall apply to a compulsory purchase by the small holdings commissioners acting in default of a council or by the Minister with the substitution of those commissioners or the Minister, as the case may be, for the council.

Appendix II.

10. The regulations as to compulsory purchase made by the Board of Agriculture and Fisheries on the 8th day of September, nineteen hundred and nineteen, are hereby revoked but not so as to affect any Order made before the date of these regulations.

APPENDIX.

S. R. & O., 1922, No. 1057.

THE SMALL HOLDINGS AND ALLOTMENTS (COMPULSORY HIRING) REGULATIONS, 1922, DATED SEPTEMBER 26TH, 1922, MADE BY THE MINISTER OF AGRICULTURE AND FISHERIES UNDER THE SMALL HOLDINGS AND ALLOTMENTS ACTS, 1908 TO 1919, AND THE ALLOTMENTS ACT, 1922.

The Minister of Agriculture and Fisheries, in pursuance of the provisions of the Small Holdings and Allotments Acts, 1908 to 1919, and the Allotments Act, 1922, does hereby make the following regulations :—

PART I.

Orders for Compulsory Hiring.

1. A Compulsory Order for hiring made by a council shall be in the form set forth in the appendix to these regulations or to the like effect ; provided that an Order if submitted to the Minister for confirmation may be modified by the Minister after notice of the intended modification to the council and to those persons interested in the land who, in the opinion of the Minister, would be affected thereby, and after consideration of any objection thereto presented to the Minister within the time prescribed by such notice.

2. Notice of the making of an Order for compulsory hiring to which section one of the Land Settlement (Facilities) Act, 1919, as amended by section 8 (1) of the Allotments Act, 1922, applies shall be given as soon as practicable to each owner, lessee and occupier of the land authorised to be acquired. The notice shall be accompanied by a copy of the Order (except any plan annexed or referred to therein) and shall state the place where a copy of any plan annexed or referred to in the Order can be obtained free of charge by any person interested in the land.

3.—(1) When a council propose to hire land compulsorily under an Order which requires confirmation by the Minister under the Small Holdings and Allotments Acts, 1908 to 1919, the council, not less than one calendar month before they submit the Order to the Minister, shall publish the Order by means of a notice containing such particulars as are prescribed by this regulation, inserted as an advertisement in one or more newspapers circulating in the locality and by furnishing a copy of the Order (except any plan annexed to or referred to in the Order) free of charge to any person interested in the land who shall apply for the same. The council shall also give notice of the Order containing such particulars as are required by this regulation, to the Minister and to each owner, lessee, and occupier of the land proposed to be hired, or to such of them as shall be known to the council.

(2) Every notice under this regulation shall contain the following particulars :—

- (a) the purpose for which the land is proposed to be hired ;
- (b) the quantity, description, and situation of the land and the names of the reputed owners, lessees, and occupiers thereof ;
- (c) the number of years (with a part of a year, if so desired), for which the land is proposed to be hired ;
- (d) the place where copies of the Order (except any plan annexed to or referred to in the Order) may be obtained free of charge by any person interested in the land ;
- (e) the place where the plan (if any) annexed to or referred to in the Order may at all reasonable times until the Order is submitted to the Minister be inspected by or on behalf of any person interested in the land.

(3) Every notice shall also state that any objection must be presented to the Minister, and every notice sent to an owner, lessee or occupier shall state the period within which an objection may be so presented in accordance with these regulations. A notice may also state that a copy of every objection should be sent to the clerk to the council.

(4) If the council is a county council acting on behalf of a parish council or parish meeting the notice shall so state and give the name of the parish.

4. The period within which an objection to a Compulsory Order may, under the preceding regulation, be presented to the Minister by a person interested in the land to which the Order relates shall be the period of one calendar month from and after the date on which notice of the Order is sent to him, or if no notice is sent to him, in that case from and after the date of the latest advertisement of a notice of the Order.

5.—(1) Notice of the confirmation of the Order shall be given by the council as soon as practicable to each owner, lessee, and occupier of the land authorised to be hired, and a copy of the Order, and of any plan annexed to or referred to in the Order, shall be furnished by the council to any person interested in the land on application by such person.

(2) Upon the application of any person interested in the land authorised to be hired, or in the interest of an existing tenant which will or may be extinguished by the compulsory hiring, the Order shall be so framed as to make such provision as is necessary for securing the interest of any party other than the owner or existing tenant in any compensation payable in respect of the compulsory hiring, and for that purpose there may be incorporated in the Order, with such adaptations as are required, any of the provisions of the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, which relate to compensation coming to parties having limited interests.

PART II.

Procedure for Enforcing Compulsory Hiring Order.

6.—(1) When the council require to hire compulsorily any land authorised to be hired by a Compulsory Order, they shall give notice to that effect to the owner of such land, and to any existing tenant thereof, or to such of the said parties as shall, after diligent inquiry, be known to the council, and by such notice shall demand from such parties the particulars of their estate and interest in such land, in so far as such particulars are required in order to ascertain the owner thereof and the interests of the existing tenants (if any); and every such notice shall state the particulars of the land required to be hired, and the term for which the council are authorised to hire the same, and that the council are willing to treat for the hiring thereof. The council shall in every such notice state a date consistent with the terms of the Order on which they require that the tenancy of the council shall commence.

(2) Where the owner is a tenant the council shall also give notice to the person in receipt of the rent reserved under the lease under which the owner holds as tenant that they require to hire compulsorily the lands specified in such notice.

(3) Where the land is authorised to be hired for the purpose of providing allotments or allotment gardens, the notices referred to in this regulation must be served within three calendar months after the date of the Order or where confirmation of the Order is necessary then after the date of the confirmation thereof.

7. On receipt of the particulars of the interest of an existing tenant, the council shall within twenty-one days give notice to the tenant, stating whether the council desire to extinguish the interest of such tenant or to hire the land subject to such interest, and if the council fail to give such notice they shall be deemed to desire to extinguish the interest of the tenant. Any interest of an existing tenant which is extinguished under the powers conferred by a Compulsory Order shall be extinguished upon, and by reason of, the commencement of the tenancy of the council.

8.—(1) An existing tenant whose interest in the land is extinguished upon, and by reason of, the commencement of the tenancy of the council shall be entitled to recover from the council compensation for the value of his interest in the land and for any just allowance which ought to be made to him by an incoming tenant, and for any loss or injury which the existing tenant may sustain.

(2) If any person claim compensation in respect of any unexpired term or interest under any lease of lands by the Order authorised to be hired, the council may require such person to produce the lease in respect of which such claim is made, or sufficient evidence thereof, and if, after demand made in writing by the council, such lease, or such evidence thereof, be not produced within twenty-one days, the party so claiming compensation shall be considered as a tenant holding only from year to year, and be entitled to compensation accordingly.

9. If the owner of land authorised by a Compulsory Order to be hired is unable, except under powers conferred by these regulations, to lease the land for the term and on the conditions for and on which the council are so authorised to hire the land, the rent to be paid by the council shall be determined, as in default of agreement, under and in accordance with the provisions of the Acquisition of Land (Assessment of Compensation) Act, 1919, and the Small Holdings and Allotments Acts, 1908 to 1919, and the Allotments Act, 1922.

10. If an existing tenant is unable, except under powers conferred by these regulations, to dispose of the interest created by the lease under which he holds and to give an absolute discharge for the compensation for such interest, the amount payable by the council to the existing tenant or any person claiming through him in respect of such interest or in respect of improvements executed on the land or otherwise, and, where part only of the holding is hired, the rent to be paid for the residue of the holding during the remainder of the term for which the holding is held, shall be determined, as in default of agreement, in manner provided by the preceding regulation.

11. If the council cannot after diligent inquiry ascertain the owner or existing tenant, or if for twenty-one days after the giving of such notice to treat to the owner or existing tenant as is required by these regulations, he fail to state the particulars demanded by the notice or fail to treat with the council in respect of his interest, or if the owner or the existing tenant do not agree with the council as to any matter which, under paragraph (3) of Part II. of the first schedule to the Act of 1908 is in default of such agreement to be determined as therein provided, the council may require that the rent, compensation or other matter to be determined shall be determined in manner provided by the Acquisition of Land (Assessment of Compensation) Act, 1919, and the Small Holdings and Allotments Acts, 1908 to 1919, and the Allotments Act, 1922.

12. If the land authorised to be compulsorily hired is held by the owner subject to any reservation or exception or easement from which the council require that the land when leased to the council shall be exonerated during the existence of the lease, any person injuriously affected by the exoneration of the land from such reservation or exception or by the extinguishment of the easement effected by the lease to the council shall be entitled to recover compensation for the injury from the council, and the amount of the compensation shall in default of agreement between such person and the council be determined under and in accordance with the provisions of the Acquisition of Land (Assessment of Compensation) Act, 1919, and the Small Holdings and Allotments Acts, 1908 to 1919, and the Allotments Act, 1922.

13. In determining the rent to be paid by the council for land authorised to be compulsorily hired the interest of any existing tenant and the existence of any reservation or exception or easement affecting the land shall be taken into consideration, and the land shall be valued as subject to such interest, reservation, exception, or easement.

14.—(1) In determining the rent to be paid for land authorised to be compulsorily hired regard shall be had by the arbitrator not only to the value of the land to be hired, but also to the damage (if any) to be sustained by the owner of the land by reason of its severance from other land of such owner, or by reason of such other land being otherwise injuriously affected by the exercise of the powers conferred on the council by the Compulsory Order, the Small Holdings and Allotments Acts, 1908 to 1919, or by the Allotments Act, 1922.

(2) Every existing tenant shall be entitled to receive from the council compensation for the damage done to him in his tenancy by reason of the severance of the land to be hired from land which is held by such tenant and is not required to be hired.

15.—(1) If the land authorised to be compulsorily hired is land of copyhold or customary tenure which cannot be leased by the owner for such a lease as is authorised by the Compulsory Order except with a licence of the lord of the manor of which the land is held, and the owner shall not obtain such licence before the execution of the lease, this shall be taken into consideration in determining the rent payable by the council, and the lord of the manor shall be entitled to recover compensation from the council for any loss sustained by reason of the lease being under these regulations made valid and effectual without a licence, and the amount of the compensation shall in default of agreement between the lord and the council be determined under and in accordance with the provisions of the Acquisition of Land (Assessment of Compensation) Act, 1919, and the Small Holdings and Allotments Acts, 1908 to 1919, and the Allotments Act, 1922.

(2) Every such lease shall be entered on the rolls of the manor in every case in which by the custom of the manor such a lease granted with the licence of the lord is required to be so entered; and the steward of the manor shall cause such lease to be so entered, and shall give to the council a certificate of such entry on payment to such steward of the accustomed fees, or, if there be no accustomed fees, on payment of such sum as may in default of agreement be adjudged by a Court of Summary Jurisdiction on the application of such steward or the council, to be payable in respect of such entry.

16.—(1) As soon as the amount of the rent to be paid by the council for the land proposed to be compulsorily hired, and the amount of any other compensation to be paid by the council to any person entitled thereto in respect of the land or any interest therein, or in respect of improvements executed on the land or otherwise, have been determined, so far as the same can be determined before the tenancy of the council commences, the owner shall on the application of the council execute a lease of the land in accordance with the Order, subject only to the interest of any existing tenant which the council have given notice that they do not desire to extinguish, and to any reservation, exception, or easement subject to which the land is to be hired, and if the owner refuses or after notice in writing by the council fails within one month, to execute the lease, or if the owner of the land cannot after diligent inquiry be ascertained by the council, the council shall execute the lease in duplicate, and shall forward one copy to the owner, if he can be found, and a lease so executed shall take effect as if it had been duly executed by the owner.

(2) A lease executed by the owner, or by the council under this regulation, shall be binding on and enure for the benefit of all persons interested in the land hired, and shall not cause any forfeiture of the land, or of any land held therewith or create any right of entry on any such land, or any right of action for breach of a covenant not to assign, or like covenant.

17. The lease to the council shall, when executed in accordance with these regulations, and subject as hereinafter provided, take effect as from the date specified by the council in the notice to treat given by the council to the owner of the land, and in such case the council shall on the date so specified be entitled to enter on the land, subject to the interest of any existing tenant which is not to be extinguished by the hiring;

Provided that this regulation is subject to the power of the council under subsection (8) of section 39 of the Act of 1908 to withdraw such notice to treat.

18.—(1) Costs reasonably incurred by the owner in connection with the preparation and execution of the lease and any counterpart and costs reasonably incurred by the owner or an existing tenant in furnishing any particulars of his estate and interest required by notice under these regulations, or otherwise required by the council, shall be paid by the council to the owner or tenant as the case may be.

(2) If the council and the party entitled to any such costs do not agree as to the amount thereof, such costs shall be taxed by one of the taxing masters of the High Court, upon an Order of the Court to be obtained upon petition in a summary way by either of the parties; and the council shall pay what the said master shall certify to be due in respect of such costs to the party entitled thereto, or in default thereof the same may be recovered in the same way as any other costs payable under an Order of the Court, and the expense of taxing such costs shall be borne by the council unless upon such taxation one-sixth part of the amount of such costs be disallowed, in which case the costs of such taxation shall be borne by the party whose costs shall be so taxed, and the amount thereof shall be ascertained by the said master, and deducted by him accordingly in his certificate of such taxation.

19. If in any case the council are authorised by a Compulsory Order and these regulations to enter upon and hold any land authorised to be compulsorily hired, and the owner or occupier of any such lands or any other person refuses to give up the possession thereof, or hinders the council from entering upon the same, a court of summary jurisdiction, on complaint made by the council, may require the owner or occupier of such land or other person to deliver possession of the same to the council or permit them to enter thereon ; and any Order made under these provisions may be enforced as provided by section 34 of the Summary Jurisdiction Act, 1879.

20. The arbitrator shall within one month after his appointment, or within such extended time as the Minister shall allow, make and sign a determination of all matters referred to him for determination which are in his opinion capable of being ascertained at the date of the determination, and shall within one month after the commencement of the tenancy of the council, or within such extended time as the Minister shall allow, make and sign a determination of all matters referred to him for determination which are not determined by the previous determination.

21. Every determination made by an arbitrator shall be duly stamped by him and sent as soon as possible to the council and a copy shall at the same time be sent to the owner and any existing tenant affected by the determination.

22.—(1) Any compensation, other than rent, payable by the council in respect of the compulsory hiring, including any compensation payable in respect of the interest of an existing tenant which is extinguished by such hiring, shall be payable by the council in manner provided by these regulations on the execution of the lease, or if payable in respect of any matter not then determined, on the date when it is fully determined.

(2) Subject to any provision in the Compulsory Order and these regulations, compensation so payable by the council shall be paid on demand to the owner, or the existing tenant, as the case may be.

23. Subject to any provision in the Compulsory Order relating to mines and minerals, there shall, unless the owner and the council otherwise agree, be excepted and reserved out of the lease all the mines and minerals, metals, ores, and other substrata, whether of coal, stone, clay, sand, or any other metalliferous or mineral substance or produce whatsoever, whether opened or unopened, worked or unworked, within or under the hired land (all which are hereinafter collectively referred to as " the said mines and minerals") ; with full liberty and power for the persons entitled to the said mines and minerals at all times during the lease by underground workings only to win, work, and carry away the whole of the said mines and minerals, and also to carry away the produce of any other mines ; nevertheless making reasonable compensation for any damage or subsidence which may be occasioned to any building on the land hired by reason of such working and carrying away of the said mines and minerals as aforesaid or the exercise of the powers to be reserved as aforesaid, such compensation to be settled in case of dispute by a single arbitrator in accordance with the Agricultural Holdings Act, 1908.

24. Except as in these regulations expressly provided, any person interested in the determination of any matter under these regulations shall not be required to produce to the person making the valuation, or give him access to, any document of title.

PART III.

General.

25.—(1) Every notice required to be given by a council to an owner, existing tenant, or other person interested in land proposed or authorised to be hired, shall either be served personally on such person or sent by post to or left at his usual place of abode in the United Kingdom, if any such can after diligent inquiry be found, and in case any such person shall be absent from the United Kingdom or cannot be found after diligent inquiry, shall be sent by post to or left with any agent ordinarily receiving the rents of the land on behalf of such person, and a copy thereof shall also be sent by post to or left with the occupier of the land to which such notice relates, or, if there be no such occupier, shall be affixed upon some conspicuous part of such land.

(2) If an owner, existing tenant, or other person interested be a corporation aggregate such notice shall be sent by post to or left at the principal office of business of such corporation, or if no such office can after diligent inquiry be found, shall be sent by post to or served on some principal officer, if any, of such corporation.

26.—(1) Section two of the Land Settlement (Facilities) Act, 1919 (Power of entry on land), shall apply in the case of an Order authorising the compulsory hiring of land, or of an agreement to hire land, subject to the following adaptations :—

(a) "Hire" or "hiring" shall, as the context requires, be substituted for "purchase";

(b) A notice under Regulation 6 of these Regulations shall be deemed to be a notice to treat.

(2) In the case of an Order for the compulsory hiring of land and entry by a council on the land or any part thereof under sub-section (1) of the said section as adapted by this regulation, the compensation payable in respect of the hiring of the land shall include such compensation by way of rent or otherwise, together with interest on such part of the compensation as is not paid by way of rent at the rate of five per cent. per annum from the time of entry on the land until such compensation is paid, as would have been payable if the council had at the date of entry hired the land of which possession is taken and extinguished the interest therein of any existing tenant.

27. Where under the Acquisition of Land (Assessment of Compensation) Act, 1919, any matter to which these regulations relate is determined by the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, any provision in these regulations referring to an arbitrator shall subject to the necessary modifications apply to the Commissioners.

28. In these regulations, unless the context otherwise requires—

"Minister" means the Minister of Agriculture and Fisheries;

"Owner" in relation to any land proposed or authorised to be hired means the person who by himself or his agent is in actual possession, or receipt of the rents and profits of the land (except a tenant thereof under a lease for a term no greater than the term for which the land is proposed or authorised to be hired) and that without regard to the real amount of interest of such person;

"Existing tenant" in relation to any land proposed or authorised to be hired means a tenant thereof under a lease for a term no greater than the term for which the land is proposed or authorised to be hired;

"Lease" includes an agreement for a lease;

"Compulsory Order" means an Order under the Acts of 1908 to 1919 and the Act of 1922 which authorise land to be compulsorily hired;

"Land" includes stints and other alienable common rights of grazing.

29. A Compulsory Order shall incorporate these regulations, but shall not, unless therein otherwise expressly stated, incorporate any of the provisions of the Lands Clauses Acts or of sections 77 to 85 of the Railway Clauses Act, 1845, except so far as such provisions have been incorporated with adaptations in these regulations.

30. These regulations shall apply to a compulsory hiring by the Small Holdings Commissioners acting in default of a council or by the Minister, with the substitution of those Commissioners or the Minister, as the case may be, for the council.

31. The Compulsory Order and these regulations shall not extend and apply to Any land belonging to His Majesty the King, his heirs and successors in right of the Crown, or in right of the Duchy of Lancaster; nor to Any land belonging to the Duchy of Cornwall; nor to Any land subject to rights of common.

32. The Small Holdings and Allotments (Compulsory Hiring) Regulations, 1919, are hereby revoked but not so as to affect the operation of any Order made before the date of these regulations.

APPENDIX.

Form of Order for Compulsory Hiring.

1. The (a) are hereby empowered to put in force as respects the land described in the draft lease set forth in the schedule hereto the powers of compulsory hiring conferred by the Small Holdings and Allotments Acts, 1908 to 1919 (b), subject to the provisions of those Acts and to the Small Holdings and Allotments (Compulsory Hiring) Regulations, 1922, and to the terms of this Order.

(a) Insert "County Council of ," or "County Council of acting on behalf of the Parish Council" [or "Meeting"] or "Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of ," or " District Council."

(b) Insert here "and the Allotments Act, 1922," if the Order is made for the purpose of providing allotments or allotment gardens.

2. The tenancy of the council shall commence either on the [twenty-fifth day of March] or the [twenty-ninth day of September] (i).

3. (Where the land is glebe land or other land belonging to an ecclesiastical benefice insert the following paragraph.) Any sum payable by way of compensation for the damage to be sustained by the owner by reason of severance or other injury affecting the land shall not be paid as directed by the Lands Clauses Acts, but shall be paid to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners to be applied by them as money paid to them upon a sale under the Ecclesiastical Leasing Acts of land belonging to a benefice.

4. (Where the Order relates to small holdings insert the following paragraph.) The powers conferred by this Order shall cease after the expiration of one year from the date of confirmation of this Order by the Minister of Agriculture and Fisheries, unless such period is extended by the Minister.

5. (Where the Order relates to allotments or allotment gardens insert the following paragraph.) The powers conferred by this Order shall cease after the expiration of three calendar months from the date hereof or from the date of confirmation by the Minister of Agriculture and Fisheries if the Order is so confirmed.

Schedule to Form of Order for Compulsory Hiring.

This schedule shall contain a draft of the lease under which it is proposed that the land shall be authorised to be acquired by the council, setting out all the proposed terms and conditions except the date of the commencement of the tenancy and the rent.

The lease shall contain covenants by the council to cultivate the land in a proper manner and to pay to the landlord at the determination of the tenancy, on the council quitting the land, compensation for any depreciation of the land by reason of any failure by the council, or any person deriving title under them, to observe such covenants, or by reason of any user of the land by the council or such person as aforesaid, and, unless otherwise agreed, a covenant by the council to keep the buildings and premises demised in repair.

The lease shall not authorise the breaking up of pasture unless the council are prepared to prove to the satisfaction of the Minister of Agriculture and Fisheries that it can be so broken up without depreciating the value of the land, or that the circumstances are such that small holdings [allotments] cannot otherwise be successfully cultivated.

If the Order relates to the provision of land for allotment gardens, the lease should so state, and the foregoing paragraph relating to the breaking up of pasture is not applicable.

If the land authorised to be acquired for allotment gardens is the property of a corporation or company acquired by them for the purposes of a railway, dock, canal, water or other public undertaking, the lease shall contain a condition enabling the corporation or company to resume possession of the land when required by them for the purpose (not being the use of land for agriculture) for which it was acquired by the corporation or company.

The lease shall also provide that, except with the consent of the landlord, the council shall not fell or cut timber or trees, or take, sell, or carry away any minerals, gravel, sand, or clay, except so far as may be necessary or convenient for the purpose of erecting buildings on the land or otherwise adapting the land for small holdings [allotments] [allotment gardens], and except upon payment of compensation for minerals, gravel, sand, or clay so used.

The lease shall also provide that any question as to the amount of compensation payable by the council under the lease shall be determined where the land is authorised to be acquired for small holdings by a single arbitrator in accordance with the Agricultural Holdings Act, 1908, and where the land is authorised to be acquired for allotments or allotment gardens in manner provided by the Allotments Act, 1922.

S. R. & O., 1925, No. 1124.

ALLOTMENTS, ENGLAND.

THE ALLOTMENTS (APPROVED SOCIETIES) REGULATIONS, 1925, DATED NOVEMBER 10, 1925, MADE BY THE TREASURY UNDER SECTION 2 (8) OF THE ALLOTMENTS ACT, 1925 (15 & 16 GEO. 5, C. 61).

Whereas by sub-section (8) of section 2 of the Allotments Act, 1925 (15 & 16 Geo. 5, c. 61), it is enacted that for the purposes of that Act "approved society" means—

(a) a society registered under the Industrial and Provident Societies Acts, 1893 to 1923, or the Friendly Societies Acts, 1896 to 1924, one of whose objects is the provision of allotments, and which, by its constitution or otherwise, is restricted in relation to the rate of interest on share and loan capital and the distribution of profits amongst its members so as to comply with regulations made in that behalf by the Treasury ; or (b) a company registered under the Companies Acts, 1908 to 1918, which does not trade for profit, or whose constitution forbids the issue of any share or loan capital with interest or dividend exceeding the rate for the time being prescribed by the Treasury.

Now, therefore, the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury by virtue of the power vested in them by the said section and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf hereby make the following regulations, which may be cited as the Allotments (Approved Societies) Regulations, 1925 :—

(1) The rate of interest which may be paid by an approved society upon any share or loan capital raised after the date of these Regulations shall not exceed the rate of six per cent. per annum, such rate being a gross rate calculated before deduction of income tax.

(2) The distribution of profits amongst members of an approved society shall be limited in any year to the payment of a dividend not exceeding the rate of five per cent. per annum upon any share capital of the society for the time being subscribed and paid up, such rate being a gross rate calculated before deduction of income tax.

Dated this tenth day of November, 1925.

STOCK (ISSUE OF).

ORDER IN COUNCIL OF THE 26TH SEPTEMBER, 1891.

At the Court at Balmoral, the 26th day of September, 1891.

PRESENT :

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Local Government Board have, in virtue of the powers conferred upon them by the " Public Health Acts Amendment Act, 1890," made regulations applying to the creation, issue, transfer, and redemption of, and other dealings with, any stock which any urban sanitary authority under the Public Health Acts (having adopted Part V. of the said Public Health Acts Amendment Act, 1890), either in that or in in any other capacity, create, with the consent of the said Local Government Board, under the said regulations in exercise of any statutory borrowing power as defined in those regulations :

And whereas the said regulations have, as required by the said Public Health Acts Amendment Act, 1890, been laid before both Houses of Parliament for the period of thirty days, and no resolution has been passed by either House that such regulations ought not to be proceeded with :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said regulations (copy whereof is hereunto annexed) into consideration, is pleased, by and with the advice of her Privy Council, to confirm, and doth hereby confirm the said regulations.

C. L. PEEL.

PUBLIC HEALTH ACTS AMENDMENT ACT, 1890.

(53 & 54 VICT. c. 59, s. 52.)

REGULATIONS AS TO ISSUE OF STOCK.

Whereas by section 52 of the Public Health Acts Amendment Act, 1890 (which section forms Part V. of the said Act) [the section (see ante, p. 914) is recited].

And whereas it is provided by the said Act that Part V. thereof may be adopted by any urban sanitary authority under the Public Health Acts :

Now therefore, we, the Local Government Board, in pursuance of the powers given to us by the above-cited section, do hereby order and prescribe as follows :—

The regulations hereinafter contained shall, from and after the confirmation thereof as aforesaid, apply to the creation, issue, transfer, and redemption of, and other dealings with, any stock which any urban sanitary authority (having adopted the said Part of the said Act), either in that or in any other capacity, create with our consent under these regulations, in exercise of any statutory borrowing power as defined in Article I.

PRELIMINARY.

ARTICLE 1.—In these regulations—

Interpretation. "The local authority."

The local authority means the mayor, aldermen, and burgesses of the borough, acting by the council of the borough, or the local board for the Local Government district, or the improvement commissioners for the Improvement Act district, as the case may be, exercising under these regulations, with the consent of the Local Government Board, the power of borrowing by the creation of stock;

"The district."

The district means the borough, or Local Government district, or Improvement Act district, according as the local authority is the mayor, aldermen, and burgesses, or the Local Board, or the improvement commissioners;

"Stock."

Stock, unless the context otherwise requires, means stock created by the local authority under these regulations

"Rate."

Rate includes water rents, gas rents, and charges for supply of water or gas, or the hire of meters or fittings connected therewith;

"The Board."

The Board means the Local Government Board;

"The Bank of England."

The Bank of England means the governor and company of the Bank of England;

"Revenues of the local authority."

Revenues of the local authority includes the revenues of the local authority from time to time arising from any land, undertakings, or other property for the time being of the local authority, and rates leviable by or on the precept of the local authority.

"Statutory borrowing power."

Statutory borrowing power means any power, whether or not coupled with a duty, of borrowing, or continuing on loan, or re-borrowing money, or of redeeming or paying off, or creating or continuing payment of or in respect of any annuity, rent-charge, rent, or other security representing or granted in lieu of consideration money, for the time being existing under any Act of Parliament, public or local, passed or to be passed, or under any Provisional Order confirmed by Act of Parliament passed or to be passed, or under these regulations, or under any Order or sanction of any Government department made or given, or to be made or given, by authority of any Act of Parliament passed or to be passed;

"Statutory security."

Statutory security means any security in which trustees are for the time being by or under any Act of Parliament passed or to be passed authorised to invest trust money, except any security of the local authority, and any other mortgage, bond, debenture, stock, annuity, rent-charge, rent, or other security authorised by or under any Act of Parliament passed or to be passed, or under these regulations, of any local authority as defined by section 34 of the Local Loans Act, 1875, except as before excepted, and except securities payable to bearer;

"Interest."

Interest includes instalments of an annuity and half-yearly or other payments of or in respect of a rent-charge, rent, or other security.

CREATION AND CHARGE OF STOCK.

Creation of stock.

ARTICLE 2.—(1) Where the local authority have for the time being any statutory borrowing power, and the Board have by order (hereinafter called the Consent Order) consented to the exercise of such power by the creation of stock, then, subject and according to the provisions of these regulations and of the Consent Order, the local authority may from time to time by resolution exercise the power by creation of redeemable stock, to be from time to time issued for such amount within the limit of the power, at such price, being not lower than ninety-five per centum, to bear such half-yearly or other dividends, and to be so transferable, that is to say, in books or by deed as the local authority by the resolution direct: Provided that, subject to any regulations which the Board may make amending these regulations, all stock at any time and from time to time so created shall be created on and subject to such terms and conditions as that the same shall form one and the same class of stock, bearing one and the same rate of dividend, and shall become redeemable as hereinafter provided after the expiration of the same period from the first creation of the stock.

(2) All stock at any time and from time to time so created shall rank equally without any priority or preference by reason of any precedence in the date of any statutory borrowing power, or in the date of creation of any portion of stock, or in the date of issue of any portion of stock, or on any other ground whatsoever, and shall (unless otherwise expressed in the resolution for creation of the stock) also rank equally with all other securities of the local authority created or granted in pursuance of any statutory borrowing power at any time after the date of the first creation of any stock.

(3) After the expiration of such a period from the creation of the stock as the Board shall fix by the Consent Order, the stock shall be redeemable at par, at the option of the local authority, and within such a period (not exceeding sixty years) from the first creation of the stock as the Board shall fix by the Consent Order, the whole of the stock shall be redeemed or purchased and extinguished.

(4) Each resolution for creation of stock shall specify after what period the stock thereby created is redeemable at par, and within what period the stock is to be redeemed or purchased and extinguished.

(5) The stock shall be designated by such name as the local authority in the resolution for creation of the stock shall, with the approval of the Board determine.

Borrowing power to be exercisable for actual sum raiseable.

ARTICLE 3. The Consent Order of the Board to the exercise of any statutory borrowing power of the local authority by the creation of stock shall be construed to authorise the local authority to create such an amount of stock and from time to time to issue such nominal amounts thereof as will, in the aggregate, according to the price of issue, produce the actual amount of money for the time being lawfully raiseable by the local authority under that power, or some portion, mentioned in the Consent Order, of that actual amount, or (as the case may be) the actual amount of money properly payable by the local authority as consideration on payment of or redemption by the local authority of any mortgage, bond, debenture, stock, annuity, rent-charge, rent, or other security granted or created by the local authority in respect of the payment off or redemption of which consent was given by the Consent Order.

Charge of stock.

ARTICLE 4.—(1) All stock for the time being issued and the dividends thereon shall be the same and are by virtue of these regulations charged indifferently on all the revenues of the local authority.

(2) The dividends for the time being payable on all stock shall rank equally with interest on all other securities of the local authority created or granted in pursuance of any statutory borrowing power at any time after the date of the first creation of any stock and the same dividends and interest shall, subject to all charges existing at that date, be the first charge on all the revenues of the local authority.

CONSOLIDATION OF LOANS.

Consolidation of loans.

ARTICLE 5. The Board may, in the Consent Order, approve a scheme for the consolidation for the purpose of the repayment of all or any of the loans raised by the local authority under all or any of the statutory borrowing powers of the local authority, whether existing at the date of these regulations or not, and any such scheme shall fix the period or periods within which the loans so consolidated shall be discharged, and for that purpose may extend or vary any period allowed for the payment off of such loans by the statutory borrowing powers: Provided that the Board, in approving the period or periods as aforesaid, shall have due regard to the amounts of the several loans and the periods allowed for the payment off of such loans respectively by the statutory borrowing powers.

DIVIDENDS FUND.

Establishment of dividends fund.

ARTICLE 6. For payment of dividends on the stock there shall be established and formed a fund called the stock (dividends) fund; and in these regulations the stock (dividends) fund is referred to as the dividends fund.

Contributions to dividends fund.

ARTICLE 7.—(1) In each year the local authority shall pay into the dividends fund a sum or sums equal to the aggregate amount of all dividends payable in that year on the stock.

(2) They shall provide the sum or sums aforesaid by contributions from the several revenues of the local authority, if any, specifically made liable to provide the same by or under any Act of Parliament, or any Provisional Order confirmed by Act of Parliament, or any Order or sanction of any Government department, or by any resolution of the local authority having reference to those respective statutory borrowing powers; and if, as regards any statutory borrowing power, there is no such specific liability, then from the several revenues out of which interest would have been payable on money borrowed by the local authority under that power if that money had been raised and remained secured otherwise than by stock, and in default thereof, or subject thereto, they shall provide the same, if the district is a borough, out of the borough fund and borough rate, or out of the district fund and general district rate, or if there is no district fund or general district rate, out of such other rate as the local authority, having regard to the provisions of these regulations and of the Consent Order and to the objects for which the statutory borrowing powers was exercised, may consider equitable ; and if the district is not a borough they shall provide the same out of the district fund and general district rate, or, if there is no such fund and rate, out of such other rate, as the local authority, having regard as aforesaid, may consider equitable.

(3) The amounts of those several contributions (subject to any payment in reduction thereof authorised by these regulations) shall be the sums ascertained to be required in that behalf by apportionment of that aggregate amount of dividends among the several revenues of the local authority according to the amount of stock, the dividends whereon are properly payable out of such revenues respectively.

Raising of contributions to dividends fund.

ARTICLE 8.—(1) The local authority shall from time to time, in order to raise the amounts of the several contributions to the dividends fund as aforesaid out of the several revenues of the local authority, do all such acts, exercise all such powers, collect all such money, and make and levy all such rates as they lawfully can or ought to do, exercise, collect, make, and levy for the purposes of or in relation to the respective statutory borrowing powers in exercise whereof the several portions of stock are issued.

(2) If by reason of any limit of rate, or for any other reason, there is a deficiency on any revenue in respect of any required contribution, the local authority shall advance the amount of the deficiency if the district is a borough out of the borough fund and borough rate, or out of the district fund and general district rate, or, if there is no district fund or general district rate, out of such other rate as the local authority, having regard to the provisions of these regulations, and of the Consent Order and to the objects for which the statutory borrowing power was exercised, may consider equitable and if the district is not a borough they shall advance the same out of the district fund and general district rate, or if there is no such fund and rate, out of such other rate as the local authority, having regard as aforesaid, may consider equitable.

(3) The amount so advanced shall be a debt due from the revenue on which the deficiency existed to the fund or rate out of which the advance is made, and interest shall be payable thereon until repayment at the rate to be determined by the Board, and the same debt and interest shall, as soon as in the judgment of the local authority reasonably may be, be raised and paid out of the revenue on which the deficiency existed.

Payment of rents, etc., to dividends fund.

ARTICLE 9.—(1) Unless the Board otherwise direct, the local authority shall pay into the dividends fund and shall carry to the proper separate account forming part of the general account of the dividends fund, the rents and profits of any land and other property of the local authority acquired by them for the purposes of any undertaking or purpose for or in respect of which any statutory borrowing power is exercised by them by the issue of the stock, and not being wholly or in part otherwise appropriated or required to be otherwise applied.

(2) The local authority before making any payment into the dividends fund under this article, may deduct from the rents and profits to which this article applies any costs and expenses properly incurred by the local authority in or about the collection and receipt of such rents and profits.

Application of dividends fund.

ARTICLE 10. The local authority shall from time to time, apply the dividends fund in paying the dividends on the stock.

Account of dividends fund.

ARTICLE 11. As parts of the general account of the dividends fund the local authority shall keep separate accounts, distinguishing and showing, in relation to each undertaking or purpose for or in respect of which any statutory borrowing power is exercised by them by the issue of the stock,—

(1) All money from time to time paid into the dividends fund as receipts from rents and profits of any land and other property of the local authority so as aforesaid acquired in respect of that undertaking or purpose and not otherwise appropriated or required to be applied ; and

(2) All money paid into the dividends fund as contributions from the revenues of the local authority in respect of dividends on the several amounts of stock chargeable to that undertaking or purpose; and

(3) All money being unclaimed dividends paid into the dividends fund as hereinafter provided and allocated to that undertaking or purpose.

Application of income in reduction of contributions to dividends fund.

ARTICLE 12. Where any money is standing on a separate account in the dividends fund, being money paid into that fund as rents and profits of the land and other property of the local authority, or being other money properly paid into that fund otherwise than as contributions under Article 7 required for the payment of dividends, the local authority may, if they think fit, from time to time apply the same in reduction of such contributions out of the revenues of the local authority as are payable into the dividends fund in respect of the portions of stock comprised in the separate account on which the money is standing.

REDEMPTION FUND.

Establishment of redemption fund.

ARTICLE 13. For redemption and extinction, or purchase and extinction, of the stock there shall be established and formed a fund called the stock (redemption) fund; and in these regulations the stock (redemption) fund is referred to as the redemption fund.

Contributions to redemption fund for extinction of stock.

ARTICLE 14.—(1) In each year the local authority shall pay into the redemption fund a sum or sums equal to the aggregate amount of all sums payable in that year for redemption and extinction, or purchase and extinction of the stock.

(2) They shall provide the sum or sums last aforesaid by contributions from the several revenues of the local authority, if any, specifically made liable to provide the same by or under any Act of Parliament, or any Provisional Order confirmed by Act of Parliament or any order or sanction of any Government department, or by any resolution of the local authority having reference to those respective statutory borrowing powers, and if as regards any statutory borrowing power there is no such specific liability, then from the several revenues out of which any yearly or other sums would have been payable towards a sinking fund for discharge, or towards payment off by instalments, appropriations, annual repayments, or otherwise of money borrowed by the local authority under that power if that money had been raised and remained secured otherwise than by stock; and in default thereof, or subject thereto, they shall provide the same, if the district is a borough, out of the borough fund and borough rate, or out of the district fund and general district rate, or if there is no district fund or general district rate, out of such other rate as the local authority, having regard to the provisions of these regulations and of the Consent Order and to the objects for which the statutory borrowing power was exercised may consider equitable; and if the district is not a borough, they shall provide the same out of the district fund and general district rate, or, if there is no such fund and rate, out of such other rate as the local authority having regard as aforesaid, may consider equitable.

(3) The amounts of those several contributions (subject to any payment in reduction thereof authorised by these regulations) shall be determined by the provisions either of paragraph (a), paragraph (b), or paragraph (c) of this clause, according as the Board shall prescribe in the Consent Order, or shall thereafter determine:—

a) The said amounts shall be the same as would under the statutory borrowing powers have been payable towards paying off the money represented by the stock, or to a sinking fund for the repayment of the same, if the same had been raised otherwise than by the issue of stock; provided that if the moneys payable as aforesaid were not required to be accumulated, the Board may determine what the amounts of the contributions shall be, having regard to the rate at which the redemption fund will be accumulated.

(b) The said amounts shall be such amounts as will, with accumulations at compound interest at a rate per centum per annum to be determined by the Board, be sufficient, after payment of all expenses, to purchase the amount of stock at par within the time within which, under the statutory borrowing power, the money represented by the stock is to be repaid: Provided that the Board may from time to time, if they think fit, alter such rate of interest.

(c) If the statutory borrowing power in exercise of which the stock is issued does not determine the amounts to be paid towards paying off or to a sinking fund in respect of the money to be borrowed thereunder, or the period within which the same is to be repaid, or if the Board approve a scheme for the consolidation of all or any of the loans to be raised by the issue of stock, the amounts of the several contributions shall be such amounts as will, with accumulations at compound interest at a rate per centum per annum to be determined by the Board, be sufficient, after payment of all expenses, to purchase the amount of stock at par within such time, not exceeding sixty years from the first creation of the stock, as the Board shall prescribe in the Consent Order, or shall thereafter determine: Provided that the Board may from time to time, if they think fit, alter such rate of interest.

(4) The provisions of Article 8 of these regulations in regard to the raising of contributions to the dividends fund shall apply to the raising of contributions to the redemption fund as if such provisions were repeated in this article with the substitution of "redemption fund" for "dividends fund."

(5) If it appears to the Board at any time that any contributions to the redemption fund will not be sufficient to redeem the amount of stock in respect of which such contributions are made within the time allowed for the continuance of the loan represented by the stock, the amount of such contributions shall be increased to such extent as the Board may direct; and the Board shall at any time have power to consent to the reduction of the contributions to be made to the redemption fund as aforesaid, either temporarily or permanently, in any case in which it appears to the Board that such contributions would, if maintained, be more than sufficient to redeem the amount of stock in respect of which such contributions are made within the time allowed for the continuance of the loan represented by the stock; and if the amount in the redemption fund at any time is, in the opinion of the Board, sufficient, with the accumulations to arise thereon, to redeem the stock within the time or times allowed for the continuance of the loan or loans represented by the stock, the Board may consent to the discontinuance of contributions to the redemption fund in respect of the stock.

(6) If the local authority create and issue stock for the purpose of defraying the expenses of the creation and issue of any stock, the amount of stock created and issued for that purpose shall be redeemable and extinguished after and within the same periods after and within which the stock is to be redeemed and extinguished for the purpose of defraying the expenses of which it was so created and issued; and, for the purpose of determining the amount of the contributions aforesaid, the amount of the said expenses shall be deemed to be the amount of a loan authorised by a statutory borrowing power, and required to be paid off within the period within which the stock is to be extinguished.

(7) If, before the expiration of the period allowed for the continuance of any loan represented by the amount of stock, the local authority apply in the redemption of purchase and extinction of stock to that or any less amount, any part of the redemption fund, then a sum equal to the interest which the part of the redemption fund so applied would have produced at the rate per centum on which the payments to the redemption fund are calculated shall, in each year, until the expiration of the said period allowed for the continuance of the loan, be paid into the redemption fund out of the revenues of the local authority chargeable with payment of the contributions to the redemption fund in respect of the amount of stock aforesaid.

Provided that if any amount of stock extinguished by application of part of the redemption fund as aforesaid is purchased by the local authority at a rate exceeding one hundred pounds sterling for one hundred pounds stock, the interest payable into the redemption fund under this part of this article shall be calculated as if only one hundred pounds sterling had been applied out of the redemption fund for each one hundred pounds stock purchased, and the local authority shall either pay into the redemption fund, during the year in which such purchase is made, an additional sum or sums equal in amount to the sum or sums paid in excess of the said rate for the purchase of stock in such year, or shall, during such year and each succeeding year until the expiration of the period allowed for the continuance of the loan represented by the stock extinguished, pay into the redemption fund such additional sum as the Board shall approve; and such additional sum or sums shall be paid out of the revenues of the local authority chargeable with payment of the contributions to the redemption fund in respect of that amount of stock.

For the purpose of ascertaining what contributions, to be paid out of what revenues, are required to be paid in respect of any amount of stock extinguished as aforesaid, the several amounts of stock issued under different statutory borrowing powers shall be deemed to be extinguished in succession, beginning with the amount created in exercise of the borrowing power under which (at the date of the extinction of such stock) the remaining period allowed either expressly or by implication for the continuance of the loan is the shortest, and proceeding, in order, to that created in exercise of the borrowing power under which the longest remaining period is allowed as aforesaid.

Payment of sale money, etc. to redemption fund.

ARTICLE 15.—(1) Unless the Board otherwise direct, the local authority shall pay into the redemption fund, and shall carry to the proper separate account forming part of the general account of the redemption fund, all such money being capital, or in the nature of capital, and not being wholly or in part otherwise appropriated or required to be otherwise applied, as shall from time to time arise from any sale, lease, or other disposition of land or other property of the local authority on the revenues whereof any stock is charged, and as shall from time to time arise from any other source.

(2) The local authority, before making any payment into the redemption fund under this article, may deduct from the money to which this article applies any costs and expenses properly incurred by the local authority in or about any sale, lease, or other disposition of land or property as aforesaid.

Investment and application of redemption fund.

ARTICLE 16. The local authority shall from time to time apply the redemption fund in redeeming stock according to the terms of issue and purchasing stock for extinction, and, pending such application of the redemption fund or any part thereof, all sums paid into the redemption fund shall be invested on statutory securities, and the interest and annual proceeds arising from those securities shall be paid into the redemption fund, and be invested and accumulated in like manner.

Extinction of stock redeemed or purchased.

ARTICLE 17. The local authority on redeeming and purchasing any stock shall forthwith pass a resolution directing the stock so redeemed or purchased to be cancelled by the registrar, and on such cancellation the same and all dividends thereon which have not already become payable shall be and the same are by virtue of these regulations extinguished.

Account of redemption fund.

ARTICLE 18.—(1) As parts of the general account of the redemption fund, the local authority shall keep—

(a) An account showing the securities on which all sums paid into the redemption fund are from time to time invested ; and

(b) Separate accounts relative to each undertaking or purpose for or in respect of which any statutory borrowing power is exercised by them by the issue of the stock ; and

(c) Separate accounts relative to each statutory borrowing power so exercised.

(2) Those separate accounts shall distinguish and show—

(d) The amounts of stock for the time being chargeable to each undertaking or purpose and respectively attributable to the exercise of the several statutory borrowing powers if more than one relating to that undertaking or purpose; and

(e) The several amounts of stock redeemed or purchased by means of the redemption fund and cancelled and extinguished.

(3) Those separate accounts shall further distinguish and show in relation to each undertaking or purpose—

(f) All money being capital, or in the nature of capital, paid into the redemption fund, and in the judgment of the local authority properly attributable to that undertaking or purpose ; and

(g) All money from time to time received as interest of the last-mentioned moneys ; and

(h) All money and securities transferred to the redemption fund as having formed part of a sinking fund, and all money from time to time received as interest of the last-mentioned money or securities ; and

(i) All money paid into the redemption fund as contributions from the revenues of the local authority in respect of redemption and extinction, or purchase and extinction, of those several amounts of stock ; and

(j) All money from time to time received as interest of the last-mentioned money.

Determination as to charge of stock.

ARTICLE 19. For the purposes of any contribution or account under these regulations, the local authority, if they think fit, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, and subject to the terms on which any loan of the local authority was contracted, or any stock was issued, may from time to time by resolution, with the approval of the Board, determine and declare on which of the revenues of the local authority any loan of the local authority or any portion of stock is or shall be deemed to be primarily or collaterally charged, or determine and declare that any loan of the local authority or any portion of stock shall be apportioned as regards the charge thereof between or among any of the revenues of the local authority, and every such determination and declaration shall be effectual to all intents.

CONVERSION OF OTHER SECURITIES INTO STOCK.

Payment off or substitution for existing securities.

ARTICLE 20.—(1) Where the consent of the Board is given to the exercise by the local authority of any statutory borrowing power by the creation and issue of stock for the purpose of purchasing, paying off, or redeeming any mortgage, bond, debenture, stock, annuity, rent-charge, or other security granted or created by the local authority under any statutory borrowing power and which the local authority have power, with the consent of the holder of that security, or otherwise, to pay off or to redeem, they may pay off or redeem the security accordingly with money raised by stock, or they may, with the consent of the holder thereof, issue stock in substitution for the security.

Provided that as regards any loans specified for the purposes of this provision in the Consent Order, the Board may, in such Order, require the foregoing powers of this article to be exercised as far as practicable pari passu with respect to all such loans and in such manner as not to extend the period approved under these regulations for the payment off of such loans on consolidation.

(2) The local authority may in every such case make such reasonable payment as they may think fit to the holder of any security for his consent, or for otherwise compensating him for the payment off or redemption of or substitution for his security, and any such payment may be either in money or stock, or partly in one and partly in the other.

(3) In every such case of payment off redemption or substitution the local authority shall forthwith pay and transfer into the redemption fund the whole or a proportionate part (as the case may require) of any money and securities forming part of any sinking fund applicable to the discharge of the security, and also such further sum, if any, as may be necessary to make the money and securities so paid and transferred equivalent to the amount which should have been in such sinking fund, or should have been paid off, in respect of the security for the payment off or redemption of which or in substitution for which the stock is created.

(4) Where the holder of the security is one of the persons described in section 7 of the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, and by that Act enabled to sell land thereunder, that person may consent to payment or redemption of, or substitution for, the money secured or represented by that security and may accept money for giving that consent as if the person so consenting were the absolute owner of that security, and that person is hereby indemnified for so doing, and his receipt shall be a good discharge for the same.

(5) Money received by the holder of any security as authorised by this article, and stock issued to him in substitution for any security, shall be subject to the same trusts, powers, testamentary, and other dispositions, provisions, and incumbrances, as the money secured or represented by the security was subject to, immediately before the payment off redemption or substitution, and every deed, or other instrument, or any testamentary, or other disposition, shall take effect with reference to the whole, or a proportionate part of the money or stock received, or substituted, as the case may be.

EFFECT ON BORROWING POWERS.

Extinction or suspension of power.

ARTICLE 21. On the issue of any portion of stock the statutory borrowing power, in exercise whereof that stock is issued, shall be affected as follows; namely—

(a) If the stock is issued for the whole term limited for the continuance of any loan, or for the continuance of payment of or in respect of any mortgage, bond, debenture, stock, annuity, rent-charge, rent, or other security granted or created by the local authority under that statutory borrowing power, then that power, to the extent of the money raised by that stock (except in the case hereinafter provided for), shall be and the same is by virtue of these regulations extinguished; but

(b) If the stock is issued for part only of that term, then so much of the money raised by that stock as represents the balance which should be outstanding may be re-borrowed by the local authority for the residue of that term, or any part thereof, and so from time to time.

APPLICATION OF MONEY RAISED.

General application of money from stock.

ARTICLE 22. Money raised by stock shall be applied for purposes for which money raisable under the statutory borrowing power, in exercise whereof the stock is issued, ought by law to be applied, and not otherwise.

Provided that if, after the raising of any money by stock under these regulations, it shall be found that any part of such money is not required for the purposes to which it is applicable as aforesaid, the local authority shall pay such money into the redemption fund, or apply such money for such other purposes for which the local authority shall have a statutory borrowing power as the Board may, by Order, approve; and if any such money is so paid into the redemption fund the statutory borrowing power in exercise whereof the stock represented by the money so paid was issued shall, to the amount of the money so paid, be deemed not to have been extinguished; and if any such money is applied for some other purpose as aforesaid the stock represented by the money so applied shall be deemed to have been created and issued under these regulations in exercise or part exercise of such last-mentioned statutory borrowing power.

Temporary investment of money raised by stock.

ARTICLE 23. The local authority shall from time to time invest temporarily on statutory securities any sum exceeding such sum as may be fixed by the Consent Order, and may so invest any sum raised by stock and not for the time being applied to or required for the undertaking or purpose for which it is raised, and shall from time to time pay the interest of those securities into the dividends fund.

REGISTRATION AND CERTIFICATES.

Appointment of registrar.

ARTICLE 24.—(1) The local authority shall, on and subject to such terms and instructions not inconsistent with any provision of these regulations as they think expedient, appoint and keep appointed an officer of the local authority, or any other person, or the Bank of England, or any other bank, or any banking or other company, as registrar for all or any of the purposes of these regulations (in these regulations referred to as the registrar).

(2) The local authority in relation to these regulations and the registrar shall respectively be deemed a banker within the Bankers Books Evidence Act, 1879.

Stock register.

ARTICLE 25.—(1) The registrar shall keep books, in which shall be entered the names and addresses of holders from time to time of stock, and the amounts held by them (in these regulations referred to as the stock register).

(2) The stock register shall be primâ facie evidence of any matter entered therein in accordance with these regulations, and of the title of the persons entered therein as holders of stock.

Certificates of proprietorship of stock.

ARTICLE 26.—(1) On demand of a holder of stock the local authority may, if they think fit, give to him a certificate of the proprietorship thereof, under their common seal, specifying the amount of stock to which he is entitled (in these regulations referred to as a stock certificate).

(2) A stock certificate shall be primâ facie evidence of the title of the person therein named, his executors, administrators, successors, or assigns, to the stock therein specified; but the want of a stock certificate, if such want be accounted for to the satisfaction of the local authority, shall not prevent the holder of stock from disposing of and transferring the same.

(3) If a stock certificate is worn out or damaged the local authority, on production thereof, may cancel it and give a similar stock certificate to the party in whom the property in the stock certificate and in the stock therein specified is then vested.

(4) If a stock certificate is lost or destroyed the local authority, on proof thereof to their satisfaction, may give a similar stock certificate to the party entitled to the certificate lost or destroyed.

(5) An entry of the issue of a stock certificate or a substituted certificate, as the case may be, shall be made in the stock register.

TRANSFER.

Power for stockholder to transfer.

ARTICLE 27. Subject to the provisions of these regulations, every stockholder may transfer all or any part of his stock in books or by deed.

Transfer in books.

ARTICLE 28.—(1) If and where the resolution for creation of any portion of stock makes the same transferable in books and not by deed, the provisions of this article shall apply and have effect, but not otherwise.

(2) The registrar shall keep books wherein transfer of stock so transferable shall be entered (in these regulations referred to as the stock transfer books).

(3) Every such entry shall be conceived in proper words for the purpose of transfer, and shall be signed by the party making the transfer, or, if he is absent, by his agent thereunto lawfully authorised in writing under his hand attested by a witness.

(4) Where the Bank of England are the registrar they may, if they think fit, require that the agent be so authorised by power of attorney under the hand and seal of the party making the transfer, attested by two or more credible witnesses.

(5) The person to whom a transfer is made may, if he thinks fit, underwrite his acceptance thereof.

(6) Except as otherwise provided by Act of Parliament, and subject to the provisions of these regulations respecting any portion of stock which the resolution for creation thereof makes transferable by deed and not in books, no mode of transferring stock other than that prescribed in this article shall be good in law.

Transfer by deed.

ARTICLE 29.—(1) If and where the resolution for creation of any portion of stock makes the same transferable by deed and not in books, the provisions of this article shall apply and have effect, but not otherwise.

(2) Every transfer of stock so transferable shall be by deed.

(3) The deed of transfer shall relate only to the transfer, and shall not contain any recital, trust, or proviso whatsoever.

(4) The deed of transfer, when duly executed, shall be delivered to and kept by the registrar, and the registrar shall enter a memorial thereof in a book to be called the register of transfers of stock, and shall endorse on the deed of transfer a notice of that entry.

(5) The registrar shall on demand, and on delivery up of the old stock certificate, or on such proof that it cannot be produced as the registrar, with the approval of the local authority, may require, deliver a new stock certificate to the purchaser, or shall, at the option of the purchaser, make an endorsement of the transfer on the existing stock certificate, which endorsement, being signed by the registrar, shall be equivalent to a new stock certificate.

(6) Until the deed of transfer has been so delivered to the registrar, the local authority or the registrar shall not be affected thereby, and the purchaser of the stock shall not be entitled to receive any dividend thereon.

Evidence on transfer.

ARTICLE 30.—(1) The registrar, before allowing any transfer of stock, may, if the circumstances of the case appear to him to make it expedient, require evidence of the title of any person claiming a right to make the transfer.

(2) That evidence shall be a statutory declaration of one or more competent persons, or of such other nature as the registrar, with the approval of the local authority, may require.

Closing of transfer books.

ARTICLE 31.—(1) The registrar, with the approval of the local authority, may, as regards any portion of stock, close the stock transfer books or the register of transfers of stock (as the case may be) on any day in the month next before that in which dividends on that portion of stock are payable, but so that the books be not at any time kept closed for more than fifteen days.

(2) The persons who on the day of such closing are inscribed as stockholders shall, as between them and their transferees of stock, be entitled to the dividend next payable thereon.

Stamp duty on transfers.

ARTICLE 32. Unless the local authority have compounded for stamp duty, all stock shall, notwithstanding anything in any resolution of the local authority, be transferable by deed, and not in books, and every deed of transfer of stock transferable by deed shall be duly stamped, and the consideration shall be truly stated therein.

TRANSMISSION.

Transmission on death.

ARTICLE 33.—(1) The interest of a deceased stockholder in stock shall be transferable by his executors or administrators, notwithstanding any specific bequest thereof.

(2) Where two or more persons are registered as owners of any stock, such persons shall be deemed to be joint owners with right of survivorship between them.

(3) The local authority or the registrar shall not be required to allow any executors or administrators to transfer any stock until the probate of the will or the letters of administration to the estate of the deceased has or have been left with the registrar for registration, and may require all the executors who have proved the will to join in the transfer.

Transmission otherwise than by death of holder or transfer in books or by deed.

ARTICLE 34.—(1) If the interest in any stock has become transmitted by any lawful means other than a transfer in books or by deed, or than the death of a stockholder, satisfactory evidence of the transmission shall be furnished to the registrar by a statutory declaration of one or more competent persons, or in such other manner as the registrar may, with the approval of the local authority, require.

(2) The name of the person entitled under the transmission shall be entered in the stock register.

(3) Until such evidence has been furnished, the local authority or the registrar shall not be affected by the transmission, and no person claiming by virtue thereof shall be entitled to receive any dividend on the stock.

(4) In this article the term transmission includes any case of apparent transmission in consequence of the change of name of the stockholder, although the actual ownership of the stock may remain unaltered

DIVIDENDS.

Payment of dividends.

ARTICLE 35. The local authority shall pay by the registrar the dividends on stock.

Dividends to executors, etc.

ARTICLE 36. The local authority or the registrar shall not be required to pay any executors or administrators any dividend on stock held by their testator or intestate until the probate of the will or the letters of administration has or have been left with the registrar for registration.

Evidence of title.

ARTICLE 37. The registrar before paying any dividend on any stock may, if the circumstances of the case appear to him to make it expedient, require evidence of the title of any person claiming a right to receive the dividend, and that evidence shall be a statutory declaration of competent persons, or of such other nature as the registrar, with the approval of the local authority, may require.

Dividends to joint holders.

ARTICLE 38.—(1) Where more persons than one are registered as joint holders of any stock, any one of them may give an effectual receipt for any dividend thereon, unless notice to the contrary has been given to the registrar by any other of them.

(2) Where stock is standing in the name of an infant or person of unsound mind jointly with any person not under legal disability, a letter of attorney for receipt of the dividends on the stock shall be sufficient authority in that behalf if given under the hand and seal of the person not under disability attested by two or more credible witnesses, but the registrar before acting on the letter of attorney may, if he think fit, require proof to his satisfaction of the alleged infancy or unsoundness of mind by a statutory declaration of one or more competent persons.

Dividend warrants by post.

ARTICLE 39.—(1) Where a stockholder desires to have his dividends sent to him by post, he may make a request for that purpose to the registrar in writing, signed by him in a form approved by the local authority, and shall give to the registrar an address in the United Kingdom, or in the Channel Islands, or the Isle of Man, to which the letters containing the warrants are from time to time to be sent.

(2) The posting by the registrar of a letter containing a dividend warrant addressed to a stockholder at his request at the address so given by him shall, as respects the liability of the local authority and of the registrar, be equivalent to the delivery of the warrant to the stockholder himself.

(3) Every warrant so sent by post shall be deemed a cheque, and the local authority and the registrar shall, in relation thereto, be deemed a banker within the Bills of Exchange Act, 1882.

(4) Provided that this article shall not apply to cases to which the provisions of section 4 of the National Debt Act, 1889, apply.

STOCK CERTIFICATES WITH COUPONS TO BEARER.

Provisions respecting stock certificates with coupons to bearer.

ARTICLE 40.—(1) On demand of a stockholder, the registrar may issue to the stockholder a stock certificate to bearer, that is to say, a certificate of title to his stock or any part thereof, entitling the bearer to the stock therein specified, and transferable by delivery with coupons entitling the bearer of the coupons to the dividends on the stock, but so that no such certificate or coupons shall give a title to dividends beyond the time limited for redemption of the stock.

(2) A stock certificate to bearer shall not be issued in respect of any sum of stock other than ten pounds or a multiple of ten pounds.

(3) No trustee shall apply for, purchase, take, or hold a stock certificate to bearer unless he is in express words authorised to do so by the instrument creating his trust, and any contravention of this provision by a trustee shall be deemed a breach of trust; but this provision shall not impose on the local authority or the registrar an obligation to inquire or to take notice whether a person applying for or holding a stock certificate to bearer is or is not a trustee, or subject the local authority or the registrar to any liability in case of his, with or without notice, issuing to a trustee a stock certificate to bearer, or invalidate any stock certificate to bearer issued.

(4) Where a stock certificate to bearer is outstanding the stock represented thereby shall cease to be transferable in books or by deed.

(5) The bearer of a stock certificate to bearer may, on delivery up to the registrar of the certificate, and of all unpaid coupons belonging thereto, require to be entered in the stock register as the holder of the stock described in the certificate under which he derives title, and thereupon such stock certificate and coupons shall be cancelled and the stock shall be re-entered in the register as transferable, and shall become and again be transferable in the stock transfer books or by deed, as the case may require, and shall, as regards the mode of payment of the dividends thereon, be in the like condition as if no stock certificate to bearer had been issued in respect thereof.

(6) The coupons issued with a stock certificate to bearer shall comprise the dividends to be paid in respect of the stock therein specified for such period as the local authority approve.

(7) At the end of that period fresh coupons may be issued for such further period as the local authority approve, and so for successive periods during the continuance in force of the stock certificate, but the local authority may direct the registrar, in lieu of issuing fresh coupons in respect of any stock certificate, to give in exchange a fresh stock certificate with coupons.

(8) Payment to the bearer of a coupon of the amount expressed therein shall be a full discharge to the local authority and to the registrar from all liability in respect of that coupon and the dividend represented thereby.

(9) Where the Bank of England are the registrar coupons shall be payable at the chief establishment of the bank at the expiration of three clear days from the day of presentation, and at any branch establishment of the bank situate more than ten miles from the chief establishment at the expiration of five clear days from the day of presentation.

(10) If a stock certificate to bearer or coupon is worn out or damaged the registrar, on production and delivery up thereof, may cancel it and issue a new certificate or coupon.

(11) If a stock certificate to bearer or coupon is lost or destroyed, the registrar may issue a new certificate or coupon on receiving indemnity to the satisfaction of the local authority against the claims of all persons deriving title under the certificate or coupon lost or destroyed.

(12) All coupons issued under these regulations in respect of any stock certificate to bearer shall, for the purposes of the Acts relating to stamp duties, be deemed to have been attached to and issued with such stock certificate.

(13) Stock specified in a stock certificate to bearer shall be charged on the same securities, and be subject to the same powers of redemption and other powers, and save as regards the mode of transfer and of payment of dividends thereon, and save so far as a stock certificate to bearer is a negotiable instrument, shall be subject to the same incidents in all respects as if that stock had continued to be registered in the stock register as transferable in books or by deed.

GENERAL.

Nature of stock: notice of trusts.

ARTICLE 41.—(1) Stock is personal property.

(2) Stock is not liable to foreign attachment by the custom of London or otherwise.

(3) No notice of any trust, express, implied, or constructive, in respect of any stock, or of any stock, certificate to bearer or coupon, shall be entered in the stock register, or in any other book kept by the local authority or the register, or be receivable by the local authority or the registrar, or affect the registrar or the local authority through the registrar or otherwise.

Receiver.

ARTICLE 42.—(1) If at any time any dividend due on any stock remain unpaid for two months after demand in writing the person entitled thereto may apply to the High Court for a receiver, and the Court may, if it thinks fit, appoint a receiver on such terms as it thinks fit.

(2) The receiver shall have the like power of collecting, receiving, recovering, and applying all money which ought to be paid under these regulations into the redemption fund or the dividends fund, and of assessing, making, and recovering all rates for the purpose of obtaining the same, as the local authority or any officer thereof would or might have, and such other powers and such duties as the Court thinks fit, and shall apply all money so collected, after payment of expenses and costs as the Court directs, for purposes of these regulations.

(3) The Court may at any time discharge the receiver, and shall have full jurisdiction over him and all persons interested in his acts.

Protection of holders of stock.

ARTICLE 43. A person taking or holding stock shall not be concerned to inquire or to take notice whether the creation or issue thereof was or was not within any statutory borrowing power of the local authority, or otherwise in accordance with these regulations, or whether or not the local authority or any meeting thereof was properly constituted or convened, or whether or not the proceedings at any meeting of the local authority were legal or regular, or to see to the application of any money raised by stock, or be answerable for any loss or misapplication thereof.

Annual return to Local Government Board.

ARTICLE 44.—(1) Once in every year, at a time appointed by the Board, the clerk to the local authority shall send to the Board an abstract of the accounts of the local authority relating to stock and the redemption fund in a form prescribed by the Board; and such abstract shall be verified by a statutory declaration of an officer of the local authority, if and as may be required by the Board, and such abstract shall be made up to such date in each year as the Board may determine.

(2) Unless and until the Board in any case by Order otherwise direct, the said abstract shall—

(a) Be made up to the twenty-fifth (a) day of March in each year;

(b) Be forwarded to the said Board within forty-two days after that day;

(c) Be in the form set forth in the Schedule B to these regulations; and

(d) Be verified by a statutory declaration of the clerk to the local authority, or of such other officer of the local authority as the Board may, on the application of the authority, approve.

(3) In case of wilful default therein by the clerk to or other officer of the local authority, the said clerk or other officer shall on each occasion be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty pounds, and every fine under this article shall be recoverable summarily on the prosecution of the Board, and not otherwise.

(4) If by any such abstract or otherwise it appears to the Board that the local authority have failed to comply with any requisition of these regulations, or of any Order of the Board thereunder, in relation to any payment, application, or investment, or otherwise in relation to stock or the redemption fund, the Board may by Order require the local authority to make good the default within a time therein limited; and if the default be in respect of any sum payable into the redemption fund, or the misapplication of any part of such fund, the Board may by Order direct that the sum in such Order mentioned, not exceeding double the amount in respect of which default has been made, shall be paid into the redemption fund and be invested and applied as part of that fund.

Unclaimed dividends.

ARTICLE 45.—(1) If at any time any dividend on any stock is unclaimed at the time for payment thereof the same shall, nevertheless, on demand at any subsequent time whatsoever, be paid to the person showing his right thereto, but without interest in the meantime.

(2) Where any dividend remains unclaimed for five years from the time for payment thereof the local authority shall cause notice thereof to be sent by post in a registered letter addressed to the stockholder named in their books by the description and at the address therein appearing, and so at the expiration of three other successive periods of five years.

---

(a) Now the thirty-first; see the Order of the L. G. B., April 5th, 1902, post, p. 3807.

(3) At the end of every successive period of five years from the day when the first dividend becomes payable on stock first issued, the local authority shall publish an advertisement in a newspaper circulating in their district, stating what, if any, dividends on stock have then been unclaimed for more than four years, and the names and addresses appearing in the stock register of the persons entitled to such dividends when the same became due.

(4) At the end of every successive period of ten years from the day when the first dividend becomes payable on stock first issued the local authority, unless it has been otherwise agreed between them and the registrar, may require the registrar to repay to them all dividends unclaimed during that period and then in his hands, and the local authority shall cause the same or any other dividends unclaimed during that period to be paid into the dividends fund, and may deal therewith as they are by these regulations empowered to deal with money paid into the dividends fund, without prejudice, nevertheless to the rights of any person to those dividends.

Unclaimed stock.

ARTICLE 46.—(1) If at the end of the period within which any stock is required to be extinguished the local authority, by reason of the holder of any such stock not being forthcoming, or by reason of any doubt as to the ownership of any such stock, shall not be able to redeem, extinguish, and cancel such stock as required by the regulations hereinbefore contained, the local authority shall invest on statutory securities a sum equal to the nominal value of all such stock as cannot be redeemed by reason as aforesaid, such sum to be dealt with as hereinafter prescribed, and thereupon such stock shall be deemed to have been extinguished.

(2) If before the end of the period within which any stock is required to be extinguished the local authority shall have extinguished all the stock, except such as cannot be redeemed by reason as aforesaid, the local authority may invest on statutory securities a sum equal to the nominal value of all such stock as cannot be redeemed as aforesaid, such sum to be dealt with as hereinafter prescribed, and thereupon such stock shall be deemed to have been extinguished.

(3) Any sums invested by the local authority as aforesaid shall, unless sold for the purpose of satisfying any claim in respect of the stock represented by the same, be kept invested on statutory securities for a period of ten years, after which time the local authority may appropriate the said sums and any accumulations thereon for such purposes as the Board may approve, without prejudice, nevertheless, to the rights of any person to the said sums or any part thereof.

Saving for power to borrow otherwise.

ARTICLE 47. Nothing in these regulations shall affect any power of the local authority to raise otherwise than by stock any money which they do not think fit to raise by stock, but whenever, from time to time after the date of the first creation of stock, the local authority raise money otherwise than by stock, they shall cause to be given to each lender of money so raised notice in writing, signed by the clerk or other authorised officer of the local authority, of the equality of charge which stock has or may have by virtue of these regulations.

Saving for power of revocation.

ARTICLE 48. The local authority may by resolution revoke at any time, in whole or in part, any resolution for creation of stock theretofore passed by the local authority if and as far as the same has not been acted on by the issue of stock thereunder, and notice of such revocation shall forthwith be given to the Board; and in so far as the local authority revoke any such resolution, the Board may, if they think fit, by Order, revoke their consent to the exercise of the statutory borrowing power by the creation and issue of stock.

Saving for other obligations.

ARTICLE 49. Except as in these regulations expressly provided, nothing in these regulations shall relieve the local authority from any obligation imposed on them in relation to any statutory borrowing power by any Act of Parliament under or by which that power for the time being exists or is regulated.

Saving for power to sell lands, etc.

ARTICLE 50.—(1) Nothing in these regulations shall affect any power or duty of the local authority to sell, lease, or otherwise dispose of any land or property of the local authority, or to apply any purchase money or other money arising thereby in discharge of any charge on that land or property, or the revenues thereof, other than the charge of stock, or affect any claim of any person under such first-mentioned charge.

(2) That land or property shall, in the hands of the purchaser or other person taking the same under the sale, lease, or other disposition, be by virtue of these regulations absolutely freed from the charge of stock, and he shall not be concerned to see to the application of that purchase money or other money, or be answerable for any loss or misapplication thereof.

Saving for existing securities.

ARTICLE 51. Nothing in or done under these regulations shall affect any security or charge created or granted or payable by the local authority before and subsisting at the date of the first creation of any stock, and the local authority shall, whenever required by the holder of any security or charge aforesaid, apply all such money, do all such acts, exercise all such powers, collect all such money, and make and levy all such rates as they would or ought to have applied, done, exercised, collected, made, and levied for his benefit and security if these regulations had not been prescribed and made applicable to the local authority.

Forgery.

ARTICLE 52.—(1) Stock shall be deemed capital stock of a body corporate within the Act of the Session of the twenty-fourth and twenty-fifth years of the reign of Her present Majesty (chapter ninety-eight) "to consolidate and amend the statute law of England and Ireland relating to indictable offences by forgery."

(2) A stock certificate to bearer and a coupon connected therewith shall be deemed a stock certificate and coupon within the Forgery Act, 1870.

Orders of the Local Government Board.

ARTICLE 53. Any determinations or directions of the Board under these regulations may be signified by Order under their seal, and any Order of the Board may contain such provisions as the Board think necessary or proper for giving effect thereto, and shall be enforceable by writ of mandamus to be obtained by the Board out of the High Court, and may from time to time be cancelled or varied by the Board, as the circumstances of the case may require, but the Board shall not make any such Order without first hearing the local authority, if desirous of being heard, which hearing may be in the form of a public inquiry, with or without a published report, or in such other form as the Board, having regard to the circumstances, think just and expedient, and sections 294 and 296 of the Public Health Act, 1875, shall apply to hearings, inquiries, and other proceedings to which this article relates: Provided that the costs of inquiries as to which the Board may make Orders under the said section 294 may include such reasonable sum, not exceeding three guineas a day, as the Board may determine, for the services of any inspector holding an inquiry.

Regulations by Bank of England.

ARTICLE 54. Where the Bank of England are the registrar, they may, with the sanction of the local authority, from time to time issue any forms that may be required for carrying into effect the provisions of these regulations, and may also from time to time make any regulations that are not inconsistent with these regulations relative to the following things, and, when made, may alter, vary, or repeal any such regulations, and make other regulations instead thereof, or in addition thereto, and any such regulations for the time being in force shall be duly observed:

(a) The period for which coupons are to be given:

(b) The mode in which the bank are to act in issuing stock certificates to bearer, or entering in the transfer books the bearers of stock certificates to bearer:

(c) The mode of proving the title of or identifying any person applying for a stock receipt or stock certificate, or stock certificate to bearer:

(d) With respect to anything necessary for carrying into effect the provisions of these regulations which relate to or affect the bank.

Forms.

ARTICLE 55. The forms given in the Schedule A to these regulations may be used for the purposes therein indicated, and the same, or forms to the like effect, with such variations or additions as circumstances require, shall be effectual for those purposes.

Fees.

ARTICLE 56.—(1) Fees not exceeding those specified in the said Schedule A may be taken by or on behalf of the local authority in the cases therein mentioned.

(2) The proceeds of fees shall be paid by the local authority into the dividends fund, and shall be applied in reduction of contributions out of the revenues of the local authority payable into that fund in respect of dividends on such portions of stock as the local authority, having regard to the cases in which the fees are paid, determine.

Expenses.

ARTICLE 57.—(1) The expenses incurred by the local authority in or about the creation and issue of any amount of stock, including any sum paid by them for composition for stamp duty thereon and any other expenses properly chargeable to capital, shall be deemed money raisable under a statutory borrowing power.

(2) Expenses of book-keeping and management and other current expenses from time to time incurred by the local authority in the execution of these regulations shall be defrayed as the ordinary expenses of the local authority are or may be defrayed, and shall be divided amongst the different funds and undertakings of the local authority in such proportions as the local authority, having regard to all the circumstances, may from time to time determine.

SCHEDULES.

SCHEDULE A.

FORM (A).

RESOLUTIONS ON CREATION OF STOCK.

[, 189].

At a meeting of the [ ] of the [ ] of [ ] holden on [day, the day of , 189] at [ ] o'clock in the noon in [ ].

Present:
[ ].

Resolved first—

That, with the consent of the Local Government Board, and subject to the regulations of that Board prescribed under the Public Health Acts Amendment Act, 1890, the [ ] do hereby in exercise of their powers create stock to be called [ ] Stock, and to be issued to an amount which shall be sufficient for the following purposes, but not exceeding [ ] pounds (£):—

A. For raising the following sums (amounting in the aggregate to the sum of pounds which has not been raised), that is to say:—

(1) The sum of pounds on account of the money which the [ ] have authority to raise by borrowing under the powers conferred upon them by the [ ] for the purchase money for [ ] and the cost of re-construction of portions thereof;

(2) The sum of pounds on account of the money which the [ ] have authority to raise by borrowing under the powers conferred upon them by the [ ] for the cost of construction of [ ];

(3) The sum of pounds on account of the money which the [ ] have authority to raise by borrowing under the powers conferred upon them by the [ ] for the construction of [waterworks];

(4) The sum of pounds on account of the money which the [ ] have authority to raise by borrowing under the powers conferred upon them by the [ ] for the purposes of [sewering and paving within the].

B. For raising instead of re-borrowing the sum of pounds required by the [ ] for the purpose of paying off when due sums amounting to pounds which will fall due before the [, 189], being a portion of their debts now subsisting on the security of outstanding securities granted by the [ ] for raising money for the purposes of the following Acts (that is to say):—

and which sums the [ ] are under those Acts authorised to re-borrow.

C. For raising the sum of pounds for paying off or redeeming statutory securities granted by the [ ] under the following Acts and now outstanding (that is to say):—

D. For the purpose of issuing stock in substitution for statutory securities granted by the [ ] under the following Acts and now outstanding (that is to say):—

Resolved secondly—

That such stock shall be issued at the price, and shall bear the dividends, and be transferable in the manner hereinafter specified (that is to say):—

A. The minimum price of issue to be [£] per cent., the first dividend to be payable on the [1st January, 189];

B. Tenders for stock to be made to [ ]. A deposit of 5 per cent. on the amount of stock tendered for to be paid at [ ] at the time of the delivery of the tender;

C. The dates for the further payments on account of the said tenders when accepted to be as follows: On [Wednesday, the 20th day of October, 189 , so much of the amount tendered and accepted as when added to the deposit will leave £75 (sterling) to be paid for each £100 of stock. On Friday, the 26th day of November, 189 , 25 per cent. On Tuesday, the 11th day of January, 189 , 25 per cent. On Tuesday, the 1st day of March, 189 , 25 per cent.]. In case of default in the payment of any instalment at its proper date the deposit and instalments previously paid will be liable to forfeiture;

D. Dividends at £ per cent. per annum, payable [quarterly];

E. Dividends on the total amount of stock (calculated from the 1st of October, 189), to be payable on the 1st January, 189 .

F. Stock certificates to bearer with coupons attached for the dividends payable 1st January, 189 , and 1st April, 189 , to be issued in exchange for the provisional receipts.

G. In the event of the receipt of tenders for a larger amount of stock than that proposed to be issued at or above the minimum price, the tenders at the lowest price accepted to be subject to proportionate diminution.

H. Stock to be issued in sums of not less than £10.

J. Stock to be transferable in books and not by deed. (See, however, Article 32.)

Resolved thirdly—

That such stock shall be redeemable as follows: state terms.

Resolved fourthly—

That such stock shall be redeemed or purchased and extinguished within a period of years from the creation of such stock.

Resolved fifthly—

That an agreement be entered into with the Commissioners of Inland Revenue for the payment to them of composition under the provisions of the Customs and Inland Revenue Act, 1887, for the stamp duty on the transfers of stock issued under the foregoing resolutions.

NOTICE TO HOLDERS OF [ ] STOCK

(£ PER CENT.).

Transmission of Dividend Warrants by Post.

Dividends upon the above-named stock may be transmitted through the post to the stockholder in sole accounts, and to any one of the stockholders in joint accounts, at their risk upon a form of request being duly filled up and forwarded to [ ]. (Forms are obtainable at [ ]).

N.B.—This arrangement does not apply to stockholders whose addresses are beyond the United Kingdom, the Channel Islands, and the Isle of Man.

Persons receiving dividends under letters of attorney cannot have the warrants for such dividends sent to them by post.

A separate form must be used for each separate holding of stock.

When forwarding a form of request, care should be taken to state the number of overdue dividends, if any.

Dividends are payable on [1*st January*, 1*st April*, 1*st July*, and 1*st October*].

When the [1*st*] happens on a Sunday, the dividends are not payable until the [2*nd*].

Forms of request may be delivered at any date, either by hand or through the post ; but when received between the day on which the balance for a dividend is struck and the day on which the dividend is payable, the warrants for such next dividend will be forwarded as soon as possible, but the will not guarantee their being posted on the day before the dividend is payable.

For the dividend payable [1*st January*] the balance is struck on or about the [1*st December*].

For the dividend payable [1*st April*] the balance is struck on or about the [1*st March*].

For the dividend payable [1*st July*] the balance is struck on or about the [1*st June*].

For the dividend payable [1*st October*] the balance is struck on or about the [1*st September*].

Warrants for overdue dividends will be forwarded as promptly as possible, but not necessarily by return of post.

Any change of address of the stockholder in sole accounts, or of the nominee in joint accounts, should be notified at once to the [ ]. When any such notification reaches less than a fortnight before the next dividend is due, there may be a delay of a few days in the delivery of the warrant for such next dividend.

In the absence of any notification to the contrary, it will be taken for granted that dividend warrants have duly reached their destinations. When they are not received on the correct day, notice should be given to the [ ] without delay.

As postal dividend warrants are made payable to order, they must be indorsed; they are crossed in blank, and consequently are only payable on presentation by a banker. (will not undertake to cross postal dividends warrants with the names of particular bankers.)

Instructions to transmit warrants by post remain in force, although the stock may have been added to or a part sold.

Stockholders selling stock by attorney, if they wish to continue to receive their dividends through the post, should instruct their bankers or brokers to obtain letters of attorney for sale only.

All communications with reference to postal dividend warrants should be addressed to [ ], and the postage should be prepaid.

ORDER OF THE LOCAL GOVERNMENT BOARD, DATED APRIL 5TH, 1902, PRESCRIBING THE FORM OF ABSTRACT OF THE STOCK AND REDEMPTION FUND ACCOUNTS.

To THE SEVERAL LOCAL AUTHORITIES who have created or who may hereafter create Stock under the Stock Regulations, 1891, 1897, and 1901; To the Clerks to the said Local Authorities; And to all others whom it may concern.

Whereas by Article 44 of the Stock Regulations, 1891, duly made and confirmed in pursuance of the provisions of section 52 of the Public Health Acts Amendment Act, 1890, we, the Local Government Board, ordered and prescribed as follows (a):—

* * * * * *

And whereas . . . (b).

* * * * * *

And whereas the Stock Regulations, 1891, were amended by the Stock Regulations (Amendment), 1897, and the Stock Regulations (Amendment), 1901, also duly made and confirmed in pursuance of the provisions of section 52 of the Public Health Acts Amendment Act, 1890, and it is expedient that another form should be prescribed for the said abstract of accounts and that the St. Helens and Stockport Orders should be rescinded;

Now therefore, in pursuance of the powers given to us in that behalf, we hereby direct that, unless and until we in any case by Order otherwise direct, the abstract of the accounts which the clerk to the local authority is, by Article 44 of the Stock Regulations, 1891, required to send to us shall be in the form set forth in the schedule to this Order in lieu of any other form heretofore prescribed by us, and shall be made up to the thirty-first day of March in each year, and shall be forwarded to us within forty-two days after that day.

And we do hereby rescind the St. Helens and Stockport Orders.

ORDER IN COUNCIL OF THE 3RD AUGUST, 1897.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 3rd day of August, 1897.

PRESENT,

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

Whereas the Local Government Board did, in pursuance of the powers conferred upon them by the Public Health Acts Amendment Act, 1890, on the third day of June, 1897, make certain regulations amending the regulations confirmed by Order in Council of 26th September, 1891, applicable to the creation, issue, transfer, and redemption of and other dealings with any stock which any urban sanitary authority create in exercise of any statutory borrowing power:

And whereas the said amending regulations, have as required by the said Act, been laid before both Houses of Parliament for a period of thirty days, and no resolution has been passed by either House that such amending regulations ought not to be proceeding with:

Now therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said amending regulations (copy whereof is hereunto annexed) into consideration, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to confirm and doth hereby confirm the same.

C. L. PEEL.

AMENDING REGULATIONS REFERRED TO IN THE FOREGOING ORDER.

PUBLIC HEALTH ACTS AMENDMENT ACT, 1890 (53 & 54 VICT. c. 59, s. 52).

REGULATIONS AS TO ISSUE OF STOCK. AMENDING ORDER.

Whereas by section 52 of the Public Health Acts Amendment Act, 1890 (which section forms Part V. of the said Act) [the section (ante, p. 914) is recited].

And whereas the Local Government Board by Order dated the 3rd day of July, 1891, made regulations under the said section (hereinafter called "the regulations"), and the same were confirmed by Order in Council dated the 26th day of September, 1891;

And whereas it is desirable that the regulations should be amended as hereinafter provided:

Now therefore, we, the Local Government Board, in pursuance of the powers given to us by the above-cited section, do hereby order and prescribe as follows:—

From and after the confirmation of these regulations by Order in Council the regulations shall be amended by the additions and alterations hereinafter contained, and as so amended shall apply to the creation, issue, transfer, and redemption of, and other dealings with, any stock which any council of a county borough or district council or other authority having adopted Part V. of the said Public Health Acts Amendment Act, 1890, or otherwise entitled to issue stock thereunder create with our consent under the regulations in exercise of any statutory borrowing power as defined in Article 1 thereof:

Provided that the said additions and alterations shall not apply to any stock issued before the confirmation of these regulations, except as hereinafter expressly mentioned, or as we may hereafter direct.

ARTICLE 1.—(1) An authority who shall have issued stock under the regulations, whether of one or more classes, and whether before or after the date of this Order, may, if the Board by a Consent Order so provide, from time to time create and issue stock, under and subject to the regulations as hereby amended, of another class, than any stock previously created by the authority, and so that some or all of the terms and conditions on which the same is issued, including the rate of dividend payable thereon and the period after which the same shall become redeemable, may not be the same as those of any stock previously created, but any stock shall rank equally with the stock previously issued, and (unless otherwise expressed in the resolution for the creation of the stock) with all other securities of the authority created or granted in pursuance of any statutory borrowing power at any time after the date of the first creation of any stock.

(2) There shall be a separate stock (dividends) fund and a separate stock (redemption) fund for every class of stock; the funds for each class of stock being distinguished by numbers or otherwise.

(3) So long as any money is payable under Article 15 of the regulations into the stock (redemption) fund for one class of stock, no moneys shall be payable under that article into the stock (redemption) fund for any other class of stock except that any money to which that article applies and which shall have arisen from any sale, lease, or other disposition of land or other property purchased or otherwise acquired by means of money raised by stock, or by means of any loan which shall have been converted into stock, shall be paid into the stock (redemption) fund for the stock by which the money was raised or into which the loan has been converted.

(4) In this Order the term "dividends fund" and "redemption fund" shall mean as well the stock (dividends) fund, and stock (redemption) fund under the regulations, as the stock (dividends) fund and the stock (redemption) fund for any class of stock created and issued by an authority under the provisions of this article.

ARTICLE 2. In any consolidation scheme, under Article 5 of the regulations, loans raised or authorised to be raised by stock under a previous Consent Order, may be included, whether such Consent Order has been made before or after this Order.

ARTICLE 3.—(1) If money to be raised by the issue of stock is to be lent by the authority, and to be repaid by instalments, or if in any other case the Board think fit, the Board may by the Consent Order prescribe, or may thereafter determine, that the amounts of the several contributions to the redemption fund in respect of such stock (subject to any reduction thereof authorised under the regulations) shall be determined by the provisions either of paragraph (a), paragraph (b), or paragraph (c) of this clause:—

(a) The said amounts shall be the same as would under the statutory borrowing power have been payable towards paying off the money represented by the stock, or to a non-accumulating sinking fund for the repayment of the same, if the same had been raised otherwise than by the issue of stock.

(b) The said amounts shall be such equal annual amounts as will be sufficient after payment of all expenses, to purchase the amount of stock at par within the time within which, under the statutory borrowing power or the Consent Order, the money represented by the stock is to be repaid.

(c) If the statutory borrowing power in exercise of which the stock is issued does not determine the amounts to be paid towards paying off or to a non-accumulating sinking fund in respect of the money to be borrowed thereunder, or the period within which the same is to be repaid, or if the Board approve a scheme for the consolidation of all or any of the loans raised or to be raised by the issue of stock, the amounts of the several contributions shall be such equal annual amounts as will be sufficient, after payment of all expenses, to purchase the amount of stock at par within such time, not exceeding sixty years from the first creation of the stock, as the Board shall prescribe in the Consent Order, or shall thereafter determine.

(2) Except as hereinafter provided, the provisions of clause (3) of Article 14 of the regulations, and so much of clause (7) of that article as requires interest to be paid into the redemption fund or any part of that fund applied in the redemption or purchase and extinction of such stock, and so much of Article 16 of the regulations as requires the interest and annual proceeds arising from the investment of the redemption fund to be invested and accumulated shall not apply to such part of the redemption fund as represents contributions made thereto under this article; provided that (without prejudice to the power reserved to the Board under clause (5) of Article 14 of the regulations), if the Board shall at any time be of opinion that such part of the redemption fund as represents contributions made under this article will not in consequence of the depreciation of the securities in which the fund is invested, be sufficient to redeem or purchase the amount of stock in respect of which such contributions are made as required by the regulations as hereby amended, they may direct that the above-mentioned provisions of clause (7) of Article 14 and of Article 16 shall apply with such modifications as they may prescribe. Provided also, that so long as the above-mentioned provisions of Article 16 shall not apply, the interest and annual proceeds arising from the investment of such part of the redemption fund as represents contributions made under this article may be paid into the dividends fund, in reduction of the amount to be provided by contributions as required by Article 7 of the regulations.

ARTICLE 4.—(1) If the local authority create and issue stock for the purpose of raising any money to be paid under clause (2) of Article 20 of the regulations, to the holder of any security for his consent to or for otherwise compensating him for the payment off or redemption of his security, or to the substitution of stock for his security, the period within which provision shall be made for the redemption of the amount of stock created and issued for that purpose shall be such period, not exceeding the period within which the money representing the security paid off or redeemed or for which the stock is substituted is required to be paid off under the statutory borrowing power or the Consent Order, as the Board may by the Consent Order prescribe, or may thereafter determine.

(2) The amount of any payment under clause (2) of Article 20 of the regulations which may be raised by the issue of stock shall not exceed the amount which the Board may by the Consent Order authorise to be so raised.

ARTICLE 5. The following provisions shall be substituted for the last paragraph of Article 14 of the regulations, and shall apply to stock issued before or after this Order:—

> "When the local authority redeem or purchase and extinguish stock by the application of any part of the redemption fund, the stock so redeemed or purchased and extinguished shall be deemed to be stock issued in respect of such one or more of the statutory borrowing powers exercised by the issue of stock and, if in respect of more than one, in such proportions as the local authority shall before or within three months after the redemption or purchase direct, or, in default of such direction, as the Local Government Board shall determine: Provided that no larger amount of stock shall be deemed to be redeemed or purchased and extinguished in respect of any statutory borrowing power than the amount which, according to the actual price of redemption or purchase, could be redeemed or purchased with the contributions paid into the redemption fund in respect of that borrowing power and the accumulations (if any) thereon."

ARTICLE 6. The words "the statutory borrowing power which the authority could exercise for such other purpose" shall be substituted in Article 22 of the regulations for the words "such last-mentioned statutory borrowing power." This amendment shall apply to stock issued before or after this Order.

ARTICLE 7. The following provisions shall be substituted for Article 23 of the regulations, and shall apply to money raised by stock issued before or after this Order:—

> "The local authority may, and if required by the Local Government Board shall, from time to time invest temporarily on statutory securities any sum raised by stock and not for the time being required for the purpose for which it was raised."

ARTICLE 8. The following shall be substituted for clause (5) of Article 29 of the regulations:—

> "The registrar shall, after reasonable notice, and on delivery up of the old stock certificate, or on such proof that it cannot be produced, as the registrar, with the approval of the local authority, may require, deliver to the purchaser a new stock certificate under the seal of the local authority."

ARTICLE 9. Clause (1) of Article 57 of the regulations shall be amended by the substitution for the words "including any sum paid by them for composition for stamp duty thereon and any other expenses" of the words "so far as they are."

ARTICLE 10. These regulations shall be read as one with the regulations, and may be cited as "The Stock Regulations (Amendment), 1897," and with the regulations as "The Stock Regulations, 1891 and 1897," and the regulations may be cited as "The Stock Regulations, 1891."

ORDER IN COUNCIL OF THE 8TH AUGUST, 1901.

At the Court at St. James's, the 8th day of August, 1901.

PRESENT,

The King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

Whereas the Local Government Board did, in pursuance of the powers conferred upon them by the Public Health Acts Amendment Act, 1890, on the second day of July, 1901, make certain regulations amending the regulations, confirmed by Orders in Council of 26th September, 1891, and 3rd August, 1897, applicable to the creation, issue, transfer, and redemption of and other dealings with any stock which any urban sanitary authority create in exercise of any statutory borrowing power.

And whereas the said amending regulations have, as required by the said Act, been laid before both Houses of Parliament for a period of thirty days, and no resolution has been passed by either House that such amending regulations ought not to be proceeded with.

Now, therefore, His Majesty, having taken the said amending regulations (copy whereof is hereunto annexed) into consideration, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to confirm and doth hereby confirm the same.

A. W. FITZROY.

AMENDING REGULATIONS REFERRED TO IN THE FOREGOING ORDER. PUBLIC HEALTH ACTS AMENDMENT ACT, 1890 (53 & 54 VICT. c. 59, s. 52).

REGULATIONS AS TO ISSUE OF STOCK. AMENDING ORDER.

Whereas by section 52 of the Public Health Acts Amendment Act, 1890 (which section forms Part V. of the said Act) [the section (ante, p. 914) is recited].

And whereas it is provided by the Public Health Acts Amendment Act, 1890, that Part V. of that Act may be adopted by any urban sanitary authority, and by virtue of the Local Government Act, 1894, urban sanitary authorities other than the councils of county boroughs are to be called urban district councils;

And whereas we, the Local Government Board, made the Stock Regulations, 1891, and the Stock Regulations (Amendment), 1897, and the same were confirmed by Orders in Council dated respectively the 26th day of September, 1891, and the 3rd day of August, 1897;

And whereas it is desirable that the Stock Regulations, 1891, and the Stock Regulations (Amendment), 1897, should be amended as hereinafter provided:

Now, therefore, in the exercise of our powers in that behalf, we do hereby order and prescribe as follows:—

ARTICLE 1. Article 2 of the Stock Regulations, 1891, shall have effect as if in paragraph (1) thereof for the words "at such price, being not lower than ninety-five per centum," there were substituted the words "at such price being not lower, except where the Board otherwise consent, than ninety-five per centum."

ARTICLE 2. Article 16 of the Stock Regulations, 1891, shall have effect as if there were added to the said Article the following proviso; that is to say,—

"Provided as follows:—

"(1) Where the local authority have any statutory borrowing power and are authorised to exercise the statutory borrowing power by the creation and issue of stock, the local authority, instead of raising moneys in the exercise of the statutory borrowing power by the creation and issue of additional stock, may, subject to this proviso, exercise the statutory borrowing power, either wholly or partially, by using for the purpose any moneys for the time being forming part of the redemption fund and standing to the credit of any separate account or separate accounts forming part of the general account of that fund.

"(2) Where the local authority determine to proceed in the manner authorised by paragraph (1) of this proviso the local authority shall pass a resolution to that effect; and shall, by the resolution, prescribe all such matters or things as in or in pursuance of this proviso are referred to as prescribed or are required to be prescribed; and, after passing the resolution, the local authority shall—

"(a) withdraw from the redemption fund the prescribed sum which shall be equal to the amount of the statutory borrowing power proposed to be exercised, and such sum shall be deemed to be withdrawn from such separate account or separate accounts in the general account of the redemption fund as shall be prescribed; and

"(b) deduct, from the amount of stock for the time being chargeable to the undertaking or purpose or attributable to the exercise of the borrowing power to which a separate account prescribed as aforesaid has reference, a portion of stock at par value equal to the sum withdrawn from that separate account, and transfer that portion of stock, as from the prescribed date, to the separate account in respect of which the statutory borrowing power is exercised under this proviso.

"(3) These regulations, and any regulations amending these regulations, shall apply—

"(a) to the moneys withdrawn from the redemption fund and used as aforesaid as though the moneys so withdrawn had been applied in the redemption of stock at par on the separate account or separate accounts from which the moneys were withdrawn, and as though the moneys so used had been raised by the issue of additional stock for the purposes of the separate account in respect of which the statutory borrowing power is exercised under this proviso: and

"(b) to the stock deducted and transferred as aforesaid as though the stock so deducted had, in pursuance of the regulations, been redeemed by the application of the redemption fund on the separate account or separate accounts from which the stock was deducted but subject to the condition that such stock shall not be cancelled, and as though the stock so transferred were additional stock expressly issued for the purposes of the separate account in respect of which the statutory borrowing power is exercised under this proviso."

ARTICLE 3. Article 6 of the Stock Regulations (Amendment), 1897, and the proviso to Article 22 of the Stock Regulations, 1891, shall be rescinded; and the last-mentioned article shall have effect as if there were added to the said article the following proviso; that is to say,—

"Provided that if, after the raising of any money by stock under these regulations, it shall be found that any part of such money is not required for the purposes to which it is applicable as aforesaid, the local authority shall pay such money into the redemption fund, and shall carry the same to the proper separate account forming part of the general account of the redemption fund."

ARTICLE 4. For the purposes of this Order, the expression "local authority" includes any authority who, by the adoption of Part V. of the Public Health Acts Amendment Act, 1890, or otherwise, may be entitled to issue stock in the manner provided by and subject to the provisions of the said Part.

ARTICLE 5. The regulations in this Order shall be read as one with the Stock Regulations, 1891 and 1897, and may be cited as "The Stock Regulations (Amendment), 1901," and with the Stock Regulations, 1891 and 1897 may be cited as "The Stock Regulations, 1891, 1897, and 1901."

Given under the Seal of Office of the Local Government Board, this second day of July, in the year one thousand nine hundred and one.

(L.S.) WALTER H. LONG, President.

S. B. PROVIS, Secretary.

ORDER IN COUNCIL, DATED 10TH DAY OF AUGUST, 1921.

Whereas the Minister of Health has, in virtue of the powers conferred on him by the Public Health Acts Amendment Act, 1890, and the Ministry of Health Act, 1919, made regulations amending the Stock Regulations, 1891, 1897 and 1901:

And whereas the said regulations have, as required by the said Public Health Acts Amendment Act, 1890, been laid before both Houses of Parliament for the period of thirty days, and no resolution has been passed by either House that such regulations ought not to be proceeded with:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, having taken the said regulations (copy whereof is hereunto annexed) into consideration, is pleased by and with the advice of his Privy Council to confirm and doth hereby confirm the said regulations.

AMENDING REGULATIONS REFERRED TO IN THE FOREGOING ORDER:—

1. These regulations may be cited as the Stock Regulations, 1921, and shall be read as one with the Stock Regulations, 1891, 1897 and 1901, and these regulations and those regulations may be cited together as the Stock Regulations, 1891 to 1921.

2. Where stock has been issued at a price lower than one hundred pounds stock for one hundred pounds sterling, so much of the stock as represents the difference between the price of the stock as issued and its normal value shall for the purposes of Article 14 of the Stock Regulations, 1891, and of Article 3 of the Stock Regulations (Amendment), 1897, be treated as a loan authorised by a statutory borrowing power and repayable on or before the date at which the stock is first redeemable at par at the option of the local authority, and those articles shall be read and have effect accordingly.

3. Paragraph (6) of Article 14 of the Stock Regulations, 1891, shall have effect as if the words "on or before the date at which the stock is first redeemable at par at the option of the local authority" were substituted for the words "within the period within which the stock is to be extinguished" at the end of that paragraph.

4. The words "or at such other value as the Minister of Health may direct" shall be inserted after the words "at par value" in sub-paragraph (b) of paragraph (2), and after the words "at par" in sub-paragraph (a) of paragraph (3), respectively, of the proviso added to Article 16 of the Stock Regulations, 1891, by Article 2 of the Stock Regulations (Amendment), 1901.

Given under the Official Seal of the Minister of Health this thirteenth day of June, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one.

(An Order in Council in similar terms was made on the same date with regard to county stock.)

Appendix II.

TOWN PLANNING.

HOUSING, TOWN PLANNING, &c. ACT, 1909: PROCEDURE REGULATIONS (a).

(This Order was partially revoked by Order of 11th February, 1914, which has itself been revoked by Order of 29th March, 1921, post.)

To the several Local Authorities in England and Wales for the purposes of Part II. of the Housing, Town Planning, &c. Act, 1909; And to all others whom it may concern.

Whereas [sections 54, 55, 56, 65 (1), 66 (1), and Schedule V. are recited].

Now therefore, we, the Local Government Board, in pursuance of the powers given to us in that behalf, by this Order, make the following regulations; that is to say:—

Procedure Anterior to and for the Purpose of an Application for Authority to Prepare or Adopt a Scheme.

Notices of intention to apply for authority to prepare or adopt a scheme: Deposit of Map No. 1 showing land proposed to be included.

Article I.—(a) At least two months before making an application to the Local Government Board (hereinafter referred to as "the Board") for authority to prepare a town planning scheme, or for authority to adopt a town planning scheme proposed by all or any of the owners of any land with respect to which the local authority might themselves have been authorised to prepare a scheme, the local authority shall serve upon the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of the land proposed to be included in the scheme, and upon the council of any borough or of any urban or rural district within which any part of that land is comprised, and also, if any main road is or may be affected by the proposed scheme, upon the county council, a notice of their intention to make such application. The local authority shall also give notice of their intention to make such application by advertisement in some newspaper or newspapers circulating in the area of the local authority, and the advertisement shall be published at least two months before making the application.

(b) The local authority shall, not later than the date on which the first of the said notices is given, deposit at a place convenient for the purposes of inspection and shall keep deposited thereat, for a period not being less than one month from the date on which the latest of the said notices is given, a map of the land proposed to be included in the said scheme. The said map (to be marked and known as "Map No. 1") shall be on the scale of 25·344 inches to the mile, and shall be open for inspection by any person interested, without payment of any fee, at all reasonable hours on any week-day during the said period. The local authority shall also make suitable provision for affording to any person inspecting the map any necessary explanation in regard thereto.

(c) The said notices shall describe the land proposed to be included in the scheme and shall state the place at which a map of the land is deposited and the period and times during which the same will be open for inspection by any person interested.

(d) A certified copy of Map No. 1 shall be furnished by the local authority to the council of any borough or of any urban or rural district within which any part of the land proposed to be included in the scheme is comprised.

Special notice to councils interested [Section 56 (2) (b) of Act of 1909].

Article II.—With the view of securing that notice of the proposal to apply for authority to prepare or adopt a scheme in respect of any land shall be given at the earliest stage possible to any council interested in the land, the local authority, independently of the notices required to be given as aforesaid, shall, within seven days after they have decided to consider a proposal for authority to prepare or adopt a scheme in reference to any area of land, serve notice of their decision upon any council interested in the land.

(a) These regulations are in force only with respect to the adoption by local authorities of schemes proposed by owners (Art. 17 of the 1914 Order). The 1914 Order has been revoked, but it would seem that these regulations are still in force with the limited scope referred to.

Consideration by local authority of objections, etc. Conferences: Meeting of parties interested.

ARTICLE III.—The local authority before making an application to the Board for authority to prepare or adopt a scheme shall consider any objections or representations made to them in writing in reference to the proposed scheme whether by owners or other persons interested in the land proposed to be included in the scheme, or by owners or other persons interested in any lands in the neighbourhood of the land proposed to be included in the scheme which may be affected by the scheme, or by the council of any borough or of any urban or rural district within which any part of the land proposed to be included in the scheme is comprised, or by any other council who may be interested in or affected by the scheme; and shall endeavour, by conferences between the local authority or their officers and such owners, persons, or councils and by any other means available, to secure the co-operation of such owners, persons, or councils in promoting the scheme.

The local authority shall arrange for at least one meeting being held, at which all such owners, persons, or councils as aforesaid shall be entitled to attend or be represented, for the purpose of considering the proposed scheme. Notice of the time and place fixed for such meeting shall be served by the local authority upon all such owners, persons, or councils so far as they can ascertain the same, not less than fourteen days before the time fixed for the meeting.

The mayor (if the local authority are the town council of a borough) or the chairman of the council (if the local authority are the London County Council or an urban or rural district council) shall be the president of the said meeting, or, in the event of the mayor or chairman being unable or unwilling to act, any person appointed for the purpose by the local authority shall be the president, or, in default of such appointment, the meeting shall choose some person present at the meeting to be president thereof. On opening the meeting the president, or a member or officer of the local authority, shall give such explanation of the proposed scheme as he thinks expedient.

Application to the Board to be by resolution: Map No. 2 to be prepared in connection with resolution.

ARTICLE IV.—(a) An application to the Board by a local authority for authority to prepare or adopt a scheme shall be made by a resolution of the local authority.

(b) The resolution shall define, by reference to a map prepared on a scale of not less than 25·344 inches to the mile (to be marked and known as "Map No. 2"), the land in reference to which it is desired to prepare or adopt the scheme, and shall state whether the land is entirely within the area of the local authority or wholly or partly within a neighbouring area. In addition to any other particulars required by these regulations to be shown thereon the said map shall show clearly by means of boundary lines sharply defined in colour the area of the land included in the proposed scheme, distinguishing between the parts of the land included within the area of the local authority and within the area of any other local authority. If the area of the land includes any piece of land already built upon or any piece of land not likely to be used for building purposes, any such lands shall be indicated on the map by distinctive colours and any necessary reference notes, and there shall also be shown on the map in like manner the positions of any buildings which have been erected on the land or of any buildings which are in course of erection.

(c) A copy of the resolution certified by the clerk to the local authority shall be transmitted without delay to the Board by the clerk, with a covering letter, and accompanied by a statement as to the total number of members of the local authority, the number who voted for the resolution, the number who voted against the resolution, the number who were present at the meeting but did not vote, and the number absent from the meeting.

Documents, etc., to accompany application: Map No. 3 to be prepared.

ARTICLE V.—The application to the Board shall be accompanied by:—

(a) The statutory declaration and exhibits required by Article XXXI. of these regulations in proof of compliance with the requirements of Article I.

(b) Map No. 2 or a copy thereof duly certified by the clerk to the local authority.

(c) A map on the scale of 1 inch to the mile (to be marked and known as "Map No. 3"), showing, by distinguishing colours or boundary lines in colour, the district of the local authority, the land included in the proposed scheme, and the area within a distance of five miles from any part of the district of the local authority:

Provided that, if the scheme is proposed to be made or adopted by the council of a rural district, it shall not be obligatory that the map shall extend to the whole of the rural district, but it shall extend to the contributory place or places therein in which any part of the land included in the scheme is comprised, and to the area within a distance of five miles from such place or places:

Provided also that, if in any case the land included in a scheme is wholly outside the district of the local authority, the map shall show at least the area within a distance of five miles from any part of such land.

(d) A copy of all objections made in writing in reference to the proposed scheme so far as the objections have not been withdrawn or removed.

(e) If the application relates to the adoption of a scheme proposed by owners, a copy of the scheme so proposed and a statement of any modifications which the local authority are of opinion should be made in the scheme.

Additional particulars to be shown on Map No. 2 in a case of preparation of scheme by local authority.

ARTICLE VI.—If the application relates to the preparation of a scheme by the local authority there shall be shown on Map No. 2 the lines and widths of the principal roads which the local authority propose shall be made as part of the scheme, the connections of the proposed roads with existing roads, and the lines of any existing sewers or any existing pipes or mains for the supply of water, gas, or electricity. Any existing roads or ways which it would be necessary to stop up or divert shall also be indicated on the said map, and if the local authority contemplate that the scheme to be prepared shall provide for certain areas being used for the purpose of open spaces or for other special purposes those areas shall as far as possible be indicated on the said map.

Additional particulars to be shown on Map No. 2 in a case of adoption of scheme by local authority.

ARTICLE VII.—If the application relates to the adoption of a scheme proposed by owners of land there shall be shown on Map No. 2 the lines and widths of all roads proposed as part of the scheme, the connections of the proposed roads with existing roads, and the lines of any existing sewers or any existing pipes or mains for the supply of water, gas, or electricity. Any existing roads or ways which it is proposed to stop up or divert shall be indicated on the said map, which shall also indicate the areas proposed by the scheme to be allocated for the purpose of open spaces, private or public, or to be used for any other special purposes. The said map shall also show all such further particulars in relation to the scheme proposed to be adopted as are suitable for indication thereon, e.g., any proposals as to lines of sewers, or of pipes or mains for the supply of water, gas, or electricity.

Information to be furnished to the Board in connection with all applications.

ARTICLE VIII.—In connection with an application for authority to prepare or adopt a scheme, the local authority shall furnish the Board with a statement or statements giving the particulars and information hereinafter indicated:—

(a) A general description of the scheme including information as to the general character of the land proposed to be included in the scheme, the extent to which the scheme applies to land in course of development, the extent to which it applies to land likely to be used for building purposes, and, as regards the last-mentioned land, the grounds for considering that the land is likely to be so used.

(b) The reasons on which the local authority rely in support of their application.

(c) If the scheme includes land already built upon or land not likely to be used for building purposes, the reasons which, in the opinion of the local authority, render it necessary or desirable to include such lands in the scheme; particulars of the buildings on the lands; such information as the local authority may be in a position to give in regard to the extent to which it would be necessary to provide for the demolition or alteration of the buildings for the purpose of carrying the scheme into effect; and, as regards any land not likely to be used for building purposes, the grounds on which it is considered that such land would not be so used.

(d) Information as to the arrangements in operation in the area of the local authority in regard to sewerage, drainage and sewage disposal, water supply and lighting, and the like information in regard to the area of any other local authority in which any part of the land included in the scheme is comprised, and also information to show to what extent the arrangements as to sewerage, drainage, and sewage disposal would be available or would require alteration or modification for the purposes of the area included in the scheme. If any company, whether statutory or otherwise, is supplying or has power to supply water, gas, or electricity in the area included in the scheme, it should be so stated and particulars given in regard thereto.

(e) If the area of the land included in the scheme is not wholly within the area of the local authority making the application, information shall be supplied as to the proposals in regard to the authority who are to be responsible for enforcing the observance of the scheme and for the execution of any works which under such scheme, or under Part II. of the Act of 1909, may have to be executed by a local authority.

(f) Information as to any monuments or ancient monuments, within the meaning of the Ancient Monuments Protection Acts, 1882 to 1900, situate within the area included in the scheme, and as to the manner in which they would be affected.

(g) If any land or property of any Government department would be affected by the scheme, particulars in regard to any such property and as to the Government departments concerned.

Additional information to be furnished to the Board in a case of adoption of scheme by local authority.

ARTICLE IX.—In connection with an application for authority to adopt a scheme, the local authority shall furnish the Board with a statement or statements giving the additional particulars and information hereinafter indicated:—

(a) The names and addresses of the owners, lessees, and occupiers of each parcel of the land included in the scheme, and the approximate extent of each such parcel.

(b) Information showing in what respects the proposals in the scheme would involve the suspension of any statutory enactments, byelaws, regulations or other provisions which are in operation in the area included in the scheme.

(c) Information as to the extent to which it may be contemplated or necessary under the scheme that land included in the scheme shall be acquired (1) by the local authority making the application or (2) by any other local authority.

(d) Definite information as to whether any of the owners by whom the scheme is proposed will, in the event of the scheme being adopted by the local authority and approved by the Board, claim compensation on the ground that his property would be injuriously affected by the making of the scheme; and particulars of any information in the possession of the local authority in regard to the probability of any other person making a claim for compensation on that ground.

(e) If, in the opinion of the local authority, any property will be increased in value by the making of the proposed scheme, information as to such property and as to the estimated increase in value.

Estimate as to cost of scheme: Information as to area, population, rates debt, &c.

ARTICLE X.—(a) In connection with an application for authority to prepare or adopt a scheme the local authority shall state as nearly as may be practicable the estimated cost of carrying out the scheme, so far as the cost is expected to be borne by (1) the local authority making the application, and (2) any other local authority. The local authority shall also furnish the Board with such information as they may require as to the manner in which the estimated cost is arrived at.

(b) Subject to the proviso hereinafter contained, the local authority shall also furnish a statement showing the following particulars with respect to the district of the local authority, that is to say:—

(i) the acreage;
(ii) the population according to the last census;
(iii) the rateable value for the purposes of the poor rate;
(iv) the amount in the £ of every rate levied during the three last preceding financial years;
(v) the amount of the balances of the outstanding loans contracted by the local authority and the sum included in such amount in respect of loans for sanitary purposes; and
(vi) the amount of the loans sanctioned but not raised though proposed to be raised, and the sum included in such amount in respect of loans for sanitary purposes:

Provided that if it is proposed that the cost of the scheme to be borne by the local authority shall be charged upon any contributory place or places in their district the particulars required under heads i., ii., iii., and iv. hereof shall be given with respect to such place or places only.

(c) If any part of the cost of the scheme is expected to be borne by a local authority other than the local authority making the application, the first-mentioned local authority shall make a statement showing in regard to their district the several particulars indicated in paragraph (b) of this article, and shall supply the same to the last-mentioned local authority, who shall transmit it to the Board with the said application.

Notice by advertisement of application having been made to the Board.

ARTICLE XI.—When the local authority have transmitted to the Board an application for the approval of the Board to the preparation or adoption of a scheme, the local authority shall forthwith give notice of such application and of the date of the resolution making the application by advertisement in some newspaper or newspapers circulating in the area of the local authority.

PROCEDURE DURING, ON, AND AFTER THE PREPARATION OR ADOPTION AND BEFORE THE APPROVAL OF THE SCHEME.

Notices of authority having been given to prepare or adopt a scheme, and of intention to prepare or adopt a scheme. Persons desiring to be heard to give notice to local authority.

ARTICLE XII.—(a) When authority has been given by the Board to the preparation by a local authority of a scheme with reference to any land or to the adoption by a local authority, with or without modifications, of a scheme proposed by owners of land, the local authority shall forthwith serve upon the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of the land in reference to which authority to prepare or adopt a scheme has been so given, and upon the council of any borough or of any urban or rural district within which any part of that land is comprised, and also, if any main road is or may be affected by the scheme, upon the county council, a notice that such authority has been given and that a copy of the Order or instrument giving such authority may be inspected, and any necessary explanation or information in regard thereto may be obtained, without payment of any fee, at a place which shall be specified in the notice, at all reasonable hours (specifying the same) on any week-day pending the preparation or adoption of the scheme. They shall also give notice to the same effect by advertisement in some newspaper or newspapers circulating in the area of the local authority.

(b) If the land in reference to which authority to prepare or adopt a scheme has been given as aforesaid excludes any land in regard to which an application under Article IV. of these regulations was made to the Board the local authority shall serve notice of the exclusion of such land upon the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of such excluded land and upon the council of any borough or of any urban or rural district within which any part of the excluded land is comprised, and also, if any main road would or might have been affected by the inclusion of the excluded land, upon the county council.

(c) The notices to be served on owners or other persons or to be given by advertisement under paragraph (a) of this article shall also state that the local authority propose to prepare a scheme or, as the case may be, to adopt with or without modifications the scheme proposed by owners, and that any person interested or affected desiring to be heard in reference to such proposal, including any persons representing architectural or archæological societies or otherwise interested in the amenity of the proposed scheme, should give notice in writing to the clerk to the local authority within twenty-one days from the date of the notice.

(d) The local authority shall make a suitable provision for affording to any person interested or affected inspecting the Order or instrument of the Board giving authority to prepare or adopt a scheme any necessary explanation or information in regard thereto.

Consideration by local authority of objections, etc.

ARTICLE XIII.—In connection with the preparation or adoption of a scheme the local authority shall carefully consider all objections and representations made to them in writing by any persons or councils interested or affected, including persons representing architectural or archæological societies or otherwise interested in the amenity of the proposed scheme.

Preparation of scheme by local authority: Draft scheme to be printed and Map No. 4 to be prepared ARTICLE XIV.—When the local authority have fully considered and developed their proposals and have decided to prepare a scheme in regard to an area of land in respect of which they have been authorised to prepare a scheme, they shall cause to be printed a draft scheme embodying their proposals and shall cause a map or, if the case so require, maps (to be marked and known as "Map No. 4" or "Map showing details of proposals.

No. 4 (A)," "Map No. 4 (B)," etc.) to be prepared on a scale of not less than 25·344 inches to the mile, showing clearly by means of boundary lines sharply defined in colour the area of the land included in the proposed scheme distinguishing between the parts of the land included within the area of the local authority and within the area of any other local authority, and also showing thereon all such particulars and details in relation to the proposed scheme as can conveniently be indicated thereon by the aid of reference letters or numbers, descriptive notes, distinguishing colours, or otherwise; and especially there shall be indicated and distinguished on the said map or maps:—

Existing main roads;
Roads repairable by the inhabitants at large;
Roads or footways over which the public have a right of way;
Roads on which tramways or light railways (a) have been constructed or (b) are authorised to be constructed;
Roads which the local authority propose shall be made as part of the scheme, indicating the widths thereof and any proposals as to the parts thereof to be appropriated or set apart for special purposes, and the connections of such roads with existing roads;
Roads or ways which it is proposed to stop up or divert;
Land already built upon;
Land not likely to be used for building purposes;
Land proposed to be allocated for use as open spaces, (a) private or (b) public;
Land to be used for any other purposes, including, e.g., buildings for manufacturing purposes or buildings of a special character in reference either to the purposes to which they are to be applied or to their height or otherwise, indicating any restrictions proposed as to the number of buildings which may be erected on any portion of land or each acre in any portion of land;
Land to be acquired by the local authority for any purpose;
Lines of existing sewers or any existing drain pipes or mains for the supply of water, gas or electricity;
Proposals as to lines of sewers or of pipes or mains for supply of water, gas, or electricity.

Adoption of scheme by local authority: Scheme of owners to be printed and also memorandum of any modifications proposed and Map No. 4 to be prepared showing details of proposals.

ARTICLE XV.—When the local authority have fully considered the scheme proposed by owners in respect of an area of land in regard to which the local authority have been authorised to adopt a scheme with or without modifications and have decided to adopt the same with or without modifications, they shall cause to be printed a copy of the scheme proposed by owners, and shall prepare and cause to be printed a memorandum of all modifications which they propose should be made in such scheme and shall obtain from the owners or shall themselves provide a map or maps (to be marked and known as "Map No. 4" or "Map No. 4 (A)," "Map No. 4 (B)," etc.) on a scale of not less than 25·344 inches to the mile, showing thereon all such particulars and details as are required to be shown on the map or maps referred to in Article XIV. of these regulations.

Notices of scheme prepared or of scheme intended to be adopted by local authority: Deposit of draft scheme, etc., and of Map No. 4 for inspection.

ARTICLE XVI.—(a) At least one month before deciding upon the scheme to be submitted to the Board for approval, whether in regard to a scheme prepared by the local authority or a scheme proposed by owners and proposed to be adopted by the local authority, the local authority shall serve upon the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of the land included in the scheme, and upon the council of any borough or of any urban or rural district within which any part of the said land is comprised, and also, if any main road is or may be affected by the scheme, upon the county council, a notice that a draft scheme has been prepared by the local authority or (as the case may be) that the local authority intend to adopt a scheme proposed by owners, and that it is proposed to submit the same, with or without modification, to the Board for approval; and shall also give notice of such proposal by advertisement in some newspaper or newspapers circulating in the area of the local authority, and the advertisement shall be published at least one month before deciding upon the scheme to be submitted to the Board.

(b) The local authority shall, not later than the date on which the first of the said notices is given, deposit at a place convenient for the purposes of inspection and shall keep deposited thereat, for a period not being less than twenty-one days from the date on which the latest of the said notices is given, the draft scheme and the map or maps referred to in Article XIV. of these regulations or (as the case may be) the scheme and memorandum and the map or maps referred to in Article XV. of these regulations, and the same shall be open for inspection by any persons interested or affected, without payment of any fee, at all reasonable hours on any week-day during the said period. The local authority shall also make suitable provision for affording to any such person inspecting the said documents and maps any necessary explanation or information in regard thereto.

(c) The said notices shall describe the land proposed to be included in the scheme, and shall state the place at which the documents and maps referred to in paragraph (b) of this article are deposited and the period and times during which the same will be open for inspection by any persons interested or affected. The notices shall state that the local authority will be prepared to consider any objections or representations which may be made to them in writing during the said period, and the notice to be given by advertisement shall also state that the local authority will be prepared to consider any objections or representations made in writing by any persons affected, including any persons representing any architectural or archæological society or otherwise interested in the amenity of the proposed scheme.

Application of Article III. of regulations.

ARTICLE XVII.—Article III. of these regulations shall apply also in regard to procedure before the local authorities decide upon the scheme to be submitted to the Board for approval, whether in regard to a scheme prepared by the local authority or a scheme proposed by owners and proposed to be adopted by the local authority.

Making or adoption of scheme to be by order of local authority and Map No. 5 to be sealed in connection with the order.

ARTICLE XVIII.—When the local authority have decided upon the scheme to be submitted to the Board for their approval, whether in regard to a scheme prepared by the local authority or a scheme proposed by owners and proposed to be adopted by the local authority, they shall make an order under their seal, authenticated by the signature of their clerk or deputy clerk, making the scheme, or (as the case may be) adopting the scheme proposed by owners with such modifications as may have been decided upon by the local authority.

A map or, if the case so require, maps prepared in the manner and containing the particulars and details required by Article XIV. of these regulations, but to be marked and known as "Map No. 5" or "Map No. 5 (A)," "Map No. 5 (B)," etc., shall be sealed with the seal of the local authority in connection with the order:

Provided that if the map or maps required by this article to be prepared and sealed in connection with the order would be identical in all respects with the map or maps prepared in accordance with Article XIV. or (as the case may be) Article XV. of these regulations, the last-mentioned map or maps may, if the local authority think fit, be used for the purposes of this article, but if so used they shall also be marked as indicated in this article as well as in the manner required by Article XIV. or Article XV.

Application to the Board to approve scheme to be by resolution.

ARTICLE XIX.—An application to the Board to approve the scheme as made or adopted by the local authority by an order in pursuance of Article XVIII. of these regulations shall be made by a resolution of the local authority; and a copy of the resolution, certified by the clerk to the local authority, shall be transmitted without delay to the Board by the clerk, with a covering letter, and accompanied by a statement as to the total number of members of the local authority, the number who voted for the resolution, the number who voted against the resolution, the number who were present at the meeting but did not vote, and the number absent from the meeting.

Documents, etc., to accompany application for approval of a scheme: Map No. 6 and Map No. 7 to be prepared.

ARTICLE XX.—When the local authority transmit to the Board the resolution of the local authority requesting the approval of the Board to the scheme as made or adopted by the local authority, they shall transmit to the Board:—

(a) The statutory declarations and exhibits required by Article XXXI. of these regulations in proof of compliance with the requirements of Articles XII. and XVI.

(b) A sealed copy and three other copies of the Order of the local authority containing the scheme as made or adopted by them, and a certified copy of every map referred to in the Order.

(c) A map on the scale of 6 inches to the mile to be marked and known as "Map No. 6," showing, by distinguishing colours or boundary lines in colour, the district of the local authority and the land included in the scheme :

Provided that, if the scheme is made or adopted by the council of a rural district, it shall not be obligatory that the map shall extend to the whole of the rural district but it shall extend to the contributory place or places therein in which any part of the land included in the scheme is comprised :

Provided also that, if in any case the land included in a scheme is wholly outside the district of the local authority, the map shall show all the area intervening between that land and the district of the local authority.

There shall also be shown on the map by some distinctive colours and any necessary reference notes all recreation grounds or public open spaces and public elementary schools in the area required to be shown on the map, and also the buildings which have been erected in that area up to the time when the map is sent to the Board, distinguishing so far as regards the land included in the scheme the buildings begun to be erected after the application was made to the Board for their approval to prepare or adopt the scheme.

(d) A map on a scale of not less than 25·344 inches to the mile, or a plan drawn to some larger scale (to be marked and known as "Map No. 7") showing the area of the land included in the scheme so divided as to indicate as nearly as may be the portions of such land belonging to different owners. The map or plan shall show as regards each portion of the land the name of the owner, or shall bear numbers having reference to a statement, to be annexed to the map or plan, showing the names of the owners.

(e) A copy of all objections made in writing in reference to the scheme so far as the objections have not been withdrawn or removed in the scheme as finally prepared or adopted by the local authority.

Information to be furnished to the Board in connection with an application for approval of a scheme.

ARTICLE XXI.—(a) The local authority shall furnish the Board with a statement or statements giving in regard to the scheme prepared or adopted by the local authority the particulars and information indicated in Articles VIII. and IX. of these regulations so far as such particulars and information are not contained in the scheme.

The said particulars and information shall be given in regard to every scheme whether prepared by the local authority or adopted by them :

Provided that where the particulars and information furnished to the Board in accordance with Article VIII. or Article IX. or any division of either of those articles represent fully and accurately the particulars and information required by this article in regard to the scheme as prepared or adopted by the local authority it shall be sufficient if a reference be made to the particulars and information previously furnished under Article VIII. or Article IX. or any division thereof.

(b) The local authority shall also furnish the Board with a statement or statements giving the particulars and information indicated below so far as they are not contained in the scheme :—

(i) Information to show whether the scheme admits of satisfactory provision being made in regard to the supply of water, gas, or electricity within the area included in the scheme.

(ii) Information in regard to any tramways or light railways constructed or authorised to be constructed in the area included in the scheme or in the immediate neighbourhood thereof.

(iii) In regard to any lands proposed to be acquired by (a) the local authority submitting the scheme or (b) any other local authority, any information available as to the probability of the lands being acquired by agreement.

(iv) Particulars in regard to any land included in the scheme which belongs to (a) the local authority submitting the scheme or (b) any other local authority; the purposes for which and the authority under which such land was acquired or is held; and also information as to any proposal in regard to its use for any other purposes under the scheme.

(v) If the local authority are of opinion that any property will be injuriously affected by the making of the scheme, within the meaning of the Act of 1909, information, so far as it is practicable to give the same, in regard to such property and as to the extent to which the local authority consider that it may be injuriously affected.

(vi) Detailed particulars of any works which are to be executed under the scheme by any person or local authority, so far as any such particulars are available.

(vii) If the scheme contains provisions suspending any enactment contained in a public general Act, a full explanation of any such provisions and the reasons which are considered to justify their insertion.

(viii) If the scheme contains provisions suspending any other statutory enactments, byelaws, regulations or other provisions which are in operation in the area included in the scheme, a full explanation of any such provisions and the reasons which are considered to justify their insertion.

(ix) Particulars of any land forming part of any common, open space, or allotment, within the meaning of section 73 of the Act of 1909, which is within the area included in the scheme, and of any part of that land which under the scheme is authorised to be acquired or appropriated to any other purpose, and particulars in regard to any land proposed to be given in exchange for the land so to be acquired or appropriated ;

(x) Particulars of any land included in the scheme which is situate within the distance prescribed by regulations made by the Board under section 74 of the Act of 1909 from any of the royal palaces or parks.

Estimate and particulars as to cost of scheme : Information as to area, population, rates, debt, local Acts, orders, byelaws, etc.

ARTICLE XXII.—(a) In connection with an application to the Board for their approval of the scheme prepared or adopted by the local authority, information shall be furnished in regard to the estimated cost of carrying out the scheme, so far as the cost is to be borne by (1) the local authority making the application and (2) any other local authority. Separate particulars shall be given under the following heads :—

EXPENDITURE.

Purchase of land for open spaces.
Purchase of land for other purposes, specifying them.

Compensation in respect of property injuriously affected by the scheme.
Making or alteration of roads or ways.
Sewerage or drainage.
Cost of preparing the scheme.
Other purposes, specifying them.

RECEIPTS.

In respect of property increased in value.
From other sources, specifying them.

(b) If the statement or statements of particulars furnished under Article X. (b) or (c) of these regulations has or have owing to lapse of time or other circumstances become inaccurate in any material respect, an amended statement or amended statements of such particulars shall be supplied.

(c) There shall also be supplied a list and a copy of all local Acts, Provisional Orders, byelaws, or regulations in force in the area of any local authority any part of whose district is included in the scheme ; and in the case of any part of a district other than that of the local authority making the application to the Board being so included, such list and copy shall be supplied by the local authority of that district to the local authority making the application, who shall transmit them to the Board.

Notice by advertisement of submission of scheme to the Board : Objections, etc., may be made to the Board.

ARTICLE XXIII.—When the local authority have submitted to the Board for their approval the scheme prepared or adopted by the local authority they shall forthwith give notice of such submission by advertisement in some newspaper or newspapers circulating in the area of the local authority. The notice shall also state that a copy of the scheme submitted to the Board may be inspected by persons affected, including persons representing architectural or archæological societies or otherwise interested in the amenity of the scheme at a place to be specified in the notice, without payment of any fee, at all reasonable hours (specifying the same) on any week-day within a period of one month from the date of the notice, and that any objections and representations by any such persons should be made in writing and addressed to the Board, at their office, within the said period. A copy of the newspaper or newspapers containing such advertisement shall be forwarded to the Board by the clerk to the local authority.

Notices of modifications or conditions proposed by the Board: Objections, etc., may be made to the Board.

ARTICLE XXIV.—(a) If the Board propose to make any modifications in, or to attach any conditions to, the scheme submitted for their approval and transmit to the local authority a draft Order for approving the scheme with such modifications and conditions, the local authority shall within fourteen days after the receipt of the draft Order serve a copy of the draft Order upon the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of the land included in the scheme, and upon the council of any borough or of any urban or rural district within which any part of the said land is comprised, and also, if any main road is affected, upon the county council, together with a notice that any objections or representations in regard to such modifications and conditions should be made in writing and addressed to the Board at their office within a period of one month from the date of the serving of such draft Order and notice.

(b) The local authority shall also within fourteen days after the receipt of the draft Order give notice by advertisement in some newspaper or newspapers circulating in the area of the local authority that the Board have caused a draft Order to be prepared for approving the scheme subject to modifications or conditions, that a copy of the draft Order may be inspected and any information in regard thereto may be obtained, without payment of any fee, at a place which shall be specified in the notice, at all reasonable hours (specifying the same) on any week-day during the period of one month from the date of the notice, and that any objections or representations in regard to such modifications and conditions should be made in writing and addressed to the Board at their office within a period of one month from the date of the notice.

(c) The local authority shall furnish the Board within a period of one month from the receipt of the draft Order for approving the scheme with modifications or subject to conditions any objections or representations which they may desire to make in regard to the proposed modifications and conditions, and shall also within the same period transmit to the Board the statutory declaration and exhibits required by Article XXXI. of these regulations in proof of compliance with the requirements of this article.

Notice by advertisement of intention of the Board to approve scheme and to publish notice of such intention in London Gazette.

ARTICLE XXV.—(a) When the Board have decided to approve the scheme submitted for their approval, with or without modifications, and notify the local authority of the decision and transmit to the local authority a draft Order for approving the scheme, the local authority shall within fourteen days after the receipt of such notification give notice by advertisement in some newspaper or newspapers circulating in the area of the local authority that the Board intend to approve the scheme and propose, after the receipt by the Board of a copy of the newspaper or newspapers containing the advertisement, to publish forthwith in the London Gazette, in accordance with sub-section (4) of section 54 of the Act of 1909, a notice of such their intention, and that any person or authority interested and deciding to object to the scheme being approved should make his or their objection in the manner prescribed by Article XXVI. of these regulations within twenty-one days from the date of such publication in the London Gazette.

(b) A copy of the newspaper or newspapers containing the advertisement shall be forwarded to the Board by the clerk to the local authority immediately on the publication thereof.

(c) The local authority shall deposit at a place convenient for the purposes of inspection and shall keep deposited thereat the draft Order forwarded to them under this article, for the full period of twenty-one days from the date of the said publication in the London Gazette, and the draft Order shall be open for inspection by any person interested, without payment of any fee, at all reasonable hours on any week-day during the said period.

Prescribing manner of objections to approval of scheme under and for the purposes of section 54 (4) of the Act of 1909.

being approved shall make his or their objection in the following manner; that is to say:—

The objection shall be made to and be brought before the Board by means of a letter, or other representation in writing, which shall be addressed and posted, or shall be otherwise given, sent, or delivered to the Board at their office. The letter or representation shall indicate clearly the scheme to which the objection is taken, and shall state fully in what respects the person or authority objecting claims or claim to be interested in the scheme and the grounds on which the objection is made.

PROCEDURE AFTER THE APPROVAL OF THE SCHEME.

Notices of approval of scheme by the Board.

ARTICLE XXVII.—(a) The local authority, on receipt of a copy of the Order of the Board approving a scheme, shall without delay first publish notice of the approval of the scheme by advertisement in some newspaper circulating in the area of the local authority. The notice shall state that the scheme has been approved, with or without modifications or conditions as the case may be, and that the Order of the Board giving the approval and a copy of any map or plan referred to in the Order or scheme may be inspected and any necessary explanation or information in regard thereto may be obtained without payment of any fee at a place which shall be specified in the notice at all reasonable hours (specifying the same) on any weekday during the period of three months after the date of the Order. They shall also, not earlier than the second day after the first publication in a newspaper as aforesaid, serve upon the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of the land included in the scheme, and upon the council of any borough or of any urban or rural district within which any part of the said land is comprised, and also, if any main road is or may be affected by the scheme, upon the county council, a copy of the Order approving the scheme and a notice that a copy of any map or plan referred to in the Order or scheme may be inspected, and any necessary explanation or information in regard thereto may be obtained as above mentioned.

(b) The local authority shall make suitable provision for affording any person inspecting the Order or scheme or any map or plan referred to therein within the said period any necessary explanation or information in regard thereto.

(c) The local authority shall within fourteen days after the receipt of the said Order transmit to the Board the statutory declaration and exhibits required by Article XXXI. of these regulations in proof of compliance with the requirements of paragraph (a) of this article.

GENERAL.

Notices, &c., to Board of Agriculture and Fisheries and to Commissioners of Works in certain cases.

ARTICLE XXVIII.—Wherever in these regulations any notice or Order or scheme or draft Order or scheme is required to be served by the local authority upon any owner of land, the local authority shall send a like notice or Order or scheme or draft Order or scheme to the Board of Agriculture and Fisheries at their office if in the scheme or proposed scheme there is any provision for the acquisition or appropriation to any other purpose of any land forming part of any common, open space, or allotment within the meaning of section 73 of the Act of 1909 and to the Commissioners of Works if any land included in the scheme or proposed scheme is situate within the distance prescribed by regulations made by the Board under section 74 of the Act of 1909 from any of the royal palaces or parks.

Notices, &c., to Board of Trade and to Light Railway Commissioners in certain cases.

ARTICLE XXIX.—Where in a scheme proposed to be prepared or adopted by a local authority any land is proposed to be included on which tramways or light railways are constructed or are authorised to be constructed, the local authority shall, when they give the notices required to be given under Article I. of these regulations, also give notice to the Board of Trade and, as regards light railways, to the Light Railway Commissioners, of the intention of the local authority to apply for authority to prepare or (as the case may be) to adopt a scheme in regard to the said land, and shall from time to time thereafter furnish all such information as the Board of Trade or the Light Railway Commissioners may require in regard to the proposals so far as any tramways or light railways or an authorised route of any tramways or light railways may be affected.

Service of notices.

ARTICLE XXX.—A notice required to be served in pursuance of these regulations shall be served :—

(a) by delivery of the same personally to the person required to be served, or, if such person is absent abroad or cannot be found, to his agent; or

(b) by leaving the same at the usual or last known place of abode of such person as aforesaid; or

(c) by post addressed to the usual or last known place of abode of such person; or

(d) in the case of a notice required to be served on a local authority or corporate body or company, by delivering the same to their clerk or secretary or leaving the same at his office with some person employed there, or by post addressed to such clerk or secretary at his office:

Provided that if the owner of any land is not known to and after diligent inquiry cannot be found by the local authority then the notice may be served by leaving it, addressed to the owner, with some occupier of the land, or, if there be not an occupier, then by causing it to be put up on some conspicuous part of the land:

Provided also that a notice required to be given to an occupier may be addressed by the description of the "occupier" of the land or premises (describing it or them) in respect of which the notice is given, without further name or description.

Proofs of compliance with certain regulations to be furnished by statutory declarations.

ARTICLE XXXI.—Proofs of compliance with the requirements of Articles I. XII., XVI., XXIV., and XXVII. of these regulations as extended by Articles XXVIII. and XXIX. shall to the extent herein mentioned be furnished to the Board by statutory declarations (a) made by the clerk to the local authority or other person competent to make the same. The declarations shall in each case specify the manner in which the notices required by those articles to be served upon owners, lessees, and occupiers, and upon any other local authority or council, were served, and the names of the persons so served, and shall also show that the other requirements of those articles as to notices required to be given and as to the deposit of maps or plans or any documents required to be deposited have been duly complied with. There shall also be annexed to the declarations as exhibits :—

In regard to Article I.,—

(1) a copy of the form of notice served, (2) a copy of the map deposited for inspection, and (3) a copy of each newspaper containing the advertisement.

In regard to Article XII.,—

(1) copies of the forms of notices served, and (2) a copy of each newspaper containing the advertisement.

In regard to Article XVI.,—

(1) a copy of the form of notice served, (2) a copy of each newspaper containing the advertisement, (3) a statement showing the several parcels of land in respect of which notice was served upon each owner, lessee and occupier, (4) a copy of the draft scheme prepared by the local authority and deposited for inspection, or (4A) a copy of the scheme proposed by owners and deposited for inspection, together with a copy of any memorandum prepared by the local authority of modifications in such scheme and deposited with the scheme for inspection, and copies of the maps deposited for inspection.

In regard to Article XXIV.,—

(1) a copy of the form of notice served, and (2) a copy of each newspaper containing the advertisement.

In regard to Article XXVII.,—

(1) a copy of the Order, (2) a copy of the form of notice served, and (3) a copy of the newspaper containing the advertisement.

(a) The Local Government Board, after communication with the Board of Inland Revenue in regard to the question of the exemption from Stamp Duty of Statutory Declarations required to be made in pursuance of Article XXXI. of the Town Planning Procedure Regulations (England and Wales), 1910, were informed that the Board of Inland Revenue would regard such declarations as "required by law" within the meaning of those words in exemption (2) sub-tit. Affidavit and Statutory Declaration in the First Schedule to the Stamp Act, 1891 (amended by s. 6 of the Finance Act, 1907), and as therefore not liable to Stamp Duty by virtue of that exemption (Circular of March 31st, 1913).

Provisions as to maps.

ARTICLE XXXII.—(a) The maps required in pursuance of these regulations shall be Ordnance maps wherever such maps are published in respect of the district or area in relation to which the maps are required, shall be on a scale not less than that specified in each case, shall be mounted on linen and folded in book form, and shall have a scale properly drawn thereon.

(b) Any person interested in or affected by any scheme or proposed scheme shall be entitled to a copy of or extract from any map or plan required in pursuance of these regulations, on payment of a reasonable fee to be determined by the local authority, and shall be entitled to inspect at all reasonable times any map or plan referred to in Article XXVII. of these regulations. Any fees received by the local authority shall be carried to the credit of the fund liable to be charged with the expenses of the local authority in connection with the scheme.

Local authority to furnish all information, etc., required by the Board.

ARTICLE XXXIII.—The local authority shall prepare and furnish to the Board all such maps, plans, sections, elevations and specifications, and all such particulars or information as the Board shall require to be prepared and furnished in connection with any scheme or proposed scheme at any stage of the proceedings in relation thereto.

Board may consent to departures from regulations.

ARTICLE XXXIV.—Where the Board are satisfied that there is reasonable cause for dispensing, either conditionally or unconditionally, with compliance with any requirement of these regulations, or for varying any such requirement, the Board may, by Order or otherwise as they think fit, give the necessary dispensation, or may make and give effect to the necessary variation and to any incidents or consequences of that variation; and, in the case of any such dispensation when given subject to any condition, or in the case of any such variation, the local authority or other authorities or persons, as the case may be, shall comply in all respects with the condition or variation and with any requirement of the Order or other writing or direction of the Board giving the dispensation or making the variation as if the condition, variation or requirement formed part of these regulations:

Provided that the Board shall not exercise their powers under this article in such a manner as to dispense with any provisions of these regulations which are necessary to give effect to the requirements of the Act of 1909 or as so to vary any such provisions that they would cease to give effect to those requirements.

Interpretation.

ARTICLE XXXV.—In these regulations "the Act of 1909" means the Housing, Town Planning, etc. Act, 1909.

Short title.

ARTICLE XXXVI.—These regulations may be cited as the Town Planning Procedure Regulations (England and Wales), 1910.

Given under the Seal of Office of the Local Government Board, this third day of May, in the year one thousand nine hundred and ten.

(L.S.) JOHN BURNS, President.

H. C. MUNRO, Secretary.

S. R. AND O., 1921, No. 373.

Authorities), 1914, are hereby revoked, provided that those regulations shall, save in so far as they are inconsistent with any of the provisions of the Housing, Town Planning, etc. Act. 1919, and subject to the provisions of Article 17 of these regulations, continue to apply in all cases where before the 31st day of July, 1919, a local authority have been authorised to prepare a town planning scheme.

2.—(1) In these regulations, unless the context otherwise requires:—

"The Minister" means the Minister of Health;

"Interested local authority" means the council of the county in which, or any local authority in whose area, land proposed to be included in a town planning scheme is situate;

"Map" means a map on a scale of not less than 25 inches to the mile or such smaller scale as the Minister may in any particular case approve, and includes a plan or a series of maps or plans;

"Owners" has the same meaning as in the Lands Clauses Acts, but does not include persons holding or entitled to the rents and profits of land or premises under any lease or agreement the unexpired portion whereof is less than three years;

"Prescribed person" means:—

(a) any owner of land included or proposed to be included in a town planning scheme;

(b) any interested local authority;

(c) the Minister of Agriculture and Fisheries, where a town planning scheme provides for the acquisition or appropriation to any other purpose of any land forming part of any common, open space, or allotment;

(d) the Commissioners of Works, where a town planning scheme includes any land situate within the prescribed distance from any of the royal palaces or parks;

(e) the Minister of Transport, where a town planning scheme provides for the inclusion of any land on which any railways, tramways or light railways are constructed or are authorised to be constructed.

"Advertisement" means an advertisement published at least once during each of two successive weeks in a newspaper or newspapers circulating in the area of the local authority.

(2) The Interpretation Act, 1889, applies to the interpretation of these regulations as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

Resolution to Prepare Town Planning Scheme.

3.—(1) The resolution of a local authority deciding to prepare a town planning scheme shall define the area of the proposed scheme by reference to a map (hereinafter called "Map No. 1") showing by means of boundary lines defined in colour or otherwise the area of the land to which the resolution applies.

(2) The local authority shall as soon as may be after passing the resolution give notice thereof by advertisement and shall include in the notice a statement that Map No. 1 or a copy thereof will be open for inspection at a specified place or places, and that any suggestions for the inclusion or exclusion of any lands in or from the area of the proposed scheme may be sent in writing to the local authority within a specified period not being less than twenty-one days from the date of the first advertisement.

(3) A certified copy of the resolution and of Map No. 1 and of each advertisement shall be sent as soon as may be by the local authority to the Minister, together with the documents and full particulars of the matters specified in the First Schedule to these regulations.

(4) A certified copy of the resolution shall be sent to any interested local authority, and, if they so require, of Map No. 1, or a map on a scale of 6 inches to the mile certified to show accurately the area of the land to which the resolution applies.

(5) Where the approval of the Minister is required to the resolution of a local authority deciding to prepare a town planning scheme, the local authority shall give notice by advertisement that the Minister has approved the resolution as soon as may be after the date of such approval.

Preliminary Statement of Proposals for Development.

4.—(1) Within a period of six months from the date of a resolution deciding to prepare a town planning scheme, or, where the resolution extends to land not within the area of the local authority, within a period of six months from the date of the approval of the resolution by the Minister, the local authority shall prepare and adopt by resolution a preliminary statement of proposals for development (hereinafter called " the preliminary statement "), and shall for that purpose take into consideration any representations in writing made by persons interested or by any interested local authority with respect to the area of the proposed scheme or otherwise with respect to the development of the area.

(2) The preliminary statement shall contain particulars of the matters specified in the Second Schedule to these regulations and shall refer to a map (hereinafter called " Map No. 2 ") showing by means of boundary lines defined in colour or otherwise the area to be included and illustrating, so far as possible, the said particulars.

5.—(1) The local authority shall, before adopting a preliminary statement by resolution, give notice of their intention so to do by advertisement and shall take such other steps as they may think fit by means of public posters or otherwise to bring their intention to the notice of persons interested.

(2) The said notice or other public announcement shall include a statement that a draft of the preliminary statement proposed to be adopted and a map illustrating the particulars in the draft preliminary statement will be open for inspection at a specified place or places, and that any objections or representations with regard to the draft statement may be sent in writing to the local authority within a specified period not being less than twenty-one days from the date of the first advertisement.

(3) The local authority shall send to any interested local authority the draft of the preliminary statement, and, if so required by them, a map of so much of the land as is situate in the area of that authority, illustrating the particulars in the draft statement so far as it relates to that land.

(4) The local authority shall take into consideration any objections and representations in writing which they may receive within the period specified under paragraph (2) of this article, and shall take such steps as they may think necessary by means of conferences or otherwise to secure so far as may be possible the agreement and co-operation of persons interested.

6.—(1) As soon as may be after the passing of a resolution adopting a preliminary statement the local authority shall send to the Minister a certified copy of—

(a) the resolution, the preliminary statement and Map No. 2 ;

(b) each advertisement or other public announcement ;

(c) any objections or representations in writing received by the local authority which have not been removed or met in the preliminary statement adopted ;

(d) particulars of the matters specified in the Third Schedule to these regulations.

(2) Where the preliminary statement relates to land not within the area of the local authority, the local authority shall send to the local authority of the district in which such land is situate a certified copy of the resolution, of the preliminary statement, and of Map No. 2 so far as it relates to such land.

(3) Where any land to which the resolution deciding to prepare a town planning scheme applied is not included in the land to which the preliminary statement relates, the local authority shall notify the fact thereof to the owner of such land.

7.—(1) The Minister shall thereupon take the preliminary statement into consideration and shall notify the local authority that he approves or disapproves it, as the case may be, or that he approves it with modifications, provided that any such approval shall be without prejudice to any provisions of the town planning scheme to be submitted by the local authority to the Minister as hereinafter mentioned or to the approval or disapproval by the Minister of that scheme.

(2) Where the Minister notifies the local authority that he disapproves the preliminary statement, the local authority shall, within three months from the date of such notification, prepare and adopt by resolution another preliminary statement, and the provisions of this and the two preceding articles shall, with the necessary modifications, apply to such further statement.

8. The local authority shall as soon as may be after the receipt of a notification from the Minister approving the preliminary statement with or without modifications give notice thereof by advertisement, and shall include in the notice a statement that a print of the preliminary statement and Map No. 2, as approved by the Minister, will be open for inspection at a specified place or places, and that the local authority propose to proceed forthwith with the preparation of the town planning scheme for submission in due course to the Minister.

Preparation of Town Planning Scheme.

9.—(1) A draft of the town planning scheme (a) (hereinafter called "the draft scheme") shall be adopted by resolution of the local authority not later than twelve months after the date of the approval by the Minister of the preliminary statement.

(2) The draft scheme shall refer to a map (hereinafter called "Map No. 3") showing by means of boundary lines defined in colour or otherwise the area included in the scheme, and illustrating such particulars and details in relation thereto as can conveniently be indicated by reference letters, numbers, distinguishing colours or otherwise, and more particularly the matters specified in the Fourth Schedule to these regulations.

10.—(1) The local authority by whom a resolution has been passed adopting a draft scheme shall forthwith give notice thereof by advertisement and shall include in the notice a statement that a print of the draft scheme and Map No. 3, or a certified copy thereof, will be open for inspection at a specified place or places, and that any interested local authority or other person desiring to object or make representations with respect to the draft scheme or any part thereof may send the representations or objections in writing to the local authority within a specified period not being less than four weeks from the date of the first advertisement.

(2) The local authority shall as soon as may be after the passing of the resolution adopting the draft scheme, in addition to the publication of the said advertisement, serve a notice in the same terms on the prescribed persons.

(3) A certified copy of the resolution and of each advertisement together with a certified copy of the draft scheme and of Map No. 3, shall be sent forthwith by the local authority to the Minister.

11. The local authority shall take into consideration all objections and representations in writing received by them within the period specified under paragraph (1) of Article 10, and shall give full opportunity to any interested local authority and to persons making such objections or representations, including persons representing architectural or archæological societies or otherwise interested in the amenities of the scheme, to be heard in such manner as the circumstances and the justice of the case may require.

Submission of Town Planning Scheme to Minister.

12.—(1) The local authority shall within six months from the date of the resolution adopting the draft scheme pass a resolution finally approving the scheme with or without modifications and directing that the scheme as approved by them and the map to which the said scheme refers (hereinafter called "Map No. 4") shall be sealed with the seal of the authority and submitted to the Minister for his approval:

Provided that if the map required by this article to be sealed is identical in all respects with the Map No. 3 prepared in accordance with Article 10 hereof, the last-mentioned map, if the local authority think fit, may with the consent of the Minister be used for the purposes of this Article, but if so used it shall be marked as Map No. 4 in addition to being marked as Map No. 3.

(2) The local authority shall as soon as may be thereafter submit a sealed duplicate of the scheme and of Map No. 4 to the Minister for his approval, together with the documents and information specified in the Fifth Schedule to these regulations, and shall send to the Minister copies of all objections and representations in writing received by them which have not been removed or met in the scheme.

(3) A print of the scheme shall be sent by the local authority to every interested local authority.

(a) The latest model clauses for a town planning scheme are set out at pp. 3850, et seq. post.

13.—(1) A local authority who have submitted a scheme to the Minister for his approval shall forthwith give notice thereof by advertisement, and shall include in the notice a statement that a print of the scheme submitted and Map No. 4, or a certified copy thereof, will be open for inspection at a specified place or places, and that any objections or representations relating thereto shall be sent in writing to the Minister within a period of not less than twenty-one days from the date of the first advertisement.

(2) A certified copy of each advertisement shall be sent to the Minister as soon as may be after the publication thereof.

14.—(1) The Minister shall, before taking the scheme into his consideration, cause a public inquiry to be held at which any local authority or persons interested in or affected by the scheme may be heard, and shall cause a report of such inquiry to be made to him.

(2) The Minister shall, after duly considering the scheme and the said report, notify the local authority of his intention to approve or disapprove the scheme, as the case may be, or to approve it with modifications.

(3) Where the Minister notifies the local authority that he disapproves the scheme, the local authority shall, within six months from the date of such notification, prepare and adopt by resolution another scheme, and the provisions of Articles 9 to 13 inclusive and of this article shall, with the necessary modifications, apply to such further scheme.

15.—(1) The local authority shall, on receipt of a notification from the Minister approving a scheme with or without modifications, forthwith give notice thereof by advertisement and shall include in the notice a statement that a print of the scheme in the form in which the Minister has notified his intention to approve it may be inspected at a specified place or places.

(2) The local authority shall in addition to the publication by advertisement as aforesaid serve a notice upon the owners of the land included in the scheme and upon any interested local authority to the like effect, but including also a statement that any owner or interested local authority desiring to object to the approval of the scheme by the Minister may within twenty-one days from the date of the service of the notice send any objections or representations in writing with the grounds thereof to the Minister.

(3) The local authority shall send to the Minister certified copies of the said notice and of each advertisement.

Approval of Scheme by Minister.

16.—(1) The Minister shall take into consideration any objections or representations so received by him and shall thereafter by Order finally approve the scheme with or without modifications and shall notify the local authority accordingly.

(2) The local authority shall on receipt of the Order of the Minister approving the scheme forthwith serve upon the prescribed persons a copy of the Order approving the scheme and shall also give notice of the Order by advertisement and shall include in the notice a statement that a copy of the Order of the Minister approving the scheme may be inspected at a specified place or places.

(3) A certified copy of each advertisement shall be sent by the local authority to the Minister.

Supplemental.

17.—(1) Where before the 31st day of July, 1919, a local authority have been authorised to prepare a town planning scheme, the Minister may by Order direct that these regulations shall apply with such modifications as, in the opinion of the Minister, the circumstances of the case may require.

(2) Where after the 31st day of July, 1919, and before the date on which these regulations come into force, a local authority have passed a resolution deciding to prepare a town planning scheme, these regulations shall apply as though the resolution had been passed on the day on which these regulations come into force, or, where the resolution extends to land not within the area of the local authority, on the day on which these regulations come into force or on which the approval of the Minister is given, whichever is the later.

18. A local authority may, if they think fit, adopt by resolution a draft scheme within the period prescribed by these regulations for the adoption by resolution of a preliminary statement, and in that case the draft scheme shall, if the Minister so directs, be substituted for the preliminary statement, and these regulations shall apply accordingly with such modifications as, in the circumstances of the case, the Minister may direct.

19.—(1) The Minister may, if he thinks fit in any particular case, and subject to such conditions as he may impose, extend the period during which anything is required to be done under these regulations, or dispense with any of the requirements of these regulations, other than requirements made obligatory by any statute, provided that he is satisfied that there is reasonable cause for such extension or dispensation and that the interests of any person will not be prejudiced thereby.

(2) The local authority may, if they think fit and subject to such conditions as they may impose, extend the time during which any suggestions, objections, or representations in writing may be sent to the authority under the provisions of Articles 3, 5 and 10 of these regulations.

20. A local authority shall furnish the Minister with all such further information or particulars as the Minister may from time to time require.

21. All maps, documents and notices deposited for inspection under these regulations shall be available for inspection at all reasonable hours and without payment of any fee.

22. A notice required to be served in pursuance of these regulations shall be served:—

(a) by delivery of the same personally to the person required to be served, or, if such person is absent abroad or cannot be found, to his agent; or

(b) by leaving the same at the usual or last known place of abode of such person as aforesaid; or

(c) by post addressed to the usual or last known place of abode of such person; or

(d) in the case of a notice required to be served on a local authority or corporate body or company, by delivering the same to the clerk or secretary or leaving the same at his office with some person employed there, or by post addressed to such clerk or secretary at his office:

Provided that if the owner of any land is not known to and after reasonable inquiry cannot be found by the local authority, then the notice may be served by leaving it, addressed to the owner, with some occupier of the land, or, if there be not an occupier, then by causing it to be put up on some part of the land or in some conspicuous place in the immediate neighbourhood thereof:

Provided also that an accidental omission to serve a notice required under these regulations shall not render any proceedings thereunder invalid.

SCHEDULES.

FIRST SCHEDULE.

DOCUMENTS AND PARTICULARS TO BE SENT TO THE MINISTER OF HEALTH AFTER THE PASSING OF A RESOLUTION DECIDING TO PREPARE A TOWN PLANNING SCHEME.

Article 3.

(1) Documents required under Article 3 (3) of these regulations.

(2) Copies of all suggestions received by the local authority under Article 3.

(3) Where the resolution extends to land not within the area of the local authority passing the resolution, the reasons for the inclusion of land outside the area of the local authority.

(4) Information, in the form required by the Minister, as to the responsible authority under the scheme; the acreage and general character and development of the area; and the inclusion of any land already built upon or not likely to be used for building purposes, or of any Crown land.

Appendix II.

SECOND SCHEDULE.

Article 4.

PARTICULARS TO BE INCLUDED IN THE PRELIMINARY STATEMENT OF PROPOSALS FOR DEVELOPMENT.

(1) Area to be included in the town planning scheme (to be defined by the inner edge of a boundary line shown on Map No. 2) (a).

(2) (a) The principal new streets or roads which it is proposed shall be made as part of the scheme, with their position, and any proposed widenings of any existing streets or roads.

(b) Building lines or spaces about buildings proposed to be prescribed in relation to the principal new streets or widenings.

(3) Roads, streets, or ways which it is proposed to stop up or divert.

(4) Restrictions proposed, and the areas to which the several restrictions are to apply, as regards—

- (a) character of buildings to be erected (e.g., whether dwelling-houses, public buildings, business premises, factories or workshops for light industries, or factories or workshops for heavy industries, or partly one class of building and partly another);
- (b) density of buildings (that is, number of dwelling-houses to the acre, and proportion of site to be covered by buildings);
- (c) height of buildings.

The proposed restrictions and the areas to which they are to apply (as well as open spaces or other areas not to be built upon: see next clause) should be shown by distinctive colours or hatchings on Map No. 2.

(5) Areas proposed to be reserved for open spaces or other areas not to be built upon.

THIRD SCHEDULE.

Article 6.

MATTERS WHEREOF PARTICULARS ARE TO BE SENT TO THE MINISTER IN CONNECTION WITH AN APPLICATION FOR APPROVAL OF A PRELIMINARY STATEMENT.

(1) Documents required under Article 6 (1) (a), (b), and (c) of these regulations.

(2) Particulars, in the form required by the Minister, respecting lands in the possession of local authorities, housing schemes, and ancient monuments in the area.

FOURTH SCHEDULE.

Article 9.

MATTERS WHEREOF PARTICULARS AND DETAILS ARE TO BE SHOWN ON MAP NO. 3.

(1) The area included in the draft scheme (to be defined by the inner edge of a boundary line shown on the map).

(2) (a) New streets, and widenings of any existing streets or roads, proposed to be made as part of the scheme.

(b) Building lines or spaces about buildings proposed to be prescribed.

(3) Particulars required under paragraphs (3), (4), and (5) of the Second Schedule. As regards areas not to be built upon, the purposes for which they are to be reserved should be indicated.

FIFTH SCHEDULE.

Article 12.

DOCUMENTS AND PARTICULARS TO BE SENT TO THE MINISTER OF HEALTH IN CONNECTION WITH THE SUBMISSION OF A TOWN PLANNING SCHEME FOR APPROVAL.

(1) Documents required under Article 12 (2) of these regulations.

(2) Six prints of the scheme and a certified copy of the resolution directing that the scheme be submitted to the Minister for approval.

(a) The following particulars are also to be shown on Map No. 2:—

- (a) Existing county roads;
- (b) Roads repairable by the inhabitants at large;
- (c) Roads or footways over which the public have a right of way;
- (d) Land already built upon within the area of the scheme or in the immediate neighbourhood thereof, distinguishing factories;
- (e) Railways, tramways or light railways constructed or authorised to be constructed within the area of the scheme or in the immediate neighbourhood thereof;
- (f) Land forming part of any common, open space or allotment within the meaning of Sched. III. Pt. II. 4, of the Town Planning, Act, 1925, within the area of the scheme or in the immediate neighbourhood thereof.

(3) A map on a scale of not less than 25 inches to the mile (to be marked and known as "Map No. 5") showing the area of the land included in the scheme so divided as to indicate as nearly as may be the portions of the land belonging to different owners, and showing as regards each parcel of land by reference to a list of owners the name of the owner thereof.

(4) A list of all local Acts, Provisional Orders, byelaws or regulations in force in the area of any local authority any part of whose district is included in the scheme, and copies of those which contain any provisions affecting the scheme, with references thereto.

(5) Particulars, in the form required by the Minister, of proposed acquisition of land by local authorities under the scheme; of works to be executed; of proposed appropriations of commons, open spaces, or allotments; of any enactments or other provisions which it is proposed to suspend, with the reasons for the proposal; of the estimated cost of carrying out the scheme; and of the acreage, population, rateable value, etc., of the districts concerned.

CIRCULAR TO TOWN COUNCILS, ETC.

MINISTRY OF HEALTH, WHITEHALL, S.W.1,
March 30*th*, 1921.

TOWN PLANNING.

SIR,—1. I am directed by the Minister of Health to forward to you the enclosed copies of revised regulations governing the procedure to be adopted in preparing town planning schemes. A summary of the regulations is appended to this Circular Letter. They come into force on the 2nd May, 1921.

2. The new regulations have been prepared in consultation with persons familiar with town planning, and have been generally approved by associations representative of local authorities. They will supersede the existing ones, and have been devised so as to simplify the preparation of town planning schemes, and also to avoid the "sterilization" of land during the time that a town planning scheme is being prepared, hitherto a serious difficulty and hindrance to development.

The importance of providing for the systematic development of areas cannot be too highly estimated. Now less than ever can we afford the waste which has been the result of the haphazard growth of towns in the past; and therefore, in conformity with the measures which are now being taken for economy, wise action is necessary as regards town planning. For industry, even more than for housing, the gains of proper town planning are great, by locating factories, workshops, and businesses in the places best adapted for them and by providing betimes for proper roads and other communications, and thus avoiding the later necessity of costly street improvements. The works or measures for which provision is made in town planning schemes will need to be carried out, of course, only as and when development makes them necessary. On the 1st January, 1923, town planning becomes compulsory, by the operation of section 46 of the Housing, Town Planning, etc. Act, 1919, in all boroughs and urban districts with a population exceeding 20,000.

Local authorities should, at the outset at least, make their town planning schemes as simple as possible, concentrating on the two essentials—settling the principal lines of communication, and allocating areas for the purposes for which they are best suited (zoning), whether industrial, business, residential, or as open spaces; this procedure will make for economy and for efficiency. In order to save time and expense, the Minister has now in preparation a series of model clauses to be used by local authorities in their schemes.

3. It will be seen that the new regulations provide for the preparation of a town planning scheme in three stages—the resolution to prepare; the preliminary statement; the scheme. It is open to any local authority to merge the two former or two latter stages where they are in a position to do so.

The maps required should be Ordnance Maps, and the copies sent to the Ministry should be folded in book form. While maps on a scale of not less than 25 inches to the mile are generally necessary, a scale of 6 inches to the mile will be accepted for maps Nos. 1 and 2, where the required particulars can be shown with sufficient accuracy on this scale.

Appendix II.

The Minister has arranged that, if application is made to him by the local authority, the Commissioners of Inland Revenue will authorise the district valuers to supply the authority with such information as they possess as to the names and addresses of the owners of land included in the authority's scheme. In many cases this procedure will save time and expenditure in obtaining the necessary particulars.

4. It is desirable that there should be one town planning scheme for the whole of an area forming one economic unit. If, therefore, there is more than one local authority in that unit, it is necessary that these local authorities should co-operate closely, to the extent, where advantageous, of forming a joint committee for preparing a scheme. The Minister will be prepared to help in any cases of this kind by calling conferences of the local authorities concerned.

The Minister will be glad at all times to place the assistance of his officers at the disposal of local authorities in the preparation of their schemes.

I am, etc.

APPENDIX.

SUMMARY OF TOWN PLANNING REGULATIONS, 1921.

The procedure to be followed by a local authority is divided into three stages.

Stage I. Resolution deciding to prepare Scheme.

The resolution deciding to prepare the scheme must define by means of a map, known as Map No. 1, the exact area which is to be included in the scheme. This map must be deposited for inspection and advertisement of the fact given in the local Press. A copy of the resolution and of a map of the area must be sent to the council of the county in which any part of the area is situated, and, if the area covered by the scheme includes land under the jurisdiction of another local authority for town planning purposes, also to that authority.

Where the area covered by the scheme includes land under the jurisdiction of another local authority for town planning purposes, the approval of the Minister is required to the resolution; and, when this approval has been obtained, the local authority must give notice of the fact by advertisement.

Stage II. Preliminary Statement of Proposals.

Within six months of their resolution deciding to prepare a scheme (or of the Minister's approval of the resolution, where required), the local authority must prepare a preliminary statement and map, known as Map No. 2, showing their main proposals for the development of the area covered by the scheme, e.g., the principal new roads to be constructed, open spaces to be reserved, and the restrictions proposed in regard to character of buildings (whether dwelling-houses, factories, etc.), density of buildings (that is, number to the acre and proportion of site to be covered), and height of buildings. (In any restrictions limiting the number of dwelling houses to the acre, each dwelling intended for separate occupation should count as one.) In preparing the statement consideration must be given to any representations from interested persons or any interested local authority as to the area of the scheme or its development.

Before adopting the statement, the authority must give notice in the Press of their intention to do so; and they must make arrangements for any interested person to inspect the map and the draft statement. A copy of the draft statement and the map must also be sent to the county council or other local authority that may be concerned. Any objections are to be carefully considered and conferences arranged with a view to securing, so far as possible, agreement on matters covered by the statement.

A copy of the statement, when adopted, with the map and other particulars must be sent to the Minister; and, where any part of the land is within the area of another local authority for town planning purposes, a copy of the statement and of the map so far as it relates to such land, must be sent to that authority. The Minister after arranging for any necessary visit to the area by one of his inspectors, will inform the local authority of his approval, with or without modifications, or of his disapproval of the statement. If the proposals are approved by the Minister the authority must advertise the fact and their intention to proceed at once with the preparation of the detailed scheme.

Stage III. Preparation and Approval of Scheme.

(a) Preparation of Draft Scheme.

Within 12 months of the date on which the preliminary statement is approved by the Minister, the local authority must prepare and adopt a draft scheme, illustrated by a map, to be known as Map No. 3; and must advertise the fact in the Press, intimating how objections may be made to the draft scheme. They must also serve notice on all owners of land interested in the scheme, as well as on any county council or other local authority or Government department that may be concerned.

(b) Submission of Scheme to Minister.

After all objections have been considered and within six months of the date of the resolution adopting the draft scheme, the local authority must pass a resolution finally approving the scheme, modified as may have been found necessary, after considering all representations. The scheme when so approved and the map referred to in it, known as Map No. 4, must be sealed and submitted to the Minister for his approval and a print sent to any county council or other local authority concerned. The authority must advertise in the Press the fact that the scheme has been submitted to the Minister and that any objections may be made direct to him, and must arrange for a print of the scheme and Map No. 4 to be open to public inspection.

(c) Approval of the Scheme by the Minister.

On receipt of the scheme, the Minister will first arrange for a public local inquiry to be held, and, after considering the inpector's report, will inform the local authority of his intention to approve the scheme, with or without modifications, or to disapprove it.

The authority must give notice in the Press of the Minister's intention; and, if it is proposed to approve the scheme, with or without modifications, must arrange for a print of the scheme in the form proposed to be approved by the Minister to be open to public inspection. They must also write to the same effect to all owners of land affected by the scheme as well as to any county council or other local authority concerned. These measures are taken in order to afford any interested parties full opportunity to state their objections, if any, to the Minister, before a final decision is reached on the scheme.

The Minister will take into consideration any objections that may be raised; and, if satisfied that the scheme should be approved, will issue an Order accordingly. A notice of the fact that the Order has been made must be inserted in the Press and the authority must arrange for a copy of the Order to be open to public inspection. Copies are also to be sent to all owners of land affected by the scheme, as well as to any county council or other local authority or Government department concerned.

TOWN PLANNING.

MINISTRY OF HEALTH, WHITEHALL, S.W.1,
August 23rd, 1922.

SIR,—I am directed by the Minister of Health to forward the enclosed copy of a General Order which he has made under section 45 of the Housing, Town Planning, etc. Act, 1919, for the purpose of enabling development to proceed in areas for which resolutions have been passed or authority given to prepare town planning schemes. An explanatory memorandum accompanies the Order.

The section in question provides that if works are carried out in accordance with the conditions prescribed in an Order made by the Minister, a claim for compensation under the scheme in respect of the works shall not be prejudiced.

It is highly important that persons wishing to develop shall not be delayed on account of the preparation of a town planning scheme, and the General Order has been made with the object of preventing any such delay.

At present local authorities can allow development, but the consent of the Minister has to be obtained in each individual case. This is a cumbersome procedure, and under the General Order local authorities will be able to allow development themselves without reference to the Minister, except in disputed cases.

The Minister considers that the local authority should take steps to make the Order as widely known as possible locally (through the local Press, local associations and otherwise), and that opportunity should be given for its inspection by persons interested.

Adequate records must be kept of all permissions granted under the Order and should be available for reference when required.

The Minister considers it important that permission to develop under the protection of section 45 of the Act of 1919 should not be withheld, unless there are very strong reasons; and he would urge the local authority to do everything possible to facilitate genuine proposals for development submitted to them during the preparation of schemes.

The Order will be placed on sale, so that further copies may be purchased, either directly or through any bookseller, from His Majesty's Stationery Office, at the following addresses :—Imperial House, Kingsway, London, W.C.2, and 28, Abingdon Street, London, S.W.1 ; 37, Peter Street, Manchester ; and 1, St. Andrew's Crescent, Cardiff.

I am, etc.

MEMORANDUM.

TOWN PLANNING—DEVELOPMENT DURING PREPARATION OF PRELIMINARY STATEMENT. ORDER UNDER SECTION 45 OF THE HOUSING, TOWN PLANNING, ETC. ACT, 1919.

Object of Order.

1. The Minister considers it of the greatest importance that private development should not be arrested while a town planning scheme is in course of preparation and that owners should be able to proceed with genuine building plans without fear of the subsequent effects of a scheme. The accompanying Order will enable the local authority concerned to permit development to proceed in town planning areas under the protection of section 45 of the Housing, Town Planning, etc. Act, 1919, while ensuring that the development shall be as far as practicable in harmony with the maturing plan.

2. The Order does not remove the obligation of the local authority to prepare comprehensive proposals for the guidance of development in the form of a preliminary statement as quickly as possible, so that they may be empowered to permit development in accordance with it, when approved. The early determination of the main outlines of the proposals to be included in the statement is, in fact, all the more urgent, to avoid any necessity for allowing development of a piecemeal kind.

In some cases, where it is known that development is imminent or probable within a limited and sufficiently self-contained portion of a town planning area, it will be possible to prepare a preliminary statement rapidly for that portion of the area in advance of the statement for the area as a whole. This course is open to local authorities under the Town Planning Regulations, and they should adopt it, especially where a number of owners are concerned.

Explanation of Order.

3. The Order empowers the local authority on the submission of plans to permit development in accordance with such requirements as they may reasonably impose, and gives the applicant a right of appeal to the Minister where he feels aggrieved by any proposed requirement or by any refusal of permission. It is hoped that agreement will generally be reached between the local authority and developing owners and that appeals will be found in practice to be infrequent.

The local authority's requirements should be as few and simple as possible. Some notes on the subject are attached.

Main Streets.

4—(i) Abstention from Building.—Where new roads are projected under the Scheme of more than byelaw width, it will be necessary to require abstention from building on the sites of the roads.

(ii) Charges.—As a general rule an owner should not, except by agreement, be required to construct a road in a manner involving more than the cost of an ordinary byelaw street, or, if the road is to be constructed by the council, to contribute more than such cost in respect of the frontage to be developed.

It may not always be reasonable to require an owner to pay full byelaw cost, e.g., where owing to special circumstances there is some damage involved to the owner in the reservation of the site of the street, compensation for which may properly be set off against street charges. On the other hand, there may at times be special betterment which would justify an owner being asked to contribute more. Where an arrangement is made for setting off compensation or betterment against street charges, there should be agreements abandoning possible claims in respect of the same matter under the scheme.

(iii) Construction by Stages.—Where an owner wishes to construct a road on a site reserved for a road under the scheme before the council are prepared to do so, and the whole width of the road as contemplated would involve more than byelaw cost, the council may be prepared to pay the difference, or may be able, without requiring the whole width to be constructed, to control the position of the carriage way, footpaths, etc., so that they shall fit in with the ultimate lay-out. This may be facilitated by allowing the street to be laid out at first of less than byelaw width and reasonable departures from the byelaws would be permitted for this purpose.

Widenings.

5. Abstention from building should be required on the sites of proposed widenings, as in the case of new streets. The general rule as regards costs of works of widenings should be that owners should not be required, as a condition of development, to pay for widenings to which they could not be required to contribute under the local authority's statutory powers apart from town planning, though special circumstances may here also justify departure from the general rule.

Subsidiary Streets.

6. In view of the restrictions on density of development which may be imposed, it is desirable that owners should have the benefit of any relaxations of byelaw standards on estate streets that may properly be granted, and reasonable relaxations are justified where the streets are laid out so that they are not likely to be required for through traffic.

The Minister is prepared to consent under Clause 6 of the Order to the relaxation involved in the types of streets set out in the accompanying schedule, which he considers generally appropriate. He is prepared, however, to consider modifications of these types, if desired, or alternative types adapted to special local circumstances, where necessary. The lengths and lay-outs of the streets in the schedule have been selected on the assumption of a development of twelve to the acre in a normal residential neighbourhood. The conditions may require to be further relaxed or tightened according to variations in density or in the general character of the locality.

Open Spaces.

7. Where it is desired that part of any land for which permission to develop is sought, should be reserved for an open space, abstention from building or other development thereon, except so far as consistent with the use for which it is reserved, will have to be imposed. This will ordinarily be sufficient to safeguard the position pending the settlement of the scheme, which can subsequently provide for permanent reservation.

If the reservation of land under this paragraph would involve (at once or subsequently) appreciable loan expenditure, the Minister's approval of the reservation should be obtained.

Building Lines.

8. It is not considered that, in the absence of agreement, building lines should normally be required of more than 15 to 25 feet from the boundary of the street, except on streets where a less than byelaw width has been allowed and where, in consequence, a deeper set-back may be required to secure a reasonable minimum space between buildings. Special circumstances, e.g., the levels of the land, will sometimes indicate a shallower set-back.

Character of Buildings.

9. Requirements under this head should be in harmony with the intended general character of the area or part of the area concerned, but buildings which might otherwise be incongruous (e.g., in a residential area) are frequently permissible on special sites and subject to compliance with reasonable conditions. Proposals for factories in non-industrial neighbourhoods will, of course, require careful consideration.

Density.

10. Twelve, ten and eight houses per gross acre are common density requirements according to the nature of the neighbourhood, but no fixed standards can be laid down, and circumstances may indicate higher or lower densities in particular cases. Great caution should, however, be exercised in requiring specially low densities. They must be in the public as well as the owners' interest, and care must be taken to avoid any possible risk of checking the development of the land concerned. Low densities cannot as a rule be safely imposed unless and until there is clear evidence that the land concerned is being or will be developed for high-class property.

Where streets have already been laid out prior to the inception of a scheme, a greater density will generally be justified than would have been the case had the owner been free to adapt himself to the new conditions in this respect.

Execution of Agreements.

11. It is considered reasonable that an owner who wishes to develop in advance of the approval of the scheme should be required to make such payments towards the cost of roads constructed by the council, as he might reasonably have been required to pay under the scheme in respect of the development covered by the permission. There would, however, be no adequate means of securing compliance with such a requirement, apart from a supporting agreement, and it is therefore desirable to secure agreements where necessary. The general limits of the requirements that may normally be made in this respect are indicated in paragraph 4 under the heading "Main Streets."

Other circumstances may arise in which it may be advisable to obtain agreements (e.g. where it is necessary to attach conditions to the erection of a factory in a residential neighbourhood).

Compensation and Betterment.

12. No power of paying compensation or claiming betterment is available under the Town Planning Acts in advance of an approved scheme. Agreements contingent on the approval of the scheme can, however, be made with owners for the purpose. The local authority's powers of purchase may also enable them to meet special cases of real and immediate injury where the powers can appropriately be exercised. Adjustments can also be effected, where suitable, by variation of the street charges or requirements.

Relaxation of Byelaws.

13. Clause 6 provides that relaxations of byelaws should not be permitted except with the permission of the Minister.

Permission should be sought to departures intended to be of general application, and not to departures in individual cases.

As indicated in paragraphs 4 (iii) and 6, relaxations of byelaws will be permitted in the case of streets on the lines there set out. It is not considered that other departures will normally be needed, especially in connection with interim development. In any case, the departure should be one that can be justified as applicable to the town planning area specially, as distinct from the district as a whole.

Procedure.

14. Clause 7 requires the council to notify their decision and, when permission is granted, their requirements to the applicant in writing. Requirements can normally be indicated by reference to a plan attached to the notification, but, where any agreement is required, it should be scheduled to the notification, which should contain a reference to it.

Appendix II.

Before permitting any proposed development, the council should consult any neighbouring owners whose interests are likely to be affected, and in some instances (e.g., a proposal to erect a shop or factory in a residential area, or requirements as to streets or density which would affect the streets or density allowed on neighbouring lands in separate ownership) it may be advisable to give notice by advertisement in a local newspaper of any proposal to consent, before the consent is given. The notice should indicate that objections may be made and will be considered.

Officers of the Ministry will be pleased to discuss any proposals with representatives of the council, where the proposals are of such a character as to make this desirable, but such advice cannot be given so as to prejudice the Minister's decision on any appeal that may subsequently be made to him.

Appeal.

15. Applicants are given a right of appeal to the Minister against any requirements imposed by the council as a condition of permission to develop, or against any refusal of permission, and the Minister's decision will operate as a decision of the council.

Duration of Order.

16. Unless previously revoked or varied by the Minister, the Order will remain in force until the approval of a preliminary statement for the area concerned, under the Town Planning Regulations, 1921, or, where a preliminary statement has been dispensed with or the Regulations of 1921 are not applicable, until the approval of a scheme.

S. R. AND O., 1922, No. 927.

THE TOWN PLANNING (GENERAL INTERIM DEVELOPMENT) ORDER, 1922, DATED AUGUST 12TH, 1922, MADE BY THE MINISTER OF HEALTH, UNDER SECTION 45 OF THE HOUSING, TOWN PLANNING, ETC. ACT, 1919.

In exercise of the powers conferred on him by section 45 of the Housing, Town Planning, etc. Act, 1919, the Minister of Health hereby orders as follows :—

1. This Order may be cited as the Town Planning (General Interim Development) Order, 1922.

2. In this Order the following expressions have the meanings hereby assigned to them respectively :—

"The Minister" means the Minister of Health ;

"Area" means any area in respect of which a resolution deciding to prepare a town planning scheme has been duly passed and (where necessary) approved by the Minister under section 42 of the Housing, Town Planning, etc. Act, 1919, or for which authority to prepare a scheme has been given under section 54 of the Housing, Town Planning, etc. Act, 1909 ;

"The local authority" means the local authority who have decided or been authorised to prepare a scheme for the area concerned.

3. For the purpose of section 45 of the Housing, Town Planning, etc. Act, 1919, the local authority may permit the development of estates and building operations to proceed in the area pending the preparation and approval of a town planning scheme, subject to the conditions contained in this Order.

4. A person who desires to apply for permission under the last preceding article, shall apply to the local authority for permission in writing and shall furnish to the local authority, together with his application and in the form required by them, a plan in duplicate showing the proposed method of development and proposed buildings and such further particulars as the local authority may require.

5. The development of estates and building operations shall comply with all such requirements as the local authority may reasonably impose.

6. The local authority shall not, except with the consent of the Minister, permit any development or building operations inconsistent with the provisions of any local Acts, regulations, or building byelaws in force in the area.

7. The local authority shall, as soon as may be, inform the applicant in writing that his application for permission to proceed is granted or refused, as the case may be, and, if the application is granted, shall state in writing the terms of any requirements which they may impose.

8. Any applicant aggrieved by the neglect or refusal of the local authority to grant permission, or by any requirements imposed by the local authority, may appeal to the Minister, whose decision shall be final and shall have effect as if it were the decision of the local authority.

9. Subject and without prejudice to the power of the Minister to revoke or vary this Order, the Order shall remain in force in an area or part of an area until the date of the approval by the Minister of a preliminary statement for that area or part under the Ministry of Health (Town Planning) Regulations, 1921, or, where a preliminary statement is not required to be prepared, the date of the approval by the Minister of a scheme for that area or part.

TOWN PLANNING (GENERAL INTERIM DEVELOPMENT) ORDER, 1922.

MINISTRY OF HEALTH, WHITEHALL, S.W.1,
January 29th, 1923.

SIR,—The Minister thinks it desirable, in view of some cases which have recently come before him, to issue some further guidance to local authorities in connection with the administration of this Order.

If there is not an approved town planning scheme in force, local authorities have no power to prevent development which complies with the byelaws or other statutory provisions in force; but, if a resolution to prepare a town planning scheme has been passed, any person who develops without special consent is prejudiced if the particular development should contravene the scheme ultimately approved. By the Interim Development Order, local authorities are enabled to give consent to development in anticipation of a scheme; and a person who has received such consent is placed exactly in the same position, as regards compensation, as if the development had been undertaken before the resolution was passed.

The Minister considers that the presumption should always be in favour of the person who wishes to undertake development.

Town planning is new, and it would not be right to attempt so close a control at the early stages as may later be warranted. Further, it would not be reasonable to expect as strict authority to be exercised over development before as after a scheme has been approved, when the views of the various interests affected will have been heard and fully considered. It is also particularly desirable that no obstacles should be placed in the way of proposed development unless it is clearly detrimental to important local needs or interests.

The Minister considers, therefore, that consent under the Interim Development Order should be refused only if the development contravenes a definite proposal which the local authority intend to include in their town planning scheme, and this proposal is clearly of first importance; and he proposes to follow this course in deciding appeals which may be made to him under the Order (a).

It is highly desirable that cases should be settled locally, and that appeals should be very few indeed; and the Minister is satisfied that, with a reasonable spirit of compromise on the part of the local authorities and of those who wish to develop, there should not be any serious difficulty in achieving this result.

Any agreements between local authorities and developing owners in connection with the Order should always be put into writing.

I am, etc.

DETERMINATION OF QUESTIONS AS TO COMPENSATION.

THE TOWN PLANNING (DETERMINATION OF QUESTIONS AS TO COMPENSATION) RULES, 1926, DATED 31ST MARCH, 1926, MADE BY THE REFERENCE COMMITTEE FOR ENGLAND AND WALES UNDER THE ACQUISITION OF LAND (ASSESSMENT OF COMPENSATION) ACT, 1919 (9 & 10 GEO. 57), AS EXTENDED BY SECTION 10 OF THE TOWN PLANNING ACT, 1925 (15 GEO. 5, C. 16).

In pursuance of the Acquisition of Land (Assessment of Compensation) Act, 1919, as extended by section 10 of the Town Planning Act, 1925, the Reference Committee for England and Wales constituted under the first mentioned Act hereby make the following rules:—

1.—(1) These rules may be cited as the Town Planning (Determination of Questions as to Compensation) Rules, 1926.

(2) The Town Planning (Determination of Questions as to Compensation) Rules, 1923, are hereby revoked.

2.—(1) The expression "question" in Rule 2 of the Acquisition of Land (Assessment of Compensation) Rules, 1919 (b) (in these rules referred to as "the Rules of 1919"), shall include any question which by virtue of section 10 of the Town Planning Act, 1925, is to be determined by arbitration under and in accordance with the Acquisition of Land (Assessment of Compensation) Act, 1919 (in these rules referred to as "a question relating to compensation under a town planning scheme").

(a) The decisions of the Minister on such appeals with the reasons for such decisions are printed annually in the separate portion dealing with Town Planning of the Annual Report of the Minister, which may be obtained from H.M. Stationery Office.

(b) See these Rules at p. 3435, ante.

Appendix II.

(2) In the application of the Rules of 1919 to a question relating to compensation under a town planning scheme, references in those rules to the acquiring authority and to the claimant shall respectively mean the responsible authority mentioned in section 10 of the Town Planning Act, 1925, and the person whose property is alleged to have been injuriously affected or increased in value by the scheme and by or against whom a claim has accordingly been made under that section, and the expression " claim " shall mean a claim under that section.

3.—(1) The time at which an application for the selection of an arbitrator may be sent to the reference committee shall, in the case of a question relating to compensation under a town planning scheme, be any time after the expiration of fourteen days from the date on which the claim for compensation was made.

(2) In the case of a question relating to compensation under a town planning scheme, the form of application set out in the schedule to these rules shall be substituted for Form A set out in the schedule to the Rules of 1919.

4. The Rules of 1919 shall, in their application to a question relating to compensation under a town planning scheme, have effect as if the following paragraphs were substituted for paragraphs (1) and (6) respectively of Rule 7 thereof:—

" (1) Where claims have been made under section 10 of the Town Planning Act, 1925, by or against two or more persons having different interests in the same property, the responsible authority may, subject as hereinafter provided, either on making the application for the selection of an arbitrator to hear the claims or at any time thereafter, make an application to the Reference Committee to have the same person selected as the arbitrator to hear and determine all the claims:

" Provided that no such application shall be made as respects a claim if an arbitrator has already entered on the consideration of the claim.

" (6) If any person to whom any such notice of intention has been sent objects to have the claim made by or against him heard with the other claims he shall within seven days after the receipt of the notice aforesaid send notice of his objection to the responsible authority and the arbitrator."

TOWN PLANNING, ENGLAND.

ACQUISITION OF LANDS.

THE TOWN PLANNING (COMPULSORY PURCHASE) (a) REGULATIONS, 1926, DATED 23RD SEPTEMBER, 1926, MADE BY THE MINISTER OF HEALTH UNDER THE TOWN PLANNING ACT, 1925 (15 GEO. 5, C. 16).

The Minister of Health, in pursuance of the powers conferred on him by the Town Planning Act, 1925, and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf, hereby makes the following Regulations :—

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Town Planning (Compulsory Purchase) Regulations, 1926, and shall come into operation on the date hereof.

2.—(1) In these Regulations, unless the context otherwise requires—
"The Minister" means the Minister of Health ;
"The Act" means the Town Planning Act, 1925.

(2) The Interpretation Act, 1889, shall apply to the interpretation of these Regulations as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

3. An Order made by a local authority under Part I. of the Third Schedule to the Act (hereinafter referred to as "the Compulsory Order") shall be in the form set forth in the schedule hereto, or in a form substantially to the like effect.

4.—(1) Before submitting the Compulsory Order to the Minister for confirmation, the local authority shall cause the same to be published by advertisement in two successive weeks in one or more of the local newspapers circulating in the district of the local authority and in the parish or parishes in which the land to which the Compulsory Order relates is situated.

(2) The advertisements shall be headed respectively " First Advertisement " and " Second and Last Advertisement," and the first of the said advertisements shall be published not later than the seventh day after the making of the Compulsory Order.

(3) Each of the said advertisements shall contain in addition to a copy of the Compulsory Order a notice setting out the following particulars :—

(a) a statement that any objection to the Compulsory Order must be presented to the Minister within the period of fourteen days from and after the date of the publication of the first advertisement ; and

(b) a statement of the period, times, and place or places during and at which the deposited plan referred to in the schedule to the Compulsory Order may be inspected by or on behalf of any person interested in the land to which the Compulsory Order relates.

(4) The plan referred to in the schedule to the Compulsory Order shall be deposited by the local authority not later than the seventh day after the making of the Compulsory Order at a place convenient for the purposes of inspection, and shall be kept deposited thereat for a period not being less than fourteen days from the date of the publication of the first advertisement ; and the said plan shall be open for inspection by any person interested or affected, without payment of any fee, at all reasonable hours on any week-day during the said period. The local authority shall also make suitable provision for affording to any such person inspecting the said plan any necessary explanation or information in regard thereto.

(5) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Article, where the land to which the Compulsory Order relates is situated within a rural district and does not exceed five acres in extent, the said Order shall be deemed to have been sufficiently published if not later than the seventh day after the making of the said Order one copy thereof has been affixed to the land in some conspicuous position and a further copy to a notice board outside the offices of the local authority, each of the said copies having appended to it a notice setting out the particulars specified in paragraph (3) of this Article, and for this purpose the date on which the said notices are so affixed shall be treated as the date of the publication of the first advertisement.

5.—(1) The local authority shall, not later than the seventh day after the making of the Compulsory Order, cause notice thereof to be given to every owner, lessee, and occupier of the land to which the Compulsory Order relates, and every such notice shall include a copy of the Compulsory Order, to which shall be appended a notice containing the particulars mentioned in paragraph (3) of Article 4 of these Regulations.

(2) The local authority shall furnish a copy of the Compulsory Order, free of charge, to any person interested in the land to which the Compulsory Order relates, upon his applying for the same.

6. The period within which an objection to a Compulsory Order may be presented to the Minister by a person interested in the land to which the compulsory order relates shall be the period of fourteen days from and after the date of the publication of the first advertisement of the Compulsory Order.

7.—(1) The local authority shall as soon as practicable after the confirmation of the Compulsory Order cause a copy of the Compulsory Order as confirmed to be served on every owner, lessee, and occupier of the land to which the Compulsory Order relates.

(2) A copy of the Compulsory Order as confirmed shall be furnished free of charge by the local authority to any person interested in the land authorised to be purchased upon his applying for the same, and a copy of any plan to which reference is made in the Compulsory Order as confirmed shall also be furnished by the local authority to any such person, upon his applying for such copy and paying the reasonable cost of preparing the same.

TOWN PLANNING.

MODEL CLAUSES FOR USE IN THE PREPARATION OF SCHEMES.

EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM.

1. The Model Town Planning Clauses have been prepared in six parts, viz. :—

Part I.—General.
„ II.—Streets.
„ III.—Buildings and Building Lines.
„ IV.—Reservation of Lands.
„ V.—General Amenity.
„ VI.—Miscellaneous.

The insertion of many of the clauses in a scheme will no doubt often be unnecessary, but, so far as the clauses contain the provisions which it is desired to insert, it is intended that they should be regarded as the settled form for the purpose and utilised accordingly, with any necessary adaptations to meet the special circumstances of the particular scheme. Moreover, the issue of the clauses should not be regarded as prejudicing the Minister's view as to the propriety of including in any scheme provisions relating to any particular subject. It should also be recognised that the clauses are subject to revision by the Minister from time to time in the light of experience.

The clauses are drafted for the case of a local authority who are planning an area within their own district, and would need to be adapted and supplemented in the case of a scheme prepared by a local authority for an area outside their district or a scheme prepared by several authorities jointly.

PART I.—GENERAL.

2. Part I. contains a general interpretation clause in which all such definitions are inserted as cannot more appropriately be set out in later parts, a clause defining the area to which the scheme relates, and a clause defining the authority responsible for enforcing the scheme. There would not appear to be anything in this part of the models which calls for comment or explanation, except the definition of "owner" and the definition of the "erection of a building" (Clause 1).

The Public Health Act definition of "owner" has been adopted, but whenever in the text a more extended definition is required (e.g., in the clauses relating to the right of entry on to land for the execution of street works, the acquisition of land for open spaces, etc.), the term "persons interested in" has been used.

The object of the definition of the "erection of a building" is to provide a comprehensive provision covering the re-erection, alteration, and extension of buildings, particularly existing buildings—i.e., buildings in existence at the date of the initiation of the scheme or other operative date, where properly included in a scheme.

The definition determines the extent to which existing buildings are governed by the provisions of a scheme, subject to any special provision on the point in particular clauses, and is chiefly of importance in connection with the clauses limiting the erection of buildings on land reserved for new streets or widenings and open spaces or in advance of building lines (Clauses 9, 34 (1) and 37 (1)), and the provisions governing the character of the buildings to be allowed in different parts of the area of a scheme, as applied to the possible extension of existing buildings which do not conform to the type of building allowed (Clause 29).

The definition allows for limited additions being made to existing buildings without involving contravention of a scheme, on the view that restrictions ought not to be put on reasonable additions to an existing building pending its acquisition or appropriation to its reserved purpose (new street, open space, etc.) under the scheme or its voluntary removal and replacement by a new building conforming with the requirements of the scheme. Similar considerations have led to the fixing of one half as the least measure of alteration or reconstruction which should generally be regarded as constituting a new building.

The definition is expanded to cover the conversion of buildings by a special provision to that effect in the particular clauses in which conversion is material (i.e., Clauses 20 and 29 (5)).

PART II.—STREETS.

Construction of New Streets.

3. The clauses contain provisions dealing with the construction of three categories of streets :—

(1) New "main thoroughfares" of which the sites and widths are determined by the scheme and are shown on the map ;
(2) Widenings of existing streets ;
(3) Subsidiary or estate streets.

Widenings are covered by the same clauses as other new streets on the map, subject to special provisions (contained in Clause 7 and explained in paragraph 11 below) dealing with the incidence of cost.

It is not contemplated that schemes themselves should, as a rule, fix more than the principal communications, leaving the less important connections and estate streets to be determined at the time of estate development, when estate requirements are more fully known.

Reservation of Sites of Main Thoroughfares and Widenings.

4. The lands forming the sites of the proposed main thoroughfares and widenings are intended to be numbered and coloured on the map. It is essential that nothing should be allowed to be done on these sites which, when the time comes for the streets to be constructed, would render the construction appreciably more costly, but it is also important to avoid sterilising the land more than is really necessary, particularly in the case of streets which are not likely to be constructed until a long time has elapsed. Accordingly, with the object of enabling a local authority to permit reasonable development without incurring the risk of a consequential increase in cost, a clause (Clause 9) is provided, under which the erection of buildings on the sites shown on the map or the carrying out of other permanent works is prohibited, except with the consent of the authority and on such terms (e.g., in the matter of compensation) as to the removal of the buildings or works as they may require. The restriction is not, however, to operate against the use of land statutorily exempted from liability to compulsory purchase under town planning schemes by Part II. of the Third Schedule of the Town Planning Act, 1925 (railway land, etc.), so long as it is used for the specified purposes.

Declaration of Sites of Main Thoroughfares and Widenings to be Streets.

5. It is desirable that provision should be made for enabling the authority to construct any of the main thoroughfares and widenings shown on the map, when needed for general traffic. They are accordingly empowered, after giving three months' notice to the owner, to declare any of the lands reserved for streets (except the lands which they are precluded from purchasing compulsorily) to be a street (Clause 6 (2)), with a view to entering on the land and undertaking the necessary street works. Power is also given to the authority to enter (without declaring the land to be a street) on land which is not intended to form part of a new street (and is therefore not coloured on the map), but is required for the execution of incidental works, e.g., an embankment.

Cost of Construction of Streets.

6. The streets declared by the authority under Clause 6 will fall into two classes, namely: (1) those which are required in the interests of the general public and, subject to any agreements with owners, the whole cost of which the authority should bear; and (2) those which can fairly be regarded as being, in part at least, in anticipation of development which owners would eventually undertake, and to the cost of which it is accordingly reasonable that the frontagers, being directly benefited, should contribute. It is considered that normally it will be practicable to decide beforehand to which class each of the new streets and widenings should be assigned, and it is intended that the class to which each belongs shall be indicated by its number on the map.

Declared Streets the whole cost of which the Authority are to bear.

7. Clause 6 accordingly provides that where the authority are to bear the whole cost of any street or widening on reserved land, the land, when declared to be a street, shall be deemed to be a highway repairable by the inhabitants at large. The object of this is to put the land into the same position as if it had been purchased for a street site by the authority under the general law, i.e., the authority will be able to enter upon it and execute any street works, but it will not be open to them to impose any cost on frontagers, nor will they be required to carry out any of the procedure under section 150 of the Public Health Act, 1875, or the Private Street Works Act, 1892, which will be necessary where other streets are concerned. These provisions do not, of course, preclude the possibility of equitable arrangements with owners as to the terms (e.g., free dedication of the land) on which these streets are to be constructed.

Declared Streets to the cost of which Owners are to contribute.

8. In the case of any other land reserved for streets (i.e., land intended to form the sites of streets or widenings to the cost of which it is considered reasonable that owners should contribute), the clause provides that the land when declared by the authority to be a street shall be deemed to be a private street dedicated to the public, i.e., a street to which section 150 of the Public Health Act, or the Private Street Works Act, as the case may be, is applicable. The authority will then be able to enter upon the land, execute street works and charge the cost upon frontagers by exercising their powers under either of the above-mentioned Acts, subject to certain limitations made necessary by the fact that the street will be constructed on the initiative of the authority instead of on the initiative of owners and that its width may be greater or its manner of construction more expensive than would be necessary in the case of an estate street. These limitations are:—

(i) A provision is inserted to prevent an owner from being charged with any part of the cost of construction before he needs the street. The authority are accordingly prohibited from recovering the sum apportioned upon any land in the case of a declared street, until the land becomes rated otherwise than as agricultural land (Clause 5 (2) (f)).

(ii) The authority are also prohibited from charging any owner, in the case of a declared street, with more than the cost of a "standard" street, a standard street being based upon the requirements of the byelaws and the specification of private street works ordinarily required by the authority (Clause 5 (2) (a)).

(iii) Owners are given the right to require the authority to take over a declared street when its construction has been completed by the authority or in accordance with the specification required by them (Clause 5 (2) (e)).

Procedure where the Authority purchase the Site of a Street.

9. The fact that the authority purchase instead of exercising the right of entry given by Clause 6 will not, of course, debar them from declaring the site of a street, when purchased, to be a private street, if the street in question is included in the category of those in respect of which charges may be imposed. It was felt, however, that difficulties might arise if the authority purchased any adjoining land required for the execution of incidental works, as they might thereby themselves become frontagers to the street and so incapable of recovering street charges. A provision has therefore been inserted (Clause 6 (3)) empowering the authority to declare any such adjoining land which belongs to them to be a private street.

Where the authority purchase the site of a street the whole cost of construction of which is to be borne by them, it is contemplated that they will proceed under their ordinary powers as highway authority.

Construction by Stages.

10. Where the authority desire to construct only a portion of the full projected width of a street or to execute part only of the full permanent works in the first instance, with the intention of completing the construction of the street at a later date, their powers to execute any or all of the street works authorised by the Private Street Works Act or the Public Health Act will enable them to do so.

It is important, however, that the interests of abutting owners in the streets on the map should be duly recognised and that any street only partially constructed by the authority should not be left in a condition likely to prejudice building development. Clause 13 (1) therefore requires the authority in the case of streets constructed on their own initiative to lay out with grass margins or in other suitable manner any portion of the street not constructed as a carriageway or footway, and to provide convenient access to abutting premises, pending full construction.

Special Provisions as to Widenings.

11. It is contemplated that owners may be required to bear the cost of widenings (up to the requirements of a standard street) in cases where it may fairly be presumed that, if they developed the land abutting on the site of the widening in the ordinary course (whether the widening be of a highway repairable by the inhabitants at large or not), they would incur a liability to widen the existing street or highway in order to comply with byelaw requirements or any statutory provisions, and in such cases the land required for the site of the widening may be numbered as land which may be declared to be a private street. Clause 7 (1) provides that the private street shall include the existing highway, and enables charges to be made on the frontagers on both sides of the street.

Where, however, the highway to be widened was, before declaration, a highway repairable by the inhabitants at large and a certain amount of development had already occurred, it would not seem generally equitable that the owners of such frontages should bear any part of the cost of the street improvements, and it is accordingly provided (Clause 7 (3) (a)) that no part of the cost of widening shall be apportioned against any land rated otherwise than as agricultural land at a specified date, which should not be earlier than the date on which notice is first given of the intention to charge for the widening as a private street.

The general limitations on street work charges, described in paragraph 8 above, will, of course, apply also in the case of widenings, so that the authority will not be able to impose upon owners any greater cost than the cost of turning the existing highway into a standard street.

Construction of Streets by Owners.

12. The new streets in the area, other than streets declared by the authority in accordance with the procedure outlined above, will be of two kinds, viz. :—

(i) Streets shown on the map which owners wish to commence before the authority are ready to declare them.

(ii) Ordinary subsidiary or estate streets, not shown on the map.

The measure of control conferred upon the authority is, however, the same in both cases, i.e., in both cases the plan of the proposed street and the specification of the proposed street works must be submitted to the authority, who can approve them with or without modification, or disapprove them, subject to appeal (Clause 10).*

---

* Note.—Clauses 10 and 11 are drafted on the assumption that existing byelaws as to streets (and corresponding provisions in local Acts) will be repealed in the area of the scheme and the matter dealt with wholly in the scheme, a course which it is considered will tend to prevent confusion. Alternative clauses can, however, be supplied for use where repeal of the byelaws may for any reason prove inconvenient or undesirable.

Appendix II.

As it may sometimes be necessary, especially in the case of streets shown on the map, for the authority to require a street to be constructed of such a width or in such a manner as to involve more than the cost of a standard street, provisions have been inserted to protect the owners in such cases. These provisions are:—

(i) Where the owner himself undertakes the construction of the street, the authority are not to alter the owner's specification so as to involve more than the cost of a standard street, unless they agree to pay the difference (Clause 10 (3)).

In the case, however, of a wide street shown on the map, it may often be possible for the authority, without requiring the whole street width to be constructed, to control the position of the carriageway, footpaths, etc., so that these shall fit in with the ultimate lay-out without sacrificing immediate convenience or amenity. This may be facilitated by the power under sub-section (5) of the clause to allow the street to be laid out at the first stage of a less width than the intended final width (e.g., if the street is intended ultimately to have two carriageways, both being of less than standard width, one carriageway only may be constructed in the first instance).

(ii) Where the owner merely lays out the street, executing, perhaps, temporary works (outside the specification) or some only of the specified permanent works, and the local authority make up and complete the street, the ordinary law is left to operate unaltered, provided that the local authority have not imposed a specification involving more than standard cost, i.e., the authority make up the street (in accordance with required specification) and charge the cost on frontagers in pursuance of their powers under the Private Street Works Act (or Public Health Act).

If, however, the authority have required a specification which involves more than standard cost, it would clearly be inequitable if the owner could be made to bear the entire cost as private street works, and Clause 5 (3) therefore provides that in such case the authority are not to impose under the Private Street Works Act (or Public Health Act) charges in excess of standard cost, i.e., limitation (ii), referred to in paragraph 8 as applicable to streets which the authority themselves declare, is applied to these cases also.

Types of streets with reduced carriageway and footway standards are prescribed for use as non-through traffic streets (Part II. of First Schedule), and other types may be approved by the Minister under Clause 10 (2). The lengths and lay-out of the typical streets have been selected on the assumption of a development of twelve to the acre in a normal residential neighbourhood. It is recognised that the conditions may need tightening or relaxing according to variations in density or in the general character of the locality.

Provision for Reserving Land for Additional Streets.

13. Clause 10 (preceding paragraph) deals with street proposals submitted by individual owners. Special provision may, however, sometimes be needed to secure new streets and connections (in addition to those shown on the map), independently of any submission of street plans by owners, e.g., where a proposed new building would block the way for a street needed to secure through communication, or co-ordination between estates, or where particular streets have been approved on separate estates with the express object of securing a through connection between them, but the owners are unwilling to lay out the whole length of the approved streets and so make the connection effective. Power to secure these objects is given in Clause 6 (5), which would enable the authority to reserve the site of an additional street over land in several ownerships, or to " declare " a street or length of street already approved, but not actually laid out by the owner. Clause 12 requires the authority, when considering street plans, to invite neighbouring owners likely to be affected to submit their own street plans for consideration at the same time, and thus affords the authority an opportunity of judging whether any excerise of the powers of Clause 6 (5) is needed.

Other Provisions as to Streets.

14. The only other provisions under the Streets Clauses on which it seems necessary to comment are :—

(i) The street works which can be executed under the Private Street Works Act (or Public Health Act) are extended to include "incidental works," i.e., slopes, embankments, retaining walls, grass margins, etc. (Clause 5 (1)). These works will accordingly be chargeable as street works, but the ordinary appeals under the respective Acts as to reasonableness, etc., as well as the limitation of the total cost chargeable to the cost of a standard street, if the street is declared by the authority under clause 6, or if a specification involving more than standard cost is required by them, will safeguard the position of owners.

(ii) Power is given (Clause 8) to include in an apportionment of street work costs the cost of a sewer constructed on land coloured on the map before the land becomes a street, subject, of course, to the necessary easement being obtained under the authority's statutory powers apart from the scheme. The sewer could always be constructed without an easement when the street has been declared, but where a sewer is needed in the absence of a street, e.g., for purposes of connection with other land in course of development, it may be more convenient to obtain an easement than to declare the land or any part of it a street at once. In that case it would not appear inequitable that an owner should bear his fair share of the cost of the sewer, when the street is declared or becomes a private street and he develops to it.

(iii) The rights of occupiers and others to access to streets over land purchased for new streets and widenings, and not immediately applied for the purpose, are preserved, on the analogy of sub-section (9) of section 33 of the Public Health Act, 1925, relating to improvement lines (Clause 13 (2)).

Compensation and Betterment.

15. The effect of the clause relating to the construction by the authority of streets shown on the map is, as has been indicated : (1) to give the authority power, when the proper time comes, to declare any land reserved for streets to be a street ; (2) to limit the use of the land in the meantime, by preventing the unconditional erection of buildings, or carrying out of other permanent works.

Claims for compensation in respect of limitation of the use of land or other injurious affection, if any, arising immediately upon the making of the scheme should be settled as soon as possible after the scheme is approved, and in the compensation and betterment clause (Clause 62) it is provided that such claims shall be made within twelve months after the date of approval.

Where, however, the authority declare land for the purpose of street construction, the injurious affection (if any) arising out of the consequent entry and disturbance would not be known until the right was exercised, and it is therefore considered that owners should not be precluded from making such claims within a fixed period after the actual exercise of the right.

The time for claims in respect of the authority's requirements in connection with streets not shown on the map is similarly extended.

Claims for betterment can be made at the same time as claims for compensation.

Appeals.

16. The only appeals expressly given in Part II. of the Model Clauses are those relating to an authority's requirements as to streets dedicated by owners (whether shown on the map or not) which are detailed in Clause 10 (8). The usual appeals under the Private Street Works Act (or Public Health Act, as the case may be) are, however, operative with the adapations incidental to the application of the Acts to the scheme, including the additions to the grounds on which objection may be taken to the apportionment of street work costs specified in Clauses 5 (2) (c) and 7 (3) (b).

Appendix II.

PART III.—BUILDINGS AND BUILDING LINES.

Density and Character Zoning.

17. For the purpose of indicating the restrictions directly imposed by the scheme in regard to the density and character of buildings, density and character zones are prescribed.

Density.

18. The prescribed density is to be measured over "land units," the extent of which will be determinable by the authority, subject to appeal, though no doubt it will frequently be found convenient to constitute as land units the land included in building plans submitted for the approval of the authority. The density is to be calculated in terms of dwelling-houses for single families (which for this purpose are referred to in the clauses as "building units"), other buildings being reckoned as equivalent to such number of building units as the authority may determine in each case, subject to appeal.

It is not considered that it will normally be necessary to constitute land units for the purpose of buildings other than dwelling-houses and residential buildings, the density in the case of other buildings being sufficiently governed by the provisions as to space about buildings (Clause 32) in any zone in which they are allowed freely, and by the conditions attached to their permission in any zone in which they are allowed with special consent.

In determining the number of building units to which a building other than a dwelling-house should be reckoned as equivalent, the number of building units (i.e., single family dwelling-houses) that could, under the density provisions, be erected upon the site of the building in question if the site formed a separate land unit would normally be a useful guide (any additional space required under the clause dealing with the proportion of site which may be covered by buildings being taken into account). In the case of "residential buildings" (e.g., blocks of flats), account may also be taken of, e.g., the number of families that the buildings are designed to accommodate.

It is not intended that density restrictions should apply to buildings erected before the initiation of the scheme, and therefore the sites of buildings erected before that date are not to be included in a land unit except with the consent of the owner.

It is, however, contemplated that the sites of roads and private open spaces should be included in the unit. It has been thought necessary to refer specifically in the clause to roads dedicated to the public in order to obviate any doubt as to their inclusion on the score of ownership. The inclusion or exclusion of public open spaces given to the local authority or acquired by them after the date of their resolution to prepare the scheme is left to the determination of the local authority, but it is contemplated that open spaces given to the local authority or acquired by them on specially favourable terms on that understanding would normally be included so far as practicable.

It has not been considered necessary to impose a restriction as to the maximum number of building units to be permitted on any one acre. The restriction would involve somewhat complex provisions as to the method of measuring the acre, and its purpose would seem to be sufficiently met by the limitation imposed as to the proportion of the site of a building that may be built on (Clause 32).

Plot Plans.

19. It is recognised that in some cases developing owners may wish to have the exact number of buildings permitted to be erected under the density restrictions upon their land determined before the land is sold for building purposes. In order to facilitate this, a clause (Clause 23) has been inserted, enabling owners to submit plot plans for the approval of the authority. The plot plans, without indicating the exact position of proposed buildings, will show the building plots into which the land affected is proposed to be divided and the number of building units allowed on each plot, thus obviating any necessity for further calculation when the plots are sold off for building purposes.

It is thought that the plot plan machinery will also be of use in facilitating the re-development of any built-up areas of a density higher than that permitted under the scheme that may have been legitimately included in a scheme. Apart from the plot plan clause, it would be necessary in such cases, before any re-development could take place, that sufficient ground should be cleared to allow a building to be erected if the ground cleared formed a land unit by itself. If a plot plan were approved, however, it would be possible to show the proposed re-development plot plan over the existing buildings and to begin re-building as soon as any plot was cleared. Thus, in a zone restricted to an average of 12 to the acre, under the land unit machinery alone no re-building could take place until one-twelfth of an acre was cleared, whereas if a plot plan had been approved it could be begun as soon as an area of land sufficient to satisfy the requirements as to space about buildings of Clause 32 was clear. In this connection it may be well to emphasise that, in considering a plot plan, it will be necessary to have regard to the restrictions imposed under Clause 32, so as to avoid any risk of a plan which conforms with the density restrictions none the less providing for plots too small to accommodate buildings of the size intended.

Variation of Land Units and Plot Plans.

20. Provision is made for land units and plot plans to be varied if in any exceptional circumstances this should be found necessary. The clause (Clause 25) permitting variations to be made provides, however, that they are not to be sanctioned if they would involve any violation of the intentions of the scheme in regard to density. Thus it will be necessary for the local authority, before varying a land unit, to be satisfied, for example, that land is not excluded from the unit which is already appropriated in the sense that it is required to enable buildings already on the unit to continue to comply with the density requirements. Similarly no building should be permitted to be excluded from a land unit in such a way that it would no longer have a sufficient area of un-built on land attached to it.

Variations in plot plans may be made by owners with the consent of the local authority, subject to the above-mentioned safeguard as to infringement of the density restrictions.

Density Standards.

21. Averages of twelve, eight, and six to the acre are common density standards according to the character of the locality. Great caution should, however, be exercised in imposing low densities. They must be in the public as well as the owners' interest, and care must be taken to avoid any possible risk of checking the development of the land concerned. Low densities cannot, as a rule, be safely imposed unless there is clear evidence that the land concerned is being or will in the near future be developed for a class of property for which large plots are generally required. Land so restricted should usually be relatively small in extent and care should be taken to make sure that the area is not in excess of the probable demand for the class of property concerned.

Provision has been made for a reasonable relaxation of the prescribed density standards, where necessary, in the case of land on streets laid out prior to the scheme or held in limited amounts at that date.

Character.

22. It is contemplated that the areas to be zoned will normally be divisible into two classes, viz. :—

(i) Areas likely to be developed at an early date.

(ii) Areas not likely to be developed for a considerable period (e.g., areas included in a scheme primarily for the purpose of preserving the lines of arterial roads).

Determination of Predominant and Subsidiary Uses in Zones.

23. As regards (i) the governing clause (Clause 29) has been drafted on the assumption that, in determining the kinds of buildings to be allowed in the several zones covering such areas, the normal course will be to determine the predominant use of the zone concerned and to specify accordingly the uses which will and will not be permitted in that zone, or will be permitted only with the consent of the authority and on conditions imposed by them, subject to appeal.

Normally it is contemplated that the local authority's consent will be given only in the case of buildings designed for purposes in harmony with the predominant use of the zone. Where buildings that might conflict with the predominant use of a zone can be permitted therein by the authority, the authority are required before giving consent to advertise their intentions in order to give any adjoining owners or other interested persons who might object to the proposals an opportunity of appealing.

Modified Control in Areas not Ripe for Early Development.

24. In the case of areas not likely to be developed for a considerable period it may often be impossible to forecast the trend of development with sufficient certainty to prescribe the predominant use with safety. The clauses accordingly provide for a modified control only over such areas until the course of development becomes sufficiently clear to justify more definite determination of the character of the area by means of supplementary zoning (paragraph 27).

Method of Imposing Restrictions.

25. The actual restrictions in each zone are to be indicated by means of a table. An illustrative table is given at the end of this Memorandum, but the table is intended only as an example of the form in which the zoning provisions should be set out, and not as necessarily indicating the types of zone always to be adopted, or as suggesting that every area should include all the indicated zones.

The definitions employed have been framed to cover as many classes of buildings as seem likely to require to be differentiated for the purpose of determining the uses of zones, and all undefined buildings are classed as " special buildings," so that, by specifying them where necessary in the table, the local authority may be able to govern their introduction into any zone and so minimise the risk of injury through the erection of any class of buildings which may not have been foreseen. Experience will no doubt reveal other classes of buildings which ought to be defined, and the object should always be to limit the class of " special buildings " to the narrowest possible scope.

The schedule of " buildings for noxious trade or industry " is intended to cover buildings such as offensive trades under the Public Health Acts and works under the Alkali Works Regulation Act, 1906, which require to be specially placed, whether in an industrial area or not. Special provision is made in the clause to obviate the overlapping of the procedure for the control of offensive trades under the Public Health Acts and under schemes.

Types of Zone.

26. In drafting the illustrations given in the table at the end of the Memorandum, regard has been had to the consideration that it will generally be unwise, except in the case of small zones devoted to specialised purposes, to exclude entirely any class of buildings (except such a class as " noxious trades or industries "). Thus in zones I. and II. (residential zones), which may be applicable to large areas, uses other than the predominant use may be admitted with the consent of the authority, but where these uses are liable to be at variance with the predominant use, they are only to be admitted after advertisement in the manner indicated in paragraph 23. Zone VI., a general zone, is left practically unrestricted, so as to admit any buildings whose owners are prepared to dispense with protection against possible injury from incongruous forms of development.

It is contemplated that small specialised zones (zones III. and V.) will be adopted only in the case of peculiarly suitable areas in which development of the kind provided for can be confidently anticipated.

The last illustration is of a zone intended to be applied to areas of the kind already referred to in paragraph 24, in which there is no prospect of early development, and the natural trend of development cannot at the moment be foreseen.

Supplementary Zoning.

27. Provision has been made in the clauses (Clause 30) to enable supplementary zoning to be carried out as opportunity offers by orders approved by the Minister.

The object of this provision is, as regards character zoning, to enable more detailed zoning to be undertaken as the course of development reveals itself. It might, for example, be possible for the local authority with the aid of the clause to promote site plans for any parts of a residential zone forming natural units for the purpose, e.g., by definitely limiting the use of the land to the erection of dwelling-houses, except on specified sites naturally suited for shops or other (e.g., public) buildings, which could be permitted there by general consent. The shopping or other centre could also be made exclusive by the prohibition of the erection of other buildings, where circumstances justified this course and it could be adopted without injury to owners. Convenient groupings might similarly be secured in industrial or unrestricted zones in subordination to the general object of the zone. It is important that proposals to erect shops, factories, or other buildings to which consent is required in any zone should be considered in close relation to the site planning of adjacent land.

As regards density zoning, great caution must, as indicated in paragraph 21, be exercised in the imposition of low density restrictions, and areas in which the type of development cannot be adequately foreseen should usually be made subject only to the normal density limit of the scheme in the first instance. Moreover, while the density standard fixed for a zone may be that generally appropriate to the type of development to be expected in the zone, groupings at a higher or lower figure may be perfectly consistent with the maintenance of the standard of development contemplated, and may in some cases be essential, e.g., in any extensive low density zone groups of closer building may be needed for the accommodation of gardeners, chauffeurs, and others engaged in the service of the zone itself, though the exact location of the closer building could not be fixed at the time of making the scheme. Adjustments of this kind, in harmony with the essential objects of a scheme, can appropriately be effected by means of the supplementary zoning order, the procedure in connection with which is devised so as to safeguard the interests of all concerned.

Supplementary Zoning Orders and Sterilisation of Land.

28. It should be borne in mind that the promotion of a supplementary zoning order would not have the effect of sterilising the land to which it relates or operate to preclude the erection of buildings in accordance with the restrictions previously in force, where steps had already been taken with that object. The provisions of a supplementary order would be covered by the certificate of reasonableness given by the scheme, and an order could not therefore be approved if its provisions involved unreasonable interference with the legitimate interests of owners in the circumstances existing at the time of its promotion.

Height of Buildings.

29. The standards suggested in the footnote to this clause (Clause 31) should not be regarded as invariable. A higher limit may, for example, be desirable in particular areas or selected parts of an area, and the clause is capable of adjustment to meet the contingency.

It is not contemplated that it will normally be necessary to control the height of industrial buildings in industrial areas, and these are exempted from the operation of the clause. Where industrial buildings are allowed in residential areas with consent, the height can be controlled as a condition of consent as well as by the provisions of the clause.

Sub-clause 2 is only intended for use in specially selected areas and not as a restriction generally applicable.

Space about Buildings.

30. The main restriction under this head is the determination of the proportion of a site which may be covered by buildings, and this is effected by means of a table (Clause 32). An illustrative table is given at the end of the Memorandum.

The proportions indicated in the table are not, however, necessarily to be followed rigidly in all schemes, but would be susceptible of variation to suit local conditions, particularly in areas where a good deal of building development has already taken place before the inception of the scheme.

The table discriminates between new and existing building plots, so as to make provision for existing plots of relatively small dimensions, where it would not be reasonable to expect compliance with the same standards as can generally be observed without difficulty, where land is newly plotted.

Sub-clause 2 (a) is intended to meet the case of particular areas (as distinct from scattered plots) in which a less restriction is necessary on special grounds, and to allow the greater freedom for development necessary at street junctions.

Building Lines.

31. The provisions relating to building lines contained in Clauses 34 and 35 do not appear to call for comment. It is contemplated that building lines for the principal streets on the map (whether new or existing) will normally be shown on the map so far as practicable.

It will, however, be realised that, owing to the decision given in the case of Re, Ellis and Ruislip-Northwood U.D.C. ([1920] 1 K. B. 343 ; 122 L.T. 98), compensation can, in certain circumstances, be claimed in respect of building line provisions, and the importance of avoiding injurious affection has been borne in mind in drafting the clauses. The time for making claims for compensation or betterment in respect of building lines fixed after the approval of the scheme is extended in the general compensation clause (Clause 62).

PART IV.—RESERVATION OF LANDS, OPEN SPACES, &c.

32. The general object of these clauses is to provide machinery for reserving lands likely to be required for public purposes, e.g., public parks, playing fields, allotments or the erection of public buildings, and, by the timely assignment of the lands to their intended use, to prevent any development of the lands which would materially add to their value pending acquisition or involve the execution of expensive works when the lands come to be converted to their intended use. Accordingly a restriction is imposed upon all such lands under which they are to be used only in ways which will not conflict with the use for which they are ultimately designed, though the restriction will not operate to prevent the lands continuing to be used as they are used at the date of the approval of the scheme. An owner will, of course, be entitled to claim compensation in respect of any injury which he may suffer through the imposition of the restriction.

It is contemplated that the actual acquisition of the lands will normally be carried out under the appropriate Public General Acts. In the case, however, of lands required for public parks, walks and recreation grounds, or for playing fields, their acquisition is specifically declared to be a purpose of the scheme, with the result that the authority will be able to acquire under the procedure of section 8 of the Town Planning Act, 1925. Where circumstances justify a local authority acquiring land before the time is ripe for its conversion to its new use, Clause 48 enables them, with the consent of the Minister, to let the land for the time being.

Machinery is also provided for cases in which the particular circumstances are considered to justify reservation of open spaces as private open spaces, including a definition of "private open space" considered to be suitable for general application.

It is not contemplated that land will be scheduled as a private open space unless it can be clearly required or expected both that the land should be withheld permanently from building development and that it should be permanently devoted to the limited uses covered by the definition. Somewhat more elasticity in use may be secured in suitable cases by coupling "market gardens," "allotments," or other agricultural purposes with "private open spaces" in the first column of the table in the clause as uses for which the land is reserved. In other cases it may be found desirable to limit and adapt the definition according to the character and intended use of the land concerned.

Additional private open spaces beyond those reserved under the scheme may often be subsequently reserved in the course of development. It has not, however, been thought necessary to provide special machinery in the scheme for effecting such reservations, as any necessary restrictions and conditions can be secured by agreement.

Power is given to the authority to determine a date in each case on which the full restrictions imposed upon private open spaces reserved under the scheme shall come into operation. Prior to that date the lands in question may continue to be used as they are used at the date of approval of the scheme, or may be used for agriculture or horticulture or for such other purposes as the authority permit. In some cases the appropriate date may be the date of the approval of the scheme and the wording of the clause would then be adapted so as to fix that date definitely in the particular case.

Clause 38 permits the withdrawal by order of a reservation of land under this part of the scheme in special cases, e.g., where land reserved for a public building can no longer be used for that purpose through circumstances over which the local authority have no control. It is not intended that the power should be used in other than exceptional cases, where the interests of owners would not be likely to be seriously prejudiced. An order could not effect an adjustment of any compensation already paid in respect of a reservation, and lands should not be reserved under the clause in the absence of a confident expectation that they will in fact be used for the assigned purpose.

PART V.—GENERAL AMENITY.

33. This part of the model clauses is intended to contain any clauses inserted with the object of securing general amenity and convenience, and model clauses dealing with " Preservation of Trees " and " Display of Advertisements. Maintenance of Private Gardens and Private Open Spaces " (Clauses 40 and 41) have been prepared.

Preservation of Trees.

34. Clause 40 (Preservation of Trees) is designed to enable the authority to prevent the ruthless destruction of trees in the area, an object which has been shown to be an important one for the purpose of protecting amenity. Some difficulty was, however, experienced in drafting a clause to meet the situation, as it was recognised that any general prohibition of the cutting down of trees would be unfair on owners, and it was accordingly considered that the onus of selecting trees for preservation should rest with the authority.

The clause provides that the authority may register any particular tree or group of trees the preservation of which they consider to be desirable from the point of view of amenity, and the destruction of any tree so registered, except with the consent of the authority or in cases of emergency, is made an offence. The owner is given a right of appeal to petty sessions against a refusal of consent on the part of the authority. The clause, of course, involves the extension of time for claims for compensation.

A height limit of 30 feet, and a girth limit (which is, of course, an alternative) of 2 feet 6 inches measured at a height of 5 feet are suggested for consideration as the minimum dimensions of trees to which the clause should apply, but they should not be treated as binding.

Regulation of Advertisements. Maintenance of Private Gardens and Private Open Spaces.

35. The control of the display of advertisements and of the maintenance of private gardens and private open spaces is dealt with by procedure modelled generally on the procedure of the Public Health Act, 1875, for the abatement of nuisances, i.e., the local authority are empowered to require the abatement of serious injury to amenity due to the display of advertisements or the condition of gardens, curtilages, or private open spaces, but cannot enforce compliance with their requirements except in pursuance of an order of petty sessions to that effect (Clause 41). It is considered that this procedure will be sufficient to prevent serious

Appendix II. infringements of amenity, while at the same time providing reasonable protection to owners and other persons affected against any abuse of the powers.

In the case of advertisements machinery is also provided to enable any person who prefers to do so to apply to the local authority to " pass " his advertisement beforehand, with a view to securing him against any possible interference subsequently, and advertisements so approved by the authority are not to be regarded as an injury to amenity in respect of which proceedings can be taken under the clause. A right of appeal is given to petty sessions against a local authority's refusal to approve an advertisement on application.

The clause also enables the authority to consent generally to the display of particular classes of advertisements, e.g., " to let " notices or advertsements in windows, as it is considered that this may save the authority from having to deal with numbers of applications for common forms or methods of advertisement.

As the clause provides that, if the authority do not notify their refusal to consent to the display of an advertisement within a month of the application, consent is to be deemed to have been given, a provision has been inserted enabling the authority to devolve their powers under the clause on to a committee in order to obviate any necessity for special meetings of the authority to be called. A similar provision has been inserted in Clause 40 (Preservation of Trees).

Certain classes of advertisement are also exempted altogether from the operation of the clause. The exemptions are based on model provisions adopted for the purposes of byelaws under the Advertisements Regulation Acts, 1907 and 1925.

Where the authority are not the local authority for the purposes of the Advertisements Regulation Acts, 1907 and 1925) (i.e., in the case of rural district councils and councils of urban districts with a population of 10,000 or less, according to the last census for the time being) it is considered that the powers of giving special or general consent to advertisements beforehand (sub-clause 4) should be omitted, to avoid any risk of consent being given to advertisements which might come within the scope of byelaws made by a county council under the Advertisements Regulation Acts.

PART VI.—MISCELLANEOUS.

36. This part of the Models contains the general " machinery " clauses necessary to implement the preceding parts, and notes on any of the clauses which appear to call for comment are set out below.

Agreements.

37. Clause 42 deals with agreements made by the authority under the scheme and has three main objects: (1) it lays down the procedure to be followed in the case of agreements the terms of which will necessitate the raising of a loan by the authority; (2) it gives effect, where necessary, to agreements made prior to the approval of the scheme; (3) it empowers tenants for life to enter into agreements with the authority.

As regards (1) the Minister does not consider that all agreements made by every local authority under a scheme should be subject to his approval, but he is concerned that any agreements under which the authority incur a liability which will have to be defrayed by means of a loan should be provisional only until approved by him. It is, however, of the first importance that an owner who enters into an agreement with the authority should not be in any doubt as to whether the agreement is provisional or binding. Accordingly sub-clause (1) provides that it shall be stated in any agreement under which the authority undertake to bear any expenditure whether or not the authority propose to defray the expenditure by means of a loan and, where it is stated that they do so propose, the agreement shall not be operative unless and until approved by the Minister.

Sub-clause (2) provides for the incorporation in the scheme itself of any approved agreements whose provisions would otherwise be inconsistent with the scheme and inoperative on that account, and automatically validates other provisional agreements made by the authority pending the approval of the scheme and in anticipation of the powers conferred by it.

Minor Modifications.

38. Clause 44 empowers the authority to make minor modifications in the provisions of the scheme, the object being to enable, for example, a slight alteration to be made in the site of a street shown on the map, or the boundaries of character or density zones to be adjusted, if this should be found necessary. In order to obviate any risk of endangering owners' interests, the authority are required to advertise beforehand any modification proposed to be made, and a right of appeal to the Minister is given.

Effect of Scheme upon Orders under section 4 of the Town Planning Act, 1925.

39. Clause 46 provides that no building erected or other work done under an interim development order made under section 4 of the Town Planning Act, 1925, shall be deemed to contravene the scheme. In the absence of a provision to this effect, where development takes place in accordance with such an order, and the development contravenes any of the provisions of the scheme, it would be advisable for the owner to claim compensation as soon as the scheme is approved so as to safeguard his position if the authority should pull down the offending building or other work. (It will, of course, be appreciated that section 10 of the Act does not take away the authority's power to do this, but provides that, if they do, compensation shall be paid.) The clause has accordingly been inserted to render unnecessary any possible claims of this kind. It is recognised that special cases may possibly arise in which the authority will be prepared to pay, and may be justified in paying, compensation in order to demolish or alter development which has taken place under a section 4 order, but such cases should be rare and would have to be dealt with specifically.

The clause also provides for the right to continue under the scheme any user of land or buildings permitted under an interim development order during the preparation of the scheme. But for this provision, renewed consent would have to be obtained to the user under the scheme, thus in effect depriving the developer of the protection against the scheme which permission to interim development is designed to give. There are no rights to compensation in respect of approved zoning, which governs the use as well as the erection of buildings, and the right to continued user corresponds, as regards possible interference with use, to the right to compensation as regards possible interference with buildings.

Appropriation of Lands.

40. (Clause 49).—It was considered desirable to insert a clause on these lines in order to secure that the carrying out of the scheme shall not be jeopardised by any future difficulty as to the appropriation of land belonging to the authority from one purpose to another. Where it is necessary to obtain the consent of any Government department to the proposed appropriation, this will, of course, have to be secured before the scheme is approved. Sub-clause (2) of the clause is made necessary by paragraph 3 of Part II. of the Second Schedule to the Town Planning Act, 1925.

Recovery of Expenses.

41. (Clause 54).—A departure has been made in the clause on this subject from the form of clause adopted in previous schemes. There are four kinds of expenses for the recovery of which provision must be made, viz. :—

- (i) Expenses incurred by the authority in executing street works and chargeable on frontagers.
- (ii) Betterment.
- (iii) Expenses recoverable under section 7 of the Town Planning Act, 1925, i.e., incurred in respect of contraventions of the scheme.
- (iv) Miscellaneous expenses, e.g., cost of inserting advertisements.

As regards (i) it is contemplated that such expenses will be recovered under the Public Health Act or Private Street Works Act, as applied by the provisions of the scheme as to streets, and no separate provision for their recovery is made in the clause.

Sub-clause (1) of the clause, which gives power for the recovery summarily as a civil debt of expenses incurred under the scheme, whether by or from the local authority, is intended to cover (iii) and (iv). Sub-clause (1) also provides that expenses recoverable thereunder, where recoverable from the owner of any land in respect of which they have been incurred, shall be a charge on that land. A similar provision is inserted in sub-clause (2) as regards betterment, though it is not thought necessary to insert any machinery for the recovery of betterment, as this is provided in section 10 (5) of the Town Planning Act, 1925.

Sub-clause (3) gives the authority the powers of mortgagees in respect of expenses charged on land by the clause.

Appeals.

42. Clause 57 governs the procedure in the case of appeals to the Minister. It is thought right that a prospective appellant should obtain leave to appeal before doing so, in order that the Minister may have power to refuse to entertain appeals which are obviously frivolous or clearly unjustified. Where leave is granted, the application may itself be accepted as an appeal, and delay thus avoided.

Orders and Consents.

43. Where powers are granted in the scheme, which, if exercised, impose obligations that are binding on the land concerned (e.g., the imposition of a building line or supplementary zoning), the powers must as a rule be exercised by means of orders of the local authority, whether requiring the approval of the Minister or not.

Clause 59 prescribes the procedure in the preparation of orders, making provision for advertising the proposals, considering objections, and similar matters. The orders, on coming into force, must be deposited with the scheme, of which they become part, so as to be open to the inspection of interested persons.

Clause 60 provides that any consent, authority or permission required to be given by a local authority under a scheme and not required to be given by means of an order, must be in writing under the hand of the clerk or other person duly authorised to act in place of the clerk, or under the seal of the authority.

Register of Consents and Conditions.

44. Clause 61 provides for the proper registration of any consent, permission or authority granted under a scheme, and of any conditions imposed or agreed upon in connection with the consent, permission or authority, so far as not included in the orders referred to in the last paragraph, and for the right of interested persons to inspect the register.

It will be remembered in connection with this and the preceding paragraph that the Local Land Charges Rules, 1927 (a), require the entry in the appropriate Local Land Charges Register of a copy of any approved scheme, and notice of the place at which any map referred to in the scheme, and any orders, consents, approvals or agreements made, given, or entered into under the scheme by the responsible authority, may be inspected. It is, therefore, important that proper records should be kept of any proceedings under schemes involving prohibition or restriction of the user of land.

Claims for Compensation and Betterment.

45 (Clause 62).—The general principles of this clause have already been discussed in connection with the clauses in respect of which claims for compensation or betterment are postponed. Briefly, they may be recapitulated as follows: All claims for compensation or betterment due to the making of the scheme must be made within twelve months of the date of its approval, except that, where the provisions of the scheme confer powers on the authority, claims arising out of the exercise of which could not reasonably be expected to be determined until the powers are actually exercised, the period within which such claims may be made is extended.

(a) These rules are set out at p. 3444, ante.

Protection of the Postmaster-General.

46 (Clause 67).—This clause has been drafted in consultation with the Postmaster-General, and the Minister considers that it should be inserted in all town planning schemes. The clause is intended to meet the following points :—

(i) Section 7 of the Telegraph Act, 1878, lays down the procedure to be followed where the removal or alteration of a telegraphic line is made necessary by the execution of street works, etc., under special statutory powers, but the section is so worded that it is applicable only where "provision is not otherwise made by enactment." Accordingly sub-clause (1) has been inserted to ensure that the scheme shall not be regarded as making alternative provision and so ousting the Telegraph Act ;

(ii) Under the Telegraph Acts a telegraph line laid upon private land can at any time be required to be removed by the owner of the land at the Postmaster-General's expense. The protection given by sub-clause (2) is therefore needed in order that, where a highway is stopped up and the land ceases to be a highway, the Postmaster-General shall not be liable for the removal of telegraph lines at his own cost.

CLAUSES.

Council of TOWN PLANNING ACT, 1925.

Town Planning Scheme.

PART I.—GENERAL.

INTERPRETATION.

1.—(1) In this scheme, unless the context otherwise requires, the following words and expressions have the respective meanings hereby assigned to them :—

"The Council" means the ;

"The Borough (District)" means the ;

"The Minister" means the Minister of Health ;

"The Act" means the Town Planning Act, 1925 ;

"The Map" means the map which has been prepared in duplicate, each of such duplicates being sealed with the official seal of the Minister and with the official seal of the council, and marked "Map referred to in the Town Planning Scheme," of which duplicates one is deposited in the office of the Minister and the other in the office of the clerk to the council ;

"The Area" means the portions of the described in Clause 2 ;

"The Byelaws and Local Acts" means the provisions of any byelaws, local Acts or Regulations relating to new streets and buildings for the time being in force in the ;

"Owner" has the same meaning as in the Public Health Act, 1875;

"Order" means an order made in pursuance of the provisions of Clause 59 of this scheme;

"Existing" means existing on or commenced before ;

The "erection of a building" includes:—

1. in the case of any building other than an existing building, the re-erection or structural alteration of, or the making of any addition to, the building;
2. in the case of an existing building:—
   - (i) the re-erection or structural alteration of the building, if pulled down to the extent of more than one-half of the superficial area of its main containing walls, account being taken of any previous works of the kind undertaken subsequent to ;
   - (ii) the making of any addition to the building, whether structurally attached thereto or not, other than an addition which complies with all of the following conditions:—
     - (a) is accessory to the use of the building in accordance with its permitted use under this scheme; and
     - (b) does not, alone or together with any previous addition made subsequent to , measure in floor space more than one-fifth of the existing floor space within the main containing walls of the building, distributed, where the building is permitted to be used for more than one purpose under this scheme, in the same proportions as the existing floor space is permitted to be used; and
     - (c) does not project beyond the main front wall of the next existing building, if any, on either side of the building in the same street, or beyond any improvement or building line in force apart from this scheme, or any greater distance beyond any improvement or building line in force under this scheme than the main front wall of the existing building itself.

For the purposes of this definition measurement shall be as determined by the Minister on the application of the responsible authority (as defined in Clause 3) or the owner of the building, if any question arises between them as to the measurement.

(2) The Interpretation Act, 1889, applies to the interpretation of this scheme as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

AREA OF SCHEME.

2. The area to which this scheme applies shall consist of those parts of the which lie within the inner edge of the boundary line coloured dark blue on the map, excluding the parts edged black and hatched in black lines on the map, and any reference in this scheme to land is limited to land in the area.

RESPONSIBLE AUTHORITY.

3. The council shall be the authority responsible for enforcing the observance of this scheme and for the execution of any works which under this scheme or the Act are to be executed by a local authority.

PART II.—STREETS.

NOTE.—If the procedure of the Private Street Works Act, 1892, is adopted, the words printed in italics and enclosed in square brackets should be deleted from the text. If the procedure of the Public Health Act, 1875, is adopted, the words printed in italics and not so enclosed should be deleted, and the words in the square brackets retained.

INTERPRETATION.

4. In this part of the scheme, unless the context otherwise requires, the following words and expressions have the respective meanings hereby assigned to them:—

"Street" includes a part of a street;

"Width" applied to a new street means the space intended to be used as a public way, measured at right angles to the direction of the street;

"The Act of 1892" means the Private Street Works Act, 1892, as amended by any subsequent Acts, whether public, local, or private;

["The Act of 1875" and "the Act of 1925" mean, respectively, the Public Health Act, 1875, and the Public Health Act, 1925, as amended by any subsequent Acts, whether public, local or private];

"Private street" means a street within the meaning of the Act of 1892 [1875] [not being a highway repairable by the inhabitants at large];

"Incidental works" means any slopes, approaches, embankments, cuttings, retaining walls, bridges, arches, girders, culverts, drains, or other works necessary and incidental to the construction of a street, and includes any works required for fencing the street;

"Street works" includes all private street works as defined in section 6 of the Act of 1892, including works which the council are empowered to do by section 9 of that Act [the works referred to in section 150 of the Act of 1875], and the execution of any incidental works and of any works required for planting a street with grass, trees, or shrubs, and erecting guards therefor, or treating it in other suitable manner;

"The making" of a street means the execution of all necessary street works from the commencement to the final completion of the street;

A "standard street" means a street with the minimum dimensions specified for, and fulfilling the conditions attached to, the street of Type "A" described in the First Schedule to this scheme, and constructed in accordance with the specification which would ordinarily be required by the council at the time as a condition of declaring the street to be a highway repairable by the inhabitants at large (a).

[An apportionment of the cost of street works against any land or premises means an apportionment of the cost according to the frontage of the land or premises under section 150 of the Act of 1875, and recovery of the cost means recovery in a summary manner or by means of a private improvement rate under section 213 of that Act.]

APPLICATION OF PRIVATE STREET WORKS ACT, 1892 [PUBLIC HEALTH ACTS, 1875 AND 1925].

5. Subject to the provisions of this scheme, the Act of 1892 [the provisions of the Act of 1875 relating to private streets and section 82 of the Act of 1925] shall apply to and have effect in the area with the modifications set out below:—

(1) The Act of 1892 [1875] shall apply to all street works as defined in this part of the scheme.

(2) In the case of any private street declared to be a street under Clause 6—

(a) Where street works are executed by the council upon or in connection with the street, the cost of any works executed by the council and required for fencing the street or for constructing a bridge over or under any railway, river or canal, or any viaduct or subway, and any expense in excess of the cost of constructing upon the site of the street a standard street

---

(a) Where the local authority prescribe specifications in the scheme, the words "attached thereto in the Schedule (including such works of sewering and lighting as may be required under the Act of 1892 [1875]), or such other specification as may from time to time be substituted by an order approved by the Minister in pursuance of Clause   " should be substituted for the words "constructed in accordance with the specification.......... highway repairable by the inhabitants at large" and provision made for the possible need for future changes in the specifications by the insertion of the following clause after Clause 12:—

"REVISION OF STANDARD SPECIFICATION OF STREET WORKS.

Where it appears to the council at any time that the standard specification of works and materials attached to the First Schedule to this scheme ought to be varied, they may make an order with the approval of the Minister varying the specification, and the specification as varied by the order shall thereupon be substituted for the specification in the Schedule."

shall be borne by the council and shall not be apportioned against any premises;

(b) In making an apportionment against any premises of the cost of street works executed upon or in connection with the street, account shall be taken of any apportionment previously made against the premises, and of the amount and value of any works, other than temporary works, previously done by any owner of the premises upon or in connection with the street;

(c) The grounds of objection set out in section 7 of the Act of 1892 shall be deemed to include an objection upon the ground that expenses which under this clause are to be borne by the council have been apportioned against the premises of the objector;

[Any dispute arising out of the provisions of paragraphs (a) and (b) of this sub-clause shall be determined in the manner provided by the Act of 1875 for the determination of disputes and grievances as to the apportionment and recovery of expenses of private street works under that Act];

(d) Any sum apportionable by the council under the Act of 1892 [1875] as modified by this scheme in respect of the cost of the execution of street works may be varied by agreement between the council and the person chargeable, and for giving effect to any such agreement the council may, if they think fit, themselves defray the whole or a part of the sum so apportionable;

(e) The provisions of section 20 [82] of the Act of 1892 [1925] which require the council on the application of the persons therein mentioned to declare a street to be a highway repairable by the inhabitants at large shall apply to the street as soon as it has been made by the council or in accordance with the specification approved by the council under Clause 10;

(f) Where street works are executed by the council upon or in connection with the street, no expenses incurred in executing the street works and apportioned against land which is rated as agricultural land only, or used as woodlands, whether rated as agricultural land or not, shall be recoverable until the land becomes rated otherwise than as agricultural land, or ceases to be used as woodlands;

If a part only of such land becomes rated otherwise than as agricultural land, or ceases to be used as woodlands, then only the portion of the expenses attributable to that part shall become recoverable;

Interest shall not be payable to the council on any moneys in respect of the time during which under this sub-clause they are irrecoverable;

(g) The council may, if they think fit, postpone the date on which any expenses which they are entitled to recover from any person under the Act of 1892 [1875] as modified by this scheme become recoverable.

(3) In the case of any other private street for which the council under Clause 10 approve a specification involving any greater cost than the cost of constructing on the site thereof a standard street, otherwise than by agreement with the owner, the modifications set out in this clause other than modifications 2 (f) and 2 (g), shall have effect.

SITES OF NEW STREETS AND WIDENINGS.

6.—(1) The purposes of this scheme shall include the execution of street works upon land coloured pink on the map, which land is in this scheme referred to as land reserved for streets, and the execution of incidental works upon adjoining land.

(2) (a) The council may declare any land coloured pink on the map to be a street, after giving not less than three months' notice of their intention so to do to the persons interested in the land.

The land so declared shall thereupon, in the case of land numbered on the map, be deemed to be a highway repairable by the inhabitants at large, and in the case of any other land be deemed to be a private street and to have been dedicated to the public, and the council may enter upon such highway or private street for the purpose of executing street works;

Appendix II.

(b) The council may, after giving not less than three months' notice to the persons interested in any land which adjoins any of the land reserved for streets, and is required for the purpose of executing any incidental works, enter upon such land and execute such works;

(c) So far as may be necessary for the purpose of executing street works the council may demolish or alter any buildings or other works on the aforesaid lands.

(3) Where any land reserved for streets becomes, by declaration under this clause, a private street, the council may declare any adjoining land belonging to them and required for the purpose of executing incidental works to be, and the same shall thereupon be deemed to be, a part of the private street.

(4) (a) The council shall have the same responsibility for maintaining any works executed by them upon or in connection with any private street declared to be a street under this clause, or for which under Clause 10 they approve a specification involving any greater cost than the cost of constructing on the site thereof a standard street, otherwise than by agreement with the owner, as they would have if the street were a highway repairable by the inhabitants at large;

(b) The council may at any time, after giving reasonable notice to the owner, enter upon land forming the site of any incidental works for the purpose of maintaining such works.

(5) If it appears to the council at any time that a new street or the widening of an existing highway is needed on any land not reserved for streets on the map, they may make an order with the approval of the Minister, declaring that the land shall be reserved for streets, and the land shall thereafter be subject to such of the provisions of this part of the scheme as are applicable to land reserved for streets by the scheme.

WIDENINGS CHARGEABLE UPON FRONTAGERS.

7. If any of the land reserved for streets which abuts on, and is intended to form the site of a widening of, an existing highway is declared under Clause 6 to be a private street, then—

(1) The part of the existing highway upon which the land abuts shall as to its whole width be deemed for the purposes of the Act of 1892 [1875] as applied by this part of the scheme to be a part of the private street.

(2) In the application of the provisions of Clause 5 to the street, the width of the existing highway shall be included in the measurement of the width of a standard street, and account shall be taken of the amount and value of any existing works on the highway in making any apportionment against any premises, whether the works were done by the owner of the premises or not.

(3) (a) Where the existing highway is a highway repairable by the inhabitants at large, no part of the cost of any street works executed by the council shall be apportioned against any land, except woodlands, which was rated otherwise than as agricultural land on   and is so rated at the date of the apportionment of such cost, and the part of such cost which by reason of this sub-clause cannot be apportioned against such land shall be borne and paid by the council;

(b) The grounds of objection set out in section 7 of the Act of 1892 shall be deemed to include an objection on the ground that a part of such cost has been apportioned against land contrary to the provisions of this sub-clause.

[Any dispute arising out of the provisions of this sub-clause shall be determined in the manner provided by the Act of 1875 for the determination of disputes and grievances as to the apportionment and recovery of expenses of private street works under that Act.]

CONSTRUCTION OF SEWERS.

8. Where a sewer is constructed by the council under any land reserved for streets before the land becomes, or is declared under this part of the scheme to be, a private street, the council may, after the land has become or been declared to be a private street, include the cost of the sewer in the expenses of any street works executed by them upon the street in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as if they had constructed the sewer under the street under the provisions of [Section 150 of] the Act of 1892 [1875] as modified by this scheme.

RESTRICTIONS UPON STREET SITES.

9. No building, whether permanent or temporary, shall be erected, or other work of a permanent character done upon any land reserved for streets, and no permanent excavation shall be undertaken on or near thereto, which, for the purpose of enabling street works to be executed, would require to be removed, pulled down, altered or restored, except with the consent of the council and upon such terms and conditions with regard to such removal, pulling down, alteration or restoration, or otherwise as the council may require.

CONSTRUCTION OF STREETS BY OWNERS.

10.—(1) Any person desiring to lay out or construct a new street, whether on land reserved for streets or not, shall, before laying out the street, submit to the council for approval:

(a) a plan showing the site of the proposed street, the lay out of the street to formation level (including turning and crossing places, if any), and the position of the street in relation to neighbouring streets; and

(b) sections showing the levels of the present surface of the ground above some known datum, the level and rate or rates of inclination of the proposed street, the level and inclination of all the existing or intended streets with which the street is to be connected, and, so far as necessary and practicable, the intended levels of the building sites on each side of the street; and, before at any time executing street works, other than temporary works, for the construction of the street.

(c) specifications of the street works from time to time proposed to be executed and the materials to be used.

(2) Every proposed new street approved by the council under this clause shall be one of the following types of streets, namely:—

(a) if in the opinion of the council the street is likely to be used for through traffic, one of the types of streets described in Part I. of the First Schedule to this scheme, with such departures as the council think fit from the provisions of the said Schedule as regards levels and construction of surface (a);

(b) if in the opinion of the council the street is not likely to be used for through traffic, one of the types described in Part II. of the said Schedule or such other type as the Minister may from time to time authorise the council to approve.

Subject to the foregoing provisions, the council shall have power by order to approve the plans, sections and specifications of the proposed street, with or without modifications, or to disapprove them.

(3) Where the council under this clause require a street to be laid out at a higher cost than that of laying out a standard street on the site of the proposed street, or street works to be executed at a higher cost than that of executing corresponding street works for the construction of a standard street on the site of the proposed street, otherwise than by agreement with the owner, the council shall themselves bear the excess cost.

(4) Any person laying out or constructing a street shall lay it out and construct it in accordance with the plans, sections and specification approved by the council under this clause; and all the conditions applicable thereto contained in the First Schedule to this scheme or in the approval of the council shall be binding on him, and, in so far as they relate to the user of any adjoining land, on all persons deriving title under him to that land.

(5) The council may permit any street temporarily to be laid out or constructed of less width, or with narrower carriageway and footways, than authorised by them in approving the street, if they are satisfied that this may properly be allowed in the particular case.

(6) Where the council grant a permission under the preceding sub-clause, the provisions of the Act of 1892 [1875 and of section 82 of the Act of 1925], as modified by this scheme, with regard to declaring streets to be highways repairable by the inhabitants at large shall apply to the part of the street which is allowed to be constructed in advance of the remainder ; but the council may subsequently proceed under the Act of 1892 [1875 and section 82 of the Act of 1925], as modified by this scheme, as regards the remainder of the street as though it were a new street.

(a) Add "specification of works and materials," where specifications are prescribed (see note (a) on p. 3868, ante).

(7) The council may, if they think fit, contribute towards the cost of constructing a street approved under this clause.

(8) (a) Any person who desires to lay out a new street and feels aggrieved by any neglect or refusal of the council to approve the plans or sections of the street under this clause or by any modifications made by them in those plans or sections, may apply to the Minister for leave to appeal to him.

In determining appeals under this clause the Minister shall have the same power of approval, with or without modification, and of disapproval, and of granting permission, as the council under this clause.

(b) In the event of any dispute arising between any owner and the council as to any specification of street works under this clause, or as to whether the cost of laying out a street or executing any street works in pursuance of a requirement under this clause is in excess of the cost of laying out a standard street, or executing corresponding street works for the construction of a standard street, on the site of the proposed street, or as to the amount of the excess, the owner may apply to a Court of Summary Jurisdiction to determine the matter, after giving not less than 14 days' notice to the council of his intention so to do.

The decision of the Court of Summary Jurisdiction on any application so made shall be binding and conclusive on the owner and the council.

[In the event of any dispute arising between any owner and the council as to any specification of street works under this clause, or as to whether the cost of laying out a street or executing any street works in pursuance of a requirement under this clause is in excess of the cost of laying out a standard street, or executing corresponding street works for the construction of a standard street, on the site of the proposed street, or as to the amount of such excess, the owner may apply to the Minister for leave to appeal to him to determine the matter.]

NOTICE OF COMMENCEMENT AND COMPLETION OF STREETS.

11.—(1) Any person who proposes to lay out or to construct a street, shall, before commencing to do so, give notice to the council of the date on which he proposes to commence the work.

If this notice is not given and the duly authorised officer of the council, on inspecting any work in connection with the street, finds that the work is so far advanced that he cannot ascertain whether anything has been done or omitted contrary to the provisions of this scheme or to the conditions upon which approval of the street has been granted, the officer may give notice, within a reasonable time after inspection, to such person requiring him, within a reasonable time to be specified in the notice, to remove, lay open, or pull down so much of the work as prevents the officer from ascertaining whether anything has been done or omitted as aforesaid.

If the said person fails or refuses to comply with the requisition, the council may themselves remove, lay open, or pull down so much of the work as aforesaid and may recover from him the expenses incurred by them.

(2) Every person who has laid out or constructed a street shall give notice thereof to the council within a reasonable time after the completion of the lay out or construction.

SUBMISSION OF SCHEMES OF DEVELOPMENT OF ESTATES.

12.—(1) Whenever a plan for a new street is submitted to the council for approval, they shall by written notice request the owner of any land within that part of the area, the development of which will, in their opinion, be affected by the construction of the street, to furnish them with plans and particulars showing generally a scheme for the development or laying out of the land.

(2) Before making an order approving the plan for the new street the council shall take into consideration any plans and particulars which are furnished to them by any such owner within a reasonable time to be specified in the notice, being not less than one month from the date of the notice.

POSTPONEMENT OF STREET CONSTRUCTION AND CONSTRUCTION BY STAGES—SPECIAL PROVISIONS.

13.—(1) Where the council execute street works upon any street declared under Clause 6, the council shall plant with grass, trees or shrubs, or treat in other suitable manner any part of the street not constructed as carriageway or footway, and shall provide convenient access from the carriageways and footways to any premises abutting on the street at the time of its construction, and shall execute any works necessary for fencing off the street from the adjoining lands or for replacing any fences removed.

(2) Where land reserved for streets is purchased by the council or any other local authority for the purpose of the widening of an existing street and the land is not forthwith added to the street, or where land so reserved is purchased for the purpose of the construction of a new street and a new street is constructed at first on a portion only of the land so purchased, the occupier of the land from which the land acquired is severed, and other persons with his permission, shall be entitled in the meantime to reasonable access across the land so purchased to and from the street, and shall have the same rights in regard to the laying, altering, maintaining, repairing and renewing of drains, mains, pipes, or electric lines in such land as if the same were part of the street.

DAMAGE TO STREET WORKS.

14. No person shall wilfully damage any tree, shrub, plant, or grass in any street or any fence or guard erected thereon, and no person shall wilfully ride or drive any horse, cattle or vehicle over or across any grass margin.

ADJUSTMENT OF BOUNDARIES OF STREETS.

15. For the purpose of adjusting the boundary of any street, the council may make an exchange of land forming part of the street for other land, with or without paying or receiving any money for equality of exchange.

DIVERSION OR STOPPING UP OF HIGHWAYS.

16.—(1) Each of the public highways coloured on the map and specified in the first column of the Second Schedule to this scheme is hereby declared to be diverted or stopped up, and all public rights therein are declared to cease, as from the date on which the proposed new street to be constructed on the lands, the number of which is set opposite to that highway in the second column of the said Schedule, is constructed to the satisfaction of the council and opened for public traffic.

(2) The council may within six months after the date on which a highway, or any portion thereof, is diverted or stopped up, remove therefrom, without payment, any road material of which the highway is constructed or which is lying thereon.

(3) The diversion or stopping up of a highway under this clause shall not affect the rights of the council or of any statutory undertakers or other persons in any sewers, gas or water mains, electric cables or wires, or other works lying on or under the highway, and the council and such statutory undertakers and other persons shall have the same powers of inspection, maintenance and repair of such works and connection thereto, and of entry upon the land for that purpose, as if the highway had not been diverted or stopped up:

Provided that the council may, if they think fit, divert or transfer any such works and execute any works necessary and incidental to such diversion or transfer, and may enter into agreements for the purpose, but no such diversion or transfer shall take place until notice has been given to any statutory undertakers affected.

SAVING FOR LANDS OF STATUTORY COMPANIES, ETC.

17. Nothing in this part of the scheme shall affect the site of any ancient monument or other object of archæological interest, nor, except in so far as may be agreed between the council and the persons interested in the land, any land held or used for any of the purposes referred to in paragraph 2 of Part II. of the Third Schedule to the Act, so long as the land continues to be held or used for those purposes.

PART III.—BUILDINGS AND BUILDING LINES.

INTERPRETATION.

18. In this part of the scheme, unless the context otherwise requires, the following words and expressions have the respective meanings hereby assigned to them :—

"Dwelling-house" means a house designed for use as a dwelling for a single family, together with such out-buildings as are ordinarily required to be used therewith ;

"Residential building" means any building, other than a dwelling-house, designed for use for human habitation, together with such out-buildings as are ordinarily required to be used therewith, and includes a hotel designed primarily for residential purposes and a residential club ;

"Place of assembly" means a building designed for use as a town hall, theatre, concert room, lecture hall, place of public worship, or other place of public assembly whether used for purposes of gain or not, and includes a non-residential club ;

"School" means a building designed for use as a college or school ;

"Institution" means a building designed for use as a hospital, workhouse, asylum, or other public or charitable institution, other than a place of assembly or a school ;

"Public building" means a place of assembly, institution or school ;

"Business premises" means a building designed for use as an office or for other business purposes, not being a shop or industrial building, or building for noxious trade or industry ;

"Shop" means a building designed for the purpose of carrying on retail trade, not being a building for noxious trade or industry, and includes an "industrial building" on the same premises and customarily incidental to the conduct of the retail business thereon ;

"Industrial building" means a building, other than a building for noxious trade or industry, designed for use as a factory or a workshop within the meaning of the Factory and Workshops Acts, 1901 and 1907, or as a warehouse ;

"Building for noxious trade or industry" means a building designed for the purpose of carrying on any industry, business or trade mentioned in the Third Schedule to this scheme, or any other industry, business or trade declared to be an offensive trade under section 112 of the Public Health Act, 1875, as amended by section 51 of the Public Health Acts Amendment Act, 1907, and certified by the Minister to be noxious for the purposes of this scheme ;

"Special building" means a building designed for any use other than one of the uses for which the buildings hereinbefore defined are designed ;

"Zone" means a portion of the area shown on the map by distinctive colouring, hatching or edging for the purpose of indicating the density or character of buildings prescribed therefor, and the terms "density zone" and "character zone" mean zones indicating restrictions as to density and character of buildings respectively ;

A "land unit" means a portion of land to be determined by the council in accordance with the provisions of this part of the scheme for the purpose of limiting the number of building units (as calculated in accordance with Clause 19 (3)), which may be erected thereon ;

The curtilage of a building includes the site of the building.

COMBINED BUILDINGS AND BUILDING UNITS.

19.—(1) Where a proposed building is designed for use both as a shop and as a dwelling for a single family, it shall be treated, for the purposes of this part of the scheme, as if it were a shop.

(2) Subject as aforesaid, where a proposed building is designed for more than one use, the council may decide for which of the uses the building shall be deemed to be designed for the purposes of this part of the scheme, and the council may decide that the building shall be deemed to be designed for different uses for different purposes of this part of the scheme.

(3) For the purposes of this part of the scheme a dwelling-house shall be reckoned as one building unit, and a building other than a dwelling-house as such number of building units as the council may decide.

(4) The owner of any building or of the site of any proposed building who feels aggrieved by a decision of the council under this clause in respect of the building or proposed building may apply to the Minister for leave to appeal to him.

PRIMARY ZONING.

A.—DENSITY OF BUILDINGS.

Erection of Dwelling-Houses and Residential Buildings.

20. No dwelling-house or residential building shall be erected upon land not included in a land unit.

The erection of a building for the purposes of this clause includes the conversion of any building into a dwelling-house or residential building.

Declaration of Land Units.

21.—(1) Subject to the following provisions the council shall, upon application being made to them by any owner of land or jointly by two or more owners of adjoining land, declare that the land in respect of which the application is made or such part thereof as they think fit shall form one or more land units.

For this purpose the submission by an owner of a building plan for a dwelling-house or residential building shall be deemed to be an application for the declaration of a land unit in respect of the land included in the plan.

(2) The council may include in a land unit land belonging to the applicant other than that to which the application relates, but shall not, except with the consent of the applicant, so include the curtilage of an existing building. The council may also include in the unit any land given by or acquired from the applicant for the purpose of a public open space or allotments after .

(3) The council may require the applicant to submit a plan showing the whole of his land which is not already included in a land unit or such part thereof as they think fit.

(4) No land unit shall exceed seven acres in extent.

(5) The half of the width of any road dedicated to the public upon which any land proposed to be included in a land unit abuts shall be included in the land unit.

(6) Where the curtilages of any new buildings erected on a land unit are partly within and partly without the area, the curtilages shall be treated as wholly within the land unit on which the buildings are erected for the purpose of any calculation of the number of building units on the land unit under the scheme:

Provided that the council may make it a condition of the curtilages being so treated that no building units, calculated in accordance with the provisions of this scheme, are erected on the portion of the curtilage outside the area in excess of the number that could have been erected in accordance with the provisions of this scheme, if the whole of the curtilage had been within the area and included in the land unit.

Calculation of Number of Building Units which may be Erected.

22.—(1) In the case of a land unit in respect of which a plot plan is not submitted to and approved by the council under the next succeeding clause, the number of building units on the land unit shall not at any time exceed the number obtained by multiplying the number of acres in the land unit by the average per acre specified in the table below for the density zone in which the land is situate, or, where the land unit is situate in more than one density zone, the sum of the numbers obtained by multiplying the number of acres in the land unit within each zone by the average per acre specified in the table below for that zone. For this purpose all buildings included in the land unit by consent of the owner under Clause 21 (2), shall be taken into account.

B.	Coloured
C.	Coloured

(2) Where it appears to the council upon representation being made by any owner of land that it would be unreasonable to require compliance with the provisions of this clause owing to difficulty in developing the land in accordance with those provisions on account of :—

(i) the lay out of any street on or adjoining the land constructed before ,

(ii) the small amount of land in the possession of the owner on , the council may authorise a reasonable increase in the number of building units permitted to be erected on the land affected.

Plot Plans.

23.—(1) Any owner of land within a land unit may, for the purpose of having the number of building units permitted to be erected on that land determined prior to sale or for any other reason, submit for the approval of the council a plot plan showing the plots within the unit upon which it is proposed to build and the number of building units proposed to be erected on each plot.

(2) The council shall not approve a plot plan submitted to them under this clause unless the following conditions are complied with—

(a) The curtilage of every building existing or commenced upon the land unit at the date of submission of the plot plan must be included in one or more of the plots ;

(b) The average number of building units shown on the plot plan as proposed to be erected per acre over the land unit must not exceed the average per acre permitted under the last preceding clause.

Erection of Buildings upon Land for which a Plot Plan has been Approved.

24. Where a plot plan for a land unit has been submitted to and approved by the council under the last preceding clause—

(1) no building shall be erected on any land within the land unit not included in a plot shown on the plot plan ;

(2) there shall not be erected upon any plot a greater number of building units than would give (together with the equivalent in building units of any buildings existing or commenced upon the plot at the date of submission of the plot plan) the number marked on the plot on the plot plan.

Variation of Land Units and Plot Plans.

25.—(1) The council may from time to time vary any land unit, but before doing so they shall notify the owner of the land comprised within the unit.

(2) The owner of any land comprised within a plot plan may at any time, with the consent of the council, vary the plot plan in so far as it affects his land :

(a) See the remarks in paragraph 21 of the Explanatory Memorandum, ante, p. 3857.

Provided that no variation of a land unit or plot plan shall be made which would be inconsistent with the provisions of this part of the scheme in regard to the density of buildings.

Land Units vested in more than one Owner.

26. In the event of the land comprised in a land unit in respect of which a plot plan has not been approved by the council being or becoming vested in more than one owner and of the owners failing to agree as to the number of building units to be erected on their respective portions of the land, the council shall, upon the application of the owner of any portion of the land, determine as between the applicant and the remaining owners what proportion of the maximum permissible number of building units may be erected on the portion belonging to the applicant and on the remainder of the land unit respectively.

Registration.

27. The council shall keep, so as to be available for inspection by any person interested :—

(1) a register identifying each land unit by reference to a map, and showing the date on which the unit was fixed or varied, the number of building units fixed in pursuance of Clause 19 in respect of any building erected on the land unit, and the particulars and the date of any apportionment made by the council under the preceding clause as between owners of land included in the land unit ;

(2) a copy of each plot plan approved by the council.

Appeals.

28. The owner of any land within a land unit who feels aggrieved by a decision of the council declaring or varying a land unit, or any neglect or refusal of the council to approve, or consent to the variation of, a plot plan for the land unit, and the owner of any land who feels aggrieved by any neglect or refusal of the council to authorise an increase in the number of building units permitted to be erected on his land in pursuance of sub-clause (2) of Clause 22, may apply to the Minister for leave to appeal to him.

B. CHARACTER OF BUILDINGS.

Character Zones.

29.—(1) (a) The predominant use for which each of the several zones referred to in the first column of the following table is intended to be reserved is the use indicated in that column, and the classes of buildings which may be erected either with or without the consent of the council, as the case may be, or may not be erected in each zone, shall be as set out in the third, fourth and fifth columns of the table, but nothing in this clause shall prevent the erection of buildings required for agricultural or horticultural purposes upon land which is for the time being used for those purposes ;

(a) See the Illustrative Table in the Explanatory Memorandum at p. 3865, ante.

Appendix II.

(b) In giving their consent to the erection of a building the council may impose such conditions as they think fit;

(c) In the case of any building proposed to be erected in zone which may be erected only with the consent of the council, the council, in giving or withholding their consent or imposing any conditions, shall have regard to the likelihood of the use for which the building is designed injuring the amenity of the zone, including, in the case of an industrial building, the likelihood of any injury due to the emission of smoke or fumes, or to dust, noise or smell, or other cause.

(2) In any zone in which the erection of buildings designed for a particular purpose is not permitted, the user of a building for that purpose shall be a contravention of this scheme, and in any zone in which the erection of buildings designed for a particular purpose is permissible only with the consent of the council, the user of a building for that purpose without the consent of the council shall be a contravention of this scheme:

Provided that nothing in this sub-clause shall prevent—

(a) an existing building from being used for any purpose for which it was designed to be used or was used on , except that:—

(i) where the use of an existing building for any purpose for which it was designed to be used or was used on has been discontinued for a period of more than six months ending on any date after the commencement of this scheme, its use for that purpose shall not be resumed in virtue of this proviso without the consent of the council;

(ii) where an existing building is so designed as to be adapted for use for more than one of the types of buildings defined in Clause 18, it shall not in virtue of this proviso be used without the council's consent for any of the types for which it is adapted to be used other than the one first in order in the definition, unless already so used on ;

(iii) where a part only of an existing building was designed to be used or was used on for any purpose for which an existing building may be used under this proviso, the existing floor space used for that purpose shall not without the consent of the council be increased by more than one-fifth, whether the additional floor space is contained within the existing building or in additions to the existing building;

(b) the occupant of any dwelling-house or residential building, or any member of his family, from practising therein any profession or occupation not involving any public display of goods in a window or otherwise or the exhibition of any advertisement or sign, except signs or notices ordinarily exhibited on dwelling-houses to indicate the name and profession or occupation of the occupant;

(c) the occupant of any dwelling-house from letting lodgings or apartments therein otherwise than for occupation as separately rated premises (a).

(3) (a) The council shall, as soon as may be, give notice by advertisement in some local newspaper circulating in the area of any application made for their consent under this clause—

(i) to the erection in zone of an industrial building, a shop, business premises, or a special building, or to the user for the purpose of any such building of any building in that zone; or

(ii) to the erection in zone of any building other than an industrial building, or to the user of any building in that zone for any purpose other than the purpose of an industrial building.

The notice shall be at the cost of the applicant and shall state that any objections addressed to the council in writing within 14 days after the date of the advertisement will be considered;

(b) The council shall take into consideration any objections received within the said period of 14 days, and shall thereupon decide to give or withhold their consent or to give their consent upon such conditions as they think fit, and shall forthwith serve a notice of their decision upon the applicant and upon any person objecting to the application under paragraph (a) of this sub-clause;

(c) A decision of the council under this clause shall not take effect until the expiration of 21 days from the date on which the applicant and the objectors, if any, are notified of the decision, or, if an appeal has been made to the Minister under the provisions of this clause, until such appeal is disposed of.

(4) (a) Any person who has applied for any consent of the council under this clause and feels aggrieved by any neglect or refusal of the council to give consent or by any conditions imposed by the council may apply to the Minister for leave to appeal to him;

(b) Any person who feels aggrieved by any decision of the council to give consent to the erection of, or user of a building as, an industrial building, a shop, business premises or a special building in zone , or to the erection of any building other than an industrial building in zone , or to the user of any building in that zone for any purpose other than the purpose of an industrial building, may apply to the Minister for leave to appeal to him, and shall forthwith notify the council of the application.

(5) (a) The provisions of this clause as regards consent to the erection and use of buildings for trade or industry and appeals in connection therewith shall be in substitution for the provisions of the Public Health Acts (and any Acts amending the same) as to consent and appeal in respect of the establishment of offensive trades;

(b) The erection of a building for the purposes of this clause includes the conversion of a building of any of the types defined in Clause 18 into a building of any other of those types.

SUPPLEMENTARY ZONING.

DENSITY AND CHARACTER.

30. If at any time the council are of opinion that—

(a) the buildings to be erected in any part of a character zone ought to be limited to one or more of the classes of buildings which are permitted under Clause 29 to be erected in that zone; or

(b) any class or classes of buildings which, under the provisions of Clause 29 may only be erected in any character zone with the consent of the council can, consistently with the predominant use of the zone, be permitted to be erected in any part of the zone without such consent; or

(c) the average number of building units permitted under Clause 22 to be erected per acre ought to be varied over the whole or any part of density zones ;

the council may make an Order for the purpose with the approval of the Minister:

Provided that no Order shall be made which would allow the average number of building units permitted to be erected per acre in density zones to be increased to more than .

HEIGHT OF BUILDINGS.

Limitation of Height of Buildings.

31.—(1) No building (not being an industrial building or a building for noxious trade or industry erected in character zones) (a) shall be so erected or extended that:—

(a) the highest point of the building, measured from the mean level of the ground immediately surrounding the building, exceeds (b) feet in height;

(b) any part of the building projects above any line drawn from the centre of the street in front of the building at an angle of (b) (or if the street is of any one of the types described in Part II. of the First Schedule to this scheme, (b)) with the horizontal:

(a) Industrial zones.

(b) Seventy feet and angles of 56° and 45° respectively are suggested as suitable standards for general application. Reference should, however, be made to the remarks in paragraph 29 of the Explanatory Memorandum, ante, p. 3859.

Appendix II.

Provided that—

(i) For the purpose of the foregoing provisions account shall be taken of parapets but not of chimneys, ornamental towers, turrets or any other such architectural features;

(ii) In the case of a building erected at the corner of two or more intersecting streets the height of the building shall be determined by reference to the wider or widest street;

(iii) In the case of a place of assembly the council may permit either or both of the limits imposed by this clause to be exceeded to such extent as they may think fit.

(2) No dwelling-house erected in the zone edged   on the map shall contain more than two storeys, exclusive of any storey constructed wholly or partly in the roof and exclusive of any storey the floor of which is more than six feet below the mean level of the centre of the street in front of the building:

Provided that, if in the case of a group of contiguous dwelling-houses not exceeding six in number it is desired to maintain the height of all the dwelling-houses forming the group at the same level, not more than four of the dwelling-houses may, where the slope of the street in front thereof renders it necessary, contain three storeys, exclusive of any storey constructed wholly or partly in the roof.

SPACE ABOUT BUILDINGS.

Space within Curtilage of Buildings which may be Covered by Buildings.

32.—(1) The proportion of land within the curtilage of any building which may be occupied by buildings shall not exceed the proportion indicated in the table below, but in the case of an existing building nothing herein shall make the existing occupation of the curtilage by buildings a contravention of the scheme or prevent the building from being extended so as to occupy a greater proportion of its curtilage than that indicated in the table, subject, however, where the building is extended, to the subjoined conditions:—

(a) the area of the ground covered by the building as extended shall not exceed the area of the ground covered by the existing building by more than the following percentages:—

A maximum percentage of 25, the percentage to be reduced in the ratio of 1 for every 2 per cent. by which the existing area of the ground covered by the building exceeds one-half of the curtilage of the building;

(b) the proportion of land covered by the extended building shall in no case exceed nine-tenths of the curtilage.

Table (a).

PART I.—PLOTS LAID OUT FOR BUILDING AFTER ______ ______

Height of Building. 1	Dwelling-houses. 2	Residential buildings, institutions, schools, and shops in which dwelling accommodation is provided. 3	Other buildings. 4
Neither exceeding 30 feet in height nor being over the main part of the building of more than one storey above ground level.
Exceeding 30 feet in height or being over the main part of the building of more than one storey above ground level.

(a) See the Illustrative Table in the Explanatory Memorandum, at p. 3866, ante.

PART II.—PLOTS LAID OUT FOR BUILDING BEFORE________________

Plots of square feet or over.—The proportions in Part I. of the table.

Plots of less than square feet.—The proportions in Part I. of this table increased in the ratio of to the number of square feet in the plot, subject to a maximum proportion of in the case of dwelling-houses, in the case of residential buildings, institutions, schools and shops in which dwelling accommodation is provided, and in the case of other buildings.

(2) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing provisions of this clause—

(a) in the case of a dwelling-house which—

(i) in the opinion of the council is adjacent to the junction of two or more streets, or

(ii) is situated within the zone edged on the map, the proportion of land within the curtilage of the dwelling-house which may be occupied by buildings may exceed the proportion indicated in the table, but shall not exceed ;

(b) the council may permit the proportion of land within the curtilage of any building which may be occupied by buildings to be increased in the case of a building abutting on two or more streets, or where, by reason of any other exceptional circumstances, they think fit so to do.

(3) The provisions of this clause shall not preclude the erection of a building proposed to be erected by virtue of an exemption granted under Clause 22 (2).

(4) For the purposes of this clause :—

(a) the height of a building shall be measured from the mean level of the ground surrounding the building to the top of the parapet, or half the height of the roof, whichever is the higher ;

(b) where any part of the curtilage of a building, other than land reserved for streets, becomes a street or part of a street, it shall be deemed to continue to form part of the curtilage of the building ;

(c) where the curtilage of a building is partly within and partly outside the area, the curtilage shall be treated as wholly within the area, but the council may make it a condition of so treating the curtilage that no buildings are erected on the portion of the curtilage outside the area so as to occupy, together with the buildings on the portion of the curtilage within the area, a greater proportion of the land within the curtilage as a whole than could have been occupied if the whole of the curtilage had been within the area.

BREAKS IN BUILDINGS.

33.—(1) Not more than [1] dwelling-houses or residential buildings shall be erected in one continuous block.

(2) (a) A dwelling-house or residential building shall not be erected :—

(i) nearer than [2] feet to any other dwelling-house or residential building erected after ;

(ii) nearer than [3] feet to any building other than a dwelling-house or residential building erected after ;

(iii) nearer than [3] feet to the owner's boundary ;

(b) A building of any type other than a dwelling-house or residential building shall not be erected nearer than [3] feet to a dwelling-house or residential building erected after ;

Provided that the foregoing requirements with regard to distance from other buildings or from the owner's boundary shall not prevent the erection of a building intended to form part of a continuous block with any other building or buildings, or the erection of a building nearer than [3] feet to the boundary of a street, where not precluded by a building line fixed in pursuance of Clause 34.

[1] [2] [3] 8, 6 and 3 respectively are suggested as suitable standards for general application, but local conditions and requirements should be taken into account.

Appendix II.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of this clause, the council may, if they think fit, permit—

(a) more than dwelling-houses or residential buildings to be erected in one continuous block where the buildings are arranged to the satisfaction of the council;

(b) the erection between two buildings of a connecting wall, arch or other architectural feature approved by the council;

(c) the erection adjoining a building of an outbuilding not exceeding ten feet in height (measured from the mean level of the ground surrounding the outbuilding to the top of the parapet or half the height of the roof, whichever is the higher);

(d) the erection of a building nearer to any other building or to the owner's boundary than the distance specified in sub-clause (2) of this clause where it appears to the council upon representation being made by the owner that on account of exceptional circumstances affecting the development of the site it would be unreasonable to require compliance with that sub-clause.

BUILDING LINES.

34.—(1) Where a building line for any street or proposed street is shown on the map or, not being shown on the map, is fixed by the council under the provisions of this part of the scheme, no building or structure, other than boundary walls or fences or temporary structures erected in connection with building operations, or buildings permitted in pursuance of Clause 9 shall, save as hereinafter provided, be erected nearer to the street than the building line.

Fixing of Building Line for new Street not shown on Map.

(2) The council may fix a building line for any new street not shown on the map, other than a street of Types G or H described in Part II. of the First Schedule to this scheme, when the plan for such street is submitted to them for approval under Clause 10, or when an order reserving land for a street is made by the council under sub-clause (5) of Clause 6, and any building line so fixed shall be included in the order for the street under Clause 10 or Clause 6, as the case may be.

Fixing of Building Line for existing Street where Line not shown on Map.

(3) In the case of a street existing at the date of commencement of this scheme for which no building line is shown on the map, the council may by order fix a building line either for the street or for such part thereof as they think fit when the plan of a building which is proposed to be erected fronting on the street is submitted to them for approval.

Power to permit Buildings in advance of Building Line.

(4) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this clause, the council may, if they think fit, permit—

(a) the projection in front of the building line of any bay window, porch or other projecting portion of a building;

(b) in the case of industrial buildings or buildings for noxious trade or industry, the erection of the building at such distance, not being less than (a) feet from the boundary of any street, as the council may specify;

(c) the erection of groups of shops and business premises at such distance, not being less than (a) feet from the boundary of any street, as the council may specify;

(d) the erection in front of the building line of any building where, by reason of the levels of the site or of any adjoining land, or by reason of any other exceptional circumstances, or for purposes of architectural effect, such permission is, in the opinion of the council, advisable;

(a) 10 feet is suggested as a generally suitable limit, subject to special local conditions.

(e) the erection in front of the building line of a lodge or other building to be used in connection with a dwelling-house, provided that the lodge or building shall not exceed two storeys in height and shall not be nearer than (a) feet to the boundary of the street.

Before giving permission under paragraph (b), (c) or (d) of this sub-clause, the council shall, at the expense of the applicant, give notice in writing of the proposal to the owners of the adjoining land and to all other persons who, in the opinion of the council, may be affected by the giving or withholding of such permission, and shall consider all objections which may be addressed to them in writing by any such persons within a period, not being less than 14 days, to be specified in the notice.

Appeals.

(5) Any owner who feels aggrieved by an order of the council fixing a building line in respect of his land in pursuance of sub-clauses (2) and (3) of this clause, not being an order made with the approval of the Minister under sub-clause (5) of Clause 6, may apply to the Minister for leave to appeal to him.

MODIFICATION IN APPLICATION OF PUBLIC HEALTH (BUILDINGS IN STREETS) ACT, 1888.

35.—(1) In any street in which a building line is in operation under this scheme a person shall not be precluded by section 3 of the Public Health (Buildings in Streets) Act, 1888, from erecting or bringing forward any house or building to which the building line applies beyond the front main wall of the house or building on either side thereof.

(2) Nothing in this clause shall authorise the erection or bringing forward of any house or building beyond the building line shown on the map or fixed by the council under the provisions of this part of the scheme.

SPECIAL PROVISIONS AS TO BUILDINGS AND BUILDING PLOTS PARTLY WITHIN THE AREA OF THE SCHEME AND PARTLY WITHIN THE AREA OF ANOTHER SCHEME.

36.—Where any existing or proposed building or building plot is or would be partly within the area of this scheme and partly within the area of any other town planning scheme, the part of the building or plot within the area of this scheme shall, unless the Minister otherwise directs, be treated as subject, as regards any matter to which this part of the scheme relates, to the provisions of the scheme for the area in which the greater part of the street frontage to the building, or, if there is no street frontage, the greater part of the building itself is or would be situate, or, where the frontage or building, as the case may be, is situate in equal parts in the respective areas, as subject to the least restrictive of the relevant provisions in the applicable schemes, as though those provisions were substituted, where necessary, for the corresponding provisions in this scheme.

PART IV.—RESERVATION OF LANDS.

RESERVATION AND ACQUISITION OF LANDS.

37.—(1) The uses for which the lands specified in column 1 of the following table are reserved are indicated in column 2 of the table. The lands specified in the table may, until the "appointed day," continue to be used as they are used at the date of the approval of this scheme or may be used for purposes of agriculture and horticulture or for such other purposes as the council may permit. Before the "appointed day" such buildings may be erected and maintained upon any of the lands specified in the table as are necessary for the purposes for which the lands are permitted to be used, subject to such conditions as the council may impose as to their removal after such date as aforesaid or otherwise.

The "appointed day" for the purposes of this sub-clause means, in the case of lands reserved for use as private open spaces, such date as the council may in each

(a) 10 feet is suggested as a generally suitable limit, subject to special local conditions.

Appendix II. case fix, not being less than six months after notice thereof has been given to the owner, and, in the case of lands reserved for other uses, the date of the acquisition of the land by the council, or of the expiration or other determination of any lease to which the land is subject at the date of acquisition, or such later date as the Minister may approve.

(2) Except as aforesaid no part of the lands specified in the table shall be used for any purpose other than that indicated in the table as the purpose for which the land is reserved, and no buildings other than those required for that purpose shall be erected thereon.

(3) No person shall without the consent of the council cut down any tree growing on land reserved for a public open space under this clause except where the tree has become dangerous or impedes the use of the land for any purpose for which it is permitted to be used under this clause, and no person shall spoil or waste land required for any purpose under this clause so as to destroy or impair its use for the purpose for which it is reserved.

(4) (a) The purposes of this scheme shall include the provision by the council of public open spaces and playing fields upon lands reserved for those purposes respectively;

(b) The council may at any time acquire by agreement and, if they think fit, convert into a public open space or a playing field any of the lands reserved as private open spaces and numbered on the map.

(5) The council shall have like powers in regard to any lands reserved as public or private open spaces or playing fields, when acquired by the council, as if the same were acquired for the purposes of public walks, parks and pleasure grounds or playing fields under the Public Health Acts or any enactments amending those Acts.

For the purposes of this clause, land reserved for use as a private open space means land reserved for use as a private ground for sports, play, rest or recreation, or as an ornamental garden or pleasure ground, or as meadow or pasture land, orchards, woodlands or nursery grounds, but does not include a sports or recreation ground customarily open to the public on payment of a charge, or market gardens, allotments, or land used wholly or principally for the purpose of cultivation under glass.

LANDS NO LONGER REQUIRED FOR THE PURPOSES FOR WHICH THEY ARE RESERVED.

38. If at any time any land reserved for any purpose under this part of the scheme is not required or likely to be required for that purpose, the council may make an order with the approval of the Minister declaring the land no longer to be so reserved, and thereafter the provisions of this part of the scheme shall not apply to the land, but the land shall be subject to the remaining provisions of this scheme as if it were included in such zone or zones as may be specified in the order.

SAVING FOR LANDS OF STATUTORY COMPANIES, ETC.

39. Nothing in this part of the scheme shall affect the site of any ancient monument or other object of archæological interest, nor, except in so far as may be agreed between the council and the persons interested in the land, any land held or used for any of the purposes referred to in paragraph 2 of Part II. of the Third Schedule to the Act, so long as the land continues to be held or used for those purposes.

PART V.—GENERAL AMENITY.

PRESERVATION OF TREES.

40.—(1) If at any time the council, having regard to the amenity of any part of the area, are of opinion that any growing tree of a height of more than (a) feet or having a trunk of a girth of more than (a) feet at a height of (a) feet above the ground, or any group of such trees, ought to be preserved, the council may register the tree or group of trees, and shall thereupon notify the owner and occupier of the land upon which the tree or group of trees is growing that the tree or group of trees has been registered, and the register of trees so made shall be open to inspection by persons interested at all reasonable times.

(2) No person shall cut down or wilfully destroy any tree registered by the council under this clause, except with the consent of the council or upon an order of a court of summary jurisdiction under sub-clause (3) of this clause or where the tree has become dangerous:

Provided that if the council do not notify their refusal to consent to the cutting down or destruction of any registered tree within one month from the date of an application for consent their consent shall be deemed to have been given.

(3) Any owner or occupier who feels aggrieved by a refusal of the council to consent to the cutting down or destruction of any registered tree may appeal to a court of summary jurisdiction, and the court may, if they think just, make an order authorising the cutting down or destruction of the tree, but such order shall not affect any rights as between the owner and occupier.

(4) The council may delegate their powers under this clause with or without restriction, to any committee of the council.

DISPLAY OF ADVERTISEMENTS. MAINTENANCE OF PRIVATE GARDENS AND PRIVATE OPEN SPACES.

41.—(1) The council may serve a notice in respect of any of the matters specified in sub-clause (2) of this clause, on the person by whose action or omission the injury referred to in the sub-clause arises (including the owner of unoccupied premises), requiring him, within a reasonable time to be specified in the notice, to take such action and to execute such works, including works of removal, as may be necessary to abate the injury.

(2) A notice may be served under this clause if the amenity of zone or of any public or private open space in the area is seriously injured by:—

(a) the display of any advertisement in the area; or

(b) the condition of any garden, curtilage, or private open space in the area.

(3) If the person on whom the notice is served fails to comply with the notice, the council may cause a complaint relating to the injury to be made to a court of summary jurisdiction, and that court may issue a summons requiring the person to appear before them and, if satisfied that the alleged injury exists, may make an order requiring the person to comply with the requisition or otherwise to abate the injury and to do any works necessary for the purpose within a time specified in the order. Failure to comply with such an order shall be a contravention of this scheme.

The order may also empower the council themselves to undertake the necessary works and to recover the cost from the person on whom the order is made, if the person fails to comply with the order.

(a) See the remarks in paragraph 34 of the Explanatory Memorandum, at p. 3861, ante.

(4)* (a) Any person may apply to the council for their consent to the display of an advertisement in the area, and consent shall be deemed to have been given, if the council do not notify their refusal to consent within one month from the date of the receipt of the application ;

(b) Where, on any such application, the council refuse their consent, the applicant may, within 21 days from the date of notification of refusal, appeal to a court of summary jurisdiction, and the court may, if they think just, make an order permitting the display of the advertisement to which the application relates ;

(c) The council may, if they think fit, authorise generally the display of particular classes of advertisement in the area, with or without specifying the positions or manner in which they may be displayed ;

(d) The display of an advertisement in accordance with any consent or general authority of the council or any order of the court under this sub-clause shall not be deemed to be an injury of amenity within the meaning of this clause ;

(e) The council may delegate their powers under this sub-clause with or without restriction, to any committee of the council.

(5) The provisions of this clause as to advertisements shall be in addition to and not in derogation of the provisions of the Advertisements Regulation Acts, 1907 and 1925.

(6) For the purposes of this clause, " private open space " means land so reserved under Clause 37, and the display of an advertisement includes the erection of a hoarding or other structure or apparatus for the purposes of advertising.

(7) Nothing in this clause shall prevent the display of the following advertisements :—

(a) advertisements upon land relating solely to any trade or business carried on, or to any entertainment or meeting, auction or sale to be held upon or in relation to such land or any property thereon ; and advertisements on the door or in the window of a building ; if the advertisements do not in either case contain letters, figures or advertising emblems exceeding six inches in height, and do not (except where affixed to and not projecting above a vertical wall of a building) exceed a height of twelve feet from the ground ;

(b) for a period of five years from the date of the approval of this scheme, hoardings or similar structures erected or in use for advertising purposes prior to that date and any advertisements displayed thereon during that period, or any other advertisement displayed at the date of the approval of this scheme.

PART VI.—MISCELLANEOUS.

AGREEMENTS.

42.—(1) The council may enter into agreements for the purpose of carrying this scheme into effect, and where any such agreement imposes on the council a liability for expenditure, the agreement shall state whether or not the council propose to defray such expenditure or any part thereof by means of a loan.

Where it is stated in the agreement that the council so propose, the agreement shall not become operative unless and until it is approved by the Minister.

(2) The several agreements of which particulars are set out in the Fourth Schedule to this scheme shall be deemed to have been made by the council under the powers conferred on them by this clause, and notwithstanding any inconsistency between any of the provisions of any such agreement and this scheme, the provisions of the agreement shall prevail.

Any other agreements made by the council after   and before the date of approval of this scheme in respect of any matter regarding which agreements may be made under this clause shall, so far as they are consistent with the provisions of this scheme, have effect as if they had been made by the council under the powers conferred on them by this clause.

* Sub-clause (4) to be omitted where the council are not the local authority for the purposes of the Advertisements Regulation Acts, 1907 and 1925 (see paragraph 35 of the Explanatory Memorandum), at p. 3861, ante.

(3) A person having the powers of a tenant for life within the meaning of the Settled Lands Act, 1925, may, with the consent of the persons who are trustees of the settlement for the purposes of that Act or on an order of the court, enter into any agreement which the council have power under this clause to make, but nothing in this clause shall prejudice or affect the exercise by any such person of any powers, whether statutory or other, which he could have exercised apart from this clause.

(4) The council shall have power to enforce any covenant contained in agreements of the kinds referred to in this clause against persons deriving title under the covenantor, notwithstanding that the council are not in possession of or interested in any land for the benefit of which the covenant was entered into, in the same manner and to the same extent as if they had from the date on which the covenant was entered into been possessed of or interested in such land.

ADJUSTMENT OF BOUNDARIES OF ESTATES.

43.—(1) For the purpose of securing such adjustment of the boundaries of estates and building plots as will facilitate the proper laying out of streets and development of land within the area, the council may agree with the persons interested in lands for the exchange between those persons of portions of the lands, either with or without payment of money by way of equality of exchange, and may, if they think fit, themselves pay in whole or in part any money required to be paid by way of equality of exchange, and may pay in whole or in part the costs of the exchange.

(2) In default of agreement the council may by order provide that the lands shall be exchanged on such terms as may be specified in the order, but before making the order the council shall send to each of the persons concerned a draft of the proposed order, and any such person shall be entitled within 14 days after the said draft is sent to him to require the matter to be submitted to the arbitration of a single arbitrator to be agreed between the council and the persons concerned, or, in default of agreement, to be appointed by the Minister.

(3) The arbitrator so appointed shall have power to modify the boundaries of the lands proposed to be exchanged and otherwise to fix the terms upon which the exchange is to be effected, including the payment of money by the council, but the payment of money by any person concerned other than the council shall not be made a term of the award without his consent. The provisions of the Arbitration Act, 1889, shall apply to an arbitration held under this clause, and the council and the persons concerned shall be treated as parties to the arbitration.

(4) Upon the issue by the arbitrator of his award the council may either decide not to proceed with the proposed order or may make the order in the terms of the award. If the council decide not to proceed, they shall, notwithstanding any direction in the award to the contrary, pay the costs of the persons concerned of and in connection with the arbitration, and the arbitrator shall have power to tax or settle the amount of the costs to be so paid.

(5) The order of the council to effect the exchange of lands under this clause shall be made by an instrument executed in three parts, one part whereof shall be delivered duly stamped to each of the persons concerned. The order shall have the like effect as an Order of Exchange of lands duly made by the Minister of Agriculture and Fisheries under section 147 of the Inclosure Act, 1845.

(6) Nothing in this clause shall enable the council to make (a) an order affecting any land to which paragraphs 1 and 2 of Part II. of the Third Schedule to the Act apply, or (b) an order the terms of which provide for the payment by way of equality of exchange of a sum exceeding one-eighth of the value of the less valuable piece of land.

(7) For the purpose of securing an adjustment of the boundaries of estates and building plots as aforesaid, the council may themselves purchase, subject to the provisions of section 8 of the Act, any land, and may for that purpose sell or lease the land so purchased in whole or in part.

MODIFICATIONS IN DETAIL OF SCHEME.

44.—(1) The council shall have power from time to time by order to make any minor modification in the site of any proposed street coloured pink on the map (and any consequential modification of a building line) or in the boundary of any zone or of any area reserved for any purpose under Part IV. of this scheme.

(2) Any person who feels aggrieved by an order of the council under this clause may apply to the Minister for leave to appeal to him.

(3) A copy of any order made by the council under this clause shall be furnished to the Minister as soon as practicable.

RETROSPECTIVE EFFECT OF SCHEME.

45. The provisions of this scheme (other than the provisions of Clause 20 requiring dwelling-houses and residential buildings to be erected on land units) shall apply to all buildings whose erection is commenced after and to any other work done by any person other than the council after that date, as if that date had been the date of approval of this scheme.

EFFECT OF SCHEME UPON ORDERS UNDER SECTION 4 OF THE ACT.

46. Where in pursuance of any special or general order made by the Minister under section 4 of the Act or any corresponding provision of any Act repealed thereby the development of any estate or any building operation has been permitted to proceed, no building, street or other work whose erection, lay out or construction is commenced before the date of approval of this scheme or under a contract entered into before that date in pursuance of such permission and in accordance with any requirements made as a condition of granting such permission, shall be deemed to contravene the provisions of this scheme, and, where permission has been granted for the user of land or buildings in pursuance of an order as aforesaid, conditionally or unconditionally, nothing in this scheme shall operate to prevent the continued use of the land or buildings in accordance with the permission.

FULFILMENT OF CONDITIONS.

47. Where permission for the erection, laying out or construction of any street or building, or in respect of any other matter, is given subject to conditions imposed by the council or the Minister on appeal or agreed between the council and the owner under any provision of this scheme, or where conditions have been similarly imposed or agreed in connection with the erection, laying out, or construction of any street, building, or other work, or the user of any land or buildings, to which Clause 46 applies, and the last-mentioned conditions are not inconsistent with the provisions of the scheme, the conditions shall have effect as if they were provisions of this scheme:

Provided that any such conditions may be waived or modified with the consent of the owner of the land to which they relate in the manner, and in accordance with the requirements as to advertisement, notices, consideration of objections, and otherwise, applicable to the imposition of the conditions, or any corresponding conditions, under the scheme.

DISPOSAL OF LANDS.

48.—(1) The council may, with the consent of the Minister, sell or lease or exchange any land acquired by them for any purpose of this scheme which is not required for that purpose, or may appropriate any such land to some other purpose approved by the Minister.

(2) The council may, with the consent of the Minister, lease any land which has been acquired by them for any purpose of this scheme, but is temporarily not required for that purpose, or may apply any such land to any purpose approved by the Minister.

(3) The appropriation or temporary application of land by the council under this clause shall be subject to any special covenants or agreements affecting the use of the land in their hands.

APPROPRIATION OF LANDS.

49.—(1) Any land belonging to the council which is reserved for streets or for any purpose under Clause 37, may, when required for the purpose for which it is reserved, whether or not originally acquired for that purpose, be appropriated therefor.

(2) (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of this clause, no land forming part of any common, open space, or allotment within the meaning of paragraph 3 of Part II. of the Third Schedule to the Act shall be appropriated to any other purpose except where land, not being less in area, certified by the Minister after consultation with the Minister of Agriculture and Fisheries to be equally advantageous to the persons, if any, entitled to commonable or other rights and to the public, is given in exchange;

(b) Any land forming part of any common, open space or allotment as aforesaid appropriated under this clause shall, by virtue of the appropriation, be discharged from any rights, trusts and incidents to which it was previously subject, and any land given in exhange shall be held subject to the same rights, trusts and incidents as attached to the land appropriated.

ENTRY ON LANDS FOR INSPECTION, ETC.

50. Any members, officers or servants of the council, after not less than twenty-four hours' notice and on production of the written authority of the council, shall be admitted into or upon any property within the area at any time between the hours of nine in the forenoon and six in the afternoon for the purpose of any inspection necessary for carrying this scheme into effect or of enforcing any of its provisions.

If admission for any of the purposes of this clause is refused, any justice on complaint thereof on oath by any officer of the council (made after reasonable notice in writing of intention to make the same has been given to the person having custody of the property) may by order under his hand require that person to admit any members, officers and servants of the council into or upon the property during the hours aforesaid. If no person having such custody can be found, the justice shall, on oath made before him of that fact, by order under his hand authorise any members, officers and servants of the council to enter into or upon the property during the hours aforesaid. Any such order made by a justice shall continue in force until the purposes for which admittance was required have been fulfilled or executed.

CONTRAVENTIONS OF SCHEME.

51.—(1) Where it appears to the council that any building or other work is such as to contravene this scheme, or that in the erection or carrying out of any building or other work any provision of this scheme has not been complied with, or that any person has failed to execute any work which it is his duty to execute under this scheme and that delay in the execution of the work would prejudice the efficient operation of this scheme, the council may serve a notice containing a copy of this clause and of section 7 of the Act upon the person in default, specifying the respects in which the scheme has been contravened or the works in the execution of which delay has occurred, and stating that the council intend to exercise their powers under paragraph (a) or (b) of sub-section (1) of the said section, as the case may be.

(2) At the expiration of one month from the date of the notice the council may exercise their powers under paragraph (a) or (b) aforesaid, as the case may be, but, where they have previously been notified by the person served with the notice or by the Minister that a question whether any building or work specified in the notice contravenes the scheme has been referred to the Minister for decision under sub-section (3) of the said section, the council shall suspend further action pending the decision of the Minister.

(3) When on any question referred to the Minister under sub-section (3) of the said section it is determined that any building or work contravenes this scheme, or that any provision of this scheme has not been complied with in the erection or carrying out of any building or other work, the council, after giving such person as aforesaid notice that, at the expiration of a period specified in the notice (not being less than one month from the date of service of the notice), they intend to exercise their powers under paragraph (a) aforesaid, may proceed to remove, pull down, or alter the building or work.

PENALTIES.

52.—(1) Any person who commits or knowingly permits any contravention or other breach of the provisions of this scheme or who neglects or fails to comply with any of those provisions shall be guilty of an offence.

(2) Any person guilty of an offence under this scheme shall be liable on conviction in any court of summary jurisdiction to a penalty not exceeding forty shillings for each offence or in the case of an offence under Clause 40 to a penalty not exceeding ten pounds for each offence, and in the case of a continuing offence he shall be liable to a further penalty not exceeding twenty shillings for each day upon which any offence is continued after notice in writing of the alleged offence has been served on him by the council or other person instituting the proceedings.

(3) Section 37 of the Criminal Justice Administration Act, 1914 (which provides a right of appeal in certain events to a court of quarter sessions), shall apply to offences under this scheme.

(4) Proceedings may be taken under this clause in addition to any other proceedings or remedy.

GIFTS.

53. The council may accept a donation of land or money or other property for the furtherance of any object of this scheme and it shall not be necessary to enrol any assurance with respect to any such property under the Mortmain and Charitable Uses Act, 1888.

RECOVERY OF EXPENSES.

54.—(1) All expenses (other than expenses recoverable under the Private Street Works Act, 1892 [section 150 of the Public Health Act, 1875] as applied by this scheme) incurred by the council under this scheme for the repayment of which any person is made liable under this scheme or the Act or by any agreement with the council under this scheme, or any other expenses payable under or by virtue of this scheme, shall be recoverable summarily as a civil debt, and, where recoverable from the owner of any land in respect of which they have been incurred, shall, until payment, be a charge on the inheritance of that land.

(2) Where the value of land is increased by the making of this scheme, the sum due to the council in respect of that increase shall, until payment, be a charge on the inheritance of the land the value of which has been increased.

(3) The council shall have in respect of expenses which are charged on land by this clause all the same powers and remedies under the Law of Property Act, 1925, and otherwise as if they were mortgagees under a mortgage made by deed.

APPLICATION OF MONEYS RECEIVED BY COUNCIL.

55.—(1) All amounts recovered by the council under section 10 of the Act in respect of the increase in value of property or received from the sale of surplus lands, and all other money, being capital or in the nature of capital, received from any other source in connection with this scheme, shall be applied, where possible, in defraying the cost of carrying out any works in respect of which they are received under this scheme, or in repayment of moneys borrowed under the Act for purposes of this scheme, or to such other purposes as may be approved by the Minister.

(2) An application of money under this clause in repayment of moneys borrowed by the council shall be in addition to, and not in substitution for, any other mode of extinguishment provided under the Act, except to such extent and upon such terms as may be approved by the Minister, and, where money is applied in defraying the cost of carrying out any works under this clause, any borrowing powers of the council for the purpose shall be reduced to that extent.

SUSPENSION AND APPLICATION OF ACTS AND BYELAWS.

56.—(1) Any byelaws made by the council with respect to new streets which are in force in the area shall cease to have effect in the area; but any application or plans or sections submitted to the council under the byelaws in respect of which permission to proceed has not been granted or refused in pursuance of any special or general order made by the Minister under section 4 of the Act, or any corresponding provision of any Act repealed thereby, shall be deemed to have been submitted under this scheme.

(2) The provisions of any other byelaws or of any statutory enactment or regulations which are in force shall have effect subject to this scheme as regards matters dealt with in the scheme, and, in so far as inconsistent with the provisions of the scheme, shall be suspended:

Provided that nothing in Part III. of the scheme shall authorise the council to permit the erection of a building in a manner contravening the byelaws and local Acts or the provisions of any general Act.

APPEALS.

57.—(1) Where an application for leave to appeal may be made to the Minister under this scheme:—

(i) if the application is for leave to appeal against any order, decision, refusal, specification or declaration of the council, or against the imposition of any conditions by the council, it shall be made within 14 days from the date of service of notice thereof;

(ii) if the application is for leave to appeal against any neglect of the council, it shall not be made until one month after notice of intention to apply for appeal has been given to the council:

Provided that the Minister may on the application of any person desiring to appeal extend the time for making application for leave to appeal prescribed by paragraph (i) of this sub-clause, and may so extend the time although the application is not made until after the expiration of the time so prescribed.

(2) An application for leave to appeal shall be made in writing and shall contain a concise statement of the facts and contentions on which the applicant relies.

(3) In any case in which an application for leave to appeal has been granted the Minister may accept the application as an appeal, and shall notify the council that leave to appeal has been granted and furnish them with a copy of the application.

(4) The Minister may on any appeal make such order in the matter as he thinks equitable, and any order so made shall be binding and conclusive on all parties.

(5) Where the Minister does not for the purpose of determining an appeal appoint an arbitrator to act for him in pursuance of his powers under section 30 of the Regulation of Railways Act, 1868, as applied by section 17 of the Act, the costs of the appeal, including the costs of any local inquiry held in connection therewith, shall be in the discretion of the Minister, who may direct to and by whom and in what manner those costs or any part thereof shall be paid and may tax or settle the amount of costs to be so paid or any part thereof. Any order made by the Minister as to such costs may be made a rule of one of the superior courts of law.

For the purposes of this sub-clause the determination by the Minister of any measurement under the definition of the erection of a building in Clause 1 shall be regarded as the determination of an appeal.

COSTS IN APPEALS OR APPLICATIONS TO COURTS OF SUMMARY JURISDICTION.

58. Where an application or appeal may be made to a court of summary jurisdiction under this scheme, the court may order by whom and in what manner any costs incurred in connection with the application or appeal shall be paid, and any costs so ordered to be paid shall be recoverable summarily as a civil debt.

Appendix II.

ORDERS.

59. Where the council are empowered to make an order under any provisions of this scheme, other than an order for exchange of lands under Clause 43 or a charging order under Clause 63 :—

(1) The order shall be under the seal of the council, and shall, where necessary, refer to a plan, on a scale not less than that of the map, defining the particular land, if any, which may be specified in the order, and any neighbouring land affected, and illustrating so far as conveniently possible the contents of the order.

(2) Where the order relates to specified land, the council shall give notice of the proposal to make the order to the owner of the land, and to the owner of any neighbouring land in the area who may, in the opinion of the council, be affected.

The council shall include in the notice a statement that a copy of the proposed order and plan (if any) will be open for inspection at a specified place or places, and that, if the owner desires to make any representations or objections with respect thereto, he may address them in writing to the council within a specified period from the date of the notice. The specified period shall not be less than 14 days or more than one month in the case of orders under clauses 34 (3), 38 and 44, and not less than one month or more than six weeks in other cases.

This sub-clause shall not apply to orders to which Clause 12 applies.

(3) Where the order (whether relating to specified land or not) requires the approval of the Minister, or an appeal may be made against the order by any person other than the applicant for the order or any owner notified under the preceding sub-clause, the council shall give notice of the proposal to make the order by advertisement in a local newspaper circulating in the area. The advertisement shall be in the same terms as the notice under the preceding sub-clause, with the substitution of the words "any interested person," for "the owner."

(4) Before making the order, the council shall consider any representations or objections made to them within the prescribed period.

(5) Where the order requires the approval of the Minister :—

(a) the Minister may require notices to be served on any additional owners who may in his opinion be affected by the order ;

(b) the order may include any necessary modifications in the application of this scheme to the land or any neighbouring land to which the order relates ;

(c) the Minister may approve the order with or without modifications or may disapprove it, provided that before approving any order made in pursuance of clauses (a) the Minister shall be satisfied that the provisions of the order are reasonable having regard to the nature and situation of the land affected by the order.

(6) A copy of the order when duly made and, where necessary, approved by the Minister, shall, where the order relates to specified land, be served by the council on the owner of the land, and the council shall also notify any other owner to whom notice of the proposal to make the order was sent that a copy of the order as made or approved may be inspected at a specified place or places.

Where the order, whether relating to specified land or not, is one approved by the Minister, the council shall also give notice of the approval by advertisement in similar terms in a local newspaper circulating in the area.

(7) Where an appeal may be made against the order by any person other than the applicant for the order or the owner of the land to which the order relates, the order shall not take effect until the expiration of seven days after the time specified for making the appeal under Clause 57, or, if an appeal is made, until such appeal is disposed of.

(8) The order shall have effect as if it were incorporated in and formed part of this scheme and shall be deposited with this scheme at the office of the clerk to the council.

(9) The order may be varied or revoked in the manner, and in accordance with the requirements as to advertisement, notices, consideration of objections, and otherwise, applicable to the making of the order, but in the case of an order not requiring the approval of the Minister, only with the consent of the owner of the land to which it relates, or, failing such consent, with the authority of the Minister.

(a) Insert references to relevant clauses dealing with matters within the scope of section 11 (2) of the Town Planning Act, 1925—e.g., Clause 30 above.

CONSENT OF COUNCIL TO BE IN WRITING.

60. In all cases where the consent, authority or permission of the council is required to be given under this scheme, and is not required to be given by means of an order made in pursuance of the scheme, such consent, authority or permission shall be in writing, and shall be either under the hand of the clerk or of some person duly authorised to act in place of the clerk or under the seal of the council.

REGISTER OF PERMISSIONS AND CONDITIONS.

61. The council shall keep, so as to be available for inspection at all reasonable times by any person interested, and in the form, if any, prescribed by the Minister, a register of any consent, authority or permission granted by them or by the Minister on appeal under any provision of this scheme, and of any conditions imposed or agreed between the council and the owner in connection therewith, so far as not included in orders required to be deposited with the scheme.

CLAIMS FOR COMPENSATION AND BETTERMENT.

62. Claims under section 10 of the Act for compensation or in respect of any increase in the value of property due to the making of this scheme, shall be made within 12 months from the date of approval of this scheme:

Provided that in the event of such a claim arising out of the exercise by the council of any power conferred on them under Clauses 6 (2), 6 (5), 10, 34, or 40, the claim may be made at any time not later than 12 months after the date on which notice is given by the council to the claimant of the exercise by them of such power or of their intention to exercise such power, as the case may be, or, where an appeal lies and is made to the Minister against the exercise by the council of such power, or the approval of the Minister is required to the exercise of such power, not later than 12 months after the date on which notice is given to the claimant of the Minister's decision on the appeal or not later than 12 months after the date of publication of the Minister's approval, as the case may be.

CHARGING ORDERS.

63.—(1) Where any owner has paid any sum required to be paid under section 10 of the Act, in respect of the increase in value of his land by reason of the operation of this scheme, or where any other person has advanced money for that purpose, such owner or person may apply to the council for a charging order, and on production of the receipt for the sum so paid, the council shall make an order charging on the land an annuity to repay the amount.

(2) The annuity charged shall be such annual sum as will repay the said amount by equal instalments of principal and interest combined in a period of 30 years, interest being calculated at the same rate as that which, at the date when the charge is made, is the rate of interest charged on loans granted by the Public Works Loan Commissioners to local authorities for the same period, and shall commence from the date of the order, and be payable to the person named in such order, his executors, administrators or assigns.

(3) A charge made under this clause shall be a land charge within the meaning of the Land Charges Act, 1925, and may be registered accordingly.

(4) The provisions of section 32 of the Housing Act, 1925, shall apply to charges created under this clause.

(5) Charging orders and transfers of charges may be made under this clause according to the Forms A and B in the Fifth Schedule to this scheme or in any other convenient form.

SUPPLY OF COPIES OF NOTICES TO REGISTERED PERSONS.

64. Any person may, in consideration of such annual payment not exceeding £1 as the council may fix, require the council to register his name, and the council shall thereafter serve upon that person at the last address notified by him to the council a copy of every advertisement which, under the provisions of this scheme, the council are required to insert in some local newspaper circulating in the area.

INSPECTION OF SCHEME.

65. The council shall permit any person interested to inspect at any reasonable time the scheme, the order of the Minister approving the scheme, the duplicate of the map deposited in the offices of the clerk to the council, and the agreements of which particulars are set out in the Fourth Schedule to this scheme.

SERVICE OF NOTICES.

66. Notices or other documents required or authorised to be served under this scheme shall be in writing and may be served :—

(a) by delivery of the same personally to the person required to be served, or, if such person is absent abroad or cannot be found, to his agent ; or

(b) by leaving the same at the usual or last known place of abode or business of such person aforesaid ; or

(c) by post as a registered letter addressed to the usual or last known place of abode of such person ; or

(d) in the case of a notice required to be served on a local authority or corporate body or company, by delivering the same to their clerk or secretary or leaving the same at the office of the authority or body or, in the case of the company, at the registered office, with some person employed there, or by post as a registered letter addressed to such clerk or secretary at that office :

Provided that if the owner of any land is not known to, and after reasonable inquiry cannot be ascertained by, the council, the notice may be served by leaving it, addressed to "the owner," with some occupier of the land, or if there is no occupier, by affixing it to some conspicuous part of the land.

FOR THE PROTECTION OF THE POSTMASTER-GENERAL.

67.—(1) Nothing in this scheme shall affect the application of section 7 of the Telegraph Act, 1878, to any alteration in any telegraphic line of the Postmaster General which may be involved in the exercise of powers conferred by the scheme.

(2) Notwithstanding the stopping up or diversion of any highway or footpath or any exchange of land forming part of a street for other land under this scheme, the Postmaster-General shall continue to have the same powers and rights in regard to any telegraphic line which remains in, under, upon, over, along or across the site of the said highway or footpath or of the part of the street so exchanged as if the same had continued to be a highway or footpath or part of the street, as the case may be :

Provided that if the council or the person in whom the soil of the said highway or footpath is vested or the person who exchanges other land for the part of the street desires to alter such telegraphic line, the enactments of section 7 of the said Act shall thereupon apply in all respects as though the council or the said person (as the case may be) were undertakers within the meaning of that Act.

(3) Expressions in this clause have the same meaning as in the Telegraph Act, 1878.

Appendix II.

DURATION OF SCHEME AND SHORT TITLE.

68.—(1) This scheme shall commence on the day on which it is approved by the Minister, and shall, subject to any variations made by any subsequent scheme, continue in operation until revoked.

(2) This scheme may be cited as "The Town Planning Scheme, 19 ."

TRAMWAYS.

BOARD OF TRADE (a) RULES WITH RESPECT TO PROVISIONAL ORDERS AND OTHER MATTERS UNDER THE TRAMWAYS ACT, 1870.

* * * * * *

NOTES.

(1) All memorials, objections, and other documents should be on paper of foolscap size.

(2) Promoters who desire to be incorporated must register themselves under the Companies Act, 1862.

RULES OF THE BOARD OF TRADE.

Approval of application made by local authorities.

RULE I. When the application is made by any local authority, the evidence of approval required as above by Schedule A. (Part III.) of the Act must be given at the time fixed for proving compliance with the Act and these Rules, by (a) a certified copy of the resolution approving of the intention to make the application, (b) a certified copy of the notice convening the special meeting to consider the application, and (c) a certified statement of the number of members constituting the local authority, and of the number present and voting at such special meeting.

Consent to applications not made by local authorities.

RULE II. Where an application is made by promoters, not being the local authority of the district in which the tramway is proposed to be laid, evidence of the consent required by Part I., section 4 of the Act, must be given at the time

---

(a) The functions of the Board of Trade under the Tramways Acts are now vested in the Ministry of Transport.

fixed for proving compliance with the Act and these Rules, by (a) a certified copy of the resolution passed at a meeting of the local or road authority, as the case may be, at which the application was approved, (b) a copy of the notice convening the meeting, which notice must contain a statement that the subject of the proposed tramway will be brought before the meeting.

Similar evidence of the consent of the local and road authorities must be produced in cases in which the promoters seek to use steam or other mechanical power on any tramway or tramways already authorised.

Description of tramways in advertisement.

RULE III. The tramways mentioned in the advertisement of the intended application should be described in the manner prescribed in Rule XVI., but the length need not be inserted.

Advertisement as to narrow places.

RULE IV. The advertisement must specify at what point or points, and on which side of the street or road, it is proposed to lay such tramway, so that for a distance of thirty feet or upwards a less space than nine feet six inches, or if it is intended to run thereon carriages or trucks adapted for use upon railways, a less space than ten feet six inches shall intervene between the outside of the footpath on the side of the street or road and the nearest rail of the tramway. The notice shall also specify the gauge to be adopted, and what power it is intended to employ for moving carriages or trucks upon the tramway.

Street notice.

RULE V. In the months of October and November, or one of them, immediately preceding the application for any Provisional Order, a notice thereof shall be posted for fourteen consecutive days in every street or road, along which it is proposed to lay the tramway in such manner as the authority having the control of such street or road shall direct; and if after application to such authority no such direction shall be given, then in some conspicuous position in such street or road; and such notice shall also state the place or places at which the plans of such tramway will be deposited.

Notice to owners and lessees of railways, tramways and canals.

RULE VI. On or before the 15th day of December immediately preceding the application for any Provisional Order for laying down a tramway crossing any railway or tramway on the level, or crossing any railway, tramway, or canal by means of a bridge, or otherwise affecting or interfering with such railway, tramway, or canal, notice in writing of such application shall be served upon the owner or reputed owner and upon the lessee or reputed lessee of such railway, tramway or canal, and such notice shall state the place or places at which the plans of the tramway to be authorised by such Provisional Order have been or will be deposited.

Similar notice must also be given to county councils and to proprietors of navigable rivers in respect of their bridges or other works which are proposed to be crossed or otherwise interfered with.

Every notice under this Rule must be accompanied by a copy of Rule XVII., omitting the first paragraph, and must state where copies of the draft Provisional Order, when deposited at the Board of Trade, can be obtained.

Notice to local and road authorities.

RULE VII. When the promoters make application for an extension of time for the construction of, or for authority to abandon, any tramway, they must on or before the 15th day of December, serve notice of such application upon all the local and road authorities affected.

Intimation to intending objectors.

RULE VIII. The preceding advertisement and notices, other than the street notice, must state that every company, corporation, or person desirous of making any representation to the Board of Trade, or of bringing before them any objection respecting the application, may do so by letter, addressed to the assistant secretary of the Railway Department of the Board of Trade, on or before the 15*th January* next ensuing; that copies of their objections must at the same time be sent to the promoters; and that in forwarding to the Board of Trade such objections the objectors or their agents should state that a copy of the same has been sent to the promoters or their agents.

Notice to frontagers.

RULE IX. On or before the 15th day of December immediately preceding the application for a Provisional Order, notice in writing must be given to the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of all houses, shops, or warehouses abutting upon any part of any street or road where, for a distance of thirty feet or upwards, it is proposed that a less space than nine feet six inches shall intervene between the outside of the footpath on either side of the road and the nearest rail of the tramway.

This notice should be given in respect of such premises on both sides of the road, and must contain a notification that if such owner, lessee, or occupier dissents from the tramway being so laid, he may express his dissent by a statement in writing, addressed to the assistant secretary of the Railway Department of the Board of Trade, on or before the 1*st January* next ensuing, and that he must at the same time send a copy of his dissent to the promoters.

Map and diagram.

RULE X. A published map of the district on a scale of not less than six inches to a mile (or, if no map on such a scale be published, then the best map obtainable), with the line of the proposed tramway marked thereon, and a diagram on a scale of not less than two inches to the mile prepared in accordance with the specimen appended to these rules, must also be deposited on or before the 30th of November.

Requirements as to plans.

RULE XI. The plans to be deposited must also comply with the following requirements:—

The plans shall indicate whether it is proposed to lay the tramway along the centre of any street or road, and if not along the centre, then on which side of, and at what distance from, an imaginary line drawn along the centre of such street or road, and whether or not, and if so, at what point or points, it is proposed to lay such tramway, or that for a distance of thirty feet or upwards a less space than nine feet six inches, or if it is intended to run thereon carriages or trucks adapted for use upon railways, a less space than ten feet six inches, shall intervene between the outside of the footpath on either side of the street or road and the nearest rail of the tramway.

All lengths shall be stated on the plan and section in miles, furlongs, chains, and decimals of a chain.

The distance in miles and furlongs from one of the termini of each tramway shall be marked on the plan and section.

Each double portion of tramway, whether a passing-place or otherwise, shall be indicated by a double line.

The total length of the street or road upon which each tramway is to be laid shall be stated (i.e., the length of route of each tramway).

The length of each double and single portion of such tramway, and the total length of such double and single portions respectively, shall also be stated.

In the case of double lines (including passing-places), the distance between the centre lines of each line of tramway shall be marked on the plans. This distance must in all cases be sufficient to leave at least 15 inches between the sides of the widest carriage and engines to be used on the tramways when passing one another.

The gradients of the street or road on which each tramway is to be laid shall be marked on the section.

Every crossing of a railway, tramway, river, or canal shall be shown, specifying in the case of railways and tramways whether they are crossed over, under, or on the level.

All tidal waters shall be coloured blue.

All places, where for a distance of 30 feet and upwards there will be a less space than nine feet six inches between the outside of the footpath on either side of the street or road and the nearest rail of the tramway, shall be indicated by a thick dotted line on the plans on the side or sides of the line of tramway where such narrow places occur, as well as noted on the plans, and the width of the street or road at these places shall also be marked on the plans.

NOTE.—The section of each tramway should, where practicable, be shown on the same page as the plan.

Plans in certain cases to be in duplicate.

RULE XII. The plans to be deposited with the clerk of the peace or sheriff clerk (as the case may be) must be in duplicate. (See Standing Order of the House of Lords and of the House of Commons.)

Portions only of plans

RULE XIII. In cases where the proposed works are intended to be made in or through one or more parishes or districts, the deposit with the parish clerks or local authorities need consist only of a copy of so much of the plans and sections as relates to their respective parishes or districts.

required in certain cases. Plans, etc., to be deposited in Parliament.

RULE XIV. The following Standing Orders must also be complied with (a):

STANDING ORDER OF THE HOUSE OF LORDS.

"Whenever plans, sections, books of reference, or maps are deposited in the case of an application to any public department or county council for a Provisional Order or certificate, duplicates of the said documents shall at the same time be deposited in the Office of the Clerk of the Parliaments, provided that with regard to such deposits as are so made at any public department or with any county council after the prorogation of Parliament and before the thirtieth day of November in any year, such duplicates shall be so deposited on or before the thirtieth day of November."

STANDING ORDER OF THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.

"Whenever plans, sections, books of reference, or maps are deposited in the case of an application to any public department or county council for a Provisional Order or Provisional Certificate, duplicates of the said documents shall at the same time be deposited in the Private Bill Office, provided that with regard to such deposits as are so made at any public department or with any county council after the prorogation of Parliament, and before the thirtieth day of November in any year, such duplicates shall be so deposited on the thirtieth day of November."

RULE XV. The following documents, etc., must also be deposited at the Board of Trade on or before the 23rd December, viz. :—

List of railways, tramways, and canals, and copy of the notice.

(1) A complete list of every railway, tramway, and canal proposed to be crossed or otherwise affected or interfered with, together with the names and addresses of the owners or reputed owners, and of the lessees or reputed lessees thereof, and a certified copy of the notice served upon them.

Lists of local and road authorities and copy of notice.

(2) A complete list of the local and of the road authorities through whose districts the proposed tramway is to pass (including in such list the clerk to the county council in cases where it is proposed to cross county bridges), and if any such district is or forms part of a highway district, under the provisions of the Highway Acts, a statement to that effect must accompany the deposit. Also a separate list of the local and road authorities affected by any application relating to the use of steam or other mechanical power on authorised tramways, or to an extension of time or abandonment; together with a copy of any notice served under Rule VII.

Copy of street notice.

(3) A certified copy of the notice which is required by Rule V. to be posted in the streets in October or November next before the application.

List of frontagers and copy of notice.

(4) In all cases where for a distance of 30 feet or upwards it is proposed that a less space than nine feet six inches shall intervene between the outside of the footpath on either side of the road and the nearest rail of the tramway, or a less space than ten feet six inches if it is intended to run on the tramway carriages or trucks adapted for use upon railways, a complete list of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of all houses, shops, or warehouses abutting upon any part of the highway, where such less space is proposed, together with a certified copy of the notice which was served on them on or before the 15th December, as required by Rule IX. (The list should be so prepared as to show distinctly and separately every length of street or road where for a distanee of 30 feet or upwards such less space is proposed, and in respect of every such length of street or road it should indicate in parallel columns the name of the street, the name or number of the house, shop, or warehouse, and the names of the owner or reputed owner, the lessee or reputed lessee, and of the occupier.)

Description of land.

(5) A description of the land (if any) which the promoters propose to purchase for the construction of the tramway. (The contracts for the purchase of all the lands required must be produced at the time of proving compliance with the Act and these Rules.)

Memorandum of association, etc.

(6) A list of every Provisional Order or Act of Parliament (if any) of the promoters; and where the promoters are a company incorporated under the Companies Act,

---

(a) These standing orders refer to amended as well as to original plans.

1862, a printed copy of the memorandum of association, articles of association, and any registered special resolution of the company, and in the case of a company incorporated in any other manner, a copy of every deed or instrument of settlement or incorporation.

Fee.

(7) A fee of £35, by cheque payable to "An Assistant Secretary of the Board of Trade." (This fee will not necessarily be taken to cover the cost of inquiries or other matters arising out of the application. With respect to costs in such matters, security must be given from time to time by the promoters as the Board of Trade may require.)

DRAFT PROVISIONAL ORDER.

Form of draft Provisional Order.

RULE XVI. The following rules must be observed in regard to the draft Provisional Order :—

(1) The draft Provisional Order must be deposited in triplicate and be printed on one side only of the page, so as to leave the back of the page blank, and any schedule annexed must begin a new page.

(2) The draft Provisional Order must describe where each tramway is to commence and terminate, and must state the streets and roads along which it is to pass, and the total length of the double and single portions respectively of such tramway in miles, furlongs, chains, and decimals of a chain.

(3) Each double and single portion of such tramway, with its commencement and termination, must also be described. (This can be done by stating that each line or branch line will be double or single throughout, except at certain specified places where it will be single or double.)

(4) Every passing-place must be described as a double line in accordance with the Standing Order of the House of Lords, which provides that "two lines of tramway running side by side shall be described as a double line."

(5) In cases where the promoters are individuals their addresses as well as names should be inserted in the draft Order.

(6) The names and addresses of the agents for the Provisional Order must be printed on the outside of the draft Order, and there must be a notice at the end of it stating that objections are to be addressed to the Assistant Secretary of the Railway Department of the Board of Trade on or before the 15th January next ensuing, that copies of objections must at the same time be sent to the promoters, and that in forwarding to the Board of Trade such objections, the objectors or their agents should state that a copy of the same has been sent to the promoters or their agents.

PROOFS OF COMPLIANCE WITH THE ACT AND RULES.

Proofs of compliance with Act and Rules.

RULE XVII. The agents should be prepared to prove compliance with the provisions of the Act and these rules by the 15th January, and all such proofs must be completed on or before the 22nd February. Six days' notice will be given of the day and hour at which the agents are to attend for the purpose at the Board of Trade, and printed forms of proof will accompany the notice. These forms should be filled up by the agents, and brought with the requisite documents to the department at the time fixed for proving compliance.

If any local or road authority, or any railway, tramway, or canal company, or any other company, body, or person desire to have any clauses or other amendments inserted in the Order, they must deliver the same to the agents for the Order, and also to the Board of Trade, not later than the 8th February.

On or before the 22nd February the agents must deposit at the Board of Trade a filled up draft printed Order (in duplicate) containing in manuscript all such clauses or other amendments as have been agreed upon.

If any of the clauses or other amendments which have been delivered to the agents are not settled with the consent of both parties the agents must, so far as they can, on or before the 22nd February, show what are the amendments, if any, which each party would be willing to accept.

After the 22nd February no further proposals for clauses will be entertained by the Board of Trade.

Deposit of amended plan and section.

RULE XVIII. Should any alteration of the plan and section originally deposited for the purposes of the Order be made, with the approval of the Board of Trade, before the Order is granted, a copy of such plan and section (or of so much thereof as may be necessary), showing such alteration, must, before the Order is introduced into a Confirmation Bill, be deposited by the promoters for public inspection:—

In England, in the office of the clerk of the peace for every county, riding, or division, and of the parish clerk of every parish, and the office of the local authority of every district, affected by such alteration; and

In Scotland, in the office of the principal sheriff clerk, for every county district, or division affected by such alteration.

Copies of such documents are at the same time to be deposited at the office of the Board of Trade in the Office of the Clerk of the Parliaments and at the Private Bill Office.

Proofs of deposit and advertisement of Order as made.

RULE XIX. When a Provisional Order has been made, and before it is introduced into the Confirmation Bill, the promoters will be required to submit to the Board of Trade the following proofs, viz.:—

(1) The receipt of the clerk of the peace or sheriff clerk, or proof by affidavit of the deposit of the Order with such officer as required by Part IV. of Schedule B to the Act.

(2) A copy of the local newspaper containing the advertisement of the Order. This advertisement must have a short heading stating that the Order has been made by the Board of Trade under the Tramways Act, 1870, previous to its being introduced into a Confirmation Bill, and must also state the name of the office where printed copies of the Order can be obtained.

(3) Proof must also be given that the advertisement Order is a correct copy of the Order delivered by the Board of Trade to be advertised, that it was inserted in the newspaper in which the original advertisement of the application for the Order was published, and that a sufficient number of printed copies of the Order were deposited for sale at the office named in the original advertisement, with a statement of the price for which they may be obtained.

(4) Receipts or proofs by affidavit of the deposit of amended plans as required by Rule XVIII.

Printed forms for these proofs will be furnished by the Board of Trade when the Order is sent to the promoters to be advertised, and one of these forms must be filled by the promoters, and brought or forwarded to the department as soon as possible after the advertisement and deposit have been made.

DEPOSIT OF MONEY, PENALTY FOR NON-COMPLETION OF TRAMWAYS, AND RELEASE OF DEPOSIT.

Deposit of money in the Chancery Division under section 12 of Act.

RULE XX. After the Provisional Order is ready, and before the same is introduced by the Board of Trade into a Confirming Bill, the promoters (unless they are a local authority) shall, if they are not possessed of a tramway already open for public traffic, which has during the year last past paid dividends on their ordinary share capital, pay as a deposit a sum of money not less than five per centum on the amount of the estimate of the expense of the construction of the tramway, as follows; namely,

Where the tramway or any part thereof will be situate in England,—to the account of the Paymaster General for and on behalf of the Supreme Court of Judicature in England to the credit of the particular tramway:

Where the tramway will be situate wholly in Scotland,—either to the account of the Paymaster General for and on behalf of the Supreme Court of Judicature in England in manner aforesaid, or (at the option of the promoters) into a bank in Scotland established by Act of Parliament or Royal Charter, in the name and with the privity of the Queen's Remembrancer of the Court of Exchequer in Scotland ex parte the particular tramway.

The Board of Trade may issue their warrant to the promoters for such payment into court, which warrant shall be a sufficient authority for the persons therein named, not exceeding five in number, or the majority or survivors of them, to pay the money therein mentioned to the account of the Paymaster General for and on behalf of the Supreme Court of Judicature in England or into the bank therein mentioned, in the name and with the privity of the officer therein mentioned, if any, and for that officer to issue directions to such bank to receive the same, to be placed to his account there according to the method (prescribed by statute, or general rules or orders of court or otherwise), for the time being in force respecting the payment of money into the said courts respectively, and without fee or reward.

Provided, that in lieu, wholly or in part, of the payment of money, the promoters may bring into court as a deposit an equivalent sum of bank annuities, or of any stocks, funds, or securities on which cash under the control of the respective courts is for the time being permitted to be invested, or of exchequer bills (the value thereof being taken at the price at which the promoters originally purchased the same, as appearing by the broker's certificate of the purchase ; and in that case the Board of Trade shall vary their warrant accordingly by directing the transfer or deposit of such amount of stocks, funds, securities, or exchequer bills by the persons therein named.

Where money is so paid into the Supreme Court of Judicature. the Court may, on the application of the persons named in the warrant of the Board of Trade, or of the majority or survivors of them, order that the same be invested in such stocks, funds, or securities as the applicants desire and the Court thinks fit.

In the subsequent provisions of these rules, the term "the deposit fund" means the money deposited, or the stocks, funds, or securities in which the same is invested, or the bank annuities, stocks, funds, securities, or exchequer bills transferred or deposited, as the case may be ; and the term "the depositors" means the persons named in the warrant of the Board of Trade authorising the deposit, or the majority or survivors of those persons, their executors, administrators, or assigns.

Penalty for non-completion of tramways.

RULE XXI. If the promoters empowered by the Order to make the tramway are possessed of a tramway already opened for public traffic, and which has during the year last past paid dividends on their ordinary share capital, no deposit will be required ; but if such promoters (unless they are a local authority) do not, within the time in the Order prescribed, or within the time as prolonged by the special direction of the Board of Trade under section 18 of the Tramways Act, 1870, and if none is prescribed, or if the time has not been prolonged as aforesaid, then within two years from the passing of the Act confirming the Order, complete the tramway authorised by the Order, they will be liable to a penalty of £50 a day for every day after the expiration of the period so limited, until the said tramway is completed and opened for public traffic, or until the sum received in respect of such penalty shall amount to five per cent. on the estimated cost of the works ; and the said penalty may be applied for by any road authority claiming to be compensated in accordance with the provisions of Rule XXII., and in the same manner as the penalty provided in the third section of the Act 17 & 18 Vict. c. 31, known as the Railway and Canal Traffic Act, 1854, and every sum of money recovered by way of such penalty as aforesaid shall be paid under the warrant or order of such court or judge as is specified in the said third section of the Act 17 & 18 Vict. c. 31, to an account opened or to be opened in the name and with the privity of the Paymaster General for and on behalf of the Supreme Court of Judicature in England [the Queen's Remembrancer of the Court of Exchequer in Scotland (according as the tramway is situate in England or Scotland)], in the bank named in such Order, and shall not be paid thereout, except as provided by Rule XXII., but no penalty will accrue in respect of any time during which it shall appear, by a certificate to be obtained from the Board of Trade, that the promoters were prevented from completing or opening such tramway by unforeseen accident or circumstances beyond their control ; Provided, that the want of sufficient funds will not be held to be a circumstance beyond their control.

Application of deposit.

RULE XXII. If the promoters empowered by the Order to make the tramway do not within the time within the Order prescribed, or within the time as prolonged by the special direction of the Board of Trade under section 18 of the Tramways Act, 1870, and if none is prescribed, or if the time has not been prolonged as aforesaid, then within two years from the passing of the Act confirming the Order, complete the tramway, and open it for public traffic, then and in every such case the deposit fund, or so much thereof as shall not have been repaid to the depositors (or any sum of money recovered by way of such penalty as aforesaid), shall be applicable, and after due notice in the London or Edinburgh Gazette, as the case may require, shall be applied towards compensating all road authorities for the expense incurred by them in taking up any tramway or materials connected therewith placed by the promoters in or on any road vested in or maintainable by such road authorities respectively, and in making good all damage caused to such roads by the construction or abandonment of such tramway, and for which expense or damage no compensation or inadequate compensation shall have been paid, and shall be distributed in satisfaction of such compensation in such manner and in such proportions as to the Supreme Court of Judicature in England or Court of Exchequer in Scotland, as the case may be, may seem fit; and if no such compensation shall be payable, or if a portion of the said deposit fund (or of the sum or sums of money recovered by way of penalty aforesaid) shall have been found sufficient to satisfy all just claims in respect of such compensation. then the said deposit fund (or the sum or sums of money recovered by way of penalty aforesaid), or such portion of it as may not be required as aforesaid shall in the discretion of the Court if the promoters are a company and a receiver has been appointed, or if such company is insolvent and has been ordered to be wound up be paid or transferred to such receiver, or to the liquidator or liquidators of the company, or be applied in the discretion of the Court as part of the assets of the company, for the benefit of the creditors thereof. Subject to such application as aforesaid, the deposit fund may be repaid or retransferred to the depositors or as they shall direct.

Release of deposit.

RULE XXIII. The Court in which the deposit is made shall, on the application of the depositors, order the deposit fund to be paid or transferred to the applicants, or as they shall direct, if, within the time by the Order prescribed, or within the time prolonged by the special direction of the Board of Trade under section 18 of the Tramways Act, 1870, and if none is prescribed, or if the time has not been prolonged as aforesaid, then within two years from the passing of the Act confirming the Order, the promoters thereby empowered to make the tramway, complete it, and open it for public traffic after inspection by an inspector appointed by the Board of Trade, and upon a certificate of the Board of Trade that the tramway is fit for public traffic as provided by Rule XXV.; Provided, that if within such time as aforesaid any portion of a line of tramway authorised by an Order is opened for public traffic, after such inspection as aforesaid, and on such certificate under Rule XXV. as aforesaid, then on the production of a certificate of the Board of Trade, specifying the length of the portion of the tramway opened as aforesaid, and the portion of the deposit fund which bears to the whole of the deposit fund proportion as the length of the tramway so opened bears to the entire length of the tramway authorised by the Order the court in which the deposit is made shall, on the application of the depositors, order the said portion of the deposit fund so specified in such certificate as aforesaid to be paid or transferred to them, or as they shall direct.

Miscellaneous as to deposits.

RULE XXIV. The depositors shall be entitled to receive payment of any interest or dividends from time to time accruing on the deposit fund while in court; and the court in which the deposit is made may from time to time, on the application of the depositors, make such Order as seems fit respecting the payment of the interests or dividends accordingly

If either House of Parliament refuse to confirm any Provisional Order in respect whereof a deposit has been made under these rules, or authorise a portion only of any tramway comprised in such Order, or if any such Provisional Order be withdrawn before the same is confirmed by Parliament the Court shall, upon production of a certificate of the Board of Trade, order the deposit fund or a proportionate part thereof, as the case may be, to be paid to the depositors, or as they shall direct.

The issuing in any case of any warrant or certificate relating to deposit or to the deposit fund, or any error in any such warrant or certificate or in relation thereto, shall not make the Board of Trade, or the person signing the warrant or certificate on their behalf, in any manner liable for or in respect of the deposit fund, or the interest of or dividends on the same, or any part thereof respectively.

Any application under these rules to the Supreme Court of Judicature shall be made in a summary manner by summons at chambers.

OPENING OF TRAMWAYS.

Opening of tramways.

RULE XXV. The promoters shall give to the Board of Trade at least 14 days' notice in writing of their intention to open any tramway, or portion of a tramway, and such tramway or portion of tramway shall not be opened for public traffic until an inspector appointed by the Board of Trade has inspected the same, and the Board of Trade has certified that it is fit for such traffic. The above-mentioned notice should be accompanied by the following documents, viz. :—

(1) A copy of the Act or Provisional Order authorising the construction of the tramways.

(2) A copy or tracing of so much of the deposited plans and sections as relates to the portion of tramway proposed to be opened, distinguished between double and single line, and showing in red ink any variations therefrom in the tramways as constructed.

(3) A list of the local and road authorities concerned.

(4) A diagram of the lines submitted for inspection, on a scale of about two inches to a mile.

PROLONGATION OF TIME FOR THE COMMENCEMENT OR COMPLETION OF WORKS.

Prolongation of time for commencement or completion of works.

The Board of Trade, under the powers conferred upon them by section 18 of the Tramways Act, 1870, have made the following rules with respect to applications for a prolongation of time for the commencement or the completion of the works authorised by any Order made under the above-named Act :—

1. The application should be in the form of a memorial setting forth the grounds on which the application is made, and must be made at least one month before the expiration of the time prescribed for the commencement or the completion of the works, as the case may be.

2. The promoters of any tramway undertaking authorised by any Order, who intend to apply to the Board of Trade for a prolongation of the time limited for the commencement or the completion of the works authorised by such Order, shall publish by advertisement, once at least in each of two successive weeks, in some one and the same newspaper published in the district affected by such Order a notice of their intention to apply to the Board of Trade for a prolongation of time.

3. The notice must state the period to which it is proposed to prolong the time limited for the commencement or the completion of the works, as the case may be, and must contain a notification that all persons desirous of making any representation to the Board of Trade, or of bringing before them any objection respecting the application, may do so by letter addressed to the Assistant Secretary (Railway Department) Board of Trade, on or before a day to be named in the advertisement, being not less than 21 days from the date of the first publication of the advertisement, and that copies of their representations or objections should at the same time be sent to the promoters.

4. A similar notice must be delivered to every local and road authority before the second publication of the notice. Copies of newspapers containing the notice, and a statement that a copy of it has been duly served on the local and road authorities as required by these rules, must be sent to the Board of Trade with the application.

5. Before the Board of Trade comply with the application, they will impose such conditions (if any) as they think fit.

AT THE COURT AT BUCKINGHAM PALACE, THE 9TH DAY OF NOVEMBER, 1920.

PRESENT,

The King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by subsections (2) and (4) of section 3 of the Ministry of Health Act, 1919, it is provided that His Majesty may from time to time by Order in Council transfer to the Minister of Health any of the powers and duties in England and Wales of any Government Department which appear to His Majesty to relate to matters affecting or incidental to the health of the people, and may make such incidental, consequential and supplemental provisions as may be necessary or expedient for the purpose of giving full effect to any transfer of powers or duties by or under that section and may make such adaptations in the enactments relating to such powers or duties as may be necessary to make exercisable by the Minister of Health and his officers the powers and duties so transferred:

And whereas the Board of Trade exercise and perform certain powers and duties in relation to water undertakings which appear to His Majesty to relate to matters affecting or incidental to the health of the people,

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. This Order may be cited as the Ministry of Health (Transfer of Powers as to Water Undertakings) Order, 1920.
2. As from the 16th November, 1920, the powers and duties of the Board of Trade specified in the second column of the schedule to this Order shall be transferred to the Minister of Health, and in relation to the powers and duties so transferred the enactments mentioned in the first column to that schedule shall be construed as if reference to the Minister of Health were substituted for reterence to the Board of Trade.

ALMERIC FITZROY.

SCHEDULE.

Enactment.	Powers and duties transferred.
Gas and Water Works Facilities Act, 1870, and Gas and Water Works Facilities Act, 1870 (Amendment) Act, 1873.	All powers and duties in relation to water undertakings in England and Wales.

S. R. & O., 1921, No. 1563.

THE WATER UNDERTAKINGS (MODIFICATION OF CHARGES) RULES, 1921, DATED OCTOBER 7TH, 1921, MADE BY THE MINISTER OF HEALTH UNDER SECTION 2 (3) OF THE WATER UNDERTAKINGS (MODIFICATION OF CHARGES) ACT, 1921.

The Minister of Health, in pursuance of the powers conferred on him by sub-section (3) of section 2 of the Water Undertakings (Modification of Charges) Act, 1921, and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf, hereby makes the following rules:—

1.—(1) These rules may be cited as the Water Undertakings (Modification of Charges) Rules, 1921.

(2) In these Rules, unless the context otherwise requires:—

"The Act" means the Water Undertakings (Modification of Charges) Act, 1921;
"The Minister" means the Minister of Health;
"Prescribed" means prescribed by these Rules.

(3) The Interpretation Act, 1889, applies to the interpretation of these rules as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

2. An application to the Minister for an Order under the Act shall be addressed to the Secretary, Ministry of Health, Whitehall, London, S.W.1, and shall specify the provisions which it is desired that the Minister should include in the Order.

3. The application shall be accompanied by the prescribed fee and by the following documents:—

(1) In the case of an application made under paragraph (a) of sub-section (1) of section 1 of the Act—

(i) A statement of the grounds on which the application is made, including such comparative statements of cost under different headings and of other matters as may be necessary or desirable in connection with the application.

(ii) A tabulated statement of the accounts and balances of the several financial years commencing with the year which includes the 4th August, 1912, to the date of the application in the form specified in the First or Second Schedule hereto (as the case may require) with such additional entries as may appear desirable in any particular case, together with estimated figures in respect of the year in which the application is made and of the first full year in which the proposed charges are to operate.

(iii) A copy of the published accounts for each of those years.

(iv) A statement of the charges made in each of those years for the various kinds of supply and the dates and particulars of any increases of such charges.

(v) A statement of the capital commitments, definite and prospective, of future years for such period as it may be desirable or possible to estimate the same, together with an estimate of the variations in loan service charges during those years.

(vi) A statement showing how it is estimated that the revenue account will work out during a similar term of years.

(vii) A list of all Acts and Orders relating to the undertaking and a reference to the provisions thereof regulating the charges and application of revenue.

(viii) One copy of each of such of the last-mentioned Acts and Orders as regulate the charges and application of revenue of the undertaking, or, if a copy of any such Act or Order is not available, a certified extract comprising the relevant provisions thereof.

(2) In the case of an application made under paragraph (b) of sub-section (1) of section 1 of the Act—

(i) The documents specified under (i), (iii), (vii) and (viii) of the preceding paragraph of this rule.

(ii) A copy of the award or agreement which it is desired to modify

(iii) A statement of the charges made under the award or agreement in each year since 1st April, 1912, to the date of the application, and the revenue thereby produced.

(iv) A statement showing the cost for each year of supply by measure per 1,000 gallons, and the cost of any fittings, materials, or service in connection with such supply.

(v) A statement of the losses in each year arising from the award or agreement.

(vi) A statement of the estimated income for the first year on the proposed revised charges and the estimated consumption of water.

(3) In the case of an application made under sub-section (2) of section 1 of the Act by water undertakers—

The documents specified in paragraph (1) of this article with such modifications in respect of dates as are necessary in the circumstances of the case.

(4) In the case of an application made under sub-section (2) of section 1 of the Act by a local authority not being the water undertakers or by twenty consumers—

(i) A statement of the grounds on which the application is made.

(ii) Such of the documents required in the case of applications by water undertakers as the applicants may be in a position to furnish.

4.—(1) The applicants for an Order shall as soon as may be after transmitting the application to the Minister serve a notice thereof in the form specified in the Third Schedule hereto, or in a form substantially to the like effect—

(a) Upon every local authority the whole or any part of whose area is within the limits of supply;

(b) If the applicants are not themselves the water undertakers, upon the water undertakers;

(c) Upon all parties to any award or agreement which it is desired to modify; and shall publish the notice once in each of two successive weeks in some local newspaper or newspapers circulating throughout the limits of supply and once in the London Gazette.

(2) From and after the date of the application until the determination thereof the applicants shall keep deposited at their offices or at some other place approved by the Minister copies of the application and of all documents submitted to the Minister in connection therewith, and shall allow the same to be inspected and copied by any persons interested and shall supply copies thereof in accordance with the terms of the prescribed notice.

5.—(1) As soon as may be after the latest date fixed by the notice for the making of representations and objections the applicants shall transmit to the Minister—

(i) A copy of each newspaper containing an advertisement of the notice.

(ii) A certificate that the requirements of paragraph (1) of rule 4 have been complied with endorsed with a list of the recipients, giving in each case the date and mode of service.

(iii) A list of all representations and objections received by the applicants, together with their observations upon each, and a certificate that paragraph (2) of this rule has been complied with.

(2) Before the date on which the documents mentioned in the preceding paragraph of this rule are transmitted to the Minister the applicants shall transmit by registered post to each person from whom a representation or objection has been received a copy of their observations thereon.

6.—(1) As soon as may be after the receipt of the documents specified in the preceding rule, the Minister shall inquire of each person who has made an objection to the application whether, after considering the observations made in reply thereto by the applicants, he intends to maintain his objection, and shall inform him that if he does so intend he must within 14 days notify his intention to the Minister and at the same time transmit to the Minister the prescribed fee.

(2) If a person who has made an objection to the application does not, within the said period of 14 days, notify the Minister of his intention to maintain the objection and also transmit the prescribed fee, the objection shall at the expiration of that period be deemed to be withdrawn.

(3) A notice of objection given to the Minister under sub-section (2) of section 2 of the Act shall not be effectual for the purposes of that section unless accompanied by the prescribed fee.

7.—(1) The expenses incurred by the Minister in respect of inquiries or other proceedings under the Act or any part thereof shall, if the Minister so orders, be paid by the applicants or objectors in such manner or out of such funds as the Minister may direct, and the Minister may certify the amount of the expenses so incurred, and any sum so certified and directed by the Minister to be paid by any applicants or objectors shall be a debt from that applicant or person to the Crown.

(2) Such expenses may include the salary of any inspector or officer of the Minister engaged in the inquiry or proceeding, not exceeding three guineas a day.

(3) The Minister and his inspectors shall have for the purposes of any inquiry under the Act the same powers as they respectively have for the purpose of an inquiry under the Public Health Act, 1875.

8.—(1) The Minister may in the case of any application or objection require the applicant or the objector to furnish such further information or documents as the Minister may think fit.

(2) The Minister may, subject to the provisions of the Act, dispense with any of the requirements of these rules, either unconditionally or upon such conditions as he may think fit, if he is satisfied that there is reasonable cause for such dispensation and that no person will be prejudiced thereby.

9. The fees payable by persons making applications or objections under the Act shall be the fees specified in the fourth schedule to these rules: Provided that the Minister may, if in any case he thinks it proper to do so, refund the whole or any part of the fee paid by an objector.

WATER, ENGLAND AND WALES.

SUPPLY UNDER GAS AND WATER WORKS FACILITIES ACTS.

THE WATER ORDERS PROCEDURE RULES, 1926, DATED 1ST OCTOBER, 1926, MADE BY THE MINISTER OF HEALTH UNDER THE GAS AND WATER WORKS FACILITIES ACTS.

Whereas by section 4 of the Gas and Water Works Facilities Act, 1870 (hereinafter referred to as "the Act of 1870") it is enacted that Provisional Orders authorising any gas undertaking or water undertaking under the authority of that Act may be obtained by any company, companies, or person, and by section 5 provision is made with regard to the procedure to be followed in making application for such Provisional Orders;

And whereas by section 14 of the Gas and Water Works Facilities Act, 1870, Amendment Act, 1873 (hereinafter referred to as "the Act of 1873") the Board of Trade were empowered from time to time to make and when made to rescind, annul, or add to rules with respect to the procedure to be had before the Board under the Act of 1870 or the Act of 1873 and matters connected therewith;

And whereas in the month of August, 1886, the Board of Trade made Rules with respect to Provisional Orders and other matters under the Acts of 1870 and 1873;

And whereas by the Ministry of Health (Transfer of Powers as to Water Undertakings) Order, 1920, made under section 3 of the Ministry of Health Act, 1919, by His Majesty in Council all the powers and duties of the Board of Trade under the Act of 1870 and the Act of 1873 in relation to water undertakings in England and Wales have been transferred to the Minister of Health, but the Board of Trade still retain the powers and duties vested in them by the said Acts with reference to gas undertakings:

Now, therefore, the Minister of Health, in pursuance of his powers in that behalf, hereby rescinds and annuls the aforesaid Rules made by the Board of Trade in so far as those Rules relate to water undertakings in England and Wales, and hereby makes the following Rules:—

Appendix II.

Preliminary.

1. These Rules may be cited as "the Water Orders Procedure Rules, 1926," and shall come into operation on the date hereof.

2.—(1) In these Rules, unless the context otherwise requires,—

(a) "The Minister" means the Minister of Health;

(b) "The district" means the district affected or proposed to be affected by the Order;

(c) Other expressions have the same meanings as the like expressions have in the Act of 1870.

(2) The Interpretation Act, 1889, applies to the interpretation of these Rules as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

Notice as to Objections to Intended Application.

3. The notice in writing required to be given by paragraph (1) of section 5 of the Act of 1870 and the notice by advertisement and notice in writing required to be given by paragraph (2) of that section, shall state that every person desirous of bringing before the Minister of Health any objection respecting the application for a Provisional Order may do so by letter addressed to the Secretary, Ministry of Health, Whitehall, London, S.W.1., on or before the 15th day of January next following the date of the said notice or advertisement, that a copy of such objection must at the same time be sent to the undertakers or their agent, and that in forwarding to the Minister such objection the objectors or their agents shall state that they have complied with this requirement.

Deposit of Plans and Sections.

4.—(1) On or before the 30th day of November of the year in which the notice referred to in Rule 3 hereof is given (hereinafter referred to as "the same year") the undertakers shall deposit at the offices of the Minister:—

(a) The documents required under Part II. of Schedule B to the Act of 1870 to be so deposited, and

(b) an ordnance map of the district on a scale of not less than one inch to the mile showing the area and, by distinctive colouring, the boundaries of the proposed or existing limits of supply, the sites of any proposed works and any proposed extension of the existing limits of supply.

(2) Plans and sections deposited under Part II. of Schedule B of the Act of 1870 or under paragraph (a) of sub-division (1) of this Rule shall be such plans and sections as would be required by the Standing Orders for the time being of the Houses of Parliament to be deposited in Parliament if the undertakers instead of applying for a Provisional Order were proceeding by a Private Bill.

(3) Plans and sections deposited with the Clerk of the Peace under Part II. of Schedule B of the Act of 1870 shall, subject to the Standing Orders for the time being of the Houses of Parliament, be deposited in duplicate.

Notice of Intention to make Application.

5. On or before the 15th day of December in the same year where the application is for a Provisional Order for constructing water works or works connected therewith whereby it is proposed to lay any pipes along or across any railway, tramway, canal, or navigable river, or over any county bridge, or otherwise to affect or interfere with such railway, tramway, canal, navigable river or county bridge, the undertakers shall serve notice in writing of the intention to make such application upon the owner or reputed owner and upon the lessee or reputed lessee of such railway, tramway or canal, and upon the county council with respect to such county bridge, and upon the conservators or other body having statutory powers of control in respect of the navigable river, and such notice shall state the place or places at which the plans of the works to be authorised by such order have been or will be deposited, and that any objections are required to be sent to the Minister within the time and in the manner hereinbefore specified. Every such notice must be accompanied by a copy of Rules 11 and 12 of these Rules, and must state where copies of the Draft Provisional Order, when deposited at the offices of the Minister, can be obtained.

Appendix II.

6.—(1) On or before the 23rd day of December in the same year the undertakers shall deposit at the offices of the Minister—

(a) The documents required under Part III. of Schedule B to the Act of 1870 to be so deposited.

(b) A complete list of every railway, tramway, canal, navigable river, and county bridge, along or across which it is proposed to lay any pipe, or which it is proposed otherwise to affect or interfere with, together with the names and addresses of the persons or bodies on whom notice is to be served in respect thereof under Rule 5.

(c) A list of the local and road authorities in whose districts the proposed works are situated, including the county council, where it is proposed to interfere with any [county road] (a) or any county bridge.

(d) A complete list of every company, corporation, or person supplying water within the district.

(e) A complete list of such owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees and occupiers of mills and manufactories or other works as are referred to in paragraph (2) of section 5 of the Act of 1870, together with a certified copy of the notice which has been served upon them in accordance with the provisions of the said paragraph.

(f) A statement of the existing capital (including loan capital) of the undertakers, showing the amounts respectively authorised, raised, and expended, and in the case of an application for powers to raise additional capital (including loan capital), a further statement setting forth, under separate heads, all the purposes for which the additional capital is required. The statements shall be furnished whether the undertakers have parliamentary powers or not.

(g) A copy of the printed accounts presented to the shareholders for the half-year or other period next preceding the date of the application.

(h) The deed of conveyance or lease to, or the contract for purchase by, the undertakers of all lands to be used for the purposes of the Order.

(i) A list of all Provisional and other Orders or Acts of Parliament (if any) of the undertakers together with one copy of each Order and Act; and where the undertakers are a company incorporated under the Companies Acts, a printed copy of the Memorandum of Association, Articles of Association, and any registered special resolution of the company; and in the case of a company incorporated in any other manner a copy of every instrument of incorporation.

(j) A fee of fifty pounds by cheque made payable to the Minister of Health: Provided that such further security, if any, shall be given by the undertakers as the Minister may from time to time require with respect to the costs of any inquiry or other matter arising out of the application.

(2) The draft of the Provisional Order deposited with the Minister shall be in triplicate.

(3)—(a) The draft of the Provisional Order and the printed copies thereof referred to in Part III. of Schedule B to the Act of 1870 shall be on foolscap paper and be printed on one side only of each sheet of paper, and any schedule thereto shall begin on a new page.

(b) Any land proposed to be acquired shall be scheduled to the draft Order.

(c) The names and addresses of the agent of the undertakers shall be printed on the outside of the draft Order, which shall contain a notice at the end of it stating that any objections are required to be sent to the Minister within the time and in the manner hereinbefore specified.

(4) A copy of the draft Order shall on the 23rd day of December aforesaid, or within seven days thereafter, be deposited with the Office of Works, the Commissioners of Crown Lands, the Home Office and the Postmaster-General and, where the draft Order affects the Duchy of Lancaster or the Duchy of Cornwall, at the Office of such Duchy.

(a) "County road" is substituted for "main road" in pursuance of s. 29 (1) L.G.A., 1929, ante, p. 1884.

Approval of Shareholders or Proprietors.

7.—(1) Where the undertakers are a company (a) applying for capital or borrowing powers, or (b) proposing to purchase or amalgamate with another undertaking or to enter into an agreement with another undertaking jointly to supply water, a certified copy of a resolution approving the application passed by shareholders or stockholders qualified to vote at ordinary meetings of the company who were present (either in person or by proxy) at a general meeting, and who held at least three-fourths of the paid-up capital of the company represented by the votes at such meeting, shall be furnsihed to the Minister before the application can be entertained. A certified copy of the notice convening the meeting must also be furnished.

(2) Where the undertakers propose to purchase, or to amalgamate with another undertaking, or to enter into an agreement with another undertaking jointly to supply water, proof must also be furnished that the purchase or amalgamation is approved by the proprietors of the other undertaking concerned.

Proof of Compliance with Statutory Requirements.

8.—(1) The undertakers shall prove compliance with the provisions of—

(i) Section 5 and Parts I., II. and III. of Schedule B of the Act of 1870; and
(ii) these Rules:

by statutory declaration made by the undertakers or their agent to be deposited in the offices of the Minister on or before the 15th day of January immediately succeeding the making of the application or such later date as the Minister may allow.

(2) The following documents shall be annexed as exhibits:—

(a) Copies of all notices served upon local authorities, road authorities, companies, corporations and persons in pursuance of the Act of 1870 and of these Rules;
(b) Copies of the newspapers containing the advertisements; and (c) A copy of the London Gazette in which the advertisement was inserted.

9.—(1) On or before the 15th day of January aforesaid there shall be deposited in the offices of the Minister,—

(a) a statutory declaration showing that the requirements of the Standing Orders of both Houses of Parliament have been complied with, as regards the deposit with the Clerk of the Parliaments and at the Private Bill Office of duplicates of every map, plan, section, and book of reference deposited with the Minister; and
(b) a statutory declaration proving compliance with the Standing Order of the House of Commons with regard to the taking of houses occupied wholly or partially by thirty or more persons of the working classes, or where the taking of the land will not involve the acquisition of any house or houses so occupied, a statutory declaration for the purpose of showing that the Standing Order does not apply.

(2) The statutory declaration referred to in paragraph (1) (a) of this Rule shall be made by the undertakers or their agent and by the person by whom the deposits were made, and the statutory declaration referred to in paragraph (1) (b) of this Rule shall be made by the undertakers or their agent.

Objections.

10.—(1) Any objection to an application for a Provisional Order shall be lodged with the Minister on or before the 15th day of January immediately succeeding the making of the application.

(2) When an objection is lodged with the Minister, the objector or his agent shall state that he has at the same time forwarded a copy of such objection to the undertakers or their agent.

(3) Every memorial, objection, and other such document deposited or lodged with the Minister shall be on foolscap paper.

(4) As soon as practicable after the 15th day of January, the undertakers shall furnish the Minister with replies to any objections which have been made. A copy of the reply to each objection shall at the same time be sent to the objector or his agent.

Proposals for Amendment of Draft Order.

11. If any local or road authority, or railway, tramway or canal company, or any other company, body or person desires to have any clause or other amendment inserted in the Order they must deliver the proposed clause or amendment to the undertakers or their agent and also to the Minister on or before the 8th day of February immediately succeeding the making of the application: Provided that such delivery shall not prejudice the right of the party making such delivery to oppose the Order in Parliament.

12.—(1) On or before the 22nd day of February immediately succeeding the making of the application the undertakers or their agent shall deliver to the Minister (a) a printed draft of the Provisional Order in triplicate containing in manuscript all such clauses or other amendments as have been agreed between the several parties concerned, and (b) a certified copy of any resolution passed before that date by any local authority and by any road authority (where such exists distinct from the local authority for the purposes of the Act of 1870), whose consent is required under section 4 of the Act of 1870, approving the application.

(2) If any of the proposed clauses or other amendments which have been delivered to the undertakers or their agent and to the Minister have not been settled with the consent of all the parties concerned, the undertakers or their agent shall, so far as they can, on or before the 22nd day of February immediately succeeding the making of the application furnish to the Minister in writing a statement showing what are the amendments, if any, which each party would be willing to accept.

(3) After the said 22nd day of February no further proposals for clauses will be entertained by the Minister.

Procedure after Making of Order.

13.—(1) After a Provisional Order has been made, and before it is introduced into a Confirmation Bill in Parliament, the undertakers shall, within fourteen days after the day on which the Provisional Order shall have been sent to them by the Minister, transmit to him a statutory declaration made by them or their agent proving that the Provisional Order was published on or before the 25th day of April immediately succeeding the making of the Order, in conformity with paragraph 3 of Part IV. of Schedule B of the Act of 1870, and that paragraphs 1 and 2 of the said part of that Schedule have been complied with.

(2) Copies of the Provisional Order and of the newspaper containing the advertisement of the Order, shall be annexed to the declaration as exhibits.

(3) The advertisement shall have a short heading stating that the Order has been made by the Minister under the Act of 1870 for the purpose of being introduced into a Confirmation Bill in Parliament, and must also state the office where printed copies of the Order can be obtained, which shall be the office named in the original advertisement of the application for the Order.

(4) The declaration shall state that a sufficient number of printed copies of the Order have been deposited for sale at the office named in the original advertisement, and the price, not exceeding one shilling for each copy, for which they may be obtained.

Application for Extension of Time for Authorised Works.

14. Where an application is made to the Minister under section 11 of the Act of 1870 for a prolongation of time for the commencement or the completion of water works authorised by any Order made under that Act:—

(a) The application shall be in the form of a memorial setting forth the grounds on which the application is made, and shall be made at least one month before the expiration of the time prescribed for the commencement or the completion of the works, as the case may be.

(b)—(i) The undertakers shall publish by advertisement, once at least in two successive weeks, in some newspaper circulating in the district, a notice of their intention to apply to the Minister for a prolongation of time.

(ii) The notice must state the period to which it is proposed to prolong the time limited for the commencement or the completion of the works, as the case may be, and shall contain a notification that all persons desirous of bringing before the Minister any objection respecting the application, may do so by letter addressed to the Secretary, Minister of Health, Whitehall, London, S.W.1, to be received by him on or before a day named in the notice, being not less than twenty-one days from the date of the first publication of the notice, and that copies of their objections shall, at the same time, be sent to the undertakers.

(c) Before the second publication of the notice a notice containing the particulars set forth in paragraph (b) of this Rule shall be delivered to every local and road authority and to every person supplying water within the district, and in the case of water which is authorised by an Order to be abstracted from a stream, to the owners, lessees, and occupiers of mills, manufactories, and other works referred to in paragraph (2) of section 5 of the Act of 1870.

(d) Copies of newspapers containing the notice, and a statement that a copy of it has been duly served on all the parties above mentioned, as required by these Rules, shall be sent to the Minister with the application.

(e) The consent of the Minister to the application shall be subject to such conditions if any, as he may think fit to impose.

15. The Minister may, if he thinks fit, and subject to such conditions as he may impose, exercise his powers under the Act of 1870, notwithstanding the failure of the undertakers to comply with any of the requirements of these Rules other than statutory requirements.

ADDENDUM TO OFFICERS.

CIRCULAR No. 294 (ROADS).

MINISTRY OF TRANSPORT, Roads Department,
7, Whitehall Gardens, S.W.1.
June 26th, 1929.

SURVEYORS' SALARIES AND TRAVELLING EXPENSES.

GRANTS FROM THE ROAD FUND TO COUNTY COUNCILS AND RURAL DISTRICT COUNCILS UNDER SECTION 17 (2) OF THE MINISTRY OF TRANSPORT ACT, 1919.

SIR,—I am directed by the Minister of Transport to acquaint you that he has had under review the question of the grants made from the Road Fund, under section 17 (2) of the Ministry of Transport Act, 1919, towards the salaries and travelling expenses of highway surveyors to county councils and rural district councils having regard to the changes in highway administration which will become effective on the 1st April, 1930, under the provisions of the Local Government Act, 1929.

2. By section 30 of that Act rural district councils will cease to be highway authorities, and the responsibility for the maintenance of roads in a rural district will pass to the county council. The Minister is advised that under the terms of section 17 (2) of the Ministry of Transport Act, 1919, it will no longer be open to him to make grants towards the salary of an officer of a rural district council, even though the functions of the county council with respect to the maintenance, repair and improvement of certain roads in the district may have been delegated to the rural district council by the county council in pursuance of section 35 of the Local Government Act, 1929.

3. The Minister accordingly proposes that from 1st April, 1930, the following basis shall be adopted for any agreements that shall be entered into by him under section 17 (2) of the Ministry of Transport Act, 1919, to defray half the approved salary and establishment charges of the highway surveyor to a county council :—

(1) As soon as may be after the commencement of each financial year the county council will forward a statement showing the personnel, the organisation and the salaries of the county highway supervisory staff.

The salaries of this staff in so far as they are attributable to the discharge of highway functions, will, if approved by the Minister, be accepted for a grant under the agreement. Where an officer is not wholly employed upon highway duties, a proper apportionment should be made showing the amount of salary attributable to those duties.

Supplementary statements can be submitted if additions are made to the highway supervisory staff later in the year.

(2) The statement referred to in paragraph (1) should be confined to the county surveyor himself, his deputy, assistant or divisional surveyors or engineers and also any engineers engaged for particular works, and surveyors employed on building line and improvement line surveys, etc. Where, however, an agreement has been entered into by a county council and a rural district council under the proviso to section 120 of the Local Government Act, 1929, for the joint user by both councils of the services of a surveyor or engineer, the portion of the salary of such officer which is paid by the county council as representing his highway duties, will also be accepted for grant.

(3) The reasonable travelling expenses incurred on highway duties by the county surveyor himself will be accepted for grant, subject to the conditions at present in force, but not the travelling expenses of any member of his staff.

If any member of the staff is paid an inclusive salary to cover travelling expenses, an allocation must be made in the statement referred to in paragraph (1) above of the portion of the salary attributable to travelling expenses and this will be deducted in arriving at the portion of the salary to be accepted for grant.

4. The grants indicated above will, save in very special circumstances, constitute the only direct assistance from the Road Fund after 31st March, 1930, towards expenditure incurred by county councils on engineering or surveying staff and establishment charges. Expenditure under these headings under normal conditions will no longer be admitted for grant in connexion with particular works or surveys.

5. The agreements heretofore entered into with Highway authorities under section 17 (2) of the Ministry of Transport Act, 1919, in respect of contributions from the Road Fund towards the surveyor's or engineer's salary and travelling expenses contain a provision requiring the Minister to give six months' notice of his intention to discontinue the contributions. The Minister, therefore, hereby gives formal notice of his intention to discontinue on the 31st March, 1930, all contributions under existing agreements with county councils and rural district councils with a view to entering into fresh agreements with county councils as from 1st April, 1930, on the lines indicated in this Circular Letter.

6. Two further copies of this Circular Letter are enclosed for transmission to the highway surveyor and the accounting officer of your Council.

I am, Sir,
Your obedient servant,
H. H. PIGGOTT,
Assistant Secretary.

Clerk to the Council.

ADDENDA TO RATING AND VALUATION.

THE RATING AND VALUATION (FORMS OF DEMAND NOTE) RULES, 1930.

PROVISIONAL RULES, DATED FEBRUARY 5, 1930, MADE BY THE MINISTER OF HEALTH UNDER SECTION 58 OF THE RATING AND VALUATION ACT, 1925 (15 & 16 GEO. 5, C. 90), FOR PRESCRIBING THE FORMS OF DEMAND NOTES TO BE USED BY RATING AUTHORITIES.

Whereas by section 7 of the Rating and Valuation Act, 1925, provision is made with regard to the inclusion of certain information in the demand notes on which general rates and special rates are levied:

And whereas by section 58 of the said Act it is provided that the Minister of Health, after consultation with any local authority or association of local authorities with whom consultation appears to him to be desirable, may by rules prescribe the form of any demand note or other document whatsoever which is required or authorised to be used under or for the purposes of the Act:

And whereas, consequent upon the coming into operation of the Local Government Act, 1929, and the changes therein provided for, it is expedient to supersede by the Rules hereinafter contained the Rating and Valuation Act (Forms of Demand Note) Rules, 1926), made under the said section 58:

Now therefore, the Minister of Health hereby certifies, under section 2 of the Rules Publication Act, 1893, that on account of urgency the following rules should come into operation immediately, and, after such consultation as is mentioned above, by virtue of the powers conferred upon him by the said section 58 and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf, hereby makes the following rules, to come into operation forthwith as Provisional Rules:—

1.—(1) These Rules may be cited as the Rating and Valuation (Forms of Demand Note) Rules, 1930, and shall come into operation on the date hereof.

(2) In these Rules,—

"demand note" does not include a demand note issued in respect of any rating period beginning before the 1st day of April, 1930;

"the Act" means the Rating and Valuation Act, 1925;

"equivalent in terms of a rate in the pound" means in relation to any sum the poundage of the rate which it would be necessary to levy to produce that sum and for this purpose the product of a rate of a penny in the pound shall be a sum estimated in the manner prescribed by Rule 6 of the Rating and Valuation Act (Product of Rates and Precepts) Rules, 1929 (a).

2.—(1) Every demand note for a general rate shall incorporate form A, form B or form C in the schedule hereto, as the case may be, or a form substantially to the like effect, modified, where necessary, to meet the case of a rate made payable in instalments.

(2) Every demand note for a special rate shall incorporate form D in the schedule hereto, or a form substantially to the like effect, modified, where necessary, to meet the case of a rate made payable in instalments.

(3) Subject to the provisions of Rule 3 the rating authority shall in preparing any demand note enter in the several columns particulars in accordance with the headings thereto.

3.—(1) As regards hereditaments in respect of which an allowance may be claimed under paragraph (a) of subsection (1) or under subsection (2) of section 11 of the Act, the rating authority,—

(a) in any case where the amount due from an owner in respect of a group of two or more hereditaments is shown as one total in the rate book, shall, in lieu of entering the particulars as specified in form A, form B, form C, or form D (as the case may be) in the columns appearing upon the demand note, enter those particulars in a schedule in respect of each such group to be attached to the demand note and shall enter on the demand note a reference to such schedule and the total amount of rates shown by the schedule to be due, and

---

(a) See these Rules, ante, p. 3723.

Appendix II.

(b) in any other case shall, in preparing the demand note, insert on the form prescribed by Rule 2 information with respect to the allowance which may be claimed.

(2) The schedule referred to in paragraph (1) (a) of this Rule shall embody such one of the forms of statement J, K, or L, prescribed in the Rate Accounts (Rural District Councils) Order, 1926, and the Rate Accounts (Borough and Urban District Councils) Order, 1926 (b), as may be appropriate.

(3) The rating authority may, if they see fit, make use of a schedule in the manner provided by paragraph (1) of this Rule in any case where a person undertakes to pay the rates in respect of two or more hereditaments but is not entitled to claim any allowance referred to in the said paragraph.

4. A demand note or the schedule attached thereto in accordance with the provision of Rule 3, as the case may be, shall contain such a brief description of the hereditament or hereditaments to which it relates as may be reasonably necessary for the purposes of identification.

5. A demand note shall also include,—

(i) information with regard to the place and mode of payment ; and

(ii) in a rating area in which a resolution under section 8 of the Act (as to discount for prompt payment) is in force, information as to the effect of the resolution (including the date after which payment must be made in full).

6. A rating authority may include in a demand note for rates a demand for any water rate, rent or charge, or other rate, rent or charge payable to them, and may combine in one demand note demands for a general rate and for a special rate, provided that such combined demand note shall be so framed as to include all the information which by the Act and these rules would be required to be given to ratepayers if separate demand notes were issued.

7. There shall be included in every demand note a statement in the form set out in the schedule hereto appropriate to that demand note, or in a form substantially to the like effect, showing, in the manner for which that form provides—

(1) the equivalent in terms of a rate in the pound of the gross estimated expenditure less any income specifically applicable thereto, in respect of—

(a) each service or group of services for which a separate fund account is kept by the rating authority,

(b) each of the services separately set out in a precept received from any authority,

(c) each of the services specified in the form which is not included under the preceding categories (a) and (b), and in respect of which expenditure is to be incurred, and (d) the other services of the rating authority, specifying such of them, if any, as they think fit.

distinguishing by an asterisk, in the manner indicated in the form, each service towards the cost of which a grant payable to the rating authority or County Council by a Government Department is speciaficlly applicable ; and

(2) the equivalent in terms of a rate in the pound of the Exchequer Grants under the Local Government Act, 1929, and, in the case of a rural district council, of any moneys receivable under section 92 of that Act.

8. For the purposes of the last preceding Rule the following provisions shall have effect :—

(1) The expression " separate fund account " includes—

(a) in relation to expenses chargeable on part only of a rating area, the separate account or accounts of such expenses,

(b) in relation to any service for which by law separate accounts are required to be kept, the separate revenue account kept therefor.

(2) In calculating the amount to be shown for the purposes of any service or group of services, there shall be included any sums required for repayment of, or for interest on, moneys borrowed for that service or group of services.

(b) See these Forms at pp. 3678, 3679, ante.

Appendix II.

(3) Where the aggregate amount in the pound which would otherwise have been levied by the rating authority has been varied in order to give effect to any differential rating requirements to which effect has to be given by the rating authority, a note shall be made on the statement showing the extent of, and reason for, such variation.

9. The Rating and Valuation Act (Forms of Demand Note) Rules, 1926, except as regards demand notes for any rate in respect of any rating period beginning before the 1st day of April, 1930, are hereby rescinded.

(L.S.)

E. H. Rhodes,
Assistant Secretary, Ministry of Health.

THE RATING AND VALUATION (FORMS OF PRECEPT—COUNTY COUNCILS) RULES, 1930.

PROVISIONAL RULES, DATED FEBRUARY 5, 1930, MADE BY THE MINISTER OF HEALTH UNDER SECTION 58 OF THE RATING AND VALUATION ACT, 1925 (15 & 16 GEO. 5, C. 90), FOR PRESCRIBING FORMS OF PRECEPTS TO BE USED BY COUNTY COUNCILS.

Whereas by section 9 of the Rating and Valuation Act, 1925, provision is made with respect to precepts to be issued to rating authorities by councils of counties in respect of any period beginning on or after the first day of April, 1929; and by subsection (5) of that section such councils are required on issuing any such precept to supply to the rating authority such information as is reasonably necessary for the preparation of demand notes in accordance with the provisions of Part I of the Act;

And whereas by section 58 of the said Act it is provided that the Minister of Health, after consultation with any local authority or association of local authorities with whom consultation appears to him to be desirable, may by rules prescribe the form of any return or other document whatsoever which is required or authorised to be used under or for the purposes of the Act;

And whereas by the Rating and Valuation (Forms of Demand Note) Rules, 1930, made by the Minister of Health under the said section 58, rating authorities are required to include in any demand note a statement giving certain information with respect to services administered by the County Council;

And whereas consequent upon the coming into operation of the Local Government Act, 1929, the changes therein provided for, and the making of the said rules it is expedient to supersede by the rules hereinafter contained the Rating and Valuation Act (Forms of Precept—County Councils) Rules, 1929, made under the said section 58:

Now therefore, the Minister of Health hereby certifies, under section 2 of the Rules Publication Act, 1893, that on account of urgency the following rules should come into operation immediately, and, after such consultation as is mentioned above, by virtue of the powers conferred upon him by the said section 58 and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf, hereby makes the following rules, to come into operation forthwith as Provisional Rules :—

1.—(1) These rules may be cited as the Rating and Valuation (Forms of Precept—County Councils) Rules, 1930, and shall come into operation on the date hereof.

(2) These rules shall not apply to any precept issued by the London County Council.

(3) In these Rules, " equivalent in terms of a rate in the pound " means in relation to any sum and any area the poundage of the rate which would be levied on that area under precept of the County Council if that sum formed the subject of a separate precept.

2. Every precept issued by a County Council under section 9 (2) of the Rating and Valuation Act, 1925, in respect of any period beginning on or after the 1st day of April, 1930, shall be in the form set out in the Schedule hereto or in a form substantially to the like effect.

3. Every precept issued by a County Council in accordance with the foregoing Rule shall show :—

(i) the rate in the pound which the Council require the rating authority to levy as part of the general rate ;

(ii) the rate in the pound which the Council require the rating authority to levy as an additional item of the general rate in respect of each part of the rating area on which any expenses are chargeable separately, indicating the part so charged, and the purpose of the charge ;

(iii) in the case of an amount which is not required to be expressed in the precept in terms of a rate in the pound, the amount and purpose of the sum demanded and the area charged.

4.—(1) There shall be included in every such precept a statement in the form set out in the Schedule hereto, or in a form substantially to the like effect, showing, in the manner for which the form provides,

(a) the equivalent in terms of a rate in the pound of the gross estimated expenditure less any income specifically applicable thereto, in respect of each service specified in the form and in respect of such other of their principal services, if any, as the County Council think fit ;

(b) the equivalent in terms of a rate in the pound of the Exchequer Grants payable to the County Council under the Local Government Act, 1929 ; and distinguishing by an asterisk, in the manner indicated in the form, each such service towards the cost of which a grant payable to the County Council by any Government Department is specifically applicable.

(2) In calculating the amount to be shown for the purposes of any service or group of services, there shall be included any sums required for repayment of, or for interest on, moneys borrowed for that service or group of services.

5. Except as regards any precept issued in respect of any period ending on or before the 31st day of March, 1930, the Rating and Valuation Act (Forms of Precept—County Councils) Rules, 1929, are hereby rescinded.

SCHEDULE.

Form of County Council Precept.

Administrative County of...

To the Rating Authority for the { Borough / Urban District / Rural District } of ....

The Council of the above-mentioned County hereby give you notice that in respect of the financial [half-year] [year] beginning on the first day of ...., 19......, they will require from you the proceeds of the rates specified below [subject to such adjustment, by way of addition to those rates, as may be necessary to comply with the provisions of Section 9 (2) (c) of the Rating and Valuation Act, 1925 *] ;

---

* Omit these words in the case of a rural rating authority.

AND they do accordingly hereby require you to levy the said rates as part of the general rate or as additional items of that rate, as the case may require, and to make payments on account thereof to †.. as follows :—
